Big Business Deal Closed

Wade, Snow and White Purchase Scates Brothers' Business

One of the largest business deals of the new year in Fulton was closed this week when Ex-Mayor R. H. Wade, J. Ramsey Snow and Robt. H. White purchased from Scates Brothers, Ford dealers, their automobile business, stock and fixtures on Fourth street. The Ford dealers have always enjoyed an excellent business in Fulton. The garage, salesrooms, service station and general repair shops are centrally located in the business section of the city and occupy spacious quarters.

R. H. Wade, manufacturer, planter, financier, and all around progressive citizen is too well known for us to attempt an introduction, while Messrs. Snow and White are well known in Fulton social, business and financial circles, and will always be found in the front rank of every progressive move for the uplift and betterment of Fulton generally. And just here we want to say, Mr. White is an expert mechanic and will see that the repair department of the establishment is given the best of attention.

Messrs. Harry and Arthur Scates, former Ford automobile dealers, are men of high standing and during their residence here, by their gentlemanly business dealings with the public, have won the confidence and esteem of the entire citizenship, and while we are not acquainted with their future plans, we wish them every success in any new venture, hoping they will retain their citizenship in Fulton.

MULE MARKET LIVELY IN FULTON, SATURDAY

The announcement that Campbell & Jones would visit Fulton Saturday, to buy good fat mules, enlivened the market wonderfully. The premises about the B. J. Williams transfer barn on Fourth street, presented a lively scene about noon when many fine mules were brought in and offered for sale. Prices ranged from $50.00 to $170.00. The buyers had no trouble in buying a carload for the Southern market where Kentucky mules bring fancy prices.

"BLIND JOE" MANGRUM WINS FIDDLERS' CONTEST

Playing the old favorite song, "Listen to the Mocking Bird," "Blind Joe" Mangrum, well known violinist of Paducah, won the Henry Ford "old fiddlers' contest," Wednesday evening, January 14, over fifteen other competitors in that city. The fiddlers contest was staged by the Foreman Automobile Company at the Woman's Club auditorium. He left Paducah, Tuesday, to participate in the state "Henry Ford Old Fiddlers' Contest" at Louisville.

Mr. Mangrum is well known in Fulton, and only recently, was winner in an "old fiddlers' contest," staged in connection with a concert given by Band 45 at the Orpheum theater. The successful contestant at Louisville will be given a new Ford touring car, fully equipped, and a free trip to Detroit, Mich., to play for Mr. Ford.

SAD NEWS

The friends of Mrs. Harry Scates deeply sympathize with her in the loss of her mother, Mrs. T. F. Steele, who died suddenly at her home in Greenwood, Miss., Tuesday. Mrs. Steele was well known in Fulton, and during her visit here last fall was complimented at many social functions.

Mr. and Mrs. Scates left immediately for Greenwood on receiving the sad news.

Good Tobacco Market in Fulton

Prices at the loose leaf floor sale which was held on last Friday, averaged about a dollar higher than on the opening day. One farmer delivered between four and five wagon loads of leaf that ran from $16 to $19.75, showing that the careful handling of the crop is worth while.

There were approximately 47,000 pounds sold Friday and as stated above, the prices were a trifle higher than for the first sale. Nearly 200,000 pounds were sold on the two first days of the new method of disposing of the crop.

There were more buyers present Friday than on Tuesday and they report that the prices here were as good, if not better than at other points in this part of the dark fired section.

The announcement has been made that there would be no sale on Tuesday on account of the condition of the roads, but as early as Monday morning a number of phone messages assured the management that if the roads permitted, farmers would bring in their crops, thus assuring a large amount of tobacco for the sale to be held today.

There was a scarcity of good leaf last Friday, but the expectation for this week is that the quality will be better than heretofore and that there will be a big quantity on sale, with many buyers present to bid.

New Grocery Store For Fulton

Absolutely new in Fulton, but old in other progressive towns, is the U-TOTE-EM wholesale and retail grocery establishment opening up in the Meadows' Block, corner of State Line and Church street. Two large store rooms have been leased by the new firm and the stock is arriving and being placed on the shelves and in the wareroom preparatory for the grand opening about February 1.

S. C. Smith, formerly representative of the Palm Olive Soap Co., in this territory, is manager of the Fulton store, known as No. 9. For the past year Mr. Smith has made his headquarters in Fulton, with his wife occupying an apartment in the Creedle home on Walnut street. They are estimable young people who will make good citizens. Mr. Smith is a native Alabamian, of Florence, and is a progressive, live wire salesman, or he would have never been selected to manage store No. 9 in Fulton for the U-Tote-Em Co. They have quite a number of stores—two in Paris, Tenn., and another recent addition at Martin, McKenzie, etc.

First National Bank Elect

All Old Officers and Directors For Ensuing Year.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the First National bank, of Fulton, held in the directors' room January 12th, all of the old directors and officers were re-elected.

All associated with the First National express themselves as being well pleased with 1925 business and will exert greater efforts, if possible, to make 1926 the banner year of the institution.

The First National is closing its thirty-fifth year of existence in a prosperous condition with men at the head of its affairs who have the utmost confidence of the entire community and an excellent standing in the financial arena. It stands today as a movement of the wisdom that brought it into existence and the sagacity that has conducted it to its present enviable position.

The First National Bank was organized on May 16, 1891, with a capital stock of $100,000. Since that time it has stood as a beacon light by which many of the best financial enterprises of Fulton have been safely anchored in the harbor of success.

Attractive Display On Church Street

Kentucky Hardware and Implement Co., Featuring Incubators, Etc.

To stimulate the poultry industry in Fulton and vicinity the Kentucky Hardware & Implement company, located on Church street, has arranged in their show windows one of the best and most attractive displays witnessed in Fulton for a long time with the Old Kentucky Home Incubator featuring the display. Within a few days the products of this incubator will be seen scratching around in the specially prepared food best for little chicks and drinking from containers made for them.

Even those who are not directly interested in raising poultry take the "fever" and have a longing desire to own just 5 or 10 acres out in the suburbs to try their luck with an industry that has never glutted the market and always in demand.

And just here we may say that many of our best farmers will tell you their chickens and eggs, some time or other, have tucked them over a close place in a pinch. Therefore, it behooves everyone who can raise some chickens, either for pleasure or profit.

CIRCUIT COURT CONVENES IN FULTON MONDAY

Fulton County Circuit court will convene here Monday with Judge W. H. Hester, presiding. The court has been in session during the week at Hickman.

LEON BROWDER ASSOCIATED WITH J. W. HILLMAN & CO.

Leon Browder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Browder, of Fulton, has arrived in the city with his family from Bristow, Okla., and is now associated with J. W. Hillman & Co., Fulton's prominent stock and bond dealers with offices in the City National Bank building. We are delighted that Mr. Browder has returned to Fulton as we could ill afford to lose one of our native sons who stands as high in social, business and financial circles.

Thirty-Six Receive Diplomas

A class of thirty-six bright boys and girls received diplomas Friday night who had finished Fulton Junior High school and were enrolled as freshmen in the High school Monday morning.

The fourth mid-year exercises were held at the High School auditorium.

Featuring the evenings program the class presented an enjoyable operetta, "Yanki San," directed by Miss Vera Mae Elliott. The High School orchestra furnished the beautiful musical numbers under the direction of Miss Iva White.

The vocal solo, "A Japanese Love Song," by Miss Annie McWherter was well received by the audience.

The address by Supt. V. C. Myers was filled with wholesome advice.

Dr. I. H. Read, member of the board of education addressed the class and presented the diplomas to the young graduates who are as follows:

Grace Alma Hill, Ruth Josephine Hill, Elsie Pauline Windsor, Mary Louise Smith, Lucile Winifred Smith, Harold Leon Copeland, Ruth Elizabeth Miller, Eva Lynn Boyd, Najla Hamman, Howard Thomas Strange, Charles Harold Heywood, Lowell Claude Williams, George Thomas Vaughan, Jr., Finis Garner, Alvie Vancil, Glenn Conn, Mary Elizabeth Stevenson, Vivian Pauline Wade, Irene Grace Boyd, Cordelia Brown, Francis Moss, Louise Huddleston, Harold Newton, Monette Douglas, William Ervin Bell, Wallace Shankle, Jr., Julia Francis Beadles, Juano Mays, Geneva Yandel, Macon Felts Batts, Ollie Reeves, Wm. William Harold Hart, Ralph A. Watts, Annie May Hendon, Herman Walter Brown, Isaac Henry Read, Virginia Glyn Rucker.

DR. A. J. TURNEY RETURNS HOME

The friends of Dr. A. J. Turney will be delighted to learn that he has returned to his home in Crutchfield, Ky., from Rochester, Minn., much improved in health.

Dr. Turney is well known throughout this entire section of country as one of the leading physicians of western Kentucky and when his health failed him some months ago, his many friends and admirers were greatly disturbed. For some time he was confined at the Mayfield hospital, but his condition baffled the learned physicians of that institution and he was taken to Mayo Brothers, the eminent specialists, for consultation. He is now at home with renewed strength and his complete recovery is hopeful.

T. E. Powers Passes Away

The death angel entered the Southern Hotel Wednesday and carried away the spirit of T. E. Powers. Only a short time ago Mr. Powers came to Fulton to be with his daughter, Mrs. A. E. Wall, who is manager of the hotel. At the time of his death he was 81 years old, a consecrated member of the Methodist church and highly esteemed by all who knew him. He is survived by his wife and two daughters, Mrs. A. E. Wall, of Fulton, and Mrs. J. M. Peay, of Memphis.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. J. V. Freeman Thursday afternoon at the funeral home of Fulton Undertaking Company.

Now is a good time to renew your subscription for The Advertiser another year. Don't wait until your name is dropped from the list. A $1.00 bill will place you in good standing on our list for one year.

NEW MACHINE NOW AT WORK

AIR DRIED CLOTHES FROM A MODERN LAUNDRY

The missing link to laundry perfection has been welded in the chain of modern equipment at the O. K. Steam Laundry, of Fulton. The Vorclone Tumbler, the Twentieth Century Laundry wonder has been installed and as we stood before this machine Monday and viewed its mechanism and examined its work, we thought of what a master mind it must have been to create and perfect it. And we thought to ourselves—Now the washerwoman has lost her job and the end has come for the druggery of washday.

It is the greatest laundry development in years. Because, now the modern laundry not only washes clean whatever you choose to send, but also duplicates in every respect the method of drying that the housewife has employed for time immemorial, namely, the hanging of the washing on the old-fashioned close line, to bask and dry in the glorious sunshine.

This new method of drying by air eliminates for all time that unmistakable odor which has branded the work of the power laundry in the past.

Thousands and Thousands of Cubic Feet of Concentrated Sunshine.

The scientific application of air as a drying agent in the power laundry is accomplished by the perfection of the Vorclone Drying Tumbler. This most wonderful machine harnesses clean fresh air in such great volumes that it almost entirely eliminates the necessity of heat to dry clothes with. It dries clothes by air, evenly and gently, ventilating them thoroughly, freeing them entirely of all lint, leaving them soft, fluffy and perfectly odorless. Clothes dried in this manner are never shrunk, discolored or left with a harsh feel.

The Vorclone Tumbler used in the O. K. Laundry is the only drying tumbler that does not depend solely on heat to dry clothes, it is the missing link in an otherwise perfect laundry-drying process.

Be sure to see this wonder machine at the O. K. Laundry anytime, feel and smell the clothes it dries, notice how fresh and sweet smelling they are.

With perfect satisfaction the O. K. Laundry can now take your family wash and return it clean and sweet with the proper amount of starch used to give utmost satisfaction and delight to the housewife, yet when it is returned home it will be soft and fluffy without that harsh feeling.

Ben P. Bennett Elected President

Of Water Valley Bank to Succeed H. M. Barnes

At a stockholders meeting of the Citizens Bank, of Water Valley, Ky., January 13th, all of the old directors were elected who in turn elected the following officers. Ben P. Bennett, president to succeed H. M. Barnes, Ed Eaker, vice president, to succeed E. G. Stokes.

Jake Barnes, cashier, to succeed Glen Stokes, resigned to accept a position as traveling salesman in this territory with the Ball Band Rubber company, of Wishawaka, Ind., Paul Bennett, son of Ben Bennett, ass't cashier.

Directors, E. G. Stokes, Ben P. Bennett, T. E. Eaker, J. E. Gates, L. B. Wenks, W. E. Barnes.

The Citizens bank was organized in 1902 with capital stock of $15,000. It has prospered each year, until today it is classed among the leading banks of the state. Its financial report at the close of business, December 31, 1925, showed deposits around $100,000.00.

Farmers Bank of Fulton Elect

All Old Officers and Directors Re-elected For Ensuing Year

At a stockholders meeting of the Farmers bank, of Fulton, held Monday, January 11th, all of the old directors and officers were re-elected for the ensuing year as follows.

Officers, A. Huddleston, president; J. P. Gates, vice president; A. M. Nugent, cashier. H. H. Murphy, assistant cashier.

Directors, H. F. Brann, A. Huddleston, U. H. Scott, W. J. Willingham, J. E. Gates, A. M. Nugent, Louis Weaks, I. H. Read.

The glowing reports given out by the various officers were indeed flattering for Fulton's youngest banking institution, especially after viewing the condensed statement at the close of business December 31, 1925, showing deposits of $603,613.05.

"Watch us Grow" has been the slogan of this bank and it should be gratifying indeed to the officials of this institution to note the splendid progress made in recent years.

A feature of the bank's activities for this year is a "Christmas Savings Account," and we understand around four hundred have joined the happy throng to make Christmas of this year the happiest in their lives.

South Fulton, Tenn.

On our rounds in South Fulton this week, we found our twin city across the line mapping out plans for the new year and taking a lively interest in our city's activities. Mayor McDade is a live wire and every inch of his make-up is for a progressive administration on an economical basis. In due time the courts will render a decision on the $40,000 bond issue voted for a public sewerage system. The general belief prevails that the decision will be rendered in favor of the city and work will soon start thereafter. Any work contemplated of a permanent nature on the streets, like Fulton, Ky., will be deferred until the proper time arrives for said improvements after the sewerage system is completed.

We found Chief of Police Hamlett's office about the busiest place on the south side. This clever official was busy making tax receipts and taking in the cash, which is a valuable asset to the good and welfare of any city.

A number of new residences add materially to the residential section of the city. The latest additions being the pretty Porter, Cantrell and Holman dwellings near the High school building. Industrial activities are also in full swing. At the cotton gin the fleecy staple is being baled and shipped. At the lumber mill, fine timber that once stood as sentinels of grandeur in the forests, are being sawed into beautiful quarter-sawn oak. At Pierce-Cequin & company's lumber establishment, building materials were being loaded on trucks and transferred to buildings under course of construction.

The South Fulton High school, under the supervision of Prof. Jones, is enjoying the best year in its history with the largest attendance and efficient faculty.

Taking it all in all, South Fulton is a progressive little city with some of the best people in the world making up the citizenship.

BEAUTIFULLY APPOINTED AFTERNOON TEA

Very charming indeed was the tea given Thursday from three till eight o'clock by the ladies of the Cumberland Presbyterian church at the palatial home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wade on Carr street.

The interior of the home is so very beautiful that few decorations were needed, however the house was lovely with quantities of spring flowers. The tea table in the dining room overlaid with a beautiful cloth of Maderia embroidery held a large silver basket of Columbia roses which rested on a mirror outlined with ferns and flanked with silver candle sticks holding pink tapers tied with white tulle, and silver dishes of pink and white confections. Mesdames R. H. Wade and Fred Worth presided at the silver tea service and assisting in passing the tea dainties were: Misses Ruth Coulter, Florence Kinney, Ruth and Lillian Wade, Mary Anderson and Florence Wade.

The guests were cordially greeted by Mrs. Mike Fry. Receiving in the living room with Mrs. Ramsey Snow, who is the president of the Missionary society, were Mrs. Paxton Shores of Rives, Mesdames L. E. Allen, C. H. Warren, Chas. Karmine, Jake Huddleston, W. R. Butt, J. V. Freeman, J. C. Scruggs, Vodie Hardin. In the sun parlor: Mesdames Don Taylor, Curtis Ledford, Herman Pickle received, and presided over the register, while delicious punch was served by Mrs. Pete Roberts.

Other ladies assisting were Mesdames Cleveland Parker, Jim Snow, Guy Snow, Floyd Irby, Will Stevens, Chas. Payne, Gus Bard, Fannie Price, John Foster, Rupert Stillely, Ralph Stubblefield.

A number of Fulton's talented musicians contributed to the afternoon and evenings program and quite a nice sum was realized for the church.

FRIDAY BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. Abe Jolly gave a lovely bridge party Friday afternoon when she entertained the members of her club and a few invited guests. Red carnations and bowls of narcissus provided attractive decorations. Tallies and pads to match were the smart table accessories, after a spirited game of bridge, lovely trophies were given for high scores, and consolation. At the close of the afternoon, a delicious luncheon was served.

AFTERNOON AT CARDS

A happy meeting of the Thursday Bridge club was held Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Harry Murphy as the gracious hostess. Four tables were in play and lovely prizes were awarded. Miss Mary Webb won the club prize, while Mrs. Chas. Karmine was presented a dainty memento of the occasion.

Following the game a delicious salad course was served.

BRIDGE PARTY

Mrs. C. S. Smith was the charming hostess to the members of the Thursday Bridge club in her lovely apartments at the Creedle home on Walnut street.

Two tables were in play. The top score prize went to Mrs. Seldon Cohn and Mrs. L. O. Carter cut consolation. A tempting luncheon was served at the close of the game.

EVENING BRIDGE CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Murphy were host and hostess to the Friday Night club at their home on Second street. The company filled five tables and five games were enjoyed.

Mrs. Eugene Demeyer and Harvyl Boaz held high scores for club members, while Mrs. Ed Kelly and Paul Pickering made high scores for the visitors.

A beautiful plate luncheon followed the game.

FOR SALE

One new Ford Touring Car, drawn at the Free car drawing last Saturday. Telephone 808. Graham McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Karmire are leaving this week for Shelbyville, Ind., their future home. The many friends regret their departure from the city. A series of interesting bridge and dinner parties have been given in their honor by Mesdames J. D. Davis, I. W. Dobbins, Clyde Williams, H. T. Alexander, Julian Seates and George Alley. Their son, Neil, who is a senior in High school, will remain here until the close of school in May.

Mrs. Russell Travis and son, Russell, Jr., left Monday for Thompsonville, Ga., to join Mr. Travis, where he is engaged in surveying right-of-way for a new railroad. They were accompanied by Mrs. J. T. Travis as far as Nashville, where she will visit relatives for a few days.

COMPLIMENTARY BRIDGE

Among the interesting parties of the week honoring Mrs. Chas. Karmire, was the bridge afternoon given by Mrs. Earl Karmire, Monday at her home on Park avenue, with the guest list confined to Mrs. Karmire's personal friends.

Four tables were placed to play and in the final count, four exquisite prizes were given. The luncheon following the game was delicious and sumptuously served, a well established characteristic of hospitalities tendered by this gracious hostess.

Preparations for the "Father and Son Banquet" to be given January 23 are being completed. It will be held in the high school auditorium at 6:30. An interesting program, which will consist of musical readings, piano solos, duets, and speeches will be given. Rev. E. S. Hicks will be toastmaster and Gen. Leslie Hindman, of Clinton, Ky., the chief speaker of the occasion.

MEMPHIS TO HAVE SEASON OF OPERA

Chicago Civic Opera Company Sings at Auditorium, March 4, 5 and 6

GALAXY OF STARS COMING

Brilliant Success of Last Season Will Be Surpassed—Memphis Civic Music League Is Sponsoring Engagement.

The Chicago Civic Opera Company enters upon its annual tour of a limited number of the larger cities of the country, immediately following the close of the Chicago season, January 23. Memphis is included in the tour, as it was last year, when the Chicago Company's engagement in February was the most brilliant musical, artistic and social success of the season.

MARY GARDEN
Best Known Grand Opera Singer in the World

This year the opera season will open at the Auditorium Thursday night, March 4, and will include three evening performances and a matinee on Saturday. The productions will be characterized by the same magnificence of stage setting, sumptuousness of costumes, and perfection of artistry that mark the performances in the home city of the organization.

Traveling on two special trains, the company of 350 people includes in its cast 30 principals, men and women whose names are household words, wherever the deathless compositions of the master musicians of the world are known and loved. Mary Garden, Rosa Raisa, Claudia Muzio, Edith Mason, Cyrena Van Gordon, Charles Hackett, Alexander Kipalis, Titta Rufa, Fernand Anseau—these and other luminaries will flash across the musical firmament during the opera season.

The engagement of the Chicago Civic Opera Company is sponsored by the Memphis Music League, and is underwritten for over $200,000 by more than 300 public spirited business firms and individuals. Recollection of the brilliant success of last year's engagement is fresh in the minds of music lovers in Memphis and in towns and cities in some seven or more states, as is evidenced by the immediate response in the advance sale of season tickets, now in progress. The demand is heavier than that of last year.

The scale of prices in effect is lower than in Chicago or in other cities visited by the company on tour. The fact that the Civic Music League is a non-profit organization eliminates the tax. Season tickets for the four operas range from $4 to $22. Seats for single performances range from $1 to $6. The advance sale is by mail only, with a 20 per cent deposit required with all orders. Full information relative to the engagement, and a diagram of seats will be furnished on request. Letters should be addressed and checks made payable to the Civic Music League, P. O. Box 1112.

Operas to be sung in Memphis are: Thursday evening, March 4 — "Aida," with Rosa Raisa.

Friday evening, March 5 — "La Traviata," with Claudia Muzio.

Saturday matinee, March 6 — "Carmen," with Mary Garden in the title role.

Saturday evening — "Rigoletto," with Edith Mason.

The operas will be presented with the same casts, ensembles, chorus, ballet and conductors that were in evidence in the Chicago season. The Symphonic Orchestra, under Giorgio Polacco, great musical director, and such notable conductors as Roberto Moranzoni, Henry G. Weber and four assistant conductors, will be heard in its full strength.

The civic and social features of the grand opera season are not being overlooked. Already plans are afoot for many delightful entertainments with the opera as their incentive, and opera stars and out of town visitors as honor guests. Tea dances, dinner dances and other functions are being arranged by the big hotels and clubs, while parties large and small will be given by some of the most popular hostesses in Memphis.

Coming as it does just when spring is dawning, the opera season will not be overlooked by merchants in the shopping centers of Memphis.

When you buy John Deere implements you are sure of prompt repair service throughout their long life

A FARM WAGON THAT IS GUARANTEED

The amount of satisfactory service that a wagon will give depends entirely upon the material and skill the manufacturer puts into it. We want to show you a wagon that is built of the best materials by men who know how—

THE JOHN DEERE WAGON
The Wagon That is Guaranteed

A special machine automatically measures the inside of the skin of the John Deere farm wagon and shapes the axle to fit accurately. The skin is set in red lead under high pressure. It has exactly the right pitch, and the axle has the right gather to make the John Deere wagon run lighter than other wagons. With the John Deere sand- and dust-proof skins there is no wearing of bearing surfaces—the oil stays in—the wagon is always smooth-running and light-pulling.

Only carefully-selected oak and hickory are used in the John Deere Wagon, and every piece of wood is air-seasoned under cover in our own yards for at least two years. The tires are set hot under hydraulic pressure and under a gauge that assures proper dish—the load is always carried on plumb spokes.

And don't forget this other big feature—the heavy malleable fifth-wheel with corrugated coupling—no bending or breaking of kingbolt—bolster does not get out of line and rock—no danger of tipping when handling large, top-heavy loads.

Come in and see this wagon—read the guarantee on the tool box. Let us explain the many fine points embodied in it.

Directors' Meeting

Hagler and Nugent Will Represent Fulton at Princeton Meet

A called meeting of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce was held in the Chamber Monday afternoon to discuss the sending of a delegate or delegates to the banquet and convention of the Western Kentucky Development Association, which will be held in Princeton, on Tuesday, January 26.

The principal reason for this organization, according to the call, is to organize the 23 counties of Western Kentucky for the purpose of obtaining their just proportions of the Federal, State and County road funds, and their proper use for the roads of these counties, good roads being the first essential in the promoting of the welfare, education and business life of the communities.

Squire Hagler and A. M. Nugent were selected to represent Fulton county, and these gentlemen will attend and report later on the action taken by the convention.

The board of directors also adopted a motion to contribute $100 annually to the Public Health Service for the support of the nurses, and Chairman Davis announced that the drive for funds would be started on Thursday morning, when his committee will endeavor to raise the $2,400.00 needed to finance the organization for the coming year.

That this objective will be reached cannot be doubted, as the public is now so thoroughly well informed of the splendid work done by the health department, that it seems impossible to believe that any one can refuse to help with the good work.

The road committee of the Chamber also reported that the Martin Chamber of Commerce would hold its regular mid-day luncheon Tuesday noon and the committee decided to attend and take up the matter of the effort to divert the Mississippi Highway thru Murray, cutting out Martin, Greenfield and Sharon.

Mr. Joe Browder, chairman of the Committee, said he would not be able to attend, and appointed Mr. Joe Davis acting chairman, and Al Winstead as a member of the committee.

Later, Mr. Winstead advised that he had notified the president of the Martin Chamber of the visit and he stated that he would arrange to have representatives from both Greenfield and Sharon present at the luncheon.

CLEANING UP

Waiting until spring to clean up the city, as the usual custom, did not meet with the approval of Street Supervisor J. E. Rankin who has changed the unsightly appearance of many of the alleys and streets throughout the city recently. The most noticeable improvement is the clean up of alleys or streets in the rear of Lake street which had become almost impassible with piles of ashes and all kinds of rubbish. If those who sweep rubbish out in the alleys to blow off in every direction, realized the expense it incurred to the city and taxpayers to clean up afterwards, maybe they would provide a wire basket, as a city ordinance prescribes, and burn up the litter.

Supervisor Rankin is certainly to be commended on his splendid work of cleaning up and it is to be hoped that all the good citizens will cooperate with him in keeping the city clean.

GOODMAN ACQUITTED AT UNION CITY OF MURDERING MOSS

In Union City, Tenn., Gilbert Goodman, on his second trial for the murder of night Policeman J. W. Moss, was acquitted Saturday of the crime. He was tried for the offense in 1924 and found guilty, but that verdict was reversed in the supreme court. The evidence introduced Saturday is said to have been substantially the same as that offered in evidence at the first trial. He was accused of slaying the officer on December 10, 1924, when Moss began to search his automobile for liquor.

Goodman was not freed by his acquittal of the murder charge. He was convicted of violation of the liquor laws on January 7th, and sentenced to eighteen months in prison.

At the time Officer Moss was murdered in Union City, the entire community was greatly disturbed, vigilant committees were organized and in concerted action, practically every suspicious place of selling intoxicants were cleaned out.

MRS. S. R. EVANS, DEAD

Mrs. S. R. Evans, who, for the past twenty years, has made her home with her nephew, Mr. Wes Browder, died at his home, three miles west of Fulton, on Sunday morning at 11:50 o'clock. She was 80 years of age.

Impressive funeral services were conducted from the residence, Monday morning at 11 o'clock, Reverend A. N. Walker and J. V. Freeman, officiating. Interment followed in Palestine cemetery.

She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Fannie Browder, who is living with her son, Mr. Wes Browder, and one brother, Mr. J. A. Bennett, of St. Louis, Mo., and numerous other relatives, all of whom deeply mourn her death.

KENTUCKY BRIEFS

Louisville—Black Hawk, 70 Louisville's last eagle store Indian will find his happy hunting ground in a New York museum, said a New Yorker who purchased him.

Louisville—Kentucky leads the 12 tobacco growing States of the nation with a five-year average of all types from 1920-24 of 432,347,000 pounds. North Carolina is next and Virginia third.

Louisville, Ky.—Captain James B. Patterson, 56 years old, retired steamboat pilot and for many years a widely known figure in traffic on the Ohio River, died today at the home of his daughter.

Owingsville—Newt Crump narrowly escaped serious injury and loss of his eye sight when an automobile battery he was repairing exploded, throwing sulphuric acid over his face and in his eyes.

Springfield—Mrs. Theo. C. Campbell was cut and bruised about the body and her back as scalded when a hot water tank, connected with a stove, exploded, hurling parts of the stove thru the walls of the room.

Louisville—C. S. Thompson has a rare old clock which has been ticking the hours and minutes for over a century, having been bought in 1821. Estimating the age of the clock as being 104 years, it has ticked 3,281,928,000 times.

Oliver Hill—Mayor D. H. Owens had a close call when a front casing of his car blew out and he lost control of the machine. He suffered a broken nose and other injuries when his car ran into a creek and was wrecked.

Paris, Ky.—John McFadden, 81 years old, for many years a familiar figure on American racing tracks, and formerly associated with Martin Doyle of Paris in the training of race horses, is critically ill at the home of his daughter.

Bowling Green—Three leading stores at Auburn, Logan county, twelve miles south of here, were entered and merchandise valued at more than $1,000 taken. It was discovered when the proprietors of the store opened up for business.

Marion—Rufus Elder, proprietor of a dairy, has a cow in his herd that is a champion in the production of milk. This cow produces 22 quarts of milk daily. In a test for butter fat, the milk tested five per cent. The test period was of 14 days duration.

Paducah—Overcome by gas from a furnace T. H. Callahan, shoe manufacturer, and two employees were rescued from death when a customer entering the store gave the alarm. The men were brought to the sidewalk just in time to prevent death from suffocation.

Louisville—With the installation at Bowman field of a huge mooring mast a present from the United States government, which arrived here, Louisville is scheduled to be visited by dirigibles, blimps and other "lighter than air" craft from all parts of the country, it was announced by A. H. Bowman.

Danville—Two occupants of a motor truck loaded with tobacco escaped serious injury when the truck was demolished by a passenger train below Moreland. It was said the men mistook the railroad track for the road, drove some distance and then stalled the motor. Names of the men could not be learned.

Newcastle, Ky.—Mayor Millard F. Shaw, 62 years old, was found hanging from the rafters on a barn behind his home by his wife, Mrs. Minnie Shaw. Prompt action on the part of his wife and neighbors in cutting him down and the administering of artificial respiration probably saved his life. Physicians said he will recover.

Frankfort—Kentucky's 192 counties would be decreased about one-half by passage of bills of Representative C. L. Daly of Maysville. Sections 63 and 64 of the state constitution require that each county contain 400 square miles and not less than 12,000 population. Mr. Daly finds only 32 counties have the required area and that only 20 have the required population.

Madisonville—While a prisoner in the "bullpen" of the county jail, a man held on a charge of drunkenness was robbed by fellow prisoners. When the man tossed his money, Deputy Jailor Eugene instituted a search and saw a prisoner throw away three cigarettes. Examining them, he found that money had been inserted in the cigarette papers and the tobacco partly re-rolled.

Louisville—Thomas J. Felder, 57 years old, a son-in-law of the late Milton H. Smith, founder and for many years president of the Louisville & Nashville railway, died in Paris, France.

Paducah—Campaign for a half million dollar road bond issue in Meade county with which to complete the County, State and federal highway system was officially launched when a petition for a special election or submission of the bond issue to voters was started.

Lesson for January 24

JESUS AND THE SAMARITAN WOMAN

LESSON TEXT—John 4:4-42.
GOLDEN TEXT—With joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation.—Isa. 12:3.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus by the Well.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus by Jacob's Well.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—A Sinful Woman Finds the Savior.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—How Jesus Deals With Sinners.

I. Jesus Must Needs Go Through Samaria (vv. 4-6).

The growing popularity of Jesus aroused the envious opposition of the Pharisees, which obliged Him to leave Judea and go into Samaria. There was another way to reach Galilee, one used by many Jews to avoid contact with the despised Samaritans, on the eastern side of the Jordan. He must "needs go through Samaria" in order to find this poor sinful woman and the needy citizens of Sychar. The great necessity which was upon Him was to seek and to save that which was lost (Luke 19:20).

II. Jesus' Testimony to the Woman (vv. 7-26).

This is a fine example of personal evangelism.

1. A Favor Asked (vv. 7-9).
Jesus tactfully made a request which appealed to the woman's sympathy. Not only did the thirst of the weary traveler appeal to her, but the fact that He being a Jew asked a favor of her, showed His sympathy for her. In introducing the conversation, He referred to that which was uppermost in her mind, namely, water. This was the teacher's point of contact. He soon passed from earthly water to the water of everlasting life which was in Himself. Every human mind has a handle. Our success as Christian workers depends upon our ability to grasp and use it.

2. Jesus' Tender Dealing With This Woman (vv. 10-15).

He first appealed to her curiosity by declaring, "If thou knewest the gift of God" (v. 10). He knew the deep unrest of the soul of the sinful woman as she went on her way. He knew if she really knew Him she would believe on Him and be saved from her sins, therefore the first thing was to get attention. When we can get one to give attention to the claims of Christ, there is good chance of winning him. He followed this appeal to her curiosity by a promise which directed her attention to her deepest needs. There is a consciousness of deep need in every soul. The deepest need of a soul Jesus only can satisfy.

3. The Woman Convinced of Her Sins (vv. 15-19).

Jesus succeeded in arousing her interest, but she did not really understand Him. Before she could understand what the Water of Life is, she must be convicted of her sin. She did not agree with Him, but became a humble inquirer. The soul must be convicted of sin before it can be converted.

4. The Problem of Worship Submitted to Christ (vv. 20-24).

This she did as soon as she perceived Him to be a prophet. Jesus knowing the inner life of this woman, told her of the glad time even then present when true worshippers could hold intercourse with God anywhere. He showed her that the place of worship is unimportant, that the all-important thing is to have the true conception of God as brought through the Jews. Since worship is spiritual, only those who have been regenerated can worship God in spirit.

5. The Woman of Samaria Witnessing for Christ (vv. 27-39).

The woman left her water pot and returning to the city said, "Come, see a man which told me all things that ever I did. Is not this the Christ?" As soon as she was converted she became an enthusiastic missionary. This is as it ought to be and always will be. The soul that realizes Jesus cannot be silent (John 1:41-45). The result of her testimony was that many believed on Jesus.

III. Jesus Testifying to the Citizens of Sychar (vv. 40, 41).

The woman's testimony brought the request from the Samaritans that Jesus tarry with them. He abode with them two days. Though they heard the woman's testimony, they believed because of Christ's own word (v. 41).

IV. The Samaritans Witnessing for Christ (v. 42).

They declared, "We know that this is indeed the Christ, the Savior of the world." They confessed to the woman that their belief was not due to her testimony but to having heard Him themselves, that they were sure that He was the Messiah.

Chestnut Glade

Elder W. E. Morgan had a sale last week, selling his farming implements, horses etc.
Wednesday he hired trucks, loaded his household goods and moved to Benton, Ky., where his ministerial work is located.
He will enter the State Normal school at Murray for the spring term. We are sorry to lose these good people, who have been so long a part of our community.

Flu is abating slowly. Most of the patients are convalescing.

Dora Taylor, who has been sick so long with a complication of diseases, is slowly improving.
Mrs. Leonard Grubbs gave her husband a dinner, Thursday, in honor of his birthday.
Mr. and Mrs. Hagler, Mr. and Mrs. Kimberlin, Mr. and Mrs.
Karl Kimberlin, Mr. and Mrs.
Ledbetter and daughter, Leo, were among those present. All enjoyed the bountiful dinner served at the noon hour and the social hours which followed, and went away, wishing Mr. Grubbs many more birthdays just like this.

Miss Lorene Grubbs entertained her friends Friday evening with a party. Miss Relma Terrell also gave a party Friday evening.

Both parties were largely attended.

Saturday evening Mrs. Ruth Vaughn invited the young folks of the community over for a social evening in honor of her brother, Glen Morrison, who has been visiting her for several days. He left Monday for his home near Rector, Ark.

Prof. Barrax came over Saturday and culled our flock of 500 white leghorn chickens, selecting about 250 of the very best for a breeding flock. These are mated to cockerels of Mr.
George W. Ferris' best laying strain of leghorns. So we expect to have very good chickens indeed, on "Diamond Square"
Farm next year.

In behalf of growing tomatoes for the green tomato market, I gleaned some facts from Prof. Barrax in regard to it.
While he was with us Saturday which I think is of general interest. Gibson county, the home of Prof. Barrax, has been growing tomatoes for several years, and he is familiar with every aspect of the business.
One acre can be expected to make $300 to $500 and has been known to turn in $1,000.

The hotbed should be started at once. The old-fashioned hotbed for potatoes is the type, with a special sash about 6x3 feet, over it. This sash will cost about $3.75, and this size bed will furnish plants for one acre of tomatoes. About the first of March these plants are transplanted to a cold frame, which is covered with canvas.
When the danger of frost is over,
they are put into the ground prepared for them. About 3-500 to the acre. Should you not care to grow your own plants, they can usually be bought ready for the cold frame for $6.00 per acre. Ready for the field at $15.00 per acre.
The beauty of this crop for farmers here is that it is harvested by the first of August and the money in your pocket.
The busy time with the tomatoes will be over by the time the suckers grow on the tobacco.
So, why not an acre or two of tomatoes and an acre or two less of tobacco. Thus, by cutting the acreage of tobacco, raise the price, and have the tomato money coming at the slack season for the farmers.

Now, to make the marketing still easier. If the farmers around Fulton or McConenel pledge 100 acres of tomatoes, the buyers will build a packing house, furnish crates, pack and ship the tomatoes.
Our part is to produce and deliver. Theirs is to do that part our farming people have never learned to do—market our produce.

Prof. Barrax will be pleased to talk with any one interested at any time.

He will meet the tomato growers at Chestnut Glade each Wednesday evening about 7 o'clock. Come out and be with them. You won't regret it.

A nice gift. Send The Advertiser to a friend one year—

Mr. Hanibal Seat and Mr.
Charley Brown spent Tuesday evening at L. A. Watkins'.

Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Turney arrived home Thursday of last week. He was able to walk from the depot to the house, and looks very much improved.
We are all very glad to have them at home and hope he continues to improve.

Rev. Cooley and wife are rejoicing over the arrival of a son in their home last week, also Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jackson have a son.

Many of Dr. Turney's friends called Friday to express their gladness that he has come home and rejoice with him in his real better condition as to his health.

Mrs. Dennis Hall came near having a serious accident last week when she fell while coming downstairs at the Titanic.
She was bruised up pretty badly.

Letcher Watkins spent Saturday night and Sunday visiting friends in Arlington and Bardwell.

Sunday was such an unlikely day that just a small crowd was at church to hear Rev. Butler preach and only twenty at the afternoon Sunday school.

Mrs. Luther Veach visited Mrs. Birdie Henry one day last week. Miss Blondel Veach was also Mrs. Henry's guest Thursday.

Mrs. T. M. Watkins visited a while Friday afternoon in the homes of Mrs. Dennis Hall and Mrs. Ida Yates.

BELOVED WOMAN PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Sallie Rubie Evans was born March 31, 1846. On the 13th day of June she was married to Mr. George Evans. Early in life she was converted and joined the M. E. Church, South; always living a consistent Christian life up until her death. On the 17th day of January, 1926, the death angel came and took her home.
Aged 79 years, 9 months and 17 days. She leaves one sister, Mrs. Fannie Browder, and one brother, Mr. J. A. Bennett, besides a host of relatives and friends.

The funeral was conducted at the home of Mr. Wes Brow-der, her nephew, where she had been living for the past twenty years. The funeral was conducted by her pastor, assisted by Rev. J. V. Freeman, pastor of the First Methodist church of Fulton. Brother Freeman has been a life-long friend to the family. Aunt Rubie, as she was called by so many, was laid to rest in the Palestine cemetery, under a wreath of beautiful flowers. May the blessing of a kind Heavenly Father watch over the bereaved ones.

Big Laundry Improvement

ANOTHER YEAR FOR SERVICE

The same unvarying, high standard service that has characterized the work of this laundry in the past will actuate its service to you in the future. Of this you may be assured.

In order to do a class of laundry work that we have never before attempted in our twenty-five years experience in the laundry business, we have installed the latest and most modern machinery for doing a class of work known as the Family Wet Wash, but instead of returning your clothes to you wet, they will be nicely dried in our new drying tumbler at the same price that other laundries have charged for wet wash heretofore.

Since the wet wash has proven unsuccessful we know that none of our patrons want their clothes returned to them wet, and in installing this twentieth century drying machine at an enormous expense, it will be in keeping with the town's progress and will be appreciated by the people we serve.

We never lose an opportunity to give the people of Fulton and vicinity the best of service, and the new equipment we have installed will now make our plant one of the leading laundries in the state.

SEND the FAMILY WASH to US.

When you see the pleasing results, the economy and the convenience of this complete service, you are going to put a ban on "home wash days" throughout the year.

BOY SCOUTS ANNIVERSARY

Scouting teaches devotion to church, home, school, patriotism, community service and health. It is little wonder that an organization with such ideals as the Boy Scouts of America should be gaining strength as it is and that the celebration of the sixteenth anniversary of the movement, February 7-13, should see 24,500 scout troops with a membership of 800,000 participating.

On Lincoln's birthday, designated as Patriotism Day, patriotic pilgrimages will be made by the scouts to the homes or graves of distinguished men and women of the respective communities, who have in an outstanding manner aided in the progress of their country and promoted the welfare of its citizens.

Any organization with such worthy objects as these is deserving of the widest support. Teaching boys the ideal of service through honoring those who have lived a life of service is good insurance for the future.

The greatest problem that Scouting has is to find enough adult leaders. It offers an opportunity for men who are adapted for it and have some spare hours, to perform a community service that will be productive of splendid results for the public good and a large portion of personal satisfaction.

WORK AND HOME

There is an old adage which says that a "rolling stone gathers no moss." It is as true today as it ever was. Regardless of locality, opportunity is ever with the intelligent and the energetic, and moving about seldom results in any good.

Abraham Lincoln was thinking of this undisputed fact of life when he said: "If you intend to work there's no better place than right where you are; if you do not intend to go to work you can not get along any where. Squirming and crawling from place to place will do no good."

The man who is caught in the popular rush to some fancied favored spot is almost invariably unsuccessful. There are no status and no localities that are endowed with all of the desirable things of life. All have some advantage in which the inhabitants can take just pride. And they likewise have disadvantages.

This is not to counsel against changing locality or occupation if the opportunity for improvement comes, but to be swayed by every story of fabulous sums to be made in some other place is a mistake that has led countless people to failure.

The acre of diamonds is at home and there are no greener pastures than your own.

Loyalty to home, loyalty to the job you are doing and eternal perseverance are fixed rules for success.

No region has a monopoly of all natural and artificial, material and spiritual blessings. They average up about the same no matter where you go.

You may find, now and then, a visitor from a neighboring or a distant locality who will feel sorry for you, but just remember that "If you intend to work there's no better place than right where you are."

IN UNION—STRENGTH

Everyone has his own mind and our laws give him the right to free thought and speech. This freedom, however, should not be confused with license and lead us into channels of thinking and speaking that develop friction and a population divided against itself.

In union there is strength. In discord we face nothing but mediocrity and disaster.

We are a community unto ourselves, yet we should not live each unto himself. As a community we have an obligation to other communities, to our state and to the nation. It is this community of interests that has made our country the marvel of the world—the most progressive and prosperous of any land upon which the sun shines.

It is the same community of interests that will build up Fulton and countryside if we practice it in our business and social life.

No nation can live entirely independent of other nations and continue to be prosperous and contented. Neither can state, city, town, individuals or group of individuals.

We must harmonize our differences for the public good and then work together for the advancement of our common interests.

United, we push on to greater successes and achievements. Divided, we fall by the wayside and are soon forgotten.

FORGETTING TO THINK

Forgetting to think is a prevalent ailment the world over, and in this respect our own community is no exception to the general rule. It is of daily occurrence right in our own midst.

It is not the big things of life that we forget, for our nature is such that important matters are more indelibly impressed upon our minds and therefore the more certain of receiving attention at the proper time.

But it is the little things that slip our minds, promises lightly made and soon forgotten, duties that are left unperformed because we simply forget to think.

Stored away in the vaults of our banks are thousands and thousands of dollars drawing interest for various good citizens when they by rights should be credited to the accounts of other people.

Our merchants, doctors, lawyers, carpenters, practically everybody in fact, have small accounts due them here and there because people have forgotten to pay, have forgotten even to think.

It is fifty cents here, a dollar there or two or five, small in the individual account but enormous in the aggregate. If all of these accounts were collected together and one man became responsible for the combined sum he would never forget to give it consideration, regardless of the extent of his wealth. It would be too important to overlook, too vital to forget.

We could name a merchant who has thousands of dollars on his books in insignificant amount. The people who owe him these sums are not dead-beats, for they are among our best class of substantial citizens. He is not worrying over eventually getting the money because he knows from long experience with these same people that his accounts are as good as gold—with one exception. The gold in hand would enable him to increase the size of his stock and sell more goods and thereby earn greater dividends on his investment. But wholesalers and manufacturers require their money on the spot, and a hundred or a thousand small accounts due the merchant are not considered in the light of an asset by the men from whom he buys his goods.

If each of the men who owe these small accounts would take the trouble to think, they would rush in one great throng to that store and pay up those small bills, and the merchant would then be in position to do even better by them in the future. But they forget to think, and their money remains in bank they continue to draw interest on it while the merchant patiently waits for his due. And this merchant is only one of the many.

MEETING OF KENTUCKY ASSOCIATION OF PUBLIC UTILITIES

The ninth annual meeting of the Kentucky Association of Public Utilities was held at the Brown Hotel in Louisville, Ky., January 14 and 15, 1926. The first session opened on Thursday morning, January 14, with a large number of department managers, district managers and supervisory employees in attendance. The meeting was called to order, and announcements made by Mr. L. E. Herington, vice president of the Kentucky Utilities company. Introductory remarks were made by Mr. Harry Reid, president of the Interstate Public Service company and president of Kentucky Utilities company. Following Mr. Reid's remarks were addresses by men and women prominent in utility work in Kentucky and other states. At 12:45 luncheon was served to the guests in the Grill Room, Brown hotel, at which time all new employees with the company since the last meeting, were introduced. Miss Helen E. Steiner of Lorain, Ohio, director of public relations of the Ohio Public Service company and chairman of the east central division, Women's Committee of the National Electric Light Association, made the principle address at the afternoon session which was devoted to women's activities. Presiding at this meeting, was Mrs. Beulah K. Yewell, chairman Women's Committee, Kentucky Utilities company.

A dinner-dance was given Thursday evening in the Crystal ballroom, with James P. Barnes, president of the Louisville Railway company, as toastmaster. Mr. Barnes' address, "Welcome to Delegates" was most cordial. A talk by Mr. Paul Flashke, of the Louisville Times and selections by Louisville Railway company inspectors quartet, were other features of the evening. Dancing was enjoyed during and following dinner and music was furnished by Gorman's Novelty Orchestra.

Friday morning, January 15, the meeting was called to order and the reports of the secretary and treasurer were heard. Several interesting and helpful addresses were made, among which were those of Mr. Harry Reid, subject being, "The Future of the State's Utilities," and Labert St. Clair, director of publicity, American Electric Railway association, New York City. At the Friday afternoon session, addresses were made by Dempster MacMurphy, Director Advertising and Publicity, Middle West Utilities company of Chicago, Ill., his subject being, "Relations of Public Utilities to the Press." Also an address by Isabelle Davie, secretary of the Women's Committee of Headquarters Staff, N. E. L. A., New York City. Her subject was, "Women's Work in Public Utilities." Unfinished business was discussed and new business brought before the meeting. Committee reports were heard, after which election and installation of officers were held. Adjournment at 4 p. m. Each representative of the Kentucky Utilities company who attended these meetings, left with the highest appreciation of the advantages this opportunity afforded to better equip themselves for future service.

It is with unselfish pride that Fulton was fortunate in having representatives at this notable gathering in the person of Mrs. J. Kelly Wood and Manager E. C. Hardesty, of the Kentucky Light & Power Co.

Do You Know

A better plan for success than the systematic accumulation of a portion of your earnings?

Life is either a series of stepping stones or a treadmill. Some get on and some stand still.

"Thrift" is a broader word than merely "saving." It involves an intelligent and profitable use of your savings.

To get the highest earning power, consistent with absolute safety, you should buy stock in the FULTON BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION.

A "personal guarantee" means very little to you unless you know the man who makes it.

Ninety per cent of the things bought for your home are selected by the lady member of the firm. She is the purchasing agent. Most men admit that she is a capable buyer, and the reason is this: She must be shown — convinced by proof — that an article is what she needs and is worth the price!

For that reason, she sees the advantage of dealing with a local merchant — a man whose "personal guarantee of satisfaction" means just what it says.

She knows that what he advertises in this paper is entitled to her consideration. Because she has confidence in her neighbor—the local dealer—she can safely invest the family funds in what he guarantees.

JUDGMENT IN BUYING

Buying foodstuffs and meats doesn't consist simply in shoving your money over the counter and taking the goods home. Anybody can do that, but it takes good judgment to buy wisely.

Ask your friends what they think of our stores. They will tell you that they buy from us because they get what they want and are never overcharged. They buy wisely because they know where they are buying. They buy from us because they know we are dependable.

Try our stores a few times and your own judgment will tell you that you have made no mistake.

Epworth Leagues 6:45 p. m.
Prayer meeting 7 p. m. every Wednesday.

Preaching by pastor at 11 a. m. 7:30 p. m. Special music. The public is cordially invited to attend all services.

Services Sunday, in spite of the inclemency of the weather, were well attended. The pastor preached a forceful sermon at the morning hour on "Judgment." Every member of the church should have heard this wonderful message. At the evening hour Rev. T. F. Moore preached a specially good spiritual sermon. A good audience heard this but sorry more could not have had the opportunity of hearing Rev. Moore.

The Methodist Missionary Girls met at the home of Miss Mamie Bennett, Monday afternoon, with a splendid attendance. Miss Dorothy Granberry, president, presided, and a splendid program had been arranged by the girls, assisted by their leader, Mrs. Chas. Payne. The hostess served ice cream and cake during the social hour.

The Lambeth Circle of the Adult Missionary Society met Monday with Mrs. M. V. Harris on Fourth street, with Mrs. Butt presiding. Mrs. R. B. Beadles conducted the devotions and Mrs. J. J. Owen led in prayer. A splendid business session was held.

Mrs. Hilliard gave an unusually good address on Stewardship. The meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. Butt, and during the social hour the hostess served a delicious salad course to 12 members.

The Warner Blackard Missionary Society will meet Monday at the home of Mrs. A. G. Baldrige, with Mrs. Tom Allen and Mrs. Baldrige as hostesses.

An unusually interesting and good business session of the cabinet of the Warner Blackards was held Monday at the home of the president, Mrs. Scruggs. Plans were made for the year's work and much good will be accomplished, we feel, this coming year.

Church News

Mrs. Frank Flemming is suffering from an attack of the flu.

Little Virginia Flemming was obliged to remain away from school last week on account of an attack of the flu.

Mrs. Boyd and Clara Elizabeth were both suffering from the flu last week but are now improving. Clara Elizabeth was able to attend school on Monday.

Tom Chapman was called to his old home in Uniontown, Ky., the latter part of last week, on account of the serious illness of his father. The latter is holding his own at last reports.

Sunday's bad weather rather seriously affected the attendance of both the church school and the church services.

Radio services will be resumed next Sunday evening in the hope that the health of our members will permit of a larger attendance.

Preparations are being made for the church and school to observe the Lenten season with a full program.

Dr. Boyd will attend the Diocesan Convention during the last week in January. He will be held in Louisville and is assigned an important part in the program.

A conference of Dr. Boyd and the heads of the Mission Society is slated to take place during the convention at Louisville, to canvass the church situation in Western Kentucky and some changes are anticipated, when the duties of Dr. Boyd will probably be increased.

Dr. Boyd will conclude his five minute talks on "The Life of Christ," on next Sunday at the church school.

Railroad News

Mr. T. D. Clark, supervising agent, left last Sunday for the G. & S. I. railroad for the purpose of instructing a newly appointed supervising agent on that line on the duties of that office. Mr. Clark will possibly remain on the G. & S. I. for perhaps two or three weeks. The G. & S. I. was recently acquired by the Illinois Central, and they are introducing the system used on the I. C. proper on this line.

Agent W. A. Smith, Tiptonville Promoted

Mr. W. A. Smith, who has been agent at Tiptonville for several years, has been made train auditor, effective at once, and has reported to the general superintendent for duty.

I. C. to Spend 19 Millions

Mr. C. H. Markham, president of the Illinois Central was quoted in a dispatch received at Memphis a day or two ago, that the Illinois Central contemplated an expenditure of about $19,000,000 for new passenger and freight cars during 1926. A large part of the new equipment will be assigned to the Southern Lines.

Mrs. H. D. Crittendon spent the week end last in Memphis, visiting her sister.

Mr. W. W. Claypool spent the week end in Louisville visiting relatives.

Which is Yours?

There are now more than 1,900,000 laws on our statute books. A man couldn't be expected to break them oftener than once in five minutes, on an average, or 12 an hour. So, it would take more than 158,000 hours or about 6,600 days, to break them all. To violate the whole 1,900,000, therefore, would take about 15 years, unless the police interfered. And, long before the finishing of the job, there would be another crop of laws to break. Awfully discouraging to the ambitious lawbreaker, isn't it?—Hartford Courant.

Mr. Clift, vice president of the I. C., spent a few days the past week in the vicinity of Ripley, hunting.

Supt. Williams made a business trip to Birmingham first of the week.

Mr. Hubbard Hooker of Mayfield, has returned to duty in the Division office. Mr. Hooker worked in the division office a few days about a month ago and was cut off.

Business Increasing on I. C.

The business continues to increase on the Illinois Central, and quite a number of new employees have been taken on the Tennessee Division. The trainmasters and traveling engineers on all three districts have been employing and examining men, and now have 25 or 30 new men learning the road on all parts of the division.
