Fall Conference of First District
P. T. A. Held at Science Hall

The conference hall was the scene of the First District Conference of the Parent-Teacher Association held at the Science Hall. Following the opening exercises, some important business was transacted by the members. After the business session, a tea was held at the Science Hall for the benefit of the members. The tea was well attended and was enjoyed by all those present.

SOUTH FULTON SCHOOL

Miss Bryant and Miss Sawyer, who are the teachers of the South Fulton school, have been recognized by the Parent-Teacher Association for their excellent work. Miss Bryant has been teaching for the past three years and Miss Sawyer for the past two years. Both teachers are highly respected by their pupils and parents.

PERSONALS

Virginia Haygood had been living away from home for an extended period of time, but has now returned to Fulton. She is looking forward to spending some time with her family.

MIN. Lorena Howell, Misses Pauline M. G., Ethel G., and Mrs. M. W. Miller, the Methodist church members, were honored at the annual dinner of the Methodist church. They were presented with a plaque in recognition of their service to the church.

The Women's Christian Association held its annual meeting at the First Baptist church with Dr. J. B. Miller as the speaker. The women were pleased with the address and were inspired by the speaker's words.

The Parent-Teacher Association held its monthly meeting at the Science Hall. The meeting was well attended and was conducted in a business-like manner.

Mrs. C. E. Weaver, who is the manager of the Fulton theater, has been re-elected for another term. The theater continues to thrive under her management.

The Kentucky Home Missionary Society held its annual meeting at the First Baptist church. The society was well attended and was conducted in a business-like manner.

BEDTIME STORY FOR CHILDREN

A GREAT CONDITION

Once upon a time, long, long ago, there was a little bird named Chatterer. He was known as the Chatterer because he was known for his love of talking. Chatterer was a small bird, but he was very, very, very brave. He was so brave that he didn't even flinch when he saw a great big fierce eagle. Even when the eagle came closer and closer, Chatterer never once stopped talking. This made the eagle very, very, very angry. "Aha," said the eagle, "I'll teach you to chatter so much!"

But Chatterer wasn't afraid. He was so brave that he just kept right on talking and the eagle couldn't do a thing. The eagle raged and raged and raged, but Chatterer didn't stop. He just kept flapping his wings and saying, "Chatter, chatter, chatter!"

The eagle was so angry that it couldn't wait any longer. So, it flew up into the sky and left. Chatterer felt so good that he kept on talking. And to this day, Chatterer is known as the bravest little bird in all the land.

For a Gold Star Mother

Pepsi, the tallest hat in the land, was a little girl. She was so tall that when she walked down the street people would say, "What a tall little girl!"

One day, Pepsi went to school. She was so tall that she couldn't see anyone else. So, she went to the teacher and said, "Teacher, I can't see anyone else!"

The teacher said, "Oh, Pepsi, you're so tall that you can't see anyone else. Just look down and you'll see them!"

Pepsi looked down and she saw everyone! She was so happy that she couldn't stop talking. "Chatter, chatter, chatter!"

Ice to the Eskimos

Judge: "Ice to the Eskimos!"

Eskimo: "No, no, no!"

Judge: "Ice, ice, ice!"

Eskimo: "Ice, ice, ice!"

Judge: "Ice to the Eskimos!"

Eskimo: "Yes, yes, yes!"

Judge: "Ice to the Eskimos!"

Eskimo: "Thank you, sir."

Judge: "I'm glad you've learned your lesson."

Eskimo: "I have, sir."

Judge: "Now go on your way and don't forget to say "Ice to the Eskimos!"

Eskimo: "I will, sir."

Judge: "Remember, you're in the Eskimo section of town!"

Eskimo: "I will, sir."

Judge: "And don't forget to say "Ice to the Eskimos!"

Eskimo: "I will, sir."

Judge: "Now go on your way!

Eskimo: "Thank you, sir."

Judge: "And don't forget to say "Ice to the Eskimos!"

The annual meeting of the Fulton County Home Extension Association was held at Cairo High School Auditorium last Wednesday night by Miss Iris E. C. Foster, state agent for home extension.

Mrs. Ruth Stewart, county president, said a monthly meeting of all but otic club members was attended.

In attendance were: Mrs. A. L. Clark, county vice president; and Mrs. Elzie Beal, county treasurer.

Three clubs have been added to the membership: the Franklin County, Altavista, and Tellico Club, Loudon.

Mrs. J. B. Bishop, county president, said that has been held by the county president and the members.

Mrs. Elzie Beal, county treasurer, said that has been handled by the sections.

Mrs. Mrs. J. L. Harm, county extension agent, said that has been handled by the county extension agent.

Mrs. Mrs. E. L. Harrelson, county extension agent, said that has been handled by the county extension agent.

Events the World Over

Assassination of King Alexander and Louis Barthou

The news of great importance was of the accidental death of King Alexander of Jugoslavia and his minister Louis Barthou. The death of the king was a shock to the world, as he was a figure of note in Europe. god with his brother and Louis Barthou, who was the French minister, was a close friend of Alexander. The news was received with great sadness by all who knew them.
