Fulton Building & Loan Association Will Assist You in Building a Home

The twenty-sixth semi-annual statement of the Fulton Building & Loan Association at the close of business October 30, 1926, is the best issued during its thirteen year's existence. This is one of the outstanding active institutions of Fulton. With a capital stock of one million and a half dollars, managed by a directorate of the city's leading business men with more than five hundred stockholders, its past history is a marvelous success. It has operated thirteen years without the loss of a penny and made Fulton a city of home owners.

The following figures taken from the records show the phenomenal growth of the Fulton Building & Loan Association the past year.

Assets, October 30, 1925, $420,408.66. Assets, October 30, 1926, $481,325.10.

Stock matured in past 12 months, $73,400.00.

Real Estate loans made past 12 months, $125,250.00.

Real Estate loans matured and paid past 12 months, $60,650.00.

Number of real estate loans made past 12 months, 77.

Promoting thrift and assisting in building homes is the keynote of this gigantic institution.

They have plenty of cash on hand and are anxious to assist you build a "Home, Sweet Home." Not just a house, but a real home, home.

A good home has many appeals. It gives you pride of ownership. It induces you to save money. It gives expression to your desire to design and build. It affords pleasant memories for the children. It brings comfort to your life. It creates an estate for old age or a "rainy day." It makes you a better citizen.

Any of these appeals is sufficient reason why you should become a home owner. To be assured of a home that you will enjoy, build it through the Fulton Building & Loan Association and stop handing out your good money for scraps of paper, better known as rent receipts.

Perhaps you own a house and a little remodeling would convert it into a real home, but you haven't the cash to remodel it with, just step into the office of Fulton Building & Loan Association on Main street, and E. J. Fall, secretary, or Smith Atkins, his valuable assistant, will explain matters in detail how easy they can assist you in making improvements or building a "love nest," a real home of your own, where direct results of environment breed contentment and happiness.

FULTON HI VS. PADUCAH

Fulton High will meet the Paducah eleven tomorrow at the fair grounds at 2:00 p. m., when the Fulton team will meet the Paducah aggregation for the fourth time since the organization of the "Little Ten" conference.

This will be the biggest game of the entire Little Ten conference and the home boys will have to play their very best, as the Paducah outfit outweighs them by a considerable number of pounds. While Fulton has played the visitors three times previously, they have always held the score to a very presentable one, being beaten once by 14 to 2 and last year by 14 to 9. While this will be the fourth time these teams have met, it will be the first time that Paducah has played on the home field, and the visitors will bring between 75 and 100 "rooters" to help them win.

The visiting team will arrive on "Whisky Dick" at 9:45 a. m., and the game will be called promptly at 2:00 in order to allow them to return on the afternoon train. Even if Fulton fails to win, our boys, have, by defeating Princeton last week, hoisted themselves from the bottom of the pit and will not finish at the bottom of the list.

Morganfield, Sturgis and Paducah are undefeated so far this year and it will be a tremendous feather in the cap of our boys should they "hang it on" the guests of the day.

Every fan who possibly can should be present and "pull" for the Bull Dogs tomorrow afternoon.

HALLOWE'EN CELEBRATED IN FULTON

Fulton's celebration of Halloween Saturday night turned away from the traditional gate hanging of the past and became a sort of mardigras affair with throngs of masked girls and boys parading about downtown and through the residential section of the city.

On the whole, it was jovial, good natured sort of celebration, with plenty of merriment and some mischief, but very little real damage. As usual, soap was freely used on show windows downtown. This was very thoughtful of the revelers, as some of the windows needed soap and needed it badly. They look cleaner and brighter today than they have since the last "soaping party" soaped them.

The usual pranks of boys in the residential sections were reported to police headquarters, but no real damage was done, except removing articles from premises, causing some annoyance in locating them by the owners.

The revelers' headquarters were at Culver's. Here the colorful Halloween decorations with hooded lights were elaborate and added color and vivacity to the laughing throngs seated around the tables refreshing themselves before joining in the street parade.

Some of the show windows downtown were elaborately decorated for Halloween. The most handsome display windows on Lake street, which showed much effort on the part of the decorators, was that of the Kentucky Utilities Company. Here the artist eclipsed all former window displays that attract so much attention and admiration by pedestrians on Fulton's prominent thoroughfare.

JOYFUL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hannephin are rejoicing over a message received from Mr. and Mrs. Carter and children, who have been in China the past two years, that they would return home soon and are now on their way. Mrs. Carter is a sister of Mrs. Hannephin.

Road Work Progressing

Graveling of the State Line east of town is progressing rapidly in spite of the rains and the response of the farmers in donating teams and men for the hauling is a gratifying indication of the effects of cooperation among the rural residents of the community.

Some farmers, who are interested in the work have been unable to contribute to the work due to having still some crops that had to be taken care of first, but the indications are that from now until the work is completed, more and more teams will be available.

The force of loaders is always more sufficient to keep pace with the wagons and as soon as the number of teams coincide with the loaders, the work will go forward even more rapidly than at the beginning.

Two Women on School Board

Mrs. P. R. Binford, Mrs. J. C. Brann and C. H. Warren Elected

In the city election for school trustees the vote was as follows:

Mrs. P. R. Binford 756
Mrs. J. C. Brann 692
H. C. Warren 624
C. P. Williams 581
J. Ray Graham, Sr. 476

E. C. Hardesty, who withdrew from the race, and whose name was not printed on the ballot, received a nice complimentary vote.

Gregory Elected

The district voters Tuesday selected Judge William Voris Gregory, Democratic candidate, to represent them in Congress during the next two years, giving him a majority of approximately 14,000 votes over Mrs. William H. Mason, of Murray, his Republican opponent. The unofficial vote gave Gregory 26,813; Mrs. Mason 12,938, a majority of 13,875 for Judge Gregory.

The difference of 4,690 votes between the Barkley-Gregory vote was not surprising in view of the animosities that arose within the Democratic party when nomination of Judge Gregory in the Democratic primary, August 7, was contested by his opponent, State Senator Garth K. Ferguson, of La Center, who charged that gross fraud was committed in Mayfield in order to throw the nomination to Judge Gregory. Ferguson received more than one thousand illegal votes in nine of the thirteen counties of the district, and Judge John L. Dorsey, Sr., of Henderson, who heard the case as special judge, declared Judge Gregory to be the Democratic nominee. His decision was upheld by the court of appeals.

Loses Two Counties
Caldwell and Crittenden counties gave Mrs. Mason more votes than they gave Judge Gregory, while Judge Barkley carried all but Crittenden county.

Judge Gregory will occupy the Congressional seat vacated by Judge Barkley after fourteen years' continuous service.

Bond Issues Were Beaten

Both bond issues were beaten in Tuesday's election. The state debt bond issue and the Penal Institution issue of $5,000,000.

J. R. POWELL VICTIM OF RUNAWAY ACCIDENT

J. R. Powell, one of the best known and highly esteemed citizens of Route 6, Fulton, died Thursday morning, October 28, in the Mayfield hospital where he was being treated for injuries received in a runaway accident a few days previous.

The remains were brought to Fulton Thursday evening and conveyed to his late home on Route 6. The Fulton Undertaking Company had charge of burial arrangements last Friday.

The deceased is survived by his widow and three children, three brothers and other relatives. The community in which Mr. Powell lived has lost a good man and the Cumberland Presbyterian church, of which he was a member, a loyal, Christian gentleman.

ENVY

Worry, hard work, dissipation, poor judgment, ill health, despondency—all these are enemies of success, but none of them has a more evil effect than envy.

This little demon is always on the alert for a chance to pop into the most unsuspecting head. If the soil is ripe for him, he insinuates that you are not receiving enough of this world's goods for what you are giving. He blackens your friend's character by causing you to draw unfair conclusions about him.

Envy tells you that you are not appreciated; that honest work has no reward—only grafters and hypocrites get on in the world. He gives you a false estimate of your own ability.

Then you begin to loathe your job and hate your friends. Your work is not up to its former high standard. You become a confirmed pessimist and see bad in every one.

Happily, however, there is a cure for this condition of mind that envy produces. If your friends are prosperous, be glad, because it indicates what can be done with the proper amount of determination. Let their prosperity be a lesson.

If your friends are well liked you may be sure there is a good reason for it, and that you can learn the secret by close observation.

Take advantage of every opportunity to help and serve that is within the scope of your ability. Then you will have a different view of the world in which you live. Your change in attitude will bring rewards.

unexpected. Envy produces nothing but misery for the envious.

THE COTTON DILEMMA

The cotton growers of the south are in a dilemma due to a heavy surplus which has forced prices down and all sorts of plans are being resorted to in an effort to stimulate the demand for cotton.

There comes from Boston the word from a style adviser for a cotton mill that society is turning to cotton dresses. The publisher of a textile bulletin at Charlotte, N. C., urges upon women the purchase of cotton smocks as a means of relieving the distressing situation.

No amount of artificial stimulation will bring relief, because women will not change over night. The demand for silk garments has been nurtured for years and it could not be reasonably expected that women would turn again to cotton.

Cotton is a world commodity like wheat. When there is a surplus above the amount required for domestic consumption, it must be sold on a world market and complete with a world price.

A large crop last year brought about the condition that now exists and there seems no other alternative except for the cotton producers to take their loss and wait for a more favorable season to profit.

One of two ways might be employed to correct the deplorable situation that has developed this year. A cotton pool to hold the surplus off the market until there is a more brisk demand and to escape the blighting effect of competing with foreign producers, is one plan offered. Another is curtailment of the acreage to avoid a surplus.

Neither plan has proved practical. It has been tried in wheat, but never worked successfully. Complete cooperation of all the growers has never been possible of accomplishment.

HOMAGE TO AMERICA

Queen Marie, of Roumania, the little Balkan nation that suffered much from the maelstrom of war, paid homage to America's great, in beginning a tour of this country.

And in offering the royal tribute to the memory of those honored by Americans, she likewise did homage to the United States, the greatest republic history has ever known.

Queen Marie's remarks have been singularly free from criticism. It has been popular since the war for Europeans to lecture us—popular with the Europeans and very distasteful to true Americans. There is for this reason, something very refreshing about having such a guest.

According to report, Queen Marie is to receive a check for $25,000 to "work" one day in the movies. Doubtless she is worth the price as a boxoffice attraction. It does not cheapen her any when we reflect that the money will be used for feeding Roumanian war orphans.

Queen Marie has been given a reception befitting her station at least as much as could be expected from a nation where royal blood means nothing, and ability to achieve is the standard by which men and women are judged.

SOUTH FULTON FIRE

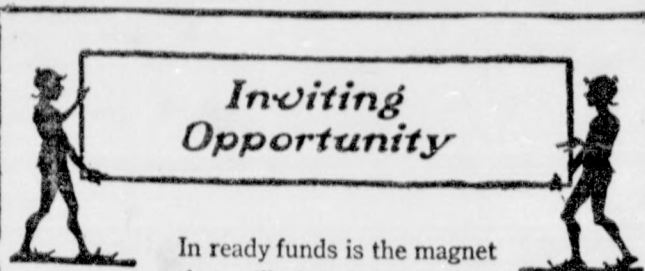

Fire on State Line street early Tuesday morning, opposite Browder's Mill, which originated in Porter Wright's negro restaurant, did damage estimated at $6,000, partly covered by insurance with the agencies of Ed Paschall and Fall & Fall. Those who suffered damage were Porter Wright's place a doctor's office, negro picture show house, negro barber shop, offices occupied by South Fulton officials.

The city fire department did heroic work in extinguishing the blaze, as the entire block looked like it was doomed for a while.

Community Building

Duty of Citizens to Guard Public Health

The average citizen pays for accidents and disease in deaths, injuries, illnesses, bills, discounted investments and depreciated values. Therefore it is his job to prevent accidents and disease, says Dr. J. Howard Beard in Hygiene Magazine.

In the old days of the one-horse shay, the physician was responsible for the health of the entire community. Medical science has advanced tremendously since then. So has industrial science. Although many disease conditions have been brought under control, countless new ones have arisen as the result of the rise of industrialism.

Fast trains and airplanes are as much a part of the disposal of disease germs as of human beings. While large cities, foster clinics and medical schools and hospitals, they also foster unhygienic living conditions, accidents and illness.

The physician can no longer handle the situation alone, in spite of his greatly increased knowledge. He must have the co-operation of every citizen in the community. It is the average citizen who can and should insist on the adoption of public health measures, on the health education of school children and adults, and on the furtherance of preventive medicine.

Appearance of House Attracts the Buyer

People who are most vociferous in their appreciation of the sentimental values of their homes, who let it be known to all and sundry that they would never sell their home because of old associations, are frequently the readiest to sell if they get what they call a "good offer." They are really good salesmen, and their boasted affection for their homes is merely good sales talk. While this attitude may be a trifle calloused, there are few of us who do not keep a weather eye upon real estate values. We are proud and pleased when there is a "boom" in our immediate neighborhood. And rightly so. We are pleased whenever the property value of our home advances, because it has materially increased our potential estate, and proud that our purchase has proved to be a wise investment.

Keep your property well painted and you will have mighty few repair bills. Paint is far cheaper than new wood, metal replacements. Watch the "fat" obvious vulnerable points, such as roof, eaves and down spouts, porch columns, etc. The trim is usually the first to suffer.

Wisdom in Building Well

Whether the house is being built for a home, or to let, the builder will save much money on repairs and upkeep by having the house constructed of the very best materials by the best of craftsmen. The last several years have seen the erection of innumerable "cheap houses," built poorly of inferior materials. These so-called "cheap houses" have been very expensive to the owners, who have found they cheated them of the pride and satisfaction that should have been theirs in the possession of their own home, to say nothing of the hundreds of dollars worth of value that was sadly lacking.

Authentic and authoritative literature is now being published in book form and in pamphlets, magazines and newspapers, so the man who contemplates any sort of building, should carefully study this literature with the idea of acquainting himself with what really constitutes good building.

War on Mosquitoes

The first mosquito bite of the season ought to remind the victim that stagnant water is standing around somewhere close by. Rain barrels, tin cans, unsealed cisterns, marshy pools and similar water receptacles and places make ideal hatcheries for this pestiferous insect. Besides being a disagreeable nuisance mosquitoes carry malaria, especially in the southern part of Illinois. Mosquitoes never breed in running water nor in bone-dry territory. They rarely travel far from the place of birth. Enforcing rigid prohibition against stagnant water in the neighborhood or adding a coat of oil to it will eliminate the bites.

Few Buy Homes Outright

"More than half the houses in the United States are owned by men who make less than $2,000 a year," says W. D. Carter, retiring president of the New York State League of Savings and Loan associations.

"It is estimated that approximately 90 per cent of those who build or buy a home do not pay for it outright at the start. Habits of thrift, economy and self-denial established and practiced in saving to meet the monthly payments by which the home is paid for are among the greatest assets of owning a home."

Clean City an Asset

It is not easy to magnify the influence of cleanliness as a charm. For a city to be clean is good business, if nothing else. But it is much else. Without it there can be little beauty or comfort, little of the air of prosperity that is so desirable.

Lesson for November 7

THE FALL OF JERICHO

LESSON TEXT—Josh. 6:1-20.
GOLDEN TEXT—This is the victory that overcometh the world even our faith.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Joshua Leads His People to Victory.

JUNIOR TOPIC—The Victory of Jericho.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How God Helped Joshua.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Overcoming by Faith.

Jericho was the key to the land of Canaan. A signal victory here would put the Israelites in control of the land. Failure here would mean irretrievable ruin.

I. Jericho Shut Up (vv. 1-5).

The Canaanites felt secure because Jericho was strongly fortified from the south. Approach to the city from the east was not thought of as the Jordan river was a barrier. The miraculous crossing of the Jordan by the Israelites and their surrounding the city of Jericho greatly alarmed the people—"Therefore none went out and none came in."

1. God's promise to Joshua (v. 2).

"I have given into thine hand Jericho, and the king thereof, and the mighty men of valour." Because of this promise from the Lord their faith had a firm basis.

2. God's instructions (vv. 3-5).

They were to encompass the city with seven priests bearing trumpets of rams' horns. The ark, a symbol of the Divine Presence, went before the people. They encompassed the city once a day for six days and on the seventh day they encompassed it seven times. When the last circuit was made the priests were to give a long blast of the trumpets and the people were to shout with a great shout and the walls of Jericho were to fall down.

II. The Obedience of the People (vv. 6-10).

They advanced according to the directions of their leader, for they were going forth according to the command of the Lord. To the natural eye the means employed were very inadequate, even foolish. If they had looked at the inadequacy of the means in themselves, they no doubt would have faltered, but they believed that He who had given the order would fight for them. Joshua and the people set out at once to obey the divine directions. The people marched around the city every day for six days. This, no doubt, was very trying to their faith. There was absolutely no connection between the means and the end. Perhaps as the days wore wearily away the whole affair became monotonous. Even at the end of the sixth day there was no change. Doubtless the people on the walls of the city used this unseemly behavior as an occasion of great merriment and ridicule. Even at the end of the sixth round on the seventh day there was no change. Yea, the seventh round brought no change until the very last moment. At the mighty shout, accompanied with the blowing of trumpets, the walls came tumbling down. This is the way of all works accomplished by faith. At the time when everything seems against us, faith holds on and wins the victory.

III. The Fall of Jericho (vv. 17-20).

At the end of the seventh day the seventh round having been made of the city, the long silence was broken with a shout. As the walls crumbled down, the Israelites clambered over them, slaying men, women and children. They were not to spare anything save the gold, silver, brass and iron which were to be saved for the treasury of the Lord. However, Rahab and her household were saved according to the promise of the spies. This wonderful deliverance was calculated to inspire the people with courage and enthusiasm. They could now see how God could fight for them and deliver them from their enemies. Also, it would strike terror in the hearts of the Canaanites. The blowing of the trumpets and shouting of that day with its great victory is typical of the greater day when larger victories shall be won by the Almighty for His people, and even greater consternation will be struck into the hearts of the enemies of God's people (1 Thess. 4:16, 17).

WHAT NET EARNINGS MEAN

The money which railroads have left after paying operating expenses and taxes is classified under the accounting regulations of the Interstate Commerce Commission as net operating income and is commonly known as net earnings. Not all of net earnings, however, is available for dividends to railway owners. For example, it will take all the net earnings realized in the first half of 1926 by railroads of the country as a whole to pay the full year's interest charges on their borrowed money.

The ratio of net earnings to property investment is commonly accepted as the yardstick measuring the financial results of railway operation. Such measurement shows that there has been a fairly steady improvement in the financial results of railway operation in recent years. The net earnings realized by the railroads of the country as a whole for each $100 of investment in railway property were $2.92 in 1921, $3.61 in 1922, $4.48 in 1923, $4.33 in 1924, and $4.83 in 1925. For the first eight months of 1926 net earnings were realized at the annual rate of $5.13 for each $100 of investment in railway property.

This improvement in the financial results of railway operation is well deserved, because it is the result of greater economy and efficiency in handling increased traffic. However, the ratio of net earnings to property investment is even yet less than it should be, especially when we consider that railway traffic has been breaking all records this year. Few other businesses could manage to get along at so low a rate, and the railroads themselves have earned more in the past. In 1916, for example, their net earnings were $5.94 for every $100 of property investment at that time, and, when the difference in the purchasing power of money is considered, a good many other years yielded earnings that meant more to the railroads than those being received today.

The present railway efficiency, which is so productive of good in every line of business, is largely the result of the substantial investments in improvements which the railroads have made in recent years in the hope of improved earnings. The continued efficiency of the railroads depends to the same large extent upon their ability to obtain funds for further expansion to keep pace with the increased demands for their services which the future is certain to bring. Railway credit, therefore, must be safeguarded. We believe that railway patrons, realizing this situation, will look with favor upon further improvement in the rate of railway net earnings.

The value of good railway service is beyond estimation. Good service is the kind the railroads want to continue to provide. All they ask is that the public encourage them to do so. Constructive criticism and suggestions are invited.

HALLOWE'EN TEA

The members of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, sponsored a beautiful benefit tea Friday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey Snow on Third street, and was quite a successful affair. The Snow home presented a lovely setting with its yellow hooded lights, pumpkins, black cats, witches, while baskets and vases filled with yellow flowers lent their charm.

Mrs. Mike Fry greeted the guests at the door. In the receiving line with Mrs. Snow were two former active church members, Mrs. Fred Schinner, of Chicago, and Mrs. M. L. Smith, of New York. Mrs. C. H. Warren, Mrs. J. V. Freeman, Mrs. H. L. Patterson, and Mrs. F. D. Worth, were also in line and graciously greeted the guests.

The tea table with its handsome lace cover was centered with a beautiful silver basket filled with huge yellow marigolds and flanked with yellow tapers in silver holders.

Mesdames Bettie Roper, Belle Gossum and Miss Mary Lee poured coffee, while Mesdames Gus Bard, Floyd Irby, Will Stephens, and Dave Lowe served delicious individual pumpkin pies and sandwiches.

About one hundred guests registered in the pretty book, kept by Mrs. Edward Heywood and Mrs. J. O. Anderson.

Others assisting were Mesdames Otis Cox, Ludora Robertson, Virgil King. Mrs. Ed Crockett presided over the Victrola. Quite a nice sum was realized.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS

The Woman's Missionary of the C. P. Church met in regular session at the home of Mrs. Edward Heywood at her home on Green street, Monday afternoon.

The attendance was exceptionally good, 19 members being present with several new members. Mrs. Mike Fry had charge of the devotional reading the 28 chapter of Matthew. The treasurer's report showed 28 dollars taken in on the silver tea recently given and $10 given toward the educational fund.

Mrs. Ramsey Snow was the leader of the study mission work.

Mrs. Gus Bard was appointed chairman of the program to be given November 14, by the missionary board.

During the social hour the hostess served dainty refreshments.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

Mrs. Chas. Brann graciously entertained the members of the music department of the Woman's Club and invited guests, Wednesday afternoon at her home on East State Line street. Autumn blooms in artistic arrangement gave color to the rooms.

After a brief business session presided over by Miss Waggoner, a program of Folk song music was led by Mrs. O. H. McFarlin, who gave a resume of Folk song. In the sincerity and spontaneity of these songs, there is something profoundly refreshing. The program included:

Piano—Variations Old Black Joe—Mrs. Gus Bard.

Voice—Welsh, Mifawny—Miss Ruth Fields.

Piano, English—Shepherd's Hey—Mrs. Clarence Maddox.

Voice, Spanish—Madrigal—Mrs. R. S. Williams.

Piano, selected—Mrs. Neal Sisk.

The usual social hour was concluded with delicious refreshments.

BRIDGE AFTERNOON

Mrs. Smoot Morris entertained Wednesday afternoon of the past week with a delightful bridge party at her home on Arch street.

A lovely and attractive setting was created by the use of Halloween decorations. In the tallies, score pads, nut cups and the beautifully wrapped prizes, yellow and black predominated.

Three tables were arranged for the game, and Mrs. Jake Huddleston won a pretty yellow and black vase for high score.

Mrs. Martin Nall cut consolation, a crystal lemon squeezer.

At the conclusion of the game a beautiful plate luncheon was served.

THURSDAY BRIDGE CLUB

The Thursday afternoon bridge club was entertained in a very delightful manner when Mrs. George Crafton was hostess at her home on Cedar St. Three tables of players included the club members and visitors. The rooms were attractively adorned with late fall flowers, while Halloween idea was reflected in the tallies, score pads and favors. Mrs. Leon Browder secured the club prize, silk hose; Mrs. Will Creason, visitor's prize, Coty's compact.

Following the game a lovely salad course was served.

MRS. REEDS, AGED 76, DIES

Was One of Most Prominent Residents of Southern Graves County

Mayfield, Ky., Nov. 1.—One of the most prominent women of the southern part of the county, Mrs. Bettie Reeds, aged 76 years, passed away suddenly at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. V. Brann, near Water Valley, yesterday, following a short illness.

Besides her daughter, Mrs. Brann, she is survived by another daughter, Mrs. J. E. West, of the county, and a sister, a Mrs. Greene, of Texas. An only granddaughter, Mrs. Whitt Garner, of this city, also survives. She was beloved by all in her section, who knew her, and many friends mourn her going.

The deceased was a faithful member of the Methodist church, and was known to all as a lovable Christian woman.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Brann, where she had made her home, and interment followed in the Water Valley cemetery.

Poet Has Right Idea of Loyalty to Town

The Literary Digest reprints this from the Herald (Tippecanoe City, Ohio) as a sentiment typical of the period. The Digest says it thinks it knows what Mr. Mencken will say of it, so offers something, the editor says:

"MY TOWN CAN'T BE TOO GOOD FOR ME."

BY "WILLY" CHAFFER

(For nearly three years the Chaffee Jingles have appeared in the advertising of The Big Green Barn garage and they have been a source of enjoyment to all. His present contribution, published below, cannot be classed as a jingle, however, in our opinion it is not only his masterpiece, but a bit of verse that is outstanding in current poetry.)

My Town can't be too good for me,
Nor I too big or good for it;
Though small in size My Town may be,
I'd have it big in "Push" and "Grit."

My Town must meet emergencies
With dauntless courage, vim and "Pop!"

Though progress is not bought with ease,
My Town must not get "out of step."

My Town must tackle every task—
Go forward always—never back down.

'Neath foreign suns though I may bask,
I'd think with pride of this, My Town.

My Town, of course, is good enough,
No matter how my fortunes swell,
Nor yet how fortune may rebuff,
My Town's defenders I would quell.

—And yet, down deep within my heart
I know My Town improved could be,
To help improve I'll do my part—
My Town can't be too good for me!

We Must Work Together

EVERY thoughtful citizen of this community is interested in its development and progress. There's no question about that! We all want our children to enjoy better homes, better schools, better parks - more agreeable surroundings and greater comforts.

We all want our town to keep step with its neighbors; to take the lead in civic affairs. So there is only one sound plan for us to follow:

We must work together to increase the wealth of this community by doing everything we can to encourage local business.

When you and your family patronize our advertisers - the stores and banks of our town - and keep your money in circulation right here at home, there is no power on earth that can prevent our progress.

That "Saving" Habit

Saving is a matter of habit. And the habit grows, just like the savings.

To acquire the habit when young with small sums is to practice the habit when older with larger sums.

So encourage the little fellows to start a savings account with us at once, and watch the habit grow.

FOOD LIKE YOU GET AT HOME

This is truly a home-like restaurant because it has endeavored to break down the prejudice based on the theory that restaurants could not serve food like you get at home. Many patrons will testify that there is no difference between our meals and the meals they get at home. That's the reason they come here so frequently to eat. Years of catering to the appetites of particular people make it possible for us to serve appetizing meals. The next time you want to eat away from home, bring your family here.

POULTRY

FIGHT LICE AND MITES IN SUMMER

Kerosene has been used probably more than any other one thing on the average farm for fighting the lice and mites found in the poultry house. It is sudden death and very satisfactory except for one thing: evaporation is rather rapid and a new spraying or other method of treatment is required in a short time. It being always on hand is a real advantage.

Mixed half and half with waste machine oil or crank-case oil, kerosene is much superior to use alone and will remain effective much longer. Some people report extremely satisfactory results by mixing kerosene and commercial fly spray for poultry use. This will often last two or three months. Crude oil such as is burned in the furnaces of many people and also used for hog dip, is very effective in combating lice and mites.

Probably the most effective of all the spray preparations that can be used is a coal-tar wood preservative that can be purchased at most lumber yards and drug stores. A poultry house sprayed with this should not be further troubled with mites or lice for another year. It is highly desirable in using this spray to be very careful to get every part covered. Also care should be used to put it on rather thinly, especially around the nests and perches. It will stick to the feet of the hens and when carried to the nests get on the eggs and injure their quality both for market and for hatching. The season of rapid multiplication of lice and mites comes with the warmer weather of spring and effective eradication is more easily accomplished then than later, as well as saving the drain upon the flock.

Build Complete Machine for Production of Eggs

Don't omit feeding because the fowls are on the range or running through the feed lots.

No matter how fine the breeding, how careful the brooding, how long the pedigree, unless the chicks and young stock are kept growing uniformly and continuously through the growing season, they cannot develop to the fullest extent of which they are capable. Only well-grown hens lay their best; only well-grown males make the best breeders. It is not so much a question of getting maturity for the fall and early winter shows as securing a complete machine for the egg factory.

Both young and old should have access to the feed hopper all the time; the old stock for feather-making material, the young for frame, meat and feathers.

Various Mixtures Used for Feeding the Ducks

Where only a few ducks are raised it is satisfactory to use the same feed for the ducks as is used for the chickens. On commercial duck farms various mixtures are used. A common one for use during the first three weeks is made of equal parts of corn meal, bran, low-grade flour, with 5 per cent meat scrap and a little oyster shell and grit. This is fed five times a day in amounts so that the ducklings will clean it up rapidly. After the ducks are three weeks old a mixture of two parts corn meal, one part bran, one part middlings and 10 per cent meat scraps, with some oyster shell and finely cut green stuff makes up a satisfactory ration.

Poultry Notes

Chickens need sunlight to prevent rickets.

All diseased birds should be burned. Clean drinking water is essential.

For details or suggestions as to poultry-house construction or fixtures apply to your county agricultural agent.

If you want good egg production next winter, see that your pullets are properly fed and cared for during the summer months.

One-half pound of fine table salt added to every hundred pounds of mash will be good for your hens.

Chicks making a normal rate of growth will, at the end of 12 weeks, weigh 25 times as much as they did at hatching time.

Sodium fluoride or blueointment have proven effective when applied to the birds for lice. Painting the roosts and nests or spraying the coops with a mixture of waste crank-case oil and kerosene will "get" the mites.

Eggs being porous quickly absorb bad odors and therefore should always be stored in clean places.

The free use of kerosene or crude oil on the roost and in the cracks in your poultry house will help to exterminate mites.

If eggs are kept over three days in a place where the temperature is above 70 degrees, even if infertile, they are graded as seconds. Store them in a cool room and market them as often as possible.

New York's Old Guard Coming to Sesqui

At an imposing ceremony before their headquarters in New York City the famous Old Guard of New York under the command of Major E. Have Meyer Snyder, commandant of the organization, received the invitation from the officials of the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition, opening in Philadelphia June 1 and continuing to December 1, to celebrate 150 years of American Independence, to attend the Flag Day exercises on June 14, when all the historic military commands of the thirteen original colonies will assemble for a big military display and parade headed by General Pershing, Captain James A. B. Franciscus, of the Old Guard State Fencibles, of the Sesqui city, is presenting the invitation to Major Snyder. At Major Snyder's left stand the commanding officers of the Philadelphia organizations, while the members of the two famous commands are grouped about their leaders in their striking dress uniforms.

Senour's FLOOR PAINT

"It Penetrates"

IN the word "penetration," is a secret manufacturing process that has made Senour's Floor Paint a popular favorite for over 40 years.

If a floor paint does not penetrate or grip into the wood it will soon begin to crack, chip and peel.

Senour's Floor Paint dries over night with a high gloss enamel-like finish, but at the same time it sinks into the pores of the wood and forms a film that will withstand the hardest usage and will withstand repeated washings without dimming the lustre.

Every can of Senour's Floor Paint is guaranteed to give satisfaction if directions printed on the can are followed or money back upon receipt of empty can.

Last Sunday at the eleven o'clock service our congregation had the very pleasing opportunity of hearing Ex-Senator W. A. Frost, who is now Business Manager for the Western Recorder, on the subject, "Moral Issues of the South."

Mr. Frost is a very forcible speaker and discussed some important phases of the Anti-Saloon Work in this part of the country.

Bro. Warren delivered the third sermon on the series of ten on the subject, "Do We Believe the Bible," at the evening service last Sunday. These sermons are proving very interesting and instructive, and for your own interest, we urge you to attend these services. Special music at each service.

Sunday was another day to remember. While the sun shone so beautifully on the outside a goodly number attended all the services. The pastor preached as usual one of his splendid sermons. Rev. Norman preached at the evening hour and a splendid audience attended and heard a most helpful sermon.

The prayer meeting this week was splendid with a good attendance.

A number of our members attended the dedication of the Rice City Church and heard Bishop DuBose. Also some went to Palestine at the eleven o'clock hour on Friday and heard a splendid address by the Bishop and a very large audience will hear him tonight at the church.

The fourth and last quarterly conference for this year will be held at the church tonight with Rev. Norman conducting it. The Bishop will also be in attendance.

The Yr-Pe-Mi-So met at the home of Martha Craig Rucker Monday afternoon with a large attendance, and a splendid program. The business session was conducted by the president Miss Granberry. After the lesson and during the social hour the hostess served delicious refreshments.

The East Fulton Circle met at the home of Mrs. Lynn Taylor Monday at 2:30 with Mrs. J. A. Farabough and Mrs. Chas. Barrow as assistant hostesses. A good, but short business session opened the meeting. The leader in charge had prepared a splendid program on the "Negro Area." Leaflets were given by members. The hostesses served delicious refreshments to a very large attendance of members and several visitors.

Church News

Arrangements have been made for the fall visit of Bishop Woodcock at Trinity Mission Parish on Sunday, November 21 and 22 as follows:

Trinity Church, Fulton, 11:00 a. m. Matins, confirmation and sermon by the Bishop. Christ church, Columbus, 7:30 p. m. Evening prayer, confirmation and sermon. Clinton, Kentucky, Monday afternoon, returning to Louisville either that night or the following morning.

The Woman's Guild of Trinity Church met Monday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. J. J. Shepherd, on Green street.

Dr. Boyd made a parochial visit to Mayfield on Friday of last week.

Mrs. Lydia Sanders is still quite ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Binford.

In making his announcements at both services last Sunday, Dr. Boyd urged on his hearers the duty of casting their ballot on election day.

Trinity church laid in a goodly supply of coal last week in anticipation of the streets being torn up for the sewers. No danger of being cold.

The early Sunday morning communion service will probably be discontinued after this month, unless those interested desire otherwise.

The altar at Trinity last Sunday was decorated with roses from the garden of the rectory, which in all probability will be the last time for this year, unless there should be an unusual warm fall.

Mrs. R. C. Barber entertained her Sunday School class and some of the neighborhood little folks, last Friday night with a Halloween party. There was a house full of happy children from seven to nine.
