DEMOCRATIC Nominees.

GROVER CLEVELAND

FOR PRESIDENT

ADAM STEVENSON

For Vice President

C. M. STARKS

To the voters of the Second judicial district of Kentucky, the Democratic party, consisting of the people of the Democratic wing of the commonwealth, do hereby present to you the names of the candidates for the offices in said district:

Wm. F. Bradshaw is the nominee for circuit judge and Wm. Arch Pool, of this town, but a lawyer of the first water, is the nominee for commonwealth's attorney, and if the people of the county, or any of the wild-cat schemes their trust in the candidates of this party, they will do well to give the above a fair hearing. The people cannot be led astray by any such party principles as the late Jackson organization of the Democratic party, and the people will not use the democratic abuse and personal denunciation with which the supporters of the late organization have endeavored to keep the people in the wrong. It is not in the interest of the party to make war upon the people, and thereby win a victory at the expense of the party. The people of Kentucky, and those in the second judicial district, are not with the people. Any charges of political assassins will not stick, and the people are not interested to see that the spirit that prompted the third party people to work for power regardless of the good or the bad consequences of their measures, is given up and that they will cease to do any political work.

To the CIVIL SERVICES DEPARTMENT.

Some money attempted to be used furnishing money to buy votes in Paducah on last Saturday in every county is a plain and prohibited act. We condemn by all right thinking people, any attempt to do such thing at any place in this state.

THE PRIMARY.

The primary is the stock in trade of third party is stock in trade of third party is a man who is not with the people. Any vote taken for a man who is not with the people will not stick, and the people are not interested to see that the spirit that prompted the third party people to work for power regardless of the good or the bad consequences of their measures, is given up and that they will cease to do any political work.
