SOIL CONSERVATION NOTES

By Herbert Anderson

L. V. Martin, of Martin Tractor and Implement Company, demonstrated a new utility cutter, last week, on his farm near Briensburg.

It is no longer necessary to burn broomsedge, briars, or brush.
This machine cuts and shreds them into small pieces so they can then be disced or plowed into the soil. This improves the soil and slows down soil loss.

Woodrow Barrett, Wallace Gregory, Early Dunn, Wes Locker, and Herbert Anderson, SCS, watched the machine cut and shred bushes up to four inches in diameter.

Martin also used a bulldozer last week to clear out old fence rows and clear about five acres of land which had been lying idle for about fifteen years. He plans to sow this land for pasture.

Farmers who became cooperators and members of the Marshall County Soil Conservation District last month were Noah Lovett and Robert Butler, Fair-dealing, Ralph Moore and Paul C. Newtos, east of Briensburg; and Reuben Griggs, south of Palma.

Soll Henson, east of Benton, plans to dig a pond this year in a spot below a natural spring. The spring which is on the adjoining farm will keep the pond full of fresh clear water all the year.

Henson has another example of the serious effect of soil erosion. A few years ago he dug a drainage ditch at a cost of between four and five hundred dollars. Now the ditch is filled with gravel washed in from the hill land in the watershed. A complete soil and water conservation program applied to the watershed would remedy this condition.

C. G. Cole, southwest of Benton, staked a stockwater and fish pond last week.

Cole says, "I am getting most of my land sown in pasture and I need plenty of water in the fields where it will be handy for the cattle to drink.

Victor Seaford, west of Hardin, has surveyed and staked a large pond. He plans to dig his own core trench with farm equipment. Then he will lay a pipe across the trench and the place where the levee will be built with a bulldozer.
This will save him some money.

With a pipe through the levee and a concrete water tank below the pond, the stock can be fenced out of the pond.
This will give cleaner water and make a better fish pond.

OBSERVATIONS

A Few Days Ago While

"meandering around our sportsman's paradise I ran into a Mr. Bow, sports writer on the Evansville Courier and a man who has already written one or two feature articles on Kentucky Lake for one or two national sports magazines. Mr. Bow was accompanied by the Telegraph editor of the Evansville paper.

Both of them said they were "sold on Kentucky Lake and would do whatever they could to sell others."

The Sports Writer

thought that there was not enough publicity about the Lake during the fall and winter months; that instead of so much fishing news during spring and summer the fall and winter months should be promoted for bass fishing and duck hunting. He assured me that he would do all he could to promote this area and promised to send me some names of other sportsmen that would be interested in visiting this section of the state.

Received A Note This week from an unsigned writer asking "Who in the h..l is responsible for the condition of highway 58 through Briensburg." Well, I cannot say exactly, but whoever is responsible—something ought to be done about this stretch of road—not only through Briensburg but also to where 58 reaches Big Bear Creek. It is a pity that this six or seven mile stretch of highway is allowed to get as rough as it has been and that the three mile section from 68 to Big Bear creek has not been surfaced with blacktop long time ago.

The Writer Of The

unsigned letter pointed out that highway 58 passed by three fine churches at Briensburg and one at Mt.
Carmel, but also passed a fine school at Briensburg, a lodge, and several business places and a lot of nice homes along the route. Something ought to be done about this road. During the past few days part of it has been patched up and some of the bigger chug holes stopped up, but this didn't do much good and no good whatever to the gravel part of it.

It Is True That The gravel section of 58 from the intersection of 68 to Big Bear camp is graded every now and then, but this highly traveled road is rough and dusty most of the time. No doubt the state has already spent enough on grading and repairs to have blacktopped it months ago. Somebody ought to get Governor Wetherby on one of his trips down this way and take him over 58 from 641 to Big Bear camp and try to "jar" him into having something done to keep this road in good condition.

Since The Two State parks have been getting a lot of attention it appears that this part of a state highway has been forgotten and it is one of the most highly travelled state roads in the county and by people from all over the USA. If you don't think there is a lot of traffic on this route even though it does run into a "dead end" at the Lake, just try it out some weekend and see—IF you can stand a lot of bumps, jars and dust.

$10 REWARD OFFERED BY LIONS

The Lions club is offering a $10 reward this week for the apprehension of the person who wantonly destroyed a tennis net at the city park by driving an automobile through the tennis courts.

The Lions are pretty sore about this and so should all of the other clubs and organizations who have spent hard earned money to prepare this playground for the kids.

According to Joe Pete Ely, those who recklessly and maliciously destroy the property at the city park will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law if caught.

We agree with Lion Ely and it is, we believe, the public's duty to turn in anyone caught destroying the equipment at the City Park.

B. W. C. of First Baptist Entertains W. M. S.

The Business Woman's Circle of the First Baptist Church gave a banquet to the W. M. S. of the Church, on Thursday evening May 8th, in recognition of the fellowship plan of "adopted daughter and mother" get-together. As the "mothers" arrived they were ushered into a Sunday School room to await the dining hour, at which time the "daughters" escorted their "mothers" into the dining room where a sumptuous feast was spread buffet style.

After the blessing, a toast, songs, readings, "wills", etc., were given; then the B. W. C. left the room and returned donned in their "mothers" borrowed clothes (unknown to the "mothers") and gave an impersonation of the W. M. S. members in "business session". The business session was taken up almost entirely with the deficit in the treasury and much merriment was occasioned as to this and how it should be made up.

At the close of the program, gifts were presented to each member of the W. M. S. by their "daughters", the B. W. C., who are experts in lifting the morale of their seniors by wholesome entertainment.

Those of the B. W. C. present were: Mesdames Jim White, Chester Ray Powell, Donald Phillips, Dan Clayton, James R. Cope, Rudy Cunningham, Jimmie Lester, Euclid Galloway, Dean Gammel, Malcom Heath, Jack Jennings, Jimmie Marsh, Edwin Jones, Allen McClain, Kenneth Peak, Wayne Powell, Sonny Rose, Norma Sue Wyatt, Wayne Morgan, Luke Ross, and a visitor, Mrs. Stanley Williams.

Those present of W. M. S. were Mesdames E. D. Davis, J. R. Brandon, Joe Blandon, Janie Downing, L. H. Draffen, Bethel Dycus, Della Ely, Will Green, Lizzie Hall, Jamie Morgan, Walker Myers, Annie Nelson, Fannie Peters, Chester Powell, Rollie Provine, Bert Stringer, Luther Thompson, Nola Thompson and Gorda Hastings.
