DID YOU see the Royal North-west "Mounties" while they were in Fulton last week? It really is no wonder they have the reputation they have, of always getting their man. Every thirty miles there is a police post, with a ring drawn around each post for fifteen miles; each mounty rides over his territory once each month, and it is his duty to report at headquarters on each person residing within, coming into or going out of his jurisdiction, and in that way nothing escapes the police eye. To be a "mounty" you have to be a mere 5 feet 10 inches in height; between the ages of 18 to 48, weigh 160 pounds and be 88 per cent perfect physically. In the Army you only have to be 55 per cent perfect physically, so you see what he-men these famous "mounties" have to be.

FIFTEEN GOLFERS from Fulton will go to Paducah Sunday and play in the second tournament of the season of the Four City Golf League. Dinner will be served to fifteen players from each of the four cities in the league, viz: Fulton, Mayfield, Cairo and Paducah, at the Club House at noon, and play will start at 1 o'clock p. m. The players playing eighteen holes. These tournaments are held once each month during the summer months, and are enthusiastically looked forward to by local golfers. The next tournament will be held at Mayfield, and after that Fulton will be the host. Those who will compose the Fulton team Sunday at Paducah are: Messrs. Dave Craddock, of Clinton, Leslie Weaks "Boots" Rogers, Frank Carr, Bill Carr, Claud Freeman, Harold Owen, Jim Gordon, R. C. Pickering, L. T. Bugg, Ward McClellan, C. W. Bridges, of Clinton, L. O. Carter, W. L. Carter and Dr. Latham of Union City.

A MAYFIELD boy staged the latest edition of a Lady Godiva act last Sunday in the business section of Mayfield when, according to reports, and under the influence of an anesthetic, he broke up the sanctity of the day and attracted wide attention from early churchgoers. Operated upon for appendicitis just a few hours before in a Mayfield hospital, the youth was said to have become frightened upon coming out from the ether. Rising from his bed, before hospital attendants were aware of his intentions, the boy dashed down the corridor to a front stowaway and through the entrance to the street. His mad pace was momentarily stopped by a nurse, who catching a glimpse of the fleeing Apollo, was able to grasp the gown which he wore sufficiently to rip it from the youth's back, leaving him a nude figure for presentation upon the streets of Mayfield. Returned to the hospital by attendants, the boy was found not to have injured a single stitch in the fresh incision. He is now reported convalescing nicely.

MEXICANS PLAN STRIKE

GENERAL WALKOUT THREAT FOLLOWS STATEMENT BY CALLES Mexico, D. F., June 13.—(AP).—A nation-wide general strike was threatened by Mexico's twelve most powerful labor organizations today as an answer to former President Plutarco Elias Calles' assertion of anti-labor declaration Tuesday. The strike, the date for which was to be set later, was termed "the only means of defense against the possible implantation of a Fascist regime." Railroad, trolley, mining, and electric employes joined workers and peasants group in voting censure of the former executive, who denounced the "marathon of Radicalism" as reflected in nearly continuous strikes since President Lázaro Cardenas took office six months ago. The workers announced their determination to defend their rights and "transform the bourgeois system under which we are living."

ROOSEVELT GIVES HOUSE LIST OF 14 "MUST" BILLS

DEMOCRATIC CHIEFS TOLD QUICK ACTION NEEDED ON FOUR

Washington, June 13.—(AP).—President Roosevelt told House Democratic leaders today he expected Congress to pass fourteen "must" bills, four of them with all possible speed. As a result, arrangements quickly were made to put the debate-scarred N. R. A. "stop-gap" bill on the statute books by tomorrow night and Democratic chiefs laid plans to put through swiftly the other three bills on his "immediate must" list—the Wagner labor disputes, Guffey coal, and transportation co-ordinator extension measures. His instructions were delivered to Speaker Byrnes, Representative Taylor of Colorado, acting floor leader; Chairman O'Connor, Democrat, New York, of the Rules Committee; Chairman Doughton, Democrat, North Carolina, of the Ways and Means Committee, and Representative Samuel B. Hill, Democrat, Washington.

White House Parley Held

These five men were summoned to a White House conference less than five hours after the Senate ended an all-night session by breaking a fifteen and one-half hour filibuster by Senator Long, Democrat, Louisiana, and a few hours later, approving the N. R. A. extension resolution.

Long started his filibuster against that resolution just after noon yesterday and quit just before dawn. Then Senator McCarran, Democrat, Nevada, took the floor, so it was 6:21 a. m. before the fagged-out Senators voted to adopt the measure extending a remnant of N. R. A. for nine and a half months. Today, the Senators went home to sleep. But in the House things whirled.

First, plans were made to put the N. R. A. extension through by accepting the Borah amendment, designed to prevent too great relaxation of anti-trust laws in voluntary agreements. Then the five men who had talked with the President, and told afterward how he even pounded the desk to emphasize his wishes, stirred around giving orders themselves.

LEGION AUXILIARY PICKS OFFICERS FOR YEAR

The American Legion Auxiliary met in regular session yesterday afternoon at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Shelton on Eddings Street, with the president, Mrs. Shelton, presiding. The secretary reported a total of $66.36 collected on Poppy Day for the sale of poppies in the city of Fulton. Mrs. Bob Harris was appointed delegate with Mrs. Sam Winston alternate to the state convention at Lexington July 21st to 24th. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. H. B. Houston, President; Mrs. Earl Taylor, Vice President; Mrs. K. R. Lowe, Second Vice President; Mrs. Jess Jordan, Secretary; Mrs. A. B. Roberts, Sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Bob Harris, Historian and Mrs. Lawrence Shelton, Chaplain. Mrs. Homer Furlong had charge of the programme and chose a very interesting article, "Successful Investments." Miss Kathleen Winters gave a group of vocal numbers with her own accompaniment on the guitar. The hosts, Mrs. Shelton and Mrs. Ernest Heathcock, served a delightful party plate with tea at the conclusion of the business session.

ALEX NEFFEL HOME IS ROBBED THIS MORNING

Alex Noffel, residing at 128 Norman street, reports the loss of $25.00 in cash and two gold rings from his home early this morning. The money was "taken from his clothing. Messrs. Dalton and McCade of the police department were called, but no clue to the robbers was found. Mr. Noffel was awakened, he said, by his wife, about 2:20 o'clock, who told him she saw somebody moving around the room with a flashlight. He jumped out of bed and reached for his trousers, finding they were missing. Later he found the trousers in the kitchen. At about the time he switched on the lights, the back door slammed and he presumed the robber fled. He would pay a small reward for recovery of the two rings, he said.

DAWSON STEPS IN AND STOPS DEATH OF HALL

Louisville, Ky., June 13.—(AP).—Willard Hall, Louisville, youth under sentence of death for his part in a triple slaying here, was saved from execution in the electric chair at Eddyville prison at midnight tonight by a writ of habeas corpus granted late today by Federal Judge Charles I. Dawson.

The writ, granted by the court on the petition of J. Rivers Wright, attorney for the youth, automatically stayed the execution. A hearing on the writ will be held at 10 a. m. Monday. Gov. Ruby Laffoon, at Frankfort, when advised that Judge Dawson had granted the writ, entered a formal order relieving Hall "until such time as final disposition of the case has been made" by the courts.

Wright, who did not represent Hall at his trial here but was brought into the case a week ago, averred that Hall was hurried to trial in six days without opportunity to prepare a defense and that his counsel made a motion for continuance, supported by affidavits, but it was overruled. Judge Dawson first denied the writ but later granted it after the attorney had amended his petition. The judge indicated he was granting it because a man's life was at stake but remarked that he considered the case in behalf of Hall "weak."

Asked by the court why delayed to make the motion until the eve of the execution, Wright said he was not the trial attorney but had just been employed. The writ was issued as officials at Eddyville Prison were completing preparations for the execution and as Governor Laffoon studied a last-minute appeal for clemency for Hall, who was to have said with his life for the murder of Samuel Horne in a filling station holdup here the night of June 15, 1934.

REV. J. V. FREEMAN DIES AT HOME HERE AFTER LONG ILLNESS

END. COMES LAST NIGHT AT HOME ON EDDINGS STREET

Citizens of Fulton and surrounding territory throughout the Methodist Memphis Conference were saddened at the death of Rev. James V. Freeman, superannuated Methodist minister of this city, who passed away Thursday, June 13th, at 7:00 o'clock at his home on Eddings Street. Rev. Freeman suffered a stroke of paralysis three years ago, but the end came unexpectedly from a heart attack. The deceased had been a member of the Methodist Memphis Conference for the past thirty-six years and has held prominent parsonates throughout its boundaries, including Clinton, Fulton, Dyersburg, Union City, Highland Heights, Memphis, Huntingdon, Henderson, Tenn., and Fulton, Ky., and served as Presiding Elder for several years in the Jackson, Lexington, and Brownsville Districts. He was born in Gardner, Tennessee, in Wayne County, and received his early education there, later attending Old Marvin College at Clinton, Ky., McFerrin College at Martin, Tenn., and Vanderbilt University at Nashville.

Rev. Freeman came to Fulton for the first time in 1923 and served the First Methodist Church here for four years, during which time he formulated the plans and built the magnificent edifice which stands as a memorial to him, completing the church in 1927. He was gifted, and had his heart, in the raising of money for church purposes, and to this end worked hard and earnestly all during his career, and saw the fulfillment of his desires in the erection of the Dyersburg, Mason Hall and Fulton churches during his lifetime.

The death of Rev. Freeman removes a milestone that marked the progress of the country. He was essentially a builder. His activities involved employment of thousands. Like the strong and vigorous character of his generation, there was a tenderness and sweetness about his that made lasting friends of those who came in contact with him.

One of his most cherished memories was of his mother. He was born to J. E. and Portia Allen Freeman, both Virginians, and never to the day of his death, ceased grieving over the departure of his mother from this world while he was yet in his infancy. He was heard to say: "Mother's Day address to say: 'I feel like I have been handicapped from my youth by the death of my beloved mother.'"

Great activity and vitality characterized the youth and manhood of Rev. Freeman; he was never idle. In his youth he abandoned in play, and in the years of his ministry he was unstinted in the expenditure of his enormous energy. He was abundant in labors, sparing not himself by day or by night; never had time to stop. He knew no such thing as inconvenience or indisposition. Though often, for the past few years have, been very solicitous about him, he has kept plunging along, never knowing the word failure. He was powerful, masterful, far-seeing, judicious, determined, and an almost incomparable administrator of affairs. His brethren and fellow-citizens know that he has made a great churchman. He had marked success in his pastorates, in the presiding eldership and in his every undertaking.

A member of the Board of Education and the Board of Finance of the Conference, which latter place he perhaps held longer than any other member of the conference, he also was a delegate to the General Conference in 1920. So much did he appreciate and love the people of Fulton that it was his wish that he come to Fulton to make this his home upon his retirement from the ministry, which he, acting upon the invitation of

WALKOUT OF PIT WORKERS IS NOW BELIEVED CERTAIN

ROOSEVELT SEEKS EARLY PASSAGE OF LABOR-DEMANDED COAL BILL

Washington, June 13.—(AP).—Despite pressure by President Roosevelt behind a labor-demanded coal bill, operators today reported the chances of averting a nationwide soft coal strike on Monday had dwindled to almost nothing. The President told House leaders he wanted quick enactment of the controversial Guffey Coal Stabilization Bill, which some believe would shorten the life of the threatened strike. Almost immediately thereafter, Representative Samuel B. Hill, Democrat, Washington, of the Ways and Means Committee, announced hearings would be started tomorrow or Monday on the measure to set up a "little N. R. A." for the bituminous industry.

CIGARETTE SMOKER BURNED IN BED DIES

Maysville, Ky., June 13.—(AP).—John Diener, 23, died in Haywood Hospital today of burns received December 23, when bedclothing became ignited from a cigarette he was smoking in bed. He had been a hospital patient for the last month and recently underwent a blood transfusion.

The people of this city, did in 1932. Encouraging the young people to attend the church schools was one of his many worthwhile projects, and while District Presiding Elder held the record of having more young people throughout the District in church schools than were attending from any other district. His keen sense of humor, which would have won for him untold wealth if he had put it to commercial use, caused him to be sought after in circles even outside the church. He was a welcome addition to any local program of a civic or social nature, and his absence will be keenly felt. His genial and lovable manner will forever be cherished in the hearts of every one who had the privilege of knowing him. He did a constructive work wherever he went, and possessed one of the most lovable and understanding hearts of any minister in the conference. He was lovingly referred to as the "Young Man's Friend" throughout this territory.

The feeling which has existed between the citizens of Fulton and Rev. Freeman has for many years been one of mutual love and, regardless of denomination, his friends here are legion. At the time of his death he was a member of the Masonic Lodge at Huntingdon, Tenn., having served as Grand Chaplain with J. T. Peeler of Huntingdon as State Grand Master. He was also an honorary member of the Fulton Rotary Club and was keenly interested in activities of this organization both local and national. Rev. Freeman is survived by his widow and one son, Herman, of Fulton, two sisters, Mrs. S. R. Bratton and Mrs. Pauline House of Union City, Tenn., and one brother, O. W. Freeman, of Martin, Tenn. Percy Freeman of this city is a cousin. The body will lie in state at the family residence on Eddings street until noon Sunday, June 16, and will be removed to the Methodist church at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, where the casket will remain open until 3 o'clock, after which time it will remain closed during the service, and will not be opened again. Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the First Methodist Church of this city, with Rev. E. N. Mathis, Pastor of that church, officiating. He will be assisted by Rev. J. Mack Jenkins, Presiding Elder of the Union City District. Hornbeak Funeral Home will direct the services.

RAILROAD WORKERS ON PROGRAM AT LIONS CLUB

Joining in with the national Railroad, the Lions Club today heard Trainmaster H. W. Williams, and road Week celebration of Western retired traveling Engineer Walter Shepherd, D. Crutchfield, another retired rail worker was also present, and all were introduced by Bailey Huddleston, who sponsored the program. Mr. Huddleston is a former railroad worker, and several other members of the club have worked for the Illinois Central at one time or another. Mr. Williams spoke on the contribution that the Illinois Central has made to every community which it serves, calling attention to the fact that for last year the payroll in Fulton was almost a half-million dollars. He gave some interesting sidelights on the ceaseless effort that the Illinois Central puts forth to better its service protect its employes and better serve its patrons. Mr. Shepherd also spoke briefly, calling attention to the fact that every person in Fulton benefits directly or otherwise from the railroad dollars that are expended here. He stated that the country could not survive without the railroads, and was roundly applauded by the club members.

BRADDOCK WINNER IN RING BATTLE WITH CHAMP BAER

FRANTIC TOWARD END, BAER UNABLE TO HURT JIMMY

Madison Square Garden Bowl, New York, June 13.—(AP).—Max Baer couldn't flick the man depression couldn't lick, and so lanky hungry Jimmy Braddock longest longshot of them all, tonight came gallantly to the stalling, almost unbelievable conclusion of a desperate quest—heavyweight champion of the world.

He came plodding, sometimes stumbling, but always clear-eyed and courageous, in the end, as 30,000 stunned but prayerful spectators, screamed him on, sensing one of the most dramatic moments in the history of the prize ring, they lifted his hand in victory, conqueror of the great, glamorous Baer by the unanimous decision of Referee Johnny McAvoy and two judges after fifteen long, bitter rounds.

Did the Undoable

He had done the undoable, this 29-year old Irish icicle from New Jersey, a 1 to 10 shot, when he calmly touched his gloves to those of the glittering sun-browned champion as the starting bell echoed through the great sunken bowl, rang out, come to hope for him, to suffer with him, not daring to believe he could win. As he struggled on, gamely fighting the best fight that was in him, taking everything the burly Baer hurled at him, you could feel the tension increasing, feel breaths shortening.

It was a sight none in that bowl, contributing less than $200,000 to the cause, will ever forget. Jimmy, the common citizen, the 29 year old father of three youngsters, a preliminary fighter a year ago, on relief a year before that, didn't win with any glorious gesture. Methodically, his expression never changing, a man of ring destiny, he plowed along through a fight that at times was as tame as any in modern heavyweight championship history. Even in the glow of victory they couldn't call him a great champion.

Baer Saw It Coming

But he plowed along, setting a pace that seemed even to convince Baer, finally, of the impossibility of staving off the most amazing cycle in heavyweight history. Baer, claiming his hands were broken, fought desperately in the closing rounds to stave off the inevitable, but he was like a King Canute trying to wave back the tides.

COMMENT

NOT SO BAD

It was long rumored that lawyers close to the Administration—as well as those associated with industrial and business organizations—felt the NRA was partly unconstitutional.

It was likewise believed that an NRA Supreme Court test case would result in a split decision—probably 5 to 4—as in the railroad pension and gold seizure cases. NRA friends were certain that the liberal justices—Hughes, Cardozo, Brandies and Stone—would uphold the law. They were almost equally certain that the conservatives—McReynolds, Butler, Vandevanter and Sutherland—would vote against it. Their principal worry was what side Justice Roberts would take.

As a result, when the Supreme Court, by a unanimous decision, threw out the NRA in entirety, the Administration was staggered.

In the week following the decision, many wild rumors filled the air. NRA friends said that the Supreme Court's act meant the return of the sweat shop, child labor, industrial peonage. NRA opponents said that the way was now clear for business to go ahead full blast. Democratic leaders in Congress spoke vaguely of framing new laws which would attain the purposes of the dead NRA, and still be constitutional. President Roosevelt, in a startling press interview, intimated that he might seek a Constitutional amendment giving Congress the powers the Supreme Court has said it does not now possess.

Now that sufficient time has passed to review events calmly, it seems safe to say that no new NRA law will be attempted—most Administration lawyers have admitted that the decision leaves no room for further efforts along that line—and that the most extreme NRA friends and enemies were wrong. Employers are not cutting wages and increasing hours, and the fact that the NRA no longer exists has not given rise to a major boom in business overnight.

So far as the public was concerned, the NRA did three things: It artificially raised wages, shortened the working week and increased prices. Industry in general was, and still is, in favor of fair hours and wages. Since the decision, the heads of literally hundreds of major corporations have announced that they will not change existing wage and working conditions, and in only a handful of relatively unimportant cases have concerns gone back to pre-NRA standards.

Prices are another matter. Once the codes were thrown out, industry was at liberty to operate on a competitive basis. First break came in cigarette prices, which, held by the code to a minimum of 13 cents, dropped at once to 10 and 11 cents. And in many lines of business, jobbers canceled future orders, believing that they would soon be able to buy the same products for much less money.

Responsible industrialists were largely opposed to NRA price-fixing—but they also know the disastrous possibilities of uncontrolled price-cutting. As a result, various groups which were under code have announced that they plan to voluntarily continue them, even though it is no longer legally obligatory. This is pleasing to the Administration, which still believes that stabilized price levels are essential to the recovery program.

Thus, the upshot of the Supreme Court's decision is likely to result in the best phases of the NRA idea being continued voluntarily—while its worst phases, compulsion, price boosting and overriding of constitutional rights, will be dropped. It is obvious that a lessening of bureaucratic control over business, which NRA immeasurably increased, will stimulate private initiative. It is equally obvious that the psychological effect of the decision—which said, by intimation, "State's rights still exist, and the Federal power does not include dictatorship over private endeavors not within interstate commerce"—will be aspir to industrial expansion. And those who gravely feared that the decision would cause an immediate drop in the worker's income are wrong.

HOPKINSVILLE PROTESTS AGAINST BRIDGE TOLLS

Murray, Ky., June 12—(AP)—The Hopkinsville Chamber of Commerce has joined Murray's organization and other bodies in Western Kentucky in an effort to reduce toll rates on Eggers' Ferry Bridge over the Tennessee River. In a letter to the Highway Commission, the Hopkinsville body said, "The present high rate of toll at this point cause, reduction in travel across the bridge. Our Burley Tobacco Market suffers quite a lot through the winter months."

The Murray organization said it costs $2.70 in toll rates for a citizen to make the round trip from Murray to Cadiz, county seat of Trigg and adjoining county.

"GOLD DIGGERS OF 1935" COMING TO ORPHEUM THEATRE SUNDAY

"Gold Diggers of 1935", First National's latest mammoth musical spectacle, opens at the Orpheum Theatre Sunday.

The picture is said to carry more unique and unusual numbers, greater song hits and more hilarious fun than any other musical produced by this company busy Berkeley, musical comedy genius, not only created and staged the numbers, but directed the entire picture.

The story by Robert Lord and Peter Milne is a rollicking comedy with three separate love angles. There is a play within the play, a wealthy widow producing a milk fund show at a swanky summer hotel.

Dick Powell and Gloria Stuart have the romantic leads, with Frank McHugh and Dorothy Dare in a semi-comic love affair and Glenda Farrell taking an eccentric millionaire over the jumps. Alice Brady has the role of the rich widow who is bilked of a considerable fortune by a theatrical producer, a part played by Adolph Menjou. Joseph Cawthern in the role of a scene and costume artist and the hotel manager, Grant Mitchell.

FOLLOW THE STRAIGHT LINE

"A straight line is the shortest distance between two points." That holds for any two points—your pocketbook and your list of wants, for example. Follow the straight line, and you'll save yourself time, trouble and money.

Use the advertising columns of this newspaper as guide posts. In them, you find late news of what's to be had in the markets of the world. No need for you to meander about from store to store, comparing, pricing, judging, guessing values. The advertisements tell you the names of merchants and manufacturers you can trust. There you read what's new, what's favored, what's offered confidently for your inspection. The advertisements in this paper take you into more stores than you could visit in a month.

There's no high-pressure selling, no rush, no uncertainty to this daily review of markets. Form the good habit of shopping by the STRAIGHT-LINE method—you'll buy with assurance, with economy and with satisfaction.

ELECTRIC COOKING ALWAYS GIVES YOU SAVORY MEALS

★ Dependable electric service is the cheapest thing you buy. Our new lower rates make it cheaper than ever!

★ Every woman interested in better cooking and kitchen should read the July issue of McCall's Magazine, now on sale.

Electric cooking retains all food juices and flavors, without any food shrinkage—assuring more nourishing and appetizing meals, plus real economy.

With electric cooking you have no heat leakage to make your kitchen hot in summer—and you have no smoke, soot, dirt, fire hazard, greasy deposits or food odors.

The modern electric range makes the old-fashioned cook stove as out-of-date as the ox-cart.

We sell the Hotpoint Range. Other reliable makes and types are sold by local merchants. See them all. Then buy the one that best meets your needs on convenient purchase terms.

Install a modern electric range in your kitchen now—and enjoy a lifetime of satisfactory service.

Go White, Young Man

Remember when the youth who sought opportunity was told to go West...
Today, opportunity is at every man's door...and a good way to seize it is to feel and look your best.
The trend to cool-white sweeps the country...and why not? No other suit is so becoming...no other suit gives that air of freedom and prosperous comfort.

To our way of thinking, there's just one great national white fabric...and that's the

MRS. YOUNG HOST TO SWIFT BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. Horace Young was host to the regular Thursday afternoon bridge club at her home in the Jones' Apartment. After a delightful afternoon of bridge Mrs. Edwin Bein held high score and Miss JoNelle Rogers second high. Each received lovely prizes. A well planned salad plate was served by the host. Guests to the club were: Miss JoNelle Rogers, Mesdames. Buren Rogers, Mansfield Martin, Robert Phillips, Harry Grissom of Union City, Mike Sullivan and Jimmy Cockran.

ENTERTAINS WITH SIX O'CLOCK DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Riddle graciously entertained with a six o'clock dinner Wednesday evening at their home on Walnut Street. The guest list included the following: Joseph Stone, Plant Chief of the Southern Bell Telephone Company at Paducah, Luther Toll of Owensboro and John Fleming, District Plant Chief of the Southern Bell Telephone Company at Owensboro.

One of the loveliest early summer parties was given last night when Miss Sara Butt entertained at the Country Club for Mrs. Jimmy Young, Jr., Knoxville, Tenn., Mrs. James Koon, Little Rock, Ark., and Miss Martha Niles, bride-elect of Union City, whose marriage to Mr. James Yell of Toledo, Ohio, Mrs. William McMahan, St. Louis, another honoree was unable to attend because of illness.

The hostess presented each honoree with a shoulder corsage of roses and sweet peas, and the lovely, long summer frocks were enhanced by the beauty of the club rooms, which were decorated with radiance roses, larkspur and sweet peas. Eleven tables of guests enjoyed the evening of contract, after which Miss Martha Futrell held high score and was presented twin rose jars; Mrs. Robert Bard received second high, a luncheon set, and Mrs. Lawrence Holland cut consolation a costume bracelet. The honorees were given dainty handkerchiefs.

After the games, Miss Butt, assisted by Miss Cordelia Brann, served a delicious ice course. Out of town guests were: Mrs. James Koon, Little Rock, Mrs. Jimmy Young, Knoxville; Misses Martha Niles, Stella Scates, Doris Niles, Elizabeth Rogers, Martha Futrell, Elizabeth Niles, Mesdames Gene Talley, Sudberry and David Caldwell of Union City; and Mrs. Bishop Given, Circleville, Ohio.

Hints for Motorists

By C. R. Strouse

Director, School of Automobiles, International Correspondence Schools

A SIMPLE, easily improvised device is helpful in isolating noises made by the various parts of the automobile engine, and in spotting trouble due to worn bearings, worn valve springs or loose timing gears. A long screw driver and a tin can with one open end are all that are needed. Touch the screw driver to the various parts of the engine, holding the bottom of the can against the handle of the screw driver and listening at the open end of the can. The device provides an effective engine stethoscope.

The old grease in the steering-gear housing ought to be flushed out periodically. If there is no drain plug, a quart of hot cylinder oil slowly pumped into the housing and allowed to run out of the filler plug, will cause most of the grease to dissolve and flow out with the oil.
