Social Calendar for This Week

All Day Season

The Women's Missionary Society of the First Methodist Church had its annual all day meeting for the discussion of the work of prayer meeting, beginning at 11:30 AM. Mrs. W. W. Morris conducted the meeting, speaking on the importance of constant prayer. Mrs. J. S. Maxwell and Mrs. J. W. Elledge, who have spent the summer in Oklahoma City, spoke to the members on methods of prayer and witnessing. Mrs. J. S. Maxwell also read a letter from Mrs. J. W. Elledge expressing her desire to return to the community. The meeting adjourned for lunch, and an extended program of prayer and discussion took place during the afternoon.

Speaker for the Citizens of Fulton

I resent this implied slur on our intelligence! I am speaking for the Citizens of Fulton, and I want to make it clear that we are not going to put "One Night of Love" on at Warner's Theatre.

Ad for Dufrene Walking Stick

Mr. Murphy Lewis of Owensboro, Kentucky, will be on hand at the Dufrene Walking Stick store in Fulton, starting at 9:00 AM. He will be available to answer any questions or concerns you may have about the walking sticks. The store is located at 210 Commercial Ave.

Sale of One Night of Love

"One Night of Love" is one of the most outstanding wedding events of the year. The bridal party and guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Elledge of Fulton were present for the ceremony, officiated by the Rev. Russell Travis. The wedding took place at the First Methodist Church, and the reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Morris. The couple will be moving to Oklahoma City to begin their new life together.

Speakers for the Big Days—Nov. 14, 15, 16, 17—Evans-McGee.

Dr. C. E. Ham, seeing Dr. C. E. Ham, has failed to do so. He will see Dr. C. E. Ham on Saturday. The meeting will be held at the Methodist Church, and all are invited to attend.
