After the Rain Comes A Bright Sunburst of Bargains

Thrifty Shoppers Reap a Great Harvest
By Taking Advantage of Special
Trade Day Offerings

This Saturday Is Special Trade Day

Come If You Have to Walk
--You May Ride Home

The merchants of Fulton are trying to make Wednesday of each week one of the busiest days; how well they have succeeded, you may judge from the crowds in the stores. It is important that you heed the invitation and be here Wednesday; important that you should come particularly on that day, because special inducements offered may not be had on other days. Of course you will find bargains in Fulton stores every day in the week, but the extraordinary specials on Wednesday—Trade Days.

Trade Day crowds in Fulton resemble circus days. Everybody is wearing a smile, rubbing elbows with his neighbor and eating popcorn and peanuts to beat the band.

Multitudes of inducements of the most surprising character are here to tempt the shrewd shopper. Splendid displays in every store with show windows filled with articles, suggestive of the autumn season. The special sales are just the kind that thousands of buyers hail with delight. Bargains for women, bargains for men, bargains for girls, boys and infants—bargains for everybody.

Brilliant Display of Holiday Goods

Myriads of the World's Newest Things at Bennett's Drug Store

Not in all of its thirty-five years business career in Fulton, has Bennett's Drug Store presented a more beautiful array of holiday goods than displayed today. Too soon for formal openings, but none too soon to see myriads of the world's newest things spread out over the entire store. The liberal early buying indicates that hundreds not only prefer to choose from early offerings, but know well where to go for the choicest gifts. Bennett's Drug Store is splendidly ready, for the early buyer who prefers to go in and "shop 'round" before the formalities of the grand holiday openings. The lovely window displays only reflect a vague idea of the goods to be found on the inside of the store where the most accommodating and courteous salespeople greet you.

"The goods you find at Bennett's Drug Store this year are so different," remarked a lady shopper, after selecting a gift for her husband. "Everything is fresh and new, an exquisite assortment."

Stimulated by success already won, Bennett's Drug Store is bent on new achievements in purveying to the shopping public. From front to rear, the one idea exists—Christmas. No half-hearted attempt, no slighting; everything is enthusiasm, everyone is enthusiastic. Ever see such a drug store before? Ever see such beautiful things? We think not. Ever see such bright, pretty goods? Not a "left over" among them. Even the display fixtures are new. The very finest and the very best, and a store service second to none in the country.

S. Fulton Election December First

Mayor and Six Councilmen to Be Elected

From all indications the election for city offices in South Fulton on Tuesday, December 1, will be hotly contested this year. One candidate has already expressed his desire for the important office of mayor, while others are just waiting for an opportune time to enter the race. We understand that C. E. Hutchens, the present mayor, has positively refused to run again. As to candidates for councilmen, it's a matter of speculation, as yet, who will run.

We understand the following are being urged to make the race: For Mayor—S. A. McDade and Sam Holman. For Aldermen—J. G. Houston, H. H. Hobbs, Abe Jolley, B. L. Rawls, A. T. Stubblefield, C. A. Stephens, S. N. Valentine, W. S. Boulton.

Band Concert

And Old Fiddlers' Contest at Orpheum Theater, Nov. 17

The Fulton band has made wonderful progress during the first year of its organization under the direction of Bandmaster, Sebra Evans, and with a full determination and desire to bring the band up to a high standard. This concert is given to obtain funds for new music and other necessary equipment.

Fulton must have a first class band and the boys are asking your assistance, not in the way of donations, but in attending the concert when you will be given a delightful musical treat for the small price of 25c admission.

Fight Over Bond Issue

$40,000 Sewer Bond Issue Voted by South Fulton Contested

The case of Sam Holman against the City of South Fulton, Tennessee, contesting the $40,000 bond issue voted last July for sewerage system, will come up at this term of the Obion county circuit court, but will not doubt be deferred until the April term for final decision.

From all indications, the twin city has had a hard fight over the sewerage question and the end is not yet in sight.

Choice 2-year-old Rose bushes for sale—Columbia, America, Butterfly, Premier, Russell, Red and Pink Radiance. $1.00 each, as long as they last, or the entire collection of 7 for $5.00—R. S. Williams, Fulton, Ky.

Prize Winners Announced

In the Kentucky Light & Power Company's Contest

Ulric W. Jones, first; R. S. Williams, second; Mrs. Neal H. Sisk, third

The local store of the Kentucky Light & Power Company recently closed an interesting contest in which a large number of Fulton people participated. The contest was open to everybody living in this vicinity—men, women and children, regardless of whether they were customers are not.

The Kentucky Light & Power Company prepared a list of six questions with rules and regulations which were given to contestants, and displayed in their store windows a number of valuable electric appliances for awards of merit from which the three winners were to select from. The answers from said six questions were turned in, the contestant's name detached and numbered, then given to Messrs. Herbert Carr, N. G. Cook and J. C. Cheek, contest judges, who named the winners as follows: Ulric W. Jones, first; R. S. Williams, second; Mrs. Neal H. Sisk, third.

The following questions were answered by Ulric W. Jones, first prize winner:

1. What is the advantage of investing savings in the 6 per cent or 7 per cent Preferred Stock of the Kentucky Utilities Company?

By saving something for a rainy day, putting your money in safe and sound security, which in turn renders your splendid returns on your investment.

2. How does the person who invests in the Preferred Stock of the Kentucky Utilities Company benefit his community and State?

By keeping his money in his own community and state, in an institution which serves more people than most any other public utility, furnishing cheap and excellent lighting for the homes, as well as power for industries, which in turn, furnishes employment to the citizens of the town and community.

3. How many ways can electricity be used in the home so as to lessen the amount of work done by the housewife? Name these ways.

Ironing, washing, cleaning the rugs, churning, cooking, sewing, and last, but not least, curing their beautiful locks.

4. How can this town (or district) promote business or prosperity by greater use of electrical power available in unlimited quantity through the Kentucky Light & Power Company?

By inducing more industries to use electric power, which in many instances, is cheaper than steam, as well as pointing out to new industries, the unlimited amount of power available in this locality.

5. General living expenses have increased about 65 per cent during the last ten years. How much has the cost of electricity to the consumer increased in the same period of time?

The increase in the cost of electricity in the last 10 years, if any at all, is so slight that it is hardly noticeable and in many instances it has decreased.

6. How can the Kentucky Light & Power Company increase its usefulness so as to benefit or promote the convenience of the people of this town (or district)?

The service is as near perfect as could be expected in this class or town. I do not see any improvement that could be added that would further the already efficient service rendered.

Twelfth Annual Meeting of Woman's Clubs

Fulton Club Host to Distinguished Guests, Tuesday, Nov. 10.

The Twelfth Annual meeting of First District of Kentucky Federation of Woman's Clubs was held in the First Christian church, Tuesday, November 10.

Mrs. J. E. Warren, district governor, presided over the meeting.

After singing of the doxology, and an invocation by Dr. Patterson, Mrs. J. C. Brann, president of Fulton Woman's Club, gave the address of welcome.

Mrs. T. E. Elgin, president of Paducah Woman's Club, responded.

Thirty-five delegates were present and gave interesting, and inspirational reports of club work.

The convention was honored by having for guests, Mrs. Alice Dickson, of Paris, president of State Federation of Woman's Clubs; Mrs. R. L. Johnson, of Clinton; third vice-president, Mrs. Reynolds, of Paducah, candidate for treasurer of General Federation; Mrs. John Pilcher, of Louisville, chairman of Junior Departmental Work, and Mrs. W. T. Lafferty, of Lexington, chairman of University Extension Work.

Mrs. Randle, prominent club woman of Indiana, and a worker for the Near East Relief, addressed the convention. She advocated the observance of Golden Rule Sunday on first Sunday in December.

The program was interspersed with delightful musical and vocal selections. A piano solo, "Autumn," by Cyril Scott, was exquisitely rendered by Mrs. Clarence Maddox. A vocal trio, "Love's Old Sweet Song," was beautifully sung by Mesdames R. S. Williams and Geo. Alley and Miss Annie Lucille Goldsby. Miss Mable Wright of Mayfield, a favorite of Fulton's music lovers, gave a violin solo "Second Concerto in D Minor" by Henri Wieniawski.

A delightful feature of the program was the singing of the Junior girls club of Clinton. They appeared before the convention in two numbers.

The beautiful church has been decorated in chrysanthemums, and wintergreens. The dining room, where an elaborate luncheon was served, was a thing of beauty, with its white and yellow decorations—club colors.

Princeton, Benton and Arlington invited the convention for next year. By motion, the selection of place of meeting was left to a committee.

SOUTHERN HOTEL CHANGES MANAGER

The Southern Hotel changed Manager, Monday, November 9, and Mrs. Alva Price Wall is now in charge, having succeeded Mrs. Eunice Robinson, who conducted the business about a year. The Southern was formerly known as the Meadows Hotel and is a splendid property—one of the largest business blocks in Fulton. We understand Mrs. Wall will not serve meals.

Graham Furniture Company

Displaying the Newest Home Furnishings in Classy Style

A visit to Fulton's big furniture establishment will reveal that style in furniture changes as well as style in hats and gowns. While strolling down Lake street, Monday, our attention was attracted to the beautiful window displays of the Graham Furniture Company. We opened the door and walked inside the store to make a further inspection. Mr. Warren Graham greeted us and after surveying the beautiful furnishings on this floor, we were ushered to the second floor, but not until we reached the third floor did we realize what an extensive stock this firm really carried. The section in which dining room suites were displayed reminded us of a large banquet hall with its gorgeous furnishings and mirrored walls and works of art. The handsome display of living room suites come next, and then the large display of beautiful rugs.

Every department of the store has a bright, fresh, attractive and enthusiastic display. The brilliant lamps in the new styles and the lovely draperies all shared in our admiration. The Graham's have a delightful way of making visitors "feel at home" in their establishment. Even though you may have no thought of buying they urge upon you the welcome this store extends to visitors. They want you to feel just what satisfaction it is to them for you to compare their kind of home furnishings with those of the average stores. They want you to know by examination that their store is the real home for best furniture, rugs, linoleum, draperies, etc., and then when the time comes to buy, you're sure of a place where everything will be to your satisfaction.

Mr. Graham says: "A bargain is only a bargain when you get good value as well as a low price. We have been a long time in the furniture business, and not easily deceived in quality. Furniture is often deceptive in appearance, but we look below the varnish and handle only goods that are well made, as well as good looking. You can safely rely on anything you buy from us, although our price may be a good deal lower than you can find on similar goods anywhere else."

BEST MEETING OF THE YEAR

Chamber of Commerce members were well entertained Tuesday night by the addresses made by Prof. J. C. Cheek and Judge Jess Nichols, both of whom told them some outstanding truths as to the duties of a member of the Chamber of Commerce of this or any other city, but particularly that of Fulton.

Prof. Cheek likened the merchant to a part of a machine and told how it was necessary for every part to function promptly and thoroughly, if the whole machine was to perform its work. He told many illustrating stories and emphasized the need of each and every merchant playing his full part in the up-building of Fulton.

The Professor told of his early life in a cotton mill and how he had charge of the securing of help for the mill, and how it was found necessary to provide the proper housing for the operatives in order to have sufficient help, because of the high rents.

The mill owners found it expedient to build a number of houses that could be rented to the employees at a price that would allow them to live comfortably and economically in order that the wages received would allow them to be contented. He recommended that some such plan should be worked out for Fulton in order that the cigar factory, and in fact any other concerns which might be induced to come here, might have a contented and a money-making staff of employees. He said: the high rents that are now charged in Fulton was in a great part the cause of the cigar factory not having a sufficient number of workers, and that until this defect is remedied, the shortage would continue.

The Chamber of Commerce had done a lot of good for Fulton, he said, it has aided greatly the (Continued on page 2) bringing of the Fulton schools up to their present high standard and had been of great help in making the Woman's Club the strong organization that it now is. It had been the prime mover in many improvements for the city, but there was a lot of work yet to be done to attract business and more inhabitants to Fulton. He was roundly applauded at the conclusion of his remarks.

Judge Nichols followed, talking as his theme, the mail order business, and he did not mince words in telling the facts and reasons why business went away from Fulton.

He asked if the merchants were willing to concede that the mail order catalogs were better salesmen than the merchants themselves, and if they thought so, there was no more to be said, but if the merchant would advertise prices, together with the description of the goods to be sold and take the time to show his customers the advantages of the goods he had for sale, there would soon be a noticeable reduction in the amount of mail orders going out of town.

He paid his compliments to the present Trade Day campaign but strongly urged the merchants to continue the advertising campaign when the present one is over. The scheme followed out last year of stopping all advertising propaganda as soon as the trade day drive ended was wrong, and the idea of sitting down and waiting for the business to come to them on the strength of what advertising had been done, had not, and would not bring results, and if Fulton was to continue to get the business, some concerted effort along the line of advertising must be adhered to.

The Judge advocated strongly the "follow up" system in advertising and told how it would be necessary to advertise more understandingly if business was to be drawn to Fulton from other parts of the surrounding country.

President Shankle presented his resignation as president of the Chamber, explaining that as he had been elected Mayor, he felt that it was only right that he resign and allow the members to select his successor in advance of the coming election which takes place in February. He stated that he did not intend to relinquish his membership in the Chamber, but on the contrary, when inducted into office as Mayor, he intended to continue his work with the organization and depended on the Chamber of Commerce to assist him and the new councilmen to work wholeheartedly together to make Fulton a better and cleaner city, and to bring to it any new enterprises that would be for its benefit.

After he had presented his resignation, Vice-President Kramer assumed the chair and put the motion as to whether the resignation should be accepted, and on motion of Mr. R. C. Pickering, seconded by several voices, the resignation was referred to the Board of Directors for action, and if accepted, to elect his successor.

Manager McGinnis, of the cigar factory, stated that the factory could use fifty more girls immediately, and that if they could be secured between now and February, could accommodate 150 more workers, but that it took time to teach the new operatives and the whole 150 could not be taken care of at one time.

Our recently elected representative, Norman B. Daniel, was introduced and in the course of his remarks told of a bill that was to be presented at the next meeting of the State Assembly providing for a state fair for the western end of Kentucky, and said that he would make every effort to secure it for Fulton. He said he was not yet acquainted with the proper procedure for this effort, but was willing to do anything possible to secure it.

Amos Colley moved that a committee be appointed to cooperate with Mr. Daniel in this effort, and on being carried, the president appointed the following committee: J. C. Brann, chairman, R. S. Williams, J. W. Gordon, Hoyt Moore, Ira W. Little and R. H. Wade.

It will be noted that three of the committee are stockholders or officers in the Fulton County Fair Association, namely: J. W. Gordon, Mayor Wade and Commodore Brann.

The reading of the financial statement of the Chamber showed a balance in the treasury of more than $600.00 after all bills being paid. This is very gratifying to the members as it is the largest amount of cash on hand during the history of the organization.

In closing the meeting, President Shankle asked the members to show the same spirit of cooperation and loyalty to his successor as had been shown by the members to himself, and to consider him, always, as still an active and willing member.

The program of the evening, under Chairman Murphy, was one of the most instructive and entertaining that has been held this year.

Miscellaneous Shower.

Mrs. Clay McCallum, nee Edna Earl Green, was honoree at a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Cecil Weatherspoon, Tuesday afternoon at her home on Fairview Ave. The home was beautifully decorated in a pink and white color scheme. Pink and white roses were dominant throughout the house.

The honoree entered the living room wearing a charming dress of cut velvet with chiffon trimmings and took her place in a chair beautifully decorated in pink and white. Little Miss Mary Norma Weatherspoon daintily dressed in pink crepe and chiffon followed, pulling a little pink wagon with the many and beautiful gifts. After the gifts were unwrapped and admired, lovely refreshments were served. Little Cupids tied with pink ribbon were given as favors.

Writing favorite recipes and contests were among the diversions of the afternoon. Miss Mary Ethna Samons and Mrs. W. E. Green winning the prizes.

Those assisting in the serving were Misses Lillian Harrison, Marcella Willingham and Mary Ethna Samons.

New Equipment

The Illinois Central has ordered 200 double deck stock cars for immediate delivery. This will offset the heretofore shortage in this class of equipment.

Illinois Central Issues New Stock

The Illinois Central will issue $14,218,230 of preferred stock and a like amount of common stock. The preferred to be sold at not less than par and the proceeds will be used in its construction program.

The Illinois Central will be heard in the air in the future, as that line has acquired Radio Broadcasting Station located at Oak Park, Ill., call letters, WGES. They will present the usual programs of music and other entertainment with occasional features of particular interest to its employees. The station may also be used in transmitting orders in case of a breakdown of telephone and telegraph lines, such as was experienced last winter. Tune in on WGES and enjoy their excellent programs.

Illinois Central System

In a recent statement issued by President Markham, on team work in railway service, Mr. Markham stated that the Illinois Central System consisted of "8,400 miles of first main track lying in fifteen states and extending from Omaha, Sioux City and Sioux Falls on the northwest and Chicago on the north to New Orleans and Savannah on the south and southeast." This, of course, includes the Central of Georgia Railway, which lines were acquired several years ago by the Illinois Central, or which are under the jurisdiction of that system. Mr. Markham further stated that there are "Approximately 73,000 persons employed in producing the transportation service of the Illinois Central System. Only about 12,000 of these employees are engaged in actually running trains. Of the remaining 61,000 employees, 18,000 keep the cars and locomotives in condition, 23,000 maintain the tracks, buildings and facilities, and 8,000 operate freight and passenger stations, baggage rooms, dining cars and telegraph and telephone service, dispatch trains and do other work connected with the movement of trains. The clerical forces, storekeepers, janitors, watchman and similar employees number 10,800. There are 700 specialists engaged in engineering, architecture, chemistry and other technical occupations. There are 500 executives, division officers and staff assistants." Mr. Markham continued by saying that the good reputation which the Illinois Central System enjoys is due to efficient team work shown by its loyal employees and the good will they have earned for it among its patrons. How many really ever stop to think of the number of executives and employees of different training, to say nothing of the amount of equipment, it takes to render efficient service?

We purchase a ticket, get on, find a comfortable seat, and ride, never once stopping to think that 73,000 men are busily engaged producing the efficient transportation that we enjoy, and this number only embraces one railway system of the country, while we have several other systems as large, but to our mind, none more efficient than the Illinois Central.

WESTERN UNION TO MOVE THEIR OFFICE TO CHURCH ST.

The Western Union Telegraph Co., located in the Usona Hotel, will remove their office on December 1, to a room in the Southern Hotel building on Church street next door to the Reynolds' store. Mrs. Reeves, the local manager, has worked up a nice business in Fulton for the Western Union and the new quarters is a very desirable location.

PAUL'S ARREST IN JERUSALEM

LESSON TEXT—Acts 21:15-23:22.
GOLDEN TEXT—"If any man suffer
as a Christian, let him not be ashamed."
PRIMARY TOPIC—Paul Is Brave in Danger.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Paul and the Jerusalem Mob.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOP-IC—Paul Faces a Mob.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOP-IC—The Spirit of the Mob.

I. Paul's Vow (21:18-20).
Upon Paul's arrival at Jerusalem representatives of the church there gave him a most cordial reception. In order that the brethren in Jerusalem might graciously receive him, it was proposed to him by the elders that he take a Jewish vow to prove that he was in no way opposed to the law. The effort was to remove prejudice. They recognized that such an act would in no way compromise or involve the Gentile brethren. Furthermore this would not compromise his own principles of action, viz., to the Jews he became a Jew, and to the Gentiles, a Gentile; all things to all men in order to gain them for Christ.

II. Paul's Arrest (21:27-40).
How far this act conciliated the Jews we are not told, but it only engaged the unbelieving Jews, causing them to resort to mob law. These madmen, Jews on the basis of a supposition seized him and dragged him from the temple and beat him mercilessly intending to put him to death.
Paul was rescued from the mob by the Roman guard. The chief captain, not being able to get any information from the howling mob, bound Paul and started for the castle. In order to protect him from the murderous frenzy of the mob, the soldiers lifted him upon their shoulders and bore him up the stairs. Paul kept himself under control, and politely asked permission of the captain to speak to the people.
When he addressed him in Greek and quoted his Roman citizenship, the captain granted his request.

III. Paul's Defense (22:1-27).
Paul's chief concern was not his own safety. He used this opportunity to witness unto them of Christ.

1. His Claim for a Rightful Hearing (vv. 1-3).

(1) His Birth (v. 3).
He was a Jew born in Tarsus, a city
of no mean reputation.

(2) His Education (v. 3).
He was educated under Gamaliel and instructed "according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers."

(3) His Zeal (v. 3).
He was as zealous toward God as those Jews who were trying to destroy him.

2. His Attitude Toward Jesus (vv.
4-5).

"I persecuted this way unto the death," so that his attitude was one of hatred as was that of the Jews.

3. How His Attitude Was Changed
(vv. 6-10).

While on his way to Damascus with authority to bind the Christians at Jerusalem, he was smitten to the ground by a light from heaven, and the voice of the Lord said, "Why persecutest thou me?" When Paul inquired what he was to do, he was told to go to Damascus where he would be told what to do.

4. The Lord Commissioned Him to Go to the Gentiles (17-21).

IV. Paul Before the Sanhedrin (23:1-10).

The Roman officer, in order to learn why Paul was arrested, commanded the chief council to assemble, and brought Paul before them.

1. Paul's Earnest Look at the Council (vv. 1-2).

This was a solicitation of their honor to give him a fair hearing, and also a look of conscious integrity and unflinching courage.

2. Paul's Stern Rebuke of the Head of the Council (v. 3).

"God shall smite thee, thou whited wall."

3. Paul's Appeal to the Pharisees
(vv. 6-10).

Seeing that he could not get a fair hearing, and perceiving that the body before him was made up of Pharisees and Sadducees, he appealed to the Pharisees hoping to get their attention, for his preaching had something in common with their belief.

EFFICIENT SERVICE
RENDERED

The answers to the questions in the contest recently conducted by the Kentucky Light & Power Company, show a tendency to make the officials of that corporation feel good, especially E. C. Hardesty, the local manager. Because each contestant completed the set of answers by complimenting the efficient service rendered by said company.

Efficient service rendered means something to any corporation, but when applied to a light and power company, it has a two-fold meaning.

Fulton has not always enjoyed efficient service from its light and power plant, therefore, the people are fully capable to shout aloud the excellent service received now.

The splendid state of efficiency of the Kentucky Light & Power Company, one of the main arteries of Fulton's industrial life, is largely due to the management of E. C. Hardesty and his capable assistants in every department.

The local plant is a unit of the Kentucky Utilities Company, one of the largest and strongest corporations in the state, who recently purchased the Paducah plant. No wonder investing savings in the 6 per cent or 7 per cent Preferred Stock in the Kentucky Utilities Company is a safe and sound investment.

CRITICS AND CREATORS

No special talent is needed to criticize. It is the simplest thing on earth to be critical—to tear apart that which someone has created.

But a creator is something apart. To create is to contribute something to the world; to add to, instead of take from.

There is no fixed rule for creating. You don't have to invent a new machine to create. You might create pleasure for someone, happiness for your friends, better conditions in your home community, a better home for your family, a more pleasant atmosphere for those you work with.

Those who create are boosters. Communities are made by such people. They never lose an opportunity to do a good deed and when no opportunity presents itself, they make one.

The critic is the adverse of this. He sees no good in anything, particularly if it comes from one of a creative turn of mind. He may not know anything of the merits of the case, but that does not matter. It is his nature to be critical and he is not happy unless he is criticizing something or somebody. A habitual critic is a detriment to the community. He and his like are a dead weight to carry. Fulton is overburdened with habitual critics.

DON'T LOSE YOUR HEAD

The world will consume around 15,000,000 bales of cotton this coming year.

The world is going to consume a lot of low grade cotton. Suppose there are only 10,000,000 bales of high grade cotton, it is likely there will not be over 8,000,000 bales of high grade cotton, then the low grade cotton will have a good value. There will be a demand for it. There should be no stampede to sell it.

We heard of a man who had an order for some low grade cotton the other day. He would have been well satisfied to make two or three thousand dollars out of it. He found a lot of holders of low grade cotton down in the mouth. He bought the cotton at a price that enabled him to make ten times as much as he first expected to make.

Most of the south got off to a flying start in cotton picking. The bad weather did not set in until the tail end of September. All of the early picking brought a good price, therefore, most of the planters should be in a position not to have their later cotton sacrificed. Some people have already paid themselves out of debt with their high grade cotton. They look upon the low grade as that much velvet and let it go. Do not thus run out on the man whose major crop is low grade.

People should pick their low grade cotton as cheaply as possible and not get excited. The southern growers are still in a commanding position if they but realize it. But if they become panicky they will play into a bad situation. If there is a stampede to sell low grade cotton the fault will mainly rest on the grower and then on the man next to the grower, that is, the first buyer from the grower.

Everything else is high, why not cotton also?

It will be if you growers hold your nerve and refuse to become excited. — Commercial Appeal.

OLD-FASHIONED PARENTS

President Coolidge told the international convention of the Y. M. C. A., at Washington that parents are not doing their duty. He said that a return to the old-fashioned method of rearing children would bring improvement.

Any fair observer will admit the truth of this statement, yet the great majority of us shy at anything old-fashioned. We are all constantly seeking something new and we often accept it not because of any merit, but simply because it is new.

This constant seeking for something new is in part responsible for the development of the modern part time parent—the parent who is so busy with outside interests that there is little time left for the family circle and the rearing of children.

The complexity of life has brought about a great change in home life. The old companionship of parents and children is not possible in the measure that it once was, particularly for those who try to keep up the demands of social life.

No father can attend to his business, his civic clubs, his lodges and his social engagements and be a real pal to his son. No mother can be the chum of her daughter and meet all of her obligations socially.

It is not strange that the chief executive of the leading nation of the world should give utterance of such thoughts. Youthful criminals are growing in number and great concern is felt for the moral welfare of young people in all walks of life.

The president's indictment of parenthood may seem blunt, but it is clearly just. The obligations of parenthood are too important not to receive first consideration. Whenever other things are placed first, the results will be anything but satisfactory.

REDUCING INCOME TAXES

During the hearings on the proposed income tax bill for the next session of congress, great emphasis has been put in some quarters on the advisability of eliminating a tax on incomes up to $5,000.

Another group believes that better results would be obtained by reducing the surtax rate, thus bringing into the open some of the twelve billion dollars now invested in tax-exempt securities.

Although taking care of the small salaried man might serve a temporary purpose, undoubtedly the best interests of the country would be served by cutting down the surtax rate so that dormant capital would be brought back into business channels and would be available for development of industry.

Meanwhile, the demagogues choose to continue their war on wealth. They insist that reducing the surtax rates would be pandering to the rich.

This is far from the truth. Wealth has a way of taking care of itself. When the high surtax levies were imposed, the rich invested their money in the securities of states, counties and cities. The supreme court has held the federal government cannot tax them.

The result is that hundreds of wealthy people are paying only a trifling sum to the government and the small-salaried man is paying the bulk of the income taxes. Every wealthy person is a potential source of revenue if the surtax rate is made such that the reduction for taxes will not be enough to make industrial securities less inviting than tax-exempts.

A "personal guarantee" means very little to you unless you know the man who makes it.

Ninety per cent of the things bought for your home are selected by the lady member of the firm. She is the purchasing agent. Most men admit that she is a capable buyer, and the reason is this: She must be shown — convinced by proof — that an article is what she needs and is worth the price!

For that reason, she sees the advantage of dealing with a local merchant — a man whose "personal guarantee of satisfaction" means just what it says.

She knows that what he advertises in this paper is entitled to her consideration. Because she has confidence in her neighbor—the local dealer—she can safely invest the family funds in what he guarantees.

DESTROYERS TO GUARD AMERICANS IN SYRIA

Americans in Beirut Fear Revolt Aimed at French
May Spread.

Washington.—Two American destroyers, the Coghlan and the Lamson, were sent from Alexandria, Egypt, to Beirut
as a precautionary measure.

American Consul Paul Knabenshue cabled the State department that he had sent a message to the destroyers to proceed to Beirut, although there was no immediate danger to Americans in Damascus or Beirut.

A majority of the Americans in Syria are in Beirut, where the American university has some fifty American professors and instructors, nearly all of whom have their families with them.
There is a natural apprehension among the Americans in Beirut over the possibility that the revolutionary disturbances aimed at the French mandatory authorities might spread to that port.

Dispatches received from Damascus say that thousands have fled from the city. Thousands of others closed their shops. Many are removing to other countries.

The panic was caused by the noise of artillery and air bombs. Another bandit band was discovered by French aviators near the capital. The artillery completely destroyed the bandits.
Damascus has taken on the appearance of a besieged city.

The rebellion in Syria now centers around Bakri, former leader of the Nationalist "People's party," and now a bandit leader. Bakri has proclaimed himself President of the Syrian republic.

According to the French officials,
Bakri has given up hope of attacking Damascus, but he is seeking a more favorable town, like Hama.

Draft All U. S. Power in War, Plea of Legion Head

Washington.—Legislation which will provide for a universal draft of all the man power and resources of the country in time of war was included in the American Legion's national legislative program presented to President Coolidge by National Commander John R.
McQuigg.

The Legion's plan provides for the drafting of men to fight, men and women to work, factories to produce, and money to finance. The legislation would give the President control of transportation materials together with farm products and their prices.
It would provide that there would be no slackers and no profiteers in case of another war.

Gen. Garibaldi Calls U. S.
Defenses Force for Peace

Chicago.—America's program of national defense—the development of the National Guard, the citizens' training camps, training in the schools and colleges, its industrial preparedness—is making the United States a nation of soldiers, the greatest weapon for universal peace the world has ever known.

That is the belief of Gen. Peppino
Garibaldi, grandson of Giuseppe Garibaldi, the liberator and creator of unified Italy, himself a distinguished soldier, the veteran of wars in many lands from Venezuela revolutions to the World conflict of 1914-18. General Garibaldi was a visitor in Chicago, the guest of Italians of the city.

mous "three-million-share" market which followed the "leak" on President Wilson's peace note in December, 1916. The averages of leading railroad and industrial stocks attained the highest levels in history, with more than 40 individual issues smashing their previous peak prices for the year.

fered a severe heart attack upon his

NOTED ECONOMIST

Prof. Thomas S. Adams of Yale university, world famous economist, appearing before the house ways and means committee in Washington to urge that the tax laws be changed so as to grant the same exemptions for savings and so-called unearned incomes that are now granted for earned incomes.

$350,000,000 TAX CUT APPROVED BY G. O. P.

To Have Bill Ready When Congress Reconvenes.

Washington.—With its tax reduction program in final stages of preparation, it became definitely known that the Republican majority on the house ways and means committee has agreed on a slash of $350,000,000 or $350,000,- 000, with the amount probably reaching the latter figure.

This will be accomplished, it was announced, by the following tentative revisions in the present tax laws:

A reduction in the minimum surtax rate from 40 to 20 per cent.

A reduction in normal rates on individual income from 2, 4 and 6 per cent to rates ranging from 1 to 5 per cent.

Reduction of the maximum estate tax rate by which a greater credit is given for amount paid under state inheritance laws.

A measure of relief to corporations through the repeal of the capital-stock tax, but without any compensating increase in the flat tax of 12 1/2 per cent on corporation earnings as proposed by some groups.

Repeal of the tax on automobile trucks and on tires and automobile accessories, but with a tax on automobiles retained.

Repeal of a number of other miscellaneous taxes regarded as of the nuisance variety and which do not yield enough revenue to justify their collection.

Repeal of the gift tax.

Repeal of the publicity provision of the present law.

Provisions for strengthening the board of tax appeals by providing larger salaries and long terms for a permanent membership of about sixteen.

The committee purposes to have the completed bill ready to report to the house when congress convenes in December.

The proposed reductions in surtax and normal tax rates will mean a loss of about $140,000,000 the first year, but only $100,000,000 thereafter.

till in the shadows of the police station, when he jerked away from Hammond and opened fire.

Republican Elected Mayor of Boston, Mass.

Boston.—The city's return to a Republican administration after 16 years of Democratic rule, through a decisive victory by Malcolm E. Nichols, former collector of internal revenue, was indicated in returns received in the nominally non-partisan election. Returns gave Nichols 48,448 votes, a safe lead of 13, 520 over his nearest competitor, Theodore A. Glynn, fire commissioner, who had the backing of Mayor James M.
Curley.

Bennett's Drug Store

IS NOW READY TO MAKE EVERYONE
HAPPY IN THEIR GIFT SHOPPING

More than ever this year, Christmas shopping is best done early—No, we are not "talking" Christmas gift shopping a day too soon. November is here, and when we are into November, time fairly flies—Christmas arrives almost before we know it. There is another and more important reason, however, why your gift shopping should be done early this year. Gift merchandise isn't by any means easy to procure. Though our first stocks are fine, large and wonderfully complete, this promises to be a most trying season to replenish lines of goods that "break" under the stress of gift shopping in rush days. You'll serve Santa Claus a splendid turn now by starting your gift shopping early this year. And early selections among our fine Christmas stocks are decidedly worth having.

You'll find the store alive with new interest, new vigor and a new enthusiasm of service.

Methodist Church

J. V. Freeman, Pastor

Sunday School, 9:30 a. m. T. J. Kramer, Supt.
Epworth Leagues, Junior and Senior, 6:30 p. m.
Preaching, 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.
Prayer Service, 7:30 p. m. each week on Wednesday.

Large crowds attended the services both morning and evening and reports of the activities of the church were given by the Treasurer, Vodie Hardin, which showed steady progress. Everything was brought up to date, and Rev. Freeman took a one hundred per cent report to Conference, which is convening in Dyersburg this week. The budget shows that $16,000 has been collected this year.

The official board in session at the 4th quarterly conference last Thursday, unanimously invited Rev. Freeman and wife to return and told Rev. Pickens that they wanted him to use his influence in sending them back. During the two years of Rev. Freeman's stay, the church has added 100 members to the roll, and prospects for a new church is very bright and every member of the church feel that Rev. Freeman is the one who can put it through.

There will be no services Sunday on account of the absence of the pastor, but every member is requested to be on hand the first Sunday of the Conference year and give Rev. Freeman our new pastor, a glad hand. He told us Sunday night that he would have a good sermon in store for all. Everybody cordially invited.

The Methodist Missionary Girls held their regular meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Boyd Bennett. Miss Estelle Herrin had charge of the devotions. The business session was short, the day of meeting was changed from Tuesday to Monday afternoon on account of school activities. Miss Margaret Allen had charge of the program and was assisted by Miss Luella Wood, giving the Week of Prayer program and a nice offering was given by the girls.

Two new members were added to the roll. After the meeting the hostess served home made candy.

The Warner Blackard Missionary Society held its regular meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Vodie Hardin with Mesdames Hardin and Maupin as hostesses.

Meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Scruggs and Mrs. Freeman opened with the devotions reading the 91st Psalm. A short but very interesting business session followed. Splendid reports were given by the various officers and chairmen of committees both the local and missionary treasurers gave splendid reports. Mrs. Scruggs reported on the week of prayer which was very good. A letter was read by the president from the colored M. E. church asking for help and $5.00 was donated to them. A letter from Scarlett school in Nashville, asking for donations for Thanksgiving and the society voted to send them a turkey for dinner that day. It was voted by the society to have a Thanksgiving tea on Thanksgiving day at the home of Mrs. Joe Bennett. This is to be a silver Thanksgiving tea and everybody is invited.

The meeting was then turned over to the delegates to the conference held in Martin recently and Mrs. Chas. Payne gave a splendid report, and all felt as though they had attended.

During the social hour the hostesses had quite an interesting contest prepared platards being pinned over the house with pictures and various other things on them, these representing the names of the missionaries gone to China from the Memphis Conference. This added fun and spice to the splendid program, after which tea and sandwiches and wafers were served to a large attendance the hostesses were assisted by Mrs. Louis Weak and Mrs. Ed Crockett.

Rev. Freeman and wife left Tuesday night for Dyersburg to attend conference.

Rev. Walker and wife also Rev. Riggs are attending conference in Dyersburg this week. We hope these good men and their families will be returned to Fulton for another year.

Church News

The congregations were noticeably improved in point of attendance last Sunday, at both the morning and evening services.

The vested choir has again resumed its offices after the summer vacation and was greatly appreciated by the congregation at both services, Sunday, and many of the members took the opportunity to personally congratulate the choir members on the good music.

The choir social, held at the rectory last Thursday night after the choir practice, was very much appreciated by the members and visitors. The Woman's Guild served refreshments and together with music and conversation a very pleasant time was had. The first Thursday of each month, in future, will be set aside for a social evening after the choir practice, the Woman's Guild having charge of the social feature.

Attendance at the church school last Sunday showed a gratifying increase over past Sundays, and it is hoped that the increase will continue.

Doctor Boyd talked to the school regarding the needs of some local families and asked members of the classes to provide certain clothing that was needed by these families.

The Mohawk Club took up the matter of a family or two that had come to the notice of the members and carried the necessary relief to them and provided medical attendance for the sick.

Palestine Church Destroyed by Fire.

Palestine church, 3 miles southeast of Fulton, was destroyed by fire Monday afternoon, the loss being approximately $5,000. The origin of the fire cannot be definitely traced, but since a meeting had been held in the church earlier in the afternoon, it is believed that the fire was caused by sparks falling on the roof from the stove. Aid was requested from the city of Fulton, but due to bad roads no assistance could be given by the local fire department.
