Good Attendance At Chamber of Commerce Meeting Tuesday Night

Prominent Club Women In Attendance
Announce Drive For Library Funds
Next Week--Will Be Given Hearty Support.

Last Tuesday night the Chamber of Commerce held one of the most enthusiastic and interesting meetings of the year, and was one of the largest in point of numbers for some months. President Shankle called on Rev. C. H. Warren to lead in prayer, but he deferred to Rev. H. L. Patterson, as the newest and youngest of the ministers of the city. Mr. Patterson has recently been called to the Christian Church.

Ernest Fall of the Booster committee told of the efforts of the Rotary members in raising funds for the High School football team that morning. They collected over $80.00 in an hour and a half.

Squire Hagler reported that several highways would undoubtedly be finished next year, and that road construction was progressing as satisfactorily as could be hoped under the circumstances.

Squire McDade, of Obion county, Tennessee, asked that the Chamber assist in securing the endorsement of the government survey of the highway from Fulton to Union City, and a committee will be appointed to accompany him at the next session of the Obion county court, to assist in this work. He reported that Obion county was graveling some 35 to 40 miles of road and the work was progressing satisfactorily.

A copy of the map issued by the National Highway Association and American Chamber of Commerce was shown which has the Mississippi Valley Highway outlined in blue from Canada to New Orleans. The Highway is made particularly prominent by a big blue arrow pointing to Fulton, Ky. Action on the purchase of these maps was deferred till the next meeting.

Mrs. J. C. Brann, president of the Woman's Club, was introduced by President Shankle, and she explained that the library was in need of funds and that Mrs. Ramsey Snow was the chairman of the committee in charge of this campaign and would state her case. Mrs. Brann made a splendid talk on the needs of a public library and the good it did in a community. Mrs. Snow followed and explained that a big booster meeting would be held on Thursday night of this week in the Chamber of Commerce rooms and asked that everyone attend and help organize the drive that was to follow. The goal is set as $1000. Several others spoke on the uses and benefits of a good library, particularly Professor Meyer, School Superintendent, Reverend Warren and Patterson, Mrs. Williamson, chairman of the Library Board, told of there being 1440 books in the library and over 1200 readers, almost one reader for every book. Mrs. H. T. Smith also commented on the need and value of the library.

Joe Davis asked the aid of the members for the Crippled Children's Society of Kentucky, explaining that there were 12,000 in the State, half of whom were curable, one quarter could be materially helped and the other quarter could be educated to be self-supporting. He asked that members of the Rotary Club who had the drive in charge. Several members also endorsed the work being done for these children and asked for their support with liberal contributions.

Walter Butt made a plea for funds to maintain the visiting nurse and told of the fine work being done by the two nurses now employed, but explained that the work of the visiting nurse would have to be dispensed with unless funds were forthcoming. A committee will be appointed later to take charge of this feature and it was confidently expressed that the necessary funds could be obtained.

The Kentucky Hardware & Implement Company was elected a member of the Chamber.

The financial report of the Chamber read by Secretary Davis showed a balance of something over $500.00 in the treasury.

The entertainment part of the evening, under Chairman H. H. Murphy, was the next number and the readings of little Ruth Nall, accompanied on the piano by Mary Nelle, her sister, were splendidly rendered and greatly enjoyed. Considering that Ruth is but eight years old and her sister only fourteen, the program was decidedly well rendered.

The luncheon was an unexpected treat.

In dismissing the meeting, President Shankle thanked the members for the enthusiasm and interest shown by everyone and urged that there be no denunciation of this spirit, so that the work of the Chamber for the rest of the year be the best of its history.

BILL BOOSTER SAYS

"MERCHANTS SPEND TOO MUCH TIME WORRYING ABOUT COMPETITION, AND NOT ENOUGH THINKING UP NEW WAYS TO PLEASE THEIR CUSTOMERS. USUALLY THE TOWN WHERE THE MERCHANTS ARE THE HOTTEST AFTER-TRADE IS THE TOWN BEST PATRONIZED BY THE SURROUNDING COUNTRY BECAUSE IT HAS THE BEST STORES."

Hickman Courier Advertised for Sale

To Satisfy Judgment Rendered
By Circuit Court

J. E. Melton, master commissioner of Fulton county, is advertising the Hickman Courier for sale to the highest bidder at auction on the 23rd day of October, at the courthouse door in Hickman. The sale was ordered by the Fulton Circuit Court at the September term by virtue of a judgment in the case of J. C. Sexton and W. C. Speer, plaintiffs, against R. B. Roney, et al, defendant. The sale is to satisfy a claim of $8,467.60.

The Courier has had many "ups and downs" within the past sixty-five years of its existence, but this is the first time to our knowledge that the big sledge hammer was lifted against it.

We regret to learn of the Courier's misfortune. Young Roney and his associates probably did the best they could, but the load was too heavy, and as the lean years came, they weakened under the weight of financial reverses.

Hickman is a good town, and deserves a good paper, but it takes money to conduct the business. From past observations, we consider Hickman a good newspaper town. In fact, six or seven years ago we singled out the Courier as being one of the best edited, neatest printed and most prosperous looking publications in Western Kentucky. It was making money too, and we understand has made money since, but not sufficient to meet the obligations contracted.

IN NEW STORE BUILDING

J. E. Boaz, the groceryman, who placed Fulton on the map with his country hams, is now located in his new store building "on the hill." It is a nice place and Mr. Boaz and his son have beautified the premises and arranged his grocery stock in a most inviting manner. The store is located at the corner of Main and Plain streets.

NEW WATER MAIN

The city is now busily engaged in putting down a new water main, connecting Walnut street with State line. The rainy season has handicapped the progress of the work materially, but the pipes will be laid and connections made before freezing weather sets in.

Beloved Woman Passes Away In the Sunset of Life.

After a long, busy and useful life, Mrs. Louise Felts, widow of the late W. P. Felts, passed away at her home Tuesday morning after a lingering illness. The best days of her life were spent in Fulton where she was honored and loved by a large circle of friends who bow their heads in sorrow with the bereaved ones left behind. Her Christian life was beautiful from its beginning to its close, and while she is gone she will live in the hearts of those who knew her best.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. J. V. Freeman Thursday morning, and this beloved woman who had passed the sunset of life is today sleeping in beautiful fairview.

Deceased is survived by one son, Rev. J. H. Felts, of Greenwood, Miss., and one daughter, Mrs. Frank P. Hall, of Nashville, several grandchildren and other relatives.

City Registration Day Set for Tuesday, Oct. 20.

Tuesday, October 20, will be the last chance you will have to register before the November election. Of course, you will want to vote on the $70,000 bond issue for sewerage system and your favorites in the election, but unless you get your registration slip you will be denied this privilege. Officers will be at the regular voting places throughout the city to serve you on October 20, so don't forget to drop in and register.

CAMPAIN FOR FUNDS TO CARE FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN

A drive is being made in Fulton this week to raise our part of a $30,000 fund being raised through the state by the Kentucky Crippled Children's Society. The fund will be used for the treatment of crippled children of which there is reported 6,000 in the commonwealth. Surely, you want to do your part in this great work of helping suffering humanity.

Funds Must Be Raised for Library

Club Women to Canvas Town in Their Annual Drive

By their persistent efforts and hard work, the Woman's Club of Fulton, maintain a real library filled with choicest volumes which is open to the general public. The only means by which they have in keeping the library up to its standard of usefulness and employing the librarian is by public subscriptions, therefore it behooves every good citizen to make his or her donation as liberal as possible when called upon during the drive for funds the coming week. The ladies hope to raise at least one thousand dollars during the campaign, but if it goes over that amount it will all be applied to the library fund.

BEAUTIFUL FLOWERS

In passing the beautiful home of Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Boyd on Washington street, Tuesday morning, the doctor invited us for a stroll through his flower garden. It was a real treat to view the lovely blossoms. The roses were beautiful, about sixty different kinds, all showing that they had been carefully cultivated and cared for by one with knowledge and experience. Dr. Boyd is a great lover of flowers and enjoys working with them. Every spare space is taken up about the premises with some plant to beautify. He also has a number of fruit trees and everbearing strawberries as well as a grape arbor covered with choice varieties.

NEW MARKET AND GROCERY

The Callahan building on Fourth street, which was damaged by fire some months ago, is being rebuilt and beautified. Paul DeMyer, the market king of Fulton, will open an up-to-date meat market and grocery store in the building, with Mr. Otis French in charge, which will be known as the "French Market."

New Orleans has its French market, so why shouldn't Fulton?

Smith-Spring- Holmes Orchestral Quintet

Marks Beginning of Fall and Winter Educational and Musical Attractions

SPONSORED BY MRS. LEE
RUCKER

The Smith-Spring-Holmes Company is headed by two composers of national reputation, Mr. Clay Smith and Mr. Guy Holmes. Both of these gentlemen are exceedingly well known in the music world and at their appearance here on Wednesday evening, October 21, at High School Auditorium, they will feature many of their own compositions which the general public is familiar with.

The Smith-Spring-Holmes Quintet gives a high class educational program and keeps it interesting and entertaining through versatility. There have been stories about the company in 37 different magazines in the past year. Twenty-one standard music publishers and seven phonograph companies carry the name of the company in their catalogs.

The organization features the work of Coyle May Spring Smith, an especially gifted reader and pianologist. For several years the Smith-Spring-Holmes Company has received the highest rating of any musical organizations in the business, according to committee reports. They have appeared 5 times in Duluth, Minn.; 8 times in Nashville, Tenn.; 7 times in Dayton, Wis.; 2 times in Chicago and 6 appearances in Philadelphia, Milwaukee and Shrewsbury, Pa. They have appeared from 2 to 5 times in 20 other cities of the country.

Messrs. Smith and Holmes are artists of rare ability on flute, slide trombone, bass horn, cornet and saxophone. Mrs. Smith is the soprano soloist, reader and pianist with the company. Lotus Spring Holmes is the accompanist and cellist, while Thelma Thrasher is the violinist with the group. The company is exceedingly popular wherever it appears and the coming concert here will mark a big evening among the concert goers of this community.

Tickets are now on sale, at Rucker's Music Shop.

FULTON MAPS OUT PROPOSED SEWERS

A supply of maps pertaining to the proposed sewerage system for the city of Fulton, to be voted upon during the general election, have arrived, coming from the engineer in charge, Frank Wilcox of St. Louis. These maps are clear and distinct showing the exact lines and along the different streets that the sewers will traverse. The local service clubs, together with the Chamber of Commerce, are trying to educate the citizens along the lines that a sewerage system in Fulton is a necessity. Due to an error in the recent ordinance, which was approved by voters, the election on the sewerage had to be offered to the voters in November.

Birthday Party

The double birthday party at Mrs. W. A. Love's, Monday evening of this week, in honor of Mr. W. A. Love, and Mrs. J. F. Williams, was indeed a very interesting affair. Dinner was served at six o'clock, there being present, Mr. H. C. Linton, Miss Frances Swiggart, Mr. R. P. Witty, Miss Vivian Williams, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Williams, and of course, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Love. After dinner a musical program was rendered, and Mrs. Love delighted her guests with several selections on the violin.

YOUNG FOLKS BETTER THAN GENERATION AGO

Rev. E. O. Harbin Speaker at Epworth League Conference

Union City, Tenn., Oct. 12.— The Union City District Institute of the Memphis Conference Epworth League, held its annual session at Union City, October 9 and 10. The institute was largely attended. The hospitality of the Union City folks cannot be surpassed.

After an address of welcome by a Union City leaguer, which was responded to by a leaguer from Fulton, the address of the evening was given by the Rev.
E. O. Harbin, from the central office of the Epworth League, Nashville. His theme was "The Cost of Leadership." He stressed the absolute importance of faith as the prerequisite factor. Faith in yourself and faith in those whom you undertake to lead. We must have faith in our young people.
With proper faith in them and with untiring effort in laboring with them, we can lead them on to a high plane of life and Christian character. He stated and gave argument to prove that the young people of today are better than the young people of a generation ago. In defending their mode of dress he reminded the older ones of us how, 25 years ago, the women's dresses swept the streets, the ridiculous bustle and lacing, and, too, he said, how in the world would a girl manage to get in a Ford if she had on hoop skirts? He threw in just enough fun to hold the attention and delivered a message to every young person present.

After the address a social hour was entered into heartily by every one present. The Union City leaguers serving delicious refreshments.

At the morning session different phases of the league work were discussed by leaguers representing various chapters.

Prof. Evans, of the Union City High School made a talk on the making of a leader. He brought a good message.

In the afternoon the matter of raising some $50,000 for Epworth Hall at Lambuth College, Jackson, was brought before the leaguers.

The Young People's Convention to be held in Memphis, Dec. 31-Jan. 3, was discussed.

A district group committee was appointed. The duty of these committeemen is to help organize chapters in communities where there are no leagues.

The institute was well attended. The young people show a fine spirit all the way through. It was indeed a pleasant and profitable gathering.

QUIETUDE REIGNS SUPREME

The other day I was suddenly conscious of a vast stillness in the downtown district and it took me some time to realize what was the matter, then it suddenly dawned on me that the diabolical noise that has been emanating from the rear of Baldridge's store had quit.

I had heard that a petition had been circulated, some time earlier, but as the horrid sounds still continued, I supposed that the City Fathers had declined to take action, so I hiked over to see what could be the matter, and found that the propi-etor of the skating rink had emulated the "Arab" and folded his tent and more or less silently stolen away.

Just why such a noise should be considered music or why the police should allow such soul-harrowing sounds to be perpetrated, to afflict a long-suffering public, is more than I can understand.

But, anyway, it's gone, and let us hope that the "powers that be" shut out any other so-called music in the future.

A Jay Walker.

CHRISTIAN COUNTY
SHERIFF IS FREED

Officer Held by Grand Jury to Have Acted in Necessary
Self-Defense.

Hopkinsville, Ky.—Sheriff Oscar M. Wilson was exonerated in the shooting of his son-in-law, Leonard Boyd, in the report of the Christian county grand jury of Circuit Judge Charles H. Bush. The opinion is expressed that the shooting was done by Sheriff Wilson in his actual necessary self-defense.

Sheriff Wilson asked for a statement regarding the findings of the grand jury, said, "knowing the conditions as I do, of course, I couldn't expect anything else but I haven't had time to worry about that. In fact, I had hardly given the grand jury in vestigation a thought."

M. L. Boyd, farmer of North Christian and father of the slain deputy stated that the report that he had assured Sheriff Wilson that he held no ill will and considered the sheriff blameless was erroneous. He said that while in the Wilson home arranging for the funeral of his son someone asked him to speak to Sheriff Wilson and assure him that there were no hard feelings, but he replied that he "had no talk" for the sheriff.
The report of the grand jury referring to the tragedy was as follows:

We have made a thorough and careful investigation of the facts surrounding the killing of Leonard H.
Boyd by Sheriff O. M. Wilson on Saturday night, October 3, 1925. Your grand jury had before it all of the eye witnesses to the tragedy and all other witnesses whom they thought could shed any light upon the matter and it is the opinion of the grand jury that the shooting was done by Sheriff Wilson in his actual necessary self-defense.

The grand jury also made a favorable report on the conditions at the Western State Hospital here, stating that the premises are clean and sanitary, the industries maintained result in revenue to the State and that the inmates seem to have every care and attention. A report on the county jail said the sanitary conditions there in were very good with a few exceptions and recommended repairing of some iron bars that were said to be too soft.

Twenty six criminal indictments were returned by the grand jury. It is understood that one indictment is against Hershell Hayes, operator of road house on the Butler road known as the "Zoo" charging him with selling liquor.

TWO SLAIN, TWO DYING
FROM MOUNTAIN DUELS

Brother Slain, Another Shot, Woman Dying at Harlan; 1 Killed in Ameron Affray

Harlan, Ky.—Two men are dead, a woman is believed dying and a fourth participant in one of two gun battles staged near here is in a critical condition.

At Gatton, four miles from Harlan, two brothers, John Neely, 24, storekeeper, and Carl, an ex-convict, fought a pistol duel after Bertha Hyatt and an unidentified woman engaged in a quarrel at John's store. The Hyatt woman was shot five times after Carl was killed by his brother. The other woman fled unscathed.

At Ameron, ten miles distant, John Harris was killed when he and John Jesse Saylor met in a road and began shooting.

Reports of the Neely duel were meager. It is said that the men were intoxicated and intervened when the two women present threatened to come to blows. Carl Neely dropped after he had shot his brother twice, once through the chest, the other striking the backbone. It could not be learned who shot the Hyatt woman, but officers here claim John wounded her, reloading his revolver after killing Carl.

Physicians said that the Hyatt woman's recovery was very doubtful. Two of the bullets lodged in her stomach and three in her limbs.

One version of the affair is that John Neely struck the woman quarreling with Bertha Hyatt, whereupon Carl interposed. The fight then became general and it is believed one of the women also was armed.

While an investigation is under way at the sheriff's office here, no arrests have been made owing to the condition of the wounded. Carl Neely was 28 years old. He had served time several years ago for an offense.

According to reports concerning the shooting of Harris, the two men had an old grudge which it is believed they decided to settle by shooting it out.
Saylor was not wounded, it was said.

Campbell County To Hire
Experts To Probe Gas Rates

Alexandria, Ky.—Campbell county commissioners appropriating $1,000 to be used with funds authorized by an act of the county to employ experts to determine what constitutes a fair gas rate. Officials of Fort Thomas recently rejected a proposed increase in rates from 45 cents to 50 cents per thousand feet and obtained an injunction to prevent discontinuance of gas service to residents of the city. The Power Company will move to dissolve the injunction.

PAUL WRITES TO THE CORIN-THIANS

LESSON TEXT—1 Cor. 13:1-13.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity"—1 Cor. 13:13.

PRIMARY TOPIC—What Love Does
JUNIOR TOPIC—Working Together
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOP-IC—The Greatest Thing in the World
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOP-IC—Love, the Hope of the World.

The occasion of the writing of this epistle was:

1. The existence of rival factions contending each other. Some were for Paul; some for Apollos; some for Peter, and some for Christ. This factious spirit was threatening the disruption of the church.
2. Their failure to carry out church discipline.
3. Their going to law with each

4. Indifference to gross immorality.
5. Letters requesting information as to:

- a. Marriage and divorce.

and festivals.

1. The Pre-eminence of Love (vv.
1-13).

It transcends:

1. Speaking With Tongues (v. 1).
For men to possess the loftiest eloquence and be lacking in love is to be as booming brass or a clanking cymbal.
2. The Gift of Prophecy (v. 2).
To be able to penetrate the mystery of nature and Providence is good, but to love is better.
3. Faith of the Most Vigorous Kind
(v. 2).

Even though one should have sufficient vital faith as to remove mountains it is of less value than love.

4. Philanthropy of the Most Generous Sort (v. 3).

Even though one should have such a spirit of altruism as to be moved to surrender all earthly goods for the sake of the poor, unless actuated by love, he would have no recognition before God.

II. The Attributes of Love (vv. 4-7).

1. It Is Long Suffering and Is Kind (v. 4).

It means not only to bear long, but to be kind all the while.

2. It Is Free From Envy (v. 4).

Those who are controlled by love are entirely free from the spirit of envy because of the superior worth and success of others.

3. It Is Free From Boasting and Vanity (v. 4).

Love strives to do good to all without seeking admiration and applause.

4. It Is Decorous (v. 5).

Love is always polite and mannerly; knows how to behave at all times.

5. It Is Unselfish (v. 5).

It is always seeking the good of others while forgetful of self.

6. It Does Not Give Way to Passion (v. 5).

It is not quick tempered.

7. It Takes No Delight in Evil (vv.
5-6).

It does not impute evil motives to others and is free from suspicion.
Love has no sympathy with that which is evil.

8. It Bears All Things (v. 7).

That is, it increases itself in the gracious mantle of love and shuts out all evil.

9. Love Is Trustful (v. 7).

It looks into the future with confidence.

10. Love Is Hopeful (v. 7).

It seizes the things of the future, brings them into the present and appropriates them for its use.

11. Love Is Firm (v. 7).

It intelligently sets its attention to things that are right, and with unvarying strength, holds fast.

III. The Permanence of Love (vv.
8-13).

1. It Outlasts Prophecy (v. 8).

Prophecy in the Scriptures means both a foretelling of events and the teaching of the Word of God.

2. It Outlasts Speaking With Tongues (v. 8).

The race once spoke the same language, but as judgment for sin and rebellion, God brought confusion and caused the people to speak many tongues.

3. It Outlasts Knowledge (v. 8).

The knowledge we now have is only relative, but the day is coming when the relative knowledge shall be done away by the coming in of a wider and nobler intelligence.

Cast forth thy seed, thy word, into the ever living, ever working universe; it is a seed grain that cannot die; unnoticed today, it will be found flourishing as a banyan grove after a thou-

JACK FROST

Jack Frost soon will be king once more in Kentucky. From the northland, where they make the Santa Claus toys, and prindeer feed, he will be back Murro's Mother Earth, scattering jewels of ice as he goes.

When the moon has a cold, whitish glare and the wind dies with the sigh of a departing lover at night, the hoary king will do his wooing.

But if clouds frown during the day, and the wind cools the face of Mother Earth, Jack Frost will stay away.

Radiation of heat from the ground is small when the sky is cloudy. When the earth gives off heat into a chilled atmosphere, a crust of ice crystals is formed on the surface of the ground. This crust is called "frost," "hoar frost," or
"Jack frost."

When the wind is blowing, there is little or no formation of frost. Surface deposits occur only when the air relatively is calm.

When a strong wind blows during extremely cold weather, a "freeze" results, although often there is no frost visible on the ground. In a number of cases, the weather bureau announces that there has been a frost, when ice particles have not been noticeable on the ground. When the temperature gets below 32 degrees, the state is said to have experienced a "killing frost."

Designations of frost are classified as to the extent of damage caused to crops. A "light frost" does comparatively little damage. A "heavy frost" kills tender vegetation, while a "killing frost" causes the death of practically all vegetation above ground.

We have already had a "light frost," but will not look for a "killing frost" before November.

Red Flannels Are Not to Be Found

In Fulton Stores As Winter Approaches With Icy Breath

Certain ones of another generation may cling to their conservative, conservative women to their hair, but old-fashioned red underwear is as prevalent as the Dodo in Fulton. In all the stores, this protection against cold, sleet and snow is as scarce as bathing suits in Iceland, silence at a woman's convention, or what have you?

The old days when they "sewed them up for the winter" in flaming unmentionables, have gone.

"We haven't a pair in the house," one merchant said.
"We used to have a suit or two,
but we sold them about five years ago and haven't had a suit or call for any since. People wear white, or maybe tan, or the new light colored combination."

"Fulton gave up the red flannel combinations when the railroad tore down the fence fronting Lake street," a salesman in another place said.

One store, of later vintage, has never carried the arch enemy of Boreas thirty years ago.

And so the dizzy world has changed, say the sellers of clothes, that most men trust their pneumonia to something a shade better than mosquito netting; low-quarter shoes have taken the place of red-topped boots for school boys, and as for the "flappers," their hose follow the mercury downward.

FULTON

"Not the oldest, nor yet the youngest; not the richest, nor yet the poorest; not the largest nor yet the least; but take it all in all, for men and women, for flocks and herds, for fields and skies, for happy homes and loving hearts, the best place outside of Heaven the Good Lord ever made."

FLORIDA RUM HANDLED B BRITISH SYNDICATE

Operations Said to Amount to $500,000 Weekly

Tampa, Fla.—Operations of a British syndicate with ramifications in Plymouth, England, the West Indies, Bahamas and at Gun Key, 50 miles off Florida, is supplying Florida with English and Bahaman liquors valued at $500,000 weekly, Commander Phillip Hambach, assistant prohibition administrator of Florida said today.

Commander Hambach, who has just returned from a tour of inspection of the states and its bordering waters, said this liquor is being retailed at approximately $3,500,000. The syndicate is minutely organized, he said, for operations, not only in importing liquor, but in making overland deliveries.
Their operations are harassed, however, by an equally well-known band of hi-jackers, known as the "Pelicans," operating out of Miami.

Seven vessels and a converted yacht have established a rum row just off the east coast, he declared. They keep their supplies replenished by fast motor and power boats, which Commander Hambach said, can outdistance anything employed at present in the coast guard service. The same boats are used to land the cargo after it is sold.

After visiting the seats of operation between Tampa and Key West, Commander Ham-bach went to Miami, and there, posing as an agent for the purchasers and later as a representative of the British syndicate, he learned much about the operations.

He boarded six schooners and heard many tales of gun battles with the hi-jackers, of methods employed in reaching the bayous and inlets with the contraband and of pirates.

Dumping Authorized By Pool

Will Prosecute None Who Fail to Deliver 1925 Tobacco Crop

Hopkinsville, Ky., Oct. 13.—Seventy thousand members of the Dark Tobacco Growers' Cooperative Association today were given the privilege to dispose of their 1925 crops as they may wish.

This revolutionary action followed the acceptance by the board of directors of a resolution to that effect introduced by Aaron Sapiro, general counsel, by a vote of 18 to 6. The plan, a surprise to most of the members, was adopted with astonishing suddenness, the members said, and declared its effect a matter of conjecture.

Besides this change in policy, numerous offices were abolished at an estimated saving of $150,000 annually. Geoffrey Morgan, general manager, had his salary cut from $15,000 to $6,000 annually.

The following officers were elected: R. D. Farmer, secretary-treasurer; Roy Garrison, chief legal department; Claude R. Clark, director warehouses; W. H. Mears, chief accounting department; C. K. Smith, head salesman; M. W. Broadbent, assistant salesman; C. V. Ezell, manager western district. The salaries of these officials were reported cut from 25 to 50 per cent.

Eleven men comprising the field service department were eliminated, except the publication of the "Tobacco Planter."

The directors felt, Mr. Payne said, that they had made the prices for tobacco in this section for the past three years, and now felt resolved to see what will happen on a normal buy and sell basis.

Stations to Open
The larger receiving stations will open as usual this fall to receive the crops of loyal members, Mr. Payne said. It is probable that the Paducah, Ky., Mayfield, and Fulton stations will open in the western Dark Fired district.

According to Mr. Payne, the association now has on hand, of this tobacco, Mr. Payne said, 1923 and 1924 crops, classified as follows:

1922	19,189,000
1923	44,393,000
1924	13,543,000

The association will pursue an aggressive policy to dispose of 77,025,000 pounds of the 1922.

There is much speculation as to what ultimately will result from the action taken by the board of directors yesterday. It is the opinion of some representatives of the tobacco trade that the action will result in lower prices on the open market, which they believe would result in fewer members of the association dumping their crops than had planned to.

FULTON LIONS ENTERTAINED BY MAYFIELD LIONS CLUB

(Mayfield Messenger)
"Fulton Day" was celebrated throughout the noon luncheon of the Mayfield Lions Tuesday for President W. S. Atkins and eight other members of the Fulton Lions club were guests at today's session.

S. B. Smith, vice president of the local Lions, who presided at the luncheon in the absence of President Tudor Jones, who is ill, issued words of welcome to the visitors, M. C. Payne responded in behalf of the Fulton Lions.

T. P. Smith, president of the City National Bank of this city, and one of the ablest speakers in this section, delivered an address at the luncheon setting forth the duty of a citizen to his country, his community and his town. He was given frequent cheers for his humorous remarks, which were mingled with his deep philosophy of life.

During the session, Dr. H. H. Hunt read a fake telegram from "J. Walker, president of the Cigar factory at Fulton," announcing that the I. C. shops would be moved to Mayfield in the near future and the cigar manufacturer asks that a location in Mayfield be selected for his factory.

The Fulton Lions at the meeting were C. H. Warren, pastor; M. C. Payne, I. C. claim agent; W. L. Roper, merchant; Heber Finch, attorney; Orville Boaz, druggist; H. H. Murphey, banker; George Roberts, merchant; E. C. Hardesty, manager Kentucky Light and Power company, and President W. S. Atkins, a fire insurance agent.

Railroad News

I. C. to Sell More Preferred Stock

The Illinois Central has applied to the Interstate Commerce Commission to issue $14,218,320 of preferred stock and a like amount of common stock from time to time as may be needed for conservation. The proceeds are to be used in the electrification of the Chicago Terminals.

A Persistent Cuss

Daniel P. Curran, an undertaker of the grand old state of Pennsylvania, is an extremely persistent young man. He holds the record for the number of times an automobile has hit a train in the same accident. Dan was driving near Easton, Pa., and despite the fact that a Lehigh Valley train was already going over a grade crossing, Dan attempted to go over the crossing. He was entirely unsuccessful. His auto hit the train, bounced back, ran into the train once more, again bounced back and hit the train for the third time. There is no telling how many times Dan would have attempted to knock the train off the track, but for the fact that the train had passed and he couldn't very well chase it down the track. Perhaps Dan's business was getting dull, and he thought he might help it along.

The Floridan Set Back to November 1

The Floridan, the Illinois Central's crack train between Chicago and the playground of Florida, will not now be inaugurated until November 1, according to the latest information put out. Heretofore the train has not been inaugurated until December 1, but this year on account of the unusual travel to the southland, it was thought for a while that it would be necessary to put the train on as early as October 18; however, with two sections of the Seminole, each carrying passengers and a dining car, it is now thought that the travel to Florida can adequately be taken care of with this train.

It was also stated that much of the travel that has heretofore gone to Florida, is now going to the coast at Gulfport and Biloxi, Miss. The Illinois Central now has connection to the coast via the new line, the G. & S. I. which they acquired a few months ago, and it is our understanding, have improved the service on this line, bringing it up to their usual standard on other lines. Train number seven, which is the Panama Limited, has been running in two sections on several occasions lately, to take care of the heavy travel to this new playground.

In acquiring the Gulf & Ship Island, the Illinois Central not only increased their business, but it gave them another outlet to the Gulf coast and to another, and to our mind, one of the future playgrounds for the rich man as well as those of moderate means, who can afford vacations in the winter time.

Business on the I. C. has increased so materially in the last sixty days, that all of the men who had been cut off have been recalled, and new men are being taken on daily to take care of the increased business. This is, indeed, a splendid indication that business all over the southland is increasing, because when the railroad business is good, other businesses are good—in fact, the general business of the country, has to increase before that on the railroad can increase.

Fuel Conservation Campaign

The Illinois Central has inaugurated a fuel conservation campaign for the month of October, with a view of reducing the fuel cost on locomotives to the lowest possible minimum, and from the information at hand, much has already been accomplished in this direction. It was pointed out at a recent meeting held in Supt. Williams' office at Fulton, that much can be done in this direction to materially reduce the operating cost, and that the fuel consumption by locomotives cut a large figure in the operating expense.

Mr. C. H. Markham, president of the Illinois Central passed through the city first of the week, returning from Savannah, Ga., where he had been for a few days.

Mr. J. J. Pelley, vice president, passed through the city last Sunday, having been to New Orleans.

General Superintendent Heyron was in the city the first of the week.

Masons Call off All Meetings

Rome-Domizio Torrigliana, grand master of the Masonic order in Italy, issued an order to all lodges to hold no meetings and cease all work until further notice. His action follows the recent Fascist-Mason clashes at Florence, in which several persons were killed.

Signor Torrigliana's order says that it is proposed to suspend all Masonic work until the law abolishing secret societies "shall be made void." This law was laid before Parliament by Premier Mussolini last January and declares all secret societies illegal and gives the government the right to dismiss, instantly, all state employees who belong to such societies.

Snakes Die After Biting Man

San Antonio—Julius Jermy, 62 years of age, taxidermist, boasts that he is so poisonous that little snakes die every time they bite him and he has been bitten 52 times in the last 20 years.

Seventeen different reptiles have bitten Jermy during this period of time, and each, he says, died within from 12 to 48 hours.

Not only that, one snake bit him 35 times in 1905, and died within two hours, while Jermy did not feel the effects of the bite, he says. No explanation of the deaths of the serpentine friends can be made by Jermy, other than that he absorbs so much poison in mounting birds and beasts that his own flesh became deadlier than the venom.

Woman of 49 Goes to Pen

Crown Point, Ind.—Without funds to perfect an appeal to the Indiana supreme court, Mrs. Anna Canning ham, 49, convicted of poisoning her son, Walter, will enter the state penitentiary at Michigan City tomorrow to begin a life sentence for murder. Motion for a new trial was denied.

In a confession obtained in Chicago after her arrest and repudiated during the trial, the gray-haired widow said she had given poison to four of her children, three of whom died. The defense contended the mother was unbalanced mentally at the time the disputed confession was made.

J. B. DUKE, TOBACCO CROESUS, SUCCUMBS

Nervous Breakdown Causes Death of Magnate—Disposed Of Millions

New York—James B. Duke, tobacco manufacturer, died at his home after an illness of several weeks that followed a nervous and physical breakdown.

In one of his last statements before his death, Mr. Duke said his passing would have no effect on the future of his varied interests, as all were in good hands.

For several years Mr. Duke had not taken an active part in the conduct of the many enterprises in which he was interested. Actual management was entrusted to men he had trained, although he frequently went to his New York offices and kept in close touch with business matters.

Mr. Duke always maintained close relations with the farmers, whose products he purchased. In his early years as a tobacco manufacturer, he instructed his buyers to pay the farmers enough for their crops to assure them a living, notwithstanding market conditions.

He became extensively interested in the development of hydro-electric power and established large plants in sections of his native state of North Carolina.

Recently he spent large sums in an effort to discover a method of producing cheap fertilizer for the benefit of the farmer.

Last year he established the Duke Foundation, setting aside $10,000,000. Under its terms, Trinity College, at Durham, N. C., changed its name to Duke University, and an active program of extension was begun.

James Buchanan Duke was born in 1856, near Durham, N. C., and received his education in the country schools. His first connection with the tobacco industry began a few years after the Civil War, when his father, Washington Duke, established the plant which proved to be the nucleus of what later became an institution known around the world. The father took his two sons, Benjamin N. and James B. Duke in the business with him. When James, the younger son, was 13 years old, his father turned the active management of the business over to him. The business grew rapidly and, in 1890, Mr. Duke formed the American Tobacco Company, taking in numerous other concerns.

Some years later, the company was attacked as a monopoly and in 1911, following suit by the government under the Sherman anti-trust law, was dissolved. Mr. Duke, who had been president of the American Tobacco Company, became chairman of the board of the British-American Tobacco Company, one of the subsidiaries, continuing in this office for a number of years.

"GET WISE" In Time.

Why not get wise in time? Why wait till it is too late? People all over the country, north, south, east and west, are getting wise to the ruinous results of out-of-town buying. THINKING people are NOW refusing to patronize out-of-town houses. Are WE going to wait until we are knocked down and run over before we "get wise"? Let us spend our time and money in building up something that is OURS. Patronage of home business means the building up of a strong industrial community of our own. Neglect of home business interests means the building up of a machine that will one day crush us without mercy. Let's build for ourselves, and for our friends and neighbors. Let's "get wise" before it is TOO LATE.

The Lion's Club Memorial Stadium was a deserted village last Tuesday afternoon, except for a few romping children, and this reporter who is a loyal fan. The dearth of spectators did not seem to hinder the Bulldogs and their offspring, the Bull Pups for they were out there on the field playing a game of scrimmaging with the same zest as though the stadium were filled to capacity and Vernon Owen was there with his megaphone.

Because of the almost continuous rain this was the first real football weather—their first chance to get out there and have a good workout.

Under the superb coaching of Bill Hogg and Jim Cullinan the Bulldogs should be off to a fruitful season barring any unforeseen injuries or hard luck.

It was good to see two former members of the squad, Billy Joe Forrest and L. C. Bone out on the field in football uniform again. Both boys were right in there helping in any way they could. It just goes to show you how boys feel about football and Fulton High—once a Bulldog—always a Bulldog.

In the past my only knowledge of football was as a grandstand fullback, but after talking with Coach Hogg and Billy Joe I emerged from my scrimmage session as a Saturday morning quarter-back.

When the team goes out Friday night to meet the Dresden Lions every man in the lineup, with the exception of one, will be a Senior; it will probably be the first time in Fulton High's history that this has happened.

There will be many who will miss last year's graduates, Jack Thorpe, Billy Holland and Jerry Forrest Jerry who made the third team all-star end won a scholarship for his athletic ability and is now playing football for Troy State Teacher's College in Alabama. Jack is on the road to recovery from a broken leg. Billy Holland is aide-de-camp to his father in the operation of two filling stations.

Football has come a long way since those early days of the great rivalry between South Fulton and Fulton High, when all games had to be played in the day time. Electrically lighted fields were a thing unheard of then. Those were the good old days of feudin' and fightin' when such South Fulton members as Boots Rogers, Del Killebrew, Ralph Croft, Nathan Forrest, Joe Bennett and "Stork" Weaver played against Bill Hall, Searcy Callahan, Harold McWhorter, Rowan Love, Syd Pique, A. T. Thompson, Joe Hall, Robert Graham and Leon Bondurant who were on the Fulton High team.

Then as our memory serves a little better we remember such players for Fulton as Buster Shuck and his brother Jim, Wilburn Holloway, Arch Huddleston, Milton Exum and the late Gordon Buckingham. It was Buster who told us about "his day" on the varsity squad. It wasn't too long ago that football games were played at Fairfield Park, which at times, Buster said, the boys on the team did a little weed pulling in order to condition the field for playing. Buster said, "those weeds grew so high sometimes we had to look for the football like we look for a golf ball in the rough."

In no time at all we see the names of Exum, Buckingham, Huddleston, Forrest in the line up again... sitting there surrounded by overcast skies, the drone of cars switching on the railroad in the background...

I couldn't help but think what a change from the old days for both the spectators and the team. When the game is rolled at the Lions Memorial stadium Friday night to see the "Big Blue" participate in the match, with Dresden they will have all the advantages of modern times—an electrically lighted, sodded field, a comfortable concrete stadium large enough to accommodate any crowd, the stadium for the student section across the field, a modern field house, heating completion, a newly uniformed and outstanding band to entertain during the half and to help the cheer leaders keep up the pep—Yes, what a change there has been since we stood in the mud and cold and prayed for the daylight to last until the game was over.

A specially placed...
