Good Tobacco

Market in Fulton

A visit to the tobacco barns, Monday, reminded us of olden times. The streets were lined up with canvas-covered wagons waiting for their turn to unload and at the old Lewis' barn we found J. Z. Farmer and a large force assisting the growers of the weed to unload and place the various grades in the proper location on the floors. The J. Z. Farmer Tobacco Company is not only paying top notch prices direct to the farmer, but are large buyers from the loose leaf floors. And just here we will add that the loose leaf floors find large numbers of buyers at each sale which has done more to stimulate the Fulton market this year than it was thought possible the first of the season.

It is conducted on the highest plane and if the farmer fails to get topnotch prices for his crop it is simply because his tobacco is not of "topnotch" quality. We find that the average prices here are just about the same over the district for the same grades and type of tobacco.

There were 100,715 pounds of tobacco on sale at the loose leaf floor last Friday, and the prices on leaf ran from $4 to $21.25. Most of the lugs sold around $3.00.

The market was strong on the better grades and there seems to be no reason why Fulton should not develop into one of the best markets in this section of the state, if the farmers will just get the crop in shape and deliver it while the buyers are anxious to obtain it.

Around a million pounds of tobacco have been marketed here this season.

We are especially anxious for the farmers to get the highest prices possible for their crop and the best way to accomplish this end is for the growers to re-establish and maintain the market by growing less acreage and better quality.

When the farmer prospers, everything else prospers, and we absolutely don't want our farmers to have to go elsewhere to market.

BRILLIANT YOUNG REPORTER

We are in receipt of The Kentucky Standard, a publication printed by the Kentucky School for the Deaf at Danville. It is neatly printed and well edited, and very interesting. Among the prominent departments of the paper we find well written items by James Royster, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Royster, of Fulton, who has been attending school at Danville for several years. The parents of James have a perfect right to feel proud of his accomplishments and his many Fulton friends wish for him every success and long to see him a second Watterson with the pen.

MULES SELLING AROUND $200 IN FULTON

Some good mules were sold in Fulton Saturday, around $200, while some common stock brought little better than $50. Fulton is fast developing into one of the best markets in Western Kentucky and good stock bring good prices. The center of attraction Saturday was at the B. J. Williams transfer barn when Jones & Campbell featured the buying with topnotch prices.

ATTRACTIVE 2-STORY APARTMENT

Work on the two-story duplex apartment house of T. H. Irby on Second street is progressing nicely and will be an attractive 11-room dwelling when completed. W. S. Gayle has the contract.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH BUILDING NEARING COMPLETION

Work on the interior of the new First Baptist church building is being pushed as rapidly as possible by Valentine Brothers, contractors, with a view of having the main auditorium completed and ready by the first Sunday in May, when the Rev. C. H. Warren will celebrate his seventh anniversary as pastor.

The pastorate of the Rev. Warren in Fulton has been a succession of successes and accomplishments. It was not long after he took charge of the work here that it was plainly visible that the handsome edifice completed during the pastorate of the Rev. M. E. Dodd was entirely too small to accommodate the members, to say nothing of the crowds who were not members.

It was then that the new pastor started a movement to make provisions for the fast increasing Sunday school and membership. But not until two or three years afterwards did his pleadings take effect and a unified effort made to act. Finally the old church building was wrecked and services were held in the City Hall until the basement of the new building was completed, and since that time the Baptists have worshipped in the basement. In the basement is a large auditorium, fifteen or more Sunday school rooms, kitchen, furnace room and toilets. All beautifully finished and furnished. When the building is finally completed, it will have two large auditoriums and twenty-five Sunday school rooms for various purposes. A new heating plant will be installed, up-to-date and modern in every respect. An attractive feature of the building now, other than the beautiful architecture, is the handsome windows with ventilators at bottom and top, planned by the pastor himself. The seating capacity of the main auditorium and balcony will be something more than one thousand. The cost of building with furnishings and equipment will be $47,000. The handsome lighting fixtures have already been selected.

When Rev. Warren took charge of the pastorate, the church membership was 330; today it is 760. More than 500 are enrolled in Sunday school with a drive on now among some of the classes for larger membership. The offerings during the past seven years have increased 500 per cent. More than $20,000 was contributed to church work and missions by the members last year and the outlook for this year is flattering for even more than that.

The church membership is closely united and work in harmony with the pastor as leader, no wonder the splendid achievements.

THINK AND ACT

What has developed into a very profitable industry in recent years in Fulton and vicinity can be more fully realized when it is known that more than half million dollars was paid out here for milk and butterfat during the past year. The dairy business is already profitable, but an up-to-date creamery, conducted on a gigantic scale would pay handsome dividends and further stimulate the cash revenue for business channels. Fulton is one of the best distributing points in this entire section of country and what we need to do is to encourage every legitimate enterprise here to expand. For a creamery Fulton has a splendid outlet and a wide territory to draw from.

1927 should find at least a half dozen more factories in operation here, but we are not in favor of donating large sums of money to locate them. There is enough local capital to start a number of industrial institutions paying good dividends quickly—creamery, cannery, hatchery, and numerous enterprises.

A WONDERFUL RECORD

Marks the Achievements of the Illinois Central Railroad Past 75 Years

February 10 will mark the seventy-fifth anniversary of the establishment of the Illinois Central System. The parent road was chartered on the date in 1851.

In his February 1 letter to the public President C. D. Markham compares the Illinois Central Railroad in the days before the Civil War and the present Illinois Central System, which includes the Central of Georgia Railway and the Ocean Steamship Company, the latter operating a fleet of eight ships between Savannah, Ga., and New York and Boston. The miles of line have been extended from the original 705 1-2 in Illinois alone to 8,500 in fifteen states of the Middle West and the South. In 1856, the year the original railroad was completed, it owned 83 locomotives, 52 passenger cars and 1,246 freight cars and represented an investment of approximately $26,000,000; at present the system owns 2,300 locomotives, 2,300 passenger cars and 79,000 freight cars and represents an investment of more than $720,000,000.

"Seventy-five years ago the Illinois Central was just coming into existence," Mr. Markham says. "Today it is in a position to look back over those years with the pride of accomplishment. But it is not the policy of the Illinois Central to dwell overlong upon the past. The daring which brought the Illinois Central into being as the then longest railroad in the world has left it a heritage of constant progress which has maintained in it the spirit and vigor of youth."

MRS. COHN ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Selden Cohn entertained the members of her Bridge club and a few friends with her usual graciousness and charm, Thursday afternoon at her home on Fourth street. Pink and white carnations adorned the home and the chosen color note was reflected in the tallies, score pads and game accessories.

A beautiful Venetian flower bowl was given to Mrs. Guy Snow for club high score, while Mrs. A. M. Nugent won a lovely sandwich tray for guest prize. Mrs. Rex Finch won consolation, and Mrs. Guest, the draw prize.

After five interesting games, attractive lace covers were spread and a delicious salad course was served. Hatters were given as favors.

The Ground Hog

SEWER BONDS SOLD TO FULTON FIRM.

Monday night's session of the city council was a busy one from beginning to end. Mayor Shanley lost no time in transacting business. All councilmen were present and took keen interest in everything presented. The $70,000 bond issue voted last November for sewerage system was bought by J. W. Hillman & Co., at par, said company agreeing to pay the cost of printing the bonds and necessary legal expenses.

Now the city is in position to rush the work to a finish, and while it may require until April 1, to get started, all of the work with connections should be completed this year. Then the street question will have our attention for a year or two, as little or no permanent work will be attempted on the streets for several months after the sewerage system is completed.

Bill Booster Says

There's no friend like money in the bank! It works for you, comes to your aid when you are sick, takes care of you in old age and looks after your family when you are gone. Start a little savings account today and watch it grow.

One of the sure-fire methods of promoting local prosperity is the prompt payment of bills. Money travels in a circle in Fulton, so the money soon comes back from those who owe you. So if you owe anybody, send 'em a check and make them feel good.

"Yes, an automobile is an expensive luxury, but we will be a long time dead, so why not have a little fun while we can enjoy things? Lots of folks who put off their good times too long will agree with me."

Ordering articles from a book, paying cash before you see the goods; waiting a week or two until they come and then paying freight or express charges is not my idea of "service." Compare this with what you get when you buy at home from the fellows who pay taxes here. Buy where your dollars have more cents.

Our schools and churches are the best things we have. They have no selfish motives. The betterment of mankind is their noble purpose. We should see that they are well housed, amply financed and let the clergy and the teachers know that they have our sympathy and support.

Goldbloom Coffee.

A coffee that is fast becoming a general favorite in Fulton is "Goldbloom." You can't help but like it. It is steel cut. By this method of cutting it is free from coffee dust and chaff, taking away the bitterness. The particles are uniform in size, improving the flavor. It is the ideal coffee. We have tested it out with delightful satisfaction. It's rich, delicious, creamy taste and fragrant aroma make it a most delightful beverage. M. Livingston & Co., wholesale grocers, are distributors. This is a local institution of which Fulton is proud. They have a number of branch houses, all doing an excellent business. When you want the best coffee ask your grocer for "Goldbloom."

Words Of Encouragement

Duncan, Okla., Jan. 25, 1926.
Mr. R. S. Williams, Manager and Editor,
The Fulton Advertiser,
Fulton, Ky.

Dear Sir:
Being an ex-Fulton boy, and having read some Fulton paper since leaving there nearly twenty-five years ago, and still being interested in Fulton and my old friends, and noticing that the Advertiser had recently passed its "first milestone" towards success, I want to congratulate you on the good paper you have built up and are putting out. I have read the Advertiser for the past year and while many of the people are mentioned are strangers to me, still I see the names of many of my old time friends mentioned frequently, and note with pleasure the progress the town is making, therefore am always glad to receive my copy, and herewith enclose check for subscription for another year.

My brother, L. A. (better known there as Arthur) and I, left Fulton nearly twenty-five years ago to try our luck in Oklahoma. He, having learned the hardware business while with the Shacklett-Thomas Hardware Co., naturally has followed same since, and today we have one of the best stocks in Duncan. After landing in Oklahoma I took to the banking business, and have never been able to get away from same. We both still have a warm spot in our hearts for Fulton and our old time friends, but like many others who have come west, would not be willing to exchange our new home for our old one.

I believe then, and still do, that Oklahoma has the most promising future for the young man of most any State in the Union. We run across many Kentuckians out here, and very often run across some one from or near Fulton, and of course, we are always glad to talk over old times and old friends. R. B. (Bob) Brown, who left there many years ago, lives near us and we see him every few days. Jas. C. Cheek, one of my old schoolmates, and now a promising Attorney of Oklahoma City, was in to see me a short time ago, and only last week one of your good citizens, L. O. Bradford, dropped in to see me and we had a nice visit, so you Kentuckians and Fultonites are always looking for something better, therefore it is quite natural that so many of them are found out here.

Wishing your good paper continued success, and trusting that I may receive my copy regularly, I am,

Yours truly,
C. M. BROWDER.

ROBERTS CLOTHING COMPANY BEAUTIFIES THEIR STORE ROOM

The Roberts Clothing Company on Main street have just completed remodeling and beautifying the interior of their store room. This firm has recently entered on its fourth year's business career and by their fair dealings with the public, selling merchandise with the Roberts' guarantee behind it, have met with unusual success. While they sell the well known brand of "Holeproof" line of ladies' hosiery, it can truly be said that it is a "man's store," because they carry in stock every item to dress up men and boys in the very latest style. The prices too, at this store, are exceedingly reasonable for high class merchandise.

Now is a good time to renew your subscription for The Advertiser another year. Don't wait until your name is dropped from the list. A $1.00 bill will place you in good standing on our list for one year.

Railroad News

Only 2 Out of 400 Traveled by Railroad

Most people understand something of the problem that the motor car has brought to the railroad industry, but there is a particularly striking incident localized.

At the Shriners' Celebration held in Joplin recently, approximately 400 persons came from Springfield, and of this entire number, only two came by railroad, all the others coming by motor car—and the two rode on passes.

The short haul for the railroads has been virtually delated of all profit, or chance for profit. If it were not for the long hauls, if it were not that people are still using the steam roads to cross the country, to make trips to Florida and California, every road in the country would be losing tremendously on its passenger traffic.

If you can figure out a sane, workable solution of this problem you will have contributed an immense service, not only to the railroad securities, but to the entire people of the United States. Because when the railroads cease to make money, national prosperity ceases to exist.—Joplin (Mo.) News-Herald.

Yet there are a few people all over the country that pound on the railroads for their high rates, and will pay a motor bus twice the amount the railroad charges them from one point to another, without a word. A coolie, working a full, long day to his utmost capacity, can carry one ton one mile, for which he may receive 20 cents. And yet that isn't "cheap labor," even though he receives a starvation wage. For it costs 20 cents a ton-mile. The railroads of this country pay trainmen up to $10 or more a day, haul freight for less than a cent a ton-mile, and furnish good dry, free from the weather transportation equipment.

Over-taxation that stops the development of transportation, utilities, machinery, improved factory facilities, or farms, all of which are dependent upon the savings of yesterday, is coolie-ism in this great land of ours.

Supt. Williams held a meeting in his office Monday of this week, with his staff officers, for the purpose of discussing improvement in operation.

Supt. H. W. Williams attended a banquet held at Memphis last Saturday in honor of Mr. A. H. Eagan, who was retired from service as General Superintendent of the Y. & M. V. at Memphis, January 1. Colonel Eagan, as he is known, was retired on the automatic pension rule for all employees who reach the age of 70 years. Mrs. C. R. Young of Carbondale, has been very ill with the flu for several days, and we are sure here many friends at Fulton will be glad to learn that she is improving.

SOME GOOD DOGS AND LOTS OF BAD ONES

About this time of the year the dog-catcher starts his rounds, looking for the "poor mut," whose owner has failed to dig up the price of his license and many a small boy and girl has forever lost their loved companion, just because "Pa" forgot to do the necessary "digging."

The D. C. is a very necessary person in the community, for entirely aside from the monetary part of the program, there are always a lot of stray dogs that the general public would like to see put out of the way.

When a lot of stray dogs chase a fellow's chickens, tip over the garbage cans, scratch up the front lawn and generally make themselves a nuisance to the peaceful citizen, he begins to wish that the D. C. was a lot more active, and stayed on the job longer.

If the dog owners would give just a little thought to "the other fellow," and not let his dog run loose all over the neighborhood, perhaps there would not be so many dead dogs, and infantile lamentations.

A WORD TO THE WISE

It seems to me that one of the contributory reasons for the increase in the disrespect for law is the fact that parents thoughtlessly encourage their children to disregard the law by buying the children roller skates, or allow them to write to Santa Claus for them at Christmas time.

There is a city ordinance that prohibits the skating on the sidewalks of the city and yet, in spite of police notices and the fact that nearly every child is aware of the prohibition, there is scarcely a day that any number of children do not disobey the law, and this with the sanction of their parents.

Also, small and large boys are continually riding bicycles on the walks, although this is also contrary to the city ordinances.

There would be a most awful wail from the parents if "my son" should happen to be "took up" for doing either of these prohibited things, and yet the parents allow it to continue.

Wonder if "A word to the wise is sufficient"?

A Jay Walker.

Death Pays the Score.

J. B. Brockman, Who Shot Two Little Boys, Dies Without Trial.

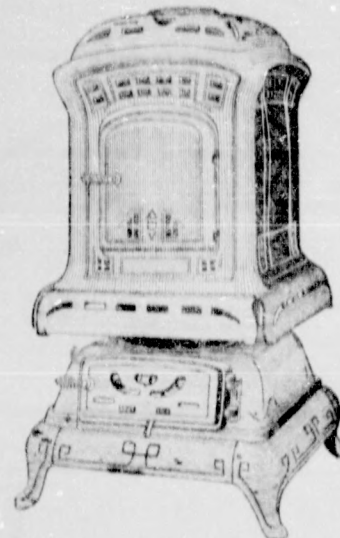

Hickman, Ky., Feb. 1. J. B. Brockman, 72 years old, who last June shot two little boys, aged five and six years, with a shotgun, is dead without ever coming to trial. The case was very unusual and aroused much feeling at the time Brockman shot the little boys, the sons of Alex Hamill and Rev. Fordyce, when he saw them in his tomato and cantaloupe patch. The little boys fortunately were not seriously hurt, but both had been knocked down by the shot, and the physician removed 19 shot from the body of one boy and 26 shot from the face and body of the other child. Brockman said he was so enraged over the children getting into his patch that he hardly realized what he was doing. He was also sick and very broken with age, the children, when found had one little tomato. Mr. Brockman, however, was removed from the jail last August, when he was found to be in the last stage of tuberculosis, having been unable to sit up long at a time after confinement in the jail, and so was removed from the jail, but has never been able to face trial. The remains were buried in the city cemetery Monday. He is survived by several children and grandchildren.

A FARM WAGON THAT IS GUARANTEED

The amount of satisfactory service that a wagon will give depends entirely upon the material and skill the manufacturer puts into it. We want to show you a wagon that is built of the best materials by men who know how.

THE JOHN DEERE WAGON

The Wagon That is Guaranteed

A special machine automatically measures the inside of the skinn of the John Deere farm wagon and shapes the axle to fit accurately. The skinn is set in red lead under high pressure. It has exactly the right pitch, and the axle has the right gather to make the John Deere wagon run lighter than other wagons. With the John Deere sand- and dust-proof bearings there is no wearing of bearing surfaces—the oil stays in—the wagon is always smooth-running and light-pulling.

And don't forget this other big feature—the heavy malleable fifth-wheel with corrugated coupling—no bending or breaking of knibbit—holder does not get out of line and rock—no danger of tipping when handling large, top-heavy loads.

Come in and see this wagon—read the guarantee on the tool box. Let us explain the many fine points embodied in it.

Beelerton News

"Father and Son's Banquet"

Beelerton community met to give well-merited honor to the fathers and sons last Saturday evening. About one hundred men and boys assembled in the class rooms while the tables were being spread by the wives, mothers and school girls. A pleasing sight met the eyes of the men as they entered the auditorium; tables covered with snowy linen; decorated with baskets of roses and sweet peas; and laden with an abundance of palatable food.

Hon. L. L. Hindman of Clinton, Ky., and a former resident of the community, was the chief speaker of the evening and gave a splendid address on "Ideals." In this address he gave tribute to the mothers of the community who gave him inspiration and courage when he was a struggling young lawyer; urged the fathers to take upon themselves the responsibility of parenthood and to hold before their sons, ideals of manhood so Kentucky could give to the nation more wonderful men like Clay, Calhoun and Lincoln. He closed his address with the following words: "As the navigators in ancient days searched the heavens for the star to steer their ship on its journey, so must man follow the one bright star, the Star of Bethlehem, to get the true vision of life."

The following program was given:
March—Loudean Bryan.
Piano Duet—Misses Boone Walker and Rebecca Robey.
Song, "God Bless Daddy,"—Misses Marcella Bryan, Marguerite Walker and Evelyn Hryn.
Reading—Jimmie Brown's Sister's Beau,—"Nelle Wright."
Piano Solo—Rebecca Robey.
Duet—"Don't You Love Your Daddy Too?"—Misses Alma Bushart and Pauline Brown.
Reading, "Dear Old Dad,"—Mary E. Walker.

Pianologue, "Pertinent Questions"—Margaret Foy.
Reading—Zelma Pillow.
Piano Solo—Boone Walker.
Talk by Toastmaster—Rev. E. S. Hicks.
Talk, "Kentucky,"—Wayne Pillow.

"A Great Kentuckian,"—Bailey Singleton.
Short Talk—Mr. E. J. Bennett.

Piano Duet—Misses Katherine Mobley and Fay Hicks.
Talk, "A Great Man of Yesterday"—Reed Gardiner.
Talk, "A Great Man of Today"—Hugh Wright.
Pianologue, "Let Me Live in a House by the Side of the Road"—Hazel Morris.

Piano Duet—Misses Boone Walker and Rebecca Robey.
Address—Hon. L. L. Hindman.

Vocal Solo, "A Perfect Day"—Loudean Bryan.
Benediction—Rev. Miss Lettie Clement.

Miss Loudean Kirby spent the week end with Miss Hazel Morris of near Enon church.

Mr. Paul Fite was the guest of Mr. Lowell Weatherspoon last Sunday afternoon.

Miss Sallie Mae Bailey of Dublin, spent the week end with Miss Blondelle Wooten.

Rev. Miss Lettie Clement and Mr. Oling Winstead of Duke-dom, Tenn., were the guests of Rev. E. S. Hicks and family last Saturday night and attended the "Father and Sons' Banquet."

Misses Loudean Bryan, Lucille and Fay Hicks and Messrs. John Kirksey, Wayne Pillow and Homer Weatherspoon were the Sunday guests of Misses Grace and Pauline Brown.

An interesting Chapel program was conducted by Miss Jewel Robey last Monday morning. The program consisted of vocal and piano solos, readings and piano duets. Miss Robey is a wonderful teacher and her pupils are expressing their love and admiration for her by preparing themselves with diligent study, for high school work next year.

Mesdames Ed Bryan and Will Pillow and Misses Rebecca Robey and Mary Swan Bushart were visitors at chapel.

A number of Negro plays and songs will be given at the school house, February 13. The complete program will be given next week. Look for it.

Chestnut Glade

The Tom Todd farm of 33 acres was recently sold to John Alexander. Consideration $3,000.

Mr. Bob Fullerton has moved to the Grogan place and Mr. Alexander has taken possession of his new home.

Mrs. Stella Nanney is improving slowly.

Mr. Will Hagler's entire family have been ill with flu.

Mrs. Bill Burke has been very ill for several days.

Our school has been putting on a special program each week just after the noon hour, Wednesday, each room entertaining in turn. Mrs. Nix entertained with a very clever program last Wednesday. Mrs. Temple will entertain with her pupils next Wednesday. It occurs to me that the patrons of the school might enjoy these programs and make the school a visit at that time, particularly when their children's room is represented, and thereby encourage the children, make the acquaintance of their teacher and thus promote a better understanding all around.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitel Felts will leave this week for Detroit, provided Mrs. Felts recovers sufficiently from the severe cold which she has contracted. The newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Kindred, will be at home this year on the farm belonging to Mr. Felts.

Wayne Rhodes was kicked by a mule, Saturday, while on his way home from Fulton. His knee was swollen and very painful, but it is hoped there will be no serious results.

Jim Ferrabough had a horse to fall dead Saturday on the streets of Fulton.

Mrs. Myrtle Caldwell of St. Louis, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Bettie Lamb and other relatives for a few weeks.

Cayce News

Mrs. Clyde Linder of Sylvan Shade, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Inez Menese.

The young people of this community were entertained with a social, Saturday evening at the home of Misses Onnie and Tommie Fleming.

Miss Nina Kimbro and Lemuel Mahan spent the week end in Fulton and Paducah.

The Vaught Quartet gave a concert at the auditorium Wednesday night.

Of the two students who deserved special mention in the Bacteriology class of Washington University, St. Louis, Miss Lois Mayfield of Cayce was one. We like to hear such favorable reports from our students.

Mrs. Ora Herring and daughter, Miss Evelyn, were the guests of Mrs. Fannie Price in Fulton this week.

Mrs. Joe White and little son of Union City, visited in Cayce Friday. Joe, Jr. contributed greatly to the program of the literary society by his singing.

Mr. J. L. Fowler and Miss Maxie Fowler of Lewisburg, Tenn., W. L. Fowler, of Okmulgee, Okla.; P. T. Fowler, of Memphis; Mrs. Henry Flowers and Mrs. Clint Ramsay of Kenton, Tenn., visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Fowler this week.

IMPERIAL WIZARD OF THE K. K. K. DECORATES FULTON CITIZEN

Monday night, the Imperial Wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, conferred one of the highest honors of klankraft upon one of the citizens of our community, by pinning upon him by proxy of the Exalted Cyclops, a hero medal, commemorating his valor and deeds as a member of the old original klan of 1866.

The honor was conferred with a very touching ceremony, and though the intrinsic value of the token is slight, the sentiments attached to it and the heart throbs that go with it are as measureless as the sands of the sea, as it is symbolic of the highest esteem one Klansman may have for another Klansman; and honor to a Klansman is more than life.

AIR DRIED CLOTHES

Do you realize what it means to receive a bundle of thoroughly washed and air dried clothes from a modern power laundry?

It means that at last the only remaining barrier between the housewife and the laundryman has been broken down. Because, now the modern laundry not only washes clean whatever you choose to send, but also duplicates in every respect the method of drying that the housewife has employed for time immemorial, namely, the hanging of the washing on the old-fashioned clothes line, to bask and dry in the glorious sunshine.

The greatest development in years and years, comes to this steadily growing industry in the perfection of a natural drying process. This new method of drying by air eliminates for all time that unmistakable odor which has branded the work of the power laundry in the past.

Thousands and Thousands of Cubic Feet of Concentrated Sunshine

The scientific application of air as a drying agent in the power laundry is accomplished by the perfection of the Vorclone Drying Tumbler. This most wonderful machine harnesses clean fresh air in such great volumes that it almost entirely eliminates the necessity of heat to dry clothes with. It dries clothes by air, evenly and gently, ventilating them thoroughly, freeing them entirely of all lint, leaving them soft, fluffy and perfectly odorless. Clothes dried in this manner are never shrunk, discolored or left with a harsh feel.

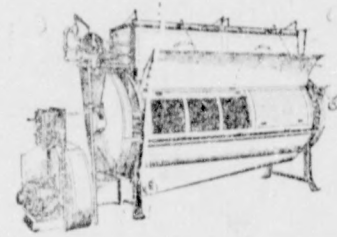

The Vorclone Tumbler used in our laundry is the only drying tumbler that does not depend solely on heat to dry clothes; it is the missing link in an otherwise perfect laundering process. It puts the work of the power laundry on par with that of the housewife's own private laundry.

Be sure to see this wonder machine in our laundry anytime, feel and smell the clothes it dries, notice how fresh and sweet smelling they are.

AN APPRECIATED LETTER

In this issue of The Advertiser, we publish a letter from C. M. Browder, vice president of the Oklahoma National Bank of Duncan, Okla. The letter not only contains the choicest bouquet of words for The Advertiser, but contains news of interest for our readers. We can assure Mr. Browder that his twenty-five years' absence from Fulton has not relinquished the pleasant memories of his old associates and acquaintances here, and it is with a keen interest of unselfish pride that we Kentuckians can send forth a native son who has worked his way and is now at the head of one of the leading banking institutions of the great State of Oklahoma, with deposits of a million dollars and total cash resources near the million mark.

The editor wishes to assure Mr. Browder also that his kind words are appreciated and an incentive for us to make The Advertiser a better and more interesting paper.

WHAT YE HEAR

"Take heed what ye hear," as to slanderous reports and insinuations. There is a vast amount of defamation in the world. Perhaps we have all suffered more or less by it, hence one would think we might be prepared to estimate it at its real value. But notwithstanding our own experience in regard to its evils, how prone we are to listen to what evil tongues may say of our neighbors! Though jealous enough for our own reputation, we seem to have little concern for that of others.

We should remember that we have no more right to hear what evil tongues may say, than evil tongues have to say what they ought not. We could not give the tongue of slander a more pointed and successful rebuke than to refuse to listen to it. If we are watchful of our ears, others would be constrained to bridle their tongues. If all men were deaf and blind there would be no slander, because there would be none to hear or read it, and the unruly member would of necessity be kept in order. But now there are hearers and readers and hence the tongue and pen must be guarded. Idle words are often the cause of inestimable mischief. A good name is rather to be chosen than riches. But the tongue of slander may rob us of our good name and leave us poor, indeed. What havoc has been made of the peace and happiness of individuals, of families, of neighborhoods by an evil tongue! What were but trifles are swelling into importance by repetition, and thus difficulties which a single word might have explained and healed, increase in magnitude and at last become incurable. The tongue will be evil while the heart is wrong, for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. The best remedy for an evil tongue is a new heart, but as even the best of us are sanctified in part, we must adopt such a remedy as will meet the evil from whatever source it may come; and this is the remedy:

Take heed what ye hear. We must refuse to listen to what the evil tongue says. Listening to slander is so nearly related to slander itself that, if we give place to the one, we are likely to be infected with the other. The listener is partaker with the speaker; therefore, at all times, now and ever, take heed what ye hear—don't hear everything, and don't everything you hear.

Now is a good time to renew your subscription for The Advertiser another year. Don't wait until your name is dropped from the list. A 1.00 bill will place you in good standing on our list for one year.

MONEY IN POULTRY

A. E. Allen of Cary Shows Results of Proper Methods

The following is an interesting report from a man who kept a record from a flock of 186 Rhode Island hens.

A total net profit of $1,515.32 was obtained from a flock of 186 Rhode Island hens belonging to A. E. Allen of Cary, according to a report that he has made on his flock to John C. Anderson, county agent in Wake county, Tenn.

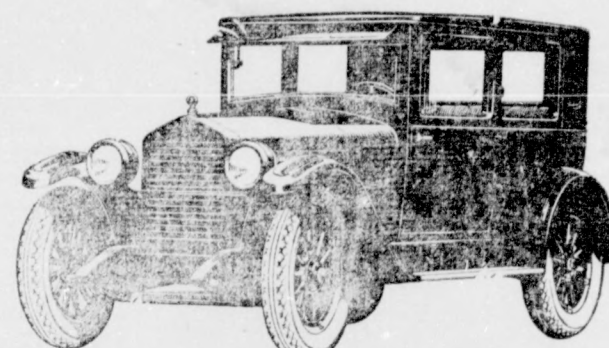

Mr. Allen kept a careful record of each egg obtained from his flock from the first day of January, 1925, to the last day of December. During the year it cost him exactly $683.11 to feed his flock of hens producing these eggs. His records show 26,244 eggs sold for the total income of $1,033.05. This left a profit of $399.94 on the laying flock of 186 birds.

But during the same period some eggs were used for hatching purposes. Mr. Allen raised and sold 1,682 pounds of broilers for $794.38, obtaining good prices, because of the fine quality of his early fliers and because they were well fed. In addition he now has 161 strong selected pullets to add to his flock and these are worth $391. This makes a total profit of $1,515.32.

Mr. Allen states that it is almost impossible to keep a separate account of the feed used by the broilers and pullets and he does not know exactly how much of this to charge off. He is satisfied, however, that his flock returned him $1,500 in cash during the past year.

In addition to his poultry work, Mr. Allen has a small farm and is giving each of his children a good education. He claims that the poultry provides him with the necessary cash to keep his younger children in school and the older ones in college. Mr. Anderson states that he is one of the best poultrymen in Wake county.

Two Cut in Brawl.

Hickman, Ky., Feb. 1. — Homer
Lawrence, a young man, 21 years old, is in a serious condition, and James Miller was cut so badly that he was unable to go to jail, as the result of a drunken brawl in West Hickman last evening.

Each one claims self-defense.
Lawrence had cut Miller across the back of the head and neck almost around to his cheek, with a knife, when Miller drew a pistol and shot Lawrence. The bullet went through the abdomen, and Lawrence's condition is very serious. He was taken at once to Mason's Hospital in Murray, Ky., for operation, but recovery is very doubtful. A hearing of the case will be had as soon as Miller is able to be brought to the jail, which will possibly be tomorrow. His wounds are not dangerous.

Note—Since the above was written, Lawrence died at the hospital in Murray.

Sunday School Lesson

LESSON FOR MARCH 7
JESUS WASHES THE DISCIPLES' FEET

LESSON TEXT—John 13:1-17.
GOLDEN TEXT—"The Son of Man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister and to give His life a ransom for many."—Matt. 20:28.
PRIMARY TOPIC—The Loving Service of Jesus.
JUNIOR TOPIC—The Loyal Service of Jesus.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Jesus Dignifies Loyal Service.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Spirit of Christianity Illustrated.

With this chapter we enter into the very holy of holies of the book, namely, the inner revelation of Christ to His disciples.

I. Jesus' Amazing Love for His Own (vv. 1-3). Jesus was fully conscious of what was upon Him. He knew that the cross with all its anguish was just before Him. He knew that His disciples would shamefully forsake Him within a few hours. He knew that one of that number would be the instrument in the hands of the devil in His betrayal. He knew that all things were in His hands—was fully conscious of His deity. He did not withdraw His love from them because of their weakness and the shameful failure which He knew would soon be made manifest. "He loved them to the end"—to the uttermost. True love does not consider circumstances or the shortcomings of the person loved.

II. Christ Washing His Disciples' Feet (vv. 4-11). This act is symbolic of His amazing love for His disciples. Jesus did not regard His hands too holy to do this menial service.

1. Steps in This Service (vv. 4, 5). (1) He arose from supper. (2) Laid aside His garments. (3) Took a towel and girded Himself. (4) Poured water into a basin. (5) Washed His disciples' feet. (6) Wiped them with the towel wherewith He was girded.

These steps symbolize Christ's work of redemption. His rising from supper represents His rising from His place of enjoyment in the heavenly glory. His laying aside His garments is putting aside His vestiture of majesty (Phil. 2:7, 8). His girding Himself is taking the form of a servant in the incarnation (Phil. 2:7). The water in the basin, His cleansing blood. His washing their feet, their sanctification by actual cleansing men through His Word (John 15:3; Eph. 5:26). His taking His garments again, His return to His place and position of glory (Luke 24:51).

2. Peter's Impetuous Ignorance (vv. 6, 7).

He goes from one extreme to the other. His failure to understand the significance of this service caused him to behave strangely.

3. The Significance of This Service to Those Who Participate in It (vv. 10-12).

(1) It is a Spiritual Cleansing (v. 8). Fellowship with Jesus is only possible as we are continuously cleansed from our sin. "He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet but is clean every whit" (v. 10). The cleansing here is not the washing of regeneration (Tit. 3:5), but that of sanctification (John 17:17). Even regenerate people need the continual cleansing of Christ's blood in order to have fellowship with Him. He that is regenerated—washed in the blood of Christ (symbolized by baptism)—does not need a repetition of the act; he only needs the cleansing of sanctification symbolized by the washing of the feet. After regeneration, as we go through this world we are contaminated by its sin.

(2) A Badge of Brotherly Affection. This act showed His abandonment to the service of His own. This is a lesson that is much needed today. We need more and more the fulness of brotherly love. Only can true love be proved by the service it renders.

(3) A Proof of Humility.

This was a lesson much needed by the disciples and much needed by us all. They had just been disputing as to who should be the greatest in the Kingdom. Their selfish motive was expressing itself. Christ's action was a concrete expression of His Spirit.

(4) Equalization.

As they would thus stoop to serve each other in the name of Christ, there would be the sure destruction of caste among them. Such service in the spirit of Christ is the great leveler of humanity.

III. An Example for Us (vv. 12-17). The disciples of the Lord are under obligation to do to each other as He did unto them. This obligation rests upon His Lordship (v. 14). All who call Him Lord in sincerity will obey Him.

God's Way

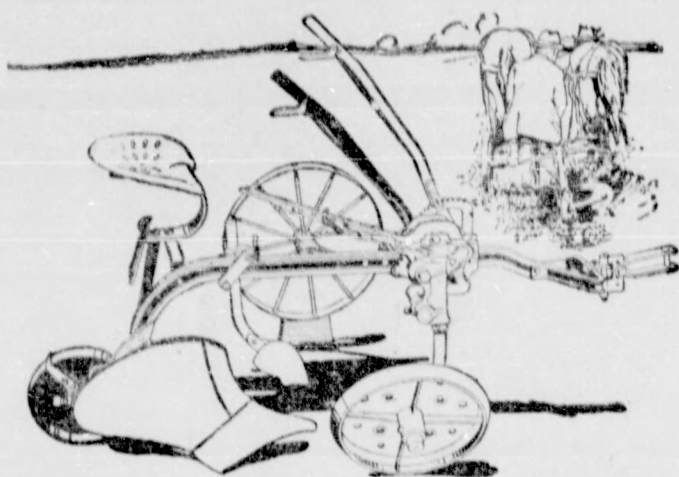

God works in a mysterious way in grace as well as in nature, concealing His operations under an imperceptible succession of events, and thus keeps us always in the darkness of faith.—Fenelon.

Pulls Light and Makes a Good Seed-Bed

Light draft, ease of handling, and good work are as much a part of a Syracuse No. 110 Sulky Plow as are its wheels, moldboard or levers.

JOHN DEERE
SYRACUSE NO. 110 SULKY PLOW

The big reason for its light draft is its rolling landside. This feature supports the rear of the plow. It forms the third leg of the triangular rolling support—permits all body and frame weight to be carried on three oiled bearings. It keeps the bottom from "sloping" or running on its nose, thus saving shares.

We've never seen this plow's equal for ease of handling. The lever that controls the front furrow wheel is right at the operator's hand. When you reach the end of the field, all you have to do is release the lever latch. The front furrow wheel casters on the turn—guides the plow perfectly. Then as the plow settles on the straight-away, the lever seeks the proper position and locks automatically.

Here are other features you are sure to appreciate: The close-fitting shares are quick detachable. The two-axle front furrow wheel support prevents binding or cramping. The bearings are sand proof. The plow is simply made and strong in every part.

We can furnish this plow with the type of bottom adapted for best results in your soil.

Be sure to see this light running plow. Drop in the next time you are in town.

Trade among Friends

No matter what some folks say to the contrary, there certainly is a lot of sentiment in business. Friendship, for instance, makes more satisfactory sales than all the cleverness and argument in the world.

You like to trade at a certain store—not because its counters are arranged in a scientific way, but because the folks who serve you are always friendly and helpful.

Just that very thing—FRIENDLY SERVICE—is the power that draws people together into communities like this, where everybody can enjoy the many benefits of neighborly cooperation.

And FRIENDLY SERVICE is the sentimental reason why you find it very much to your advantage to trade with our advertisers—to buy where you feel at home, where your friends will see that you are well satisfied.

Last Sunday was another one of those gloomy, rainy Sundays out side, but within the sun shown brightly. A good audience attended church and Sunday school with two good sermons by the pastor and the choir favored us with special music.

Interest in the prayer service is growing. Mr. Davis and Mr. Fall did splendid work in getting out the members. They are both good boosters.

Dr. Scruggs gave every one present food for thought for the rest of the week. Come out next Wednesday and see what the leader has to tell us, and if you are real anxious to see how many attend, come and see and help swell that number.

The East Fulton Circle met last Monday with Mrs. I. H. Read with Mrs. J. V. Freeman and Mrs. Read hostesses. The meeting opened with song. The subject for study for the afternoon was, "Is the United States a Mission Field." The roll call was answered with Missionary news items taken from The Voice. Mrs. Pope led the devotions. Mrs. Freeman led in prayer. Those taking part in discussion of the subject for study were Mesdames Bullock, Norment, Roberson, Anderson. The meeting closed with the Year Book prayer. During the social hour the hostesses served tea and sandwiches to 21 members and four visitors.

Church News

Dr. Boyd made his contemplated trip and was in attendance at the 98th Diocesan Convention at Louisville and returned home on Wednesday, the 27th. He did not remain throughout the convention, but obtained permission to leave before its termination.

The church committee for Trinity Mission church as confirmed by the Bishop, are:

Messrs. Don Taylor, Chas. W. Binford, H. S. Stansbury, H. E. Wade, Ed C. Paschall and Edward T. Heywood, to serve in the capacity of a Mission Vestry for 1926.

Next Sunday at 2:30 p. m. this committee will meet in the Parish house to organize.

Dr. Boyd announced, last Sunday, that the year 1926 would be one of work, and this campaign is to be begun at once.

The Mission Committee for Christ church, Columbus, as required by an unorganized mission, will consist of Montgomery Medley, Warden, Mrs. Hattie Dupree, secretary and Mrs. Chas. Fisher, treasurer, for the year 1926.

Bishop Woodcock is contemplating going abroad next June but will make his Episcopal visitations before then throughout his diocese and his schedule sets May 18 for Fulton and May 19 for Columbus, which is subject to any necessary change.

The Missionary Committee for the Diocese of Kentucky will meet at a convenient time and map out the work for the Diocesan Missionaries, when arrangements for the work in Western Kentucky will be made and the status of the missionaries settled.

The Woman's Guild of Trinity Church met Monday at the home of Mrs. S. L. Phillips and elected Mrs. Don Taylor, president, Mrs. Venia Fowler, vice president, Mrs. Mack Roach, secretary and Mrs. Chas. W. Binford re-elected treasurer for the ensuing year.

Mr. Ed C. Paschall returned from the hospital in Paducah last Saturday where he was obliged to go for further treatment for his malady. He will probably have to make another trip there the latter part of this week.

Mrs. Thos. H. Chapman continues at the bedside of her mother who recently underwent an operation. Her home is in Waco, Texas.

Mr. Charlie Binford was off duty at the Franklin store on Monday, due to an attack of influenza.

Bob Binford spent a few days with his parents here last week, having been fortunate enough to have such high marks in his studies that he was excused from the usual examinations at the State University, at Lexington. Good boy, Bob.

A Progressive Class.

The attendance and membership drive of the Men's Bible Class of the First Baptist Church is waxing warm, and much interest is manifest and good results are shown by the concerted effort. The contest is divided in two drives, wearing blue and red emblematic buttons, G. H. Duley being captain of the blue team, and W. E. Flippo having charge of the reds. The contest will continue through this month, at the end of which time the winning team is to be served with a supper or luncheon by the defeated team, of their designing.

The attendance of the Men's Bible Class on last Sunday was about seventy-five, and a splendid and able lecture on the lesson was given by Robt. Davis, teacher, and a brief address of welcome and appreciation was also given by Mr. Elledge, president of the class.

All who fail to attend this class deprive themselves of a very enjoyable hour and the lesson lectures which are fraught with good spiritual food and instruction.

NOTICE

I will preach at Wesley Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and at Pleasant Hill at 3 p. m. We would like to have a good congregation at both places.

The second quarterly conference for the Fulton circuit will be held at Wesley, Saturday and Sunday, February 13 and 14.

We want a full attendance of all the officials.

A. N. WALKER, Pastor.

ELECTION TUESDAY NIGHT

The annual election of the officers of the Fulton Chamber of Commerce for the year 1926 will be held in the Chamber on next Tuesday night, and every member of the organization should make it a "special order of business," to be there and vote his sentiments.

Then, having elected a set of officers for the year, every member should make a firm resolution to attend the meetings and support the men elected to guide the destinies of the Chamber, for the officers, by themselves, cannot make a success of anything. It takes active members to do the committee work, and a man who has joined any organization should be willing to do his part of the necessary work to make the organization a success.

Let every member cut this notice out and pin it up where he will see it continually, until the evening of the meeting and then be there and vote. Remember the date, Tuesday, February 9, at 7:30 p. m. at the Chamber of Commerce.

NEGRO KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

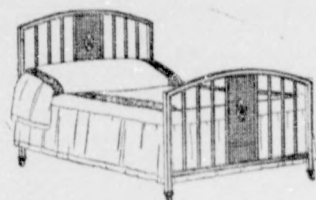

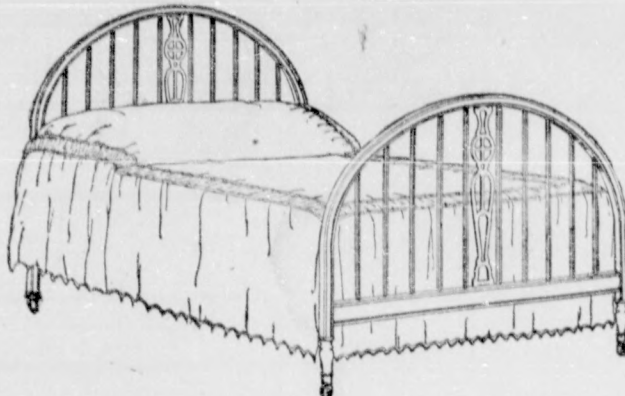

The life of Herbert Brown, colored, was snuffed out Saturday when he, in company with three or four other Negroes, were out speeding in Herschel Lewis' Hudson Coach on State Line near the Country Club, when the car ran off into a ditch. Brown was almost instantly killed and his companions well shaken up.

Mr. Lewis had turned the car over to Rupert Watkins to wash, but instead of washing the car, picked up the Negroes and went for a joy ride. The wrecked car was brought to the city by the City Garage wrecker truck and given prompt attention by Messrs. Earle & Taylor. The Negro Watkins was placed in jail to await investigation.
