CORBETT TUCKER IS APPOINTED STATE ROAD FOREMAN

Corbett Tucker, well known citizen of this county has been appointed state road supervisor of maintenance for Marshall county and has taken over the duties. He succeeds Arthur Darnell, who has been in charge of state road work for the past three years.

Mr. Tucker was appointed by Commissioner Culin of the state highway department.

Band Fund Grows, But Need Is Twice Amount Pledged

The BHS band fund reached a total of $1,547.24 this week, but according to leaders and sponsors of the Band Fund drive, the amount is about half of what is needed.

The amount reported thus far represents gifts by individuals and firms of this city. According to Van Roberts, president of the Benton Rotary club, there are many persons and firms in Benton who have not given to the fund, and he urges everyone to take part and help make the BHS band one among the best in West Kentucky.

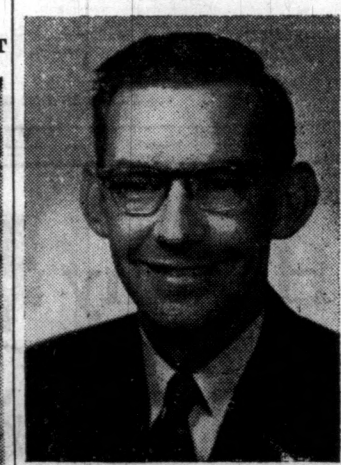

A meeting was held here this week with Band Director Bill Havel and plans were discussed concerning the organization of a "Band Booster's Club." Prof. Havel spoke to those present, explaining the progress the band has made during the past few months. He stated that the Benton Band is now equal to some others in this section of the state that have been organized for a number of years.

There will be a band contest held at Murray college during the latter part of March and it is hoped that members of the band may have uniforms before the event takes place.

Persons who are interested in the BHS band are asked to send or bring contributions to any of the following:

The Marshall Courier or Tribune office, or see Mrs. Hatler Morgan, Mrs. A. T. Kennedy, Mrs. Morgan, or Mrs. A. B. Rhea.

"Youth Week" To Be Observed by Some of Churches of County Starting Next Sunday

YOUTH PROGRAM SPEAKER

Hero David

(By the Rev. Bill Williams)

The accent will be mostly upon "Youth" in a number of Marshall county churches Sunday, January 27, as they join with 38 major denominations in the annual observance of Youth Week. Special programs are planned in the Benton First Methodist church, the Benton First Christian church, and the Oak Level Christian church with youth in prominent roles.

The Benton Methodist church conducted its denominational youth services January 20, and will join with other churches in the remainder of youth week activities.

Youth week, January 27 to February 3, is sponsored annually by the United Christian Youth Movement and this year it is built around the "Call to United Christian Youth Action." The call is a program to unite one million Christian youth and adult leaders in a dramatic witness to the power of Christian fellowship through specific action projects in the local community, the nation and the world. A goal of 20,000 giving $20,000 is the challenge to the youth of Kentucky and Tennessee, while one million youth is the national goal. Youth week will be concluded by an interdenominational youth service Sunday, February 3.

India Youth to Speak Here

The Rev. H. E. Williams, pastor here has announced that Hero David, a youth from New Delhi, India will be the principal speaker for the morning worship service Sunday, January 27. The Rev. Joe Hiett will preside during the services. Hero David is a native of India and has been in the United States about three years. At present he is studying at Lambuth college.

Youth of this city will have charge of the morning worship service at the First Christian church, according to the pastor, the Rev. Bill Williams. Bill Combs, Benton high school senior, will bring the morning message. His subject will be, "Committed in Christ." Special music will also be a part of the program. Others taking part in the services will be Charles Hensley, Fred Miller, Jim Solomon, Merlin Larimer, Billy Bruce Morgan, and David Combs.

The youth of the Oak Level Christian church under the leadership of Barbara McGreggor are planning a similar service.

The Rev. B. J. Barron, of the Benton Methodist church circuit reports that the youth of Pleasant Grove, Benton and Oak Level M. E. churches came together for denominational services at Pleasant Grove church Sunday, January 20.

"FOWL" OR "FOUL" CALLERS OF A SPORT EVENT AT B.H.S.

NO, FOLKS YOU'RE NOT "SEEING THINGS"—It's the real McCoy—the big and the little of it who will do the refereeing of the March of Dimes basketball game here between members of the Lions and Rotary clubs Monday night at the Benton High school gym.

The big fellow who will wield the referee's "scantlin" is none other than Ollie Lane. It is said that Ollie taught Adolph Rupp all he knows about basketball.

The other fellow is "Shorty" Freeman, who is said to be the NEXT BEST referee. He was a frog throw artist in and around the saplin' forks out Symsona way, and is a brother of State Senator Wayne Freeman, who is now refereeing in Frankfort.

You'll see these two experts in action Monday night—Be on hand and enjoy the game of the season.

EMRY DARNELL AND WIFE CELEBRATED FIFTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Emry Darnell, residents of Route 1, of Marshall County, celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary at their home Saturday January 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Darnell, who have resided in Marshall county most of their lives, have enjoyed good health. Mr. Darnell is 69 and Mrs. Darnell is 66. The father

W. L. Parr, secretary, and Farland Robbins, Attorney for the West Kentucky Rural Telephone Co-operative have been informed by the REA that the Co-operative's application for a loan to improve and extend telephone service in Marshall and three other counties in West Kentucky, is now being processed in Washington.

The co-operative has an application for a loan sufficient to provide most of the capital necessary to install a dial telephone system in several places in this and other counties. Local citizens who receive service through the new co-operative will buy memberships in the organization to provide the capital not supplied by the government on a loan basis. The co-operatives will be owned and controlled by members receiving the service.

Meetings have been held by citizens of this county at Fairdealing, Benton, and Oak Level. Congressman Noble J. Gregory has been in contact with the REA in Washington to expedite the loan, and State Senator Wayne Freeman, and Representative Shelby McCallum are also interested and giving assistance.

Pastures Treble Land Value

More than 600 farmers came to a "pasture field day" staged by Forrest and Daskel Borders, who operate a farm at Bowling Green, Kentucky, where pasture improvement has been conducted for the past 6 years.

The farmers in the photo above are sitting in orchard grass—Ladino alfalfa pasture which has been down for 8 years.

"We bought this land for $167 an acre in 1944," says son Daskel. "Since building it up with pasture, we have turned down $500 per acre."

"The 200 acres turned into pasture crops carry 140 head of cows and 80 head of heifers for 9-10 months of grazing, and all of their hay and silage."

That is what Forrest Borders told the visitors.

"We are making 8,000 pounds of milk per acre. That gives us a gross return of $360 per acre. We feed the dry cows a ration designed to help them put on needed additional body condition and the milkers are fed a balanced ration in strict accordance with their production."

"Subtracting the cost of the supplement, we are getting better than $225 per acre. And we have little field work to do."

Farm Telephones in 1951...

Southern Rural Telephones Pass the Half Million Mark

THE number of rural telephones served by Southern Bell passed the 520,000 mark in 1951. More than 77,000 were added last year alone.

Even bigger things are planned for 1952, provided we can get the necessary materials. Many more Southern farmers are eager to enjoy the convenience and money-saving advantages of telephone service. We are working hard to fill their needs. And we expect to have another 82,000 rural telephones in service by the end of this year.

Meeting the needs of farm families is a big and costly job. But it's a mighty important job to us—because it's so important to the South's prosperity, in town and on the farm.

Observations

(Old Kodger's Column)
FOR THE PAST 15 TO 20 years ye old one has been making a serious study of individals—just plain people. Haven't found out much, but the puzzling study goes on. It all began at a ticket window; when a person is faced with all kinds of the human race. Sometimes it will cause a fellow to wonder if all of us have yet advanced to a point where we are due the title
as human.

ANOTHER THING THAT
works in very well in filling space is that the best copy can be found from the pages of his or her own family life. After all, most of us are of the average family, and what applies to many of us also applies to many more of us. There isn't much logic or use in looking altogether for the mote in the other fellow's eye. Very often there the years people have said to me, "you sure gave somebody hides this week," when no other person was even considered, or at least no person outside the family circle.

IF ALL OF US WOULD
search out the true facts in our own lives there probably would be no time left to give the "other fellow" a shadow boxing via the newspaper route. After all is said, we should know ourselves better than anyone else.
Our joys and our sorrows, and our disappointments can better be told, not by someone else, but in a language nearly everyone ought to understand.

A FEW DAYS AGO I RAN into one of those now-a-days rare fellows who wanted to talk to old Kodger about his soul and as he approached this old hypocrite by going way 'round the barn door and through the lot gate. He left it wide open to be closed later—and with the hings objected, and was informed that it was something to find an almost stranger who was so interested in my well-being, and that I was sure he would grant me the same privilege.

AFTER SEVERAL TRIPS
back and forth through the lot gate he got down to business.
Right there with the barn door closed and the lot gate open I got the lecture of my life on Christianity until I almost believed I could see the Pearly gates. But maybe I was color blind. This man knew more about my life than I did. It was astonishing, and where did he get it—I won't tell you, but it wasn't either of my two readers.
I did miss a page out of the family Bible.

THIS INTERESTED ONE WAS
no kin to a Minister, but was sure of his Christianity. During the lecture another old Kodger was mentioned. Immediately he began by describing him as a liar, thief, and a humbug, with all the descriptive verbs and adjectives in his liberal vocabulary. After he had said all the "nice" things he could about a man whom I have never heard say one ugly word about my Christian lecturer, it suddenly dawned upon me that he was off key, so I asked the man

what were we talking about.
His face turned red and his ears turned pink. Then it was that I wondered what manner of man
it was that gave him my complete pedigree.

Church Grove School News

By Bonita Copeland

Back to school with plenty of work to do, and are willing to do even a better job after such a nice Christmas vacation.

We lost the Marien children from our school. They will go to Benton but we hope they will visit us. Rev. Eura Mathis and five of his Unity students who are eighth graders: Mae Tucker, Eva Lou Henderson, Virginia Mathis, Cora Mae Puckett and Marilyn Johnston. We appreciate the interest of Mr. Mathis and the students of our school and invite them back.

January 3 Mr. Rider met with the 4-H club and gave a number of interesting suggestions, games were played and enjoyed by every one. The students say that pines should be all over Marshall County instead of the red gullies.

The attendance at Church Grove is still high.

Mrs. Doll Ward is the cooking leader and started the 4H club cooking lessons at her house Jan. 8. Plans are being made to start sewing lessons too.

Visitors for the month were: Mrs. Edgar Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Will Norsworthy, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rudd, Mrs. Jewell Copeland, Mrs. Jack English, Jim Dowdy, Mrs. Fanny Sheppard, Keith Norsworthy, Patsy and Betty Thweatt, Imogene Myers, Mrs. James Myers, Wilda Green, Johnnie Wallace, Edgar Wallace, James Myers, Mae Jones, Bill English, Dione Groves.

We wish to thank Hollan Rose for the 50 Library books, well chain and new broom.

The community parents have ordered a new set of the World Book Encyclopedias which cost $116. Plenty of books are needed

Born Again

Lesson for January 27, 1952

IN many places one often hears the expression, "born again Christians". As a matter of fact, there are no other kinds. If a person is not born again he is not a Christian.

The first birth is of the natural self, the awakening, so to speak, to this natural world.

The second birth is of the supernatural self, the awakening to the spiritual world, the beginning of "living unto God." Sometimes this new birth comes very early in life. Dr. Warfield, a very conservative theologian, used to think that the second birth might in some cases actually come before the natural birth. (See Jeremiah 1:5).

A man may become very distinguished, may be a great scholar, and still not have been born again. Nicodemus is a case in point. He was a man who had everything, as the saying is; he was a judge in the Jewish High Court, a man both wealthy and respectable. But he had not been born again.

God Is the Life-Giver

THE English translation of John 3:7 has given many persons the idea that being born again is a duty. Now a duty is something that you ought to do, and that by your own choice you can do if you will. It's up to you. But (taking the teaching of the Bible as a whole) being born again is not a duty. It is the act of God.

What Jesus was saying (as the Greek of John 3 indicates) is that, if necessary, it is indispensable, to be born again. There can be no development, no growth, in the spiritual life unless there is somewhere the beginning of that life. You must have been born once in order to see the sunshine. You must be born again in order to see God.

The seed which we sow in field or garden must have the germ of life in it or it will never grow. But no farmer can give life to lifeless seed. God alone is the life-giver, in the first birth or in the second.

Turn; Follow

SOME people get this far in their thinking and then they become discouraged. "If only God can give life," they think, "what is the use of my trying to do him? If God takes the first step then all I can do is to wait for him. No matter how much I want to be a Christian in my heart, I may not be able to, for God may not see fit to make it possible for me to do what I want to do." This is a mistaken thought.

John Calvin, as is well known, was a very strong believer in predestination. As pastor of a large church, he had numbers of people in his congregation who heard him talking about predestination, the doctrine that we are in God's hands and that spiritual life can come only as he himself begins it in our souls.

They would ask just about this same question: I want to be a Christian, but how do I know that God has chosen me? I want to be a Christian, but how can I know whether I have been born again? Calvin's answer was a simple one: If you really want to be a Christian in your heart, that is a sign, the very best sign, that you have been born again.

Turn; Follow

IN the Bible, the commands are "Turn"; "Follow"; "Believe"; "Obey". If we have not been born again these commands fall on deaf ears. If they stir our conscience, if they make us respond, then that is a sign we have been born again.

Then can't we tell when we are born again? Certainly we can tell; just by being alive. "We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren," said the same apostle who recorded Jesus' conversation with Nicodemus.

We wish very much we knew whether Nicodemus himself was ever born again, but students of the Bible have never agreed on this. And the reason for the uncertainty is that Nicodemus never did come right out.

We know Matthew was born again because he turned his back on his former life and followed Jesus. We know that Nicodemus said some kind things about Jesus. We know that after Jesus was dead, Nicodemus came through with a handsome contribution for the funeral. Was that only late, or was it too late?

Pastures Replace Row Cropping

Six years ago, the Dr. B. Frank Finley farm at Easley, South Carolina, was so run down it wouldn't support a small dairy herd.

Today it supports 98 mature cows, 31 heifers and 13 calves. Fertilizer and pasture and hay crops made the difference. They've quit row cropping. Pastures are green, with grazing 11 months out of the year.

With summer irrigation, Ladino and fescue supply pasture and hay during spring, summer and fall. Rye grass, Bermuda and kudzu, sown in separate fields, also provide green summer grazing. Reseeding crimson clover is a good fall, winter and early spring crop.

Alfalfa, sericea, barley and crimson clover make all the hay the cows can eat and supply some pasture, too.

While clearing, fertilizing and seeding has cost upwards of $50 an acre, the increased productivity and value of the land has already paid back the cost.

And herd production is increasing every year.

In every school. We can always count on help from Mr. Rose and the parents and appreciate it very much.

We feel from our Science Conference at Marray that we will be able to do more in science study this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Hardin Byers, of Route 6, were business visitors in Benton Saturday.

H. M. Wyatt is improving at his home on Benton Route 6, following a serious illness.

Mrs. Franklin Rose, of Route 4, was a visitor in Benton Saturday.

Mrs. Nancy Roark, of Route 5, was a visitor in Benton Saturday.

Nothing Wrong with My Tummy

Three-year-old Judith Gorman, of Houston, Texas, has been battling polio two-thirds of her life. After she was stricken two years ago, she went home from the hospital with braces and crutches. Now she's back at the Southwestern Polio Myelitis Respiratory Center in Houston for an operation which doctors hope will help. The center is one of several sponsored by the March of Dimes for respiratory polio cases.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of our husband and father, who departed this life one year ago today. The road into the sunset is one we all must tread. And though it brings us sorrow When a loved one goes ahead, Still there is comfort in knowing We shall meet again someday When grief and pain are over And the clouds have rolled away.
Mrs. B. E. Roberts and family
Fred Cox, of Route 6, was in town during the week end on business.
