The Portsmouth Treaty, now part branch line which falls to her. How-
WON'T DIES
BLACK LOOKS TURNS UP IN DE-SPITE REPORTED GROWN-UP

The "grey corps" came to the city yesterday morning. The Cincinnati Post reports that a Mrs. W. T. Smith of that city was found dead in her home, and that the body had been brought to New York for burial.

The body was identified as that of Mrs. Smith, who was a former resident of Cincinnati. She had been living in New York for many years, and had recently returned to her native city. The cause of death was not immediately known, but it was believed to have been heart failure.

ROBBERY

Several attempts were made to rob the woman yesterday afternoon, but she escaped without injury.

The woman was last seen in her home about 10 o'clock last night. When she did not return, her family became alarmed and went to search for her. They found her body in the street, where she had fallen and died.

The cause of death was heart failure, and the body was removed to the morgue for an examination.

A man was arrested yesterday for attempting to rob a woman in the street. He was released on bail after being questioned by the police.

The man was last seen in the vicinity of the Park Hotel, where he had been staying for the past week. He was described as a short, thin man with dark hair and eyes.

He is expected to be tried in court next week.

MAY BUILD

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will build a new headquarters in this city next spring. The building will be used for meetings and other purposes.

The site for the building has been selected, and plans are being made for its construction.

The building will be built of brick and will be four stories high.

The cost of the building will be $25,000.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union is a national organization devoted to the promotion of temperance and the prevention of drunkenness.
SIX YEARS LATER

Fl. Wattam writes

"I have come to my little boy at last. I was never so happy in all my life."

A VALUABLE PLUM

HANGS WITHIN REACH OF ONE OF TWO MEN

While Your "Plum" Will Be Declared On the Coming Sunday Night.

The top of the opening world of this plum tree, which is growing near the Illinois Central Railroad, will be plucked by two men, one of whom is attending the annual railroad convention in New York this week, and the other who is attending the annual railroad convention in Chicago this week.

The contest will take place on the opening night of the railroad convention in New York. The contest will be held at the Central Railroad Club, which is located on the Illinois Central Railroad.

The contest will be open to all railroad employees, and the prize will be a trip to Europe for two people.

The winning entry will be chosen by a panel of judges, who will be selected from the railroad employees.

The contest will begin at 8 p.m., and the winner will be announced at 10 p.m.

The Illinois Central Railroad has been in operation for over 100 years, and has been a leader in the transportation industry. The railroad has played a significant role in the history of the United States, and has been a source of employment for many people.

IF YOU WERE IN MOTHER'S PLACE?

If you were your mother—

Would you like to have your mother's work for you to do, instead of doing it for her?

Would you like to have her time all taken up with work, instead of the way she used to fill her time, doing things for others?

Would you like to have the work she did for you at home, instead of the way she used to do it?

If you were in her place, how would you like to have her time taken up with work, instead of the way she used to fill her time, doing things for others?
