BELOVED WOMAN PASSES AWAY

The remains of Mrs. Julia Bryant, who died at her home in Memphis, Monday, March 29, were brought to Fulton for interment in Mt. Moriah cemetery. Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. J. V. Freeman, pastor of the First Methodist church, assisted by Rev. H. L. Patterson, pastor of the First Christian church.

Mrs. Bryant formerly lived in Fulton and was a faithful member of the Methodist church. She was not only faithful to her church, but just as faithful in believing that it was her duty as a Christian, to do the will of her Master at all times.

The news of her death cast a shadow of sorrow over this entire community, where she was loved and esteemed by many endearing friends.

Mrs. Bryant is survived by two sons, Finley and Thomas, and four grandchildren, of Memphis; one sister, Mrs. Jack Hall and her beloved mother, Mrs. Paralee Bard, of Fulton.

Fordson Day Observed Here

Snow-White Motor Company Stages Demonstration With Expert in Charge

Farmers of this vicinity had the pleasure, Saturday, of seeing the Fordson tractor work. It was "Fordson Day," observed by all dealers throughout the United States. The Snow-White Motor Company, Fulton authorized Ford dealers, staged the demonstration at the Reeds farm, adjoining the fair grounds, with an expert in charge. Farm implements best adapted to Fordson tractor power were displayed and used in the demonstration, giving those in attendance, an opportunity of inspecting the latest equipment for use in agricultural pursuits.

All who attended the demonstration were favorably impressed with the Fordson performance and we venture to predict that many of our best farmers will use Fordsons in the future. It has so many accomplishments we will not attempt to enumerate them here, suffice it to say that its work is thorough and a great labor saver. The Fordson covers a wide range of uses on the farm.

THE CHARM OF WALL PAPER AND PAINT

It's a real treat to visit Coulter & Bowers' store on Lake street and view the newest styles and patterns in wall paper. This firm has just received a large shipment of wall papers and paints and now is the time to improve the complexion of your home, inside and out. It's remarkable how quick Coulter & Bowers can brighten up the house, the occupants thereof, as well.

It's a genuine pleasure to have Mr. Coulter relate his thirty years experience in the wall paper and paint business. Few people realize that wall paper will change the whole aspect of a room. Soft tone—airy effects, will make a small room seem large and the big, bare looking apartment may be reduced to cozy dimensions of wall paper of confining perspective. You can give your home a cheerful tone; you can lend it warmth and grace, by the color on your walls. You can introduce a refined atmosphere into it by an exquisite shade or blending of shades. The paper on your wall is the most important influence in the house.

Messrs. Coulter & Bowers say: "The best is none too good for our patrons, and to this end we exercise the greatest care in the selection of a class of papers that will stand the test of expert examination and continued use by our most fastidious customers. The sale of our fine art wall papers is increasing with remarkable rapidity. These latest specimens of the new spring shades in wall decorations are second to none in artistic designs and coloring, and come from one of the largest wall paper manufacturers in the world."

At Coulter & Bowers you will find a line of decorations to suit the most fastidious taste in wall papers and paints. This firm not only retails papers and paints, but does a large contract business, employing only the best painters and interior decorators.

Now is the opportune time to contract with Coulter & Bowers for your spring papering and painting job.

AT EASTER

The promise of eternal spring
Is with us strong today,
We see it in the budding tree,
In every walk and way;
The earth is blossoming again
With newborn beauty bright,
And winter's gloom has vanished
In sunlight warm and bright.

The trees that stood so stark and bare
With bursting buds are filled,
The little brook is singing now
The song that long was stilled;
New verdure springs in every field,
The violets shyly peep
And all the earth in joy awakes
From its long winter sleep.

How meet it is that Eastertime
Should greet us with the spring,
When newborn hope and life and breath
Is filling everything;
When all the earth and sky proclaim
The truth He gave to men,
That after death's encircling sleep
They, too, would rise again.

High School Notes

The high school opera week, began Monday, with the presentation of Verdi's operatic version of the great German opera "Faust," by Superintendent V. C. Myers. Mr. Myers was assisted in his presentation by Mrs. R. S. Williams, who sang the well-loved "Flower Song," and by Miss Ruth Fields, who played the following selections from the opera: The Love Ditty, The Celestial Hymn and The Soldier's Chorus.

An appreciative audience, composed of high school pupils and a number of townspeople evidenced their interest in the plan of presenting the dramas by giving minute attention to the recital of the selling of Faust's soul for youth and love to the Evil One, who is called in the opera, Mephistopheles.

Rev. H. L. Patterson gave an interesting address to the students of the Junior high school, Monday morning, on the subject of the Easter season.

Despite the cold weather, the opening game of the baseball season was a very interesting one. The local team did good work and for a time seemed to be a possible winner, but eventually went down before the strong Rives aggregation by a score of 13 to 4.

Miss Mary Royster, director of school activities, and the play cast of Adam and Eva are to be strongly commended for the success of this most interesting drama which was presented Thursday and Friday evenings. Owing to the inclement weather, the audiences were rather small both evenings.

The domestic science department has a splendid exhibit at the Weak's Mercantile company this week. Our patrons are cordially invited to examine this exhibition and see the work done by this department.

The inter-class meet to be held April 15, between the various high school classes, promises to be one of the most interesting features of the Spring school events.

Now is a good time to renew your subscription for The Advertiser another year. Don't wait until your name is dropped from the list. A $1.00 bill will place you in good standing on our list for one year.

ORGANIZATION IS PERFECTED

Fulton contingent of the Mississippi Valley Highway Concrete Committee met at the Chamber of Commerce on Monday afternoon and perfected an organization by the election of Squire Hagler as chairman, and H. S. Stansbury as secretary.

The meeting endorsed heartily the action of the larger meeting held in Clinton on the 23rd, and will cooperate with the committees of the other counties of the west end of the state in demanding the surfacing of the Mississippi Valley with concrete.

A meeting with the governor and the state highway commissioners and the Federal Highway commissioners, will be arranged for and if these officials can be induced to come to Fulton or some other point in western Kentucky, a big meeting will be held, but if this cannot be done, a large delegation from the various counties will go to Frankfort and lay their petition before the authorities.

It is confidently asserted by those in a position to make such statements, that at least ten thousand cars will route thru Fulton each summer if the highway is surfaced with concrete, but the number will be greatly lessened if gravel is used for surfacing.

It is estimated that there are some five hundred or more cars daily reaching Cairo, many of which wish to come through Kentucky, but are deterred by the lack of concrete highways.

COUNTY RURAL SCHOOLS CLOSE IN OBION COUNTY

Several rural schools of Obion county, Tenn., have completed their regular terms and pupils have been released from their studies. Chapel Hill, Rawls, Holman, Houser Valley, Shapard and Pleasant Valley have closed their doors with the completion of the school term. Rural schools start in July in order that an early closure may be made so children may assist farmers in the preparation of the soil for crops.

Teachers are preparing to enter summer school, where they will remain and receive extra preparation. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Thompson and Jessie Pruett will attend Hall-Moody, at Martin. Gertrude Starnes will continue work in Union University at Jackson. Miss Lydia Davis has enrolled in West Tennessee Teachers College at Memphis. Numerous other rural teachers plan to enter summer school.—Union City Commercial.

RURAL TEACHERS TO BE ELECTED IN OBION COUNTY, APRIL 13

Election of rural teachers for Obion county schools will be held in the office of Supt. Fowler, April 13, when the county board of education meets to work out the teaching schedule for the next term. Supt. Fowler will go over the list of teachers and applicants and recommend the most desirable persons for positions, subject to the approval of the board.

Last year there were 125 rural school teachers in Obion county, but approximately 115 places will be filled in the election, April 13.

NEW ARRIVAL

Lions Easter Egg Hunt

For the Children at Fair Grounds April 4th.

The rules and plan for the Annual Easter Egg hunt at the Fair grounds Easter Sunday, April 4, at 2:30, under the supervision of the Lions, are as follows:

Over 5,000 eggs will be hidden and more than 250 prizes will be given by local merchants and the club for the discovery of prize eggs. The grounds will be divided into three sections, in the first section, children of the age of 3 will be permitted to hunt for eggs, in the second section, children from 3 to 7 years of age, and in the third section, children from 7 to 14 years of age. Positively no grown people will be permitted to assist the children in searching for the hidden eggs, for much complaint arose over the manner used last season by the grown ups and therefore, the club insists that the children be left to themselves. Every care and attention will be used by the members to care for their safety during the day.

CHESTNUT GLADE PRESENTS "THE WINNING OF LATANE"

The expression class of Chestnut Glade high school, in this play next Saturday evening, will unfold an interesting plot exemplifying happiness and sorrow, the modern business life and a struggle for right, combined with a pleasing romance and plenty of humor. Clay McConnell, as Trusty, will make you laugh all your want to. Annie Kathrine Brown, as Latane, will touch the hardest hearts. Valda Strong and Malcom Johns have parts that inspire one with higher ideals. Beecher Finch represents the ambitious business man, Paul Butts is another business man. There are two crafty villains to be thrown out, Guy Finch and Leon Nix. Mamie Milam is a stepmother whose highest ambition is to get into society. The office boy, newsboy and messenger boy are Russell Parish, Mike Nanney and Ralph Breeden. Between acts there will be vaudeville numbers by Maynard Reed, Howell Oliver and Jessie Moore.

GEORGE W. PARKER PASSES AWAY

Funeral services for George W. Parker were held Saturday afternoon at the family residence on Fourth street, conducted by the Rev. H. L. Patterson, pastor of the First Christian church. Interment following in Fairview cemetery. The floral tributes were beautiful.

Mr. Parker passed away after a lingering illness, Friday morning, March 26. At the time of his death he was 55 years old.

When a young man he came to Fulton and was employed by W. V. Brann & Son, in their mill and by energetically applying himself to every duty, he was soon promoted to the position of head miller, by the manager, J. C. Brann. In later years he held the position of head miller with Browder Bros. Milling Co., of this city, and the good work done by this plant is due in a great measure to his excellent qualifications for the duties of his position.

In early life Mr. Parker united with the Christian church and was a deacon at the time of his death. He lived a consecrated Christian life and was highly esteemed by a large circle of friends, who regret his passing and deeply sympathize with the bereaved family in the loss of a loving husband and father.

Besides his beloved wife, he leaves the following children: Misses Lorene and Eddie Dee Parker and Mrs. Mary Crockett. He is also survived by one sister, Mrs. C. S. Sutton, of Chicago, and other relatives.

Lesson for April 4

JESUS APPEARS TO HIS DISCIPLES

LESSON TEXT—John 20:24-29: 21: 1-23

GOLDEN TEXT—Because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.—John 20:29.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Thomas Happy to See Jesus Alive Again.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Appears to His Disciples.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Jesus Appears to His Disciples.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Loving and Serving the Risen Lord.

1. Jesus Manifests Himself to the Disciples—Thomas Present (20:24-29).

Thomas was absent at the first appearance of Jesus—just why we may never know. His absence deprived him of a vision of the Lord. The other disciples went to Thomas with the glad news of the Lord's resurrection but he would not believe. His stubborn disbelief was such that he doggedly declared that unless he saw the prints of the nails and put his finger in the print of the nail and thrust his hand into His side, he would not believe. Note:

1. The Lord's kindness to those who have difficulties (vv. 26, 27). Thomas deserved rebuke, but the Lord kindly supplied the evidence which he demanded.

2. The Lord revealed Himself to Thomas (vv. 27, 28).

When He thus revealed Himself, Thomas was transformed from a doubter into a confessor. He cried out, "My Lord and my God."

3. The superior blessing of belief without sight (v. 29).

Jesus patiently furnished Thomas with tangible evidence of His resurrection, but assured him that belief in Him without the tangible evidence was to be in a frame of mind to receive the blessings of the Lord.

II. Jesus Manifests Himself to Seven Disciples at the Sea of Tiberias (21: 1-14).

1. The occasion (vv. 1-3).

At Peter's suggestion the disciples go fishing. They do not go back to their old calling without hope in Christ. They should not be accused of forsaking their Lord—they were poor men, therefore obliged to work. Furthermore, honest toil should not be considered incompatible with messianic for Christ. Sensible men and women will be busy at so-called secular occupations until called from them by the Lord. Indeed, when the Lord wants men to work for Him, He goes to those who are busy. The disciples toiled all night and got nothing.

2. The risen Lord the supplier of the disciples' needs (vv. 4-14).

At daybreak the Lord appeared on the shore and inquired as to their success. The Lord appears at the point of their extremity. When the disciples confessed their failure, He directed them and success followed.

III. The Charge of the Risen Lord to Peter (21:15-17).

Christ put to Peter the thrice repeated question, "Lovest thou me?" before He gave to him a commission. This shows that supreme love to Christ is the one essential qualification for serving Him. "Lovest thou me more than these?" means, no doubt, "Do you love me more than you do these disciples and all things besides?" Three classes in the church need special care and food adapted to their several estates.

1. Feed My lambs (v. 15). This first charge relates to those who are beginning the Christian life, the babes in Christ. The word "feed" means more than instruction. It means in addition to instruction, surroundings, influences, examples, etc.

2. Feed My sheep (v. 16). This charge shows a different class. It means to shepherd the sheep. The duty here enjoined is to deal with the mature class. He must feed them, give them the proper instruction, guide them, lead them and correct them.

3. Feed My sheep (v. 17). This third charge means the caring of aged Christians. The word "feed" is much the same as in the first case. It means that for the aged Christians the instructions ought to be such as will be suited to their needs.

IV. Follow Me (vv. 18-23).

Christ here gives a prophecy concerning Peter's death. It was to be by crucifixion (v. 18.) Peter once shrank from the cross, but now the Lord holds it up before him. It is not the Lord's death on the cross, but Peter's own. Whatever may be before, even the cruel cross, the disciples are directed to follow Him.

Worldly Joy

Worldly joy is like the songs the peasants sing, full of melodies and sweet airs. Christian joy has its sweet airs, too; but they are augmented to harmonies, so that he who has it goes to heaven, not to the voice of a single flute, but to that of a whole band of instruments, discoursing wondrous music.—H. W. Beecher.

Prayer meeting, 7:30 p. m.
Preaching 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., by the pastor. Special music and the public is cordially invited.

Rev. McCloy preached a splendid sermon last Sunday morning. He remained over till Monday night, in interest of the Lambreth College. Rev. Norman, the presiding elder of the district, preached a powerful sermon at the evening hour.

Rev. George Sellars, Rev. A. N. Walker and Rev. McCloy were the visiting ministers of the evening service.

The Mission Study Class of the Warner Blackard Society, was held at the home of Mrs. Sam Bennett, Monday, in an all day session. The study was opened at eleven o'clock, having been called to order by the chairman, Mrs. Trevor Wayne with a scripture lesson, read by Mrs. Roscoe Wilkins, followed with prayer by Mrs. Ramsey Snow. Mrs. Wayne then took charge of the study by giving the sketches of the first chapter of the study book on Latin America; also interesting facts taken from other books on the subject. Mrs. J. E. Fall followed with an interesting talk on the problems of Latin America and Mrs. Stansbury helped her discuss these problems. Miss Sarah Butt then favored us with three beautiful piano solos. Lunch was served at 1 p. m. The committee in charge had planned a delicious menu, each one present bringing their portion of the delightful chicken dinner served cafeteria style in the spacious dining room of the lovely Bennett home. After lunch, Mrs. Edward Heywood read a splendid paper, also along the same line of thought, Mrs. Boyd Bennett discussed the Indian problem of Latin America or Mexico. Mrs. Stansbury then stated she was ready to answer questions and made a splendid talk on these lines. The meeting closed at a late hour and the members left reluctantly, declaring this the best meeting ever attended.

Mrs. Ramsey Snow and Mrs. Brubaker were special guests of the day.

The regular meeting of the Warner Blackards will be held Monday at the home of Mrs. J. V. Freeman, with Mesdames Batts and Freeman hostesses.

The Yo-pi-mi-si will be entertained with a party tonight at the home of their superintendent, Mrs. Charlie Payne, on Park avenue, and each member is requested to bring their Mary Overall donations, and a good time is expected.

The Junior Missionary Society will meet today immediately after school with Martha Noeman Lowe, on Carr street.

Prayer meeting was splendid Wednesday night. The Warner Blackard Society boosted the attendance and Prof. Alexander was the leader and made a splendid talk.

Rev. J. V. Freeman, J. J. Wren, Vodie Hardin, C. E. Fields, A. G. Baldrige, Mrs.

Redfern, Mrs. Freeman and others attended District Conference in Troy this week.

Patterson delivered the third of his lectures on the old Bible last Wednesday.

The Visitors' Campaign put on by the First Christian church for a period of 30 days, closed Sunday, the 21st. It was arranged in two sides. Mrs. James W. Gordan was chairman of the Purple side. The membership of 218 was divided into two lists of 20 names each, no two members of the same family being on the same side. The committees enjoyed the privilege of the visitors and the church feels that much good has been accomplished, in that the membership is much better acquainted. Captain Mrs. Gordan defeated the other side by a total of 46, there being 964 calls made by the two committees.

DELIGHTFUL SOCIAL

The Senior B. Y. P. U. of the First Baptist church enjoyed a very pleasant informal social Monday evening from seven until ten o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Allen on Second street in West Fulton.

After a short business session of the Union, Mrs. M. N. Bondurant took the lead in a number of games, among them being the old-time spelling match in which almost the entire gathering took part, and which was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. Almost the entire membership was present and took part in the various amusements and the time passed all too quickly for so happy an occasion.

Mrs. Allen and her assistants served the party with a dainty luncheon, consisting of sandwiches, tea and cake, which was a very appreciable feature of the occasion.

The social was one of the quarter-annual events of the Union and is a factor of happy diversion to more firmly unite the organization in a most worthy work.

THE DIFFERENCE

When the grown people of the present generation were children, their parents were keeping a watchful eye over their progress from day to day.

But parents had more time in those days than they have now. Or at least they took the time needed to see that their children were given the proper support and encouragement.

True, we are now living in a swifter age, and must move rapidly or drop behind in the mad scramble.

With some this may serve as an excuse for leaving everything to the teacher who is paid to teach our offspring now to become good men and women.

In reality, though, it should prompt us to exercise even greater personal supervision over the education and training of our children, in order that they may not be out-distanced in the faster pace yet to be set.

For the one who lags behind has to be content with what is left behind by those who are better prepared to solve the difficult problems of life.

KEEP TO THE RIGHT

"Keep to the right" is the law of the road, which, when obeyed, saves one a world of trouble.

Society is a public highway on a grand scale—a great turnpike whereon a hurrying, jostling, wrestling crowd of badly assorted humanity is ever thronging. Here is life in all its better phases—childhood with its golden hair and wondering eyes; youth with its widening, thoughtful outlook; manhood with its firm step and earnest purpose; old age with its bowed form and whitened locks.

Here, too, are thickly strewn the wrecks of life—misguided childhood, headstrong and wayward; erring youth, rioting in frivolity and dissipation, and sowing the seeds of physical decay and moral death; vicious manhood, treading the downward road; and decrepit old age, sinister and sere, with its painful memories and hopeless future—all coming in the one great journey from the cradle to the grave.

How much discord, inharmonious, and jostling would be avoided in this journey if each traveler would only keep to the right. There is a pitfall before you, young man; a temptation to evil; a snare for your feet. You are forming habits of idleness, dissipation and extravagance, which will stick to you like the shirt of Nessus, hampering your noble efforts and eventually dragging you down to the gateway of despair. Keep to the right and avoid it.

That is a doubtful business venture, sir, in which you are about to engage; one perhaps involving loss of self-respect and sacrifice of manly principle. You see where, by taking advantage of your neighbor's ignorance, you can get the best of him in a trade; or by some smart trick of the law you can evade some responsibility you have willingly assumed, or shirk some duty that lies in your way. Keep to the right. There, only, is the path of honor.

When tempted to deal in gossip or scandal; to play the tyrant in your family; to withhold the gentle word of love or praise from her who walks by your side; to lower the standard of your honor, or do ought that would make you less manly or noble in the eyes of good men and angels—keep to the right.

Keep to the right. These golden words should be engraved in letters of living light on the temple of every human soul. They should stand forth as finger posts at the junction of every divergence from the straight path of rectitude; by every wayside temptation.

Keep to the right—spurning every ignoble thought, every unmanly action. Thus will you lay up treasures for a grand old age, and life will bear for you its richest fruits.

THE AMBITIOUS MAN

The moment a man does something, showing he has a keen interest in his work, that he is thinking of something besides the clock and pay day, that moment he is on the road to promotion. Such men cannot be hidden. They are too rare. The man who studies not only his own job, but someone else's, is bound to go up. The pity is that so few men seem to realize this fact. So few seem to know, too, that the ambitious man has an advantage over the average pay day employee in that every one worth considering is interested in his advancement, and likes to see him go up. Indeed, the envious man who finds no pleasure in another's success is, after all, a poor kind of person.

IN MEMORIAM

Susannah J. Wade Matthews, wife of William Matthews, deceased, was born at Murfreesboro, Tennessee, April 20, 1836 and passed to the "Great Beyond" March 26, 1926, age 89 years 11 months and 6 days.

At the early age of 14 she professed religion and joined the Methodist church and throughout her useful life she was a loyal, consecrated Christian.

At the age of 18 she was united in marriage to William (Billie) Matthews, this happy union being blessed with ten children, six boys and four girls, one little boy, Pitts, having died in infancy, and Charlie dying at the age of 25. The eight remaining are Joe Matthews, Pierce, Tenn.; Tom, of Blytheville, Ark.; Mrs. Cora DeMyer of Pierce; Bob, of Fulton, Ky.; Mrs. Irene Burrow, of Union City, Mo.; Mrs. Hodgson of Lansing, Mich.; Mrs. Fannie Lovell, of Shawnee, Okla.; John, of Pierce, Tenn. Besides these children, she leaves 29 grandchildren, 19 great grandchildren and a host of sympathizing friends, all of whom regret the passing away of this rare, beautiful Christian character.

She was a devoted wife, a true, loyal mother and was always ready to lend a helping hand to friend, neighbor or any one who would need assistance.

God bless the memory of this true Christian character. May the influence of her lovely life live ever on and on.

The funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon, March 28, at Hebron church, by Rev. W. B. Walker, of Fulton, and Rev. Johnnie Walters, of Obion, Tenn., Rev. Walters of Obion, giving a true and lovely discourse on her past life, and Rev. Walker giving a pleasing description of her present life. Interment in the family cemetery at Hebron (Old Plank Chapel).

"Mother lives in glory.
With the blest for evermore;
By and by we'll meet her there,
On that bright, eternal shore.
Mrs. R. S. Matthews.

Crutchfield, Ky.

Mrs. D. Hardison started to see her sister, Mrs. Chas. Dodson of Moscow, Wednesday of last week, when the horse she was driving became unmanageable and she tried to jump out of the buggy. She struck the ground on her left shoulder and broke the collar bone, wrenched her back and bruised her considerably, but we hope no serious trouble will come of the shake-up.

Mrs. Chas. Hick died at her home at Croley, Wednesday, March 24. She leaves a husband, two children, a boy and a girl, four brothers, Hanibal, of Crutchfield, Oscar of Fulton, Simp and Jim and one sister, Mrs. John Finch, besides a host of friends to mourn her loss. She was a good woman and no doubt she is with her Savior now free from pain and enjoying her freedom and the sweet companionship of her little boy who preceded her to the glory land. Dear friends, grieve not, but rather rejoice that she has gone to occupy her mansion that the Lord prepared for her. The funeral services were conducted by Revs. Story and Evans and she was laid to rest in the cemetery at Rock Spring.

Thursday of last week, Mr. Dan Hudson's house was burned in Clinton. It was insured. The same day the home of Mr. Ben Moore was also burned near here.

Mrs. T. O. Copeland and Mrs. J. P. Williams shopped in Fulton, Thursday of last week. Mrs. Ollie Bruce and Mrs. T. M. Watkins spent Saturday afternoon with Mrs. D. Hardison. She is getting along very well after her wreck.

Mr. and Mrs. Lauder Sayne and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Finch took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Watkins Sunday and visited Mrs. Liff at Mr. Clark's in the afternoon.

Miss Esther Kimbro visited her relatives in Crutchfield in company with Mr. Julian. She day before she married. She wanted to bid them good bye before she went away, and give him a chance to meet his new relatives.

Mr. Charley Hicks and children spent Saturday night with Mr. Hanibal Seat and family. John Edd was en route home. He left on No. 1, Saturday. His home is in Illinois.

Mrs. Jess Cashon died at her home here Sunday night. She was a woman of rare personalities, always jolly, good natured, and always ready with a cheerful word or deed to help in trouble or distress, and I know of no one who will be missed more than she. She was a member of the Methodist church and a diligent worker; also a member of the Order of the Eastern Star and a faithful worker in that organization, never missing a meeting when she could attend. Her heart was ever open to the cry of the widow and the orphan in distress, and in sickness, was always ready to lend a helping hand. She leaves a husband, two brothers, Rol Howard, of Fulton and Bean of Crutchfield, a heartbroken niece, Velma Howard, whom she has raised from infancy besides a lot of other relatives and a host of friends to mourn her loss.

Her church will miss her, in the Sunday school, her class will miss her, the O. E. S. will miss her, the P. T. A., and in fact, the whole community will miss her. God comfort the sorrowing family and bind up the broken hearted wounds of friends and all interests and help us all to emulate her virtues and be prepared to meet her in the Paradise of God when the call comes for us. Her remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Rock Spring to await the resurrection.

Fulton Route Seven

On last Thursday afternoon, March 23, a large crowd assembled at Chapel Hill to pay the last tribute of respect to Mr. J. W. Earp. Mr. Earp was 66 years, 3 months, 5 days old. He was thrice married, two of his wives preceded him to the grave several years. To these unions were born nine children, four of which survive him. He united with the Methodist church at the age of 15 years and served as minister of the same for 10 or 15 years. He served his county as constable, auctioneer, and veterinarian, and school director. He was always ready to lend a helping hand in time of need. He was sick only a short while. He spent his last hours at the New Martin Hospital, where he underwent an operation. Brother Walker conducted the funeral services, Winstead & Jones, had charge of the funeral. The pallbearers were Ben Jones, Lawson Jones, Carl Scott, Wayne Scott, Owen and Curt Cook. The flowers were borne to the grave by Trula Campbell and some assistants. After a few remarks, the body was consigned to the tomb, beneath a beautiful canopy of flowers, to await the awaking of all saints.

Sleep on, dear father, and take thy rest; God, in His wisdom, knoweth best.

Mrs. Lon Milner is ill of flu. Mr. Coon Monroe, a cousin of Mrs. J. S. Arnold, died in Chaffel, Mo., last week and was buried at Cape Girardeau, Mo. This young man was reared in this community, but left here when grown, but frequently made visits with relatives in and near Fulton. He never married, so he never made for himself any definite location. He was kind and affectionate to friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Waggoner of Martin spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Netherland.

Messrs. H. E. and Raymond Roach took a load of household goods to Martin last Saturday for Mr. Alf Smiley who is moving to Knoxville. Mr. Oliver Powers will move to the place vacated, Monday.

Mrs. Lydia Davis is at home at Mr. John Kinney's. She will now weave baskets for those who want them.

Mr. L. D. McKinney has accepted a position as mail clerk and is leaving soon.

John Deere-Syracuse Slat Moldboard Plow--1471 Series

This plow works well in soils where any solid moldboard--chilled or steel--cannot be made to shed. It does good work in practically all conditions.

Plows of this series are exceptionally strong. The high-arched, double beaded beams of high-carbon steel are guaranteed not to bend or break. Here's another big feature: the malleable standards are die-dropped, which insures the uniform shaping of each standard--the moldboard, shin, landside and share assembled on this standard, are held rigidly together; repair parts fit perfectly.

Syracuse chilled iron is the hardest metal used in plow bottoms--one deep-chilled Syracuse share will outlast two similar shares of other makes.

Come in and see this better plow and let us explain the interchangeability of parts that means long life and uninterrupted good service.

AMONG BEST OF HIS DISCIPLES

Mary of Magdala an Early Follower of the Savior.

There is a quite common opinion that Mary Magdalene was "the woman who was a sinner" mentioned in St. Luke 7:36-50. That woman was evidently notorious for her sinful life, and on account of that opinion the Magdalene has come to be considered a kind of patron saint of depraved womanhood. Even the clergy sometimes use her as an example of the possibility of repentance bringing the sinner of the city into the company of the blessed.

For this opinion there is not a vestige of proof in the Scriptures, nor does the most ancient tradition support it. We have not the faintest reason for thinking that Mary Magdalene was ever an abandoned woman. To every careful reader of the New Testament it must be a matter of regret that the honorable name of this thoughtful, good woman, who was the first witness of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ, should have been besmirched carelessly.

No doubt the mention of Mary Magdalene in the chapter next to the one that tells us of the sinful woman at the house of Simon the Leper (Luk. 7:36-50) has had something to do with the forming of this wrong opinion. Certain authorities were in some cases inclined to identify that woman with Mary the sister of Lazarus, but that is not a popular opinion now with the commentators.

No doubt Mary was known as the Magdalene to distinguish her from the many other Marys, because she came from the town or village of Magdala, now el Medjel, on the west side of the Sea of Galilee. It may be that, as a lady of means, the title showed her local importance.

Mary's Call.

When encountered by our Lord Mary was one of those afflicted with that awful and horrible complaint known as "possession by the devil." Exactly what that was we do not know, for the disease is no longer in existence, but it was probably something resembling epilepsy, caused by a devilish assumption of power over humanity by Satan, at that time when the great conflict for the mastery of the world was at its extreme height.

Mary of Magdala was a sufferer from such possession to an unusual degree. "Seven devils," were cast out of her by Jesus Christ, either successively or at once, and her relief must have been excessive when Satan's power over her suffering body was broken, and she was a normally healthy woman again.

That she became from henceforth a disciple or follower of her Savior, along with some other women, was not to be wondered at, nor was it strange that in thankfulness, "she min- istered to him of her substance."

Whether she proclaimed the good news of the Savior's presence to the mothers of Saron was not informed, but so devoted a disciple, and thankful a believer, could hardly be expected to keep silence about Him in general conversation.

At any rate she followed after Jesus with faithfulness, and it on that dark, betrayal night she was unaware of the treachery against Him, she followed along the way of sorrows, to Calvary with His mother, and stood in anguish with her beside the cross of suffering.

At the Grave Site.

When Joseph of Arimathea had rescued the sacred body from ignominy, and with Nicodemus laid it decently in his new, rock-hewn tomb, the evangelists especially tell us Mary of Magdala was there, and witnessed the hasty entombment.

For a time she and another Mary sat and wept beside the tomb as loving mourning women will, until the duties of that last of the old Sabbaths called them away.

They had made their plans, however, and as soon as the Sabbath had passed at sunset hastened to buy, mix and prepare a great amount of spices, and no doubt more fine linen, to preserve, attire and do all honor to their Master's body.

Morning found them still at their task, and very early, before it was yet light, they stole out with their burdens to Joseph's garden in which was the sepulcher.

That the Roman governor's seal had been impressed upon wax over the sides and lintel of the doorway, a seal not to be broken with impunity, they would not know. Nor could they be aware of the guard of soldiers, Phileas, at the solicitations of the sabbatarians, had placed about the sepulcher.

To their horror and surprise they found the stone rolled away, the sepulcher wide open, and timidly peeping in they saw no sign of the sacred body of their Lord!

Fearful that still further indignity had been offered Him, they hurried back, fast as their feet would carry them, to the house where Peter and John were lodging, breathlessly announcing "They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulcher!"

With headlong haste the two ran through the streets in the early dawn, dashed through the garden, and Peter now in the lead, entered the tomb, to find grave clothes and head wrap all neatly folded, as though there had been no untimely haste about that departure from the grave. To the disciples came remembrances of His talk of "rising from the dead," and wondered to what marvel might have occurred! The others must be told at once, and they hasten back to them with their news and surmises.

The Risen Lord.

The women had followed the two disciples to the sepulcher, and accompanied them back to the city. But not Mary Magdalene! Wondering, fearing, weeping, she stood in Joseph's garden, not knowing which way to turn in her grief.

A voice inquiring "Why weepest thou? Whom seekest thou?" only aroused a trifling interest. Without raising her head she made answer: "They have taken away my Master

The Resurrection

Matthew 28

In the end of the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulcher.

And, behold, there was a great earthquake; for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment was white as snow. And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye; for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified.

He is not here: for He is risen, as He said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

And go quickly and tell His disciples that He is risen from the dead; and, behold, He goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see Him: lo, I have told you.

And when they were departed, behold, the angel sat down upon the stone, and rolled away the stone from the door of the sepulcher. If thou hast borne Him hence, tell me where thou hast laid Him, that I may take away that sacred body."

"Mary" came the reply. The old familiar accent of tender care, of gentle sympathy, of command, which she had such good reason to remember, was in the word! In a very agony of joy and amazement the woman was prostrate at His feet in adoration, while all she could make her lips utter was the one word "Rabboni!"

My Master! My Master! Jesus in actual verity, back from the dead! The marks of death still in side, hands and feet, but the same Jesus! And yet not quite the same! The glory of the risen life, of the resurrection, of the world of heaven to which the way was wide open, now shone in His face. He was clad in the resurrection body, able to breathe the air of heaven or the atmosphere of earth, to eat earthly food or exist without it, to move all independently of mundane laws so as to pass where He would. But the same Jesus of Nazareth still!

First Apostle of Gospel. And Mary of Magdala was the first to see it—she the physical shipwreck, miraculously salvaged by His divine power from the sevenfold bonds of Satan's ruin!

Seldom has mortal experienced deeper, purer joy than that which found Mary in devotion at her Savior's feet in Joseph's garden, on that first Easter morning!

Wonderful are the ways of our God! The first apostles of the Savior's name and birth were a few poor shepherds of Bethlehem; the first apostle of the Gospel of the Resurrection was a woman, one who had been on the threshold of hell, fast bound by Satan's power!

A WORD TO HOUSEWIVES.

With the call of Spring in the air, it reminds one of the many outdoor activities in which the home should partake and enjoy. Surely the Housewife should be allowed this pleasure as well as other members of the family.

You have at your command an institution which, with its modern equipment, makes it possible to give you an extra holiday in each week of the year. "The Home of Cleanliness" cares for your family wash in a clean, modern, sanitary way—no hanging of the clothes outdoors to catch germs circulating in the air, or in rooms where sleeping and eating are done, but clean tables and assorting bins care for your clothes until they reach you spic and span.

This extra precaution and insurance toward cleanliness costs no more. Why not take advantage of this extra day each week by sending the family wash to "The Home of Cleanliness?"

Choose one of our family wash services and make a holiday out of the wash day, with a guarantee for every precaution in safeguarding your clothes.

Chestnut Glade

Mr. Hardy Nabors had a sale at his home near Oak Grove last Tuesday, selling his farming implements, etc. The latter part of the week he moved to Fulton. We are sorry to lose this family from our community; the children from our school.

Paul and Luke Morgan visited in the community Sunday, attending church services at Ruthville.

Brother Taylor of Martin preached at eleven, singing in the afternoon.

Why not a singing at Chestnut Glade every third Sunday afternoon? There is no conflicting appointments in this community for the third Sunday, so why can't we have a third Sunday singing, just as well as a fourth Sunday singing at Dresden?

Brother Hardiman preached a splendid sermon at Oak Grove, Sunday. Brother Sam Colley of Martin; Brother Albert Winstead and other Fultonians were out. Come again and bring others with you.

The tomato industry is recovering from the dumper put upon it by the cold weather and we will perhaps have a half crop in this community.

Henson Jones was operated on last week at Paducah but was able to be moved home last Saturday. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Mable Adams is visiting her mother for a few days this week. The baby has fully recovered and they will soon join Mr. Adams in Detroit.

Horace Palmer, too, is home for a few days with his family.

NOT DEAD BUT SLEEPING—MRS. SUE MATTHEWS

The death of Mrs. Sue Matthews at her home in Pierce, Tenn., Friday, March 26, has caused the citizens of that community to bow their heads in grief. After a long, busy and useful life she died as she had lived—honored, trusted and loved. In the ninety years she lived, she reared her own monument in the hearts of all who knew her. Her Christian life was beautiful from its beginning to its close and she will be sadly missed.

She leaves six children and other relatives to mourn their loss.

Funeral services were held Sunday at Hebron church, conducted by the Rev. John Waters, interment following in the church cemetery.

Hats of Straw or Silk Herald the Spring

Taking the place of the little felt hat that dominated winter millinery, straws and silks vie with one another in spring street hats. Silks, ribbons and straws have joined forces in delightful colors and shapes, to replace the triumph of the vanishing felts.

Society. BEAUTIFUL COURTESY FOR GUEST

Among the beautiful social affairs of the past week was the bridge party given Friday afternoon in the attractive home of Mrs. Ely Bynum on Fourth street when Mrs. Harold Owen and Mrs. Bynum complimented Mrs. H. J. Brubaker of New Carlisle, Ohio.

The reception rooms were a bright joy to see in the great quantity of jonquils, daffodils and violets in baskets, bowls, and vases, nodding greetings from early spring.

Mrs. Brubaker received with her gracious hostesses, wearing a rose georgette frock, Mrs. Owens was in a tomato crepe remain, while Mrs. Bynum was in brown crepe.

The tallies and table accessories proclaimed the approach of Easter.

The game was in play at eight tables and resulted in the beautiful prizes being won as follows. Mrs. Claude Freeman was presented chiffon stockings for highest score; Miss Helen Sebastian held second high and was given a red artificial water lily. A miniature Easter bonnet, in an attractive hat box was procured in the cut for consolation, by Mrs. Harvy Boaz.

A Madeira centerpiece was presented the charming honoree.

After the game a delicious luncheon was served. Miss Helen Sebastian of Martin was an out-of-town guest.

EVENING BRIDGE

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hill were the gracious hosts to the Thursday evening club at their attractive home on Walnut street. Flowers were everywhere in abundance in wonderful fragrance and beauty to do homage to the occasion.

Four tables were in readiness for the game and in the final count, Mrs. Robert White received the high score trophy for the ladies, while Mr. Eugene DeMyer won the gentleman's high score.

Easter favors were used and a lovely luncheon was served after the game.

BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. S. C. Smith was the affable and gracious hostess entertaining the Thursday club, and a few additional friends in her apartments on Walnut street.

With peach blossoms, jonquil and forsythia scattering fragrance and adding to the charm of environments, three tables were at play. A color scheme of pink and yellow was carried out in the bon bons, tallies and in the delicious luncheon that followed the game. Adorable little rabbit heads with pink and yellow ears were peeping from the salads that were served.

Mrs. J. M. Culver procured a lovely vase for high score, while Mrs. Seldon Cohn received a bridge set for low score.

JUNIOR MUSIC CLUB

The Junior Music club held an interesting meeting Monday afternoon in the Chamber of Commerce with twenty-two members answering roll call with current events.

Mrs. Clarence Maddox was in charge of the program. Chopin was the subject of the study. Two well written papers on Chopin's life were given by Jane McAdams and Selden King. The name of Poland suggests at once that greatest of tone poets, Chopin, well named "The Soul of the Piano."

The following piano numbers were well given: Mazurka—Glayds Turner. Valse—Dorothy Farabough. Waltz—Elizabeth Butt. Polonaise—Opal Pate.

COMPLIMENTARY BRIDGE

Mrs. Julian Scates' bridge party of Monday afternoon was a pretty courtesy to Mrs. William Myers of Bloomington, Ill., who is the house guest of Mrs. Hoyt Moore. The reception suite of the attractive home was swept by the fragrance and profusion of violets in arrangement to accent the beauty of the rooms.

Four tables were placed for the game and the honor favor from the gracious hostess was lovely silk lingerie.

Mrs. Claude Freeman received the high score prize, silk lingerie, and the consolation favor a very attractive rubber apron was obtained in the cutting by Mrs. Alf Hornbeak. A lovely luncheon followed the game.

THURSDAY CLUB

Mrs. Clyde Williams was the gracious hostess, Thursday afternoon, entertaining at bridge for the members of the Thursday club. Four tables were in readiness for the game. Early spring flowers gave additional touches of beauty to the attractive rooms and the plate luncheon following the game was a most enjoyable feature. Prizes were exceptionally attractive.

The club prize for highest score was won by Mrs. Ramsey Snow, which she most graciously presented to Mrs. H. J. Brubaker, an out-of-town guest.

The substitute high score was procured by Mrs. I. W. Dobbins.

"Have a heart," was echoed in every nook and corner of Fulton, Saturday, and pretty little girls worked faithfully for the Volunteers of America, in the "Heart Day" drive, selling hearts. The Volunteers of America are doing wonderful work for crippled children and suffering humanity and the sale of hearts by the children, netted a nice sum for the good cause. Mrs. Hilliary Alexander was chairman of the committee in charge.
