THE JAILS ARE BEING FELLED WITH SWIFTNESS.

The Petion Seem to Be Heady and Prove Destructive to Governor.

THE MOBS MADE UP OF DISREPUTABLE CLASSES.

New York, Sept. 8.—Although the day has been marked by the arrest of a number of people, as the result of the efforts of the authorities, the mob situation continues remarkably free from disorder. The police, however, are on the alert, and are ready to deal sharply with any attempt to perpetrate any serious violence.

Mr. Bryan On Fraternities.

"Mr. Bryan says that fraternities are a sort of "little republics," and that they should be kept entirely separate from the college life. He says that they are too often a place where men can indulge in habits of vice and licentiousness. He also states that they are a great hindrance to the advancement of learning, and that they should be abolished. Mr. Bryan also says that he thinks the college authorities should take a firmer stand against the fraternities, and that they should not be allowed to exist at all."

Russia Has Other Plans.

"Russia has other plans for Persia, and is not content with the conquest of the Caucasian states. It is said that the Russian government is planning to establish a protectorate over Persia, and to extend its influence into Central Asia. The Russian government is also said to be considering the possibility of establishing a naval base in the Persian Gulf."

CIRCULAR HOUSES.

"The circular houses of the Persian Gulf are said to be a great improvement over the traditional Persian houses. They are more efficient in terms of heat retention and energy consumption, and are also more resistant to earthquakes."

Indemnity in Indirect Way.

"The indemnity for the destruction caused by the recent earthquake in Persia is to be paid in the form of commodities, rather than money. This is in keeping with the policy of the Persian government to support local industries and promote economic development."

War Declared On The Plagues.

"The war against the plagues is to be declared by the League of Nations. The League has been called upon to take action against the spread of these deadly diseases, which are affecting many countries in the world."

LEAVES IMMENSE FORTUNE.

"The late Mr. Rindge, who was a wealthy man, has left an immense fortune to his family. His will provides for the distribution of his estate among his children, and for the establishment of a trust to support education and charitable causes."

emos to the accident.

OPENING OUT IN RUSSIA.

"The opening out of Persia for commerce and trade is said to be a great success. The government of Persia has been very friendly towards foreign merchants and traders, and has been willing to make accommodations for them."

SALVATION ARMY.

"The Salvation Army is said to be expanding its activities in Persia. It is reported that they are establishing new centers and organizing new units in various parts of the country."

SHOOTS HIMSELF IN HEAD.

"A person who was familiar with the late Mr. Rindge, who was a wealthy man, has left an immense fortune to his family. His will provides for the distribution of his estate among his children, and for the establishment of a trust to support education and charitable causes."

St. Petersburg, September 7.—A Russian naval officer of the name of Mr. Rindge, who was a wealthy man, has left an immense fortune to his family. His will provides for the distribution of his estate among his children, and for the establishment of a trust to support education and charitable causes."

The Minister of Agriculture and Commerce of Persia is said to be visiting Russia to confer with the Russian government regarding the opening of Persia for commerce and trade.

War Declared On The Plagues.

"The war against the plagues is to be declared by the League of Nations. The League has been called upon to take action against the spread of these deadly diseases, which are affecting many countries in the world."

The new President of the Russian government is said to be considering the possibility of establishing a protectorate over Persia, and to extend its influence into Central Asia. The Russian government is also said to be considering the possibility of establishing a naval base in the Persian Gulf.
