MRS. STOKES ENTERS A DENIAL TO ALL CHARGES

Tells Jury She Was Never in Everleigh Club.

STATE RESTS ITS CASE AFTER HER TESTIMONY.

Wife of Aged Millionaire Sets Precedent.

CHICAGO, March 11.—(By the A. P.)—Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes got her opportunity today to take the witness stand at the trial of her 73-year-old husband, W. E. D. Stokes, millionaire hotel owner of New York, and formally deny many of his allegations of misconduct. She denied that she ever was an inmate of a Chicago underworld resort, and also the testimony of two sleeping car conductors that she twice had traveled overnight with male companions.

Her testimony "virtually was the last heard and after she left the witness stand the State rested its case against the aged man and his co-defendant, Robert F. Lee, Chicago negro, charged with conspiring to defame Mrs. Stokes.

Under no time restriction, D. Smith, assistant attorney, who led the prosecution, opened the argument to the jury and indications were, the attorneys agreed, that the case would be given to the jury late Thursday or early Friday.

Sets Illinois Precedent. In ruling Mrs. Stokes could testify, Judge W. N. Gemmill set a precedent in Illinois. Under Mrs. Stokes was permitted to testify only regarding testimony that reflected upon her good name, and she offered no evidence against her husband other than to deny virtually every statement he had made against her in his nine hours of testimony. She was on the witness stand 30 minutes and was not cross-examined.

Mr. Stokes previously had testified he had separated from his wife January 1, 1919, after she twice had appeared before her young cousin, Hal K. Billig, of Chicago, partially disabled, and he had driven Billig from their home when he found Mrs. Stokes trying to hide him.

Mrs. Stokes' version was that Billig never had seen her partly clothed add that he left of his own accord after Mr. Stokes had made a sarcastic remark about Billig's attentions to Mrs. Stokes.

She then denied in detail the testimony of J. P. Burke and C. V. Hanson, Chicago, sleeping car conductors, that late in 1922 she had ridden overnight on their trains between Denver and Chicago with a man they believe was Billig.

She said she was never in the Everleigh Club.

GENERAL MITCHELL FAVORED IN REPORT

Chairman Lampert Says Air Service Claims Are Right.

TAKES SHOT AT "SECURITY TRIFLERS."

Lauds Directness of Testimony by Mitchell.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—(By the A. P.)—Chairman Lampert of the House aircraft committee, said in a statement today that Brigadier General Mitchell, assistant chief of the army air service, appeared to have been "thoroughly vindicated" in his testimony regarding the "deficiencies in equipment and personnel" of the air service.

The general's statement in regard to a lack of an adequate defense against attack from the air, Mr. Lampert said, also appeared to have been borne out.

Mitchell's testimony, Mr. Lampert declared, was given because he considered it his duty, and "with the expectation of discipline, which seems to have been meted out to him."

Lauds Directness of Testimony. The committee chairman said Gen. Mitchell was the outstanding witness of the aircraft inquiry, and that the "directness of his testimony was refreshing to the committee, when compared to seeming restraint on the part of so large a number connected with the air service."

"While $433,000,000 may have been spent during the last five years there has been no proof of waste or extravagance," continued statement. "However, the fact seems to stand out that conservatism in the army general staff and navy general board has prevented expenditures for the procurement of modern aircraft equipment in sufficient numbers to establish America's supremacy in the air."

"Trifling with our national security must stop."

Startling revelations were made to the committee showing that even today the service are buying aircraft which do not seem fit to fly and ordnance are not that may planes shall not be flown. Testimony was given which indicates that better planes are offered than have been bought. The time of our aviation must not be sacrificed on an altar of conservatism. We must have the best equipment we can get. We must have the best equipment we can get. We must have the best equipment we can get.

Resolving the aviation industry was "deficient" and that have been had been borne by companies who have dealt with the government. Mr. Lampert said development of commercial aviation should be fostered in legislation by the next Congress.

SIXTY PERSONS ENJOY DINNER

Uncle Tommie Reed Observes Ninetieth Birthday.

MR. REED IS REMARKABLY WELL PRESERVED.

Has Been a Resident of County All His Life.

On March 10, 1925, Mr. T. J. Reed, better known as Uncle Tommie Reed, celebrated his 90th birthday by inviting a number of friends and neighbors to his home, located about four miles west of Fulton, at which a very enjoyable day was spent. There were about fifty or sixty persons who responded to the invitation, and at the noon hour a very sumptuous dinner was spread which was greatly enjoyed by all, and Uncle Tommie seemed to enjoy as much if not more, than any one present.

A spirit of friendliness and good cheer seems to have prevailed the assembled throughout the day, and Uncle Tommie, notwithstanding his 90 years, was as cheerful and happy as any member of the party.

Those present so far as the writer was able to secure their names, are as follows:

Messrs. W. C. Croft, Lucian Reed, John Carver, Pirtle, Heywood Adams, E. P. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Milner, Ollie Rives, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bard, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Donoho, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Putman, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bard, Mr. and Mrs. Wolberton, Marie, Louise and Cecil Edward Wolberton, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Gates, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fields, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Nugent, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Milner, Thomas and Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. Z. P. Sigman, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Burnett, Annie Louise Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pewitt, Edward and Mary, Mr. and Mrs. Will Brown, Mr. M. L. Gardner, Mrs. Burnett and Myrtle, Mrs. Jim Powell and Ruth, Mrs. John Daws, Mrs. Howard Harris, Mrs. Ellen Lynch, Mrs. Carl Bowers, Mrs. Edd Bard, Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. Gus Paschall, May and Clevia Inman, Bernard Pickering and Sarah White.

Considering his age Uncle Tommie is a man of remarkable energy and vitality. This last fall and winter he cut his winter wood, shucked and shelled, by hand, fifty bushels of corn and ten bushels of peas, and he says that he wishes that could get a job with Nelson Construction Co. during the cars.

It is doubtful if there is a man in Fulton County that is more highly esteemed or more universally liked than Uncle Tommie Reed. He has been a resident of Fulton County practically all his life and the writer has met his first man to meet that has ever known him. All of which shows that a man who lives on honorable industrious and upright life, as he has done, will enjoy the respect and confidence of his friends and acquaintances to his dying day, be that time long or short.

Will Have Store During Week of April 6.

In Building Known as Old Office Building.

Always on the alert for something new, as well as profitable, the Woman's Club of Fulton, go into business for one week, beginning April 6, and will conduct an up-to-date store, variety, perhaps—as one in find every kind of wearing apparel as well as food of various kinds and odd bits of bric-a-brac for the home.

Local merchants have been most generous in their donations to the Community Store, and many wholesale and distributing houses here have responded liberally, so it will be wise for the thrifty housekeeper to remember the date and place of this Spring Sale. The Woman's Club expects to make this an annual affair and the proceeds will go to increase the building fund of the club, the biggest and busiest organization of its kind in town.

BODY OF MISSING CONTRACTOR FOUND

Found Hanging to Ceiling of Basement Room.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa, March 12.—(By the A. P.)—The body of E. A. Wickham, 58, millionaire contractor and financier, for whom a nationwide search has been in progress for two days, was found last night hanging from a rope fastened to the ceiling of an unused basement room here.

Wickham suffered a nervous breakdown a year ago and since required constant attention of a nurse.

CHEYENNE, March 12.—(By the A. P.)—Records of bank accounts of Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior, offered by government counsel today in the Teapot Dome oil case, in an attempt to prove that Liberty bonds were exchanged between Secretary Fall and Harry F. Sinclair, head of the Mammoth Oil Company, which was given a lease on the Teapot Dome oil reserve.

Federal Judge T. Blake Kennedy reversed his ruling as to their admissibility.

U. S. WINS IN "TEAPOT" FIGHT

Canadian Court Holds Seven Must Talk.

AN EXCHANGE OF SECURITIES IS ALLEGED.

Defunct Oil Firm Made Millions in Deal with Sinclair.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., March 11.—(By the A. P.)—Government counsel in the trial of the Teapot Dome lease annulment cases late today announced that they would consider renewing efforts to take depositions of H. S. Osler and associates in Toronto, Canada, as the result of a decision of the appellate court of Ontario today.

This announcement was made by Owen J. Roberts after he had been informed of the Ontario court's decision in favor of the American government. Mr. Roberts' announcement was taken to mean that government counsel intends to prepare itself for further attempts to prove there was an exchange of bonds between Harry F. Sinclair, whose Mammoth Oil Company was given the Teapot Dome oil lease, and Albert B. Fall, who as secretary of the interior, executed the contract in behalf of the government.

Mr. Roberts said. This would indicate that any deposition now taken could be used only in a retrial of the case.

VICTORY FOR U. S. CASE. TORONTO, March 11.—(By the A. P.)—The United States government was victorious today in its fight to compel H. S. Osler and six others of the defunct Continental Trading Co., Ltd., to tell some of the things they know in connection with the Teapot Dome leases.

Osler and his assistants lost their appeal from an order of Justice Riddell handed down last December 13, when the appellate division of Ontario ruled they must answer certain questions put to them by the United States special attorneys in the oil scandal.

BULLETINS

WASHINGTON, March 12.—(By the A. P.)—President Coolidge today threw down the gauntlet to his opponents in the Senate by again submitting the nomination of Chas. B. Warren to be attorney general. The decision to fight out the issue was reached by the president after a conference this morning with Warren, who was summoned from Detroit after his name had failed of confirmation in the Senate by a single vote.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—(By the A. P.)—Senate Democrats in a meeting today adopted a policy to be followed in a special session of the Senate. They agreed to press for an early vote on the Isle of Pines treaty and to make the world court issue a special order of business.

HON. JESS NICHOLS MAKES GOOD TALK

Speaks Before Rotary Club Today.

TELLS CITIZENS DUTY OF CITIZENSHIP.

13 Men Are Nominated for Directors.

Hon. Jess Nichols was the speaker at today's luncheon of the Rotary Club and delivered a very interesting talk on the duty of citizenship. He stressed the point that it is the plain duty of every citizen to patronize home industries, and used local illustrations to prove his points. Mr. Nichols also advocated the building of a community house in Fulton, to be in charge of the Woman's Club. His talk was plain and practical, and the club enjoyed his message. Ray Brady was in charge of the program.

At the meeting today 13 men were nominated for directors of the club. Seven of these are to be elected one month from the meeting today, and these directors will in turn elect the officers of the club for the second year of its existence.

The question of Boys' Week came up for brief discussion, and Chairman Scruggs stated that he wanted to outline just what form of program to have next week.

A letter was read from Morris Howell, in which Fulton's first Eagle scout expressed his thanks for the loving cup given him by the Rotary Club recently.

TREASURY ATTACKS SENATOR COUZENS

Looks into Matter of Sale of Ford Stock.

CLAIMS LARGE AMOUNT STILL DUE TREASURY

Will Give Couzens Opportunity to Sign Waiver.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—(By the A. P.)—The treasury has prepared for delivery to Senator Couzens of Michigan tomorrow a notice of an arbitrary assessment on profits alleged to have been made by him in the sale of his holdings of the stock of the Ford Motor Company in 1919.

While the computation of the assessment is practically complete, it is the intention of the treasury to withhold it one day in order to give the Michigan senator an opportunity to sign a waiver of the statute of limitations if he desires the treasury to hold a sale of the stock under-assessed, and that between $10,000,000 and $11,000,000 is yet due the treasury.

Senator Couzens declares that the proposal is an attempt to discipline him for his activities in investigating the affairs of the revenue bureau.

HARDER WORK FOR SCOFFLAWS

Wheeler Says 1925 Is Going to Be Hard on Bootleggers.

HARD TO GET SUPPLIES—EASY TO GET TO PRISON

More Drastring Laws Will Be Pressed before Congress.

"The liquor outlaw in 1925 will find it harder to get supplies and easier to get to prison because of action taken by the Congress which has just closed," said Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel for the Anti-Saloon League. "An appropriation of $11,000,000 for enforcement will maintain the present personnel. The coast guard receives over $9,500,000 to keep smuggled boats, aliens and drugs from landing."

"Captured run-running boats, boats or other vehicles will be turned over to the coast guard or prohibition unit under an act passed by the house of a three-to-one majority. Smugglers and bootleggers have been buying back their confiscated vehicles when they were put up at auction. Many of these cars or vessels are of the type most suitable for enforcement work. The government will pay the hire of the motor and vessels."

Wheeler said the government will pay the hire of the motor and vessels. The government will pay the hire of the motor and vessels. The government will pay the hire of the motor and vessels.

"No legislation to weaken or hamper the enforcement of prohibition was passed by Congress."

"The filibuster in the closing days of the session prevented passage of the Cramton bill, which would have centralized enforcement activities, placed agents under civil service and closed the leaks through which 6,000,000 gallons of industrial alcohol reached the bootleggers last year. Two or three senators in the short session can block any legislation by a filibuster, even though the overwhelming majority of the senate favors this legislation. When it was evident that a few opponents of prohibition would prevent any vote on the bill, the friends of the Cramton bill offered an amendment to strike out all of the measure except that part which placed enforcement officials under civil service. This provision has been recommended by the president and was in both the Democratic and Republican platforms. The filibuster continued in spite of this and prevented any action."

"The Cramton bill and the Stalker bill, which increases penalties for law violators, will be pressed for action when Congress reconvenes."

WILMINGTON, N. C., Mar. 12.—(By the A. P.)—Gutzon Borglum announced today that he would confer tonight or tomorrow with a group from Atlanta with a view to arranging for resumption of work on the Stone Mountain Confederate Memorial.

Why MONARCH 100% Pure PAINT Endures

Sun-Rain-Snow
Any Kind of Weather

THE secret of good paint is "Purity." Ask any master painter the ideal materials for use in a house paint and he will tell you Pure Carbonate of Lead, Zinc Oxide, Linseed Oil, Turpentine and Drier and there you have the formula of Monarch 100% Pure Paint.

No substitute or cheapeners ever find a place in a can of Monarch 100% Pure Paint and you will always find "100% Pure" the "Sterling Mark" of paint on every can of Monarch you buy.

Give your home the best paint protection available by using Monarch 100% Pure upon it. It requires a 100% Pure Paint such as Monarch to really protect the surface over a period of years and it is poor economy to use cheap paint that will not withstand the elements.

It will cost you less in dollars and cents if you specify Monarch 100% Pure Paint and you will always be satisfied.

Come in and let us prove this to you. Ask for your color card.

The Adler left Germany in November 1916, and seized 14 ships before it finally stranded near Mopela Island in the South Seas, in August, 1917. Count Luckner and five members of the crew traveled 2,300 miles in an open boat and were finally arrested by the Australian authorities.

ON NATIONAL ADVERTISING.

This editorial is addressed to the merchants of Fulton, but since it concerns one important aspect of the business of our country, it should be of interest to all of our readers. Advertising is one of the great business forces of the country. It is estimated that the association of advertising agencies spends well over one billion dollars in advertising each year. This huge sum is spent by manufacturers who seek to tell the public about the good points of the merchandise they produce.

A very large portion of this should come right into communities like Fulton through the columns of local papers such as the Leader. It would get directly to the buying public. It would make business better for all of us.

But unfortunately the major portion of this huge sum goes to buy space in national magazines—all because merchants do not demand local advertising.

The manufacturer or distributor wants to get his goods on the local merchants' shelves. In urging you to stock a new line he will say, "See here. Look at the advertising we are putting into the Saturday Evening Post, the American Magazine and other big magazines. We're doing that to help you sell the goods."

Our local merchant should answer: "That's all very well. But the advertising that really helps me is the advertising you put here in the local paper. Only a few copies of these national magazines come into Fulton. But The Leader goes into practically every home."

Then the manufacturer would make a change in his advertising policy. If his salesman heard that from merchants everywhere it would not be long before Mr. National Advertiser would be placing much more of his advertising right here in the Leader.

That would mean more business for you. More for us. And a benefit to the people of this community by giving them more information on the things they have to buy for the home.

Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Myrick and family wish to express their sincere thanks and unbounded gratitude for the many, many gifts, priceless to us, as tokens of friendship in our recent loss. We see that kind deeds are the fruits of your kind hearts.

are having brought before us the all important fact that all that individuals are and possess belongs to God and that man is only a steward. Life is a trust, a stewardship. The stewardship of time, of strength, of special talent, of educational and social privileges, of opportunity is equally vital with the stewardship of money.

Thirty members were present and one new member was enrolled.

Simple Way To End Night Coughing

No matter how long you have been troubled with expiring coughing at night, robbing you of valuable sleep and thereby weakening your system and laying you open to dangerous infections, it can usually be stopped at once by a very simple treatment. Most people have found that they can sleep the whole night through undisturbed after the first time they try it.

The treatment is based on a remarkable discovery known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You simply take a powerful coughing fit and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing, without following with water. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and removes the phlegm and quiets the throat, but it also acts as a powerful sedative, so that you can sleep soundly the very first night, and the entire cough condition goes in a very short time.

The prescription is for coughs, chest colds, bronchitis, whooping cough, croup and almost every throat irritation. It contains no opiates or other harmful drugs. Economical, too, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. On sale at all good druggists. Ask for
