LOT OF OLD BENTON HOMESTEADERS GETS FACE LIFTED RECENTLY

The lot on which the Joe Minter residence stood for so many years in Benton, has been given a new face lifting. The home burned about two years ago and since then Mr. Minter died. Recently the part of the house that was not burned, was razed. The trees have been topped and the shrubbery and weeds also were chopped. Much difference was made in the appearance of the lot after the big trees in the front yard and the willow on the side shed most of their lower limbs.

Oak Level School News

(By Evelyn Darnell and Carol Tyne)

Smiling, smiling everyone is smiling because we know our electric pump for the well will soon be here.

At our pie and box supper Saturday night we cleared $16.25. Of this amount the sale of the two quilts by the good women of the community amounted to $94.88.

By the help of Tonzie Davis of Radio station WKTM a large crowd was present.

The winners of the quilts were Louise Shadwick and Cecil Owens.

The next PTA meeting is scheduled to be held on Oct. 30. Our county agent, Homer Miller has promised to be here with some interesting pictures.

Everyone is interested and looking forward to more good times.

OAK LEVEL SCHOOL TO HAVE HALLOWEEN PARTY SATURDAY NIGHT OCT. 28

A Halloween party and sock supper will be given at the Oak Level School building Saturday night, October 28th.

The person who has the best costume will be awarded a gift. Entertainment for the evening will consist of music and stunts in keeping with the occasion.

DOES YOUR NUMBER INDICATE THAT YOUR PAPER HAS EXPIRED

Has your Marshall Courier expired? If it has now is a mighty good time to renew it and keep on speaking terms with the editor. If your two numbers read 750 then your paper expired the first of July; 950, the first of September; 1050, the first of October; 1150, then it will expire the first of November.

The price of the paper is only $1.00 a year. Won't you look at your numbers and send or bring us in a renewal soon?

services, the preaching, and praying and obeying the Lord and testifying and praising God. People who live close to the Lord don't have many troubles.

Last Sunday being the second Sunday friends and neighbors surprised Brother Rouse Smith with a nice basket dinner for his birthday with about 100 or more present enjoying a great feast, and everybody having a good time.

Well we had a nice week of sunshining weather last week. Everybody down here got done cutting hay and we are glad of it.

The revival at the Clark's River Baptist Church is still in progress. We hope a good meeting and lost souls being saved and sanctification.

Well, neighbors, Old Jack Frost is just around the corner. In fact he has had his head nipped a time or two already this fall. We had better sign off now and go t cutting wood. If we want to stay warm it is better to have wood and not need it than to need wood and not have it, especially since we have heard and seen wild geese going over. And we all know that when wild geese go over that is not time to plant corn.

Now is the best time to sign for the Marshall Courier now you can't beat this paper. I like it fine, cannot be beat. Virus Owens, Benton, Ky. R. 2.

Plan For The Future

Of The Present

THE DUVAL features the garage as part of the house, with a bedroom above and under the main roof of the house.

Rooms on the first floor consist of vestibule, living room, combination kitchen dinette and alavatory. Two bedrooms and bath complete the second floor, with a dormer on the rear to clear the bathroom and a rear window in the large bedroom.

Cabinets in the kitchen are located on opposite walls and provide for a closet, refrigerator and range on the inside wall, a sink and work counters on the outside.

Other features are the coat closets, wardrobe closets with drawers, in the small bedroom and a walk-in closet in the large one.

Exterior finish is planned to be asphalt shingles and wide siding.

The dimensions of the Duval are 36 feet by 24 feet. The floor area is 864 square feet. The cubage totals 20,891 cubic feet.

For further information about THE DUVAL, write the Small House Planning Bureau, St. Cloud, Minn.

We hope we can be of service to you on plans for a New Home. We Invite you to discuss your plans with us.

Growing in Prayer

Lesson for October 22, 1950

LIFE MAGAZINE, which does not set up an authority on religion some years ago carried a story about a little girl who was going to be confirmed in the Episcopal church. In describing the requirements for confirmation, the reporter said she had "graduated from 'Now I Lay Me' to the Lord's Prayer."

Most Christian ministers, including those of the denomination in which she was confirmed, would agree that (1) if that is as far as she had "graduated," she still had a very long way to go in learning about prayer, but (2) the little girl had got about as far as thousands of "Christians" ever go. They learn the Lord's Prayer when they are children and that's that. When they grow up they don't actually pray themselves; they leave it up to Grandma or the preacher—or the lady who "sounded so cute" saying "Now I Lay Me."

The Lord's Prayer THIS is not meant to say anything against the Lord's Prayer, or to imply that we are wrong every time we use it. But our Lord did not mean that prayer to be used as a magic formula, he did not intend it as a substitute for our own free prayers. We know this is so, because in the first place he himself never used that prayer again, and in the second place, although dozens of prayers by Apostles and others are recorded in the New Testament, the Lord's Prayer, as such, is never used. Then what is the Lord's Prayer?

It is his suggestion as to the lines along which, and the spirit in which, we ought to pray. (See the book by William Douglas Chamberlain on the Lord's Prayer, "The Manner of Prayer.")

One truth suggested by the Lord's Prayer is that we are not alone in the world. Every verb, every pronoun referring to the one who prays, is in the plural—OUR Father forgive US lead US We have to remember that God is Father of others, not of ourselves alone; that we dare not be selfish in asking special favors of him for ourselves.

Maturing in Prayer PRAYER at its lowest level is nothing much more than "Gimme." The untought prayer may even talk to God as if he were a personal servant, a kind of celestial bell-boy on call whenever we ring for him.

The growing Christian will grow in prayer as in all things; he will grow to the point where, even when he prays as an individual, he will be remembering how many ties bind him to other individuals; he will pray less and less for his own necessities and more and more for what he may share with others.

The beginning Christian, the childish Christian, will pray as a child prays. If his prayers were as all arrows they would all point toward himself. As for the mature Christian, if his prayers were visible arrows they could be seen pointing into all the world; he will have those in every land for whom he prays, for his heart bears their names in love and faith.

Learning God's Will A GOOD deal of worrisome argument has gone on over the question: Can prayer change the will of God? We shall be less bothered by that question when we discover two truths.

One is that in the Lord's Prayer, and in the Bible generally, we have already revealed to us the lines along which God's will moves; and the other is that prayer itself is a means of learning God's will.

If we know that God's will is against something, then, if we have any sense, we know there is no use in praying for that thing. If we know God's will desires something, then we can be confident that our prayers in that direction will be heard with favor.

A study of the Lord's prayer, from this angle, will teach a Christian how to pray in accordance with God's will. Paul knew this. When he prayed that his Philippian friends "love may abound more and more," he knew very well that this was precisely in line with the will of the Father who is eternal Love.
