Prominent Citizen Passes Away

REV. T. F. MOORE VICTIM OF PARALYTIC STROKE

In the passing of Rev. Thomas F. Moore, Baptist minister, business manager of the Fulton Daily Leader, and former editor and publisher of the Baptist Flag, Fulton and surrounding country keenly feel the loss of a good citizen, and the Baptists generally, a true and faithful servant in the Master's vineyard, where he had labored zealously and loyally for the past fifty years as a minister, holding pastorates of many churches in Tennessee, Kentucky, Arkansas and Texas, and active in the work with a pastorate at Riceville Baptist church when the final summons came. It was the pleasure of the writer to know this good man for many years, and we esteemed him very highly.

Rev. Moore suffered a stroke of paralysis Monday morning, July 26, and surrounded by his wife and four children, his spirit took its flight Friday afternoon at one o'clock and now his body rests in a crypt in the mausoleum at Fairview cemetery.

Funeral services were held at the home on Washington street, Saturday morning, conducted by the Rev. John R. Clark, pastor of Central Baptist church, Martin, Tenn. Dr. A. C. Boyd, rector of Trinity Episcopal church, offered prayer, and the Rev. J. V. Freeman, pastor of the First Methodist church, made a talk in which he paid a beautiful tribute to the memory of the deceased. "Rock of Ages," the Rev. Moore's favorite hymn, was sweetly sung by Messrs. H. A. Coulter, Will Whitnel, Raymond Benedict and Steve Wiley. The beautiful floral offerings attested the love and esteem in which the deceased was held. The pallbearers were Messrs. M. P. McDowell, S. A. McDade, R. S. Williams, V. H. Adams, Vodie Hardin, G. H. Osthoff.

Besides his widow, Mrs. Mattie Dinning Moore, the deceased is survived by four children, Robert T. and Hoyt Moore, of Fulton; Mrs. C. R. Wheeler and Thomas H. Moore, of Memphis.

The late Rev. Moore was born May 14, 1851, in Carroll county, Tenn. On December 1, 1875, was united in marriage to Miss Mattie Dinning, of his native county. He first came to Fulton in 1889, but did not locate here permanently until 1909, when he purchased the Baptist Flag of Mrs. J. N. Hall. In 1920 he and his associates in the Flag purchased the printing outfit and Daily Leader of the Fulton Publishing Company, of which he was manager at the time of his death.

BEAUTIFUL LAWNS AND FLOWER GARDENS

A spin over the city since the refreshing rains reflect many beautiful lawns and flower gardens and we doubt if home premises ever looked prettier than today. Vegetation has put on new life and blooming plants of all kinds are at their best. Rose gardens that had practically quit blooming now present a beautiful sight with their vari-colored blossoms and the lawns look like a green carpet in their richness of color.

BUSINESS CHANGE

Ben Howard, the well known Fourth street confectioner and Herschel Crutchfield, have purchased the grocery and meat market on Fourth street of Paul DeMyer and Mr. Otis French, the clever manager of the establishment, is now associated with Mr. DeMyer in his grocery and meat market on Commercial avenue.

JUDGE W. VORIS GREGORY
Wants to Succeed Congressman
Alben W. Barkley

Judge W. Voris Gregory's address Friday night at Carr's Park auditorium was a masterpiece. Judge Gregory, of Mayfield, is a candidate for Congress from the First District, subject to the action of the Democratic primary election to be held tomorrow, Saturday, August 7.

He is probably one of the best known lawyers in the First District and prominently identified with the political life of the commonwealth, having stumped the state for Barkley during his race for Governor. Possessed with a rare and unusual gift of speech, he has been called on time and again to address political gatherings, school commencements, religious assemblies and fraternal meetings. He is a man of keen intellect, a brilliant speaker and his address Friday night was an oratorical treat greatly enjoyed by all who heard it. His talk was filled with food for thought and action, and showed conclusively that he was well acquainted with national issues of today. Had he not been a man of extraordinary ability, Judge Gregory would have never been appointed during the last term of President Wilson as United States Attorney for the Western District of Kentucky. And just here it is not out of place to say that he was not an applicant for the position. Of course this appointment required him to move to Louisville, but during all the time he lived there, he held his citizenship in Mayfield and returned to his native county to vote.

Judge Gregory has held many offices of trust, with honor to himself and satisfaction to the people. But we dare say that none was filled with greater satisfaction than service he rendered during the time he was United States Attorney for the Western District of Kentucky. He was twice elected judge of Graves county, was superintendent of the city schools of Mayfield, and is now president of the board of trustees of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary in Kentucky, and is vice president of the Jefferson Davis Memorial. He is affiliated with the Masons, Odd Fellows, Elks, W. O. W., and other fraternities. All of these orders he has served in various capacities. No wonder he is a general favorite to succeed Congressman Alben W. Barkley, who is the Democratic nominee for U. S. Senate.

SAY, LISTEN!

I am putting one of the best things on the market that has ever been offered in Fulton. My entire plant, consisting of all tools, stock, motors, machinery, etc. All in first class condition. Also the building, 60x90 feet. This plant is well worth $5,000, but $3,500 gets the plum for quick sale.

Old Resident Of Dukedom Vicinity Dead

WILL ROBERTS VICTIM OF HEART FAILURE

Mr. Will Roberts, 64 years of age, highly esteemed citizen of the Dukedom vicinity, dropped dead near his home, Saturday morning, July 31. Mr. Roberts left home and was en route to Fulton when he got out of his buggy to fix the harness on his horse, and while doing this, became suddenly sick, suffered a heart attack which proved fatal. Horace Holt happened along while Mr. Roberts was fixing the harness and was assisting him when he dropped over dead. Mr. W. R. Slack reached the scene with others shortly afterwards.

The deceased was born and reared in the Dukedom vicinity and was well known by a large acquaintance. He is survived by five children, Mrs. Bolivar Hawks, Mrs. Cecil Hewitt, Mrs. Calvin Fifer, Mrs. Geo. King and Mrs. Wes Brooks.

Funeral services were held Sunday with burial at Good Springs cemetery.

To the Democratic Voters of the First Congressional District:

Although no one has been able to point to any act in my past life, either as a public servant or as a private citizen, which raises any question as to my desirability as a Congressman, a desperate effort has been made to mislead the public as to my views upon prohibition.

In this final word to you, I desire to advise you that I am in hearty sympathy with the present prohibition laws, and will vote for no measure which will weaken them or destroy their effectiveness. On the other hand, I am in favor of strengthening them.

I believe I am fitted by training and experience to make you a good representative in Congress, and I know that I am in accord with the highest aspirations and the noblest ideals of the people of this district. I promise to do what I can to relieve the distressing situation now prevailing among farmers and to do all other things for the betterment of the people of the First District.

I want to thank you for the cordial manner in which I have been received throughout the district and to say to you that I will greatly appreciate any support or influence which you may see fit to give me in the election next Saturday.

Cordially yours,
W. VORIS GREGORY

REV. SOWELL VISITS HOME FOLKS

Rev. Ollie J. Sowell, who has been visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity, returned to his home in Oklahoma, Wednesday. Rev. Sowell filled the pulpit at the First Christian church here, Sunday, where he was formerly pastor, and was greeted by a good audience, composed of members of the church and admirers of the young minister. He delivered a wonderful message which was greatly enjoyed by those in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Sowell are located at Phillips University, Enid, Oklahoma, where Rev. Sowell is completing his education. He tells us that he and Mrs. Sowell will take their degrees the closing of the coming term. Mrs. Sowell is now engaged as teacher in the summer term of school.

ROAD CONTRACT LET

Judge C. D. Nugent, who returned from Frankfort, accompanied by the members of the Fiscal court, informs us that two more road contracts were awarded. The road from Cayce to Fulton, federal aid road 130A, was let to W. F. Robertson at $2.59 a yard. The road from Cayce to Hickman, 130B, was obtained by N. E. Stone & Co., the same firm that got the contract for the road from Hickman to the Tennessee state line. Their bid was $2.25 a yard. The estimated cost of the road from Cayce to Hickman is $53,000 and from Cayce to Fulton $101,500. It is expected work will begin on these projects soon.

Electrical Storm Visits Fulton

RAIN STORM SATURDAY NIGHT FLOODS MAIN STREET

The heavy rain of Saturday night caused considerable damage to stocks and buildings on Main street, the water entering every store on the north side between the City Hall and the railway track.

The storm started shortly after 7:00 o'clock and within twenty minutes the water had risen to the point that it was entering the doorways of all the above stores. The water backed up from the manhole in front of Cannon's fruit store, almost to the door of the Owl drug store, and was running in to Fall & Fall's office, Huddleston's, the Chamber of Commerce, the Elite, Legg's barber shop and the fruit store.

As soon as the water began to rise Legg closed his front door and stuffed towels under it, preventing the water from entering to any extent, but all the other places could only sweep it back as fast as possible.

Arch Huddleston says that it is the first time that the water has reached to his store room across the street from the main store, but it got in there to a considerable extent. In the Chamber of Commerce the water was deep enough to float one of the cuspidors two or three feet from its original site. On the hill, the water entered the rear of Butt & Hardin wholesale house and did some three or four hundred dollars damage.

The electric storm put out most of the lights in West Fulton and the street lights in East Fulton and many of the resident circuits as well. A few thoughtful people whose lights still burned, lit their porch lights and thus helped dispel the darkness and assisted beleaguered pedestrians to keep on the sidewalks.

Employees of the light company did their best to restore the service but it was too late to be of much benefit to many.

One thing was thoroughly demonstrated, and that was that the cleaning of Harris Fork by the special committee of the Chamber of Commerce was well done, as the water did no damage on Lake street and adjacent property, all the water being cared for completely.

The cause of the trouble on Main street was due to the storm sewer not being of sufficient capacity to carry off the great amount of water coming down the hill to this sole outlet.

LAYING STEEL ON I. C. CUT-OFF

The Dominion Construction Company is now busily engaged in laying steel on the Fulton-Edgewood cut-off the I. C. out of Fulton, having completed more than thirty miles out of Edgewood. Contracts for construction of additional yards at Fulton have not been let, but we understand are under consideration.

JUDGE GREGORY'S INSINCERITY

(Paducah News-Democrat)

Certain gentlemen in Paducah have said that they are for Judge Gregory for Congress because they regard him as better qualified for the position than State Senator Ferguson and not because of his attitude toward prohibition, which Judge Gregory says is strictly dry. The News-Democrat does not doubt the sincerity of the statement, but the fact remains that former Congressman Wheeler has not denied that he told Mr. Ferguson that he liked him personally and would like to support him, but that if a man came out for modification of prohibition, he would support him. That also is a position which Mr. Wheeler has every right to assume and which The News-Democrat respects.

The News-Democrat does not think Judge Gregory is as well qualified as Senator Ferguson, and is opposed to his nomination, not because he is for or against modification of prohibition, but because of the insincerity of his position on this question and others which have been raised in the campaign as well as for the altogether insincere and irregular aspect of his participation in the campaign at all. We also oppose him, because he has aligned himself in Paducah with the Graham faction, which is not only a corrupt influence in local politics, but which apparently is part of that element in state politics at the head of which stands the Jockey Club, which is notorious for the debauchery of politicians of both parties for the protection of its gambling privilege.

There is nothing sanctimonious in this attitude. The News-Democrat is liberal in its views, but it is for free government and opposed, with all the vehemence of which it is capable, to the exploitation of government by ring politicians, local, state or national. We want the people to rule and we want them to get a square deal. We want the men whom they elect to office to serve their interests and none other.

After having purchased a handsome residence in Louisville and established a law partnership with former U. S. Senator Stanley, Judge Gregory, seeing the First District congressional field suddenly open, bethought himself of his former residence in Mayfield, and decided to come down here and let the District send him to Congress. The News-Democrat doesn't believe that Judge Gregory would ever have thought of giving up his law practice in Louisville, had not what appeared to him an easy way to go to Congress presented itself. We do not believe that he intends, if defeated—as we are confident he will be—to return to Graves county to live. His return to the First District to make this race was altogether a matter of opportunism and gall. Judge Gregory simply thought he could "put it over" and he had the brass to try. That he thought he could get away with it, evidences a contempt for the intelligence of the voters of the First District which The News-Democrat resents; and which we believe is resented by a majority of the voters themselves, including those of Graves county. The people of Graves county are loyal to their own, they are a people who exemplify all the fine traits that distinguish the citizenship of Kentucky, but they are not the sort of people an ambitious politician can hoodwink. The News-Democrat does not doubt that a great majority of the people of Graves county are conscious of the fact that though Judge Gregory may have retained a tenuous sort of citizenship by voting in the county, it was unethical for him to claim the right to represent this District in Congress. The News-Democrat counts as one of its most precious assets the thousands of friends it has in Graves county, and nothing would give it more pleasure than to see a Graves countian represent the District in Congress. But we know that Graves county could not take pride in securing this representation under false pretenses.

Judge Gregory says, with reference to his attitude on prohibition, that he is dry personally and every other way. He says that the only way he wants the prohibition laws modified is to provide more severe penalties for "big offenders." But he says he wants this done, because "the individual who carries a pint for his own use" is too severely punished in contrast with the penalty that is meted out to the big offender. That is obviously a sop thrown to the Graham element in Paducah, to persons all over the district, who might not like a prohibition reformer. That is insincerity, and The News-Democrat does not like insincerity. We have no quarrel with a man who is honestly dry as a bone, but we do object to the dry who tries to straddle the issue.

This is not the only demagoguery of which Judge Gregory has been guilty in his debate with Senator Ferguson. He talks about attacking the high protective tariff "when he goes to Washington," so as to put the tobacco of this section on the markets of the world, when he knows very well that the tariff has nothing to do with the marketing of dark tobacco; that dark tobacco is exported, not imported, and that the only tariff which effects it is the British and other foreign tariffs. If he were running for the British House of Commons and not the Congress of the United States, there might be some excuse for this promise. But who knows, he may be planning to go to England and stand for a seat in the Commons? We believe he's got the nerve to do it.

The attack on Senator Ferguson for his vote on the egg candling law is another piece of petty demagoguery. It was a measure introduced by the State Board of Health to prevent the foisting upon the public of spoiled eggs. Judge Gregory has a very low opinion of the people of this district if he thinks they condone the marketing of rotten eggs for good ones. The law is of a kind with the great national pure food laws, which have meant so much to the well-being of the people. This District is not going to turn against Senator Ferguson because he has a prejudice against rotten eggs. What decent citizen hasn't?—Political Advertisement.

CLEARING THE LOT FOR METHODIST CHURCH BUILDING

The old Lewis tobacco barn, corner Carr and Second streets, is being razed preparatory to clearing the ground for the handsome Methodist church edifice. This is one of the most desirable properties in the city for a church building. When completed, nearly every church building in the city will be within one block of each other.

GYPSY TEA

Under the direction of Mrs. R. Q. Moss, her Sunday School class put on a very pretty and enjoyable Gypsy Tea, Friday evening on the South Fulton school campus, in honor of Mrs. W. G. Hay, and children, of St. Louis. About sixty children and grown-ups, members of the Baptist Sunday school, were present and partook of the wholesome eats, cold drinks and ice cream. It proved a most enjoyable occasion, made possible by the painstaking efforts of Mrs. Moss, who knows just how to put on an event of the kind to a decided success.

Senour's FLOOR PAINT

"It Penetrates"

IN the word "penetration," is a secret manufacturing process that has made Senour's Floor Paint a popular favorite for over 40 years.

If a floor paint does not penetrate or grip into the wood it will soon begin to crack, chip and peel.

Senour's Floor Paint dries over night with a high gloss enamel-like finish, but at the same time it sinks into the pores of the wood and forms a film that will withstand the hardest usage and will withstand repeated washings without dimming the lustre.

Every can of Senour's Floor Paint is guaranteed to give satisfaction if directions printed on the can are followed or money back upon receipt of empty can.

VOITURE 789 OF THE HOMES 40 AND CHEVAUX 8, GIVES PROMENADE

Grand Chef De Gare Doolan Here from Louisville.

The Local Voiture of the 40 and 8 met in called Session July 30, and initiated five prisoners of war at the Lodge rooms on Lake street. Promptly at 4 p. m. the prisoners were led into the lodge room and turned over to Chief De Gare Butch DeMyer, who read the orders of the court martial to them and turned the prisoners over to the executing squad.

The prisoners were as follows: Sergt. George M. Dearing, U. S. Army Recruiting Officer, Fulton, Ky.; Kelly R. Lowe, Fulton, Gus Meecham, Fulton; J. M. Robbins, Fulton, and Laurell Brooks, Fulton, Ky. The executing squad marched the prisoners down Lake street, dressed in full dress, which happened to be women's dresses, and small hats, with a large sign on each prisoner, explaining that they were Poor Goofs. They were put promptly to work cleaning up the streets, and as traffic policemen. Some were put at the public fountain, dipping it dry with small tin cups, and sprinkling the water on the street. A citizen of Little Rock, Ark., promptly offered Sgt. Dearing a job as traffic cop in his fair city, after watching him direct the traffic a while. After thoroughly cleaning the streets of Fulton, Gang Boss and Whipping Boss, Alford and Brick Stone ordered Prisoners Dearing and Robbins to carry some refuse and place it in front of Paul DeMyer's Meat Market. Mr. DeMyer saw that these two prisoners were about dead from starvation and called them over and presented them with a nice large barbecue sandwich. They immediately attacked the sandwiches from all sides, but their pleasures were short lived, as the whipping boss discovered them and ordered them to close confinement and delivered them over to the City Police department. All the prisoners started a mutiny and were locked up for impersonating women, wearing masks in public and every other charge except death, and were confined in the city pound for poor goofs.

Sgt. Dearing and quartette, Robbins, Kelly and Meecham rendered that world's most saddest song, the song of the prisoner, and it has been said that the song was so real that the bars and walls of the jail laid down and cried in sympathy of these poor goofs, allowing them to escape all punishment. The prisoners then went A. W. O. L., and charged on the Usona dining room with empty stomachs and partook of a genuine old fashioned chicken dinner. At this point, Grand Chef De Gare Doolan, from Louisville, appeared on the scene, and met all the prisoners and the rest of the A. E. F. forces, and ordered the prisoners to be escorted under guard down Lake street on a torchlight parade around the square, and into battle in the I. C. Ry. park. For a few moments the World war was again loosened in all its fury. After the battle and all that was left of the Goofs were picked up and carried into the lodge room. The Grand Chef De Gare of the local Voiture, took charge of the initiation, assisted by H. M. Patman, president of the American Legion Post, and all the whipping and gang bosses. The prisoners were carried again over the seas to far away France. After the journey was ended, the prisoners, who were declared 'Goofs' no more, were accepted back again as brothers in arms. After a course of refreshments and iced drinks, the Voiture was closed in order, and will again meet with other prisoners of war to pay homage before the shrine of their country and flag.

There was a good attendance of members, and the Voiture was glad to have Grand Chef De Gare Doolan with us, and hope that he will visit us again soon, and that there may be a larger bunch of prisoners to make the trip to France again.

PAY FOR RAILWAY CAPITAL

Railway patrons are getting more for their money nowadays. Railway service is better than it ever was before, and railway rates, by any fair standard of comparison, are far from high. It is true that rates amount to more in dollars and cents than they did ten or twelve years ago, but they have increased considerably less than the cost of living.

Here is an improved condition of undoubted benefit to those who use the railroads. The reason for it is the increased efficiency of the combination of men and money, of labor and capital, which produces railway service. More and better machinery is operated by skillful employees in more effective ways.

With approximately the same number of employees in 1925 as in 1913 and with shorter working hours, the railroads in 1925 performed nearly 40 per cent more freight and nearly 6 per cent more passenger transportation service than in 1913. One reason for the increased production of transportation per employee was the increased skill of the individual employee; another reason was the 45 per cent increase in the railway investment in the same period. Railway employees in 1925 had more and better tools of all kinds with which to work than they had in 1913.

The increased productiveness of railway employees has properly been rewarded by increases in wages exceeding the increase in the cost of living. The increased productiveness of the railway investment, however, has not been commensurately rewarded. The total amount set aside by the railroad in 1925 for interest and dividends—the wages of railway capital—was only 18 per cent greater than in 1913. To maintain their 1913 level in 1925, even with no allowance for the increase in the cost of living, the wages of railway capital should have increased 45 per cent, in accordance with the increased investment of the railroads.

Capital can no more be coerced into continued employment without adequate reward than labor can. Therefore, it is important to keep the wages of railway capital on a basis favorably comparable with the wages earned by capital in other lines of investment. The hope of railway expansion to meet the greater needs of the future lies in the ability of the railroads to attract a ready flow of capital, just as the future of railway employment lies in the ability of the railroads to pay favorable wages and to provide good working conditions for their employees.

In the final analysis, fair wages and working conditions must be provided for both capital and labor. There is no way to separate their interests and still produce railway transportation.

Constructive criticism and suggestions are invited.

NO PLACE FOR LOAFERS

Every necessity, convenience, comfort and luxury enjoyed by the comparatively favored few of the world who live in this country, stand for hard labor and applied thought of our immediate and remote predecessors.

The founders of this country were believers in the philosophy which says that man finds his greatest and most substantial pleasure in contemplation of work well done.

It was from this understanding of life that the nation drew its hardiness and vigor, and it is only by adhering to this conception that it can expect to preserve and develop those qualities which have made our nation great in the eyes of the world.

No age in all history, has contributed more to human progress and material welfare than our own and no nation has had a greater part in that contribution than ours.

Idling sons of industrious fathers represent the first step toward degeneration. Wealth is not an open sesame to a life of gentle ease. It is rather a badge of responsibility. The idea of the leisure class is foreign to our national ideals.

The youth of the land should be trained to look forward with eagerness to the day when they will be permitted to take up the tasks of their fathers. The country cannot tolerate laziness and laxness.

She has been active in the Democratic party for several years.

STORM SEWER FOR MAIN STREET

The City Council took steps on Monday night to relieve the danger of a repetition of the flood damage on Main street, by instructing its street committee to get an estimate of the cost of an additional storm sewer.

When the Mayor called the council meeting to order there was a number of the Main street business men present, and as soon as the roll had been called Mayor Shankle stated that the regular business of the meeting would be postponed and the business men present given an opportunity to present their case.

Mr. Arch Huddleston explained that the damage done by Saturday night's flood was considerable, particularly to his stock, and that as this condition seemed to be occurring more and more frequently, that it seemed that some means to prevent its recurrence should be provided.

A. M. Nugent, Ernest Fall, Walter Willingham and others explained what they thought should be done and a motion was carried to have the street committee of the council ascertain what would be the cost of putting in a new sewer from Main street down the railway track, past the Browder mill to the creek.

Mr. Sam Holt was present, and while he said he was not authorized to commit the railway to any action, he felt sure that there would be no difficulty in getting permission to run the sewer on railway property. He also said that a surveyor from his office would make an estimate of the cost of the work.

Mr. Walter Butt appealed to the Council for permission to dig a ditch in the rear of his store to allow the water to run off. He stated that the alley had been gradually built up with cinders and other material till it was higher than his floor and the water could not run away.

Paul DeMyer inquired about how much cinders there were and Butt said some three to five loads. Paul then remarked he could use the material on other streets, and suggested that permission be given Butt to dig the temporary ditch, to care for the overflow until the street gang could attend to the matter. As soon as the motion was carried, Butt remarked, "O, that's all right, I got the ditch dug already."

Ernest Fall, representing the school board, asked that the street department be authorized to use the steam roller to repair the street between the bridge and the Terry Norman school. The rains have washed the street badly, and Mr. Holt had donated the gravel required, but the property being out of W. Matthews and little daughter a motion of the Council to permit the work to be done. The motion was carried and Paul DeMyer promised to have the work done at once.

MEETING BOOKED FOR AUG. 12, POSTPONED TILL AUG. 31.

The meeting of farmers called for Thursday, August 12, for the purpose of making arrangements for a county agent for Fulton county, has been postponed until August 31, on account of the great amount of work done in the nearby counties.

Assistant State Agent E. J. Kilpatrick was in town on Saturday and stated that it would be impossible for him to keep the former date, as he would have to attend the inspection trip arranged in some of the eastern counties. The short course in poultry, which is mentioned in another column, has called in some of the other field agents to Lexington, so that the force is not large enough to cover all the places scheduled at the same time.

Mr. Kilpatrick stated that he was pleased with the enthusiasm shown by those to whom he had talked and felt sure when the meeting is held, the idea will be carried through energetically.

The local men in charge of the meeting will take advantage of the extended time to perfect plans and make the meeting a thoroughly representative one, and obtain the cooperation of every progressive farmer in Fulton county.

POULTRY LECTURES AND DEMONSTRATIONS

Secretary Stansbury of the Poultry Association is in receipt of a circular from the College of Agriculture at Lexington, Ky., announcing a Short Course in Poultry, starting August 9, and continuing till the 13th.

This is a week's course treating the practical problems involved in the care of the farm flock and every poultry raiser should avail himself of this opportunity to obtain the latest authentic information on poultry raising.

The course includes judging and breeding for exhibition, laboratory judging, proper rations, marketing eggs and poultry, incubation and brooding, and in fact, every phase of the business. All lectures and demonstrations are in the hands of expert members of the staff of the college and the five days course covers everything that a raiser should know.

Arrangements have been made to procure rooms and board for the attendants and the cost runs from a dollar a day for board to $2.50 to $5.00 per week for rooms. These can be obtained in the vicinity of the college so that there will be no lost time going and coming. The University cafeteria can provide meals at about a dollar per day.

Any further information will be cheerfully furnished by the secretary of the Fulton Poultry association.

Health and Home
PROPER FOOD FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN

The age during which children are attending school may aptly be called "The Dangerous Age." It is the period of rapid growth and every care should be taken to insure the child of a normal and healthy body. The idea of eating only fit and wholesome foods should be early impressed on the younger members of every family in order to protect them against later ill health and its accompanying unhappiness. If the utmost care is not taken in the diet that is used by children, cases of food poisoning, indigestion and kindred ailments may result.

And milk, being the chief item in the diets of most children, should be carefully guarded. It is, because of its nature, prone to infection if exposed to germs and may soon become unfit for use. Wherever there is the slightest reason for doubt as to its purity and food value, steps should be taken to insure the sterility and the fitness of milk intended for consumption by children. Many mothers have adopted the excellent practice of using milk that is absolutely pure and sterile and free from any germs or bacteria. The most satisfactory, as well as the safest milk used in preparing food for the growing child is evaporated milk.

It is sterile, and therefore safe. It is more digestible than market milk. Its uniformity, convenience and cost are qualities that commend it.

The following dishes are well suited to the needs of the growing child; they are easily digested and very nourishing:

- | | |
|--|------------------------------------|
| Caramel Custard. | |
| 1 cup evaporated milk diluted | 1/4 cup sugar (caramelized) |
| with | 2 tbsp. sugar |
| 1 cup water | 1/4 tsp. salt |
| 3 eggs | 1/4 tsp. vanilla |
| Soak the diluted milk. Caramelize the sugar and add to milk to dissolve. Beat eggs slightly, add sugar, salt, and flavoring and combine with scalded milk. Pour into custard cups and set in a pan of hot water and cook in a moderate oven. When done, a knife blade run in the center will come out clean. | |
| Fish Chowder. | |
| 1 pint raw fish cut in 1-inch dice | 3 cups boiling water |
| 6 small potatoes, sliced | 1 cup evaporated milk diluted with |
| 2 onions chopped fine | 1 cup water |
| 1/4 pound fat salt pork, sliced | 5 crackers |
| Fry out the salt pork. When brown, remove pieces of pork and put fish, potatoes, and onions in kettle. Cover with boiling water. Simmer until potatoes are tender. Add the milk and cook 5 minutes longer. Season with salt and pepper. Just before serving add the crackers. | |

ENGAGEMENT IS ANNOUNCED

"Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cruze, of Louisville, Kentucky, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Marie Elizabeth, to Mr. Herman Paul Workman, of Fulton, Kentucky."

The marriage will be a lovely event of Sunday afternoon, September 5, at the home of the bride's parents, 1420 Everett avenue, Louisville, Ky., at four o'clock, with the Reverend McLeod, pastor of the Highland Presbyterian church, officiating. Miss Cruze has chosen her birthday for the date of the wedding. The only attendants will be Miss Maud Hickman, maid of honor, and William C. Cruze, Jr., brother of the bride, best man.

After the ceremony, the young couple will leave for a trip including Illinois, Michigan, Canada, Arizona and New Mexico. They will return by way of Memphis, Tennessee, where they will visit friends. After September 25, they will be at home in Fulton, Kentucky.

Miss Cruze was formerly of Paducah, but for the past year has been a resident of Louisville. She was graduated from the Augusta Tilghman High school in 1923. She attended the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music. She is very prominent in the musical, church and social circles of Louisville. She has often been heard and enjoyed over the WHAS radio station at Louisville, in both vocal and piano solos.

Mr. Workman is a popular young business man of Fulton, where he has held a prominent position with the Illinois Central Railroad for several years. He is a graduate of the Fulton High school and Union University of Jackson, Tenn.

Both Miss Cruze and Mr. Workman have many friends throughout Kentucky who will be interested in the above announcement.—Paducah News-Democrat.

Lesson for August 8

THE GIVING OF MANNA

LESSON TEXT—Exodus 16:1-34.

GOLDEN TEXT—Jesus said unto them, "I am the bread of life."

PRIMARY TOPIC—God's Gift of Daily Bread.

JUNIOR TOPIC—God Sends Food in the Wilderness.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Our Daily Blessings.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—God's Good Gifts.

I. Lusting for the Fleshpots of Egypt (vv. 1-12).

1. Murmuring against Moses and Aaron (vv. 1-3).

As they journeyed from Egypt into the great wilderness, they became conscious of the scarcity of some of the things they had enjoyed even in Egyptian slavery. Only a few days before they were singing God's praises for their wondrous deliverance at the Red Sea (Ex. 15). Their complaint not only displayed ingratitude but a deep-seated hypocrisy. It was against God that they were murmuring, for He had led them into the wilderness. His object in so doing was to teach them to walk by faith instead of sight. They went so far as to express the wish that they had died in Egypt with full stomachs rather than to be walking in the wilderness by faith.

2. God's answer to their murmurings (vv. 4-12).

(1) He promised to rain bread from heaven (vv. 4, 5).

His purpose in this was to teach them that man liveth not by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the Lord (Deut. 8:3).

(2) He promised to give them a vision of His glory (vv. 6-10).

This served as a warning and encouragement. Moses and Aaron told the children of Israel that the glory of the Lord should be seen in the morning as a reminder that their murmuring was against the Lord and not against themselves.

(3) He promised them flesh and bread (vv. 11, 12).

"At even ye shall eat flesh and in the morning ye shall be filled with bread."

II. Quails and Manna Given (vv. 13-15).

At the appointed time God gave the Israelites the promised food. He first allowed them to feel their need to show them that man's highest need is not physical food, but living faith and fellowship with God.

1. In the evening the quails came up (v. 13).

Since they desired flesh, He gave them flesh to eat. God frequently caters to the desires of His people, knowing that the best way to teach them is to allow them to be filled with their own folly.

2. In the morning God gave the manna (vv. 14, 15).

The Israelites did not know what it was. They therefore exclaimed, "What is it?" Moses told them that it was the bread which the Lord had given them to eat.

III. The Responsibilities of the Israelites (vv. 16-31).

1. They must gather a certain rate daily (v. 16).

The purpose of this was to test their faith. They must look to Him for their daily bread (Matt. 6:11).

2. Every man must gather for himself (v. 16).

This teaches us the important lesson that every man must appropriate Christ for himself.

3. They must not gather in excess of one day's supply (vv. 18-20).

That which was in excess of a day's supply became corrupt. The Christian must use what gifts the Father bestows upon him. Christian grace and Bible truth must not be hoarded up—they are good only when put to use.

4. The manna must be gathered fresh every morning (v. 21).

This was to be done early before the sun was up. So must we seek Christ, who is our manna, every day and the first thing in the day (John 6:57).

5. The manna must be eaten to preserve life.

They were in a wilderness, so could live only by the eating of the food which God gave. It is so with Christ (John 6:53).

6. Due consideration should be given to the Sabbath day (vv. 22-31).

A double portion was to be gathered the day before so as to keep inviolate the Sabbath day.

IV. Manna Kept as a Memorial (vv. 32-34).

This was to be kept as a reminder of God's favor in feeding them in the wilderness, even for supplying them with bread for forty years until they reached the promised land.

To Give All

The love of the base spirit is the desire to take all it can. The love of the nobler spirit is the desire to give all it can.

Infection of Excellence

If one life shines the next life to it must catch the light. It is the infection of excellence.

Best Preparation

Doing good in this life is the best preparation for the life to come.

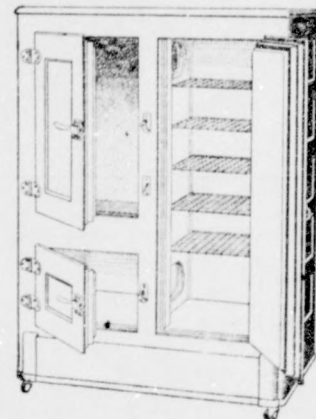

SHIRTS it's a Comfort to Wear.

If there is anything more uncomfortable than an ill-fitting shirt we would like to know about it. Some shirts are more like straight-jackets than wearing apparel. But here are shirts that fit right snugly around the collar, easily over the shoulders, with plenty of room in the bodies. It's a comfort to wear them. And now is your time to buy while special low prices prevail.

CHILDREN'S FATAL DISEASES

Worms and parasites in the intestines of children undermine health and so weaken their vitality that they are unable to resist the diseases so fatal to child life.
The safe course is to give a few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge. It destroys and expels the worms without the slightest injury to the health or activity of the child. Price 35c. Sold by Bro. Warren has returned from Alamo, Tenn., where he has been assisting Dr. Penick in a series of meetings. He reports a great meeting, and the interest running high.

The mid-week meeting this week was ably directed by the Intermediate Department of the Sunday School, having for its subject, "The Place of Visiting the City Limits, it would be in Human Lives." This was sub-divided into a very interesting and instructive program.

The pastor will fill the pulpit
at both the morning and evening hours, Sunday, and the public is cordially invited to attend.
There will be special music
for both services.

Church News

Dr. Boyd will hold services in the Public Library Building at Clinton, next Sunday at 3:30 p. m.

Last Sunday at morning service,
Dr. Boyd was compelled to abbreviate the service on account of the extreme heat in the chancel.

The sanctuary lacks ventilation and on a close day it is difficult to withstand the heat.

The bishop has complained of this condition on several occasions, and Dr. Boyd has many times been seriously inconvenienced
while holding services,
and been compelled to shorten the services. Plans are being studied to obtain a means of ventilating the sanctuary.

Mrs. Boyd had the misfortune to sprain her ankle, Saturday
noon, while down town shopping.
She was taken to her home
by some kindly gentleman in his car, but in the confusion of getting her into her home,
Dr. Boyd failed to get the gentleman's name. Both the doctor and Mrs. Boyd wish to express their appreciation of the kindness. While the ankle is quite painful, Mrs. Boyd was able to attend both Church school and morning service.

Alice and Wanda Coulter, nieces of Mr. and Mrs. W. J.
Coulter, who have been spending several weeks with their relatives, returned Sunday night to their home in Little Rock, Ark.

George Huddleston is home on his vacation from his post in New York, and will assist in the services next Sunday. He is arranging for an organ recital some Sunday evening in the near future.

Mrs. Don Taylor left this week for a visit with the Karmires,
at their home in Shelbyville,
Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Khourie and family have returned from a visit to friends in Caruthersville, Mo.

Mr. Alex Noffel left Monday for a business visit to Memphis, Tenn. Miss Alice is in charge of the store during his absence.

Mrs. Naife, mother of Mrs.
H. M. Khourie, has been ill for the past few days, but is reported improving rapidly. Mrs. Naife is visiting here from Sacramento, Calif.

The Circulation that Keeps Food Fresh!

Always Dry and COLD!

The air in the HERRICK—the aristocrat of refrigerators—is in constant circulation. It travels steadily in a circle—from ice to food and from food to ice. This continuous movement keeps the air cold, dry and pure. It keeps food fresh. It carries off the free flavors and odors and prevents their interchange in the foods.

HERRICK mineral wool insulation, HERRICK removable drainage system, HERRICK Outside Icing, are other features you will appreciate. Water cooler attachment if desired. Finest mansions or modest homes, apartment buildings, restaurants, stores are HERRICK equipped. For each there is an elegantly finished model, complete with many exclusive refinements.

When you buy John Deere implements you are sure of prompt repair service throughout their long life

A Big Advantage on Rough Ground

The high, easy lift of the John Deere Mower is a big advantage in rough ground. You can raise the bar high enough to clear obstructions in the field, and cut with the bar in that position.

John Deere Mower
The Mower with the High, Easy Lift

The powerful foot lift raises the outer shoe from 25 to 35 inches and the inner shoe from 8 to 11 inches. The hand lift raises the outer shoe 44 inches and the inner shoe high enough to clear any obstruction passed by the doubletrees.

The John Deere is simple and sturdy its parts are strong and long-lived and its construction is so simple that a boy can operate it safely and do good work.

If you intend to buy a mower be sure to see the John Deere. We will be pleased to show you its many fine points any time.

Clutch with 21 points insures instant starting.
Special drive gear construction reduces wear and increases power.
Special construction of gear assembly overcomes crankshaft end-thrust.
Improved construction of cutting parts insures better service and longer life.
Adjustments can be easily made in the field with ordinary tools.
