Fulton Ice Company Up-to-date Plant

One of the Substantial Manufacturing Enterprises of Our City

Fulton has many things to be thankful for, but one of the substantial manufacturing enterprises of our city is the Fulton Ice Company. This plant was established in 1898 with a small capacity, but the capacity now is 50,000 tons daily with a storage for 25,000 tons. The plant is up-to-date in every particular, using the latest machinery in the ice manufacturing line, and is one of the best in Kentucky.

The ice manufactured here is of pure freestone water, coming from a considerable depth in the earth. There is no deposit of any kind in it, and the ice made from it is of the clearest, purest crystal and does not melt as rapidly as ice that is made of impure or muddy water to begin with, and has a solid body. This means quite a saving of per cent to the customer. Fulton can feel a just pride in her splendid ice plant.

Neighboring towns join us in the same feeling and want nothing but Fulton ice.

The reputation of Fulton ice reached Memphis last fall and Mr. Wade shipped fifteen carloads to the "Bluff City" filling rush orders.

During the past week around 200 cars have been iced here and the season for iced cars has just started.

Few of our citizens realize the true value of such a plant to our city until they see the large force employed, working often times night and day, resulting in a payroll which finds its way circulating in the business channels of the town.

Mr. R. H. Wade, the genial manager, has been in charge of the plant ever since it started. He is thoroughly posted in the business and looks after it personally, seeing that all orders are promptly taken care of, that is why he is one of the most popular and reliable business men in Fulton.

IMPROVEMENTS AT THE GRAND THEATER

Large Machine Installed to Provide Pure, Fresh Air

With a view of making the Grand one of the most comfortable and inviting show houses in this section of the country, the manager has installed a new fresh air machine which cools the premises and keeps the place filled with pure, fresh air all the time. It is a wonderful machine, and while you may not see or hear it when visiting the show house, you can easily distinguish the difference in the pure, cool, refreshing atmosphere which circulates throughout the building. Manager Nat Bynum never loses an opportunity to please his patrons and in providing for their comfort and screening the best productions obtainable, no expense is spared.

FULTON AND VICINITY SUFFER FROM MONDAY NIGHT RAIN

Monday night's electrical storm and cloudburst did considerable damage throughout this vicinity. Crops were washed up in many places and replanting will be necessary.

Sam Howell's stock barn, near Crutchfield, was struck by lightning and destroyed by fire; two mules and one horse were killed and all the feed in the barn consumed by the flames.

In Fulton, Harris Fork creek overflowed and entered many of the business houses and residences in the low lands, causing much damage. It was the biggest overflow since the creek was dredged some years ago.

Proclamation.

Know all men, women and children by these presents:

That, Whereas, the season of year has put forth new life and the blossoming flowers are at their best, it is becoming of us to commemorate and honor our dead.

Now, therefore, be it known that Sunday, May 23rd, is the day set for Decoration Day at Fairview. This is an opportune time to express with flowers the love and esteem for our dead. With reverence let us beautify our city of the dead with choicest blossoms on this memorial occasion.

W. O. SHANKLE, Mayor.

Poultry Exhibit At Fair Will Be A Pleasing Feature

Advance arrangements for the poultry show to be held this fall, at the County Fair, are well under way by the Fulton Poultry Association. Superintendent Watkins has been particularly active in securing funds from the various business houses of Fulton and a generous purse for prizes will be divided among the exhibitors this fall.

Active and close cooperation by the officials of the County Fair will make possible an even better display of fowls this year than was made last year, and the officers of the Poultry Association urge every poultry raiser to make early application for blanks, so that the entries may be checked and every arrangement made for the proper care of the birds in case, thus preventing any delay or errors in listing and displaying the exhibits.

Exhibitors should read carefully the directions on the entry blanks and arrange to ship or bring their exhibits at the time specified, so that good locations may be assigned.

All communications should be addressed to the secretary, H. S. Stansbury, who will gladly furnish any information desired.

Oscar Benson, of Clinton, Ia., Killed By I. C. Engine

Early Tuesday morning a stranger in the city was killed near the passenger depot by an I. C. engine. In the man's pocket was found a cigar maker's union card, issued at Memphis to O. Benson.

The Fulton Undertaking Company took the body and prepared it for shipment.

Recital At Water Valley.

The Piano Recital of the music pupils of Miss Ivora Cantrell was given in the high school building at Water Valley Tuesday night and was very much enjoyed by a large audience. A number of people from Fulton were in attendance and by eight o'clock the building was filled to capacity. The program was well arranged, and the renditions and expression given each number by the pupils demonstrated the result of the care and painstaking effort of their instructor who deserves credit for the accomplishment of her pupils.

Unusual talent was manifest among the students, and with the advantage of this training and instruction they will likely become accomplished artists in music.

Rev. C. H. Warren, will preach the Commencement Sermon for South Fulton school at Carr's Park Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m.

FULTON WATER UNSURPASSED

Sparkles with a Bluish White of Exceptional Quality

The water supply of a city is one of its most important considerations. In this respect, Fulton is probably unexcelled.

Fulton is fortunate in owning such a plant, and men are now employed to look after its welfare.

Councilman W. P. Morrell, chairman of the Water Works Committee and his co-workers are due much credit for the splendid services rendered, yet we should not fail to recognize the efficiency of Shelton Hart, Tull and Williams. In viewing the plant this week we find that clean-up week was observed about the plant and an extra touch of paint was given the building, to say nothing of the cleanliness of the interior. So much so, we questioned Mr. Hart when new machinery was installed, only to learn that the shining oil caps and other parts of machinery, were kept in that condition with 22 years of experienced elbow grease.

Again we say Fulton is fortunate in having such efficient men in charge of their water supply.

J. K. KILPATRICK VISITS FULTON

J. K. Kilpatrick, field agent of the State Agricultural College at Lexington, was a visitor to the Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday, and arranged for a supply of the pamphlets on work done by County Agents throughout the state will be sent here for distribution.

The services of county agents have proven of great benefit to the counties where installed, and Fulton county is missing a great opportunity in not having a competent man to direct the efforts of the farmers in developing their land and receiving instructions in diversified farming.

A call at the Chamber of Commerce will secure a copy of the pamphlet and any other printed matter that may be available for farmers.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gholson are the proud parents of a fine baby boy who arrived at their home on Norman street, Saturday.

Dr. E. H. Laughor of Lexington will be a visitor of H. Grymes next Monday the 24th.

High School Notes

The senior class presented "Green Stockings" Wednesday night, to one of the largest audiences that ever assembled in the high school auditorium. The play was well selected and well presented. This interesting drama was given under the direction of Miss Mary Royster who deserves much credit for the splendid rendition. The senior cast is to be congratulated.

The Fulton High school team journeyed to Mayfield, Saturday and met the Mayfield team in the closing game of the season. Mayfield won with a score of 7 to 3. The baseball season has been enjoyed very much by the High school students as well as by baseball lovers in the city. Coach Maddox is to be congratulated on the good work of his team this year.

A large audience was present Sunday morning and heard Dr. H. E. Waters, president of Union University, deliver the baccalaureate sermon at the high school auditorium. Dr. Waters gave a powerful address full of splendid thought. His subject was "The Great Mission of the Old Testament." He held the close attention of the audience through the power and beauty of his message.

The juniors were the hosts to the seniors and faculty Friday night in a most brilliant banquet, given under the direction of Miss Iva White. The Parent Teachers Association with the help of Miss Stevenson and the domestic science department prepared the meal. The decorations were artistic and beautiful. A background of greenery gave a woodland appearance to the dining room, while an artificial rainbow made an archway brilliant with colors.

The Junior High school operetta given under the direction of Miss Elliott and Clinkinbeard was well enjoyed by a large audience Tuesday night. The stage was decorated beautifully and the music, costumes, and songs were creations of art.

A large crowd assembled at the Carr Park auditorium Friday night to witness the Carr Institute elementary program. About one hundred and fifty children participated and they showed excellent training.

The final graduation exercises will be held Thursday night. Supt. Ijams of Jackson, Tennessee will deliver the commencement address.

A portion of the senior class accompanied by Miss White, Miss Clinkinbeard, Mr. Hughes and Mr. Caldwell attended the Hall-Moody banquet Saturday night. The banquet was given in honor of visiting high school senior classes and it is reported that it will be an annual affair. Hall-Moody is to be congratulated on such a movement which is instrumental in bringing high school graduates in contact with their college.

MEMBERS OF FIRE PREVENTION ASSOCIATION VISIT FULTON

Every day tourists and visitors pass through Fulton and remark that we have a pretty town, especially those who stop at the Usona Hotel and are given rooms looking out over the beautiful I. C. Parks and flower gardens.

Last week we had a number of visitors whose pleasure it was, to not only view the pretty I. C. parks and flower gardens, but whose business it was to inspect every nook and corner throughout our city. They were all men of refinement and culture, members of the Kentucky Fire Prevention Association—Field Agents of Fire Insurance Companies doing business in the state.

It was a pleasure to have these distinguished men with us. After their inspection of the city it was pleasing to hear the nice things they said about us. More than one said we had the cleanest town they had visited.

Their visit was purely educational on fire prevention and if our citizens will accept their advice and instructions, we will have fewer fires. The schools were visited and the children were lectured on fire prevention, and after the talk, moving pictures were shown to more fully impress the minds.

A fire drill, directed by Capt. Render at the Junior High school by the children cleared the building in 50 seconds. The fire alarm was turned in to the city fire department and Chief Roberts and his efficient assistants were on the grounds in 1 minute and 4 seconds, and within 4 minutes and 45 seconds, after the alarm was turned in, had a stream of water on the school building. With such quick and efficient work, no wonder Fulton is rated fifth city in Kentucky for fire fighting equipment and efficiency.

Another practice test made in the afternoon of May 13, was when the fire department gave an exhibition on Lake street at the building occupied by Baldrige Variety Store. The run was made and a stream of water turned on in 4 minutes and 30 seconds.

Guests of Rotary Club
At the noon hour the Rotary

Club's luncheon was a delightful event. And again Fulton reveled in its glory. The beautiful dining room of the Usona, with its mirrored walls and artistic beauty needed no other decorations to cause favorable comment, and the luncheon was a satisfying treat.

As hosts, the Rotary Club understands the art of entertaining. After a hearty welcome to the visitors, President T. J. Kramer announced that J. E. Fall had charge of the program. Mr. Fall briefly addressed the members and visitors and introduced Mr. Triplett, president of the Fire Prevention Association, who outlined the work of the association and gave some valuable pointers on fire prevention. His talk was more clearly and forcefully impressed on the minds of those present by moving pictures, which was shown at the close of the talks.

An interesting talk was made by State Inspector of High schools, Mark Godwin, who complimented the Fulton schools very highly, paying a splendid tribute to those in charge.

Capt. Render, of the Kentucky Actuarial Bureau, who visits the various cities throughout the State and instructs the fire departments in their duties, was an interesting speaker of the occasion and paid a high compliment to Chief Lee Roberts and his co-workers of the Fulton Fire Department.

Among the visitors and invited guests to share the hospitality of the Rotary Club were: Fifteen or twenty members of the Fire Prevention Association.

County Judge C. D. ... C. A. ... of the State Y. M. C. A.; Mark Godwin, State Inspector of High schools; Supt. V. C. Myers, of City Schools; R. S. Williams, Editor of Fulton Advertiser; Lee Roberts, Chief of Fire Department; Capt. Render, of the Kentucky Actuarial Bureau; Miss Hattie Mae Godfrey, who presided at the piano; Morris Jones, who operated the picture machine; Councilmen E. J. Hannephin, Joe Bennett, Smith Atkins and Paul DeMyer, and several members of the Lions club.

Demonstration A Glorious Success

The demonstration of Florence Oil Ranges at the Graham Furniture company's store this week, by the Warner Blackard society of the First Methodist church is a glorious success. The editor enjoyed some of the nice things cooked on the Florence by the young ladies, and words fail to do justice to the delicious eatables served those who attended the demonstration.

Florence Oil Ranges cook with focused heat. The intensely hot, clean blue gas flame goes straight to the bottom of the kettle. This means quick cooking in a cool kitchen. Easily operated, positively regulated, wickless, valveless, absolutely dependable. Burns kerosene.

Don't fail to attend this demonstration today and Saturday. We congratulate the Graham Furniture Company in having the Warner Blackards to do the demonstrating. They understand the art of tickling the palate of the most exacting.

Rummage Sale Today and Saturday

The Sarah Dean Class of the First Christian Church will conduct a Rummage Sale in the storeroom next door to Bennett's Drug Store TO-DAY and SATURDAY, May 21 and 22.

The Junior Department of the Woman's Club was delightfully entertained Monday afternoon by Miss Florence Wade at the home of Mrs. Ramsey Snow on Third street.

HOW LAND SWINDLERS AND LOAN SHARKS DEFRAUD THEIR PREY

W. R. Morehouse Reveals Further Schemes by Which Poor Widows Are Bereft of Their Savings—Unbelievable Frauds Are Worked on the Uninformed.

By W. R. MOREHOUSE,
Public Relations Commission, American Bankers Association.

ARTICLE NO. III

LAND swindles are almost as common as sand on the seashore. Here is one. A widow was left alone in the world with but $6,000. She was urged to take a free ride into the country to look over a new town site. Just a pleasure ride, she was told. No obligation on her part. She accepted the invitation with no intention of parting with her precious $6,000, but she fell among high-pressure salesmen and in an unguarded moment she affixed her signature to a contract to purchase a vacant lot for the $6,000 cash she had in a savings bank.

W. R. Morehouse

Thirty days after she drew out her account for what she supposed was a business lot she received a notice that her monthly instalment of $6,000 was due, being a $1,000 payment on each of six $6,000 lots. Strange as it may seem, not until she received this notice did she read the contract she had signed. Instead of buying one $6,000 lot and paying for it, as she meant to do, she had signed a contract to buy six $6,000 business lots and the $6,000 she drew from the bank had been applied as a first payment of $1,000 each on the six lots.

Had she gone to her banker she would have saved herself the loss of her inheritance, but doubtless the reason she had not consulted her bank was because she was not aware that bankers render such a service.

A Widow Fell Among High Pressure Land Salesmen

Sad is the lot of the savings depositor who loses his savings through wild and reckless schemes to desperation for funds and finds it necessary to borrow money to meet an emergency such as sickness or unpaid rent. Let me give the facts about two cases of the many with which I have come in contact.

The Loan Shark at Work
The principal characters in the first case are a man, who must borrow $350 to place his wife in a hospital to save her life, and a loan shark, who demands every ounce of blood. In desperation the borrower applies to this loan shark for the loan of $350. This is what it costs him—the amount is almost unbelievable but I obtained the exact figures first hand and I can vouch for their correctness—this man was obliged to give his note for $925 for a loan of $350! The day he got the note the shark sold it to an innocent holder and it became an obligation binding upon the borrower. Think of paying $925 for a loan of $350!

Here is another. This time there is a woman in the case. The woman needed $165 to meet a payment on her furniture or lose it. She turned to this same shark for assistance and this is how he handled the case. He led the woman to expect that he would lend her the money but kept deferring making the loan from day to day. Finally, on the day she must make her payment or lose her furniture, he telephoned her to call. It was now too late for her to make any other arrangements for borrowing the funds. The shark had planned it so that she would be at his mercy and would have to accept his terms. He charged her $650 for a loan of $165! How the Shark Does It! Doubtless your curiosity is aroused as to how this is done. Here are the facts. He charged a large commission for making the loan, and also included a wide range in fees such as for drawing up papers and notarial fees. On top of this he required the borrowers to buy stock in his company which was worthless. Then he required them to take out through him life insurance to about one hundred times the amount of the loan for which he received a liberal commission. In fact, he resorted to every imaginable scheme in order to bleed them of the last drop of blood they had to give. And the unfortunate thing about it all is that the borrowers in these two cases found it necessary to meet such exorbitant terms because they had already lost their savings through ill-advised investments.

(Article IV will give methods by which people can be protected from fraudulent operations.)

The strawberry crop of this country is in full blast, thus making the owners somewhat higher-spirited and their tables more appetizing looking at the sight of a "strawberry short cake."

A raging storm of last night did a great deal of damage in this country, blowing down a barn belonging to M. W. Gardner, as well as destroying quite a number of the shade trees of J. W. Matthews.

Mr. Swift was born in Paris, Tenn., Feb. 27, 1871 and moved to Kentucky when only eleven years old. At twenty years of age he was married to Miss Susanna Wiley of Fulton, Ky., who survives him. Five children were born to them, all of whom are living: Mrs. Kate Murrell, Mrs. Leslie Batts, Mrs. Lela Johnson and Freeman Swift of Fulton and Mrs. Richard H. Shreve of Chicago. He also leaves eight grandchildren and one brother, John Swift, of Hickman, and one sister, Miss Minnie Swift of Fulton.

LIBRARY NOT DAMAGED

Although the flood of Monday night carried a vast amount of mud into the Chamber of Commerce, the place was cleaned and fairly well dried before time for the library to open in the afternoon.

The deposit of mud was about the sixteenth of an inch deep all over the floor, and the water was much higher during the night, but no damage was done to either the books or the piano belonging to the Woman's Club.

What About Ice Cream As a Food---Especially For Children

1. It is the only food given in both health and illness, to athletes and invalids.
2. It is one of the first foods to be given a patient in the hospital.
3. It will come nearer pleasing every member of the party or family than anything you can serve.
4. All of the elements necessary to health and growth are found in milk. A quart of Culver's Ice Cream has the food value of several quarts of milk.
5. Young children should have more milk, in the form of ice cream, instead of the customary milk-naks.
6. You have often seen children refuse milk, but you have seldom seen them refuse ice cream.
7. Nature has endowed children with a taste for sweets. Guide this tendency into a habit of eating health-giving, strength-producing CULVER'S Ice Cream. It will be a good investment in health.

8. It is not the children alone who benefit from the food properties of ice cream. Certain elements in milk and hence in larger quantities in ice cream improve the complexion and eyesight and add luster and life to the hair.

9. Using the best of ingredients in the home freezer you will find it hard to equal the results in smoothness and texture made possible by our power machinery and proper refrigeration. The smoother the cream the more easily digested.

10. Rare indeed is the individual, young or old, who does not welcome the invitation to have a dish of ice cream. Please all by serving CULVER'S.

RICH---HEALTHFUL---REFRESHING CULVER'S ICE CREAM

Compare Culver's Quality With Others

A daily supply of fresh milk from inspected dairies and a factory as clean as your kitchen insure the purity and safety of CULVER'S.

There is a Culver dealer near you who will give you good service. Call him, compare the richness and flavor with other makes and we know you will always say Culver's.

Novelties for Parties and Banquets

The service of ice cream flowers, emblems, or individuals makes a fitting climax to a wonderful party. You may be surprised to know that we have many different molds, and that we can put many designs in the center of brick cream. We can also make special flavors colored to suit the occasion. The price is reasonable, in fact very much so, considering the decorative feature, coupled with such a delicious dessert.

Senour's Floor Paint dries over night with a high gloss enamel-like finish, but at the same time it sinks into the pores of the wood and forms a film that will withstand the hardest usage and will withstand repeated washings without dimming the lustre. Saturday, May 15, Mrs. Frank Bliff passed from earth to her reward and release from pain and suffering here. She professed faith in Christ early in life and joined the Presbyterian church at Mt. Zion and lived a life of service to humanity and "inasmuch as ye did it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me," and now she has received the welcome address, "well done, good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joys of thy Lord." She was married to Mr. Frank Bliff and to them were born two children, Mrs. Will Clark, near here, in whose home she lived the last few months of her life and Aaron Bliff, who lives near Clinton. She leaves two sisters, Mrs. Bob Kaler and Mrs. Munrow Wilson, both of Clinton, besides a host of nephews and nieces, and some grandchildren and friends to mourn, but I should say rejoice, for she suffered so long and much of the time such intense agony that it was a relief for her to go and be at rest. She was 69 years and some months and a few days old. She was laid to rest in Wesley cemetery and the funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. Clements, pastor of Mt. Zion church. We sympathize with our bereaved friends.

Mrs. Will Finch and son, Guy, visited Mrs. Finch's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Watkins, Sunday and attended the church, Sunday night, and heard Brother Riley of Arlington preach the commencement sermon of Crutchfield High school.

The Mt. Moriah church had a birthday celebration Sunday as there were five in the community that were fifty years old the same day, Mr. L. W. Moore was one and Brother Story or his wife another. The others I do not know. By having all day services and dinner on the ground, Bro. Story, the pastor, preached in the morning and Bro. Riley, of Arlington in the afternoon.

The decoration at Mt. Moriah was pretty well attended Saturday and many lovely flowers were scattered, but I saw many graves that had no flowers. That, I think, was due to the scarcity of flowers as we only had a few and we put them on our own loved ones.

Boone Watkins and wife spent Sunday at Crutchfield with T. M. Watkins and family.

TWO RAILROAD SITUATIONS

The railroad workers of Great Britain are helping to paralyze that country in the general strike. The railroad workers of the United States are not only at work, but have actually joined with their employers in agreeing upon a plan which, if enacted into law, will make strikes next to impossible, by substituting amicable negotiations and arbitrations.

There is industrial war in Britain. There is industrial peace in the United States. The workers of Britain and the government are in collision. The workers of the United States are the pillars of the government. Employers and employees in Britain have found it impossible to agree, and both sides are committing suicide. Employers and employees in the United States are in unison, enthusiastically building up the country.

Is there no lesson in this for Congress? When the railroads and their workers appear together and ask Congress to enact a law that they will do away with railroad strikes, why in the name of common sense should Congress hesitate to enact the law?

Some shippers have objected, on the ground that the railroads and their workers are in a conspiracy to boost wages later on, at the expense of shippers. That can not be done without the consent of the United States government. There is nothing in the contention of the shippers.

It is said that the railroads have agreed to the pending bill because the workers have threatened to strike. This also is nonsense. If the railroads were threatened by a general strike they would not be in favor of tying their own hands by giving some one else—to-wit, the United States government—the final power to determine the terms upon which they must employ their men.

The Parker-Watson bill is a measure that breathes the pure American spirit of fair play, good temper and friendly adjustment on the basis of the square deal. Each must prove its case when it enters into a controversy, or take the consequences of impartial judgment. Wage disputes will pass from the realm of disturbance and violence into the calm atmosphere of patient consideration and honest adjudication.

At this time, when one of the foremost industrial nations is in the throes of a war between workers and government, the opportunity is before Congress to remove such a danger from this country, so far as the railroads are concerned. The bill should pass soon, and by an overwhelming vote.

HELPING KENTUCKY

The Kentucky Utilities Company and its subsidiaries distribute more than 190,000 horsepower of electricity through nearly 1,100 miles of transmission lines to 124 cities and towns.

Such an abundance of electric power at a fair price, available twenty-four hours a day, is helping materially to bring about the much needed and much-hoped-for industrial development of Kentucky.

This industrial development will bring greater prosperity. Prosperity will bring more wealth to the State and to the average family. Wealth will bring progress. And progress means more good schools, more good roads, more healthful communities, better living conditions, bigger opportunities for this generation and all that come afterward.

The Kentucky Utilities Company has great faith in Kentucky. It is matching its faith with good works.

Section 3. "After the said streets and parts of streets have been oiled in accordance with this resolution every property holder shall be given a notice of the amount due on oiling tax and it shall be the duty of the property holder to pay the same within thirty days after and on failure to do so, there shall be imposed a penalty of ten percentum (10%) on the amount due by him or her."

Lesson for May 23

ISAAC AND HIS WELLS

LESSON TEXT—Genesis 26:12-25.
GOLDEN TEXT—A soft answer turneth away wrath, but grievous words stir up anger—Prov. 15:1.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Isaac Refuses to Quarrel.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Isaac Refuses to Quarrel.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Isaac the Peacemaker.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—How to Deal With Aggressors.

Isaac was a child of the covenant and given in the time of the old age of Abraham and Sarah in fulfillment of God's promise (Gen. 21:1-5). His name means laughter, a reminder of the gladness of the heart of his mother when she learned that she was to have a son. As to character he was gentle, meek, meditative and peace loving. He was a remarkable contrast to his father Abraham. Two things may have affected him to his disadvantage.

1. The shadow of his illustrious father.
Sons of great and rich men commonly do not make much of life. The necessity of struggle is not forced upon them.

2. He was brought up as the only child of his mother.

The tendency in such a case would be to shield him from the necessity of self-effort so that he would be unable to meet life's stern realities. Every child should be compelled to think for itself and to fight its own battles. While not a mighty man by nature's gifts, through the blessings of God's grace he became the inheritor of the covenant promise. He was not only a meek man, but a man of prayer as well (Gen. 24:33; 25:21; 26:23-25).

1. Isaac in Gerar (vv. 12-17).

1. The Lord appeared unto him (vv. 1-4).

Because of famine in the land Isaac went into the country of the Philistines. This distress should have moved him to call upon the Lord (Jas. 5:13). It were better to suffer in the land than to go among the enemies of God's people. The Lord graciously appeared to him there and directed him not to go into Egypt, thus avoiding the error of his father.

2. His lapse (vv. 7-12).

He fell into the same temptation as Abraham many years before (Gen. 20:1-18). When one goes into a new country he can expect to be tempted to do wrong.

3. His prosperity (vv. 12-17).
Isaac did not intend to make Gerar his permanent place of abode. He intended only to sojourn there. While there he sowed and reaped bountifully. This prosperity was no proof that God approved of his course.

II. Isaac's Enemies (vv. 18-22).

Isaac was not permitted long to enjoy this fruitful land. His prosperity incited the envy of the Philistines. Success in any calling in life will provoke envy. Ministers and Sunday school teachers sometimes become the envy of each other. The Philistines ordered Isaac to leave them. Wherever envy has begun its deadly work there must be separation. They took as the method of getting rid of him the stopping up of the wells. Isaac did not contend with them but peacefully withdrew to another place where he proceeded again to dig the wells of his father. The Philistines again strove with him. He named this place Esek, which means contention, and again he removed from them. The second name he gave was Sinah, which means enmity. This willingness to remove from the enemy shows his willingness to be imposed upon rather than to fight. The third time he dug wells there was no strife. The name given to this was Rehoboth, which means room. We should learn from his behavior that the way to have peace is to wear out our enemies with patience.

III. Isaac in Beersheba (vv. 23-33).

Immediately upon Isaac's going up from among the Philistines the Lord appeared to him. The Lord permits envy and strife in the world in order to get his children separated from them. Following this visitation by the Lord, Isaac built an altar and called upon His name. As soon as a meeting place with Jehovah was established he pitched his tent there. Following this his servants dug a well. No use going among the Philistines to get water.

After Isaac was established in Beersheba, Abimelech came, desiring to make an alliance with him. He gained influence by peacefully withdrawing from them. Being thus convinced they desired to enter into covenant relationship with him. The way to gain influence with the world is to withdraw from it.

Noblest of All Victories

For a man to conquer himself is the first and noblest of all victories; whereas to be vanquished by himself is the basest and most shameful of all things.

Believing in Truth

Trying to have the courage of other people's convictions is a difficult task. One must really believe in a truth himself before he is willing to suffer for it.

Brother Warren has returned from Houston, where he attended the Southern Baptist Convention. He reports a very enthusiastic meeting. The 1927 session of the Convention will be held in Louisville, Ky.

In the absence of the Pastor on last Sunday evening, Dr. Waters, President of Union University, Jackson, Tenn., who preached the Baccalaureate sermon for the Fulton City Schools Sunday morning, preached to a packed house, using for his subject, "What have you in your hand." He delivered a very forcible sermon on this subject. We will be glad to welcome Dr. Waters back to our city at any time.

The study course being sponsored by the Brotherhood, will resume the lectures tonight. Be sure to be present. If you do not care to study the book, attend the lectures any way. It will make you stronger in the Christian faith.

Miss Annie Lucile Goldsby left for Birmingham last Tuesday morning to attend the Old Soldiers' Reunion. Miss Goldsby goes as Maid of Honor on the staff of Col. J. T. ### Do Better Work With Less Effort

Many thousands of farmers know of the good work, easy handling and simple adjustment of the John Deere DG Cultivator. So easy to operate that your boy will do mighty good work with it.

You can cultivate all row crops with the DG, for the simply-adjusted arch permits a variation of 16 inches in the wheel tread.

The hugging device aids in holding the rigs to the row when hilling or "laying by" the crop, counteracting the tendency to drift either to or from the row. This does away with the hardest work of cultivating.

Simple depth control insures even cultivation—just a turn of the tail bolt does it.

Improved cone
coupling—no adjustment required except to take up wear.

Wheels have oil-tight, dust-proof
bearings.

Pole does not extend behind axle—
plenty of room for adjusting arch, rigs or shovels; provides good view of work.

Hang-up hooks attached to arch and are adjustable, up or down, in or out.

Your DG is ready at our store. Come in and see it.

FOR WORKING PEOPLE

The best of workers get out of sorts when the liver fails to act. They feel languid, half-sick, "blue" and discouraged and think they are getting lazy. Neglect of these symptoms might result in a sick spell, therefore the sensible course is to take a dose or two of Herbine. It is just the medicine needed to purify the system and restore the vim and ambition of health. Price 60c. Sold by Bennett's Drug Store, Fulton, Ky.
