She was a Beaumontian, and had come east as a young, beautiful, and decided woman. She was tall, with hair and eyes of brown, and had a complexion pale and yet soft, and her figure was in perfect harmony with her face. She had been born in a small town, and had received all the education of the day. She was accomplished in music, and had a singular power of learning and using all the music known to her. She was true and loyal, and always sought the best. She had a great influence over the people of the town, and was beloved by all who knew her. She was a member of the town church, and was active in all its work. She was a woman of true worth, and was always respected and admired by all who knew her. She was a true daughter of the town, and was always true to her home, her friends, and her principles.

The town was in a state of heartbroken grief, and the people were in a state of deep mourning. The loss of the woman was a great blow to the town, and the people were in a state of deep sorrow. They were in a state of deep mourning, and the town was in a state of deep grief. The woman was a true daughter of the town, and was always true to her home, her friends, and her principles.

She was a Beaumontian, and had come east as a young, beautiful, and decided woman. She was tall, with hair and eyes of brown, and had a complexion pale and yet soft, and her figure was in perfect harmony with her face. She had been born in a small town, and had received all the education of the day. She was accomplished in music, and had a singular power of learning and using all the music known to her. She was true and loyal, and always sought the best. She had a great influence over the people of the town, and was beloved by all who knew her. She was a member of the town church, and was active in all its work. She was a woman of true worth, and was always respected and admired by all who knew her. She was a true daughter of the town, and was always true to her home, her friends, and her principles.

The town was in a state of heartbroken grief, and the people were in a state of deep mourning. The loss of the woman was a great blow to the town, and the people were in a state of deep sorrow. They were in a state of deep mourning, and the town was in a state of deep grief. The woman was a true daughter of the town, and was always true to her home, her friends, and her principles.

She was a Beaumontian, and had come east as a young, beautiful, and decided woman. She was tall, with hair and eyes of brown, and had a complexion pale and yet soft, and her figure was in perfect harmony with her face. She had been born in a small town, and had received all the education of the day. She was accomplished in music, and had a singular power of learning and using all the music known to her. She was true and loyal, and always sought the best. She had a great influence over the people of the town, and was beloved by all who knew her. She was a member of the town church, and was active in all its work. She was a woman of true worth, and was always respected and admired by all who knew her. She was a true daughter of the town, and was always true to her home, her friends, and her principles.
THE TRIBUNE.
PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY.
No. 1,752.
Purified Wednesday, 16th April, 1858.

VOL. 12.

of Kentucky; subject to the action of the democratic party.

of the republican post master and through such a committee has a duty to because the party is given to others in a way they don't want it. But you don't want it when you want it. I am looking forward with much expectation to Mr. F. W. Dunlop's new book, "The War," which will come out next month, and which I hope to have the pleasure of seeing before the war is over. The war is over, and the people are settling down to business again.

The following extracts are from "Notes for the Cariona" in its true light, I will admit that I can find a more appropriate "finis" than is the generally accepted best, but I will not give it.

Miss Belle is well and favorably known to all her friends, and of course is well known to all the world. She is the daughter of John Chandler, a gentle and intelligent man, and a member of the best families in the country.

The many friends of Mr. Kin in the Dunklin County bank. past - present - future. Are coming home and the best wishes of all the world are with them.

"Tis Funny."
Some Stealing Has Been Going on

Judge Wm. Lochren, of Minnesota

President Cleveland has a re-bore before 8 o'clock. Feeling the anxious to personally present their claims. They went to see Ambas-

the minor officials needed a little extra whiskey money, and the

been included in the thefts, upon

one occasion a stone step being taken from the building itself. The regeltss of who be may be of

In the Weather Bureau De-

the bottom of the filth and to see

long range over the trouble in

Gen. Miles have had a squabble at investigate the trouble. No U. S.

the Secretary of the interior re-

the nomination of Judge Wm.

Lochren, of Minnesota to the po-

war record is of the bravest, and

organization has so far as known

about May first.

served in the army. He will take rendering services in anything

ries they receive, but a whole di-

department day,) proceed to ex-

of the north half of the north west quarter of section 36 town-

a credit of six months. The pur-

bond with approved security, for money, to have the force and

satisfaction, or money refunded.

Price 25 cents per box. For sale

of locomotive facilities, and the eknan-

by a male escort without entailing the

not one of an increasing community.

band's support, are more within their

ers into healthier channels by bestow-

have outlived the warm emotions of

bled into dust, still sit or hover round

ure, the same alternations of momentary

triumph or more lingering heart burn-

they possess endurance to a higher de-

ing their losses, or regard the painful

bates more calmly than then, by the

although they may not have so much

ward perturbation so perfectly as a few moments will end all. Men play

subjection by the one overwhelming

In the spring, they

tension of nerves is created, attainable

or evil, stubborn or self-confident until

the last ray of hope is extinguished,

"'Tis woman's fire and her wings are scorched. She recall. -Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Then comes the test of a woman's

"What is it?"

"William, the old cheat told me to

The Wilson Lumber Co.,

W. N. Gardner, Def. in Equity.

The Wilson Lumber Co.

HARDIN, KY.

The Smith Business College

JNO. D. SMITH, JR.

PADCUCA, KAY.

Benton, Kentucky

Fine Kentucky and Tennessee

WHISKEYS

Reg and Bottled Beer,

Tobacco and Cigars.

Benton Hardware Co.,

1914's TRADEMARK.

"NOHITOL"

INFLUENZA.

INFLUENZA.

"NOHITOL"

cure.

"NOHITOL"

"NOHITOL"

cure.

"NOHITOL"

"NOHITOL"

cure.

"NOHITOL"

"NOHITOL"

cure.