Fourth—It tends to create suspicion of the equalization of wages. I make it clear that it will not be done legally. The steam - power and the like for the old soldiers," and "what shall we do for the poor, that we are not able to take care of ourselves." And, it is in the public interest that the government should act upon these sentiments.

One of the duties of the government is to help the republican party. No blame for this can be attached to the democratic managers to see that no other party is allowed. But, for the republican party, no blame is placed on the democratic managers. The Republican managers are in the habit of saying that "we are not going to give any more aid to the companion party." But, it is not true that "we are not going to give any more aid to the companion party." The democratic managers have not said that. They have said that "we are not going to give any more aid to the companion party." But, it is not true that "we are not going to give any more aid to the companion party." The Smith Business College

Dr. Deboch's Speech.

Wednesday, and the day for Dr.

Deboch's in this City. He was greatly pleased with the audience, who were present in a very large number. The speech was delivered in a clear and eloquent manner, and was received with great applause.

Some of the highlights of his speech include:

- "The emancipation of slaves was a great step forward in the cause of freedom and equality."

- "The republicans, united in purpose, will stand firm against any attempt to undermine our freedoms."

- "We must be vigilant in our efforts to defend our liberties, and will not back down in the face of adversity."

The speech concluded with an appeal for unity and progress, reminding the audience of the importance of working together for a better future.

In conclusion, Dr. Deboch's speech was a powerful reminder of the importance of unity and progress in the fight for freedom and equality.
