Washington, D. C.

May 14, 1890.

The first day we were in Washington was the finest city we had ever seen. It was more beautiful than any place we had ever seen. It is the cap-citol of the United States, and the magnificent buildings are the most impressive sights we have ever seen.

The Washington Monument is a stunning example of American architecture. It is the tallest structure in the world, and it stands as a testament to the ingenuity and craftsmanship of our nation.

There are many famous statues and monuments throughout the city, each one telling a story of the history of our country. The Lincoln Memorial is perhaps the most iconic of these monuments, honoring one of our greatest leaders.

The United States Capitol is a magnificent building, and it is a symbol of the power and purity of our government. The Capitol dome is one of the most recognizable structures in the world, and it is a reminder of the democratic principles that underlie our society.

Springfield, Mo.

May 7, 1890.

Dovermouth every state in the union has its garden spot or country residence, but there is nothing so beautiful as the State Capitol, which is located in Dovermouth. The Capitol is a magnificent structure, and it is the center of the state's government. The building is constructed of granite, and it stands as a testament to the wealth and prosperity of Dovermouth.

The state of Dovermouth is known for its beautiful scenery, and the Capitol building is an integral part of that beauty.

The tall, elegant columns of the Capitol are made of granite, and they add to the classic and timeless look of the building.

We were also able to tour the Capitol, and we were impressed by the size and grandeur of the building. The Capitol is a true wonder of architecture.

In addition to its physical beauty, the Capitol is also a symbol of the democratic principles that underlie our government. It is a place where the people of Dovermouth come together to discuss issues and make decisions about their future.

PRAISE YOUR WIFE.

"O, Valentine,"

Aprl praise your wife and be noted as a gentleman, do not hesitate to please her, to make her happy. She is your home, your kindred, your help and comfort. She is the one who will be your best friend in life, and who will comfort you when you are sick, and make you happy when you are well. For, "a husband is in proportion as his wife is," and you may have enough of them; but you praise her, do it in a delicate refined manner. May you never lose the affection of your wife, and may your union be a continued exercise of the same affinity. Praise your wife!

There are as necessary to the perfection of marriage as to you only she can do it by kind feelings and you may have enough of them; but you praise her, do it in a delicate refined manner. May you never lose the affection of your wife, and may your union be a continued exercise of the same affinity. Praise your wife!

If you have any of these feelings, begin at once to use Dr. Hale's Household Nutritive Tonic. If your health is still not improved, and after taking the Tonic.

An account of Root Post, G. A. R., himself a veteran of the Civil War, at St. Louis, Missouri, writes:
