SEVENTY-FOUR

Citizens of the United States Arrested by Spanish.

A SPLENDID VICTORY.

A Spanish Garrison Driven Out And Forts Destroyed.

ANOTHER EXPEDITION ON THE WAY.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Responding to a resolution of inquiry, the president today sent to the Senate a list of persons claiming to be citizens of the United States who have been arrested on the island of Cuba since February 24, 1895. The list was accompanied by a letter from Secretary Olney, in which he states that since the breaking out of the insurrection to the present time seventy-four persons have been arrested, while of those seven have been tried. These are Juan Sanguilly, Louis Soulellan, Alfred La Borde, William Golder, Ann Melton, Chas. Harriet and Wm. Leavitt. In the cases of Sanguilly and Soulellan, the charges against them have been taken, and in the case of the other five competitors a new trial has been ordered.

Thirty-six of the persons arrested have been released after the charges against them had been investigated and found to be baseless. Eighteen have been expelled from the island after periods of confinement lasting from a few days to a year, while sixteen cases are still pending. The charges against fourteen of these are as follows: Sedition and Rebellion—Casper A. Betancourt, Joseph L. Cepero, Rebellion—George W. Aguirre, Rebellion with Arms in Hand—Manuel Fernandez Chiquito, Oscar Cepeda, Frank Aguirre and Thomas Julio Sanz. Purchase and Concealment of Arms and Ammunition—Antonio Juarez Delvillar. Disorderly Conduct and Insults to Spain—Theo. L. Ayres. Landing Arms—The five competitor prisoners mentioned.

The remaining cases of Frank J. Larren, Katherine Venero and Jose Gonzalez have not been ascertained, though demand has been made for them both at Havana and Madrid, with a further demand that they be at once formulated and communicated to that the prisoners be released.

The Secretary adds that in addition to the seventy-four cases are correspondents of various newspapers in the United States have been expelled from Cuba by the Spanish authorities after temporary detention by the military. He also says that no American citizen has been sentenced to or confined at Cuba, and closes with the statement that demands have been made upon the Spanish Government in every case where trial seems to be unreasonably delayed that it go forward at once or that the prisoner be released.

BOMBARDING THE CHURCH.

How Hernandez's Men Defeated the Spanish at Pelotas.

Key West, Fla. Jan. 24.—Another defeat for the Spanish is reported from Pelotas, southern part of Havana Province. The place has about 1,000 inhabitants, and, being a good location, is well fortified and has a Spanish garrison of 600 men with one field piece. Last night the Spanish were in command of 500 insurgent cavalrymen, made a dash at the town Monday afternoon, while the troops were at the church celebrating some local holiday. Before they could form the insurgents had possession of the block house, and the canon was trained at the church, and before the Spanish were hardly aware of what was the trouble shot came hurling through its walls, while the cries of "Cuba libre" filled the air. Out the Spanish rushed, only to fall before a deadly volley from a strong force posted behind some neighboring houses. Col. Munoz, the Spanish officer bravely rallied his men, but as they formed for a charge he fell with a dozen bullets through him. The second in command took his place, but he, too, fell in a few seconds, the sharpshooters of Hernandez, dealing death with a rapidity that simply made the troops panic-stricken. They made one more attempt to charge the block house, but Hernandez's cavalry rushed at them from a near by street, sweeping through them and cutting a bloody path with their sharp machetes.

Round they turned, and again they came through the crowded ranks of the Spanish, carrying death in their tracks, though many empty shells spoke of the bravery of the Spanish troops.

The Spanish then retired, it being a rout, though a portion of them suddenly protected their rear, making stands from time to time, until forced to retire by Hernandez's fierce charges. After pursuing them nearly to Cajiao, on the coast, Hernandez withdrew. He burned the fort at Pelotas. The insurgents secured 400 stands of arms, one cannon, $1,000 in gold and $5,000 in paper money, besides ammunition and many valuable papers belonging to the Spanish command.

Havana officials knew of the defeat Tuesday night, but have kept it suppressed, and the palace officials deny it, saying that the place has been "evacuated."

The fire had its origin in Hancock Brown's grocery on Market, and burned more than two squares to the Wanamaker building where it was checked. MR. DICK CLARK RECOGNIZED.

Two Young Men from the County Try to Act Metropolitan.

JUDGE SANDERS HAS BETTER BUSINESS.

Mr. Dick Clark was presented in Judge Sanders' court this morning on a peace warrant sworn out against him by Jim Hubbard, runner at the New Richmond.

The trouble came as a sequel to the difficulty Mr. M. W. Clark and Hubbard had at the Union Depot Sunday, in which Mr. Clark was struck by a poker in the hands of Hubbard.

Mr. Dick Clark is a brother to the injured man, and was at the Union Depot yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Officer Jones, who is in that beat, testified this morning that Mr. Clark tried to borrow his club, and he wouldn't permit him to take it. He remarked that he "could get the poker, which was what he hit Mann with." He went in the lunch room, obtained the poker, and when he came out the officer seized him and got the poker, throwing it back into the room, and informing Mr. Clark that he couldn't do anything like that around there.

Mr. Clark afterwards said he wouldn't harm a hair of Hubbard's head.

Hubbard testified that he didn't know Mr. Clark, but that he had been told at the depot that Clark was a bad man and was looking for him, and was advised to make himself scarce. He said he was trying to make a living and his duties called him to the depot, where he was afraid he might have trouble.

Judge Sanders recognized Mr. Clark in the sum of $200 to keep the peace and the defendant repeated the statement as he left the court room that he wouldn't harm a hair of Hubbard's head.

Joe Thompson and J. L. Cochran, two well known young men of the county, got a little too bilious last night and as a result found themselves face to face with the minions of the law this morning. They applied at the door of Pearl Wilson's resort on West Court street for admission about midnight, both intoxicated, and she informed them that they could not get in, as all the free were out and the inmates were asleep. Determined to get in, Thompson smashed the glass door in, and left rather suddenly, for the nameless fired several shots at him.

Officer Crow was near, and arrested them both. Thompson pleaded guilty to breaking out the door and was fined $10. Cochran was fined a dollar for drunkenness.

Judge Sanders roasted a gang of tough negro scoundrels this morning. They were Helen Brooks, Annie Ramsey, Lou Mize, Alice Duncan and other notorious characters. Helen Brooks was charged with carrying a razor concealed somewhere about her person. She was arrested on a charge of drawing it on Vina Bell in the presence of the other women, and Judge Sanders said it would have been a blessing to the community if she had annihilated the entire crowd while she was at it. The Brooks woman denied having the razor and the case was continued.

Frank Reed was fined $1 for drunkenness. He is a pugilist and attempted to clean out a Court street restaurant yesterday.

Earnest Chairs and James Casey were charged with fighting. The latter was fined $10 and costs and the former $5.

Andy Surratt, the man who has served several sentences on the chain gang for vagrancy, was again before this morning. He boldly courts arrest for he is willing to work on the streets and says the lockup is a better home than he can get elsewhere. Judge Sanders remarked that he was sorry he would have to disappoint him, and dismissed the charge, advising the stalwart mendicant to go out and get work somewhere.

Lee Harris, colored, thinks escaping from the chain gang is not very profitable business. He has escaped twice recently, the last time leaving thirty-seven days untried. The law provides that in such cases the prisoner shall have his sentence doubled, and Harris was given forty days.

"How is business?" a Six reporter inquired of one.

"Got more'n we can do," was the laconic reply. "Pipes busted everywhere, stoves blown up, bath rooms full of ice and water and hydrants all either frozen or busted."

"How many stoves have blown up?" he was asked.

"Pretty near all in the city," he returned. "I know of over a dozen, but few of them have done any damage when they exploded, most of them simply blowing up and ruining the stove. Most of the damage of the cold snap seems to be from busted pipes."

And he shouldered his shovel and tongs and increased his gait to make up for lost time.

George Warren Sees His Uncle And Runs.

George Warren, the boy who suddenly left Officer Barnhart's home Saturday, after having lived there since he was four years of age, was found by the officer yesterday afternoon at Metropolis, whither he had gone in quest of him.

Officer Barnhart ran across him on the street and young Warren took to his heels, after first having explained, however, that he had left home to get rich, and had secured a position in a box factory. He has a sister living there, but the officer and his wife, having raised and educated the boy, feel that they are entitled to keep him, and today Mrs. Barnhart went down to induce him to return.

We will have lots of cold weather till April, so you might as well get that heading stove you have been thinking about. Remember, too, that Scott Hardware Co. have the largest assortment and lowest prices in the city.
