JUDGE W. VORIS GREGORY

Wins the Democratic Nomination for Congress in Saturday's Primary

Official Returns Show Victory for Gregory by 181 Votes.

Ferguson Conceded His Defeat and Wires Congratulations to Gregory.

County	Gregory	Ferguson
Livingston	96	118

So close was the vote in the First District primary Saturday in the Congressional race that it required the official count, which was made Tuesday, to settle it.

As the returns came in Saturday night it was plainly shown that the race between Judge W. Voris Gregory of Mayfield, and Garth K. Ferguson, of Ballard county was close, with each candidate claiming the nomination, but when the big vote for Gregory in Graves county was announced the Mayfield candidate ran in the lead with a majority that kept him at the top of the list throughout the entire count. From time to time revised returns were made. Senator Ferguson reiterated his statements made early during the returns that he believed the official count would give him the nomination. After the official count Ferguson wired his congratulations to Judge Gregory.

Judge Gregory claimed the nomination by a majority of 192, on the basis of complete returns compiled at his headquarters in Mayfield, Monday.

Democrats of the first district awaited tensely the official count. Ferguson admirers could hardly believe the final announcement that Gregory had defeated their favorite, but the big majority are now ready and waiting for the time to come when they can stamp the X opposite the name of Judge W. Voris Gregory, Democratic nominee for Congress, to succeed Alben W. Barkley. Harry Green, of Smithland, the third candidate in the race, after carrying his home county, was lost in the shuffle and received only a scattering vote here and there. The total vote in the district was as follows: Gregory, 9840; Ferguson, 9659; Green, 1418.

WORK ON SEWERAGE SYSTEM STARTED

The machinery for the digging of the new sewer system for Fulton was unloaded Monday morning and work on the actual removal of the dirt was started on Wednesday.

With the modern machinery in use, the work will progress with astonishing rapidity, and the only delay to be anticipated will be in receiving the material, which frequently has a most uncanny way of getting lost in transit, causing loss of time and dissatisfaction to both the contractor and the public, both of whom are anxious to have the work finished as soon as possible.

E. H. Hartig, of Evansville, Ind., has the contract, and is amply provided with machinery for the work, and states that if the material arrives promptly he will be able to complete the work according to the contract.

Mr. Hartig has at present an uncompleted contract in Evansville, due to the non-arrival of material, and has brought the most of his outfit to Fulton in order not to lose time.

ORGAN RECITAL SUNDAY NIGHT AT EPISCOPAL CHURCH

George Huddleston, who is spending his vacation with his parents, will give an organ recital at the Trinity Episcopal Church, on Sunday night, immediately after the short evening service, and it is expected that there will be a large attendance, as many have expressed a desire to hear him when he has a more extended opportunity to display his skill than is permitted in the usual church service.

George is located at Cranford, New Jersey, a suburb of New York City, and where he has a well trained boy choir to make the service more inspiring and impressive. Any one who has had the privilege of listening to a well trained boy choir will always appreciate what splendid music can be produced by the male voice.

We feel sure that only the most urgent reasons will keep the many friends of Mr. Huddleston from hearing him Sunday night.

Preparing for the Big Show

REVIVAL AT FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Final arrangements have been made for the meeting to be held by the First Christian Church, commencing the last Sunday of the month, August 29, to continue through September 10. The preaching will be done by the pastor, Rev. H. L. Patterson. He announces that he intends to deliver a series of sermons in the nature of a court trial, his subject being "The Trial of the Soul." This series will continue through the first week of the meeting. Each sermon will be complete in itself but will be closely connected what precedes and what follows.

Mr. Herbert D. Woodruff, of Hopkinsville, Ky., a student for the ministry, attending Transylvania College, will have charge of the music. During the past year Mr. Woodruff has been leading the singing for meetings held by Rev. Orville Hamilton, of Mountain Grove, Mo. They have recently completed a three months' campaign in Canada where their work received the highest commendation. Mr. Woodruff is a young man of pleasing personality. He is recognized as especially suited to leadership among the young people. His ability as a chorus leader led to his engagement by Rev. Hamilton to organize the singers in the various fields where they have held meetings together.

At present Mr. Woodruff is engaged in a meeting at Carlisle, Kentucky. He will come from this meeting to take charge of the singing for the First Christian church.

There will be two services a day. The morning service will be at ten o'clock, dismissing before eleven o'clock. The evening service will commence at 7:45 with a song service of thirty minutes, to be followed by the sermon.

BEAUTIFUL BRIDGE LUNCHEON

The beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fields was the alluring scene of a delightful hospitality Friday morning, tendered by Miss Ruth Fields and Mrs. Smith Atkins, when they gave a beautifully planned bridge luncheon in honor of their charming house guest, Miss Thelma Morris, of Houston, Texas. Miss Vern Tomlinson, of Chicago; Mrs. Herndon Fields, of St. Louis.

All kinds of summer flowers in their sunfast colors nodded gay welcome to the guests and emphasized the attractiveness of the home.

The honor guests stood with their hostess to welcome the arriving company, after they were greeted on the lovely breeze-swept porch by Mrs. R. S. Williams and were served delicious iced grape nectar by Mrs. Franklin from a table beautifully decorated with luscious bunches of purple grapes and leaves. At the conclusion of the game, lovely prizes were awarded, Miss Fern Snow winning first prize, a picture, "Puzzled;" Miss Morris was given a box of beautiful handkerchiefs; Mrs. Fields a silver compact, Miss Tomlinson a box of stationery.

Mrs. Chas. Gregory drew a lovely bottle of bath salts as consolation.

At one o'clock, lovely covers were spread on the card tables with silver vases holding pink radiance, butterfly and Columbia roses, while a delicious two-course luncheon was served.

Miss Evelyn Alverson, Mesdames Guy Gingles, Fred Paschall, Ed Thompson, assisted in doing the hospitality honors.

Miss Tomlinson is a noted pianist and to the delight of the guests, played several numbers and Mrs. Williams sang two songs.

GARDEN PARTY

Little Miss Ann Valentine entertained a number of her young friends with a garden party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Valentine, on Pearl street, last Monday afternoon, from four to six.

During the hours the guests enjoyed many games and every one present was in high glee. Dainty refreshments were served and boxes of hearts were given as favors.

MISS MORRIS HONOREE

One of the most attractive of the series of complimentary hospitalities was the afternoon bridge given by Mrs. George Hester, Thursday afternoon, honoring Miss Thelma Morris, of Houston, Texas.

The rooms were fragrant with summer flowers and the affair was as delightful as informal.

Lovely prizes were awarded high and low score, while the honoree was given a memento of the occasion at the conclusion of the game dainty refreshments were served.

Miss Thelma Morris, of Houston, Texas, who has been the charming house-guest of Miss Ruth Fields, left for her home Tuesday morning. While here Miss Morris was the recipient of many social courtesies, among the smaller affairs not having been mentioned were two gypsy teas and sunrise breakfast.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Goldsby and daughters, Misses Annie Lucille, Lurlyn and Miss Ruth Fields, left early Tuesday morning cross country for Nashville, Chattanooga, Mont Eagle, Red Boiling Springs for a few days visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Henderson have returned from Memphis where Mr. Henderson underwent an operation at the hospital. Reports from his bedside say he is getting along nicely.

LITTLE DOROTHY HENRY PASSES AWAY

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Henry deeply sympathize with them in the loss of their sweet little three-year-old daughter, Dorothy, who passed away Monday afternoon at their home 104 West street. Funeral services were held at the home Tuesday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. C. H. Warren, pastor of the First Baptist church, interment following in Fairview cemetery.

Masons Are Active.

There was a lot of activity in Masonic circles last week, in the way of work, feasting and entertaining. On Tuesday evening, August 3rd, Roberts Lodge, at a stated meeting, conferred the Masters degree, and after the work was finished, a number of talks were made by the members and visitors, after which the lodge was closed and refreshments served. On the following afternoon Jerry Moss Chapter Royal Arch Masons convened for the purpose of conferring the Capitul degree on a class, beginning the work and continuing until the lodge degrees were given. The members and visitors then repaired to the banquet hall and were seated at tables laden with barbecued chicken and other choice edibles that were tempting to the appetite and pleasing to the taste. After partaking of the sumptuous feast they returned to the chapter room where they indulged in smoking some excellent cigars, and witnessed a pleasing program put on by Mrs. Sobra Evans and Miss Frances Patterson, which was very much enjoyed by the fraternity.

The chapter was opened on the R. A. degree and Comp. Frank D. Rash, Grand High Priest, was introduced and given the grand honors, conducted to the east and presented with the gavel, who made a few pleasant remarks and was seated among the craft. Work was then begun and continued until all the capitular degree was conferred.

After a part of the members and visitors judged in a few brief remarks, the Grand High Priest was called on again. He related a story of the minister who attended a meeting, and on his return home told his wife he had a fine time, having had an opportunity of speaking twice. If Comp. Rash enjoyed talking twice, it was certain that his audience appreciated hearing him, for he was an interesting speaker, very courteous and affable in his manners, making a lasting and favorable impression on the craft.

On Friday evening of the 6th, Fulton Commandery 34, Knights Templar gave a musical entertainment, although old Jupiter Fluvius came riding on a very dark and threatening cloud and bringing much rain, lots of lightning and heavy thunders, which kept away a great many, yet quite a number came up to the hall and spent a pleasant evening, by enjoying a splendid program of music, songs and readings, and partaking of light refreshments.

Some Peaches.

When it comes to growing big fine peaches, Mr. J. T. Hastings, Route 3 Fulton, is far in the lead up to this date. Mr. Hastings brought to the Advertiser office last Monday morning two mammoth peaches of the Elberta variety, equal in size and weight, each measuring 10-3-8 inches in circumference and each weighing 12 ounces. He has an orchard of these peach trees which will be only four years old next November. Mr. Hastings stated that in his opinion, the secret in growing fine fruit lies in the frequent spraying and constant care of the young trees. Any peach grower who can beat the above record, let him bring in the proof.

Perhaps you can profit by this Complaint

A COMPLAINT by one of our customers about a charge for a long distance call may help you save money on your toll calls.

This subscriber has two boys away from home, and he calls them on the long distance telephone once a week for a friendly little chat.

Recently he waited until after 8:30 p. m. to place his call in order to secure the reduced night rate. Naturally he was surprised when he was billed at the person-to-person rate.

Inquiry developed the fact that he placed the call by name, asking for either one of his sons. This was, of course, a person-to-person call, for which the rate is the same, both day and night.

If this customer had told the operator he wished to make a station-to-station call, or if he had told her he wished to be connected with the distant telephone, it would have been a station-to-station call at the reduced rate.

We find that many who wait until 8:00 o'clock at night to get reduced rates are making person-to-person calls at the regular rate.

To make a station-to-station call you tell the operator the telephone number at the distant point. If you do not know the number, tell her the name or address under which it is listed. Do not ask to speak to a particular person.

We are anxious for our customers to have the benefit of the low rate for station-to-station calls and the further reduction at night.

Remember that the reduced night rate applies only to station-to-station calls.

COMMUNITY BOOSTING

Manifestly cooperation is impossible unless two or more people join together in any enterprise. One man can't cooperate. He must have one or more who think as he does and who are willing to act along lines on which they can agree.

One cylinder of a motor hitting will not get an automobile very far. All have to be working in regular order. They have to be timed to do their particular job at given intervals. One horse in a team standing still and the other pulling will not budge the load.

These things are all so well known that it seems wasted effort to mention them, but the lesson of cooperation is so essential to the welfare of any community that we refer to these examples even at the risk of being boresome.

When half of the people of the community pull backward or refuse to do anything towards community betterment, while the other half are using a part of their time and talents for the common good, an object lesson is not amiss.

No community will go very far if the majority of its citizens think that they have no civic responsibility or obligations. Then there are those who believe that making their money here and saying or thinking a kind word about the home town now and then is enough. But it is not enough.

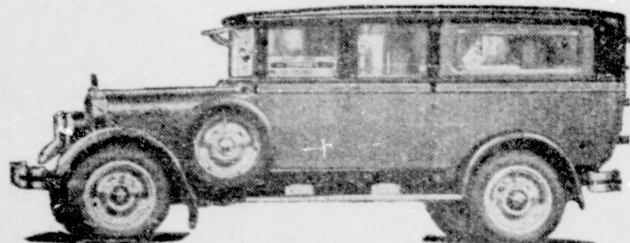

Everyone must boost Fulton materially and actively—a few can't do it even with the moral support of the remainder of the community. Cooperation must be something more tangible and less ethereal than just thinking good thoughts and saying kind words, as helpful as they may be.

Community boosting means sacrifices—sacrifice of time and money and pleasure—not by a few but by all in whatever measure is necessary to bring about the desired end. It will not get the real results until action is united and complete cooperation prevails.

SOUTHERN STATES LEAD IN CONTRIBUTION OF COMMISSIONED OFFICERS OF U. S. ARMY

Statistics recently made public show that the Southern states, especially those which once formed the Confederate States of America, outstrip all others in their contribution of Commissioned Officers to the ranks of the regular army. Virginia, the state which contributed more to the Confederacy than any other, gives more officers to the army today in proportion to white population than any other state in the Union. According to 1920 census there is one officer for the regular army for every 7,900 of the white population, taking the country as a whole.

Virginia's quota is one officer for every 3,360 of white inhabitants; South Carolina is second and Texas third.

Car Constructed Like a Steel Building

Essex Announces Coach Built In World's Largest Single Body Plant.

Above—The new Essex all-steel coach, described as "strong as a steel building." At the left, lower, is shown a 400 ton press which stamps out entire doors with a single operation. At the right two men are proving sturdiness of car by riding on outstretched doors.

Detroit—Any story of the new Essex all-steel coach is fundamentally the story of the $10,000,000 body factory which produces the car. What the Hudson Motor Car Co. has done in the manufacture of Essex bodies is to make craftsmen of machines; this is literally the fact. Giant machines do in a fraction of the minute work that the most highly skilled artisan, craftsman or artist could never hope to equal, from the standpoint of beauty and accuracy. The plant devoted to making the bodies expresses the industry's top mark in design and execution.

"Hand work" has long been a symbol of excellence of manufacture. Painstaking labor, directed by trained craft, has resulted in closest fit and smoothest finish. But "machine work" supplants it when the machine is designed and executed so as to perform quickly and surely operations that far excel the best of the hand craft.

Essentially, the Essex body plant is an aggregation of pressing and stamping machines. Upon them are formed the component parts of the body, which are so accurately made that they fit without question. Their union into a rigid whole is accomplished with a speed and uniformity almost beyond belief. A cowl, a door, or the corner of a body is fashioned on a giant press. The whole cowl is brought into being with one apparently effortless motion of a press that is exerting a force of 400 tons every time its plunger descends. The machine and the dies may represent $100,000 worth of ability to manufacture with speed and exactness—an investment made with the certainty that the completed plant would function with greatest precision and the highest attainable speed.

The Hudson officials say that the plant is unique in being the largest bodybuilding unit in the industry, without a single body builder employed in it. Strictly speaking, and using the word in the sense in which it is usually accepted, perhaps there are no human body-builders. But the machines certainly are body-builders in every sense of the word.

For the first time in the history of American industry, body-building has been made primarily a series of steel-stamping processes; for the first time, too, the bodies are being made by a 100 per cent progressive assembly system, already employed to such advantage in the manufacture of engines and chassis.

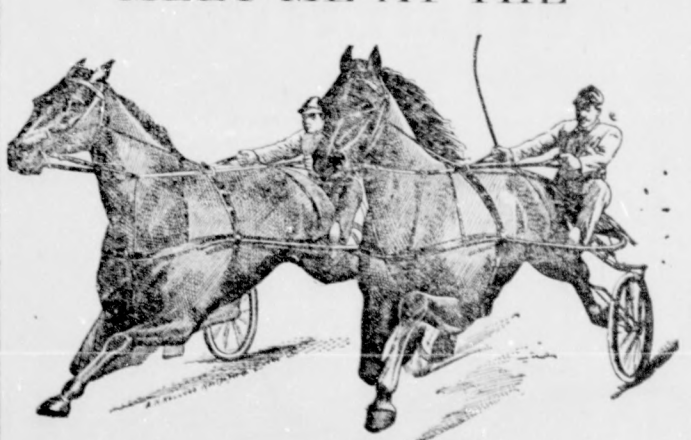

Everything in connection with the plant and the other means of making bodies complete was laid out a year ago. On top of the $10,000,000 in the plant proper, an investment of $5,000,000 was made in bringing other departments to a capacity that would measure up to that of the new unit. The plant and the expansions were completed on schedule time, and on the precise day originally determined, a schedule of the new all-steel bodies, to the number of 150, was put through.

JETHRO'S WISE COUNSEL

LESSON TEXT—Exodus 18:1-27.

GOLDEN TEXT—To every man his work.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jethro Helps Moses.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Jethro Gives Moses Good Advice.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Jethro's Wise Counsel.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Organizing for Service.

1. Jethro's Visit to Moses (vv. 1-6).

1. The occasion (v. 1).

Upon the receipt of the news of the marvelous deliverance of the Israelites from the Egyptians, Jethro went out to meet Moses.

2. The object (vv. 2-4).

It was to bring to Moses his wife and children. When God called him to Egypt to deliver His people Moses did not deem it wise to take his wife and children, therefore left them with his father-in-law.

3. The place (vv. 5, 6).

At Mount Sinai where the Israelites were encamped.

II. Moses' Reception of Jethro (vv. 7-12).

1. He bowed to him and kissed him (v. 7).

Moses not only honored him as his father-in-law, but as a priest of Midian. Jethro, though outside of the covenant people, evidently retained proofs of the true God as Melchizedec before him did.

2. Moses rehearsed to him the wonders which God had wrought through him (v. 8).

It is through the testimony of those who have experienced the wonders of God's grace that men come to know the true God.

3. Jethro's response (vv. 9-12).

(1) He rejoiced for all the good news which the Lord had done to Israel whom He had delivered out of the hand of the Egyptians (v. 9).

(2) He blessed the Lord (v. 10). He not only praised the Lord for His deliverance of his son-in-law from the Egyptians, but for the deliverance of the people of Israel from their bondage.

(3) He confessed the supremacy of the Lord (v. 11). He said, "Now I know that the Lord is greater than all gods."

(4) He offered sacrifices to God (v. 12). We are unable to determine the degree of intelligence of this worship, but he evidently out of a sincere heart made this offering.

III. The Occasion (vv. 13-18).

1. After Jethro came to Moses he observed how completely Moses' time was taken in judging Israel. When he saw the greatness of the task, he inquired as to why he was doing the work all alone. Moses explained to him that his task was not merely a matter of judging, but of teaching the statutes and laws of God to the people. Jethro recognized Moses' motive, but insisted that his method was not a good one, as it would result in wasting his strength.

2. Jethro's plan (vv. 19-23).

(1) Moses was to be unto the people Godward—to bring their causes unto God and teach them the ordinances and laws, to show them the way wherein they must walk and the work they must do (vv. 19, 20).

(2) Suitable men should be provided as rulers over thousands, hundreds, fifties and tens (v. 21). All great matters should be disposed of by Moses, and all subsidiary matters should be adjusted by these judges.

(3) Qualifications of these subordinate judges (v. 22).

(a) They were to be "able men," that is, men of strength. They must be men of such intellectual power as to enable them to understand the problems presented, and of such will power as to execute the judgments rendered.

(b) "Such as fear God." This is the basis of true strength.

(c) "Men of truth." This means men who are able to discern truth, men who love truth, men who tell the truth.

(d) "Hating covetousness." These men must be haters of unjust gain. The man who is to be a ruler of the people must be free from the suspicion of following his profession because of personal gain.

IV. Moses Accedes to Jethro's Counsel (vv. 24-27).

This common-sense advice made a response in Moses' heart. He recognized that God was speaking through Jethro. According to Deut. 1:13-18 the people selected the judges and Moses appointed them. When this work had been done according to Jethro's advice, he took his departure, going into his own land.

SHIRTS it's a Comfort to Wear.

If there is anything more uncomfortable than an ill-fitting shirt we would like to know about it. Some shirts are more like straight-jackets than wearing apparel. But here are shirts that fit right snugly around the collar, easily over the shoulders, with plenty of room in the bodies. It's a comfort to wear them. And now is your time to buy while special low prices prevail.

"It Penetrates"

In the word "penetration," is a secret manufacturing process that has made Senour's Floor Paint a popular favorite for over 40 years.

If a floor paint does not penetrate or grip into the wood it will soon begin to crack, chip and peel.

Senour's Floor Paint dries over night with a high gloss enamel-like finish, but at the same time it sinks into the pores of the wood and forms a film that will withstand the hardest usage and will withstand repeated washings without dimming the lustre.

Every can of Senour's Floor Paint is guaranteed to give satisfaction if directions printed on the can are followed or money back upon receipt of empty can.

EGG SHOW NEW FEATURE AT FAIR

One of the new features at the Poultry Show this year is the egg show. The poultry association is offering cash prizes for best and second best dozen eggs in both white and brown shells.

Any one who raises poultry is entitled to enter eggs in this contest and they will be judged for uniformity, shape and condition.

The judge who will have charge of the egg show is well qualified; the association has hopes of either obtaining a judge from the agriculture commission at Frankfort or a judge from the agriculture department of the I. C. R. A., either of which would give entire satisfaction.

Bring in a dozen eggs whether you enter any poultry or not, but if you can enter both it will be better.

The eggs will be returned to you after the show. There will be no charge for entering eggs.
If you haven't received a premium list, write to Mr. Stansbury, secretary, and one will be mailed to you. Get in the game—boost chickens and eggs.
