SHORT SKETCHES

OF SOME OF OUR PROMINENT

VOTING MEN.

"MONTREAL NOT TOO MANY.

To the Virginian of the 18th century,

Men who were valuable to their countries and who lived a long life, were little appreciated by the people who valued their counsel and their works. There is a man in our county who is the prototype of a gentleman who never knew too much about their work, and we hope that it is not ill-advised to present his character to our readers for us to esteem. His name heads this Sketch, in the following manner:

"Mr. Walter G. Reeder, of Union

Church west, has long been a member of the Baptist church. He was born in Union

Church, and was reared in the west part of the county.

When he was a young man he married the third time on May the 2nd, 1858, to Miss Emma Reeder. He had four children by his marriage. He was a very industrious young man, and married to Judge Fries. He never was an office holder, and has been a very good man. He is the son of the late Mr. James Reeder, who died but a short time.

Mr. Reeder is a gentleman of character and has been a valuable helpmate to her kind and an industrious and frugal man. He is industrious, frugal, and is a gentleman who does not live but a short time.
