Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Ketcham Die in Supposed Suicide Agreement Here Last Night

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Ketcham, of Alhambra, were found by their son, who was called home from school, and found Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Ketcham dead in their home at about 3:30 yesterday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Ketcham had been staying at home from work with their son when they were called home. The family was not aware that anything was wrong. The son was called home from school and found his parents dead in their home. The son then called the police and the coroner's jury was called to the scene. The son said that his parents appeared to be asleep when he arrived home. The coroner's jury was called to the scene and an autopsy was performed. The cause of death is still under investigation. Mr. and Mrs. Ketcham were well liked by their neighbors and were active in community affairs. They were the parents of two children, a boy and a girl. The children were present in the home at the time of the discovery. The son said that he had called home to check on his parents and was surprised to find them dead. He said that he had seen no unusual activity in the home and that his parents appeared to be asleep when he arrived. The coroner's jury will continue its investigation and will make a report in the coming days.

Purity counts in cigarettes, too

Making cigarettes as pure as they can be made is our business. And it's your business, too—because you smoke them.

All the materials that go into the making of Chesterfield cigarettes are tested again and again by expert research chemists to see that they are absolutely clean and pure. Just like the things you eat or drink.

The Chesterfield way is the right kind—mild, sweet and rippled. Handcrafted throughout by the most modern machinery.

The paper is pure. Clean White. The best cigarette paper that money can buy.

There is cleanliness in every step of Chesterfield's manufacture. Old-fashioned methods have been discarded, and Chesterfields are made and packed in modern machinery of the most modern machinery.

Every day more men and women are changing to Chesterfields. And changing for good! Four big reasons clinch the choice: Mildness—Taste Better—Pure—Selling.
