Fulton County Fair Better Than Ever

Great Crowds Attend Daily To View the Displays and See the Races. Big Night Show Pleasing Feature This Year.

Egg and Poultry Show the Best On Record

Fair week started off with a remarkably large crowd, considering the threatening weather, and the crowds seemed thoroughly well pleased with the exhibitions and amusements provided.

The first day of any fair is always somewhat unsatisfactory, owing to the unfinished condition of the displays, but this year seemed rather better in this respect, and there was less evidence of belated preparations.

The livestock display is up to that of the past two or three years, and the exhibitions of art work and preserves, cake, candy, etc., are rather larger than that of last year. This was particularly noticeable of the art department, under the supervision of Mrs. B. D. Maupin and Mrs. Ed Heywood. Tuesday they were kept busy till a late hour in arranging the jams, jellies and preserves, there being a noticeable increase in these articles over the past season.

Mrs. Leighman Browder is authority for the statement that the whole of the displays in Floral Hall are well up to that of the past, if not larger.

The agricultural department, under Horton Brann, is more artistically arranged this year, but the lateness of the season caused a somewhat smaller display of some kinds of farm produce, that usually goes to make up the show. There is a noticeable lack of the usual community displays, but this is explained by the bad condition of the roads. However, it is only fair to say that the articles on exhibition are above the average, and elicit many words of praise and appreciation.

The harness races are probably better than for some years. The track on the first day was said to have been faster than for a number of seasons, and showed the care and work that had been expended on it.

The horses are unusually fine looking, and the knowing ones made some shrewd guesses as to which would come in under the wire in first place. There are a number of very close heats each day and some close decisions are made by the judges.

The poultry show is much better housed than last year, and the additional room supplied by the erection of an addition to the pavilion allows a much better arrangement of the birds than ever before, so that while the entire number of fowls shown are slightly less than last year, the impression made on the visitors is one of a much larger show than last. Many of those who sent in their entry blanks did not appear, due to the bad condition of the roads, which precluded their reaching the grounds.

Some of the displays at the fair this year are unusually attractive as well as educational.

The Kentucky Hardware & Implement Co. are displaying the Oliver line of farm implements, Springfield wagons, Fairbanks-Morse engines and corn crushers, Monarch field and poultry fence, better known as "Red Top," and the well known Enterprise stoves and ranges. It was indeed pleasing to see Ben W. Shew and W. W. Batts with their entire sales force entertaining the visitors with demonstrations. The Fulton Hardware Co. is displaying the John Deere line of farm implements, tractors, wagons and engines, also Southern field and poultry fence. A. C. Herkenhoff, factory representative, is assisting Mr. Beadles in taking care of the visitors and entertaining the crowds with demonstrations which are entertaining and educational.

W. P. Felts hardware Company is displaying the McCormick Deering products of the International Harvester Co. line of farm implements, "Primrose" cream separators, engines and tractors, also the celebrated line of Charter Oak stoves and ranges. W. R. Welch, factory representative of the International Harvester Co., tractor department, is assisting Mr. Williams and his sales force in entertaining the crowds.

Snow-White Motor Company, the well known Ford dealers, are displaying cars, trucks and tractors. The display is under a big tent and great crowds through the premises anxious to see and know more about Ford products, and occasionally Will Stubblefield books an order just to keep up his reputation as a salesman.

Holloway Motor Company are displaying Star cars and the new Overland products. They have just taken over the agency for this territory and have on display the Willys-Knight, Overland and Whippet. The Whippet is a new-type light car, modeled on European lines, and has created a sensation wherever it was shown. It is a beauty, the latest products of the Overland factories, and the first time displayed in Fulton. Phil Warren will take pleasure in telling you all about it.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rucker are displaying musical instruments in a booth beneath the grandstand. They are entertaining visitors with the latest musical numbers. They make a specialty of phonograph records.

The egg contest of the poultry association has a fair number of entries, and the exhibition is a decided novelty and attracts a great deal of attention and comment, though the attendants have hard work to keep the public from handling the eggs.

The concessions are extremely attractive, many of those which were so popular past season being again on the grounds, and the patronage seems to be even more general than formerly. The eating places seem to be fully as numerous as before and quite as well patronized, and the appetizing odors are every bit as enticing.

The new feature of special races and additional lighting and fireworks at night prove to be an extremely attractive feature and the gate receipts amply testify the appreciation of the pleasure seeking public, of these additional features.

what was doing. Mayor Shankle came early, and stayed late.

R. C. Whitnel came all the way from Florida to be "among those present."

Professor Cheek seemed to enjoy the ponies.

Phil Warren was much in evidence.

Judge Taylor was right down next the rail.

Chief Roberts took no chances on fires and stayed on a job.

Representative Daniels was evidently looking for pointers on the Pari-Mutuels.

Dr. Crafton and family took in the side shows. "Doc" said he had to take the little folks.

C. A. Stephens stopped selling lumber long enough to see one heat.

Neal Karmire rather preferred the poultry pavilion.

Charlie Binford divided his time between the races and the concessions.

Ed Gates came in just to bring some eggs for the egg contest.

Leighman Browder helped hold up the fence.

Don Taylor was there, too. Louis Weeks seemed rather lonesome, wonder why?

Will Scates stayed close to the front row at the fence.

Paul DeMyer let the streets "go hang" and watched the races.

Ollie French was interested in the live stock, especially the "porkers."

"Doc" McGee was greatly interested in the chickens (Feathered, of course).

Johnie Stuart was there, also Johnnie Junior.

George Beadles divided his time between the grand stand and the Deere show. (Notice the spelling).

Claude Freeman was sporting an "Irish" slicker.

Mac McDade was also close to the fence.

Ex-Mayor Hutchens occupied a bleacher seat.

Amos Colley likes the ponies, or at least, well, you know.

Walter Butt was out so soon after noon that he must have missed his lunch.

Will McDade helped hold down one of the front seats in the stand.

"Little Mac" McDade did a lot of "guessing" on the races.

Lee Rucker shut off the Brunswick and watched the "gee-gees" go past.

Squire Hagler was a busy man at the First Aid booth.

Sam Bennett was a front seater.

Dr. Rudd saw all the chickens, and we mean ALL.

Bob Binford must be going to enlist. He was with the "Lieut." a good deal.

N. G. Cooke and little daughter saw most of it.

Walter Morris occupied a box during the races.

Tom Franklin was another "front liner."

Joe Hall loaned his bran new slicker when it rained.

Abe Thompson saluted with military precision when spoken to.

M. C. Nall was out to see all there was to see.

Ed Paschall was a visitor at the poultry show.

Bertie Pigue and family were interested in all of it.

Lieutenant Dearing stopped recruiting long enough to sample a "hot dog."

J. B. Cequin seems interested in farm machinery.

Ex-Mayor Wade admired the egg show. Likes the white ones best.

Wonder if Tom Hales "guessed right."

Sam Bard was in the grand stand, "large as life, and twice as natural."

Ramsey Snow can sure cover a lot of ground in a short time. Seemed to be every where.

And Bob White ran him a close second.

Neal McNeally viewed the chickens and said he liked them.

Sheriff Thompson says he is too busy these days to bother with chick—, pardon, please, poultry.

J. C. Wiggins was interested in the whole show.

Harry Murphy is an ardent believer in poultry and anything that helps the farmer.

Boyd Bennett got close to the band stand.

Ed Thompson was a busy man, looking after the show horses.

Dr. Moss stuck close to the rail during the several heats.

And Sam Butler went hunting Tuesday. What do you know about that?

Night Show

The night show is a pleasing feature of the Fair this year, and the crowds are taking in the sights each evening.

The fire works display adds to the attractiveness of the night shows.

Society.

ENTRE NOUS CLUB

Miss Elizabeth Ethridge paid a pretty compliment to her house guest, Miss Louise Nichols, of Birmingham, Ala., making her honor guest when she entertained the Entre-Nous club at her home on Fairview avenue, Saturday afternoon.

Sunflowers and daisies gave a rich color note that emphasized the beauty of rooms when four tables were arranged for the game.

The club prize went to Mrs. Cresop Moss, while the honor-ree was presented a dainty gift.

At the close of the game a dainty ice course was served.

MRS. GUY SNOW HOSTESS

The members of the Thursday bridge club had a delightful meeting with Mrs. Guy Snow, Friday afternoon. Vases of pink and white roses graced the attractive living room where the tables were in play.

After four interesting games, Mrs. Russell Travis received book ends for high score while Mrs. Ramsey Snow was given a pretty black vase for low score.

At the conclusion of the game a delicious ice course carrying the pink and white color note was served.

NIGHT BRIDGE CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Freeman graciously entertained the Thursday night bridge club at their home on Jackson street.

Five tables were arranged in the beautifully decorated reception suite where the game was enjoyed. The club prizes went to Mrs. Ramsey Snow and Ed Crockett, while the visitors' prizes went to Mrs. R. L. Taylor and Clyde Williams.

In the late evening delicious refreshments were served.

Dance For Fair Visitors.

The dance last night at the Usona Hotel given in honor of fair visitors was one of the brilliant and enjoyable events of the week's entertainments. Wallace Bryants Syncopators' orchestra of Paducah, furnished the music.

A MUSICAL FEAST

One of the most enjoyable and entertaining diversions of the season was the "Old-Time Fiddlers' Contest" which was put on Thursday and Friday evenings of last week, under the auspices of the Fulton City Health Board, and directed by Mr. Lewis Shelton. On Thursday night the contest was held at the Carr Park auditorium, and although the weather was inclement, quite a good crowd attended, and a large number of musicians were present and took part in the contest. It was decided to hold the Friday evening contest in the City Hall, and a much larger crowd gathered to enjoy the musical treat. The program of the evening was well arranged and followed out, and the continuous and profusion of applause showed that the audience was "king of musical instruments, in the hands of the artists who performed."

Cash prizes were awarded to contestants who ranked first, second, third and so on, in their respective renditions of "Arkansas Traveler," "Leather Breeches," "Soldier's Joy," and other familiar tunes, and many other prizes in merchandise were given by Fulton merchants, but owing to the lengthy program, time would not permit the presenting of the prizes to the various winners on that evening.

Selections were rendered by some two or three string bands and vocal solos were given by Miss Annie Lucile Goldsby and others, all of which were received by an appreciative audience. Another delightful feature of the program was some pretty minuets put on to the time of band music by little Misses Frances Patterson and Eva M. King. A recitation, "The Youngest in the Family," was tastefully given by little Miss Ruth Nall.

Last, but by no means least, we mention the violin solos, "The Mocking Bird," "Traumerei," "Humoresque," and other classic selections, which were rendered with wonderful skill by the noted violinist, "Uncle Joe" Mangrum, by whose artful touch the violin seems to be a veritable songbird, and responds clearly to his touch in the variations and the minute grace notes of each number.

Miss Maria Porter, of Clinton, arrived today and is the guest of her uncle, W. C. Porter, and Mrs. Porter, and attending the fair.

Chestnut Glade

The Sunday School picnic at Mt. Moriah church last Wednesday was quite largely attended. Music by the Chestnut Glade orchestra. Ice cream lemonade and supper served at five o'clock, were among the attractions. Needless to say, everybody had a good time.
The senior class is planning a trip to Edgewood Beach in the near future.

Mrs. Joe Croft is perhaps a little better at this writing.

Mrs. Joe Reed, who has been feeble for some time, died rather suddenly the morning of the 19th. She was a dear old lady, loved by all who knew her, aged 71 years, 6 months, and 28 days. A good, Christian woman gone to her reward.
She was a member of New Hope church. Burial services were conducted by her pastor,
Rev. Walker, Friday, August
20 at 3 p. m., at New Hope church. She leaves to mourn her loss three sons, Sam, Will
and Mart, three daughters,
Mrs. Ida Breeden, Mrs. Cecil
Hall and Mrs. Roy Brown;
many grandchildren and loving friends who will long miss her. We extend sympathy to the bereaved.

The Literary Society had quite an interesting meeting
Friday evening. The subject for debate Saturday evening, September 4, "Resolved that the reading of fiction does more harm than good," will be discussed by our young orators.
An appropriate literary pro-ever had.

The young explorers, Mal-
con Johns, Beecher and Guy
Finch arrived home last Tuesday. Having started in a skiff with their camping outfit at the Latham levee, they rowed, shot rapids, portaged around bad places and camping when night came. Finally landing at Obion station, Monday. Not much hunting or fishing because of the rain which fell intermittently. The river rising about four feet one night.
The only mishap reported was the loss of their kodak. At Obion they turned the boat over to an obliging man they met,
boarded the train for home
and called it a dandy trip.

The meeting at Ruthville was postponed for about a month, date to be announced later.

GRECIAN DANCERS AT THE SESQUI

These dancers have selected for their graceful performance the keystone-shaped pool in the court yard of the Pennsylvania State Building at the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition in Philadelphia, which celebrates 100 years of American Independence. The spot is one of the most beautiful and artistic on the exposition site. The Exposition continues until December 1.

ON THE SESQUI LAGOONS

Here are Americans, visitors to the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition in Philadelphia which celebrates the 100th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, riding about the lagoons in an Italian craft, a gondola, from which they view the buildings and displays from many lands. In the distance can be seen the mammoth Sesqui Stadium; to the right is the signal tower of the United States Coast Guard building and exhibit, and to the left is one of the Japanese parasols which dot the exposition grounds. The Grecian pavilion is one of the permanent structures on the site before the city government decided to build the Sesqui at the front door of the great Philadelphia Navy Yard. The Exposition continues until December 1.

DEWEY'S "OLYMPIA" AT THE SESQUI

The famous old star ship is shown at her berth in Philadelphia Navy Yard, the background for the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition which celebrates 100 years of American Independence. Docked just in front of the Olympia is the U. S. S. Constellation, oldest fighting ship in commission. They daily attract thousands of visitors to the Exposition which continues until December 1.

FOOD FOR CHILDREN WHEN TRAVEL

Many times, and especially during the summer months, mothers are forced to take their children on trips with them. During these trips the parent is forced to contend with an ever-present and serious problem of food for the child.

As in almost every other case, the chief source of worry, during these periods, is the milk supply, its source, its purity and its food value. It is not always convenient to get market milk of dependable quality for, in any sections of the country, adequate facilities for its care are not provided. To meet the needs of mothers in these trying situations, science has provided a form of milk, conveniently carried and easily prepared. The cans are in two sizes, the one containing 8 ounces and the other sixteen.

Evaporated milk is just pure cow milk with more than half of the water removed. None of its food values is lessened; in fact its digestibility is improved. It is easily mixed with water and is, undoubtedly, the most practical form of milk for use as a food for children. Some of the country's leading pediatricians recommend its use employing the following formula:

From Sixth Week to Third Month.

Milk, evaporated ..... 6 ounces
Lime water ..... 3 ounces
Milk sugar ..... 2 ounces
Boiled water ..... 24 ounces
Seven feedings in twenty-four hours
1 to 5 ounces at three-hour intervals
during the day and a feeding at 10 p. m.

From Third Month to Fifth Month.

Milk, evaporated ..... 7½ ounces
Lime water ..... 3 ounces
Milk sugar ..... 2 ounces
Boiled water ..... 25½ ounces
Six feedings in twenty-four hours
5 to 6 ounces at three-hour intervals
during the day and a feeding at 10 p. m.

From Fifth to Seventh Month.

Milk, evaporated ..... 10 ounces
Lime water ..... 3 ounces
Milk sugar ..... 2 ounces
Boiled water ..... 29 ounces
Five feedings in twenty-four hours
6 to 7 ounces at four-hour intervals
during the day. Last feeding at 10 p. m.

From Seventh to Ninth Month.

Milk, evaporated ..... 11 ounces
Lime water ..... 3 ounces
Milk sugar ..... 2 ounces
Boiled water ..... 35 ounces
4 to 5 ounces at four-hour intervals
during the day. Last feeding at 10 p. m.

From Ninth to Twelfth Month.

Milk, evaporated ..... 12 ounces
Lime water ..... 3 ounces
Milk sugar ..... 2 ounces
Boiled water ..... 34 ounces
8 to 9 ounces at four-hour intervals
during the day. Last feeding at 10 p. m.

Champion Wrestler
Tells What to Eat

Johnny Meyers, middleweight wrestling champion of the world, is strong ly in favor of the use of scientifically prepared foods. He prefers to know that the food he is eating is pure and wholesome rather than to take a chance with any kind of food poisoning by eating food from an unknown source. In a recent interview on the eve of his match with Lou Tabaer, from whom he won his crown, he said: "I expect to win the crown from Tabaer. He is a fine wrestler and uses more science than any man of the mat today. However, I feel sure that my superior physical condition will prevail and that I will emerge victorious and the champion of my division. Diet is a very important part of my program in training, for a match. The system that I use is really very simple, involving only good judgment and caution in the selection of food. I prefer to eat scientifically prepared foods whenever possible and I never eat anything to which is attached the slightest doubt of its purity. I eat a great deal of canned foods because I am sure that they are pure and will have no ill effects on my digestive system. Take, just as an example of what food can do for the body—milk. It is the greatest of body builders and a very important part of any man's diet. But is sometimes impure or contaminated and may be the source of illness if used. Because of this fact, I use evaporated milk entirely and find it very satisfactory. I know that it is pure and that I will not suffer from its use. I know that it is a great body builder because the concentration of it gives it such food value. I know that it is easily digested, more so than market milk. In fact, because I drink it before going to bed and feel no effects of it in the morning. This is usually hard to do with ordinary market milk. This plan, in substance, is the same one that I use regarding other foods. If there is any chance or suspicion of impurity or low food value, I use something else.

"And if a man is so situated that it is impossible for him to get the proper amount of exercise, he must be doubly cautious not to partake of any but the purest food. On the whole, if a man eats with wisdom and observes the fundamental rules for good health, there is no reason why he should ever have a sick or uncomfortable day."

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS— DUTIES TO MAN

LESSON TEXT—Exodus 20:12-21.
GOLDEN TEXT—Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.
PRIMARY TOPIC—The Commandments About Men.
JUNIOR TOPIC—How to Serve Men.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Loving and Helping Others.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Ideal Human Relationships.

I. The Fifth Commandment (v. 12).
1. How this commandment may be broken.

(1) By showing disrespect to parents. Disrespect is shown to parents—

(a) By speaking of them as "the old man" and "the old woman."
(b) By being ashamed to be seen in their company.

(2) By disobedience.
(3) By not supporting them in their old age.

2. Promises annexed to this commandment.

(1) "That it may be well with thee" (Eph. 6:3).

(2) "That thou mayest live long upon the earth."

II. The Sixth Commandment (v. 13).

This is a bulwark thrown around human life. Man was created in God's image. Every attempt to take human life is a thrust at God. This commandment may be broken:

1. By sinful anger (Matt. 5:22).

2. By hatred (1 Jno. 3:15).

3. By immoderate recreation.

4. By employers having unsafe surroundings, thereby causing the death of their employees.

5. By sending children to toil in shops and factories before maturity.

6. By suicide.

7. By infanticide.

8. By wars.

III. The Seventh Commandment (v. 14).

This is a bulwark thrown around the home. This commandment may be broken:

1. By unclean thoughts, affections, purposes and imaginations (Matt. 5:27, 28; 15:19).

2. By unchaste conversation.

3. By wanton looks (Isa. 3:16; 1 Peter 2:14).

4. By immodest apparel.

5. By actual adultery.

6. By divorce.

IV. The Eighth Commandment (v. 15).

This commandment strikes at the sin of theft. This commandment may be broken:

1. By taking that which actually belongs to another.

2. By false weights and measures.

3. By extortion.

4. By employers defrauding employees and the employee failing to do honest work or put in full time.

5. By borrowing and not returning.

6. By going into debt, knowing that payment is impossible.

7. By usury.

8. By graft.

9. By lying advertisements.

10. By making assignments to escape payment of debts.

11. By strong nations oppressing the weaker ones.

V. The Ninth Commandment (v. 16).

The sin aimed at by this command is a most deadly one—that of lying. This commandment may be broken:

1. By actual open lying.

2. By perjury—swearing to falsehoods by the name of God.

3. By slander.

4. By tale-bearing (Lev. 19:16).

This is commonly done by repeating a report without investigating its truthfulness.

5. By creating a false impression (Ex. 23:1).

6. By a breach of promise.

7. By withholding the truth.

8. By exaggeration.

9. By flattery.

10. By recommending a man for a position of honor and trust who is unfitted for it.

VI. The Tenth Commandment (v. 17).

This commandment strikes at the desire for that which is unlawful for one to have. The sin does not lie in the desire to possess things, but in the desire to possess that which belongs to another. It is not wrong to have lands and personal property which one may have acquired honestly, but it is wrong to have the lands which belong to another. It is right for a man to have a wife, but it is sinful to have another's wife. This commandment goes back of all the rest. It deals not only with the open violation, but with the inner desires and motives. It strikes at the very purposes of the heart.

POULTRY FACTS

HATCH GOOSE EGGS WITH INCUBATORS

Goose eggs can be hatched with incubators even to better advantage than with hens for various reasons. Where hens or geese are used, they are apt to break the eggs, and again let them chill. The first eggs from your geese will arrive while the cold weather still continues, and must be picked up early in the morning before they become chilled; geese invariably lay in the very early hours of the morning, or late at night, says a writer in the Rural New Yorker.

Keep eggs in a moderately warm location—around 50 degrees in cold weather. When you have sufficient number to put into the incubator it should be started. Goose eggs, like hens' eggs, hatch best when fresh, not more than ten days old. Place your incubator in a moist, but not too damp cellar, as goose eggs will require much more moisture to hatch than is the case with hens' eggs. Run the machine at as near 103 degrees as is possible from start to finish. Turn eggs twice daily after the beginning of the third day. Always turn goose eggs by hand; handle them with much care. Stop turning on the twenty-fifth day. Goose eggs should be cooled half an hour each day in a temperature not below 60 degrees; if the cellar seems below this temperature, remove the eggs to proper point.

After the third week, sprinkle warm water over the eggs once daily. When goslings begin to pip, if you notice shells are dry and hard, there isn't enough moisture, and unless this is supplied, they will stick in the shells. Keep the eggs quite moist while hatching, by adding a pie plate of wet sand to the bottom of machine.

Leave goslings in incubator until all are thoroughly dry, usually 36 hours. Remove them to a box in the kitchen by the stove, unless a brooder is already been provided for. Goslings are easy to raise, and grow very rapidly. Water them in a vessel which cannot be overturned, nor into which they can get their feet. Keep them dry at all times. Feed sprouted oats, gravel, fine cracked corn, or any of the dry mixed chick feeds, but do not neglect always to keep water before them. Change this often; don't let it get dirty.

Mature geese may be picked, or "plucked" once every six weeks after the laying has ceased. Remove only the breast feathers—do not take the down. A little experience will tell you when they are "ripe." Do not take feathers that have blood in the quills.

Poultry Undernourished Under Farm Conditions

Poultry, of all farm stock, is most likely to be undernourished under practical farm conditions. Due to the nature of their digestive tract, their rations must be composed largely of seeds and seed by-products, feeds ill-balanced with respect to minerals, proteins and vitamins. As compared with other animals, the requirements of poultry for some of the vitamins are relatively so intense that their rations should be supplemented by feeds known to be rich in these factors. Vitamins are manufactured by plants only. Green plant tissues are with few exceptions the best sources of vitamins known, being rich in all these factors.

Young chicks are especially susceptible to a lack of vitamin in the ration and will develop the disease known as "leg weakness," including impaired appetite, anemic condition of the comb and wattles, drooping wings, ruffled feathers and unsteady gait. Prevention of leg weakness is assured by giving the chicks ready access to green feed such as green cabbage or lettuce leaves, fresh alfalfa or clover or sprouted oats. If green feed is not available, 3 to 5 per cent of cod liver oil in the mash may be used. In the maintenance of health and normal development in the flock the importance of vitamins is undoubtedly much greater than is realized. Rations deficient in vitamins will give rise to digestive disturbances and other forms of vague ill health which can be prevented by supplying the necessary vitamins and adjusting the balance of the food.

Poultry Notes

The hen that cackles the loudest is not always the greatest layer.

A hen will eat from one to two pounds of oyster shells per year.

More eggs follow a ration that contains the minerals required by a hen than can follow simple grains.

It is generally considered proper, in fact, the best form, to refer to purebred poultry as being standard bred.

Because of plenty of room in the poultry house and less competition in getting feed, it seems to be more profitable to have too few hens than too many.

Washing soiled or dirty eggs does not make them more salable. In fact, washing an egg lessens its keeping qualities by opening the pores so that evaporation is more rapid.

LIFE'S LITTLE JESTS

FICTION

Teller—That fellow Booboo saw a $20 bill on the sidewalk yesterday but refused to pick it up.
Asker—What was the matter; was it counterfeit, or was it pasted down?
Teller—No, it was all right; but yesterday was Friday and Booboo thought it would be unlucky to find money on that day.—Tromper de Sen fiers.

THE WRONG WAY

She (stamping foot)—You mustn't kiss me that way.
He (quietly)—What is your favorite way?

Plenty of Time

"Beat the train? Oh, sure!"
Lots of time," said he.
"Lots of time" was right—
All eternity.

Naturally

Pater—Robert, how is it your report card shows a D for deportment?
Robert—You see, pater, I have been so continually in conference with my instructor that the other pupils would deem it a prearranged affair should I flaunt a too inspiring mark on my record of endeavor.

The Difference

Mr. Bragga—I suppose you know I'm singing in the church choir now?
Patient Friend—No, I didn't.
Mr. Bragga—But surely your brother Tom told you I had joined the choir?
Patient Friend—Oh, yes, he told me that.—Peabody Star.

Father's Cue

"Dearest," passionately exclaimed the daughter's young man, "you have led me to adore—"
"Good!" interrupted her father's voice from the stairs. "Now open it and get out."

UNTHINKABLE

"Did you turn down the count's proposal?"
"Why of course. He's a noted mind reader. Think how terrible it would be not to be able to keep a secret."

Variety

The beautiful girls on the cover page can all my cares and woes assuage. I fall in love at the very first peek and get a new one every week.

An Efficient Druggist

"What did you put in this prescription?"
"That I can tell only to the doctor," said the druggist.
"The doctor wants to know. Seems I gave you a Chinese laundry ticket and you filled that."—Peabody Star.

Faithful Admirer

"Wasn't that story you told rather risqué?" asked the husband.
"Not at all," answered the wife. "You told it to me yourself. I was merely trying it out in a crowd in hope of seeing what was funny about it."—Washington Star.

Mean

"Old Blux is a mean old cuss, isn't he?"
"Mean! If that guy was cruising in the South Sea Islands he would throw lead nickels over the rail for the natives to bite after."

Rare Days Nowadays

"A dull day," remarked mild Mr. Good Citizen.
"Dull?"
"Nobody has asked me to contribute money for anything."

He Was

He—Haven't I seen you some place before?
She—You do seem rather fresh in my mind.—Wisconsin Octopus.

It was indeed a pleasure for the many friends of Dr. M. E. Dodd and family to have the pleasure of greeting them at church on last Friday evening, at which time he gave a very timely discussion of "Christ's Recipe for Comfort." Dr. Dodd who is now pastor of the First Baptist church of Shreveport, La., was pastor here a number of years ago, and has been in our midst frequently since then.

He and his family have many loyal friends here who are always glad to have them come this way.

Mrs. J. C. Markham, and children, of Paragould, Ark., who have been guests in the Allen home on Green street, have gone to Memphis for a short visit before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Valentine, and daughter, Ann, have returned from Biloxi, and other Gulf points.

According to announcement in last week's paper, all arrangements are being made to open our new auditorium for worship the first Sunday in September. All departments of the church are exceedingly busy arranging their part of the program for the opening week. Hope to be able to give you the program in detail next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Irby, Mesdames T. H. Irby, Redfearn and Ledford have returned from Shawnee, Okla., where they spent a fortnight with relatives.

7:30 a. m. Holy communion.

9:45 a. m. Church School, H. S. Stansbury, superintendent.

11 a. m. Matins and sermon. Every one cordially invited to attend these services.

Church News

Dr. Boyd held services at 11 a. m. at Columbus last Sunday and preached to a fairly large congregation, considering the extreme hot weather. He returned via Jordan and taxi, in time for the evening service in Fulton.

There was only a small congregation Sunday evening at Trinity, due undoubtedly to the terrific heat. Dr. Boyd shortened the service considerably, and even then was almost overcome with the heat.

Neal Karmire is spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Don Taylor, having motored through from Shelbyville, Ind., with Abe Thompson, who has been at the military camp near there.

Mrs. Don Taylor is entertaining her nephew, Charles Crockett this week. He will go from here to a military college in Virginia, the fore part of September.

Dr. Boyd left Monday morning for Tracy City, Tenn., where he was called in consultation over a former patient of his in that city. He will return in time for next Sunday's service.

Mrs. John Burgess, of Columbus, after recovering from a serious illness, was sent to Dawson Springs for some time. She has now returned to her home and is very much improved in health.

SAMBURG SMASHUP

Union City, Tenn., Aug. 23.—This afternoon, Herman Knight, of Samburg, Tenn., on Reelfoot Lake, and young Ira McCain started to Fulton, Ky., to obtain some prisoners. Just outside the city limits they ran into a one-horse peddling wagon, driven by J. R. Jeffries, badly crippling the horse, probably fractured three or four ribs and otherwise bruising Mr. Jeffries, smashing the wagon and causing a general wreck.

Mr. Jeffries had turned from the road to drive into his own lot when the crash came.

Mr. Knight is an officer at the lake and Mr. McCain is a son of Sheriff J. R. McCain of this county.

VALUE OF FAIR TO OUR PEOPLE

Agricultural and Industrial Show for Both the Town and Country Folk

Besides, It Appeals to All of Us
Who Want to Be Amused
While We're Learning—
Closer Touch With Home
Lives of Neighbors

The fair is an educational clearing house. It is an agricultural and industrial institute for residents of both town and country. It is a short course in better farming and better living. It is a physical demonstration of why the man who farms with his head instead of with his hands must inevitably succeed.

It is a comprehensive exhibition of what the ambitious boy or girl may achieve in agriculture, livestock raising, dairying, horticultural, home, gardening, domestic science or household economy. It is an exposition of the marvelous improvement in farm machinery and agricultural implements. It is an object lesson in the great part which improved machinery plays in the development and cultivation of the farm and the increased prosperity of the farmer.

Look for Yourself

The chief educational value of our fair lies in the fact that it is demonstrative in character. The eye is a more convincing instructor than the ear. We are slow to accept and believe in any new method until we have had optical proof of its superiority over the old.

Often it is difficult to obtain the attention of the busy man or woman long enough to give such a demonstration. Not infrequently it happens that farmers who would be most benefited by better methods of farming are not sufficiently interested to be present at any special meeting called for the purpose of discussing the subject.

But the fair appeals to that trait of mankind which demands entertainment and amusement and becomes a common forum for the discussion of all matters having to do with agriculture, industry, the home and the school.

In this clearing house of education, the farmer learns what the manufacturer, the merchant and the banker are and have been doing to make his labor less arduous and his farm more profitable and the town resident learns what rapid progress is being made in agriculture. A bond of common interest is created which means much to both town and country.

Value to Everybody

The farmer learns by actual observation of the newest devices and improvements in agricultural implements. He finds out their use and benefits. He learns in what way they assist in soil cultivation, in plant growth, in sowing, in harvesting, in threshing. He learns the economic value of the more modern machinery, of the silo, of motor power on the farm.

The urban dweller is furnished a vivid picture of the agricultural resources of the community. He learns about the fertility of the soil in the vicinity; of what is being done to increase the farm yield; to improve the quality of the stock, and to multiply the total dairy product.

Every man and woman, whether town or country resident, is brought into closer touch with the home life of others. All imbibe that broader education which means cooperation—that ideal education which is service to self and all humanity.

Farmers Meeting In Fulton, Tuesday August 31, 2 P. M.

Farmers and business men of this vicinity are urgently requested to meet in Fulton on Tuesday, Aug. 31, at 2 p. m., when the importance of employing an agricultural agent will be a feature of the meeting.

The meeting will be enlivened with talks of especial interest to farmers by E. J. Kilpatrick, assistant state agent of the College of Agriculture Lexington, Ky., and local speakers.

It may also be termed an educational meeting of the farmers when various ones will exchange experiences in soil building and growing staple crops, as well as improved strains of livestock, poultry, etc.

Every farmer is invited to be present. Remember the date, Tuesday, Aug. 31.

REV. CULPEPPER IN GREAT REVIVAL MEETING

A letter from John U. Robinson, secretary and choir director of the Rev. Burke Culpepper, states that he is in a glorious meeting at Amarillo, Texas, and will soon return to Kentucky and engage in a meeting at Glasgow, beginning August 29.

HIS MATCH

A taxi driver recently got the worst of a wordy bout.

An old man with a wheelbarrow wouldn't get out of the way, and the taximan shouted:

"You ought to be wheeling a baby buggy."

"And you ought to be in it," replied the old man.

A Business Getter

A small boy called on the doctor one evening. "Say, doc, I guess I got measles," he said, "but I can keep it quiet."

The doctor looked up puzzled.

"Aw, get wise, doc," suggested the small boy. "What'll you give me to go to school and scatter it among all the kids?"—Bottles.

TRIALS OF WEDDED LIFE

Radio Fan—Have you a loud speaker in your house?

Longsuffer—Yes, loud and incessant.

I'm sometimes sorry I married her.

Supply and Demand

Serve to heighten the bloom. There are always more problems than we can consume.

Conditions Changed

He—You are very extravagant in your dress.

She—Before we were married anything that was for me you never thought extravagant, no matter how much it cost.

He—Huh! I never said what I thought then.

Contemplation

"I have heard that you contemplate retiring to private life."

"I do," answered Senator Sorghum; "the same as I contemplate going to heaven. It's a sweet and blissful prospect, but somehow you don't feel in any particular hurry about it."—Washington Star

Fulton Sweet Potato Storage

Large Brick Building Equipped for Storing 25,000 Bushels

The large brick building on Carr street near State Line, has been remodeled and fitted up for a sweet potato storage. The building has a capacity for storing 25,000 bushels and will be a great convenience to growers of the tubers who haven't a storage of their own. It will also provide means by which the farmer will not be forced to sell his crop at digging time when the market is glutted and prices the lowest.

At Fulton's Sweet Potato storage they accept your potatoes at digging time, place them in Hants' well ventilated hampers and cure them ready for market and at the proper time ship in car lots when prices are good. The growers of this vicinity have long needed a first class storage and Messrs. Brooks, Henderson and T. D. Allman are to be congratulated on establishing such an enterprise.

J. R. SLAUGHTER VICTIM OF PARALYTIC STROKE

Well Known Mayfield Citizen Dies at Daughter's Home in Nashville

J. R. Slaughter, 73, for many years a merchant, salesman and Sunday School teacher, of Mayfield, Ky., died at the home of his daughter, in Nashville, Tenn., Saturday morning.

The body was shipped to Mayfield, where funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the First Baptist church conducted by the Rev. Arthur Fox. Interment in Maplewood cemetery.

Mr. Slaughter was well known in Fulton and throughout this entire section of Kentucky.

Stock Improvement in Various States

Benefits of "Better Sires—Better Stock" Plan.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

The current year promises to be one of marked activity in the improvement of domestic animals in the United States, judging from early reports received by the bureau of animal industry, United States Department of Agriculture. During the first two months eleven states contributed the names of 275 new participants in the "Better Sires—Better Stock" campaign, which is a much larger number than was recorded in the previous three months. Participation in this activity requires the exclusive use of pure-bred sires in all live stock-breeding operations.

The improvement of farm herds and flocks under the better-sires plan is especially marked in Kentucky, where county agents have made the work one of their important projects. Other states similarly active are Ohio, New York, South Carolina, Oklahoma, Nebraska, Vermont, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, California, and Iowa. The new participants own upward of 8,000 head of breeding stock exclusive of about twice that number of poultry.

Numerous educational features including the distribution of bulletins and pictorial matter on animal breeding, are an important part of the work and establish a sound basis for future improvement through proper matings and general knowledge of breeding principles.

PAINFUL BURNS HEALING

Mrs. Trevor Wayne, who suffered painful burns on her arm, face and neck last week when preparing gasoline for cleaning some articles of clothing, is reported getting along nicely. The liquid ignited from the kitchen range and she attempted to extinguish the flames.

Fulton Road Work Delayed

The continuous rains during this month has greatly retarded work on the new Fulton-Hickman highway. Cars of gravel were unloaded at Cayce, but it continued to rain until it looked like it would never quit. The surfacing of the road will be pushed with rapidity when weather conditions permit.

WIN DUROC PRIZES

Two Weakley County Duroc breeders have recently received as awards for their ton-litter feeding contest for 1925, a handsome bronze medal. These two breeders were among those entering a contest last year with the view of feeding one litter of pigs so as to produce one ton of pork in 180 days. George Shanklin and sons, of the Latham community, and M. A. Foster of the Ore Springs community were the two. The weight of the litter of pigs fed by Mr. Shanklin was 2,284 pounds and the profit made after deducting the cost of feeding was $115.61. The litter fed by Mr. Foster reached the weight of 2,385 pounds in 180 days and had a profit of $125.40 after deducting the cost.

IT IS NOW LIEUTENANT DEARING

Sergeant Geo. Dearing, local army recruiting officer, has been appointed second lieutenant in the U. S. army. His appointment was made by President Coolidge, and the commission signed by the Adjutant General at Washington, D. C.

Lieut. Dearing is a son of J. W. Dearing, of Princeton, Ky. Since coming to Fulton he has made many friends who extend congratulations.

You can get all kinds of Mower repairs at the Fulton Hardware Company's Store.

BRIDGE PARTY

A very delightful affair of the past week was the large bridge party Thursday afternoon at the Usona Hotel, with Mesdames Clarence Pickering, Martin Nall, Eugene DeMyer, and Frank Flemming as the gracious hostesses. The spacious dining room was charming with attractive baskets and bowls of fragrant flowers.

Eighteen tables were arranged for the game. Mrs. L. O. Bradford received a handsome Japanese fruit bowl for high score. Mrs. Irma Morris was awarded beautiful Madeira buffet set for second high. Mrs. Hillary Alexander was given a pretty crystal hand-painted sandwich tray for low score. At the close of the game a delicious frozen fruit salad with wafers and tea was served. Among the out-of-town guests were: Miss Adelle McDonald, St. Louis; Mrs. Artie Milburn, Pittsburg, Pa.; Mrs. Will Sherman, Winter Park, Fla.; Miss Will Creason, Mayfield; Mrs. R. I. Taylor, Hayti, Mo.; Mrs. Monte Freeborn, New Orleans; Mrs. Tom Williams, McComb, Miss.; Miss LaVerne Williams, Obion, Tenn.; Miss Rachel Major, Chicago.

HUGH PIGUE WEDS MISS JOSEPHINE CHEATHAM

Miss Josephine Cheatham, daughter of Mrs. C. W. Dimmett, was united in marriage to Mr. Hugh G. Pigue, at the bride's home in Fayette Mo., Wednesday, August 25, the Rev. Peges, pastor of the Fayette Methodist Church, officiating.

The bride was teacher of English in the Fulton High School last session and is well known in the city. During her stay here, she endeared herself to a large circle of friends who will welcome her return.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Pigue, of Water Valley. For the past ten years he has been a valued employee of the City National Bank, of Fulton, and holds the office of assistant cashier. He is prominently identified in Fulton business circles and has a host of friends who extend congratulations.

After a visit to St. Louis, Mr. and Mrs. Pigue will be at home to their friends at the Pickering apartments on Eddings street.

FULTON MUSICIAN CAPTIVATES LARGE AUDIENCES

George Huddleston in Recitals at Union City and Hickman

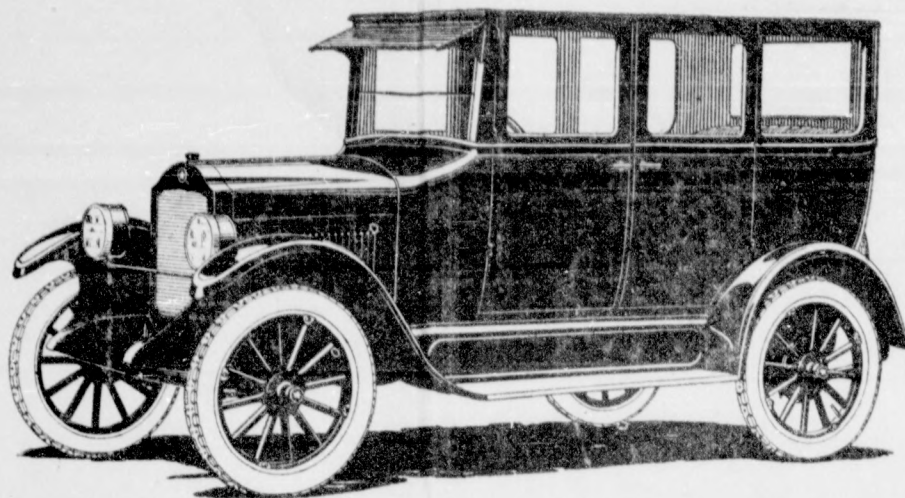

George Huddleston, of New York City, who is spending his vacation in Fulton with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Huddleston, gave an organ recital at the First Methodist church in Union City, Friday evening. The church auditorium was filled with music lovers and many from Fulton and neighboring towns attended the recital.

On Tuesday evening, through the efforts of Mrs. B. T. Davis, wife of Senator Davis, Mr. Huddleston treated music lovers of Hickman in a recital at the First Methodist church in that city.

Mr. Huddleston is a young musical genius. For the past two years he has made his home in New York City and is organist and choir director of Trinity Episcopal Church, at Cranford, N. J.

For a short time we will accept subscriptions to The Advertiser and Memphis Weekly Commercial Appeal, both papers one year, for $1.25. This is a splendid opportunity to get your home paper and city paper for only $1.25 a year.

FOOD LIKE YOU GET AT HOME

This is truly a home-like restaurant because it has endeavored to break down the prejudice based on the theory that restaurants could not serve food like you get at home. Many patrons will testify that there is no difference between our meals and the meals they get at home. That's the reason they come here so frequently to eat. Years of catering to the appetites of particular people make it possible for us to serve appetizing meals. The next time you want to eat away from home, bring your family here.

Senour's FLOOR PAINT

"It Penetrates"

In the word "penetration," is a secret manufacturing process that has made Senour's Floor Paint a popular favorite for over 40 years.

If a floor paint does not penetrate or grip into the wood it will soon begin to crack, chip and peel. Senour's Floor Paint dries over night with a high gloss enamel-like finish, but at the same time it sinks into the pores of the wood and forms a film that will withstand the hardest usage and will withstand repeated washings without dimming the lustre.

Every can of Senour's Floor Paint is guaranteed to give satisfaction if directions printed on the can are followed or money back upon receipt of empty can.

A color card is yours for the asking.

NO DOUBT ABOUT IT

Manager (to female applicant for position on the stage)—Have you had any experience?

"No."
"I suppose you were the talk of your town?"
"Oh, no."
"You expect to be a star some day?"
"Oh, no, of course not."
"Can you sing?"
"Very little."
"All right, you're hired. I'll use you as a curiosity."

Drawing the Distinction

"Are you a politician or a statesman?"
"I don't know yet," answered Senator Sorghum. "If I get re-elected and stay in the game, they'll call me a politician. If I get defeated and write essays, the publishers will advertise me as a statesman."—Washington Star.

A Surprise

Suitor—I hope my proposal for the hand of your daughter hasn't taken you by surprise, sir.

Father—Well, to tell the truth, it has. You've been so jolly slow in getting around to it that I thought it wasn't coming at all.

Question of the Moment

"And what," asked the prospective father-in-law, "do you expect to do for my daughter in the future?"
"I hadn't thought much about it," answered the equally prospective son-in-law. "You see, tomorrow's her birthday and I'm worrying now about her present."

Even

Girl (slipping on new engagement ring)—You've hit on my favorite stone, old thing, which is more than the others did.

Man—It's the same kind I usually buy.

WHY THEY DIG

"Why are these congressional committees always digging into something and stirring up the dirt?"
"Because it's pay dirt, my boy."

Insult to the Mule

When the donkey saw the zebra, he began to switch his tail.
Well, I never! was his comment.
There's a mule that's been in jail.

Another Flash

Call Telephone Numbers Not Individuals Station to Station Calls Reduce Telephone Bills

To make a station-to-station call you merely tell the operator that you wish to be connected with a certain telephone at the distant point. You do not ask for a particular person.

The call can be completed even if you do not know the number of the telephone you are calling. You can ask to be connected with the telephone in Mr. Blank's residence or with the telephone in the office of Jones & Company.

Station-to-station long distance telephone service is becoming more popular as telephone users understand how simple it is to make calls of this kind.

Try this service when making social or business calls. You will be surprised how quickly you get your party, and the small cost will please you.

Treatment of Color of House Important

It is rare that a house should present more than two colors, and there should be nothing facetious or faddish about their choice.

A house is lived in too long, and under too many conditions of weather and season, to say nothing of other circumstances, to be extreme in any way.

It need not be so neutral as to forego all individuality, but it should on the whole be rather conservative than err on the other side.

The exterior should be neutral enough to serve as a peaceful transition between the surroundings and the interior furnishings and to sit harmoniously and quiet in its own grounds.

If the house is finished with smooth siding, such as wide boards or clap boards, it takes paint, but if it is covered with rough sawed siding, such as shingles or rough boards, stain should be used.

Stain is a thin material and will not successfully tint smooth woodwork, but it does penetrate deeply into the surface of rough wood. These are technically known as shingle stains, although they may be applied just as well to any wood or rough surface whether shingles or boards.

Paint should be used on smooth siding and trim where it will produce a film of weather resisting material on the outside of the boards, penetrating slightly into the wood fiber.

Planning Adopted by Kansas City Praised

Probably the most successful work of city planning, as well as one of the most extensive and beautiful residential communities in the United States, in the Country club district in Kansas City. The story of this remarkable achievement of its originator, J. C. Nichols, has often been told—among other places, in this magazine. But it deserves an occasional remembrance, says World's Work.

Mr. Nichols has demonstrated that beauty and good taste can be made to pay for he has been consistently successful over a period of 15 years. This community is growing in population at the rate of 2,500 a year. Automobile parking spaces that do not look ragged, accommodations for the unloading of motor trucks at retail stores without having the trucks harass traffic or be in sight at all while standing still, gasoline stations that are not ugly or loud—these, and a dozen other things that ordinarily strive to spoil the most desirable neighborhood, have been brought under the control of art and robbed of their power to destroy the beauty of the scene.

Explaining Increase in Individual Homes

The average American man with a family is either living in a home of his own, or is looking forward to the time when he can do so. A rented house or a city apartment in most cases provides a temporary home only until such time as the head of the house can afford the privilege of firing his own furnace, mowing his own lawn and patching his own back-door steps.

This explains the constant increase in individual homes. Nobody needs to read up on building statistics to learn that there is a constant increase in sturdy, well-built houses. Go into any large city and ride around the fringe and one will find the landscape cluttered with partly completed houses. A little further out will be found subdivisions waiting for the building wave which will soon engulf them.

Luminous House Numbers

New innovations or adaptations to new uses of existing ones are without end in the building industry. An interesting application of luminous material to house numbers is one of the latest additions to the home owner's convenience. This is a number deeply enclosed in an aluminum plaque 2 1/4 by 3 1/4 inches, the upper surface being coated with black enamel and baked, the lower surface being given a scratchbrush finish. Then the center portion is coated with a good quality of "Undark" radium-luminous material. This is then inclosed in an aluminum frame with clear glass.

To Beautify Highway

In order to beautify and shade the main highways of the province of Quebec that are without trees, the provincial government authorities are planting 300,000 trees this year. In addition to beautifying the highways and providing shade in the summer months, the trees will help to preserve the roads by protecting them, to some extent, from the elements.

Facilities for Pleasure

More and more, as wealth increases and leisure widens, superior facilities for pleasure are an asset of immense value to cities, states and even entire countries. As Florida and California capitalize their winter sunshine and warmth so Canada, New England and the Rocky mountain states turn their summer coolness into hints for cooling gold. Places that possess real advantages for good times are unwise if they do not make the most of them.

FARM POULTRY

RIGHT FEED WILL
STOP SOFT SHELLS

At this time of the year no complaint is much more common than that hens are laying soft-shelled eggs. This means considerable loss through a corresponding reduction in the quantity of marketable eggs produced. The causes of soft-shelled eggs are well known to the well-informed poultryman. He understands that the appearance of such an egg is an indication of improper feeding and he governs himself accordingly.

The yolk of the egg is fully formed when it breaks from the hen's ovary and drops into the funnel-shaped mouth of the oviduct. It is at this point that fertilization of the egg takes place, if the egg is to be fertilized, and probably within a few minutes of the breaking loose of the yolk. In about three hours the formation of the thicker albumen is completed, this taking place in the upper and central sections of the oviduct.

The third and last section of this organ secretes the shell membrane, and it also requires about three hours for the shell to form therein. By the expansion and contraction of the walls of the oviduct the egg is forced forward into the shell gland, where the lime is deposited, and within 12 to 24 hours the egg is laid. One can readily see that anything that would have a tendency to make the egg pass too rapidly through this portion of the oviduct would cause the hen to lay soft-shelled eggs.

The first and usual cause of soft-shelled eggs is that the bird is too fat. The muscular movement of the oviduct is hindered by layers of fat, and instead of the egg being controlled by firm muscles it merely slips through a flabby mass without setting its shell on. The difficulty will vanish if the birds are made to scratch hard in a clean, dry straw litter for all their grain, and the ration fed is not over-fattening. Sprouted oats will be a valuable food, as they are less fattening than either wheat or corn. In some cases it might do well to omit for a few days all mashes, especially moist mashes, if many soft-shelled eggs are coming through.

The second source of soft-shelled eggs is lack of lime in the hen's ration. In this case the shell-secreting part of the oviduct fails to do its work because of lack of material. Oyster shell broken fine enough for the hens to eat or dry granulated bone are good sources for the lime required. It is claimed by some poultrymen that the use of limestone also helps to supply material to the hen. It is often recommended that old plaster or mortar be broken or ground fairly fine and thrown into a box in the pen for the birds to eat.

Keeping Records Shows Profits From Hen Flock

The year 1925 was a good one for the poultryman who kept close tabs on his flock.

"Profits for the year ending November 1 ran slightly higher than a year ago in most counties I have visited so far for summarizing records," writes G. S. Vickers, poultry extension specialist at the Ohio State university, in a letter sent to the 1925 Ohio farmers who keep flock records in co-operation with the university.

Indications are that these poultrymen will average 120 eggs or more per hen for the year. The state average is about seventy eggs.

In Medina county the high flock made a net profit of $2.38 on each hen housed at the start of the year, while the low flock made forty-two cents a hen. The low man cannot possibly maintain the same standard of living the high man can. He has a problem to meet if he wants more of these worldly goods.

Poultry Hints

Eggs can be produced cheaply only from high-producing stock.

No one grain supplies all the feed elements needed for egg production in the right proportion.

Yellow corn, according to scientists, is better food for poultry as it contains vitamin A which is essential to the poultry diet.

Egg eating is a hard vice to cure. It usually starts from the hens breaking thin-shelled eggs. To prevent the laying of such eggs give the hens plenty of oyster shells. Darkening the nests discourages egg-eating, and more beef scrap in the ration helps to break it up.

Most of the fault found with incubators traces to one big mistake—failure to heed the manufacturer's directions.

The shape or weight of eggs in no way shows what sex the chicks will be, according to Department of Agriculture tests.

You can't afford to fool around with hens if you are hatching for a flock of more than fifty layers. An incubator does the work about as well and at much less cost.

EVERY SMART INTERPRETATION OF THE NEW MODE IN THESE
NEW COATS FOR FALL

These new styles are all bound for the fashion parade and will be worn by smart women this Fall and Winter.

The group we present here are models of the well known Printzess make and represent one of the most distinguished groups in our fall style exposition. Notice the variety in silhouette—the bloused bodice with tight hip-line and straight skirt, the wrap of dolman tendencies, the swagger flare from the shoulder, and the still immensely popular and youthfully becoming tube contour.

All of beautiful fabric, richly fur trimmed, crepe or silk lined. Just the type of coat you can put on now and continue to wear throughout the season.

Of course, being Printzess styles, their tailoring detail is above reproach. For real chic you will be enthusiastic about all the models in this group.

MAKES PERFECT SCORE WITH HOWITZER

Private Stanley Miller, Howitzer Platoon, Eleventh Infantry, Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind., recently won the prize in the Howitzer Marksmanship competition for men never before having qualified. He turned in a perfect score on both the preliminary and qualification tests.

The 11th Infantry is stationed at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind., just outside the City of Indianapolis, Ind., a city of over 400,000 people, and an ideal place to soldier. The 11th Infantry was organized during the Revolutionary war, and since that time has played a prominent part in every war. This post is modern in every respect, having a large acreage of ground, a fine athletic field has been built for the soldiers' use, all kinds of athletic games are sponsored here, and in fact, athletics are a great part of a soldier's training. Furloughs are liberally given under pay. Fort Harrison is known as the Kentucky and Tennessee boys' own post as it is so convenient for them to come home on a vacation. There are numerous other posts open with different regiments and branches of service, Panama, Hawaii, and the U. S. A. All kinds of opportunities for advancement and trade schools. See Sgt. Dearing at the Post Office. He will explain anything that you want to know.

FEEDING BABY DURING SUMMER

Milk is recognized as the ideal food for young children. It should be carefully guarded during the warm summer months, to insure its freedom from germs or bacteria that might cause harm to the child. Because of its nature, it is, under certain conditions, a breeding and propagating ground for germ life and may soon become unfit for use unless it is handled with the utmost care and vigilance. Perhaps the ideal way to obviate this risk is through the use of evaporated milk. This milk is only pure milk with sixty per cent of the water removed from it and is absolutely sterile. It is of double richness but may be modified by the addition of water, which will return it to its original volume with a greatly enhanced food value.

Evaporated milk is sterilized and has a high nutritive content. This causes it to be a very excellent food for the young child and the infant. In fact, many of the leading pediatricians of the country advocate its use after the child is deprived of its mother's milk. A formula, evolved by these pediatricians, through experimentation, is as follows:

From Sixth Week to Third Month.
Milk, evaporated ..... 6 ounces
Lime water ..... 2 ounces
Milk sugar ..... 2 ounces
Boiled water ..... 26 ounces
Seven feedings in twenty-four hours, 4 to 5 ounces at three-hour intervals during the day and four-hour intervals at night.

From Third Month to Fifth Month.
Milk, evaporated ..... 7½ ounces
Lime water ..... 2 ounces
Milk sugar ..... 2 ounces
Boiled water ..... 29½ ounces
Six feedings in twenty-four hours, 5 to 6 ounces at three-hour intervals during the day and 4 feeding at 10 p. m.

From Fifth to Seventh Month.
Milk, evaporated ..... 10 ounces
Lime water ..... 2 ounces
Milk sugar ..... 2 ounces
Boiled water ..... 29 ounces
Five feedings in twenty-four hours, 6 to 7 ounces at four-hour intervals, the last feeding to be given at 10 p. m.

From Seventh to Ninth Month.
Milk, evaporated ..... 11 ounces
Lime water ..... 2 ounces
Milk sugar ..... 2 ounces
Boiled water ..... 35 ounces
6 to 8 ounces at four-hour intervals during the day. Last feeding at ten at night.

From Ninth to Twelfth Month.
Milk, evaporated ..... 12 ounces
Lime water ..... 2 ounces
Milk sugar ..... 2 ounces
Barley water ..... 34 ounces
