Enthusiastic Road Meeting

Fulton Chamber of Commerce Active Organization

The Mississippi Valley Highway through Weakley County positively will be built and that right soon, if the plans of the big meeting held at the Chamber of Commerce last Tuesday night bear the expected fruits. Secretary Davis and the Road Committee started some weeks ago to see what could be done to encourage the proposition, and the result was shown at this meeting. There were representatives from Cairo, Illinois and almost every town between there and Jackson, Tennessee at this meeting, and every one of them was enthusiastic on the subject of closing up this sole stretch of the great highway.

Speakers ranging from Senator Finis J. Garrett, of Tennessee to Mr. J. H. Jackson, Secretary to President E. A. Smith, president of the Mississippi Valley Highway Association, of Cairo, Ill., made short addresses, and told of the tremendous amount of tourist business that the two states of Kentucky and Tennessee were losing through the lack of this thoroughfare.

The indisposition of Weakley County to bear its fair share of the expense of completing this section of the road has delayed its completion, as every other county in the two states has voted bonds for the purpose and in many instances the work is nearly completed, but the action taken at this meeting will undoubtedly bring the matter to the minds of the Weakley County taxpayers in such a way that they will appreciate the great benefits to be derived and instruct their representatives in the Fiscal Court to authorize the voting of bonds in the very near future.

A committee composed of members from nearly every town in Weakley and adjoining counties that will be benefited by the completion of the road was formed and this committee will meet at Martin on Tuesday, September 21, at 7:30 p. m. in the Martin Bank, when the plan will be developed.

The members of this committee are: Cairo—O. L. Herbert and Wilbur Thistlewood; Obion county—R. B. Gray, Kenton, Tenn.; W. J. Buchanan and S. R. Bratton, Union City; Hon. Seldon Maiden, W. L. Goolsby, Greenfield, Tenn.; John Harkey, Dr. J. A. Moore, Sharon; George Brooks, Geo. C. Rowlett, Hal Rainer, Martin; Hon. Rice McWhorter and J. L. Holbrook, Dresden; Hon. J. D. Denny and Grover Keaton, Milan; J. W. Green and J. A. Ocerton, Bradford; L. A. Winstead, J. D. Davis and Squire S. A. Hagler, Fulton, and J. E. Clayton, Secretary Chamber of Commerce and Bond Wilkerson, of Jackson.

The meeting of the Chamber of Commerce called for Tuesday night as the regular meeting for September was turned over to the Road Committee by President Kramer, with Secretary Davis presiding, who, as Mr. Kramer explained, was largely responsible for the great interest shown by the large attendance.

Hardly had the meeting gotten underway when it was discovered that the room was filled to capacity and more coming in every minute, and Mr. Davis made hurried arrangements for adjourning to the courthouse and as soon as he was informed that it was ready, he asked the meeting to march there, which was done with very little loss of time.

Owing to the many visitors from out of town and the fact

C. H. Markham

Markham is Made Chairman

Of Illinois Central System Director: L. A. Downs Elected President

Charles H. Markham has been elected chairman of the board of directors, a newly created position, of the Illinois Central Railroad, and succeeded as president of the road by L. A. Downs, president of the Central of Georgia railway, a subsidiary of the Illinois Central System.

J. J. Pelley, operating vice-president of the Illinois Central, succeeds Mr. Downs as president of the Central of Georgia, with headquarters at Savannah, Ga.

Mr. Markham's illness during the summer led him to the decision to retire from the active head of the Illinois Central, and at an adjourned meeting of the directors September 9, in New York, the position of chairman of the board was created and Mr. Markham elected.

These changes went into effect September 15.

Mr. Markham's administration as president of the I. C. system began in 1911, and during that period the road has made its greatest expansions. He began his career as a section laborer for the Santa Fe system in 1881, when he was but 20 years old.

During the fifteen years of his administration as president of the Illinois Central, Mr. Markham doubled the assets of the system from $300,000,000 to $600,000,000, showing the profits accruing from a systematic campaign of taking the public into the confidence of the utility operation. His plans crystallized in 1920, when he said:

"The public is going to run the railroad from now on. It is running the Illinois Central now."

Mr. Markham inaugurated the first consecutive series of advertisements ever run in newspapers by railroads, issuing monthly bulletins to aid his employees in keeping the communities served by the road in touch with its affairs, and solicited letters of criticism from the public. All criticisms received his careful attention.

One of the greatest achievements during his administration perhaps, was to electrify the Illinois Central Chicago terminals, an epochal project which cost one hundred million dollars.

L. A. Downs

Lawrence A. Downs, president of the Illinois Central System, entered the employment of that system in 1896, shortly after graduation from Purdue University, and has been identified with it ever since then.

Mr. Downs was born May 9, 1872, at Greencastle, Ind., the son of James and Mary (McCarthy) Downs. His first position with the Illinois Central System, in 1896, was that of rodman in the engineering department, a job that paid him $60 a month. The following year, in 1897, he was promoted to assistant engineer in the roadway department, and a year later, in 1898, he was made roadmaster.

For eight years, from 1898 to 1906, Mr. Downs served as roadmaster and it was during the time—in 1901—that he married. In 1906 he was selected for the position of assistant chief engineer, maintenance of way, and his jurisdiction was extended to cover the entire Illinois Central System.

In 1910 Mr. Downs was transferred, at his own request, from the engineering to the transportation department in order to broaden his railway experience. At that time he was appointed division superintendent, and he served in that position successfully on the Iowa, Minnesota and Kentucky divisions. In 1915 he was advanced to the position of general superintendent of Southern Lines, with headquarters at New Orleans, and in 1916 was transferred to Chicago as general superintendent of Northern Lines.

In 1919 Mr. Downs' responsibilities were again increased when he was promoted to assistant general manager, with jurisdiction over the entire system in operating matters, and he was holding this post in 1920 when he was elected vice-president and general manager of the Central of Georgia Railway, which is owned by the Illinois Central System. In 1924 he was advanced to the presidency of the Central of Georgia and of its important subsidiary, the Ocean Steamship Company of Savannah, which operates the "Savannah Line" steamships between Savannah, New York and Boston.

When C. H. Markham retired from the presidency of the Illinois Central System on September 15, 1926, and became chairman of the board of directors, Mr. Downs was recalled to the parent road of the Illinois Central System to become Mr. Markham's successor as president.

Mr. Downs has occupied one of the highest posts of honor among railway engineering men, serving as president of the American Railway Engineering Association in 1921-22. Another honor accorded him was his selection as an American delegate to the convention of the International Railway Congress held at Rome, Italy, in 1922. He is also a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

Mr. Downs' family consists of his wife (Ida May Mulligan) and one daughter, Mary Katherine.

Fulton Rejoices In Pelley's Promotion

J. J. Pelley, operating vice-president of the I. C., who succeeds Mr. Downs as president of the Central of Georgia, was a former resident of Fulton while superintendent of the Tennessee Division. During his stay here he endeared himself to the people of this community who rejoice in his rapid promotions—recognition of years of loyal service and unsurpassed executive ability. Mr. Pelley entered the service of the Illinois Central in 1900 as a track apprentice.

Jack Conners Instantly Killed

Falls Between Two Cars While at Work on Fulton-Edgewood Cut-Off

Another life was snuffed out on the new I. C. cut-off line last Friday when Jack Conners, a white man employed by the Dominion Construction Company, fell between two cars and was instantly killed. The remains were prepared for burial by the Fulton Undertaking Company of this city and shipped to Benton, Ill., the home of the deceased.

Fraternity Dinner

The Fulton alumni chapter of the Sigma Nu fraternity entertained Sunday evening, September 12, with a handsomely arranged dinner party at the Usona hotel. The table was artistically decorated with the fraternity colors, gold, black and white. A delicious four course menu was served.

Among those who attended were: Mr. Dudley Morris, of Paducah, of Upsilon chapter, and Mr. Robert Whitehead, of Sigma chapter, Mr. Robert Binford, of Gamma Iota chapter, Mr. Dan Brooks, of Martin, Tennessee, of Sigma chapter, and Mr. Innes Dobbins, of Louisville, Kentucky.

City Hall Beautified

The City Hall has quite an inviting appearance since Messrs Coulter & Bowers, with their force of painters, beautified the entrance and interior with a fresh coat of paint. Since Councilman Hannephin was made chairman of the City Hall committee, the neatness of the premises has been greatly improved. On the lower floor Mayor Shankle occupies a handsomely furnished office, also used as the council chamber. Across the hall City Clerk Chapman has a nicely furnished room with a large vault adjoining where the city valuables and records are kept, while Police Judge Taylor and Chief of Police Huddleston occupy one of the front rooms. The health department occupies a room in the second story adjoining the courtroom.

Miss Marie Walker

Is Demonstrating at Kentucky Utilities Office on Lake Street, Automatic Electric Stoves.

A demonstration of the proper operating of the Westinghouse Automatic Electric Stove is now being conducted by Miss Marie Walker at the Kentucky Utilities office in this city. The demonstration started Monday, September 13, and closes Saturday, September 18. Arrangements are being made by which it is expected to have groups of the High School students in domestic science view the demonstrations. Many have expressed a desire to see a whole meal cooked. And so, on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Miss Walker demonstrated the cooking of an entire meal in the automatic oven. It is wonderful to know with what ease the customary repasts of the ordinary day may be prepared in the minimum amount of time and labor.

As explained by the demonstrator, out of the numerous advantages of these stoves, two characteristics stand out as distinct from all others: The automatic alarm, which may be set to begin to turn on at the proper time, and then automatically turn off when the food is cooked; and the saving element, from the fact that the 45 minutes the electricity is turned on will provide a cooking period of practically three hours, even after the current is turned off. In summing up the advantages of this stove, it is described as "clean, convenient, efficient and economic." Call at the local office for further information about the stove and the operating rate, which is so practicable that the most economical housewife may afford an electric stove.

Three Stills Raided in Madrid Bend

Some Whisky, Several Hundred Gallons of Mash and Operators Taken in Charge

Sheriff John Thompson and Efficient Deputies Are Active in Enforcing Law

Notwithstanding the fact that moonshiners and law violators are operating cautiously to evade capture, Sheriff John Thompson and his deputies are equal to the occasion, as was fully demonstrated in the lower end of the county Sunday when three stills, some whisky and several hundred gallons of mash, with the operators, were captured. Among those arrested and landed in jail were Pearl Moore, a negro woman, and Bob Poyner and Elmer Anderson, white men.

In the raiding party with Sheriff Thompson were his deputies, C. H. Moore, Joe Walls, Fred Dunn, Abe Thompson and County Judge C. D. Nugent.

Two of the stills were real articles of copper with a capacity for doing business on a large scale.

Sheriff Thompson and his sleuths are not only making life miserable for moonshiners and bootleggers, but are paying due respect to home brew manufacturers. Saturday and Monday three violators in the Hickman vicinity were arrested and when brought before Judge Nugent in his court, one was fined $200 and 30 days, while two were assessed $100 and 30 days in jail each.

MEETING AT CENTRAL CHURCH OF CHRIST

Evangelist Douthitt, who is engaged in a revival meeting at Central Church of Christ, is preaching inspirational sermons to large crowds at each service and W. N. Thompson is leading the singing.

The meeting started last Sunday and interest has increased with each service until the church is too small to hold the crowds. If you are not attending you do not know what you are missing. The Rev. Douthitt is a forceful speaker and much good will be the result of the meeting.

HICKMAN COUNTY HAS A LIVE AGENT

G. W. Bacot, county agent of Hickman county, passed thru Fulton on Monday, en route to the State Fair at Louisville, accompanied by Wallace Bryan, Bowden Farris and McGill Hopkins from near Fulham. These three boys are members of a Stock Judging Club and went to the fair as guests of that organization where they will compete with about two hundred other youngsters in the stock judging contests.

The fair authorities furnish tents and cots for all the contestants, and the I. C. authorities furnished transportation for the above three boys.

Among the other activities of Mr. Bacot is the three poultry shows that will be held at Oakton, October 1, and Shiloh on the 2nd. Three will be other farm products exhibited at these places, but the poultry part of the programs seems to be given first place. Then on the 8th another exhibition will be held at Fulham and on or about the 15th the final one of the series will be held at Clinton, where all the winners of prizes at the other three points will be shown.

These community contests put on under the supervision of the county agent throughout the county have inspired a spirit of friendly rivalry that is doing considerable to increase interest in raising better crops and better livestock.

The most gratifying part of the work, it seems to outside observers, is the enthusiasm shown by the young people in utilizing the help and advice of the farm agents. It seems to be the history of many counties, that the young people lead their elders in taking advantage of these opportunities, and thereby making "Dad" hustle to keep up with the kids.

STATE REPRESENTATIVE IN FULTON, COUNTY

Mrs. Blanche Carns, a representative from the Bureau of Vital Statistics, of the State Board of Health, spent several days in Fulton county this past week. Mrs. Carns called on all the doctors, undertakers, local registrars and sextons, soliciting their cooperation for more prompt and complete reports.

With the cooperation of the United States Census Bureau, the state is enabled to send a certificate of notification to mothers for each child born to them since January 1, 1924.

This certificate should reach the mother within two months after birth. If mothers do not receive these certificates within reasonable time, they should inquire of the doctor or midwife to learn if the certificate of birth has been filed with the local registrar in the district where the birth occurred.

When a death occurs and the family conducts the burial it is the duty of some member of the family to file the certificate of death with the local registrar, giving the full name and the family history, and if no doctor was in attendance, consult your nearest registrar and the county health officer, who will help complete the medical side of the certificate. It is necessary to file the complete death certificate in order to secure a permit for burial. It is a violation of the law to bury a body without a permit, this offense being subject to a fine of from $20.00 to $100.00.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hart on Main street was the scene of a pretty wedding September 8, when their winsome daughter, Miss Ola Buren, was united in marriage to Mr. Robert L. Jeffrey, the Rev. Marvin C. Yates officiating.

The bride is a talented and charming young lady and a graduate of Bowling Green Business University. For several years she has been teaching in North Carolina and Mississippi schools.

Mr. Jeffrey is a popular young postal clerk on the I. C., with headquarters in Fulton. He is a son of Mrs. T. E. Bounds, of Abbeville, Miss. During his residence here he has made many friends who wish the newlyweds a long life of wedded bliss.

Following the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey left on their bridal tour in the northwest. They will be at home to their friends in Fulton after September 25.

Fall Utility Coats Adopt Sports Styles

This fall's utility coats, enlivened by a strong flavor of sports styles and expressive of luxurious comfort, are not outdone in smartness by any other types. They are ample and soft looking, made of spirited plaids and crossbars or fancy weaves in cloths that seem as cozy as furs. Shaded plaids and stripes in two, three or even four colors, that blend well, show the importance of color and the selections of soft fur collars that harmonize with the cloths, emphasize it.

FOR WORKING PEOPLE

(Temperance Lesson.)

OBEEDIENCE TO LAW

LESSON TEXT—Leviticus 24:1-16.
GOLDEN TEXT—Do not drink wine nor strong drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Daniel Chooses the Right.

JUNIOR TOPIC—The Self-Control of Daniel.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Why Obey the Law.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Enforcing the Law.

1. Some Fundamental Laws Stated (vv. 1, 2).

1. God alone to be worshiped (v. 1).

God is a jealous God, therefore He cannot tolerate a rival. There must be no idolatry. God is to have full place in our lives or no place at all.

2. The Sabbath must be observed (v. 2).

The one who has enthroned God in his heart will reverence His Sabbath. The Sabbath was ordained that man might better cherish God in his heart.

3. Reverence for God's sanctuary (v. 2).

The believer needs to frequent the sanctuary of God in order to have his soul refreshed. Respect for God's holy day and the frequency of the sanctuary are inseparably united in those who fear and reverence God.

11. Blessings for Obedience to God's Laws (vv. 3-13).

1. Fruitful seasons (vv. 3-5).

Temporal well-being is secured through obedience to God's government. Godliness is profitable unto all having the promise of the life that now is and that which is to come.

2. Internal security (vv. 6-8).

In addition to the fullness of temporal blessings, God assured them that for obedience to His Word He would grant peace and safety. No robbers were to invade the land to disturb their tranquillity by day or night. No wild beasts would be allowed to devour them.

3. Numerical increase (vv. 9, 10).

Their number would be multiplied according to God's covenant to Abraham and the produce of the land increased to support them.

4. God's abiding presence (vv. 11-13).

The greatest of all God's blessings is His abiding presence. Happy is that nation and people in whose presence God chooses to dwell.

III. Calamities for Disobedience (vv. 14-39).

1. Judgments in general (vv. 14-17).

For disobedience and rejection of God's laws, general calamities would be permitted to come upon them. They include:

(1) Physical diseases. Their health would be taken away and they were to be afflicted with diseases.

(2) Bereavement. Physical disease would take away kindred and friends, thereby causing sorrow of heart and mourning.

(3) Famine. God would withhold the rain, therefore food supply would be lacking.

(4) Conquest. They would be slain before their enemies.

(5) Oppression and dispersion. God would allow the enemy to overcome and oppress them and ultimately take them out of their own land and scatter them.

2. The specific judgments (vv. 18-39).

Mercies rejected and warnings unheeded must be followed by more severe strokes of wrath. Four series of warnings are pointed out by Kellogg, each conditioned on the supposition that they did not repent as the result of the preceding experiences. Each series is prefaced by the formula, "I will punish you seven times more for your sin" (vv. 18, 21, 24, 28). The thought is that each new display of impotence on Israel's part shall be marked by increasing severity.

(1) The rains will be withheld (vv. 19, 20).

(2) Their children and cattle will be destroyed by wild beasts (v. 22).

(3) This to be followed by war, pestilence and famine (vv. 25, 26).

(4) Increasing terror (vv. 29-32).

If the previous judgments were not heeded then severer ones would follow so that in their distress they would eat the flesh of their sons and daughters and their seed should become waste and their land so desolate that even their enemies would be astonished at it.

5. Scattered among the Gentiles (v. 33).

God would scatter them among the heathen and pursue them with a sword. How awfully this has been fulfilled in the history of that people

The Happiest Homes

The happiest, sweetest, tenderest homes are not those where there has been no sorrow, but those which have been overshadowed with grief and where Christ's comfort was accepted.

In the word "penetration," is a secret manufacturing process that has made Senour's Floor Paint a popular favorite for over 40 years.

If a floor paint does not penetrate or grip into the wood it will soon begin to crack, chip and peel.

Senour's Floor Paint dries over night with a high gloss enamel-like finish, but at the same time it sinks into the pores of the wood and forms a film that will withstand the hardest usage and will withstand repeated washings without dimming the lustre.

Six famous cooks, nationally recognized experts in Domestic Science with many years of practical cooking experience, recently conducted a very unusual cooking experiment—a series of tests upon the Perfection stove.

The experiments were performed by these domestic science authorities in their own homes, located in various parts of the country from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from the Great Lakes region to the Gulf of Mexico.

Weeks passed. Many meals were cooked. The stoves were subjected to more severe trials than they would receive during years of service in the average kitchen.

White porcelain enameled warming cabinet. At last the tests were completed and each famous cook gathered together her records and data. After careful study each expert presented a critical and unbiased report of her tests.

Their findings were unanimous! Each in her own kitchen had reached the same conclusion; the Perfection stove will perform every cooking task conveniently and with the greatest satisfaction.

What does all this mean to you, the woman with a family to cook for? Briefly, it means that when you buy a Perfection you are getting a real cooking ally, backed by the word of these six experts, and 4,500,000 satisfied users.

A FRIEND

A friend is a person who is for you always, under all circumstances.

He never investigates you.
He likes you just as you are.
He does not alter you.

Whatever kind of coat you are wearing, whether you have on a dress suit or a hickory shirt with no collar, he thinks it's fine.

He likes your success, and your failure endears him more.
He is better than a lover, because he is never jealous.

He wants nothing from you except that you be yourself.
He is the one being with whom you can feel safe.

With him you can utter your heart, its badness and its goodness. You don't have to be careful.

In his presence you can be discreet, which means you can rest.

There are many faithful wives and husbands; there are few friends.

Friendship is the most admirable, amazing and rare article
among human beings.

Like the shade of a great tree in the noonday heat, is a friend.

Like the home port with your country's flag flying, after a long journey, is a friend.

A friend is an impregnable
citadel of refuge in the strife
of existence.

It is he that keeps alive your faith in human nature, that makes you believe that it is a good universe.

He is the antidote to despair,
the elixir of hope, the tonic for depression.

You give to him without reluctance and borrow from him
without embarrassment.

When you are vigorous and spirited, you like to take your pleasure with him; when you are sick you want to see him;
when you are dying you want him near you.—The Commonwealth.

If you want two good papers for a year, send R. S. Williams, Fulton, Ky., $1.25 for this paper and the Memphis Weekly Commercial Appeal. This special offer is only good for a short time. Send in your sub-

ALMOST UNBELIEVABLE

The directors of the Henderson Chamber of Commerce are quoted as adopting a resolution opposing the proposed power development at Cumberland Falls.

And insisting that "Cumber-
land Falls be preserved."

Preserved for what?
And—
For whom?

With all due respect to the directors of the Chamber of Commerce, who so freely dedicate their time to community service, may we ask how many of the directors have ever seen Cumberland Falls?

And has it been proven to them beyond question that the proposed development WILL destroy the falls?

The thing that is proposed at Cumberland Falls is in line with nation wide hydro-electric and industrial development that is helping to make the present age the electric age.

It is the thing that has been done at Dix River; it has been done at Niagara Falls; it has been done thruout New York;

it has been done in California;
it has been done in North Carolina to such an extent that North Carolina has jumped to Aladdin leadership over night

—an industrial, economic and social development second to nothing north or south and traceable directly to such development as is proposed at Cumberland Falls.

Niagara, unimpaired is still the mecca for nature loving tourists; the Rockies yield their power to the service of mankind with their scenic beauty unimpaired.

North Carolina has been developed hydro-electrically without damage to the natural beauties of her rivers.

And that is not all—the industrial development following hydro-electric development has made it possible to build roads
over which the people may travel to SEE the rivers and their falls.

Cumberland Falls is not seen by the people of Western Kentucky, of Eastern Kentucky or of Central Kentucky.

They are not seen by the people near the Falls nor do the people even fish there although the fish and game wardens are being urged to oppose the power development.

We repeat that it is not proposed to impair the beauty of Cumberland Falls, but to utilize the grade and put the water to work for Kentucky.

We wax eloquent about developing the matchless resources of the Great Commonwealth of Kentucky.

But—
Let some one come forward

with a specific plan to spend millions and achieve the development and he is met at the border with a sentimental sand
bag and clubbed into silence and inertia.

The way to develop is to develop and it seems to us that it is the province of progressive citizenship and organized commerce to PROMOTE rather than to retard material development.

Sentiment is all right but mawkish sentimentalism, run to seed, will prove a ball and chain on the leg of Kentucky in the industrial race.

And the least that we can do is to be sure of our facts before we block progress.—Henderson Journal.

It is almost unbelievable that an intelligent body as make up the directorate of the Henderson Chamber of Commerce would adopt a resolution opposing any legitimate development or enterprise in Kentucky. But Editor Leigh
Harris of the Henderson Evening Journal has published our sentiments in the above article.

No doubt the directors of the Henderson Chamber of Commerce were duped in the belief of a preserve and displayed their ignorance most gloriously
to the public.

PARENT PRAISES U. S. ARMY SERVICE

The army, as a medium of physical and moral training,
has recently gained another strong booster in the person of Peter Moes, Rhinelander, Wisconsin, whose son, Orval J.
Moes, became a member of the 14th Field Artillery, Fort Sheridan, Illinois, last February.

During July, while Young Moes was at Camp Sparta, Wisconsin, undergoing summer training, his father visited him at the camp, and was very much pleased with the army life and elated over the improvement shown in his son.

"When my boy enlisted," writes Mr. Moes, "he was like the average young man, with a big hump on his back and I was very much surprised when I saw him, that he was as straight as a board." He is very much satisfied with the service and is now talking of re-enlisting, as he is receiving excellent training in radio.

"I will close," continued the proud father, "by recommending the army to any red-blooded American Youth of today,
and very strongly advise the parents of any young man to consider the opportunities offered by the Army."

Young Moes was accepted
for enlistment by Corporal Floyd E. Moore, DEM. (RS) in charge of recruiting sub-station, Nassau, Wisconsin.

This is one one of the many letters received daily by the recruiting officers throughout the army commending the service and what it has done for the sons of many parents. Daily letters are received from men who have enlisted for certain branches and tell of the progress they have made in the trade and elementary schools in the army. There is opportunity for any young man in the army, who desires to have a successful future, rapid promotion with increased pay, and an education that cannot be equaled anywhere. There is an army representative in Fulton.
Call on him at the U. S. Army Recruiting Office, Post Office,
and talk it over with him.

A FARM WAGON THAT IS GUARANTEED

The amount of satisfactory service that a wagon will give depends entirely upon the material and skill the manufacturer puts into it. We want to show you a wagon that is built of the best materials by men who know how—

THE JOHN DEERE WAGON

The Wagon That is Guaranteed

A special machine automatically measures the inside of the skin of the John Deere farm wagon and shapes the axle to fit accurately. The skin is set in red lead under high pressure. It has exactly the right pitch, and the axle has the right gather to make the John Deere wagon run lighter than other wagons. With the John Deere sand- and dust-proof skins there is no wearing of bearing surfaces—the oil stays in—the wagon is always smooth-running and light-pulling.

Only carefully-selected oak and hickory are used in the loads.

Come in and see this wagon—read the guarantee on the tool box. Let us explain the many fine points embodied in it.

Speeches were made by S. R. Bratton, Union City; J. H. Jackson, Cairo; G. C. Rowlett, Martin; Judge Estes, Weakley county; Hon. Finis J. As above stated, the meeting of the big committee at Martin on the night of September 21 will crystallize the ideas expressed by the various speakers, and the campaign will be started along the plans there developed.

Of the many enthusiastic meetings to do something for roads that have been held here in the past, that of Tuesday night was by long odds the most encouraging, and every dweller along the Mississippi Valley Highway should make it his personal business to do everything possible to make the movement a success.

Prayer meeting 7:30 Wednesday evening.

Preaching by the pastor 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. every Sunday and the public is cordially invited. Special music.
Sunday was a beautiful day and a large crowd attended the morning services, both Sunday school and church service. Our pastor preached a helpful sermon at the morning hour and the presiding elder, Rev. Norman, preached a splendid sermon at the evening hour. The Epworth League presented a splendid program.

The Warner Blackboard Missionary Society met in regular meeting Monday at the home of Mrs. J. E. Fall, with Mrs. Hilary Alexander as assistant hostess. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Scruggs, and opened with song, "Blest be the Tie That Binds." A short business session followed with splendid reports from various officers. The monthly bulletin was presented by Miss Fry. Mesdames Boyd Bennett, Meacham, Knarr, Clowe, Bynum, Bright, Lowe, Sam Bennett and Beadles.

The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. Joe Davis, leader of the Bible Study. Subject "The Third Year of Christ's Ministry, or Year of Opposition." Mrs. Kramer gave a splendid outline of the preceding lesson. Mrs. Davis gave a talk on "Feeding of Five Thousand."

Mrs. Knarr, "Syrophoen Daughter." Mrs. Warren, "Peter's Confession," and Mrs. Roper, "The Transfiguration." Mrs. Whayne, "Good Samaritan." These were assistants of Mrs. Davis and were very instructive and interesting.

Mrs. R. S. Williams was a visitor and favored us with a vocal solo, "Voice of One Crying in the Wilderness."

During the social hour the hostesses served sandwiches, wafers and ice grape juice to two visitors and 27 members.

Mrs. Boyd Bennett and Mrs. W. I. Knarr were hostesses last Friday, giving the fifth luncheon for the group A, benefit of the building fund. The large living room and dining room was a regular flower garden with fall blossoms. Covers were laid in the living room for 32. A two course buffet luncheon was served at one o'clock. Quite a nice sum was added to the treasure for the new church.

The cantata given last Sunday evening by the choir of the church was among the best our local people have had an opportunity to hear. Chic Flannel Blouse Fills Many Needs

Interest in blouses for fall and winter is centered more on new fabrics and colors than on changes in styling, which remains conservative. Mohair and chiffon velvet have entered the field of dressy styles and are very handsome in the new dark-red shades, the red-browns and black and gold combinations. High or V-shaped neck treatments and long sleeves are details that predominate in all styles. A smart sports blouse is shown here made of striped flannel.
