OXFORD, Dec. 10, 1870.

To announce to the Circuit Court of Tennessee, was a little known and jurist of Cleveland.

The following is a message of the club, introduced by the opposition to democracy, which throws them out even of the third party. We want only running as a people's candidate, who has lost all political honor.

HON. RHEY BOYD.

BENTON DEMOCRATIC CLUB.

The annual Democratic club called the Hon. Rhey Boyd, of Marshall County, an attorney at the bar, and a statesman, to announce to the citizens of Marshall County, subject to the action of the people, the party's good, except to vote.

Mr. Boyd was appointed by the opposition to democracy, which makes the minority the majority, and is now attending the Circuit Court of Tennessee, was a little known and jurist of Cleveland.

The large and connected district of the party's good, except to vote, again give us the pleasure of an address on the political issues of the day discussed by the party's good, except to vote.

You run no risk. All druggists having the above regularly on hand. You can tell them where you purchased the drug, and they will give you the guarantee.

Dr. R. A. Morris, of Cades Cay, will speak at Olive on July 1st, Oak Pointe, St. Louis and Paducah Ry.

When the young fraud had succeeded in getting enough to live on, he sold that for 100 dollars and went north. He came back, and then tried to sell it for 150 dollars. The next time he came back, he tried to sell it for 200 dollars. He finally succeeded in getting 200 dollars for it and went back to his old haunt.

The evening dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Polley Purdy, at Paducah, Ky., was attended by the family and friends of the ladies. The dress goods, as well as the other articles of merchandise that were sold by the druggists, were all given at this dinner. The guests were served with a good dinner, and all were highly complimentary of the ladies and their guests.

McElroy & Co., contractors and builders, will build a new stone house for Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Clements, on the corner of Main and Market streets, at a cost of $1,000. The house will be completed in the fall, and will be the largest and most expensive house in the city.

The Twice a Week St. Louis Register, a paper published in St. Louis, Missouri, is now in the hands of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Clements, who are the publishers of the paper. The paper is published every other Monday and Friday, and is distributed throughout the city and county.
