Local Band To Perform At Orpheum

Colorful Drama "Bordertown" at Theatre Thursday.

Paul Mann, one of the greatest actors of the stage or screen, comes to the Orpheum theatre Thursday night in the Warner Bros. production, "Bordertown" which is said to be the most powerful drama in which he has ever appeared.

The picture, suggested by Carroll Graham's novel, is a stark, realistic picture of the colorful life in a town on the American border, with its night clubs and gambling resorts frequented by American millionaires and bored society women seeking diversion.

The 60-piece band of the Fulton High School will be on the stage at nine o'clock Thursday night, and give an added musical program.

RAILWAY EXPRESS AGENT MAKES GOOD REPORT

A most interesting report was given this week on activities of the Mississippi Division of the Railway Express Agency, by A. A. Larsen, local agent. There were 3,184,731 shipments in 1934, compared with 407,453 for 1933, showing an increase of $681,951 in business. Only $315,526 was net gain in revenue as there was also a $122,471 increase in expenses.

A chart showing the comparative trend of express business showed a higher mark in 1934 than in 1933, with the year 1935 expected to surpass other. In 1933 the highest peak in business was reached in December, but while December, 1934 led December, 1935 October was the best month in 1934.

Efficiency of railway and express service was noted this week during traffic tie-ups throughout this section on highways, stopping bus and truck operation temporarily.

THE ROTARY CLUB

R. H. Wade had charge of the Rotary program Tuesday, and introduced Rev. L. E. McCoy, who made a most interesting talk on the duties of a citizen. Among other points brought out was the fact that every citizen should support all worthy movements in his community; lead it if he can, but also be a willing follower.

VOX POP

KEEPING THE CITY

Except Jehovah keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain.—Psalm 127: 1.

There is an increasing tendency to relate the Bible to every-day life. No far-away, mystic or theological interpretation of Scriptures satisfies the modern man. We in these United States, especially, are a practical people, and we require from our religion, as from everything else, a serviceable aid in the matters nearest at hand.

Citizenship is a very practical and important matter at present. There is much in the Bible regarding it. In the Old Testament laws and procedure, politics and religion were closely intermingled. Jehovah was the God of the nation as truly as of the individual.

It is taught in the Bible that Good Citizenship is a personal matter—a matter of honestly cultivating a keen conscience toward our neighbors, being unpartisan and developing the traits of mercy, peace and righteousness in all dealings. A good citizen, whether he shovel snow or sells merchandise, or builds bridges, is a man of conscience in his work. Citizenship is more than casting a ballot. It is a life of righteousness.

I owe to the community in which I live the best service that is possible for me to render. If I live in Fulton, Ky., let me help to make Fulton its best by my support. Not only partake of its good things and not be grateful enough to help support it. We all cannot be leaders, but we can be helpers. Any old thing can be a knocker. But it takes more to be a helper. With the right sort of leadership and the right sort of supporters we will get some place.

To be a citizen I must love my community. When I move to town let me bring my trust with me. Be a BOOSTER, not a knocker. Be a leader or a helper, a booster.

A GREAT CITIZEN IS ONE WHO MAKES LIFE NOT SIMPLY A CAREER—BUT A MISSION.

This is what the Psalmist called, "Keeping the City."

—Rev. L. E. McCoy.

KENTUCKY UTILITIES CO. NAMES ROBERT WATT HEAD

ROBERT M. WATT
President of Kentucky Utilities Company

At a special meeting of the board of directors of the Kentucky Utilities Co., at Lexington, Ky., Robert M. Watt was chosen president. He assumed office immediately.

The utility company, with its subsidiaries, supplies electric, gas, water and transportation services to over 100 communities, and several thousand farms in Kentucky and Virginia.

Mr. Watt has been executive vice president of the company for several years, and has been connected with the organization in an executive capacity since the company was organized.

EXTRA SESSION OF KENTUCKY STATE LEGISLATURE PROBABLE

A special session of the Kentucky legislature may be called this summer, well informed circles predict. Whether the session will be called depends on several contingencies.

Should the Court of Appeals invalidate the liquor control law, Kentucky would face the loss of a large amount of revenue from the manufacture and sale of liquor. If Congress enacts old age pensions, Kentucky might have to enact a supplementary law.

Man 1 1/2 Miles Away Gus 3000-Mile Call

The longest wire-bound telephone call in the world was made, even by telephone, when a call was made from a man who was 1 1/2 miles away from a telephone exchange to a man who was 3000 miles away from a telephone exchange.

It seems that about a mile and a half from the Point Hayes radio telephone station, near San Francisco, Cal., the receiving point to connect the Mayfield-Hawaii radio telephone circuit to the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company line, there is a small hut for making tests in this cabin a telephone engineer works with an Assortment of testing instruments to check radio signals across the Pacific in order to learn more about atmospheric and magnetic conditions for the benefit of radiotelephone transmissions.

For a while after the engineer occupied the cabin, there was no telephone line between the cabin and the receiving station. One day this engineer was in touch by telephone with Honolulu, and the Point Hayes station a mile and a half away was also in touch with Honolulu by telephone. The station had a long distance telephone call for the engineer in the cabin, and requested Honolulu to tell him so. In about half an hour the engineer arrived at the station, in response to a request that had travelled 6,000 miles.

COMMENTS

While taking with a city official the other day, some good suggestions for regulating traffic conditions in Fulton were made by him. Fulton, due to the fact that its business district is congregated in a comparatively small area considering the number of business places, is short in parking space. So when the crowds pour into the city to do their shopping, traffic often becomes congested. This official suggested the following things might be done to aid in traffic control:

1. Installation of an automatic traffic light at the corner of Fourth and Fourth Extension, which goes under the viaduct. This would slow down traffic and keep it under better control in this area.
2. Make Commercial-av. a one-way street. This would permit parking on both sides of the street as it now being done, and facilitate the steady flow of traffic. When cars are parked on both sides of this street it is impossible for traffic to travel both ways at once.
3. Installation of an automatic traffic light at the new bridge, where Carr, Lake and State Line streets intersect. Since this street has been widened at this point, several accidents have occurred because of too swift approach to this intersection, with no right of way designated.

Raymond Peoples was telling me about a "Believe It Or Not" item which he sent Robert Ripley some time back. Just when he had about forgotten about the incident, he received word this week that Fulton's own "believe it or not" will very likely appear in Ripley's famous cartoons soon. Mr. Peoples told Ripley that a person could live, go to a hospital, die and be taken to a funeral home, and from there to the church and cemetery—all in the same block here in Fulton—due to their peculiar and unusual location on Carr-st.

Thomas S. Rhos, Russellville, new chairman of the Kentucky Highway Commission, will definitely be a candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, close friends revealed this week. His potential opponents have been "sniping" at him by circulating reports that he did not intend actually to become a candidate. Their wish is the father of the thought, and many of them didn't even think so, seriously.

Kentucky for a corporation of its size, made a good financial showing in the calendar year of 1934. It ran into the "red" by exactly $18,399.10 according to figures supplied by J. Dan Talbot, State Auditor, if total cash on hand is deducted from total outstanding obligations at both the beginning and the ending of the year. During all of the year the state income suffered from reduction of the real estate tax from 30 cents to 5 cents a hundred, and during the last six months it received the benefit of the new three-cent sales tax. Comparisons on a six-month basis, from July 1, show the debt increased much more, because of the fact that normal revenues are received principally in the first six months of the year.

MAYFIELD MAN SUSTAINS CRITICAL INJURIES HERE

Claude Cummings of Mayfield severe injuries here Saturday night, when he was thrown or fell from an unidentified truck as it passed through Fulton. Cummings was found bleeding profusely, from a deep cut on his head, and taken to the city hall where first aid was given him. Several stitches were required to close the scalp wound, which was dangerous because of a severed artery. Mr. and Mrs. Will Cummings, parents of the young man, came for him. Cummings was unable to tell whether he fell or was thrown from the truck.

Gus Robbins Heads Press Association

A. Robbins, publisher of the Hickman Courier, and vice-president of the Kentucky Press Association, was elevated to the presidency at the closing session of the association's mid-term meeting at Louisville last Saturday. He succeeds George A. Joplin Jr., of Somerset.

John L. Crawford, editor of the Corbin Daily Tribune, was elected vice-president after having served a year as chairman of the executive committee. That post, which customarily leads to the presidency, was given by unanimous vote to J. F. Gozder of Campbell, J. Curtis Alcock, of the Danville Messenger, was re-elected secretary-treasurer for the 25th consecutive time.

Resolutions adopted at the closing session put the association on record as opposed to the proposed 30-hour week which it termed "an impractical impossibility" for weeklies and small dailies, and as opposing the "so-called Copeland law" which was declared to be substantially the same as the "repudiated and impractical Tugwell bill as an unconstitutional gag upon legitimate advertising in the food and drug industry in particular and all advertising in general." The Association, however, approved unbiased and intelligent efforts to eliminate unfair and unethical advertising.

The Kentucky Senators and Representatives in Congress were requested in another resolution to seek to have the Postoffice Department revoke its recent ruling as to the placing of unaddressed mail and literature in rural and local letter boxes.

BOARD OF EDUCATION MONDAY NIGHT MET

In its first meeting this year, the Fulton Board of Education Monday night, installed new members of the board, Smith Atkins, Guy Daly and Hoyt Moore. R. E. Goldsby, Gus Bard and R. H. Wade, were the hold-overs of the board. R. H. Wade was chosen again as chairman, and R. E. Goldsby, vice chairman. Mrs. Ethel Butterworth is secretary.

Due to the fact that 28 additional children entered the primary grade at Carr Institute this week, Supt. Lewis expressed the need for another teacher, and the board hired Miss Roberts Puckett.

The board passed a resolution not to hire married women as teachers. Those already married will not be affected by the new ruling, and any teacher marrying before the end of the present term will be retained until the end of the year.

Use of the gymnasium was granted to boys outside school wishing to use it for games, provided rental is paid in advance. The relief office will be allowed use of sewing machines for use in the comforter project.

PRESIDENT'S BALL HERE NEXT MONDAY NIGHT

Plans for the President's Ball to be staged here Monday night, Jan. 28 at the Elks Club Rooms, have been completed and the chairman of the arrangement committee says this will be on of the most entertaining balls given in this section. A large crowd of Fulton's younger set and many of the surrounding towns are expected to attend.

Advance sale of tickets will be stopped Monday at noon. They are on sale now at $1.25 per couple. After that time tickets will be sold at $1.50 per couple. All lady spectators unaccompanied by a gentleman, will be charged 50c.

AUTO ACCIDENT PUTS TWO IN HOSPITAL

Near the hour of ten o'clock Sunday, a truck and an automobile collided on the Mayfield highway, just this side of Water Veley. Ernest Berger of Paducah sustained a broken rib. Miss Boyd, another occupant of the car, suffered painful scalp wounds. Both were brought to Fulton hospitals for treatment.

INDUSTRIAL MURDER

It is but little less than industrial murder for the states and federal government to confine their railroad activities by bounds and rules; to fix their financial incomes at the lowest possible rates and then having them securely shackled, permit their competitors to operate practically tax free over highways built and maintained with public tax money and thus hold them up and permit rivals to go through their pockets. As long as this continues, just so long will millions of our citizens feel the depressing result of their inability to absorb their share of the nation's commodities.

One might think from the above that the writer of this column was a floated bondholder with his pockets filled with rail shares, but he never owned one in his life. The point, however, is that we have carried this "soak the railroad" hokey to a dangerous point, and that its reaction is now being felt by all people in all walks of life. It is time, and past time, to stop it. Whether we like railroads and railroad stockholders or not, we must learn that crippling one of the chief industries of the country creates a factor in depression, retards recovery and that the result touches every one of us. (Creston, Iowa, Advertiser.)

It is called Alka-Seltzer because it makes a sparkling alkaline drink, and as it contains an analgesic (Acetyl-Salicylate) it first relieves the pain of everyday ailments and then by restoring the alkaline balance corrects the cause when due to excess acid.

After trying many brands of medicines—so-called relief for gas and all of them a failure, I gave up hope. By chance I tried Alka-Seltzer—I am more than satisfied. Geo. Bennett, New York, N. Y.

COMMUNITY SPIRIT

Every civic club, official organization and individual citizen in Fulton is instrumental in private and community progress of our city. Every step you as an individual take has a definite tendency to either improve or retard the growth of the community. There is no middle road—you are either helping to build your community, or you are holding it back.

A community is nothing more than a group of people gathered into a community of neighbors and friends for the mutual good of one and all.

This community—like any other—needs the guiding hand and integrity of public-spirited leaders and the support of loyal followers with a vision for the future.

Our city officials, various churches, schools and civic clubs are vital and integral parts of the community. The efforts of these groups toward uplift and progress of our community must be carefully directed in order to make our community a better and finer place in which to live. Intelligent action promotes a finer feeling of fellowship among all the people, and encourages great civic pride. Naturally this works toward closer unity and co-operation between all classes for the benefit of one and all.

THE NEWS has endeavored to foster general civic progress, and held to the policy that community salvation rests in honest, intelligent administration of government, with partially nor oppression of none.

TOO MUCH GOVERNMENT

In these times of decreased incomes and revenue, with taxes steadily increasing, we have entirely too much governmental interference for the common good of all. The rights and privileges of our people are becoming fewer and fewer under the sway of great and small political machines, which are sucking the life-blood of the great American public.

The voice of the people of Kentucky is being heard in regard to election of candidate for state offices by a primary election rather than by a convention. It is right that the people should have something to say about how they are governed, and what those whom they select to represent them do when they get in office. The press can do much to keep before the people what their officials are doing, for the public good or disadvantage.

PALESTINE HOME-MAKERS HELD MONTHLY MEETING

On Friday afternoon the Palestine Home-makers Club held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Leslie Nugent. Because of sickness and rainy weather the attendance was unusually small, there being only fourteen members and one visitor present. Mrs. Aba Thompson, Home Agent, was present and talked on supervision of reading and selection of books for children from pre-school age up to twelve years. Mrs. Leslie Nugent led the discussion in the food project lesson, which is proving to be more interesting all the time and of great benefit to club members and their families.

Mrs. Clyde Burnette, program conductor, was absent on account of being ill and Mrs. Gus Browder filled her place. At the close of the meeting the hostess passed a tray heaped with apples, bananas and grapes, carrying out the idea in one of the lessons we learned, that more fruit is conducive to good health.

Two members of the club, Mrs. A. M. Browder and Mrs. Bertie Wade, will attend the Farm and Home convention, which met in Lexington, Jan. 22 to Jan. 25, inclusive.

EXPOSITION VISITORS GUESSED TOO HIGH

Makers of 2,000 Souvenir Long Distance Calls Overestimated Rates to Places They Called

About 25,000 visitors to the Bell System exhibit at the Century of Progress Exposition in Chicago took advantage of the opportunity to make souvenir long distance calls to friends and relatives in other cities. Showed Modern Telephone Service.

The purpose of showing these souvenir calls was to demonstrate the clarity of transmission and the ease and speed with which long distance calls can be made. Bell System officials also obtained some very interesting information about how much—or how little, really—the public at large knows about long distance telephone service in this country.

It was found that most people had little idea of what it actually costs to make a long distance telephone call. Interviews with about 2,000 persons making applications for the souvenir calls revealed the fact that only about one-third of them knew what the actual rates were to the places they were calling. The others were asked to guess.

Three-Fourths Were Too High

About 75 per cent of the guesses were higher than the actual rate, and about 30 per cent of them were at least twice as high. The average guess was 74 per cent higher than the actual rate. These figures illustrate the fact that the public believes long distance rates to be higher than they really are.

Although most people seemed to know that the rate for station-to-station calls was lower at night than during the day, the amount of the reduction did not appear to be generally appreciated. The guess on the night rates was, on the average, that they were 25 per cent lower than the day rates. The actual reduction in most station-to-station rates at night is about 50 per cent.

One or two sandwiches, fruit and a cookie or plain cake sound good and can be made so, too.

Vary the kind of bread used in making sandwiches, as whole wheat or a slice of white and one of brown combined with a sandwich filling. Below are some suggestions for sandwich fillings:

Peanut butter thinned with milk or cream mixed with raisins or chopped carrots; chopped meat with shredded cabbage moistened with salad dressing; jelly; hard cooked eggs moistened with salad dressing and shredded cabbage.

Below is a tasty, quick brown bread.

3 cups of whole wheat flour, 1-2 cup white flour, 1-2 cup molasses, 1-2 cup brown or white sugar, one teaspoon soda, one teaspoon salt, 1 cup sweet milk, 1 cup sour milk. Sift white flour, soda and salt. Mix dry ingredients and add liquid ingredients. Bake 1 hour and 15 minutes, depending on the thickness of the loaf, in a moderate oven. Nut or raisins or both may be added.

WEST KENTUCKY AWAITS PROGRESS ON AURORA DAM

Contradictory reports are being heard throughout this section on the construction of the proposed Aurora Dam. Some statements indicate that the Aurora dam project has been shelved for the present, while others declare that work on the construction of the dam will start some time this year.

Congressman Gregory told officials of the Lower Tennessee Valley Association last Friday, that he had no knowledge whatever of any contemplated delay in construction of Aurora Dam, while the Paducah Chamber of Commerce states, "on good authority," that the dam will not be started for two years.

Senator Alben W. Barkley is quoted as saying President Roosevelt intended to start the Aurora dam this year.

Aurora dam petitions are being circulated in a house-to-house campaign through every county throughout West Kentucky. These petitions will be presented to President Roosevelt.

ABCESS OF THE MIDDLE EAR
Obcess of the middle ear or "Rising in the head" is of frequent occurrence. It is a very painful condition, and at times a serious menace to life. Occurs in all races and ages most frequently in children. It is the forerunner of chronic discharging ears, deafness and often meningitis.

Like the common cold, this condition is usually not taken seriously by the masses, treatment is inadequate and dire results ensue rendering the victim seriously handicapped the remainder of his life. Abscess of the middle ear usually follows the common cold. The infecting germs, gaining access to the middle ear through a tube which connects the throat with the middle ear. The infecting germs produce an inflammation in the middle ear, resulting in abscess formation.

The symptoms are fullness of the ear on the affected side, some followed by acute pain in the ear. Soon the ear is tender to the touch. Most cases have a rise of temperature with chilly sensations. This condition usually lasts for a few hours or a few days, when the drum membrane bulges, it should be opened and not allowed to rupture of its own accord. After the ear begins to drain it should be constantly under treatment until the discharge has definitely arrested. Children with chronic discharging ears should be properly examined and treated and not allowed to just drift along with the trouble because they do not constantly complain. By so doing many cases of chronic deafness would be obliterated.

ADS. WILL TELL BANKERS' STORY

American Bankers Association President Announces Move to Stimulate Newspaper Advertising

NEW YORK.—Plans for stimulating wider use of informative newspaper advertising by banks in promoting public understanding and confidence in regard to existing banking conditions and methods have been announced by R. S. Hecht, president of the American Bankers Association, as a part of the organization's activities in aid of business recovery.

A general groundwork was prepared through a nationwide survey of advertising by banks relative to their willingness to extend profitable loans to industry and trade. This, he said, revealed that a large number in all parts of the country are pursuing aggressive policies along this line and encourage their customers to develop forward looking business plans. "It is our aim to aid in fostering this constructive attitude wherever possible," he said.

The Theme of New Advertising

The association's Advertising Department, under the direct supervision of the general executive officers, has prepared, at the headquarters in New York City, an informative advertising series for the use of member banks in the association to aid them in developing their own communities better general public understanding regarding banking, Mr. Hecht said.

The underlying theme of this advertising is that sound banking is based on helpful human relations and that it has a duty of interest with the people of its community which binds them together with a common purpose," he said.

"We are confident that if a clear understanding of this is brought home to the people in all our banking communities, it will go far in restoring the public confidence which good banking deserves. A bank in which people do not feel secure is doubly safe, it is to the public interest for the people to have confidence in their banks."

The Place of Advertising

"We feel that bank advertising has a special public duty to perform in this connection under existing conditions. The copy which will be supplied in the service we have developed will not only aid the individual bank in promoting the use of its own facilities but is also aimed to bring about with the aid of newspaper advertising a clearer public viewpoint regarding the essential part it occupies in the life of the community."

Mr. Hecht emphasized in regard to the new advertising facilities being offered to the members of the association that they are not a profit making venture and that there is no intention to disturb existing advertising arrangements, the idea being that these institutional services shall supplement rather than replace present plans, or that they will give assistance to member banks now lacking satisfactory arrangements.

MANY BANKS LONG LIVED

In the United States—

163 Banks over 100 years old
2,472 Banks over 50 years old
19,391 Banks over 25 years old

There are in the United States 163 banks that have been in continuous existence for more than one hundred years. There are 2,472 banks over fifty years old, while 64% of all the banks in this country, or 19,391, are twenty-five years old or older.

In other words, practically two-thirds of the banks in this country have come through several successive periods of depression and panic, including 1897, 1914, 1929 and 1933-34.

The Oldest Bank

The oldest bank in the country, which is in Boston, was chartered February 17, 1794.

In the 64% of banks that are twenty-five years old or older is lodged a major portion of the banking resources of the nation. In commenting recently upon the stability of a great majority of the banks in the United States, Dr. Harold Steiner, Educational Director of the American Bankers Association, said:

"The fact that we have so many banks that have been in existence a long period of years is an eloquent tribute to the genius of American management ability, for no other country has experienced such wild gambling eras and resultant periods of business stagnation as those through which our country has passed at frequent intervals during the past century."

NEW WEALTH FROM SOIL

New wealth which comes from the soil is of special interest to those to whom falls the responsibility of maintaining our credit structure.

Unless agriculture is successful farm borrowers cannot ultimately succeed neither can the banks they serve. For closure sales are not a sound basis for good farming or good banking. Bankers, therefore, are as much interested in the permanent success of the agricultural industry as are the farmer, whether the deposits come direct

PLACE OF HONOR WON BY SCARLET WOMAN

The part played by a scarlet woman in the fall of Jericho is particularly interesting because of the honorable place she achieved later in the race of Israel.

Before ever Joshua and his army crossed the Jordan, they sent spies west to Jericho to survey the situation. The spies stopped at Rahab's ill-famed house. Their presence in the city was almost immediately discovered, and the king sent to Rahab for them. She quickly hid them under some flaxstalks on her roof, and when the king's messengers came, she told them, "Oh, yes—those two. Yes, I guess I know who you mean. They came here, but I didn't know where they were from. They left her just about dark. If you hurry, probably you can catch them."

Rahab was frankly terrified at the thought of the Israelite invasion. "I know that your Lord has promised you our land," she told the two spies. "Everybody here is desperately afraid. We have heard how you crossed the Red Sea. We have heard of the cities and kings you have destroyed. Your God is certainly a mighty God, in heaven above and in earth below."

"Now please, I beg of you—I have been kind to you, have I not?" she kind to me when you come back. Promise me safety for me and my family, and I will help you escape."

The spies promised to "deal kindly and truly" with her, and she did help them to escape.

When Jericho was razed, the promise of the spies was kept.

She and her family were brought into Joshua's camp, and she remained with the Israelites and indeed virtually became one of them, for she became the famous Ruth, second mother-in-law, and a great-grandmother of David. It may be assumed she married Salmon, for she and Salmon were the parents of Boaz, who married Ruth. Ruth gave birth to Obed, the father of Jesse, the father of David. Through this line, Rahab was a direct ancestress of Joseph, the husband of Mary, the mother of Christ.

POLITICS WARM UP AS "BIG FIVE" ANNOUNCE FOR GOVERNOR'S CHAIR

An early decision on whether the Democratic Party shall nominate its candidates for state office by primary election or by convention was assured this week when Bailey P. Wootton, Attorney General, State Chairman, called the Democratic State Central Executive Committee to meet in Frankfort, January 28.

Discretion to determine the manner of making nomination is vested by state law in the committee. Early decision was urged because the primary or convention issue was threatening to split the party. On both sides of this issue are many who are remembering there will be other issues to be presented to the voters.

A decision also has been sought to clear the arena for the intra-party campaign. Potential candidates for the Governorship and other state offices await the action of the committee. General Wootton is one of those who has said, privately, he would not announce his Governorship aspirations until after the committee has acted.

Thomas S. Rhea, Russellville, the Chairman of the State Highway Commission; Frederick A. Wallis, Paris, and probably J. C. Beckham, of Bardonia and Louisville, are expected to announce their candidacies soon. James H. Richmond, State Superintendent of Public Instruction already has said he would run. These are the "big five" in Democratic ranks, but there are other potential candidates.

CROSBY AND CARLISLE TEAM MAKES RETURN OF FILM ROMANCERS

For the first time in Bing Crosby's meteoric film career, Paramount's popular crooner-comedian appears with the same leading lady in two pictures, thus beginning the career of another of Hollywood's famous romantic teams. Crosby, in his new aramont picture, "Here Is My Heart," coming Sunday to the Orpheum theatre for two days, is again featured with Kitty Carlisle, who first appeared opposite him in the leading roles of "She Loves Me Not."

Heretofore, Crosby has carefully avoided working with the same actress twice, but the work and the vocalizing of this team in th highly successful "She Loves Me Not" brought so much commendation that the studio has cast them together again in "Here Is My Heart" in the hope that they will repeat that performance.

Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne formed screencom's first great starring team, but in modern times it was Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell who brought the idea back to popularity in "Seventh Heaven." Teams sprang up in all studios.

There have been innumerable comedy teams such as George Burns and Gracie Allen, Charlie Ruggles and Mary Boland, and Wallace Beery and the late Marie Dressler. Directed by Frank Tuttle, "Here

Is My Heart," features a brace of new songs by Robin and Ringer, including "With Every Breath I Take" and "June in January." Allison Skpworth, Roland Young and Reginald Owen are featured in the supporting cast.

The story, adapted from the amusing play by Alfred Savoir, is that of the millionaire crooner who discovered that his money couldn't buy the affections of a Russian princess. So he disguised himself as a waiter and between the courses of caviar and soup, crooned love ballads to his lady-love with finely succumbed.

Mrs. Cronwell Altmack Jr. formerly Mary Croft, left last week end for Anchorage, Ky., to join her husband who is employed there.

GOODMAN TELLS EDITORS RELIEF WORK IN STATE WILL BE INCREASED

George H. Goodman, federal relief director for Kentucky, addressing a business session of the Kentucky Press Association, said there would be a "great increase" in work relief in Kentucky this summer if Kentucky co-operates "in the way Washington wants us to co-operate."

Goodman said federal relief authorities are "not satisfied" with the extent to which Kentucky has shared the relief burden. He said the federal government has contributed $48,487,529 to Kentucky relief; counties and municipalities have put in $2,743,873 but the state government has provided only $1,535,041. He termed the county and city figure "very satisfactory indeed."

Kentucky's unemployed on January 5 included 76,965 employable men, 10,548 employable women, 10,050 unemployable men and 4,387 unemployable women Goodman said. He added that 38,629 men and 4,387 women are now on relief rolls. Seventy persons are on work relief for each 30 on direct relief, Goodman added.

livestock, homemaking and general agriculture. The Agricultural Adjustment program was reviewed during the week, both as it affects the state and the nation.

Kikkland, Assistant County Agent and a group of nine Homemakers left Monday morning, January 21 to attend the 23rd Annual Farm and Home Meeting of the Kentucky Federation of Homemakers which was held there on Wednesday, January 23 of this week. The group will return on Saturday, January 26.

Delegates attended were: Mrs. Gus Browder, Mrs. Allie Browder, Mrs. Chester Binkley, Mrs. Chas. Everett, Mrs. J. H. Lawrence, Mrs. C. V. Headlett, Mrs. Grover Wyatt, Mrs. Homer Barclay and Mrs. Roy Cromwell.

JUNIOR 4-H CLUBS WILL BEGIN YEAR'S WORK

Junior 4-H Clubs at Sylvan Shade Jordan, Cayce and Crutchfield met on Friday, January 18, with Mrs. Anna C. Thompson, Home Demonstration Agent and J. B. Williams, County Agricultural Agent and elected their officers for the year and named their projects. 65 girls enrolled for project in Foods, Clothing and Room Improvement and boys and girls enrolled for projects in poultry, livestock and crops.

Officers that were elected in the clubs are:

Jordan: James Garrison, president; Sara Wade, vice president; Lucille O'Connor, secretary; Florence Oliver, program conductor; Sylvan Shade: Jones Davis, president; Ruth Pollock, secretary; Anna Bella Green, program conductor; Crutchfield: Walton Stallins, president; Billie Williams, vice president; Pauline Waggoner, secretary; Dorothy McClanahan, program conductor; Cayce: Willard Goodwin, president; Glenn Knighton, vice president; Margaret Lawson, secretary; Margaret Henry, program conductor.

PROJECT ACTIVITIES BY HOMEMAKERS LAST YEAR

In connection with the minor project of Exterior Beautification of the home 139 Homemakers improved their porch by flower boxes, furniture or paint. Eighty-three Homemakers sowed flower seed to have blooms all season using 610 packages of seeds and 5295 bulbs and plants. The results were not as good as in previous years because of the droughts. 245 Homemakers cleaned up their premises to have a more attractive country home. 68 improved the lawn by walks, fences and drives. 218 shade trees and 1099 shrubs were planted.

Home Improvement—has not been studied as a major project during the year, but much work on this has been done. In addition to the demonstration house the women have worked on their home. 58 rooms have had their walls papered, painted or refinished, 34 rooms have new glass curtains and 20 with new drapery. 43 pictures have been rehanged to the proper wall space and 146 dust catchers, such as paper flowers have been removed. 66 pieces of old furniture have been refinished and 24 slip cover made. 71 old floors have been refinished and ten homemade rugs have been made.

Clothing and Millinery—This has also not been included on a major project, but special lessons on Clothing and Millinery Renovation have been included. 192 hats have been cleaned, blocked and remodeled as a result of this work, and 358 garments have been renovated. Homemakers have learned to select hats and dresses that are becoming and suitable for them.

Foods and Nutrition—Thirty-four new pressure cookers have been purchased by members to the Homemakers Clubs to be used for improved methods of canning and food preparations. This number added to the ones already owned by members brings the total to about 500 of the members in the county that own cookers.

Despite the drought and the poor gardens 20,497 quarts of vegetables were canned by Homemakers Clubs during the year. This was approximately 3,000 more than for three previous years. 12,559 quarts of fruits and 1,409 quarts of meat were also reported canned. The amount of meat canned was about three times the amount reported canned two years ago, which shows that farm families by canning meat are spreading out their season of fresh meat and not using it all at one time which has been a common practice. As a result the health of the family has been greatly improved.

Foods and Nutrition has been carried as a major project during the year. The projects have been Plain Patterns in Cooking, which included lessons on vegetables, meats, milk and cereal cookery. Pnd Keeping the Family Fit, which included a study of vitamins A B C D and G and Calcium, Phosphorus and Iron.

Moore made foods and less fried ones, more raw fruits and vegetables, less sugars with special emphasis on simple desserts, shorter cooking time for vegetables and use of more whole cereals have been stressed. 179 Homemakers have reported improving their method of food preparation as a result of the lessons.

A good Homemaker can now tell you what a deficiency of any of the vitamins may cause. The chief sources of it and the effect of heat upon the vitamins. They also know the use of minerals and their sources.

Recreation—Homemakers plan to have a good time as well as to learn and recreation has had its share of attention from the Homemakers. Sixteen Homemakers attended the District Camp in Graves County during the summer. Four delegates attended the Annual Farm and Home Convention in Lexington.

INDUSTRY IN THE MISSISSIPPI VALLEY

Increased industrial activity in the Mississippi Valley is indicated by the continued gain in industries along the Illinois Central System. L. A. Downs, president of the railroad, has announced that 150 new industries representing an investment of approximately $10,000,000 were established on the Illinois Central System during 1934, as compared to 112 in 1933 and 72 in 1932.

The fact that industrial locations are at present being sought by at least fifty prospects, promise that the steady growth of the last three years will continue during the coming year.

"The industrial development of the territory it serves is one of the major objectives of the Illinois Central System," Mr. Downs says. "Men schooled in matters of industrial as well as the entire Illinois Central organization, are prepared to advise with and assist new industries to locate along this railroad.

"The success which has marked these efforts is a tribute not only to the work that has been done by the Illinois Central System, but also to the many advantages, including the advantages of transportation, which the Mississippi Valley offers these concerns or industries that are seeking desirable locations."

DON'T BE MISLED

We're licensed Embalmers and Undertakers

I take this method of correcting a very damaging false report. It has been reported in town and rural sections that I am not allowed to do Embalming and Undertaking business in the State of Kentucky. I have my Embalmers and Undertakers License in Kentucky just like I have had for the past Eighteen Years.

The reason we moved to Tennessee was so we could operate a Burial Association. Seventy-five percent of the Funeral Directors in Tennessee operate a burial association of some kind.

The name of our Burial Association is The—

LOWE'S BURIAL ASSOCIATION

OF SOUTH FULTON, TENN. You can make application for a certificate at LOWE'S FUNERAL HOME, 407 East State Street. You can carry up to $100 benefit for a very small amount of money. Our assessments and benefits are:

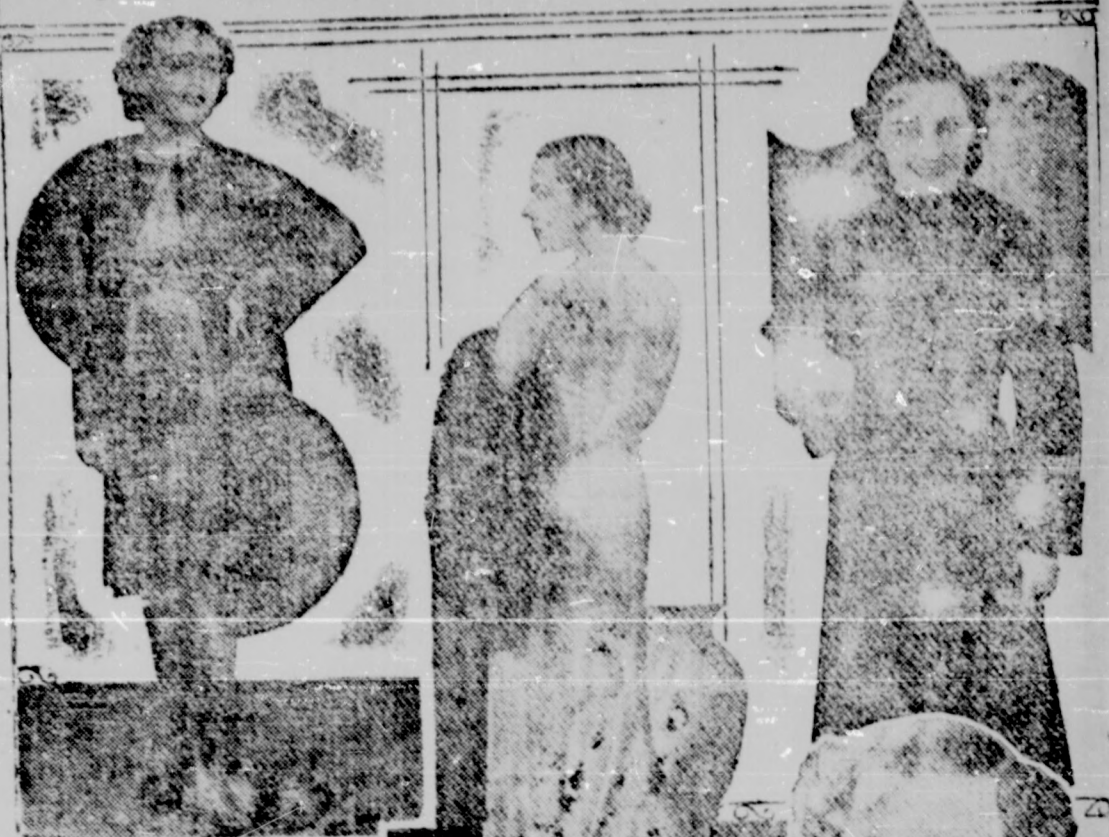

From 2 Weeks to 5 Year Old, Membership Fee 5c, Monthly Assessment 5c; Burial Benefit $40.00
From 5 Years Old to 10 Years Old, Membership Fee 10c, Monthly Assessment 10c; Burial Benefit $80.00
From 10 Years Old to 15 Years Old, Membership Fee 10c, Monthly Assessment 10c; Burial Benefit $85.00
From 15 Years Old to 60 Years Old, Membership Fee 15c, Monthly Assessment 15c; Burial Benefit $100.00
From 60 Years Old to 75 Years Old, Membership Fee 20c, Monthly Assessment 20c; Burial Benefit $100.00
From 75 Years Old to 80 Years Old, Membership Fee 25c, Monthly Assessment 25c; Burial Benefit $100.00

Anyone can make these small monthly payments, and it will reduce your burdens a great deal when sorry comes into your home. We don't have the space here to fully explain all of the details but will gladly explain to any one any question that they may ask. There is not any use of any one saying it cannot be done—

There are thousands of Burial Associations in operation, and the plan is operating successfully and satisfactorily.

Meet the Best-Dressed Singer in America!

By Alice Blake

THE recent selection of Gladys Swarthout, glamorous singing star of radio's Beauty Box Theater, as the best-dressed singer in America, brings to light the fact that Miss Swarthout is to a great degree dictator of her own wardrobe. She has two rules: elegance for evening, dash and originality for daytime. Her likes and dislikes are definite and her designers follow the cue.

Her taste for elegance in fabrics led to the creation of a tea gown in a Fortuny fabric that dates in color and line to the Renaissance. Her love of lavish furs resulted in the beautifully matched sable wrap, with a spray of perfect sable tails falling from her neck in front like a veil.

Dashing indeed she is when she arrives at rehearsal in a black car-

cul coat with a wide red leather belt held together by an amusing clasp—a mask, if you please. The hat she wears with it is one of Schiaparelli's most engaging creations, with a tower of a point and two long ties that hold it to the head.

Elegant "At Mike" is the latest broadcast she again became elegant simplicity after in a champagne evening gown of pebbly crepe or something similar. She stands before the microphone the lines of her gown falling away from her figure into a fan-shaped train that accentuates her lovely back and the natural grace of her carriage.

Her coiffure is her own invention. After months of experimenting, she finally found the style that suited her best, and now she never deviates from it.

You're The Loser

WHEN you allow Headache, Neuralgia, Muscular, Rheumatic, Sciatic or Periodic Pain to keep you from work or pleasure. You can't go places and do things when you are suffering—and the work or good times won't wait for you.

Why allow Pain to rob you of Health, Friends, Happiness, Money?

I have been using Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills for thirty years. No matter what kind of pain I have, they stop it almost instantly. Never without them in the house.

Thousands have used them for twenty, thirty, forty years, and still find that nothing else relieves pain so promptly and effectively.

Why don't you try them? Once you know how pleasant they are to take, how quickly and effectively they relieve, you won't want to go back to disagreeable, slow acting medicine.

You too may find quick relief. Why wait forty minutes for relief when Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills will relieve you in ten to twenty minutes?

A chemist has analyzed I have never found anything that equaled Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills.

I never found anything that was so good to stop pain as Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. I have held many about them and I find they are all using them.

Mrs. Martha Lacy, Davenport, Iowa.

I have been using Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills for years. I keep them on hand all the time. I can scarcely recommend them for pain.

Miss Anna Seybold, 317 W. 2nd St., Dayton, Ohio.

Your Anti-Pain Pills have been a wonderful help to me. I have used them for three years and always keep them on hand.

Mrs. E. E. Jones, Lapworth, Idaho.

I have used quite a lot of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They are the pills to stop pain.
