THE TRIBUNE.

WED. EVENING, MARCH 22.

To the Gentleman who carouses:

We receive your letter, and are sorry to learn that your affairs are in such a state as to require you to write to us upon the subject of your health. We hope and trust that you will be restored to health as soon as possible, and that you will be able to resume your duties.

To the Editor of the Tribune:

We wish to express our thanks for the kind and thoughtful way in which you have conducted your business. We have always found you to be fair and just, and we are confident that you will continue to do so.

In conclusion, we wish to say that we have always been satisfied with the services rendered by your office, and we hope to continue to be so.

Yours truly,
