The Official Count.

The above table shows the official returns of the primary election of the 3rd inst. The nominees of the primary are as follows:

E. P. Phillips, county judge.
B. B. Barnett, county attorney.
L. W. Holland, sheriff.
Reuben Falwell, county clerk.
Joe Lancaster, circuit clerk.
Henry Chunn, representative.
Miss Lucile Grogan, superintendent schools.
Hardy Rogers, assessor.
Wert Alderson, jailer.
W. M. Henry, surveyor.
J. H. Churchill, coroner.

The largest number of votes cast in any of the races was for Superintendent of schools, which shows a total vote of 3,475. The next largest vote was cast in the county court clerk's race, which has a vote of 3,424, or 51 less than was cast in the superintendents race. The candidates for sheriff polled 3,394 votes.

The most phenomenal vote cast was in West Murray where a total of 512 ballots were polled, or a total 32 more than was cast for the first elector for both Bryan and Taft in the national election, they both receiving only 480 votes.

Out of a total of 512 votes cast 497 were polled in the county clerk's race, 496 in the superintendents race, 496 in the assessor's race, 482 in the judge's race, 474 in the jailer's race and 471 in the sheriff's race.

In most of the precincts the total vote in the national election only exceed the primary election vote by very small majorities. The total Bryan and Taft vote in the county was 3,793 while 3,475 voters were polled in the superintendents race in the primary and 3,425 in the county clerk's race, a difference in the total national and primary votes of only 318, showing that fully 500 voters participated in the primary who did not vote the national democratic ticket as required by the call.

In the above table is also shown the official vote by precincts in the national election, including the congressional, court house and stock law vote. However five precincts have not reported the vote on the court house and stock law.

In addition to the above table the People's party polled 11 votes, Socialist labor 4 votes and the Independence party 2 votes.

The greatest number of votes received by a Bryan elector was 3,024 and the smallest received was 2,988. The greatest number received by a Taft elector was 808 and the smallest 803. The first elector on the Prohibition ticket received 101 votes.

BRYAN SPEAKS

Tells of Faith in the Issues and People Without Malice To Anyone.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 6.—William J. Bryan yesterday issued the following statement:

"The election has gone against us by a decisive majority. The returns are not all in, and it is impossible at the present time to analyze them or to say what causes contributed most to the Republican victory. We made our fight upon a platform which embodied what we believed to be good for the American people, but it is for the people themselves to decide what laws they desire and what methods of government they prefer. I have faith that the publicity which we asked for will yet commend itself to the American people, that the election of senators by the people will be secured, that the iniquities of trusts will arouse an opposition that will result in the elimination of the principle of private monopoly. I am confident that the people will see the necessity for the labor legislation and the tariff reduction which our platform demanded.

"I am confident, too, that the educational work done in this campaign will result in securing greater protection to bank depositors. The above are the most prominent reforms for which we labored, and I believe that these reforms will yet come, together with more effective regulation of railroads and independence for the Filipinos.

"I desire to commend the work of our national committee. I am entirely satisfied with Mr. Mack as the chairman, and with the members of the committee. I do not see what they could have done more than they did, and as for myself, I put forth every effort in my power to secure victory for our cause. The nomination came from the hands of the voters; I have obeyed their command, and have led as best I could.

"Words will not express my gratitude for the devotion which has been shown by millions of Democrats during the past twelve years. Neither am I able to adequately express my appreciation for the kind words which have been spoken since the election. If I could regard the defeat as purely a personal

Auto Racing

Makes for Better
Machines and Better Roads

By JOHN JACOB ASTOR.

Racing is sure to advance the automobile. It tends to produce the best material, to induce men to study out better machinery, to build better tires, to work out every technical problem.

Then there is another side to the question. Racing tends to better roads, and better roads are one of the best examples of advance in civilization. Without good roads a country cannot progress. They are the means of promoting trade and intercourse between far distant communities. And automobile racing helps to bring this about.

Unlike the aeroplane, the automobile seems today well nigh perfect up to a certain point. It is at this moment far ahead of the roads, especially in our country. We need better roads here in the United States. I don't mean for the sake of the automobiles alone, but for the sake of those who must necessarily use them for their products to market, whether it be the farmer or the manufacturer. A farmer can move his crop at much less cost for transportation on a good road than he must spend on a bad one. The automobilists don't ask for good roads for themselves alone, but for all their countrymen, whether they be farmers, manufacturers or simply travelers.

A good automobile has come down very much in price since the introduction of self-propelled vehicles. It will come down more in price, I think, as its use becomes more general and popular. I doubt, however, the prediction of those optimists who say that the time will come when an automobile will become as cheap as the ordinary vehicle, because it contains its own motive power, which is a fact to be considered.

Coat of Arms Easy to Get

By JAMES GRANT.

That John D. Rockefeller was satisfied to be shown to be the descendant of a mediocre mediocrity French baron called Roquefeuil is a point for his modesty. The pedigree-seekers of the British museum, the Astor or Boston libraries, or the Bibliotheque Nationale, would have made him out the rejeiton of the Capets, the Hapsburgs or the Hohenzollerns for a less sum of money than the great oil magnate probably earns in half a day. Nor could these pedigree-mongers have been very well gainsaid. For if, O ancestor-hunter, you calculate that you had two parents who were, in their turn, possessed of four, who acknowledged eight, who owned 16, who must have had 32, who boasted of 64 parents—if you travel along on this ratio for 10 or 20 generations, you will find that the people of France, let us say, who are alive and active to-day, must necessarily have been related to all those French people who existed six or eight or ten hundred years ago. One thing is incontrovertible on the simple figures of the matter, and that is that every white man, now alive in the world, can show a relationship with every white man who existed 2,500 years ago. On other words, no European could be held to be untruthful who should say that he was descended from, say, the first Brutus, for after a certain number of generations of blood admixtures it matters very little in the descendant whether his claim be direct or collateral, as far as any of the characteristics, or even blood, of the original ancestor is concerned.

It is safe to say that direct ancestry cannot be traced in European families much beyond 15 generations; or, roughly, 500 years. The fable that King Edward is a lineal descendant of Hengist and Horsa is about as ridiculous as the statement that the Hapsburgs are directly sprung from Octavian, the nephew of Julius Caesar.

Evolution has clearly enough shown that animals and plants cease to propagate after having done so for a certain number of generations. This would be all the more so in generations of nobility or gentry which are almost invariably in-bred or exclusive. So it is clear that Mr. Rockefeller—who is far too wise, probably, to care one way or the other—may have a coat-of-arms of the Roquefeuil family; but it is certain that he has descended neither blood nor characteristics from that highly respectable house.

The Greeks made few mistakes in their choice of words. They called the best man "aristos"—without reference to birth—and the best people "aristoi." It is pleasant to reflect that one may trace a close relationship to an "aristos," four or five generations back, and so construct a kind of nobility of blood and breeding upon the fact that he is transmitting his blood to us. To claim this over a score of generations is, however, a historical absurdity and an evolutionary impossibility.

Students and the Faculty

By PRESIDENT VAN HISE
of the University of Wisconsin.

The ideal relation between faculty and students should be that of comrades working together for a common purpose—older and younger comrades, it is true, each with their own privileges, but still comrades. The mutual sentiments of students and faculty should be those of warm cordiality. I hope that within this university the relation of older and younger comrades which already exists between many professors and students may become universal. At various times there has been more or less antagonism between a considerable portion of the students and the faculty. When one investigates the causes of this antagonism, he usually finds that it has grown up in connection with misunderstandings and differences of opinion upon matters which are accessory to the real purposes of the university, such as athletics and society affairs. As is often the case, lack of harmony with reference to minor things has led to partial estrangement in major things. The students are young men and women—youth, therefore thoughtless and careless, frequently headstrong. They are young, and they have not yet been sobered by responsibility, and seasoned by experience; but they are generous, enthusiastic, likable and helpful with the faith of youth. With few exceptions they intend to do the right thing if they know what the right thing is.

It is the duty of the faculty to point the way to the students with calm reasonableness. Never yet have I known a body of representative students who failed to give fair weight to the ideas presented to them if presented for their consideration with the appeal to do the thing that is for the best interests of themselves, the university and the state.

HAVE YOU EVER NOTICED IT?

Visiting Englishman Calls Attention to American Custom He Thinks Peculiar.

"Of all your queer American customs," said the Englishman, "and you have many queer ones, oh, yes, very many, the queerest is that of the eldest daughter of the first marriage of a woman who has been married more than once wearing her mother's first wedding ring."

"How is that?" said the American woman. "I didn't just catch that."

The Englishman repeated. "In the two weeks that I have been in New York," he elucidated still further, "I have met four maiden ladies of 35 to 40 who were wearing a ring. I thought that very strange. I asked for an explanation, and each time I found that it was the ring with which the lady's father had married her mother. When the mother married again she gave the ring to the eldest daughter. Don't you think that queer?"

"I do," said the American woman. "Still, I don't believe it is a real custom or I should have heard of it before."

TOLSTOI AND THE RICH WIDOW.

An extraordinary story is told of the hatred which the opponents of Tolstoi show toward the veteran philosopher. Some time ago Tolstoi went to visit a relation of his, and while at his relative's house fell ill and was compelled to remain. When the owner of the house, a wealthy widow, heard of the incident she went to her tenant in a rage and demanded that the sick man be turned out. This request being naturally refused, the infuriated widow hired a band which played all day beneath the sick man's window, while at night her servants were sent up on the roof of the house to beat on it with sticks and make as much noise as possible. Finally Tolstoi, in spite of his great weakness, had to be removed to give him a chance for his life.

SEE SHOW ON OLD TICKET.

When the Two Johns Dramatic Company was at the old theater in this city 18 years ago last April Dietrich Weiss had purchased tickets for himself and wife. Going home from work that evening he fell under a trolley car that he attempted to board and had his left ankle and leg crushed so that amputation was necessary.

Mr. Weiss preserved the tickets unused until the other evening, when a company under the same name appeared at the Auditorium, and the tickets were honored for himself and wife.—Stillwater Correspondence Pioneer Press.

A SLIGHT OVERSIGHT.

"This magazine made a funny break this month."

"As to how?"

"Why, they left out the reading matter."

LIMITED CREDULITY.

Salesman—Sorry, we're quite out of game, but I can recommend the same game.

Mr. Van Sharpshooter—H'm, yes! But the wife would not believe I shot em.

FORSAKES SOCIETY FOR WORK.

Mrs. Robert McLane, a beautiful Baltimore woman, widow of a former mayor of that city, has gone into business in New York, not because she has to earn a living but because she wants something to occupy her mind. She will make hats, as she has much talent for millinery and thinks that a profitable business as well.

HARD LUCK.

"Just my luck," wailed the woman. "Here is a chance to send letters to the British Isles for less than half price, and I don't know a soul in England to write to."

A RIDE ON AN AVALANCHE

By ARTHUR L. MESERVE

A party of us were sitting one night on the veranda of the Willey house, in the Great Notch of the White mountains.

The moon was near its full, and a flood of its silver light plainly revealed the giant form of Mount Webster, whose crest seemed to form a rest for the cloudless sky.

The great seams down its side, which marked the avalanches on that fatal night when the Willey family rushed forth to their doom, were plainly to be seen; and we could, in a measure, conceive the horrible warring of the elements on that fatal occasion.

We could well imagine how the doomed ones must have thought the end of all terrestrial things had come, as indeed it had to them.

Among our party was a man by the name of Silas Clark, who, for well-nigh a score of years, had followed the calling of a guide among the mountains, and there was not a locality among them with which he was not familiar.

One of our party turned to him with the inquiry whether in his long experience about the mountains he had ever witnessed a slide in its descent.

His answer so startled us that all eyes were turned at once in his direction.

"I rode upon one once!" he said. "How? What do you mean?" several demanded at once.

"What I have said. I was caught thunder fell upon our ears. I knew that we should catch a heavy storm before we returned; but it was now too late to turn back, even had the party been willing to have done so, which they were not. We were by this time well up toward the summit, and they were bound to reach it, come what would.

"Upward and upward we clambered, and at last we stood in the very seat of the pulpit. This much of our task was accomplished, and I never saw men more thankful than at that time those who were with me.

"We had not been on the summit more than three minutes, when a great cloud came rolling toward us and in a moment we were enveloped in its folds. There was no rain in it, but a sharp clap of thunder close at hand warned us that it would not be many moments before the storm would burst upon us.

"To stay where we were longer would be to gain nothing and to risk much. If we were not blown from the rock we should get such a drenching as might cost us our lives. There was no place up there where we could obtain shelter, while below I hoped to find one that would partially protect us, at any rate.

"They were as eager as I to descend. At every moment the blackness about us grew more alarming until at last it was so dense that we could hardly see six feet from the spot where we stood. No one who has not seen it for himself can imagine the inky blackness of one of these mountain storms when you are in the very heart of it.

"I led the way down out of the pulpit and over the great mass of broken rocks heaped at its base. We made all the haste we could, but we had not gone more than 40 rods before the storm was upon us.

"The rain came down in torrents and the wind blew a fearful gale. It was almost a continuous flash of lightning, while the thunder was deafening. It seemed as though the end of the world was coming, and I could easily imagine what the Willey family must have thought on that awful night when death came to them in the midst of that terrible darkness.

"We picked our way along as best we could for some ten minutes longer, while the storm, if it was possible, seemed to be increasing in fury each moment. At the end of that time we found ourselves among some stunted trees whose matted boughs offered a slight shelter from the foaming torrents. Under these we halted, determined to remain there until the storm had in a manner abated. But there was no sign of its abating. If possible, the rain fell still faster.

"For some 15 minutes we had crouched here, and then we sprang suddenly upright with a fear such as I had never known struggling at my heart.

"The earth beneath our feet was moving!

"In an instant the terrible truth flashed upon me. The pouring torrents had started a new landslide, and we were borne along with it.

"To my dying day I shall never forget my feeling at that moment. Death stared us in the face. My first thought was to fly if possible from the track of the landslide, but some strange power seemed to rivet me to the spot.

"For a moment the earth glided slowly along, and then all at once, with a rush and a groan which drowned the howling of the tempest, the great mass rushed down toward the bottom of the valley. Each moment we expected that the quivering mass beneath our feet would open and swallow us.

"Suddenly there was a shock which threw us from our feet, in spite of the hold we had upon the trunks of the dwarfed trees, which, like ourselves, were being hurled along with irresistible power. Then, to our great joy, we found that we were stationary.

"A huge rock, which the force of the landslide could not move, was directly in its path, and we had split it asunder. Upon this our good luck had thrown us, and we were safe. The mass of stone and earth united below it, and went thundering on into the valley beneath.

"A more thankful party than we there probably never was in this world.

"An hour later, when the storm had abated, we descended, following the course of the landslide, where it surely seemed we must have been ground to pieces had we been carried with it."

PERFECT HEALTH.

After Years of Backache, Dizziness and Kidney Disorders.

Mrs. R. C. Richmond, of Northwood, Iowa, says: "For years I was a martyr to kidney trouble, backache, dizzy spells, headaches and a terrible bearing-down pain. I used one remedy after another without benefit. Finally I used a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and the backache ceased. Encouraged, I kept on, and by the time I had used three boxes not a sign of the trouble remained. My health is perfect."

The Little Girl and the Donkey.

The four-year-old daughter of a Washington man not long ago saw a donkey for the first time. She talked to her father a good deal touching the unusual sight. It was a "dear donkey," it was a "lovely donkey," etc., etc. Soon the child exhausted her stock of adjectives.

"And so you liked the donkey, did you?" asked the fond parent.

"Oh, so much, daddy!" returned the tot.

"That is, I liked him pretty well. But I didn't like to hear him snort."—Lippincott's.

Nothing I Ate Agreed With Me.

MRS. LENORA BODENHAMER.

Mrs. Lenora Bodenhamer, R. F. D. 1, Box 99, Kernersville, N. C., writes:

"I suffered with stomach trouble and indigestion for some time, and nothing that I ate agreed with me. I was very nervous and experienced a continual feeling of uneasiness and fear. I took medicine from the doctor, but it did me no good.

"I found in one of your Peruna books a description of my symptoms. I then wrote to Dr. Hartman for advice. He said I had catarrh of the stomach. I took Peruna and Mucalain and followed his directions and can now say that I feel as well as I ever did.

"I hope that all who are afflicted with the same symptoms will take Peruna, as it has certainly cured me."

The above is only one of hundreds who have written similar letters to Dr. Hartman. Just one such case as this entitles Peruna to the candid consideration of every one similarly afflicted. If this be true of the testimony of one person what ought to be the testimony of hundreds, yes thousands, of honest, sincere people. We have in our files a great many other testimonials.

EDWARD WARD CARMACK.

Ex-Senator Edward Ward Carmack, of Tennessee, was waylaid and murdered on the streets of Nashville last Monday afternoon at about 4 o'clock by Robin Cooper, son of Col. D. B. Cooper, who was also present and armed when the terrible deed was committed. The immediate cause of the murder was editorial criticism of Col. Cooper made in the Tennesseean, of which Senator Carmack was the editor.

Not since the assassination of our own beloved Wm. Goebel has there been committed a more dastardly or blacker crime throughout the whole nation.

In the death of Senator Carmack the nation loses a patriot, the Southland its ablest, most eloquent and grandest citizen, the Fourth Estate its most versatile and brilliant member.

Senator Carmack sprang into the forefront of Southern journalism by sheer force of his magnificent ability. Quitting the field of journalism for politics he proved his prowess in his new field of usefulness by achieving success after success. His career attracted the attention of a nation, it was captivating, it was patriotic, it shot through the public arena with meteoric brilliancy.

Stricken down by a murderer's bullet in the zenith of his career and why? His ability was not accepted by his state, and lesser lights were placed where his brilliancy was acknowledged. To compare Senator Robt. Taylor, who succeeded him in the senate, or Gov. Patterson, who defeated him for the democratic nomination for governor, with Senator Carmack only makes more odious comparison between the fire-fly and the sun.

Grand in defeat, dauntless, courageous, still fighting the cause of right he began the purification of Tennessee politics. Because he had the courage of an honest newspaper man, because he was not afraid to expose hypocrisy and corruption in high places, because he entertained higher and holier conceptions of the duties of a public servant than did the political poltroons who had temporarily dethroned him, because he dared to do right, he is murdered.

Down in Obion county, Tenn., a company of state troops are endeavoring to establish "the reign of law," to bring order out of chaos, following the assassination of Quentin Rankin. Gov. Malcolm R. Patterson has been present in person to aid the troops in bringing before the bar of justice the ignorant and oppressed fishermen who struck out blindly and ignorantly when attempt was made to deny them the liberties enjoyed for generations by their forefathers. The murder of Quentin Rankin by ignorant, vicious men was a horrible crime and his assassins must be made to pay the penalty the law exacts.

From Obion county look across the state and see Nashville, the Athens of the south. The most gifted son of the proud commonwealth ever boasted shot to death on her streets like a common cur might be slain, and the same governor who rushed to Obion county to aid in apprehending Rankin's murderers leisurely lounges about the gubernatorial mansion with foreknowledge of the intention of the contemptible cowards who besmirched the state's escutcheon with the most horrible crime in its history.

"Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord."

The laws of Tennessee may be vindicated but their vindication will not expiate this terrible crime. Justice, justice, there can be no justice!

The anti-campaign button motto is "I lost my dollar, did you?"

The stock law in Marshall county was carried in the recent election by a majority of about 200 votes.

A Democrat was elected governor of Indiana last week. Wonder where Taylor and Finley will move to? Might as well come home and get a Willson pardon now.

The result of the primary election in the First Judicial district shows the re-election of R. J. Bugg for circuit judge, and R. L. Smith for commonwealth's attorney. Bugg's majority over Sam Crossland was 1,153. Crossland beat H. J. Moorman 194 votes. The district is composed of Graves, Fulton, Carlisle, Hickman and Ballard counties.

Editor Jennings, of the Murray Ledger, was defeated in the primary election for county court clerk by a small majority. Mr. Jennings comes out with a card in his paper with the right ring to it, stating that he had no ill feeling against the people of the country and that he would do everything in his power for the advancement of the town of Murray, the county and the people. This is the right spirit for Mr. Jennings to take his defeat, and shows him to be the proper kind of a man.—Mayfield Messenger.

Senator-elect W. O. Bradley, Congressman John W. Langley, J. B. Bennett and D. C. Edwards and Postmaster Frank Fisher have formed a combination to control Federal patronage in Kentucky. Senator Bradley will, of course be the most influential of the group, but all have agreed to stand together, and applicants without their indorsement will stand little chance of getting any of the pie. We're going to have some fun now watching the boys squabble for the Murray postmastership. Go it Jim, eat 'em alive Pat, sic 'em Biath, go it Ep and Jim and Kit!

THE CAUSE OF COLDS.

Good Advice Regarding the Prevention of Coughs and Colds.

If people would only properly fortify and strengthen their system, about 98 per cent. of coughs, colds and pneumonia might be avoided. These troubles are simply the result of weakness, which produces a catarrhal condition of the mucous membranes, which is as an internal skin of the body. When this skin is weakened, it becomes infected with germs which are carried through the system by the blood. These parasites attack and break these delicate tissues and set up a soreness which produce what is in reality an external scrofula.

The only thing that will cure coughs and colds and prevent pneumonia is a medication which is absorbed and carried by the blood so that the diseased membrane is disinfected, cleaned, soothed and healed.

We have a remedy which we honestly believe infallible and unsurpassable for the prevention and cure of coughs, colds and all catarrhal conditions. It is the prescription of a famous physician, who has an enviable reputation of 30 years of cures gained through the use of this medicine. We promise to effect a cure in every case or make no charge for the medicine. We urge everybody in Murray who has need of such a medicine to try Rexall Mucu-Tone.

It stands to reason that we could not afford to make such statements and give our own personal guarantee to this remedy if we were not absolutely positive that we could substantiate our claim in every particular, and we see no reason why anyone should hesitate to accept our offer and try it. We have two sizes of Rexall Mucu-Tone. Prices 50c and $1.00. Sometimes a 50c bottle is sufficient for a cure. As a general thing, the most chronic case is cured with an average of three large bottles. Remember, the medicine will cost you nothing if you are not satisfied in every particular.—Dale & Stubblefield, Murray, Ky.

Passes a Stock Law.

The city council in regular session last Friday night passed a stock ordinance to become effective Dec. 1, 1908. The ordinance prohibits the running at large within the city limits of "any horse, mare, mule, jack or jennet, bull, cow, calf, sheep, goat, or hog."

The Ledger heartily endorses the law and begs to extend the city council's congratulations upon its action in this matter. The city streets and alleys were not intended for stock lots and in the future property owners will not be compelled to barricade their premises against "Old Pide" to prevent her depredations.

Citizens of the county can come to town and bring feed for their stock and have the assurance that it will be found in their buggies or wagons when feeding time comes.

The citizens of both town and county will endorse the action of the council in this matter. Again the Ledger extends congratulations to the city council. Long live "Old Pide" in her proper place, and may she never roam the streets of Murray again.

STATE CROPS.

All Farm Products Have Been Damaged Seriously and Live Stock is Suffering.

The last report of the crop conditions in Kentucky which will be from the state department of agriculture is being sent out by commissioner of agriculture. It shows the fearful effect of the drouth upon the farmer of the state, and tells of the damage which has been done to crops.

The long-continued drouth has extended through the greater part of October and was slightly broken by rains in several portions of the state.

Stock water is very scarce and is being hauled for miles. Cattle and other stock have suffered for water.

The drouth has been almost unprecedented and has caused a severe loss to the farmers.

Wheat sowing has been greatly delayed because the ground has been so hard and dry, but there is an old adage, "Wheat sown in the dust will never suffer from the rust."

Rye sowing has been delayed from the same reasons and will be very late.

Corn has all been cut, and the early is of good quality and good yield, but late corn was greatly damaged by the dry weather. The price is very high and prospects are for still higher prices. Burley tobacco shows a very much decreased acreage. Quality not good. Very little damage by frost.

Dark tobacco shows somewhat of an increased acreage over 1907 crop. Quality good, and housed without any damage from rain or frost.

Grasses have been injured by the severe drouth. Some reports show grasses burned up completely. It will require plenty of rain and favorable weather to overcome damage which the grasses have suffered.

Alfalfa has withstood the dry weather better than all the grasses, showing conclusively that alfalfa is the best forage crop of Kentucky.

One grower of second-crop potatoes reports that yield and quality are exceedingly good. Dairying has suffered greatly from the drouth, but there is an increasing interest being shown in this important feature of agriculture.

Although the poultry interest throughout the whole state are large yet the demand for poultry and poultry products is so much greater than the supply and the profit of those already engaged in the business are so large, proving that there is not enough attention shown this very important industry.

Because of persons owning orchards not spraying and giving careful attention to the eradication of insects, the fruit crop is very short, and we advocate the use of the spray, because those who have used it have the fruit, while their neighbors who do not spray their trees do not have any. This will be the last report of this year, and another will not be made until April 1, 1909.

It isn't so difficult to strengthen a weak stomach if one goes at it correctly. And this is true of the Heart and Kidneys. The old fashioned way of dosing the stomach or stimulating the Heart or Kidneys is surely wrong! Dr. Shoop first pointed out this error. "Go to the weak or ailing nerves of these organs," said he. Each inside organ has its controlling or "inside nerve." When these nerves fail then those organs must surely falter. This vital truth is leading druggists everywhere to dispense and recommend Dr. Shoop's Restorative. A few days test will surely tell! Sold by H. D. Thornton.

Elects a New Member.

At a regular meeting of the city council last Friday night Mr. E. H. Haley was elected a member of that body to succeed Mr. G. W. Slaughter, resigned, and who recently moved out of the city limits. Mr. Haley was a member of the council the past two years and is acquainted with the requirements and needs of the city. He is progressive, stands for clean and better streets, good walks and all other civic improvements.

Circuit Court Convened.

Circuit court was convened Monday morning by Judge T. P. Cook for a term of three weeks. The grand jury composed of J. M. Imes, foreman, Foster Forrest, W. A. Broach, W. M. Dore, A. A. Wilson, C. B. ## The Farmer's Wife

Is very careful about her churn. She scalds it thoroughly after using, and gives it a sun bath to sweeten it. She knows that if her churn is sour it will salt the butter that is made in it. The stomach is a churn. In the stomach and digestive and nutritive tracts are performed processes which are almost exactly like the churning of butter. Is it not apparent then that if this stomach-churn is foul it makes foul all which is put into it? The evil of a foul stomach is not alone the bad taste in the mouth and the foul breath caused by it, but the corruption of the pure current of blood and the dissemination of disease throughout the body. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes the sour and foul stomach sweet. It does for the stomach what the scalding and sun bath do for the churn—absolutely removes every taint or corrupting element. In this way it cures blotches, pimples, eruptions, scurvy swellings, sores, or open sores, ulcers and all humors or discharges from bad blood. If you have Bage, nasty, foul taste in your mouth, coated tongue, foul breath, are weak and easily tired, feel depressed and despondent, have frequent headaches, dizzy attacks, gnawing or distress in stomach, constipated or irregular bowels, sour or bitter risings after eating and poor appetite, these symptoms, or any considerable number of them, indicate that you are suffering from biliousness, torpid or lazy liver with the usual accompanying indigestion, or dyspepsia and their attendant derangements.

The following agents known to medical science for the cure of the above symptoms of biliousness, indigestion, constipation, etc., have been selected from all the several schools of medical practice, have been skillfully and harmoniously combined in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. That this is absolutely true will be readily proven to your satisfaction if you will but mail a postal card request to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a free copy of his booklet of extracts from the standard medical authorities, giving the names of all the ingredients entering into this world-famous medicine and showing what the most eminent medical men of the age say of them.

THE TOPICS OF A WEEK

Because she has worried herself to a state bordering on hysteria for fear of assassination, Mrs. Ella Price, alleged secretary of the night riders who have committed many outrages in the Redfoot Lake section, Tennessee, will be removed to another part of the state, most probably to Nashville, where she will be given all possible freedom within the walls of the state penitentiary. Mrs. Price has given the prosecution in the case against the night riders some of the most valuable information. She admitted having kept the books and records and furnished the interesting statement that the outlaws were bound together by ties of solemn oaths with the death penalty for violation of secrets. She was coerced, she says, into riding in man's garb in the saddle with them at times. Ever since she confessed she has been unable to sleep for fear of murder, notwithstanding soldiers have guarded her in large numbers. For the first time in the history of Tennessee a governor will testify as an individual in the homicide case, when Governor Patterson will take the stand in an effort to show why nearly a hundred night riders should not be released on habeas corpus proceedings. Mrs. Hope, a witness held for the state, became suddenly deranged Thursday and was removed to the State Asylum for the Insane. Fear of murder from the outlaws whose secrets she revealed is the given cause.

Charles W. Morse, until a year ago a dominant figure in the world of finance, and Alfred H. Curtis, former president of the National Bank of North America, were found guilty Thursday night in the criminal branch of the United States Circuit Court at New York City on charges of misappropriation of funds and falsifying the books of the bank. There was also the additional charge of conspiracy against the prisoners, but the jury acquitted the men on this count. Within five minutes after the jury had rendered its verdict, Judge Hough had refused to entertain a motion for bail and had committed the two bankers to the Tombs prison.

An explosion at the mine of Col. W. P. Bond, three miles west of Benton, Ill., at 4:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon wrecked the shaft and as a result four shot miners are entombed. So terrific was the explosion that a car and pieces of railroad track were hurled from the bottom to the top of the shaft, more than 600 feet, demolishing a steel tippie. It is impossible to reach the four miners, and their fate is therefore unknown. A large force of men is trying to clear the wreckage, but the work is proceeding slowly. Unless the men are reached soon they will suffocate.

In spite of the anti-racing legislation at the last session of the Louisiana Assembly, announcement was made Thursday night that New Orleans would have three months of racing this season. This announcement was made by Manager Jack Loycano of the Louisiana Driving and Racing Association.

On the Paris pike, Winchester, Ky., a vehicle was run into by a wagon to which were attached a team of runaway horses and the vehicle was demolished. W. C. Shafer's skull was crushed and he died.

F. P. Bethune, a salesman, was unpacking a bale of compressed bed springs at Jackson, Miss., and when the cords were severed the springs recoiled with violent force and hurled him against the wall.

Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, the founder of the Christian Science church, has decided to establish a new Boston daily paper. She has already given orders that work on the project be started.

Mrs. William Dunihue of Bedford, Ind., has finished gathering the second crop of peaches from a tree growing in her yard. The peaches were smaller than a crab apple, but were of good quality.

On his arrival at home at Memphis, Tuesday, Governor Patterson of Tennessee expressed the opinion that the conference proposed two weeks ago for the governors of several Southern states to discuss ways and means to rid the country of night riders is not now necessary. "We have the ringleaders in jail and the little fellows under military guard," said Governor Patterson, who came from the Redfoot Lake section, where recent outrages occurred, ending in the call of the militia. Governor Patterson believes that some of the Tennessee outlaws have been guilty of offenses in Kentucky's tobacco fields. He would not discuss the recent reported criticism of him by Governor Wilson of Kentucky.

While it is not believed in official circles that Germany will go to the extent of making the Casablanca incident (the protection by the German embassy at Casablanca of former German subjects who had enlisted in and later deserted from the foreign legation of the French army) the subject of an ultimatum, a considerable degree of disquietude exists in France as a diversion from the situation which has arisen at home from the publication of Emperor William's now famous interview.

Suit was filed at Memphis, Tenn., Thursday by Mrs. Julia Rame asking that a receiver be appointed for the Memphis News-Scimitar Company. Mrs. Rame is the wife of Gilbert D. Rame, editor-in-chief and publisher of the paper and declares that she is now living apart from him because of desertion. It is further declared in papers filed that Mrs. Rame is about to institute divorce proceedings which explains why her husband's name is not joined as complainant.

As a result of a feud war at Camp Junction, about 20 miles west of Jackson, Ky., Islow Allen, aged 20 years, was shot and killed Monday night. Alvin Garvis, aged 22, was badly injured, and Clarence Sherman, who did the shooting was shot in the head, but managed to escape to the mountains. Eight barrels of whiskey, shipped into town for the election, brought on the trouble, although troubles of long standing played a prominent part.

Without legal right the minister of the interior of Hayti has ordered the expulsion of about 80 Syrians from the republic. Among them are about 20 Jews, the others being Mohammedans and Catholics, established traders and importers of Port au Prince, Cape Haytien and Cap-Haïtien, who have complied with the law of 1903, and who besides, were legally registered at the French legation before the promulgation of that law.

A stairway in the $5,000 residence being built for Mrs. Mollie Hayes on her farm near Greenfield, Ind., is out of the ordinary in that it is constructed of the finest quality of black walnut boards that formed the floor of the hayloft in an old barn on the farm. The barn was built over 50 years ago, when the walnut timber was plentiful and was commonly used for fence rails.

L. F. Green of Douglas, Kan., was struck by lightning and probably fatally injured while visiting his brother-in-law at Fort Leavenworth. He was sitting in a room in a house at the rifle range, when he was struck. He was badly burned about the right side and both legs. Two children in the room were shocked but not burned.

As the result of a head-on collision on the Riverside division of the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley Railroad south of Greenville, Miss., Tuesday, miraculous escapes of acrobats and other members of the Sun Bros' circus were made, while Fireman Samuel Johnson was killed, and Engineer Henry Fletcher seriously injured. A heavy fog is held accountable for the collision.

Among the recommendations of Dr. W. B. Worsham, superintendent of the Texas State Insane Asylum, is one that the State prohibit the sale of rice not freshly made or which had not been cured by boiling or heating in the husk before stripping it. This is to fight the danger of originating the dread disease beriberi, which caused the death of 200 patients at the asylum out of 200 cases.

That common table salt may become a luxury so expensive as to be beyond the means of the poor, is one of the probable results of the great forest fires that raged last week in northern Michigan, according to Charles M. Mulkey of Detroit, member of the large salt company that operates in the devastated region. Mulkey says all the wood and sawdust used by salt companies in producing salt were burned up. To import coal is out of the question, on account of the expense, and he fears that the salt output will be reduced to such a point that a stiff advance in prices must follow. By the present method of producing salt water is sunk into the saline deposits. It is later pumped off and drawn into huge pans, where by evaporation the salt is extracted. Wood and sawdust are the fuel for the evaporation process. This is now exhausted. Prices of coarse salt, purchased in enormous quantities by farmers, Mr. Mulkey says, will probably first be affected. Table salt will next be forced up.

The "Mammoth Cotton Conference" will be held at Memphis November 10, 11 and 12. Harvie Jordan, of Atlanta, Ga., who is interested in the meeting, has issued a letter to all parts of the cotton South. The object of the conference will be to devise ways and means of advancing the spot price of cotton. It is stated that low rates will be secured on the railroads and that farmers, merchants, bankers and miners have been urged to attend. The conference will be held directly under the auspices of the Business Men's Club of Memphis, of which James Warren is the secretary.

Examinations by naval experts in wireless telephony as to the sound which will carry the greatest distance, develops that the steam siren, under 72 pounds of steam pressure, will emit a blast which may be heard 40 miles. Next comes the steam whistle, the sound of which is carried 20 miles. Among the softer sounds which carry a considerable distance in the whistling buoy installed under the lighthouse board, which has frequently been heard 15 miles.

Alexander W. Regner, a laborer, left 10 sticks of dynamite beside a large rock beneath a chestnut tree, at Winsted, Conn., while he drilled holes in stones preparatory to blowing them to pieces. When he went for the explosive he found squirrels busily eating the stuff, little of which remained. He thinks they must have hoarded most of it, but hunters are wondering what will be the result if they happen to shoot one of the dynamite filled squirrels.

P. G. Silva and Leo Carlo Trevis, who were found guilty in the Federal Court at El Paso, Tex., of fomenting a revolution against Mexico, were sentenced to serve two years each in the United States Penitentiary by Judge Maxey.

Wentworth Collins, 15 years old of Corsicana, Tex., while hunting, accidentally killed himself. He was walking a log across a small stream, when the gun he was carrying was discharged, the contents striking him in the head.

During a rain-storm several boys took shelter in a barn on the farm of Col. Tom Yates, a few miles north of Waxahachie, Tex. The building was struck by lightning and the boys rendered unconscious. Virgil Jones, 14 years old, died.

It has developed that Asberry Hatfield, who was found dead in his barn near East View, Ky., was killed. His son James was arrested by Deputy Sheriff I. E. Gross and incarcerated in the County Jail.

J. W. Clinkenbeard, candidate for magistrate in Bethel and Sherbourn district, Kentucky, who received a letter signed "night riders," warning him to withdraw his candidacy or suffer serious penalty, announced he was longer a candidate.

John P. Hudson, who was found unconscious in his office at Huston, Tex., with several hatchet gashes in his skull, died.

Near Hickman, Ky., Saturday morning, at Obion bridge, R. H. Rogers shot and killed T. J. Kesterson. The trouble arose over the latter fishing in the former's pond. Both are prominent farmers.

Conrad Seltz, farmer, of near Jasper, Ind., killed 86 muskrats in a week. His corn fields border the Patoka river, and the rats almost destroyed his entire crop. Part of the corn was fodder.

Round About the State

What Is Going On in Different Sections of Kentucky.

QUARREL BETWEEN PARTNERS

Over An Employee Results in One Being Killed.

Louisville, Ky.—As the result of a quarrel concerning business matters, W. P. Hockersmith shot and killed B. C. Moore, a prominent Red Man of Louisville and a partner in the Kentucky Salvage Co. In the affray an employee named Frank Johnson figured prominently. Moore attacking Johnson, who had him arrested for it. Hockersmith defended the employee.

Matters reached a climax when Moore kicked Johnson out of the store and, barring it, went up to Hockersmith's room. Moore threatened his life and he shot him with a double-barreled gun which he intended to use on a hunting trip.

Moore is the man who gave out the charges that the National Lodge of Red Men had "grafted" $1,500 from Kentucky in connection with the alleged building of the Log House here.

KENTUCKY FEUD

And Eight Barrels of Election Whiskey Result in Killing.

Lexington, Ky.—As a result of a feud war at Camp Junction, about 20 miles west of Jackson, Islow Allen, aged 21 years, was shot and killed; Alvin Garver, aged 22 years, was badly injured, and Clarence Sherman, who did the shooting, was shot in the head, but escaped to the mountains. Eight barrels of whiskey shipped into town for election brought on the trouble, although family troubles of long standing played a prominent part.

Judge Hargis' Will

Jackson, Ky.—The will of Judge James Hargis was probated in the Breathitt county court. The witnesses are Floyd Day, now administrator for the Hargis estate, and Judge G. J. C. Black, the attorney who prepared it. The will is dated June 5, 1904, and by its provisions bequeathes all of the property of Judge Hargis of every kind to his widow, Beulah Hargis, the youthful slayer of his father, receiving nothing whatever from the Hargis estate.

Bryan's Majority

Frankfort, Ky.—The county board of election commissioners held their official canvass of the vote of Franklin county, which gave Bryan a majority of 1,601, the largest ever given in its history. J. Campbell Cantrell's major vote over Brewster fell behind that of Bryan over Taft. The canvass shows: Bryan, 2,233; Taft, 1,632; Cantrell, 3,162; Brewster, 1,680; Chadin, 32; Gibbs, 3; Hixson, 3; Watson, 1.

Kentucky Towns Endangered

Mayfield, Ky.—Miles of creek bottom near Boaz, north of here, are on fire. Every available man is fighting to keep the flames from entering that town, which has a population of more than 200 persons. The fire is only a short distance away, and the town is in grave danger. Fires are also sweeping over Clark river bottom, and the town of Kaler is in its pathway.

Mountaineer Sentenced

Covington, Ky.—Butler Mullin, mountaineer and moonshiner, of Floyd county, Ky., was sentenced to the penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., for three years by Judge Cochran. Mullin, with his brother, who is still at large, and another, who was killed in the raid, fired upon the officers. Mullin at first denied the allegations, but later on pleaded guilty.

Reversal of Award of Damages

Frankfort, Ky.—The court of appeals reversed the case of the Louisville Railway Co. vs. R. E. Buckner's administrator, and ordered a new trial, because the judge gave an erroneous instruction to the jury. Buckner was a street sweeper in Louisville, and was run over and killed by a street car. Judgment for $2,500 was awarded.

Night Rider Suit Closes Suddenly

Newport, Ky.—Attorneys for W. S. Henderson, suing John Jeff and others in the federal court at Newport for $15,000 damages claimed because of injuries to person, property and business, resulting from a night rider raid at Augusta, Ky., caused the action to be dismissed without prejudice before Judge Cochran.

A Costly Spark

Lexington, Ky.—Sparks from a locomotive ignited grass on the farm of John F. Price, on the Leesport road, and before men could beat out the flames with gunny sacks, 25 acres of grass on the Price farm and 15 acres on the farm of Z. T. Smiley had been burned over.

Big Damage Suit Filed

Lexington, Ky.—Suit was filed here against the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Co. for $25,000 damages because of the death of Ernest Rankin, who was run over by an engine here November 7, 1907.

Crushed To Death

Lexington, Ky.—While switching cars at the Loudon avenue power house D. H. Rowlett, a motorman, 38, in the employ of the Lexington Railway Co., was crushed to death between a motor car and a freight car.

ONE YEAR FOR SIX CENTS

Mail Collector Heavily Sentenced By United States Judge.

Newport, Ky.—One year in jail was the sentence imposed upon former Mail Collector James Taylor, of Newport, by Federal Judge A. M. J. Cochran.

Taylor stole six cents from a mail box, which had been left in the receptacle by some person who did not have the stamps handy for his letters and who trusted the carrier to purchase the necessary stamps.

The statutory penalty for any offense against the postal regulations is very severe, and while Judge Cochran's sentence of a year in the Newport jail seems like a heavy dose, in reality it is light, as compared with what might have been imposed.

As it is, Taylor will have to serve 365 days in jail for each cent he stole from the mail box.

OUTWITTED BY PATROLMAN

Whose Vote He Contested, Challenger Slashed Him With a Knife.

Lexington, Ky.—Patrolman Adolph Meyers was attacked with a knife by J. Ira Bright, a ward politician, and was seriously wounded in the neck. Meyers is a native of Germany, who has been a resident of Lexington for more than a quarter of a century. Bright is a comparatively recent comer to this city. At the election Bright challenged Meyers' vote. The election officers, who knew Meyers, were satisfied to let him vote, but Bright persisted, and Meyers produced his papers. He then told Bright never to speak to him again.

Later Bright saw Meyers and brought up the election day affair. Meyers told him to go away, whereupon Bright slashed Meyers twice in the throat with a pocket knife. Bright was arrested.

Woman's Plea

Louisville, Ky.—Police Judge J. Wheeler McGee received a plea from Amy Whalen, arrested as a suspected felon, to release her that she might earn enough to buy winter clothing. She said that she was a thinly clad girl who could not live through the winter and that her sentence would ordinarily end so late that she would be thrust out on to the streets in rags.

Republicans Carry Ninth and Tenth

Louisville, Ky.—Late returns from the state would indicate that the democratic majority in the Third district is not in excess of 500, while it appears that the Ninth is republican by 500 and the Tenth by 1,000. Ben Johnson's majority in the Fourth will not be as large as at first reported, and an estimate of 10,000 on the entire state is now conceded to the democrats.

Democrats Carried Paducah

Paducah, Ky.—The entire democratic municipal ticket won easily. The interest in this ticket centered in the offices of jailer and treasurer. The election of a democratic treasurer means a lawsuit to oust the present treasurer, John J. Doran, a republican. Defeat of the $100,000 school bond issue probably means the closing of the schools by the first of the year.

Governor To Entertain Justice Harlan

Frankfort, Ky.—Justice John M. Harlan and wife, of Washington, D. C., will be the guests of Gov. and Mrs. Willson Thanksgiving, and for the first time since Gov. Willson became chief executive the mansion will be the scene of a social function. Justice Harlan and Gov. Willson were formerly law partners.

Mr. Kehoe Lost

Mayaville, Ky.—Great interest was shown in the election in the Ninth Congressional district because of competition of James W. Kehoe, of this city, with the tobacco growers movement in the state. Returns received show the re-election of J. B. Bennett, the republican candidate.

Forests Ablaze

Columbia, Ky.—A serious forest fire is raging 10 miles east of here in a section of Miller's field. The fire is sweeping everything before it and staves to the amount of several tons and raked in the woods will be burned unless flames are soon checked.

To Secure Foreign Help For Farmers

Lexington, Ky.—E. J. Green, state immigration clerk of Kentucky, under Commissioner of Agriculture Rankin, was here to open an office from which farmers throughout Kentucky will be supplied with male and female help from foreign countries.

Fred C. Riddell Dies

St.irling, Ky.—Fred C. Riddell, ex-moderator and widely known contractor, is dead at his home in this city. He was 72 years old and served as captain of Company D, Eighth Kentucky cavalry, under Gen. Morgan.

Dwelling Burned

Paintsville, Ky.—A house occupied by Mrs. Mary Lemaster, a widow, was burned. The loss is about $1,000. This is the third fire that has visited here in the past month, five lives being lost in one.

Tune Kermit Whistled

Mr. W. W. Miller, a well-known lawyer, tells an anecdote of Kermit Roosevelt, the president's son.

"I was acting as steward," says Mr. Miller, "in some ginkhana race at Oyster Bay a few weeks ago, and one of the events was a race in which the contestants had to ride a given distance to a certain spot where an equal number of young ladies stood with pencil, paper and envelope. Each rider had to dismount here and whistle a tune, the lady writing its name down on the paper. She then had to seal it up in the envelope and hand it to the rider, who remounted and finished the race, delivering the envelope to the judges' stand. The first one in with a correct answer won the event.

"As steward, I was deputized before the race to write down the name of the tune each entrant would whistle. 'What are you going to whistle?' I asked young Kermit.

"I'm going to whistle 'Everybody Works but Father,'" said the president's son.

BOY KEPT SCRATCHING

Eczema Lasted 7 Years—Face Was All Raw—Skin Specialists Failed, But Cuticura Effectured Cure.

"When my little boy was six weeks old an eruption broke out on his face. I took him to a doctor, but his face kept on getting worse until it got so bad that no one could look at him. His whole face was one crust and must have been very painful. He scratched day and night until his face was raw. Then I took him to all the best specialists in skin diseases but they could not do much for him. The eczema got on his arms and legs and we could not get a night's sleep in months. I got a set of Cuticura Remedies and he felt relieved the first time I used them. I gave the Cuticura Remedies a good trial and gradually the eczema healed all up. He is now seven years old and I think the trouble will never return. Mrs. John G. Klump, 30 Niagara St., Newark, N. J., Oct. 17 and 22, 1907."

AFTER THE SHOT.

Robbie Rabbit—Never in all my life has such shocking language been used in my presence as that boy has used in the last three minutes. Oooh!

Uncle Zeb's Preference

Uncle Zebulon was on a visit to his nephew in the big city and the two had gone to a restaurant for dinner. They had given their order and were waiting for it to be filled when the younger man, who had been glancing at a paper that lay on the table, said:

"By the way, uncle, did you ever have cerebral spinal meningitis?"

Nuts

One very great advantage which nuts possess over most foods is their absolute freedom from adulteration. When you buy nuts, you always know what you are getting. Of course, those bought in the shell are also absolutely clean. And what a beautiful source they come from! How delightful to picture the trees upon which they grow, on the outermost branches dancing in the sunbeams—Good! Health.

EAGER TO WORK

Health Regained by Right Food.

The average healthy man or woman is usually eager to be busy at some useful task or employment.

But let dyspepsia or indigestion get hold of one, and all endeavor becomes a burden.

"A year ago, after recovering from an operation," writes a Michigan lady, "my stomach and nerves began to give me much trouble.

"At times my appetite was voracious, but when indulged, indigestion followed. Other times I had no appetite whatever. The food I took did not nourish me, and I grew weaker than ever.

"I lost interest in everything, and wanted to be alone. I had always had good nerves, but now the merest trifle would upset me and bring on a violent headache. Walking across the room was an effort and prescribed exercise was out of the question.

"I had seen Grape-Nuts advertised, but did not believe what I read at the time. At last when it seemed as if I were literally starving, I began to eat Grape-Nuts.

"I had not been able to work for a year, but now after two months on Grape-Nuts I am eager to be at work again. My stomach gives me no trouble now, my nerves are steady as ever, and interest in life and ambition have come back with the return to health.

"There's a Reason." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville" in pages.

Ever read the above letter? A few lines appear from time to time. They are accurate, true, and full of human interest.

New York.—General election returns received up to midnight show the following results:

Practically no change is indicated in the complexion of the national house of representatives.

Gov. Chas. E. Hughes has been re-elected in New York State by about 54,000 plurality.

Bryan has carried Nebraska. The Republican plurality fell off heavily in the Middle West, a matter thoroughly surprising to Republicans.

Speaker Cannon has been re-elected by his usual majority. Representatives Payne of New York and Dalzell of Pennsylvania have been re-elected, and the house of representatives probably will continue under its old regime.

Mr. Payne will have charge of the bill in the extra session, which Mr. Taft will call immediately after March 4 next.

There has been a shrinkage in the Democratic vote in several of the Southern States, notably in Virginia and North Carolina.

Mr. Taft has carried Wisconsin by a plurality estimated at 75,000, a falling off from the Roosevelt plurality of 155,000 in 1904.

Kentucky has gone safely for Mr. Bryan by between 10,000 and 15,000.

TAFT CARRIES NEW YORK CITY.

Tammany Traded Bryan for Chanler Wherever Possible.

New York.—The State of New York has again registered its verdict in favor of the Republican party, and gave a plurality for William Howard Taft for president of the United States which may be in excess of 175,000.

The determined opposition of the race tracks and other interests which he had antagonized during his term as governor, seriously cut into the vote of Gov. Hughes, and his majority will be not more than 50,000 and may fall under that figure.

The most remarkable feature of the election was the manner in which Bryan was slaughtered in New York City.

REPUBLICANS HOLD CONGRESS.

New York.—The Republicans will remain in control of both branches of congress and in all probability by a slightly increased majority. It is impossible at this time, because of the incompleteness of the congressional returns, to give an absolutely accurate statement of either the senate or the house, but on the best returns available, the Republicans appear to have made a net gain of one in the house of representatives.

Solid delegations of Democrats, with returns from Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, Nevada, South Carolina and Texas. The Republicans apparently have solid delegations in Delaware, Idaho, Kansas, Maine, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, New Hampshire, North Dakota, Oregon, Utah, Vermont, Washington, West Virginia and Wyoming.

MINNESOTA.

St. Paul.—While the city returns indicate the election of Gov. Johnson by a plurality of from 10,000 to 25,000, the later returns from the country districts have greatly modified this, offsetting the large vote of the cities and towns for Johnson by definite gains for Jacobson, Republican, for governor. That Taft carried the State by figures ranging anywhere from 80,000 to 100,000 is conceded.

JUDSON HARMON ELECTED.

Taft Will Have Almost the Usual Majority in Ohio.

Cincinnati, Ohio.—Four hundred and twenty-three precincts out of 4,430 in the State of Ohio gave Taft 23,482, Bryan 23,188. The same precincts in 1904 gave Roosevelt 45,766, Parker 26,168. The figures continued to fall as the additional returns came in later in the night, and at 1 o'clock it seemed that Taft would receive slightly more than a normal Republican plurality of close to 30,000, while Harris (R.) for governor, was defeated.

WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT

NEBRASKA FOR BRYAN.

State Remembers Native Son in Hand-some Manner.

Lincoln, Neb.—At 11:30 Wednesday morning, indications were that Nebraska had gone Democratic by a plurality not far from 10,000 for Bryan and a plurality scarcely less for the national ticket. As was confidently expected, the result was a surprise and a disappointment to Republican managers, which, while admitting the state was doubtful on the national ticket, confidently expected the State ticket to be elected. The tremendous gain for Bryan in the city of Lincoln was the sensation of the election. Not only did Mr. Bryan reverse a Republican plurality of 1,600 in his home city, but he carried it by a plurality of something in excess of 600.

If this is maintained throughout, Bryan has won by a little over 8,000 aside from Lincoln and Omaha and Shallenberger is elected governor by practically the same plurality.

IOWA BY 40,000.

Large Loss From Roosevelt Plurality.

Des Moines, Iowa.—The incomplete returns received at 10 o'clock indicate that Taft has carried Iowa by a plurality of from 40,000 to 50,000. This is a tremendous falling off from the Roosevelt plurality of 158,000 of four years ago, but it represents only a slight falling off from its normal plurality.

The entire Republican State ticket is elected, probably by about the same plurality. Gov. Cummins probably carried the Republican senatorial primary over Maj. J. F. Lacey by a plurality of 40,000 to 50,000, a tremendous gain from last June, when he was defeated by Allison by 11,000.

The indications are that the entire delegation in congress will be Republican, a gain of one over two years ago.

In Des Moines there was a tremendous loss of votes to the Republicans, due to the large labor vote for Bryan. Hull, in the Seventh district, was elected by a reduced plurality.

COLORADO.

Bryan and Entire State Democratic Ticket Won.

Denver, Col.—Estimated pluralities by counties, based on incomplete returns, show that Bryan and the entire Democratic ticket, headed by John P. Shafroth for governor, carried Colorado by pluralities in the neighborhood of 2,000. The Democrats probably will control the legislature by a narrow margin, insuring the election of Chas. J. Hughes, Jr., as United States senator to succeed Teller, Hughes having been endorsed for the position by the State convention.

MARYLAND SPLITS BALLOT.

Baltimore.—With the official vote of one-third of Baltimore city and 21 out of 23 counties complete and estimating the missing districts on the basis of the unofficial returns, Taft had an apparent plurality tonight of 175. The indications were that seven Bryan and one Taft electors had been chosen.

FLORIDA.

Jacksonville, Fla.—The election in Florida resulted in the usual Democratic majority of from 18,000 to 20,000.

TEXAS.

Dallas, Tex.—Returns indicate the election of the entire Democratic ticket, both State and national, by the usual majority.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

Columbia, S. C.—South Carolina will give Bryan about 50,000 to 60,000 majority, while the State and congressional tickets are overwhelmingly Democratic.

ILLINOIS PLURALITY REDUCED.

Democr. Ran Behind Taft—Stevens Carried Chicago by 8,000.

Chicago.—The Republican National and State tickets have gained a complete victory in Illinois, although the pluralities will probably fall short of those obtained by the party in the Roosevelt campaign of 1904. Taft has carried the State by approximately 170,000 votes. Chas. D. Brown, Republican candidate for governor, ran far behind the national ticket, but has been elected by a plurality of about 100,000 over Adlai E. Stevenson.

DEMAND KAISER GIVE UP PLACE

HARDEN FOLLOWS EDITORIAL WITH TALK TO LARGE BERLIN CROWD.

A MAGAZINE IS INVOLVED

Century's Announcement of Coming Interview Excites the Whole Empire—To Buy Up the Number.

Berlin, Nov. 8.—Maximilian Harden, who, in an article published in Die Zukunft Friday, demanded that Emperor William either cease striving up international controversies or abdicate the German throne, made a speech Friday night on the political situation to a large crowd, and again called upon Emperor William to abdicate, saying that his grandfather thought of doing so on a less critical occasion for which he was responsible. Harden is the man who exposed the "Hound Table."

Announcement that the Century magazine would publish an extended interview with the kaiser in its December issue has sent a thrill of alarm throughout the nation. It is feared that the interview will prove another London Telegram affair and again involve Germany in political complications.

It is reported that the German embassy at Washington has been requested to approach the Century and ascertain the exact text of the interview, and if any of it is found objectionable to attempt to have the magazine suppress it.

So excited are the people over the news that several newspapers have suggested that a public subscription be raised with which to buy the entire issue of the December number.

Follows the Interview.

The editor's denunciation of the kaiser's ruler comes as a result of the recent interview between the kaiser and an English retired statesman, in which there was attributed to the kaiser many statements, the sentiment of which was resented both in Germany and the other European powers. Added to this was the Casa Blanca incident, which the opposition alleged the kaiser stirred up to cover troubles at home from the people.

Harden's statements were the boldest words ever spoken in Germany against the kaiser. It is the culmination of the growing agitation against the absolutism of the emperor.

France is Distrustful.

Paris, Nov. 8.—Distrustful of Germany's sincerity in private negotiations, France Saturday intimated that she would not entertain the suggestion of the Casa Blanca affair being submitted to a private conference.

Since the Moroccan question became so troublesome three years ago, France charges that several conversational agreements between the German ambassador and the French foreign minister have been repudiated afterward by the German government.

In none of these instances has France been in a position to denounce the treachery of Germany, owing to the fear of a war. But she has learned her lesson and will insist on a public arbitration of the Casa Blanca dispute.

Franco-German Tilt.

London, Nov. 8.—Ambassador Cambon of France and Secretary von Schoen of Germany are again in violent disagreement over the Casa Blanca negotiations, according to information which came to the foreign office Saturday afternoon.

French form of the declaration, von Schoen is reported as insisting on the inclusion of two other paragraphs, one expressing France's regret at the interference of her soldiers with the prerogatives of the German consulate and the other censuring the French officials at Casa Blanca. The request was peremptorily refused by Cambon, who stated that the proposal was so disastrous that there was no need to inform his government of it.

Scout Force Enlarged.

Washington, Nov. 8.—A battalion of infantry to be designated the Ninth Battalion of Philippine Scouts, has been organized and Col. Samuel W. Ham has been detailed as major in command. The battalion will consist of the Twenty-fifth, Twenty-sixth, Twenty-seventh and Twenty-eighth Companies of Philippine Scouts.

SHAKE-UP IS COMING

ELECTION RESULTS TO BRING CHANGES IN CONGRESS.

THE "BIG FIVE" IS BROKEN UP

Sherman's Call to Higher Place Leaves Vacancy in Reigning Quartette.

Washington, Nov. 8.—There will be quite a shake-up in committees in the sixty-first congress as a result of Tuesday's election. The personnel of the ruling "big five" in the lower house faces a change through Sherman's call to a higher place.

"Uncle Joe" Cannon may have a fight to retain the speakership, although the impression here is that antagonistic sentiment has been buried.

Through Tuesday's election three chairmen of important committees are lost. The defeat of "Colonel" Pate, Hepburn of Iowa leaves a hole in the committee on interstate and foreign commerce. Jesse Overstreet fails to return as the head of the postoffice and post roads committee, while his brother Indianan, Charles B. Landis, leaves a vacancy at the head of the house printing committee.

Successor to Sherman.

But if the Cannon regime is to continue, the speaker is probably pondering on Sherman's successor to the "big five" with Payne, Dalzell, Tawney and himself. Jim Watson would be in line were it not for the fact of his resignation from the house and his subsequent defeat for the governorship of the Hoosier state. His loss leaves a gap on the ways and means committee. If promotion came by seniority on the crippled committee, Wagner of Pennsylvania would stand the best show of heading the committee on interstate and foreign commerce. On this committee both its chairman, Hepburn, and senior member, Sherman, go out.

Congressman Gardner of New Jersey stands number two on the post-office committee, and Perkins of New York next to Landis on the printing committee.

MYSTERY IN CHINESE DEATH.

Body of Oriental, Evidently Murdered, Found Beside Railroad Track.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 8.—The half nude body of a Chinese has been found in the weeds beside the Burlington railroad tracks near Birmingham, six miles west of Liberty.

But for the trousers, the outer garments had been removed. The coat was near the body. The pockets of both coat and trousers were turned inside out.

The coat was of fine material and of fashionable American cut. The underwear was silk of the finest texture, and of Chinese make. This and the queue, wrapped tightly about the head, were the only un-American features.

The man had evidently been dead for several days. The head was badly bruised as though by repeated blows from a club.

In one pocket of the coat were found two or three small Mexican coins and some letters. The letters were addressed in English to Wong Chee Tok, Mexico City, and purported to be from Luong On Loong, 317 South Clark street, Chicago.

Hoping that the Chinese letters might present some clue to the mystery, Sheriff Thomason sent word of the affair to Ho Ly Yuen, a Chinese physician in this city. It so happened that Henry S. Reardon, a New York Chinese detective, was visiting with Dr. Yuen when the message arrived.

Nebraska University Head Resigns.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 8.—E. Benjamin Andrews, chancellor of the University of Nebraska, tendered his resignation at the meeting of the board of regents held Friday night. The board voted to accept the resignation. It will become effective Jan. 1. Dr. Andrews has been in poor health for some time. On that account he attempted to resign several months ago, but remained after being earnestly urged to do so.

Papermakers Strike Off.

Saratoga, N. Y., Nov. 8.—The strike at the mill of the International Paper company at Palmer Falls, was settled Friday. The employees voted to accept the terms of the company and Friday afternoon made application for their old positions, as individuals. The men struck on August 3, and until Friday have refused to go back to work until the former wage scale was restored.

Complete Nevada Returns.

Reno, Nevada, Nov. 8.—Democratic state headquarters give out the following. Complete returns at midnight show that Nevada goes for Bryan by a little more than 500. Senator Francis G. Newlands, majority over Flanagan for United States senatorship will be above 2,000. This majority represents the popular vote of the people. Gov. Geo. B. Bartlett wins for congress by 2,500 plurality, running considerably above the ticket.

Women Get Hunting Licenses.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Scores of women throughout the state have taken out applications for hunting licenses. Some were issued Friday to a party including Baroness Schwind, Madame Cora De Loris, and Miss Anna M. Dornold, who will make a hunting trip in the Adirondacks.

FOR THE LADY OR THE AUTO.

Expressman—I don't know whether this comes here. The address is indistinct.

Housemaid—I guess it's all right. It's either a new tire for the auto, or a new hat for the missus!

A Household Necessity.

I would almost as soon think of running my farm without implements as without Hunt's Lightning Oil. Of all the liniments I have ever used, for both man and beast, it is the quickest in action and richest in results. For burns and fresh cuts it is absolutely wonderful. I regard it as a household necessity. Yours truly, S. HARRISON, Kosciusko, Miss.

Public Credulity.

After making full allowance for the increased spending power of the masses, figures prove conclusively that notwithstanding the wide diffusion of knowledge, the spread of education and the raising of the standard of intelligence among the people, the appeal of the quack and the charlatan to the credulity of the public meets with a readier response than ever.—London Herald.

Don't Be Irritable.

"An irritated skin makes an irritable person, and an irritable person gathers much trouble unto himself or herself, as the case may be. Moral: Use Hunt's Cure, one box of which is absolutely and unqualifiedly guaranteed to cure any form of skin trouble. Any kind of itching known is relieved at once, and one box cures."

Poor Old Bird.

Pop (looking up from the paper)—I see there's a new baby hippopotamus at the zoo. What are you laughing at, Johnnie?

Johnnie (who is almost as bright as he looks)—I was just laughin' to think of the stork carryin' a hippopotamus!—Exchange.

Succeeded in His Purpose.

Tom—I ate some of the cake she made just to make myself solid. Dick—Did you succeed?

Tom—I couldn't feel any more solid if I had eaten concrete or building stone.—Utica Herald.

COMELY MATRONS PRAISE PERUNA

KENTUCKY
OREGON
OHIO.

The only valuable testimony which any household remedy can have is the testimony of those who have used it. It is worse than useless to discuss Peruna from a theoretical standpoint. It is what Peruna will do, not what people say about it, that constitutes evidence. The housewives of the United States know what Peruna will do. They have tried it. They have realized its benefit in the family. They are the ones that are competent to speak of it. Self-appointed critics knew nothing of it whatever.

Peruna Their Family Medicine.

Mrs. Anna C. Hyde, 712 E. Yamhill street, Portland, Oregon, Vice President Literary and Educational Organization of New Hampshire, writes:

"I am pleased to endorse Peruna as an all-around good family medicine, and one that is safe for children. I give it to mine at the least suggestion of a cold, and take it myself to build up my strength and nerves."

"My sister, who is living with me, uses Peruna, too, and she is loud in its praise."

"Your medicine is certainly worthy of praise."

Backache, Headache.

Mrs. Treasie Nelson, 609 N. Fifth Ave., Nashville, Tenn., writes:

"As Peruna has done me a world of good, I feel in duty bound to tell of it, in hopes that it may meet the eye of some woman who has suffered as I did."

"For five years I really did not know what a perfectly well day was, and if I did not have headache, I had backache or a pain somewhere and really life was not worth the effort I made to keep going."

"A good friend advised me to use Peruna and I was glad to try anything, and I am very pleased to say that six bottles made a new woman of me and I have no more pains and life looks bright again."

Catarrh of Bowels.

Mrs. Maggie Durlin, 1322 North street, Little Rock, Ark., writes:

"I was troubled for five years with a chronic disease. I tried everything I heard of, but nothing did me any good. Some doctors said my trouble was catarrh of the bowels, and some said consumption of the bowels. I took his medicine two months, but it did me no good."

"A friend of mine advised me to try Peruna and I did so. After I had taken two bottles I found it was helping me, so I continued its use, and it has cured me sound and well."

"I can recommend Peruna to anyone, and if anyone wants to know what Peruna did for me if they will write to me I will answer promptly."

Kidneys and Bladder.

Mrs. Gus. H. Carlson, Box 201, Ortonville, Minn., writes:

"I had catarrh of the kidneys and bladder. I have taken Peruna until now, and I do not think I need to take any longer."

"I feel well, and my tongue is clear, and I have no bitter taste in my mouth. I am very thankful for Peruna."

Family Renison.

On Monday, Nov. 9th, the children, grand-children and a vast number of friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gilbert and surprised them with a birthday dinner.

Those present were: Attorney and Mrs. M. E. Gilbert and little son, Warden, of Paducah; W. E. Gilbert, wife and children; G. W. Overbey, wife and son; Esq. J. W. Wade, wife and children; W. B. Jones and family, Chas. Morris and family, Clyde L. Collier and wife, Miss Lucile Grogan, Messrs. Brewer, Curt Jones and wife, Thales Graham, M. A. Thomas and wife.

After dinner all gathered and passed a pleasant afternoon and enjoyed the splendid music by the Messrs. Brewer.

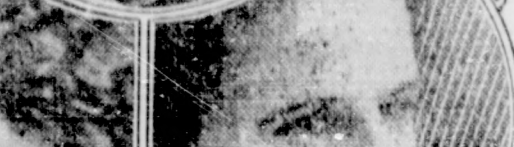

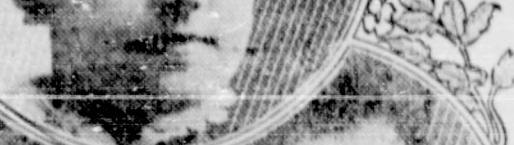

Mr. Gilbert was 67 years old Sunday while Mrs. Gilbert was 53 Tuesday. Each of them received some nice presents from the children and friends. A photographer came in the afternoon and made a picture of all present. The pleasure of all present will be long remembered. May they all live long and happy. FRIEND.

Gained Flesh on Peruna.

Mrs. Hattie Hamilton, R. F. D. No. 2, Sparta, Ky., writes:

"I have taken two bottles of Peruna and commenced on the third one. I did not really need the third one, but thought it best to take another bottle."

"I have always weighed 102 pounds, but since I began taking Peruna I weigh 120, for the first time in all my life, and I am now thirty-three years old. Your medicine has surely done me a great deal of good, and I have recommended it to several others who have begun taking it."

"My mother, who is seventy-six years old, had grown so weak she could scarcely walk. She took two bottles of Peruna and is fleshier and looking well."

Internal Catarrh.

Mrs. M. F. Jones, of Burning Springs, Ky., writes:

"No family should ever be without Peruna, for it is an unfailing cure for colds, and it is an excellent remedy to prevent and relieve croup."

"And to speak from a standpoint of experience, I can say that it is the remedy for internal catarrh. I shall not hesitate to recommend it, especially to all suffering women."

"Peruna has gained full confidence and a permanent place in our home."
