THE LISTENING POST

FULTON'S WANDERING BOY, Louis Kasbow, has at last been heard from. Sailing from New York on July 23 on the steamer "Isle de France," bound for France, Germany, Poland and Russia, Louis has been unreported since that time, and his Fulton friends have been wondering just where he was and what he was doing. But he promised to let this column hear from him, and he always keeps his word. A letter came this morning, and I am rushing it into print. It is not up to the minute, for evidently it was written aboard ship and not mailed until he disembarked at Havre, France. The letter bears that postmark, and by now I presume Louis has left France and has journeyed into the wilds of Soviet Russia. Perhaps other messages are on the way. Let us hope so, for all of us are anxious to keep posted. Here is the letter that came first:

Aboard the S.S. Isle de France, July 23.

Dear Folks in Fulton: My good old neighbor, Frank Marsh, came to the pier to tell me goodbye. It sure was nice of Frank, and believe me, it was good to see him among that great crowd of strangers just as I was getting ready to bid farewell to the good old U. S. A. The boat left at noon, and the dinner was served in a dining room as big as half of Lake street. Vin rouge is being served with each meal, and it looks as though I am going to like it here. The food is wonderful and plentiful. I am learning to talk French, but about all I have learned so far is to say "I will see you tomorrow or some other day."

Then comes a blank from July 23 to July 27, which I suppose indicates that Louis may have been indisposed—either from sea sickness or too much Vin Rouge. The letter resumes on July 27.

Two more days on board ship and I will see land again—in France, of course, not the good old U. S. A. I am enjoying very much meeting new people daily. It is so easy to get acquainted now. I eat at the same table all the time, and my table is No. 60. There are five at this table, and naturally it is just like one big family. I would like to adopt this custom of eating at the Fulton Lions Club, and have E. C. Hardesty, Smith Atkins and Dr. J. L. Jones at a separate table clear across the room from me. They always get the food I want. I could tell you lots and lots about this voyage, but I am afraid Arthur Brisbane beat me to it. He is on the same boat, and he's had more experience in writing for newspapers than I have. There are 421 first class, 470 tourist class, 216 third class and 366 in the crew, making a total of 1,973—or just about the total population of South Fulton, all on the one boat.

My next letter will be from La Belle France. Please give my best regards to everybody in Fulton. I think of all of my friends every day and long for the day to come when I will see them again.

Your lonely cowboy,
LOUIS KASBOW.

NOVEL PLAN STARTED BY BOB WHITE MOTOR CO.

Mr. Bob White, Fulton's enterprising Ford dealer, is inaugurating a very novel and interesting idea in his decision to begin paying off his entire staff weekly in silver dollars. The thought behind this plan is to call everyone's attention to the importance of shopping and spending right here in Fulton, it being estimated that one dollar spent with one of our storekeepers and immediately placed back in circulation by him will turn over about twenty-seven times in one month. Mr. White is to be congratulated on making such a move. Let's boost Fulton!

BRIDE LOOKS ON AS ZIONCHECK LEAPS TO DEATH

CORONER BRANDS HIM A SUICIDE FOLLOWING PROBE

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 7.—Before the eyes of his bride, Representative Marion A. Zioncheck, Seattle's playboy Congressman, died tonight in a five-story plunge which the coroner expressed belief was suicide.

A note found in the fifth floor room of the Arctic building and apparently written by Zioncheck was quoted by Coroner Otto Mittelstadt as reading:

"My only hope in life was to improve the conditions of an unfair economic system."

The body was taken to the county morgue where Mittelstadt, after a brief investigation, said he believed the Congressman had committed suicide.

When police, called by witnesses, rushed into the room, Mrs. Zioncheck had collapsed. She was taken to a hospital in an ambulance.

Persons who saw the 34-year-old Congressman fall from the window said he apparently was killed instantly. He fell soon after 6 p. m. (8 p. m. CST) while the streets were crowded.

Zioncheck had announced his withdrawal from the congressional race last Saturday but Monday had filed his declaration of candidacy on the Democratic ticket.

He returned here recently from Washington after a series of escapades involving accusations of disturbing the peace and arrests for speeding. He was confined in a Maryland mental hospital. He left the hospital by climbing a back fence.

Silver Program Liked By G. O. P.

Salt Lake City, Aug. 6.—John D. M. Hamilton said at a press conference today he felt "confident" silver would have a place in Gov. Alf M. Landon's program if he were elected.

The Republican national chairman suggested the white metal could be handled "under some governmental working arrangement."

Hamilton added: "Neither the Republican platform's monetary plank nor Landon's telegram to the national convention in June interpreting the party's money declaration as meaning currency based on gold would preclude consideration of the silver problem."

Faster Air Mail Schedules Cited

Washington, Aug. 6.—Faster air mail schedules along the east and west coasts of South America and across the Pacific were called to the public's attention today by Acting Postmaster General W. W. Howes.

The new South American schedules, which went into effect July 15, save two days between Miami, Fla., and Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, and one day between Miami and Buenos Aires, Argentina.

Howes said that regular weekly round trip schedules had been put into effect on the trans-Pacific route between San Francisco and Manila, planes leaving Alameda, Cal. every Wednesday.

MAN GETS 25 YEARS FOR ATTACK ON NIECE

Murray, Ky., Aug. 6.—Coy Fulcher, 35, was sentenced today to the State Penitentiary for 25 years on the charge of assaulting his niece, Juanita Fulcher, 12. The jury returned the verdict after two and one-half hours deliberation. Fulcher was indicted April 15, 1936. The act was alleged to have happened three years ago when Juanita then nine years of age, was visiting Fulcher's home.

LONDON'S EASTERN DATES ANNOUNCED

Topeka, Kans., Aug. 7.—Gov. Alf Landon has chosen August 22, 24 and 26 for the three addresses which will open his eastern presidential campaign in Pennsylvania and New York.

His office announced that the Republican candidate would speak at his birthplace, West Middlesex, Pa., at 3 p. m., Saturday, August 22. Monday night, August 24, he will speak at Chautauqua, N. Y., and Wednesday night, August 26, at Buffalo.

There also was an expectation among some Republican advisers that the West Middlesex talk would deal with social security, although the candidate has declined to commit himself definitely. After a recent conference with Landon on his Buffalo plans, William J. Donovan, former assistant attorney general, told reporters that "employment and jobs" would prove of greatest interest to the electorate in that area.

FORD DEALER CONDUCTS ECONOMY TEST RUN

As a part of a nation-wide program designed to call motor car owners' attention to the gas and oil economy of the new improved 1936 Ford V-8, Bob White Motor Co. has played a regular stock model sedan in demonstration service and is inviting Fulton motorists, both ladies and men, to drop in and try their hand at driving this "Sooty car."

First to drive the car were Mrs. Louise Killbrew and Mrs. Mary Williams, both prominent socially. They tied with a score of 20.3 miles per gallon, duly witnessed and driven over different routes in the city and out into the country.

Competition seems to be brewing as several have been heard to drop remarks as to what will finally be posted as high score in the next two weeks of testing.

GET DRIVER'S LICENSE OR COPS WILL GET YOU

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 7.—Automobile drivers in Kentucky were warned today by the Department of Revenue that "in a short time" the department "will be forced to take steps against those persons who have willfully failed to procure their licenses."

An announcement by the department said licenses have been available in Circuit Court clerks' offices throughout the state since July 24.

TO ENFORCE DOG LAW

Mayfield, Ky., Aug. 7.—Sheriff Cliff Howard stated today that field work would be begun next week to insure more strict enforcement of the dog license law.

Sheriff Howard said that licenses have been purchased for about 400 dogs in the county where he estimated there are between 9,000 and 10,000 canines.

RAISE MONEY TO GIVE BOY TETANUS SERUM

Bowling Green, O., Aug. 7.—A public drive netted today $100 needed to buy anti-tetanus serum for treatment of 11-year-old William Suan of Ashland, Ky., stricken with lockjaw.

Police Chief Carl M. Galliher ordered the boy taken to Community Hospital after Dr. H. J. Powell, Wood county health commissioner, declined to appropriate county funds for the serum, saying it was Kentucky's case and the boy should be taken there.

Dr. F. L. Stepping and R. N. Whittehead, called to treat the curly-haired, overall-clad youth said he was in no condition to be moved. Galliher sent a city patrolman with the boy's uncle, John Stricklin, to Toledo to get serum after the fund was raised.

Condition of the boy, who stepped on a rusty nail eight days ago while visiting his uncle, became serious during the night. Physicians said this afternoon he had only a fair chance to recover.

HOFFMAN IS SCORED BY FORMER JUDGE

Trenton, N. J., Aug. 7.—Morris Umansky charged that prior to his appointment as judge of the North Hudson District Court in 1935 a "delegate" from Governor Hoffman demanded an undated resignation. Umansky, challenging the validity of the "resignation" in Supreme Court proceedings and denying there was a vacancy to permit appointment of a successor by Hoffman, named Andrew O. Wittreich, a Hudson county Republican leader, as the man who represented himself as "specially delegated" by Hoffman to obtain the "resignation."

He made the charges in answer to quo warranto proceedings instituted by Isadore Haber, who seeks to assume the judgeship under an appointment by the governor. Governor Hoffman promptly denied he had delegated Wittreich to obtain a resignation, and Wittreich denied he "ever sought a resignation" from Umansky.

Gladys Glad on BEAUTY

AMERICA'S MOST FAMOUS BEAUTY

THERE'S A CERTAIN tribe of people over in Africa. I am told, who consider broad hips and big tummies distinct beauty assets. In that particular locality, the bigger a girl's hips, the greater her allure. But, according to Marion Davies of screen fame, broad hips certainly are "out" over here. Marion asserts that symmetry is an important feature of figure beauty. She possesses an attractive shape, and she believes that there is nothing like exercise for keeping the body lithe and slender.

Marion certainly has the right idea concerning the value of exercise, for it's a cinch that streamline figures do not result from neglect of it. Women whose occupations are of a sedentary nature usually are the ones who are most inclined to get beefy around the hip sector, because of their inactivity. Constant sitting, you know, is quite conducive to extensive hip-lines. And large hips just don't combine very well with the slender lines of our smart frocks. Tiny, one-piece bathing suits and thin, streamline frocks don't do much to conceal them.

Any girl who detects any fatness of flabbiness around her hip-line should begin at once to correct these faults. Of course, there are plenty of exercises for whitening down bulky hips. But all a girl needs, really, is a few good ones. There are two that are especially effective for slenderizing the hips. And what's more, they're really fun. The first of these is known as the "barrel roll," and the second is known as the "cross roll".

To execute the first exercise, lie with your back flat on the floor, legs straight, arms at the sides and palms flat against the floor. Next, swing your legs overhead and back, until your toes touch the floor beyond your head. Keep your knees stiff at the same time. Then swing your legs back to the floor and roll up into sitting position while you bend at the waist and try to touch your fingertips to your toes. Repeat this exercise 20 times.

To execute the second exercise, lie flat on your back, legs together, arms extended sideways at shoulder level. Then raise your right leg, cross it over to the left and try to touch your right hand with your right foot. Your knees should be kept stiff during this exercise. If it is to prove effective. Then return your right leg to first position, and try to touch your right hand with your left foot. Keep your head and shoulders on the floor during this exercise, and let it be your hips that roll you over.

WILL INVITE LONDON TO DROUGHT PARLEY

EXECUTIVE SAYS PRESIDENTIAL FOE TO BE ASKED TO SIT IN A PARLEY OF CHIEFS

Hyde Park, N. Y., Aug. 7.—A meeting with Governor Alf M. Landon of Kansas at a conference of drought state governors was projected last night by President Roosevelt.

Completing the general outlines of a trip through mid-western drought regions to begin August 25 or 26, the President announced at a press conference that he would invite the Governors of Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, and Missouri to a drought discussion probably in Iowa early next month.

He enjoyed obviously the stir created among reporters assembled in the tiny study of his home as he inserted Kansas casually in the list.

He added that all the governors would be invited and wanted to know, "why not?"

Landon, the Republican presidential candidate, has been taking an active interest in drought conditions in recent weeks and his speaking trip through the East apparently will be finished in time to permit him to sit in on the conference with the President if he desires.

Governor Landon's answer at Topeka was immediate.

"If there is any meeting, anywhere at any time of benefit to Kansas, I will attend as Governor of Kansas."

"Kansas has cooperated in every instance with the federal government and all its agencies dealing with emergency or relief measures. My work as Governor of Kansas comes ahead of anything else I am doing," he said.

Prior to his inauguration in 1933, President Roosevelt turned down an invitation to consult with President Hoover on anti-depression measures.

WORKED YEARS WITHOUT RECEIVING ANY PAYMENT

Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 6.—Andrew Shinholster, 60-year-old negro and former sharecropper whose extradition on a burglary charge was asked by Georgia, testified today he never got any pay in 31 years' work on one plantation other than "five or six dollars around Christmas."

Mrs. Margaret Napier of Milledgeville, Ga., charged Shinholster stole $29.50 worth of cotton seed from her gin-house in November and fled a week later to Philadelphia, where he was arrested July 11.

Shinholster told Adrian Bonnelly, deputy attorney-general, that he failed to get his one-half share of the year's crop and helped himself to 15 pounds of cotton seed which he sold for $29.50.

He asserted that Frank Bell, Mrs. Napier's son-in-law, reached over his shoulder as he was about to cash the check the next day, and "stuck the check in his pocket."

The share-cropper said he was afraid "they might do something" to him, so he went to Philadelphia for a job.

His wife told Bonnelly she was jailed 15 days, fined $50, and charged $9 for jail board because she did not know where her husband was.

Other share-croppers who said they formerly worked on the same plantation related they never got any profits and, if they asked for an accounting, were told they were "even with the books."

Shinholster said he never asked an accounting because "they would have taken me out and I don't know have taken me out and I don't know."

L'FAYETTE DAVIS IS FATALLY INJURED BY CAR YESTERDAY

ACCIDENT SAID TO HAVE BEEN UNAVOIDABLE ON PART OF DRIVER

LaFayette (Fate) Davis, lifelong resident of this section, was struck and fatally injured at five o'clock yesterday afternoon on the Mayfield highway, near his home, a mile north of the city. Herbert Williams of Detroit, who is visiting in Union City, Tenn., was said to be the driver of the car, and according to information given this newspaper the accident was unavoidable on the part of Mr. Williams. Mr. Davis was brought to the Fulton Hospital by Mr. Williams, accompanied by Carl Hastings, son-in-law of Mr. Davis, and at first was not thought seriously injured. Later developments proved that he had suffered internal injuries, however, and death came three hours after he was admitted to the hospital.

Mr. Davis, according to information given this newspaper, had been visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Carl Hastings, a mile north of his own home, and had started home, walking on the left hand side of the highway. He had just started to cross the highway toward his barn, evidently failing to see or hear the approaching car. Mr. Williams, seeing him in his path, applied the brakes and attempted to pass Davis on the left hand side. Mr. Davis, evidently becoming confused, whirled and stepped directly into the path of the car.

Mr. Davis was married to Miss Alice Terry, now deceased, in 1888, and of three children born to the union, only one, Mrs. Carl Hastings, survives.

Funeral services were conducted from the Hornbeak Funeral Home this afternoon at four o'clock, with Rev. Woodrow Fuller in charge. Burial followed in Fairview Cemetery.

Many local friends extend sincere sympathy to the bereaved ones.

MCDADE RE-ELECTED CITY MAGISTRATE

In the election in South Fulton S. A. McDade was re-elected city magistrate in an overwhelming victory, receiving more votes than his two opponents combined. McDade received 113 ballots and his nearest rival, E. P. Jones, had his name scratched 70 times while the third man in the race, R. A. Folks, received 34 votes.

In the county John Smith led the field to win the position as constable of the Sixteenth District.

Will Robey was re-elected magistrate in the county and for the other magistratical post Haywood Johnson defeated C. B. Farrelly by a total of thirteen votes.

argued Georgia was "trying to inflict private vengeance" and that Shinholster, ill of heart trouble, would die if he were sent to a chain gang. They contended he could not get a fair trial.

A. Shepard and Homer S. Brown, Democrats, and a committee of 12 "hunger marchers" occupying the state house to demand unemployment relief, added their pleas against returning Shinholster to Georgia.

Bonnelly said he would make his recommendations to Gov. George H. Earle after "careful consideration."

COMMENT

BELEAGUERED FRANCE

France and Germany may be at odds in point of national and political policies, and make no secret of suspicion and mutual hatreds, but, as manifested by the conference of Emile Labeyrie with Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, they find common ground in the problem of government solvency, where the issues are purely financial.

Labeyrie, as governor of the Bank of France, faces an emergency even more devastating in its potentialities than is Schacht's trouble in balancing the accounts of the German Reichsbank against the heavy withdrawals and expenditures of an extravagant government. For France's problem is that of staying on the gold standard even as its predicament threatens devaluation of the franc in the face of a shrinking foreign trade, dwindling gold reserves and heavy borrowings.

The French official's visit to Berlin, on a mission of stabilization, is one of three visits during which he will seek the advice and financial assistance of banking heads of Holland and England as well. France, Holland and Switzerland are considered the three major European gold standard nations. Labeyrie will confer with Dr. L. J. A. Trip, governor of the Bank of the Netherlands, who also is the president of the Bank of International Settlements. In London, he will discuss his problems with Montagu Norman, governor of the Bank of England.

While the Government of Premier Leon Blum is committed to defend the present value of the franc, this commitment has been under heavy pressure in recent weeks over the danger of forced devaluation caused by the French need for fresh money to finance various government enterprises, nationalized industries, and to liquidate old indebtedness. It was the evident need for this which caused America to eye with a certain amount of skepticism the Blum suggestion that his government would not be averse to discuss reopening of the war debts. It was considered a subtle wedge to induce the confidence necessary for new loans from this government.

French financiers have contended that France should not devalue unless Great Britain and the United States agree not to devalue further and agree also to cooperate in stabilization of the franc at a new rate.

The franc has suffered in terms of devalued foreign currencies. Tourist trade has fallen off, and with it a very considerable source of French income, because of the high exchange rate. But those close to the French policy fear that devaluation would be costly to, and might bring about a radical upheaval among, Frenchmen who would resent a lowering of the gold value of the money they have saved.

Labeyrie's problems and responsibilities are many and complex. Nashville Banner.

WHAT'S WHAT AT A GLANCE

WASHINGTON - WORLD

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, D. C.—All rural districts, says Publicity Director M. E. Clifford of the federal Resettlement Administration, "cannot be traced to bad land."

"Some farmers have good enough farms, but are too weighted down by mortgages and lack of equipment to make a profitable job of farming."

"When such disasters as droughts hit them their difficulties are multiplied."

The Resettlement Administration advances loans of $50 to $600 at low interest rates.

"Thus, at less than keeping families on relief for a year, a new opportunity for making a decent, self-respecting living for a year is offered. It was expected that 70 per cent of such loans would be repaid, and this has not proved too optimistic a guess."

In emergency cases outright grants are made for subsistence. The drought has brought a great increase in loans and grants, as the Resettlement Administration co-operates with other agencies in meeting subsistence needs, providing feed for livestock, buying up of livestock where feed costs are high, and furnishing for next year's operating expenses.

BEST SECURITY

Resettlement loans are secured by liens on crops and by mortgages, but "the best security," the Resettlement Administration relates, "is the character of the families selected."

"We assure long-time benefits," continues "Resettlement's" account, "farmers receiving such aid co-operate in drafting plans for diversified crop production and for modern home management."

"Thus the evils of reliance on a single cash crop are avoided."

"Loans thus far total $77,176,321, while grants of $15,425,047 in all have been made."

"Well over 630,000 cases in all have been afforded aid."

When co-operative farm associations aid in rehabilitation, loans are made to these organizations, too."

Arch Supports in Shoes May Be Weakening to Feet

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

A COMPARISON between England and America as to the sale of special shoes is illuminating. In looking over the makes of shoes in a shoe trade journal it is found that there are 347 special makes which feature the use of arch supports, and there are 189 special doctor shoes—shoes with the word "Doctor" as a part of the name, implying that this special shoe has some helpful quality that non-doctor shoes do not have.

The population of Great Britain is about two-thirds of ours. It would be natural to assume, then, that if these special shoes are necessary for the health of the feet, Great Britain would have at least a hundred arch support shoes and fifty special "Doctor" shoes. The facts are that their shoe manufacturers list exactly one arch support brand and no special "Doctor" brand of shoe.

Undoubtedly arch supports are necessary in many instances, and undoubtedly also special shoes are necessary for special foot troubles and imbalances, but for most feet the arch supports are weakening to a foot which could be made strong by exercise and use. And it stands to reason that if a person needs a special "Doctor" shoe, he will certainly want one fitted to his needs, not one turned out wholesale for a fixed type of foot.

owners together debtor and creditor for the scaling down of debts is the work of both parties."

"Inventively, I doubt it; big land vision seems to me to be gobbling everything."

However, says "Resettlement," "Overburdened farmers can work again, while creditors are really acting to protect their investment. A debt reduction of $22,973,989 has been effected; a total reduction of nearly 25 per cent."

EAGLES FLATTEN HOPPERS FOR SECOND DAY 10 TO 3

Fulton made it two straight over the Hoptown boys yesterday, as they took advantage of Hopper errors to defeat them by a score of 10 to 3.

Johnny Long gave up four hits but allowed the boys from Hoptown to score in the first frame as a result of wildness, walking three men in that inning and one batted on a sacrifice fly. Hoptown picked up a run in the third when Wolfe singled, went to third on Watts' error, and scored as Shaffley fumbled Sternberg's ground ball. The visitor ended their scoring in the fifth when Morgan singled and Wolfe followed suit with a safe ball to left. Adams advanced the runner with a sacrifice and Morgan scored as Sternberg grounded out to Wilson.

Fulton did not break the tie until the third inning. Trent first up flew out to shortstop, Shaffley was safe on Pettigrew's error, Hahn struck out, but Shaffley was allowed to take second as the umpire ruled that pitcher Summers balked. Shaffley stole third base and came home a few minutes later on a single by Lavish. Clonts flew out to left field to end the inning. Fulton scored another in the fourth when Wilson doubled and went to third as the rightfielder fumbled the ball.

The Eagles made a race track of the diamond in the fifth as they batted around and two over, and picked up seven runs on two hits, four errors, and a bases on balls.

Shaffley, first up, walked and went to second on Hahn's infield single. Lavish had a bunt down the first base line and was safe as Adams, the second sacker, who was covering the bag dropped the ball. Adams then overhauled third base in attempt to catch Shaffley and allowed both Shaffley and Hahn to score. Clonts singled and went to second on an error by Gehman in rightfield that allowed Lavish to score. Summers grounded out to Adams, Clonts pulling up at third.

ROOSEVELTS FETE NEWSPAPER CROWD

Hyde Park, N. Y., Aug. 6.—The Roosevelts entertained intimate friends, newspaper men and photographers at a picnic supper at Val Kill cottage last night, after the President had spent a busy day on a round of political and relief discussions.

The supper was "off the record" for news and pictures. The conferences were not. Mayor La Guardia came up from New York to ask that WPA job quotas be increased by approximately 500,000, so as to take care of all employable individuals. He was speaking as the chairman of the National Conference of Mayors. Senator James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois, also touched on relief and the drought in a talk with Mr. Roosevelt in the library of the Hyde Park White House.

But he said he assured the President in addition that the next Senate would be Democratic. He is chairman of the Democratic senatorial campaign committee.

Representative Patrick Drewry of Virginia presented a similar report on prospects of keeping the House overwhelmingly Democratic. Drewry is head of the party's congressional campaign committee.

SENSATIONAL KIDNAPING IN CHINA FAILS, NAB TRIO

Peiping, Aug. 6.—A daring and sensational kidnaping of a well known Chinese woman ended with the arrest of three men.

Mrs. Chu Zao-Yang, wife of the former Chinese minister to Finland, was abducted from her home by three desperadoes pretending to be government officials.

After a mad pursuit, police caught the abductors 30 miles northwest of Peiping and rescued the terrified Mrs. Chu from the bandits, two of whom police said were Japanese and one Chinese.
