PARDONED

Gov. Willson Releases Caleb Powers and Jim Howard From Penitentiary.

Frankfort, Ky., June 13.—Pardons were granted by Governor E. A. Willson this morning at 8:30 o'clock to Caleb Powers and Jim Howard, convicted of the murder of Gov. William Goebel.

Powers has been known as the most famous prisoner in the United States.

Gov. Willson has been studying the records of the case since the latter part of April, giving it all the time, night and day, he could spare from his official duties.

This investigation followed a petition for pardons that was probably the most voluminous ever presented to a Kentucky governor, and contained not only signatures of thousands of Kentuckians, but also the names of people from all parts of the United States, and even from points in Africa and Australia.

Argument on the question of a pardon was made before Gov. Willson by the attorneys of Powers and Howard and of the prosecution.

Four times was Caleb Powers put on trial for his life, and at three of these trials the jury brought in a verdict of conviction. The charge against Powers was that he conspired with others to bring about the assassination of Senator William Goebel, on January 30th, 1900, who was at that time a contestant for the gubernatorial chair.

In issuing the pardon, the Governor gives out a long statement reviewing the cases from the beginning and says he is satisfied neither Powers nor Howard had anything to do with the Goebel murder, and that Youtsey fired the fatal shot. He claims it would be impossible to get an unbiased jury to try Powers again. Howard left the penitentiary at 8:30 this morning and went to Louisville.

Powers was released at 10 o'clock from the Georgetown jail and held a reception at the hotel. He says he will go at once to see his mother at Barboursville. Both men issued statements reaffirming their innocence.

SEEKS REVENGE

Young Woman Shoots Down Man Who Two Months Ago Killed Her Parent.

Tunica, Miss., June 11.—Seeking revenge for the death of her father, Percy M. Houston, Love Board secretary, who was shot to death on the streets of this city hardly two months ago, Mrs. Jacob Weinstein walked up behind his slayer, J. F. Lowe, on the principal street of the town and fired point-blank at his back.

The second shot, which she meant for her father's slayer, was deflected by her 10-year-old brother-in-law, who was accompanying her, and who grasped her arm after the first discharge of the revolver. Thinking his assailant was a man, Lowe wheeled to defend himself, pulling his pistol as he turned, but when he saw a woman before him he quietly placed the weapon in his pocket and walked to a physician's office, where he collapsed.

Mrs. Weinstein fled to the home of her mother, Mrs. P. M. Houston, where she is now in the custody of a deputy sheriff. Mr. Lowe was taken to Memphis on a special train, where he is now hovering between life and death. Mrs. Weinstein is on the verge of a collapse from hysteria. She is but 19 years of age and is a beautiful young woman. Her husband, Jacob Weinstein, who was out of the city at the time, is a business man of Charleston, Miss. The Weinsteins are members of a prominent North Mississippi family and are wealthy.

Lowe was wounded between the shoulders, the bullet passing entirely through his body. A stud in his shirt-front was struck by the bullet and forced out.

Percy M. Houston, father of Mrs. Weinstein, was killed by Lowe on the evening of March 31 following a quarrel. The two men had been fast friends, but fell out when Houston became a candidate for the office of Secretary of the Yazoo Levee Board.

Mrs. Weinstein has made no statement concerning her reasons for shooting Lowe.

The Spring Creek Meeting.

A good crowd attended the tobacco growers meeting at Spring Creek church last Saturday night and fully one hundred acres of the growing crop was pooled.

O. J. Jennings was present and spoke for two hours and was given the closest attention throughout. His scorching criticisms of the tobacco combine brought forth loud and repeated applause from the enthusiastic growers present.

TOBACCO CROP

Great Resource of the Farms and a Natural Source of Government Support.

The production of tobacco in the United States, which was 633,000,000 pounds in 1905, was 682,000,000 pounds in 1906 and nearly 700,000,000 pounds in 1907. The value of this crop has simultaneously increased from $33,000,000 in 1905 to $68,000,000 in 1906 and $176,000,000 in 1907. It will be observed that our American tobacco averages between eight and nine cents a pound. This is its so-called farm value. Almost half of our tobacco is exported, the total for 1906 being some 356,000,000 pounds valued at $34,000,000. Less than $1,500,000 of this export business is in foreign tobacco that has been brought here for manufacture or reshipment, and nearly all of this is leaf filler.

It would probably surprise the great mass of smokers to know how large a percentage of tobacco consumed in the United States is home-grown or at least home manufactured. The cigars, cigarettes and cheroots we import do not exceed in amount 800,000 pounds or thereabouts annually or $5,000,000 in value, and of tobacco in leaf we import less than $7,000,000 worth of wrappers and less than $16,000,000 worth of fillers. Our consumption, therefore, consists of approximately 350,000,000 pounds of domestic and 38,000,000 pounds imported at about $1 a pound and filler at about 50 cents a pound, though, to this, of course, must be added customs, duties and internal revenue before we come to the profits of the dealer and manufacturer.

Tobacco is not only a great resource of our farms, but a material source of government support. It yielded in 1906 about $50,000,000 in internal revenue and nearly $25,000,000 in customs revenue. This is one-twelfth of the customs revenue and one-fifth of the internal revenue; that is, about one-eighth of the entire revenue of the government from these two sources. The state of Connecticut raises almost as much tobacco as we import from Cuba, and the state of Tennessee raises more than the entire production of the Philippine Islands.—Indianapolis Star.

Trial of Night Riders Taken Up.

Benton, Ky., June 15.—The so-called night riders cases of this county were taken up today in the circuit court. There is great interest in these cases and fully one thousand people were here to hear the evidence adduced. There was some disappointment, however, for after the first case was called, that of Burnett Phelps, and the jury had been chosen after much trouble the hearing of evidence was deferred until Tuesday owing to the illness of a child of the accused.

In stating the case Commonwealth's Attorney Lowett announced that he would prove a conspiracy and would identify the accused therewith. The shooting up of the family of John Scruggs, a negro, at Birmingham, in March last, and the fatal wounding of Scruggs and a child, being admitted in a general way, was merely stated as the crime alleged.

C. K. Wheeler, of the firm of Wheeler, Hughes & Berry, of Paducah, who appears for the defense along with J. E. Fisher.

Body Found in Fish Trap.

Mayfield, Ky., June 15.—The body of Cassel Smith, who disappeared several days ago from his home in the eastern part of the country, was found in a fish trap of Jim Thomas, a negro, five miles down the east fork of Clark's river, in which stream Smith is supposed to have drowned while crossing a foot-log.

AUGUST FIRST

Association Books Will Close Several Months Earlier This Year.

If the tobacco growers of Calloway expect to pledge their growing crop of tobacco to the Planters Protective Association they must do so before August 1st.

The executive committee of the association which met at Guthrie, Ky., last week ordered the books closed August 1, this year, which is three months earlier than they were closed in 1907. The purpose of closing the books is attributed to the fact that some of the tobacco growers would have their tobacco cured by then and good prices from independent buyers would be an inducement for them to sell.

The other important business which was not given out for publication was transacted by the committee.

The work of pledging the 1908 crop in Calloway is now on in earnest. A thorough canvass of the county is to be made. Every grower who is interested in the success of the organization should give some time to the work. Solicit your neighbor to join hands with you in the fight to pledge every plant in the county this year. Get to work today for the association and better prices and keep it up till the books close.

Very Much Alive.

I wish to say that my son, Joe Beil, is not dead as some would like for him to be. He is still alive and if ever killed it will be for some reason and his body will never be found. The permit somebody to collect one bond he is under and thus increase the amount of the blood money hanging over innocent men's heads. The report circulated last week was a lie of the whole cloth and was done for a malicious purpose and I know where it originated. Respt., BEN B. BELL.

For Selling Pooled Tobacco.

Benton, Ky., June 11.—The first case that was ever brought in Marshall county by the Planters' Protective Association against a member for selling his crop in violation of his pledge, resulted Wednesday in judgment for $20 against J. W. Siebert, the defendant. Several other cases have been compromised. In the trial of the case, the plaintiff was held to proof of actual money damage by reason of the sale of the tobacco.

We endorse and point with satisfaction to the wise, honest and economical conduct of the state government by the Democratic administration of Gov. J. C. W. Beckham and his associates in office.

We instruct the delegates elected by this convention to cast the vote of Kentucky as a unit upon all questions and matters coming before the national Democratic convention to be held at Denver, Col., July 7, 1908, and they are hereby further instructed to vote for William J. Baseball Players and Foot Racers.

Louis J. Kruger, ex-champion long distance foot racer of Germany and Holland, writes Oct. 27, 1907:

"During my travels in high school, I was down in Paducah, Ky. in April, and secured from the greatest saddle horse, a warren."

Therefore, at Hall and a woman named Snow Bean were living together at a certain place in Paducah. Authorities could nab them and

AUTHORIZED TO WEAR—

French Woman's Somewhat Unique Reward for Services Rendered to Country.

Such queer things are permitted in France. Great was the amazement of a magistrate in Paris the other day when a widow who has been called as a witness appeared at his office in a top hat and a frock coat, with her hair cut short and trimly brushed, and carrying a neat walking stick. This must be a mistake or a joke, the magistrate reflected, and his bewilderment hardly diminished when the good woman calmly related that she had actually been wearing masculine attire for fully 37 years without the exception of a single day. "But this is not allowed," he gasped. "It is in my case as a privilege," the widow replied, proudly, and then she explained that she had acted as emissary to Metz in 1870 and had been deposited in the Bazine trial, and had been authorized to retain masculine dress in honor of her prowess in that terrible year.

INTRODUCED.

Once upon a time Supreme Judge Harlan was traveling in Virginia. He stopped at a newly constructed country hotel. The walls of his room had been freshly calcimined. They shone white as the lamp was lit. But near the head of the bed was a stain. Some one had thrown a quid of tobacco on it and it had stuck.

"If I had that Yankee here who stained that wall I would wring his neck," said the judge, in apparent anger.

"Why, how do you know a Yankee did the trick?" asked a friend.

"How do I know it was a Yankee?" exclaimed the Kentuckian. "Why, can't you see it is fine cut?"

No one in the south chews that kind—Washington Star.

AMERICAN GIRLS' VOICES.

It is a known fact that there are more beautiful voices in America than any other country in the world, says Ellen Beach Yaw in the De-linctor. There is scarcely an American girl now who does not sing a little. Their voices are exceptionally clear and strong. There is no girl in the world who can learn to sing with so little trouble as the American girl. She is born with a voice. There are certain qualities in her voice which resemble the clearness of the American atmosphere.

WANTS MARRIED TEACHERS.

In his latest lecture on the training of girls for family life Prof. Earl Barnes, the university extension lecturer, took strong ground against the prevailing tendency of limiting our public school teaching force to celibates. He insisted that married men and women should be placed in charge, if humanistic principles of family life are to be instilled. He particularly scored the modern exclusively feminine colleges, which he said were preparing women to live apart from men.

BAD HABITS COMMON.

Judge Williams of the St. Louis juvenile court says that it is appalling the way in which the choral habit is growing. It is given, in the first place, to the workmen to keep them up to their work for hours at a time, and in time they acquire the habit, and are miserable without the drug. Legislation will be brought to bear against the sale of it without physicians' orders.

DAY OF "OLD MAID" IS GONE

New Bachelor Woman May Order and Enjoy Her Life as She Pleases.

Afternoon tea is an institution in England, and there is where the woman with a small establishment shines. She has regular days at home and announces them, and after the announcement, nothing is allowed to interfere with them. They are assets which no popular woman can afford to overlook. I know a handful of women who live a similar life in this country, and always in large cities. The smaller ones do not take bachelor women seriously, it would seem, for their comfort is not considered one bit. They used to be dubbed "old maids," and were expected to subside into barren bearers for prosperous relatives. All hope of any but a miserable drab existence was given up at 30 unless the spinster happened to be a person of means, in which case she was an object of solicitude to a horde of expectant relatives. Nowadays a woman can live about as she pleases, and if her life is dreary and colorless it is her own fault.—Chicago American.

HE KNEW HE WAS A YANKEE.

Once upon a time Supreme Judge Harlan was traveling in Virginia. He stopped at a newly constructed country hotel. The walls of his room had been freshly calcimined. They shone white as the lamp was lit. But near the head of the bed was a stain. Some one had thrown a quid of tobacco on it and it had stuck.

"If I had that Yankee here who stained that wall I would wring his neck," said the judge, in apparent anger.

"Why, how do you know a Yankee did the trick?" asked a friend.

"How do I know it was a Yankee?" exclaimed the Kentuckian. "Why, can't you see it is fine cut?"

No one in the south chews that kind—Washington Star.

OIL PAINTINGS.

Artists sometimes use a raw potato for cleaning oil paintings. Cut off the end of the potato and rub the painting very gently with the cut end. As fast as the potato becomes soiled cut off a thin slice and continue to use it until the whole surface is cleaned.

Another method is to rub the soiled surface with the finger wet in warm water. If the dirt is very hard and old, use oil instead of water. Let it rest for a few hours, so that the dirt may be softened, then wash off with a sponge and tepid suds.

SCOTTISH SAVINGS BANKS.

There are now 274 penny savings banks in operation in Glasgow and the west of Scotland which acknowledge the Glasgow Savings bank as the parent institution. The value of these minor banks is very great not only in inculcating the virtue of thrift in childhood but in their actual result. There were 1,239,336 transactions, but at the end of the financial year the depositors had £31,741 to their credit in the Glasgow Savings bank. The amount deposited during the year was £91,153.

Nimbo—Can you tell me, my dear Dampin, the difference between a sick cow and dead bee?

Dampin—Couldn't say, Cocky.

Nimbo—Well, one is a sooty beast, and t'other is a bee deceased.

HAS HOPE IN EUGENICS.

Francis Galton, the eminent British scientist, has just begun his eighty-seventh year, in the serene hope that the human race, even though he will not live to see it, is destined to improve prodigiously through the new science of eugenics, in which he was a pioneer.

RESULT OF PRACTICE.

Father—That lawyer chap who is coming to call on Maria is no quitter. I guess he is taking advantage of his law practice.

Mother—In what way, pa?

Father—When he comes to court, he always manages to secure a stay.

REPLY ENDED THE ARGUMENT

Suitor's Logical Reason for Insisting Priest Should Be Recognized as Authority.

Father Collins, the well loved priest of St. Agnes' parish, delighted in a joke, especially if it be on himself, says the San Francisco Call. He tells with many a chuckle of an argument of several sailors that he overheard in the aviary in Golden Gate park.

They were debating as to the family connections of a certain bird. One said that it was a skylark and the others insisted that it was not. Finally the first sailor walked over to Father Collins and asked his opinion.

Father Collins said that the bird was undoubtedly a skylark. The sailor went back to his companions, elated over his triumph.

"Didn't I tell you so?" he said. "The holy father says it's a skylark."

"Maybe," said one of the others, not yet ready to yield, "he doesn't know any more about it than we do."

"The dence he doesn't!" exclaimed the first. "Ain't he a sky pilot?"

PROOF POSITIVE.

CONFESSES SOLOMON.

William Jennings Bryan has tried his hand at condensing one of the proverbs of Solomon. In a speech before the legislature of Oklahoma he said:

"One proverb I have often quoted is 'The wise man foreseeth the evil and doeth himself, but the foolish pass on and are punished.' It is a great truth, and beautifully expressed, but I found it did not stick in people's minds, and so I condensed it, and it is the only effort I have ever made to improve upon a proverb, and this is not an improvement, it is merely a condensation. It is not as beautiful as Solomon's proverb, but it means the same thing in a condensed form: 'The wise man gets the idea into his head; the foolish man gets it in the neck.'—Columbian State.

HIS ATTORNEY.

A man arrested for murder was assigned a shyster whose crude appearance caused the unfortunate prisoner to ask the judge:

"Is this my lawyer?"

"Yes," replied his honor.

"Is he going to defend me?"

"Yes."

"If he should die, could I have another?"

"Yes."

"Can I see him alone in the back room for a few minutes?"—Short Stories.

A PLEA FOR SUFFRAGE.

The boy without a playground is like the man without a job, said Jane Addams recently—in a position dangerous to himself and others. Women are greatly interested in the legislation that affects working people, she says, and, having the interests of children and of the poor at heart, they know better what their needs may be than men who have naturally given less thought to the subject.

TROOPS IN TODD.

With peace reigning like a benediction over the county, and unattended by lawless outbreaks of any kind, Gus Willson, mis-governor of Kentucky, pusillanimous puppet and servile slave of a merciless monopoly, has sent troops into Todd county, for the sole and single purpose, as anybody but the most delectable of dampfools knows, of intimidating the farmers who have organized simply to fight for the right of making their meat and bread. There was absolutely no occasion for such an act, and it was an insult to the decency of the people of Guthrie, where the kahki-uniformed minions of the military arm of the government are quartered, to send them there.

It is simply an attempt to intimidate and to bull doze, to terrorize and Russiianize a free people and contribute his mite toward the most colossal thieving methods of the age that Gus Willson has done this. He is a miserable little wiggling about in the rotten carcass of the decayed hopes of the tobacco trust; a being in human form whose heart is dead to the sufferings of people less fortunate than himself, and whose palm is ever open to the dirty dollars doled out to him and made from widows' sighs and orphans' tears by the bloated bondholders who constitute the powers of the Trust.

Had there been any rioting, uprising or general disorder of any kind to an extent that the civil authorities were unable to cope with, the Governor's action would have been entirely proper and expected. But there had been nothing of the kind; the civil authorities nor anyone else have called for troops, unless, perchance, some selfish money grabber who delights to make coin of the realm out of the sacrifices of his neighbors without carrying his portion of the burden, and whose conscience hath made a coward of him, has penned Augustus the First a message asking that soldiers be sent into Todd to further protect him in the pursuit of that policy which is right in law but in morals is not one whit better than filching a quarter from the corpse of a blind orphan girl.

The thing is nauseating, outrageous, indecent. This attempt to govern freemen with bayonets ought to fail, and it will fail. All the money of the trust, and all its subservient slaves like gloomy Gus, cant make it succeed. Let no Association man be bull dozed or bullied; stand by the law, stand for the law, and uphold the law, even if the Governor of Kentucky has set an example of law-breaking by sending troops into a section that has no need of them.---Elkton Times.

Relations between the Virginia branch of the Planters' Protective Association of Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia were broken off finally at a called meeting of the Board of Directors of that body held at the Association headquarters in Guthrie last week. With nearly every member present, it was decided that it would be useless to attempt to continue the relations with the growers in Virginia. Accordingly the arrangement between the organization in Kentucky, Tennessee and the Virginia growers was declared to exist no longer. This action taken by the board was due to the indifference with which the Virginians have carried out their portion of the agreement in pooling their tobacco. Practically no tobacco has been turned over to the Planters' Protective Association, and the union was of no benefit to the Association members in the States where it was originally formed.

The Kentucky followers of Secretary Taft in his race for Presidential nomination made a clean sweep in the contests before the Republican National Committee in Chicago Monday, the body by an overwhelming majority seating the Taft contestants in the First district and refusing to remove the Taft delegates in the Fifth. The contests in the Sixth and Eleventh went to the Taft people by default. In both the First and Fifth district contests Senator-elect Bradley acted as spokesman for the Fairbanks men, and in the latter case he reiterated his oft-repeated threat that if the Fairbanks men were not seated from the district he did not believe the Republicans could carry the state.

Almost Total Eclipse.

The people of LaRue county will have the opportunity on the 28th of this month to witness almost a total eclipse of the sun, and should the weather be clear on that date midday will seem like the dusk of evening.

The eclipse will begin at Washington, D. C., at 9:27 o'clock in the morning and will end at 12:41 o'clock, making the hours it will be visible in Kentucky from 10:27 o'clock until 1:41 o'clock. Kentucky time being one hour later than Washington time. The path of the eclipse will be Mexico City, Tampa, Fla., and the Bermuda Islands on this continent, and will cross the Atlantic Ocean and terminate somewhere in Western Africa. The eclipse will be total in Southern Florida and about 75 per cent, of total in the other sections where it will be at all visible on this continent.

Kentucky experienced a partial eclipse of the sun last January, but at that time only a very small part of the sun was obscured and then only for a few minutes, and as a result it was hardly noticeable except by astronomers, but the eclipse scheduled for the latter part of this month will be visible with the naked eye, while most of the sun eclipses of the past were only visible through smoked glasses.

HIDDEN DANGERS.

Nature Gives Timely Warnings That No Murray Citizen Can Afford to Ignore.

Danger Signal No. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red, ill-smelling urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.

Danger Signal No. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the approach of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Here's Murray proof:

Geo. Aycock, living in Murray, Ky., says: "For two years my kidneys were in a much disordered condition. The secretions contained a sediment, were very frequent in action, I suffered from headaches and dizzy spells, and there was also a blurring of the eyesight. When I arose in the morning, I felt very languid, and became tired very easily. It was finally my good fortune to learn of Doan's Kidney Pills and I procured a box at Dale & Stubblefield's drug store. Obituary.

Death has again visited the home of Euclid Callahan and claimed for its victim his darling babe. Something like a year ago God sent Little Corinne into the home of Euclid and Amy Callahan, and the fond parents looked for a long and happy life for their little darling but the little bud was soon plucked by angel hands from earth's garden and will unfold and blossom in heaven. The mother finished her work and went home last July, there to wait and watch for her loved ones to come, one by one they are following, the family now being half divided. The dear mother, little Pauline and Corinne have gone to their eternal home, while father, Rosie and Charlie are left on this side to fight life's battles. Oh how sad it was to say good bye to these dear ones, but it is so sweet to know that after while, if we will be faithful, we will meet them again where there will be no more goodbyes. Yes we know your home is lonely, there is a vacant chair, a little empty crib, the little voices are hushed and the little feet are stilled and your hearts are torn, the sun seems to have gone behind the clouds, but dear ones look up there are no clouds too thick for God's love to penetrate. To the broken hearted father, to the little brother and sister, to the dear grand parents, who so lovingly waited on them through the long months of suffering, to all be-reaved ones we extend our heartfelt sympathy. To friends and other relations, Death must come to all. So let us be prepared to meet, When comes that fatal call.

A FRIEND.

Do you like to get your moneys worth every time you trade, and treat the man you trade with good and nice, and make him feel good, and praise the article the article you buy? Now if you do you buy a Ground Hog Plow. It is the latest plow out, it has better suction, the repairs cost a good deal less than some other plows.

You will say that I have never tried one of them, and let us answer that for you, who was the first to try the Avery, the Oliver and the Vulcan plows? As time has moved on improvements have kept pace with time, and the GROUND HOG CHILLED PLOW is the very latest plow out, and has improvement above all the rest. ## RULES OVER SOLDIER SUBJECTS

Squadron of American Cavalry Willing to Recognize American Maid as Their Queen.

Miss May Ferrington, now attending the Girls' Collegiate school in Los Angeles, lives a part of each year on her father's great ranch near Crater, in Mono county, on the border of the Yosemite park, and she is the only girl within a radius of 90 miles.

Hither every summer Uncle Sam sends a squadron of cavalry to guard the park, and the khaki clad scouts have voted this slim little maid the queen of the whole wide country. She has yellow hair curls, but tons and trophies galore. She has a splendid chain of tiny gold nuggets for beads, and the men of the squadron presented to her a uniform of their company—blue, with yellow cavalry stripes on the jaunty skirt.

Her gentle way over her soldier subjects included inspection at stated intervals, when the young commandant by turret rode her prancing steed up and down the lines of mounted soldiers—Los Angeles Times.

THE ALARM.

Gill—Of course, when you heard the burglar coming into your room, you alarmed the neighbors?

Bill—I never snored louder in my life.

WHERE SHARK MEAT IS EATEN.

"In Italy I find regularly served a fish food which Americans disapproved through ignorance and prejudice," says Dr. Frederic Griffith in the Medical Record. "In Rome the shark finds a ready sale at the price of eight cents a pound. The color of the meat resembles that of the shad, but is of firmer consistency and has comparatively few bones. The shark is plentifully distributed up and down our coasts from Maine to Panama throughout the year and is as palatable as the steurgeon or halibut. But it is systematically cast away at every haul of the net by the dory man of the deep water fishing smack."

SHOWING THE AGE OF RUSH

Business Men Sign Letters in Duplicate, So Much Is Their Time Taken Up.

"Once in so often," said a business man, "I get a letter, type written, of course—what other kind does one get nowadays?—with a signature unfamiliar to me, though the name is familiar enough. Under the name is an explanation, put on with a rubber stamp, running something like this: 'Dictated but not signed by Mr. —, as he had left the office.'"

"It's a commentary on the rushing age we live in. Naturally the sender had expected to sign the letter, but something more important intervened—a telegram or telephone message, maybe, or perhaps, some one of the daily crises in affairs required his undivided attention. Anyway, off goes the letter with this evidence of haste, of there being more things to attend to than can be handled properly. I'm not saying that all this is not necessary. I have proofs, too many of them, that it is."

DANCED ON GOLD DUST.

The great dancing expert, My Fancy, who is doing the Moss & Stoll Cur, has danced on gold dust. "When starting with Charles Godfrey's company in western Australia," she told me, "no sand was procurable for my dance, so the people in the place said they would get me some gold dust, and accordingly they brought quite a quantity of the precious stuff along, and I found that it answered the purpose very well. I recollect that was about the queerest use gold has ever been put to. Of course it was mixed with quartz, but when I put it in water I could see the gold grains shining ever so prettily."—Pittsburgh Weekly.

HIS FIRST IMPRESSION.

They stood by the lake. She was from Eastern and poetical. "Are you romantic?" she chirped after a long silence. "Exceedingly," replied the Chicago man as he lit another black cigar. "Ah, I am so glad to hear it. What does your yellow half-moon remind you of?" "The Chicago man was thoughtful. 'Wait to see you the truth,' he responded, after a minute's meditation, 'it reminds me of the half of a pumpkin pie and—'"

CHANCE TO MAKE BIG DEAL

Why Claudius Leander Smythe Want Ed Recipe for Wife's Wonderful Apple Pie.

"Hurrah! Also Eureka!" shouted Claudius Leander Smythe of the N. Y. & Z. railway local freight office, as he rushed into his little 12 by 16 flat and planted a joyful smack on his young wife's talk apparatus.

"You know that little apple pie you baked and hid away in my lunch basket this morning?"

"Yes, yes," she cried.

"Well, while I was eating lunch less than an hour ago the president happened along and seeing the pie he stopped and took it in his hand."

"Oh, I know," she interrupted, clasping her hands. "He ate it, then, and on the way home because it reminded him of his dear old mother's handiwork. Then he took you by the hand and asked you to step into the vice-president's shoes?"

"No, you're on the side-track. He tested it with a steam-hammer and said he'd give me an order for 10,000,000 tons of the material to be used in making car wheels, so I hurried home to get the recipe."

ARDENT WOMAN SCIENTIST.

Mrs. Zelia Nuttall, archaeologist, was the only woman delegate to the International Geographical society convention in Geneva. This high honor is only one of many pouring in on the woman scientist. Dressed in short skirts, carrying a pick, Mrs. Nuttall is unceasingly rakes of great historic value at the foot of the Pyramids of the Sun and Moon, 37 miles south of Mexico City. She has found so many things that a museum had to be built to hold them. She has unearthed three stone high, discolored the skeleton of a Toltec chief and his pet tiger, and pulled up beads, jewels and more saleros.

MANY USES FOR ASBESTOS.

Asbestos can fairly lay claim to the title of being the most useful of all minerals. It has been called a mineralogical vegetable. It is both fibrous and crystalline, elastic, weathers, a floating stone, which can be readily carved, spun and woven into tissue. In Germany it is known as stein-floss (stone flax), and the miners of Quebec give it quite as expressive a name—pierre coton (cotton stone).

A GREAT INVENTION.

"But that umbrella looks so awfully cheap and common," said the customer. "The price you ask for it is preposterous."

"That's the beauty of that umbrella. It's really the very best quality, but it's made to appear cheap and common so no one will steal it."

PUTTING IT UP TO THE DOG

Reader Will Be Apt to Think Student Really Did Not Desire to Reform.

Frederick Van Eeden, the Dutch poet and economist, discussed poverty at a tea in New York.

"There is enough in the world for us all," said Mr. Van Eeden. "No one would freeze, no one would starve to death, if we really desired to be just and fair."

He smiled sadly.

"We say we want reform," he said. "Well, we want it about as badly as a Dutch student I knew in my youth."

"This student's chum said to him: 'Look here, I'm tired of the life I've been leading for the past two years. I'm going to reform. This morning I shall attend a lecture.'"

"My student, a confirmed idler, yawned, put down his pipe, and answered:

"Yes, it would be splendid to reform. And yet this seat is very good here this morning, isn't it? I tell what we'll do. We'll let my dog Wilhelm decide whether we reform or not."

"Wilhelm decide! How will he do it?"

"Oh, it is very simple. We'll tell the waiter to bring a piece of sausage. We'll set the sausage before Wilhelm, and if he eats it we stay where we are. If he doesn't, we reform and go to lectures."

NICKNAME FOR STATUE.

Nicknames, if greatness thrust upon some men and some statues, as would appear from the experience of George Gray Barnard's marble, "The Great God Pan," recently set up in the grounds of Columbia university. The statue is of heroic size and striking in conception. But nothing of this is suggested by its popular sobriquet. Ask the attendants to be directed to "The Great God Pan" and they stare at you. The statue of the great god of nature who blows his magic pipe there on the Columbia green, is known from one end of the university to the other as plain Peter Pan.

TOO MANY FOR HIM.

He turned with repulsion from the breakfast eggs.

"I am afraid I must go into bankruptcy," after all," he said.

"But, Harry," the chum wife remonstrated, "you decided only last night that you were sure to weather the storm."

He pointed despairingly at the morning's mail.

"I know I did," he said, "but good gracious, here are four more wedding invitations."

SOME LEFT YET.

Three thousand years ago no less than 700 varieties of the shark tribe were swimming about in the oceans and ready to gulp down any sailor that fell overboard. To-day there are only about 60 varieties known. It should be added, however, that these few are perfectly competent to take care of any boys that go paddling about on salt water and meet with an upset. Sharks prefer a young and juicy boy to a tough old sailor every time.

PATENT APPLIED FOR.

VERY INCOMPLETE.

"So you want a spelling reform as a failure?"

"A complete failure. It contented itself with little words like 'thru' and 'thru' and left the poor office its registry full of names that nobody can spell or pronounce."

HIS TIME HAD COME.

In trying to escape a mailed spike, ready to strike, Joseph Daneau, aged 50, sprang and plunged headlong over a 700-foot precipice to his death near Visalia, Cal. He was a pioneer antedating the 49-ers.

NOT WISE TO TAKE CHANCES

Man Who Knows by Sad Experience Warns Others Against the Talking Machine.

"Take it from me," said a commercial traveler who had just returned from a long trip, "if you have the talking-machine habit at your house and you send records to your wife, with loving messages, have a dress rehearsal every time before you address the package. I sent a record from Chicago, and when it came my wife called in the family, the children and my mother-in-law to 'hear papa talk.' Things must have got mixed in the shipping department at Chicago, because it wasn't papa's voice at all, and what the machine said was probably arranged to be heard anywhere except in a family circle. My wife stopped it in time, but her mother—well, as I said, be sure and avoid trouble and insist on the dress rehearsal."

BEST AGE FOR MARRIAGE.

A German doctor lays it down as a well established fact based on close observation that women who do not marry until 35 or thereafter invariably achieve matrimonial success.

Why women of this particular age should make more successful marriages than those who fall victims to love's young dream is fairly obvious. When a woman marries between 30 and 40 she either does so for companionship, choosing her mate accordingly, or from need, in which case she also chooses with a certain amount of care. She has no wild dreams of unalloyed bliss.

TAKING A FACE BATH.

Water will do wonders for one if people but realized it. As a complexion maker, for instance, it is a great beautifier used both internally and externally. An excellent tonic effect may be had by taking a face bath at least once a day in cool water. Fill a basin with the water, placing it on a stand or chair where it can be conveniently reached without too much stooping. Drawing a long breath, dip the face in and out of the cold water for about two or three minutes. When it is necessary to breathe the mouth can be lifted from the water, but immediately take another face bath.

VIOLET INK THE CHEAPEST.

"Look here, you, a literary man can't afford the extravagance of violet ink."

The literary man tore thoughtfully a pendant piece of leather from the sole of his shoe.

"I know," he admitted, "that violet ink costs three as much as black. But black ink corrodes a pen at a week, whereas violet is non-corrosive and with its use it is possible to make one pen last six or seven months. The late Russell Sage, who used violet ink exclusively in his office, revealed this great truth to me during my brief clerical career in his office."

To The Taxpayer.

I now have the tax books for 1908 ready to receive taxes. Your receipts are now ready for you; and as the books are nearly a month later than usual, and the graving of roads and other expenses are right on us, I must have the money to meet them. So I ask you kindly but earnestly, all who have the money to come forward and pay their taxes, for I must have money; but your promptness to my call in the past and your kindness to me, I take it that every man who can will call and settle. Thanking you for past favors, I am yours to serve.

J. A. DEWARDS, S. C. C. Thinks 1908 Life.

Lester M. Nelson, of Naples, Maine, says in a recent letter: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery many years, for coughs and colds, and I think it saved my life. I have found it a reliable remedy for throat and lung complaints, and would not more be without a bottle than I would be without food." For nearly forty years New Discovery has stood at the head of throat and lung remedies. As a preventive of pneumonia, and healer of weak lungs it has no equal. Sold under guarantee at Dale & Stoddard's drug store, 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

LAND FOR SALE.—75 acres of good land, well improved, good well and a good orchard, good stables and other out buildings. I live on new Murray and Hazel road 4 miles South of Murray. FATE WILSON. Aug. 1-08.

If one feels dull and spiritless, in the spring or early summer, they call it "Spring." But there is no fever—usually. It is the after effect of cold winter habits. The nerves are mostly at fault. Tired, worn out nerves leave us languid, listless, and without spirit or ambition. A few doses of Dr. Sheep's Restorative will absolutely and quickly change all of those depressing symptoms. The Restorative of course won't bring you back to full health in a day or two, but it will do enough in 12 hours to satisfy you that the remedy is reaching that "tired spot." Gruggists everywhere are advising it as a splendid and prompt general tonic. It gives more vim and more spirit to the spoonful than any other known nerve or constitutional tonic. It sharpens a failing appetite, aids digestion, frees sluggish livers and kidneys, and brings new life, strength and ambition. Test it a few days and be convinced. H. D. Thornton.

The Song of the Hair

There are four verses. Verse 1. Ayer's Hair Vigor stops falling hair. Verse 2. Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the hair grow. Verse 3. Ayer's Hair Vigor cures dandruff. Verse 4. Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the scalp healthy and keeps it so. It is a regular hair-food; this is the real secret of its wonderful success.

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney nerves. The kidneys, like the heart, and the stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To develop the kidneys is to build up the whole system. It is a waste of time and money to do otherwise.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine is cloudy, or is black and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month. Tablets or Liquid form, as you like it, and you will find it a most effective and safe remedy.

THE BIRTH OF IMAGINATION

Childish Exaggeration That Should Never Be Confounded With Untruth.

When a boy of two or three rushes into the house with beaming eyes and says he saw a horse with one horn on his head, a dog as big as a house, or that God met him on the lawn and told him not to pick flowers, that he had been up to the moon—and these are real cases—the boy perhaps just discovered for the first time that he can really say things that have no basis in reality. This marks the moment of the conscious birth of the imagination. The child is also gratifying his passion of exciting fancy and arousing interest. Fiction in childhood is very vivid and inventive, and probably, in the prosaic matters-of-fact world, far more often needs a period of cultivation than repression. In the home and school games of "what your eyes tell me what you see" we often have, after a little practice, the most staggering Munchausen wonders or tales spun out of pure visual imagery that make the child feel acquainted with the charm of his new-found imaginative power—tales true not to things but to thoughts, feelings and wishes. The child is a poet, artist, romancer, and always has a larger fraction of belief in his stories than adults have in theirs.—G. Stanley Hall, in Appleton's.

UNFAIR.

He—Have you read my latest book of poems? You know, they were inspired by you.
She—Oh! Mr. Scribbler, I don't think it's fair to put the blame on me.

WHEN I WAS A BOY.

A boy who had been spending his summer in the mountains was unexpectedly joined by his father, and took the opportunity to ask for a new tennis racket.
"What?" cried his father, "a new tennis racket? Why, I just bought you one a month ago. No, sir; you can't have it. Why, when I was a boy I didn't have tennis rackets and all those things, let alone having new ones every month. This can't go on. Look here, what are you going to do about it yourself? Some day, when you will want to have a new tennis racket every five minutes. What are you going to do about it?"
"Aw!" said the boy, calmly winking at his father, "I'll put up with the same old racket. I'll tell 'em about when I was a boy."—Judge.

BOILED WITHOUT WATER.

Boiling eggs without the use of water is the latest novelty exploited at one of London's leading hotels, and as the feat is accomplished directly before the customer the new way of cooking generally attracts attention and comment. The waiter places a boxlike apparatus on the table and turns on a little electricity and places the desired number of eggs in the heater. In about a minute and a half, or half the time consumed by the hot water process, the eggs are cooked to a turn.

DISCONTENT.

When discontent seizes upon the mind it is like the deadly cancer, reaching out with its tentacles for sound flesh to feed upon. It must be checked in its incipient stage. The caustic of self arraignment must be unsporingly used, and the salve of commonsense liberally applied. Self treatment is necessary to insure a cure.—Illustrated Sunday Magazine.

HARD TO REMEMBER.

"Of course she's pretty, but she doesn't look as if she had some enough to know her own name."
"She doesn't half the time. You see, she's just been married to a man who doesn't know her name."

A CRUDE PEOPLE.

Gloss over the situation as we will, the fact remains that we are still a crude people in many respects. We have failed lamentably in the management of our cities. We have fallen into the evil habit of laughing at the snariness of thieving politicians and public officers. We have not yet evolved into the first grade of truly enlightened self-government in the most intimate and essential relation of municipal administration. Police forces are on all sides regarded as properly undisciplined. Where is there a constabulary that is above reproach? Where is there a detective force that can withstand honest and thorough investigation?—Washington Star.

IN THE SPRING, ETC.

"Perhaps it's over-sensitiveness on my part," remarked the old bachelor, "but from this time on until autumn sets in again in earnest I am going to be continually embarrassed by public love making. Last Sunday afternoon I went for my usual stroll in the park and I saw a number of minor shocks from coming on couples speeding on the benches along the paths. Later on I had to ride down town in the subway and I saw two more couples—talking into each other's faces as if there wasn't a human being within a mile of them. Of course they don't mind me. But I hate to be put in the attitude of an intruder on love's young dream."

FAMOUS NAME MAY DIE.

What part will the name of Bismarck play in the future of Germany? Admirers of the Iron Chancellor, and their name is legion throughout the empire, are fearful. To-day the line has dwindled down to a single grandson—Otto Christian Archibald von Bismarck, ten years old. He is the only son of the late Count Herbert Bismarck, who took his father's overthrow so much to heart that he refused to wed a daughter of the empire and went over into Austria and chose the beautiful Countess Marguerite Hoyos, daughter of a noble Hungarian house, for his bride.

NOT INTENTIONAL.

The little girl was very fond of pleasant days, and at the use of a heavy raincoat petitioned in her prayer for fine weather; when, the next morning, the sun shone bright and clear she became jubilant and told her prayer to her grandmother, who said, "Well, dear, why can't you pray, to-night, that it may be warmer to-morrow, so grandma's rheumatism will be better?"
"All right, I will," was the quick response; and that night as she knelt she said, "O Lord, please make it hot for grandma."—Harper's Magazine.

HIS COLD JOKE.

The American auto was in the lead.
One of its occupants espied the but of an Eskimo not far off and a pleasant looking Eskimo maiden standing before it.
"Say," he said to his partner, "do you think that girl would know how near we are to Paris?"
"I don't know," replied the other, "Alaska."

A SAILOR OF THE FUTURE.

He pocketed the hard-boiled egg gratefully.
"Ah, madam," he said, "believe me, I would not be begging my bread from door to door if it were possible for me to procure work in my chosen calling. But the day will come."
"Poor fellow," said the woman, "what is your calling, anyhow?"
"I," he answered proudly, "am an able-bodied aeroplane sailor."

A PRETTY SURE SIGN.

Mrs. Hoyle—I believe that I am growing old.
Mrs. Boyle—What gives you that idea?
Mrs. Hoyle—I am getting so that I don't care to go to funerals.

FINDING HIMSELF.

"Did you wake up and find yourself famous?"
"No," answered the orator who had attracted attention by an ill-advised speech. "I found myself famous and then woke up."

What Do They Cure?

The above question is often asked concerning the "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Favorite Prescription."
The answer is that "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most potent alternative or blood-purifier, and blood-cleanser, and also especially favorably in a curative way upon all the mucous lining surfaces, ## QUEEN OF ACTRESSES PRAISES PE-RU-NA.

MISS JULIA MARLOWE.

"I Am
Glad To Write My
Endorsement
Of The Great Remedy
Do So
Most Heartily."
Julia Marlowe.

ANY remedy that benefits digestion strengthens the nerves. The nerve centers require nutrition. If the digestion is impaired, the nerve centers become anemic, and indigestion is the result.

Peruna is not a nerve nor a stimulant. It benefits the nerves by benefiting digestion.

Peruna frees the stomach of catarrhal congestions and normal digestion is the result.

In other words, Peruna goes to the bottom of the whole difficulty, when the disagreeable symptoms disappear. Mrs. J. C. Jamison, 61 Marchant street, Waterville, Cal., writes:

"I was troubled with my stomach for six years. I tried many kinds of medicine, also was treated by three doctors. They said that I had nervous dyspepsia. I was put on a liquid diet for three months.

"I improved under the treatment, but as soon as I stopped taking the medicine, I got bad again.

"I took the medicine for two years, then I got sick again and gave up all hopes of getting cured.

"I saw a testimonial of a man whose case was similar to mine being cured by Peruna, so I thought I would give it a trial.

"I procured a bottle at once and commenced taking it. I have taken several bottles and am entirely cured.

"I have gained in strength and feel like a different person. I believe Peruna is all that is claimed for it."

Sometimes, such as coal tar preparations, are doing a great deal of harm. Sleep medicine and headache powders are all alike—heart depressants, and should not be used. The nerve would be all right, if the digestion were good. Peruna corrects the digestion.
