Visualize Fulton Ten Years Hence

It Takes Vision, Courage and Energy, Plus the Confidence of the People To Build a City.

Can you visualize Fulton as it will be ten years hence, with the vast open territory and wooded sections surrounding us covered with homes linked with paved streets, brilliantly lighted; with a network of railroad tracks and shops occupying the northern section, and various industrial plants dotted here and there; handsome church edifices, school buildings, and beautiful homes to house our civic organizations.

It takes vision, courage and energy, plus the confidence of the people to build a city. Those men of early days who saw vision here of a great city should have tribute paid to them. Let us pause here for a moment to say that Fulton has never had a mayor who betrayed his trust, not one who defaulted, not one who failed to leave behind him an honorable record, and we doubt if we ever will.

That some of recent years have accomplished more than years past is because there was more to do, and more to do it with. Then, there were men of vision who saw great benefits to be derived through the Building and Loan Association. Faithful, public-spirited citizens of Fulton, always they worked for you and for me. They fought for the future; they had faith. They did not accomplish things by shirking their duty and letting the other fellow do it.

All of the good things we have come to Fulton through cooperation and the spirit of upbuilding of our people. Thus, Fulton today is a city of home lovers. We visualize Fulton of the future. We see a city here extending out in every direction, all laid out on plans that conform to one general idea of beauty and with one thought and one purpose, to provide all citizens with every modern comfort. We ride over the city and see everywhere the evidence of growth, how Fulton is expanding in every direction, how it is becoming, day by day, more beautiful and inviting to the home seeker. We visualize our great highways lined with tourists admiring Fulton's welcome sign, brilliantly illuminated with hundreds of incandescent lights, beckoning the stranger to enter. We see more and better buildings. We visualize a great civic center with beautiful buildings housing the activities of the Chamber of Commerce. We see a public school system in Fulton county that is the pride of all Kentucky, with the most modern and comfortable buildings and we see the children flocking to them, being taught in a few years, things that it took you and me a lifetime to learn—no hate, no malice. And then, our Carr Institute, a Harvard of the South, as it is now in the greatness of its teaching staff and its educational requirements, and splendid buildings. We see our labor happily employed, with no head of any industry trying to make his fellow work for less than a living wage, no matter whether by that time, it takes $5 or $15 a day to obtain the ordinary comforts and necessities of life. We see the farmers more closely united under the directorship of a county agent, receiving fair prices for their products. We wonder why it is, that some who aspire to prominence in this splendid city, do not catch the vision of the future. We wonder why they are immune to the spirit of growth, prosperity, and friendliness that seems infectious in Fulton?

By cooperation and pulling together we can build here the great city we visualize. Cities are not built single handed. They are built by cooperation of all the people. There is a spirit—a soul in cities. The spirit of Fulton is progress and growth. No city can become great unless its people cooperate and lend their united efforts to its advancement. Let's all pull together for a bigger and better Fulton.

FRANKLIN-BROWNING

A wedding of interest in Fulton society circles was announced this week on the arrival in the city of Mr. T. M. Franklin with his bride. On Thanksgiving Day, in Chattanooga, Tennessee, Mr. Franklin was united in marriage to Mrs. Iva Parker Browning, prominent society matron of the Tennessee city. Mr. and Mrs. Franklin are now at home to their friends 514 Third street, where they are being showered with congratulations.

Chamber of Commerce

IMPORTANT MEETING FOR TUESDAY NIGHT, DEC. 14

Permanent Secretary to Be Selected and Other Matters of Interest to the Town to Be Discussed

Every member of the Chamber of Commerce and every loyal citizen of Fulton should attend the meeting Tuesday night, December 14.

It is decidedly one of the most important meetings of the year, and the results should be the most vital for the best interest of our city.

We are all anxious that our city grow and prosper and the time is now ripe for us to select a secretary of the Chamber of Commerce who can go after things with vim and push sufficient to wake up the natives.

The committee has the names of several in prospect, but they need your assistance in the selection and it is absolutely your duty as a loyal member and citizen of the community to lend your assistance at this crucial period.

Other matters, too, will come up for discussion and a word from you, Mr. Good Citizen, may mean much at this meeting.

Judge J. E. Boltz, of Campbell county, Kentucky, will give a talk on "Concrete for Street Pavement and Highways" at the regular meeting of the local Chamber of Commerce, Tuesday, December 14. Judge Boltz is the original Good Street and Road Booster of Kentucky. Don't fail to hear him.

Mr. E. C. Hardesty, Manager of the Light Company, went to Louisville Sunday night, returning Monday night. Since the K. U. took over the Clinton plant on the first of the month, Mr. Hardesty has been a busy man.

The President's Message

Fulton Building & Loan Association

Thirteen Years Old--One of the Strongest and Best Managed Associations In the State.
Capital Stock $100,000.00

At the Annual Stockholder's Meeting Tuesday Night
All the Old Officers Were Re-elected for 1927.
T. M. Franklin, President; J. E. Fall, Sec'y.

A large number of stockholders of the Fulton Building & Loan Association met at the Chamber of Commerce rooms on Main street, Tuesday night, December 7, to elect directors and officers for the ensuing year.

President T. M. Franklin opened the meeting with an enthusiastic talk.

After the reading and adoption of minutes of previous meeting, Secretary J. E. Fall read the financial statement, showing the phenomenal growth and the excellent condition of the Association.

Assets October 30, 1926, $483,510.10.

Stock matured in past 12 months, $73,400.00.

Real Estate loans made past 12 months, $125,500.00.

Real Estate loans matured and paid past 12 months, $60,650.00.

Number of real estate loans made past 12 months, 77.

Stock sold in last six months, $83,100.00.

An interesting feature of Tuesday night's meeting was the splendid talks made by Messrs. Gus Bard, Leslie Weeks, W. H. Cox, Eli Bynum, R. S. Williams, I. H. Read, H. T. Smith, A. M. Nugent, Smith Atkins, Vodie Hardin, Joe Davis and others.

In the election of directors, the stockholders displayed the utmost confidence in the conduct and management of the Association by unanimously re-electing all of the old officials to serve for the ensuing year, as follows:

Directors--Arch Huddleston, P. P. Pickering, J. D. Davis, I. H. Read, W. P. Murrell, J. E. Fall, A. M. Nugent, T. M. Franklin, and Joe Browder.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned. The directors called a meeting immediately and re-elected all of the old officers as follows:

T. M. Franklin, president.
I. H. Read, vice-president.
J. E. Fall, secretary.

Promoting thrift and assisting in building homes is the keynote of this gigantic institution.

A good home has many appeals. It gives you pride of ownership. It induces you to save money. It gives expression to your desire to design and build. It affords pleasant memories for the children. It brings comfort to your life. It creates an estate for old age or a "rainy day." It makes you a better citizen.

Any of these appeals is sufficient reason why you should become a home owner. To be assured of a home that you will enjoy, build it through the Fulton Building & Loan Association and stop handing out your good money for scraps of paper, better known as rent receipts.

Perhaps you own a house and a little remodeling would convert it into a real home, but you haven't the cash to remodel it with, just step into the office of Fulton Building & Loan Association on Main street, and J. E. Fall, secretary, or Smith Atkins, his valuable assistant, will explain matters in detail how easy they can assist you in making improvements or building a "love nest," a real home for your own, where direct results of environment breed contentment and happiness.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Creedle announce the birth of a son, George Robert, born at their home in St. Louis on December 4. Mr. Creedle formerly lived in Fulton and has many friends and relatives here who will be interested in this announcement.

Brieflets

The city fire company was called to Hutcherson's mill in South Fulton Monday afternoon, where a roaring fire in the oil house of the plant threatened the destruction of the entire mill and hundreds of stacks of quarter-sawn oak lumber. Chief Roberts and his force of firemen were equal to the task, and in a short time the flames were extinguished, saving the surrounding property.

After an illness of short duration, J. W. Trease, 21 years of age, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Trease, passed away at the family home near Cayce, Ky., Saturday afternoon at 6 o'clock. Funeral services were held Sunday morning at Rush Creek church, interment following in Fairview cemetery in Fulton. The deceased was highly esteemed by all who knew him in his community.

The Sugar Creek Creamery Company will open a concentration station on Lake Street either this week or next. Better times for the farmer.

The friends of little Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Nugent, will be glad to learn that she withstood a serious operation at the Baptist Memorial Hospital in Memphis and is reported getting along nicely.

The electrical sign in front of Clarence Saunders' Sole Owner store is quite an addition to Church street. It is one of the most attractive electrical signs in the city.

The timely arrival of the fire company Sunday night at the First Christian church saved the building from destruction. The roof had caught fire and was getting under headway when discovered. Chief Roberts lost no time in extinguishing the blaze and saving the property with only an estimated damage around one hundred dollars.

The beautiful fruit cakes displayed in the Culver Bakery Company's show window and the handsome boxes of choice candies, reflect the true spirit of Christmas goodness in delicious sweets.

Mr. B. E. (Cunny) Cunningham, line foreman of the Kentucky Utilities Company, was obliged to undergo an operation on his left eye last week. He has about recovered, and able to be on the street the first part of the week.

HON. G. C. SHERROD DELIVERS BEAUTIFUL ORATION

Delights Large Audience at Elks Memorial Services Sunday

The impressive ceremony of the annual Lodge of Sorrow of Fulton Lodge No. 1142, B. P. O. Elks, held at the Orpheum Theater, Sunday afternoon, was largely attended by members of the lodge and their friends to pay respect to the memory of Chas. E. Smith, who passed away since the service was held last year and to all Elks of the Fulton order who have died since the founding of the order. Exalted Ruler R. E. Pickering was master of ceremonies. Hon. Heber Finch introduced the speaker, Hon. G. C. Sherrod, attorney general of the 13th District, Tennessee. Mr. Sherrod's oration was a masterpiece, and the local lodge feels highly honored over his visit and beautiful oration, one of the best ever heard here.

The beautiful musical program under the direction of Mrs. Chas. Brann, with Mrs. Clarence Maddox, accompanist, was a pleasing feature, each number was very delightfully given, the voices blending sweetly.

The electrical effects and stage decorations by Louie Roberts, were beautiful.

CHRISTMAS SAVINGS CHECKS MAKE MANY HAPPY

Right now there is true Christmas cheer ringing in the heart of hundreds of Fulton folk who were members of the 1926 Christmas Savings Club of The Farmers Bank. Each one received a check last Monday covering his savings with interest. Imagine what a delightful feeling it is to receive a substantial check right now—at a time it can be used to such a great advantage. Hundreds are now prepared to meet the financial requirements of the holiday season. If you are not among those fortunate ones, start now to prepare for next Christmas. It is the easy way to save money.

The 1927 Christmas Saving Club is now open at the Farmers Bank. All members of the 1926 club are invited to join. Also all others in this territory who have not taken advantage of this fine plan of savings are urged to enroll. A small sum each week does the work—an easy way to put aside money so it will not be missed. The Farmers Bank has a club suited for everybody, for every purse. All can join—the sooner the better. Some have already joined who were in the 1926 club, increasing their amounts for 1927.

Bro. Duncan is now pastor of Ruthville Baptist church. He has many friends in this community who welcome his return to this work.

The Ladies' Club met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Robbie Sawyers. Quite a representative membership was in attendance. Two new members, Mrs. Lowe and Mrs. Mamma Lee were added to the roll and Mrs. Whitnel Felts, who has lately returned from Detroit, was welcomed back into the fold. In the absence of Mrs. Finch, the vice-president, Mrs. Percy Brundage, presided over the meeting.

The buying of a hospital bed for the use of the community was discussed.

Owing to the difficulty of properly caring for this bed it was decided not to buy.

Mrs. Barrax, Mrs. Lowe and Mrs. Brundage suggested several programs for our winter work. It was left to the committee to select the program for the next meeting, which will be at the home of Mrs. Davis Thomas the first Thursday of the new year.

The P. T. A. met Friday night and the following program was presented:

Music by orchestra.
Reading—Ruby Taylor.
Vocal Duet—Relma Reed, Thelma Golden.

How to Get More People Interested in the P. T. A.—Prof. Lowe.

A new program committee was appointed: Miss Nix, Miss Etheridge and Mrs. Lowe.

Program for next meeting will be announced later. Arrangements were perfected to buy three dozen chairs for the auditorium, which will aid materially in comfortably seating our friends who attend first Sunday singing and other entertainments.

Another movie will be put on under the auspices of the P. T. A., and a committee appointed to select this show. It's sure to be good, so keep on the look out for the announcement.

EARLY HOLIDAY SHOPPING IS IN FULL SWING

Patrons and Merchants Benefit by Movement

Christmas shopping was in full swing in Fulton Saturday. A check-up of stores indicates that the early Christmas shopping movement, which is now sweeping the country, has hit this city with a bang.

This corresponds with reports received from the larger cities throughout the country. It indicates that the movement, launched by club women to place their holiday gift-buying on a common-sense basis and eliminate much of the eleventh hour hysteria, has gained a firm foothold.

Action of Fulton merchants, in meeting this new popular demand with an earlier display of their full Christmas merchandise stocks undoubtedly has accelerated a movement in this city. Those who visited the stores Saturday found complete stocks from which to make their selection. The selling was under the guidance of regular store employees who had plenty of time to give their customers adequate attention.

Merchants Prepared

"The great trouble with the shop early campaigns in previous years was the fact that the stores were not prepared to meet the public's early-season demand," one merchant explained. "The stores got in a habit of waiting until the big Christmas rush started. Surveys by our state and national retail associations last year proved to us that thousands of people liked the idea of making their gift purchases in November or early in December, providing they could make their selections from the complete holiday stocks. This year Fulton merchants changed their usual plans and made this merchandise available several days in advance. The result has been very gratifying to all concerned."

Those employed in the stores are particularly gratified by the new twist in the Christmas shopping season. Many of the older employees remember vividly Christmas shopping seasons of former years which were periods of horror to everyone connected with the store. Where the total volume of gift-buying was crowded into the few days immediately preceding the holiday, it meant long hours behind the counter; of dealing with harassed customers whose nerves likewise were frazzled. The old system was unsatisfactory to the store owners as it meant that many of their customers were dissatisfied with the treatment they received.

Fulton merchants, who this year are watching with satisfaction the demand on the part of the people for an early opportunity to make their Christmas selections, plan, next year, to open their Christmas stocks even earlier. One merchant, who some years ago spent considerable effort in an endeavor to induce his patrons to shop early in the Christmas season, and who then failed dismally in the attempt, said yesterday:

"I have contended right along that no one could force the public into early Christmas shopping. I tried it for years and they kept on waiting until the last minute, filling my store to the suffocation point in the week just before Christmas. Now it seems, probably because the club women of the country have been studying the matter from the viewpoint of household economics, they themselves have arrived at the conclusion that early Christmas shopping is the smart and intelligent thing to do."

CHILD CHRISTENED WITH WATER FROM RIVER JORDAN

(Jackson, Tenn., Sun)

The six-weeks-old daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Blackard of Knoxville was christened yesterday morning at the First Methodist church by her grandfather, Rev. J. W. Blackard, with water from the Jordan river, brought to this country by the child's father from the Holy Land recently. The baptismal service was quite interesting as the child represents the fourth generation of the Blackard family in the First Methodist church of this city. Dr. J. W. Blackard's father was a steward of the church. Dr. Blackard was ordained and licensed to preach from the church and is now presiding elder of the church. Dr. W. F. Blackard was baptized in the church and attended the church and Sunday school when a boy, and now his young daughter has been baptized into the church.

Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Blackard are well known in Jackson, for Rev. Blackard was former pastor of the Campbell Street Methodist church. He is now pastor of one of the larger Methodist churches at Knoxville. He is prominent in National Guard circles, for many years having been regimental chaplain with the rank of captain and was recently promoted to the rank of major and is now a division chaplain for the Thirtieth division.

OUR DOROTHY

One evening after twilight,
God kissed the world with a smile,
He left in our arms His blessing
In the form of a little child.
For a thousand days we kept her;
If we could live for a thousand years,
We'd thank the Lord for His blessing,
Tho' we whisper our thanks in tears.
"A little child shall lead them."
For The Way they surely know,
She is now an angel in Heaven,
Where she is, we long to go.
She has changed her little pink dress,
For a robe of glorious light,
Where there's known no lonely evenings,
Or heartaches in the night.
"My Auntie," "Yes, my Dorothy,"
How I miss your glad embrace,
I long for the touch of your chubby hands,
And your kisses on my face.
I keep your love ways in memory,
As I wait for the After-awhile
When we meet in the Sweet-Forever,
You will greet me again with your smile.

In memory of little Dorothy Henry by her Auntie, Lora Horton.

FUTURE OF DARK POOL RESTS WITH BANKERS

Hopkinsville, Ky., Dec. 7.—While voting to continue the Dark Tobacco Growers' Co-operative association and to keep the books open for signing up new members until December 31, the directors of the association in meeting here today, also took steps to arrange finances for handling the 1926 crop.

Upon the financial question, depends whether or not the 1926 crop can be marketed by the association. A committee was appointed to approach bankers in the dark fired district with the pool's problem of financing the sales of the 1926 crop, and upon the attitude of the bankers of the district and the number of additional signatures to marketing agreements, depends the ultimate action of the directors in marketing the 1926 crop. The committee to approach bankers will begin work tomorrow and is under instructions to report to the directors at the earliest possible date, progress made and the attitude of the bankers.

Might Get 50 Per Cent

The consensus here today seemed to be that if the association receives the 1296 crop, that it could expect reasonable deliveries throughout the district and from 80 to 90 per cent of the crop in the eastern dark fired district. This, it was pointed out, would approximate about fifty per cent of the tobacco grown in the "black patch."

The matter of a new contract extending over a period of from five to fifteen years was the proposition being referred to the executive committee of the board with full authority to prepare a new marketing agreement to take effect at the close of the present contract which expires with this year. The committee after formulating the new agreement will submit it to counsel and will then bring it before the directors at their next meeting for action.

FORMER FULTON PASTOR'S TENDERED CALL TO LOS ANGELES CHURCH

Rev. M.E. Dodd, Now Pastor of First Baptist Church, at Shreveport, La.

Friends of the Rev. M. E. Dodd in Fulton were pleased to learn that he had been tendered a call to the pastorate of the Temple Baptist church, of Los Angeles, Cal. This is one of the largest and wealthiest churches in the southwest with a membership of over 3,000 and a pastor's salary of $12,000 a year. A call to this church is a signal honor.

Since leaving the pastorate of the First Baptist church of Fulton some twenty years ago, Rev. Dodd has continued to climb higher and higher in the Master's vineyard and for some years has been pastor of the First Baptist church at Shreveport, La., with a membership of several thousand and one of the wealthiest in the South. Since his pastorate there many large and influential churches have extended him calls. We doubt very much if the Los Angeles church call will be considered other than an honor.

Rev. Dodd's work in Shreveport has been gloriously blessed and the people there are closely attached to him and his family.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MRS. BILLY HARDY HELD TUESDAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Billie Hardy were held at Liberty church near Fulton, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock conducted by the Rev. Bryan, pastor of Bethlehem church, of which the deceased was a member. Interment followed in Liberty church cemetery.

Mrs. Hardy passed away Monday afternoon at her home near Jordan. She ran her journey of life in fifty-five years. It is a path marked with deeds of kindness and cheer. She was a consistent member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church. Truth was the inspiration of her life and by kindness she exemplified its great worth. Upon the white canvas of her life she drew no uncertain lines which needed to be erased. And with the hand a master she delicately spread the colors of life and made them blend with promise. She lived a consecrated Christian life and died a triumphant and happy death. While she has gone from the scenes, the conflicts, the sorrows, and pleasures of life, she will still live in the hearts of those who knew her best. She was a kind mother and devoted wife. Besides her husband she is survived by four daughters, three sons, two sisters and two brothers.

The Fulton Undertaking Co., had charge of funeral arrangements.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Clanton Moss, of the Ruthville neighborhood, extend their sympathy in the loss of their little nine-months-old daughter, Helen Marguerite, who died Sunday morning of pneumonia. Funeral services were held Monday at New Hope church, conducted by Rev. W. A. Lamkins. Interment following in the church cemetery.

East Fulton residents are now "getting theirs" and the streets are as badly torn up in that section of town as were those of West Fulton, earlier in the fall. Better look well ahead before starting up a street. You may have to back up.

Taxi Goes Into Ditch

A yellow taxicab driven by Pete Grissom went into a ditch about nine feet deep Wednesday morning, turning over and painfully injuring the driver, but not seriously. Miss Weems who was a passenger in the car escaped uninjured. The occupants made their exit from the overturned machine after punching a hole through the rear end large enough to crawl through. The wrecker was called and brought the wrecked car to town. The accident happened on State Line near the city.

Senour's FLOOR PAINT

"It Penetrates"

IN the word "penetration," is a secret manufacturing process that has made Senour's Floor Paint a popular favorite for over 40 years.

If a floor paint does not penetrate or grip into the wood it will soon begin to crack, chip and peel.

Senour's Floor Paint dries overnight with a high gloss enamel-like finish, but at the same time it sinks into the pores of the wood and forms a film that will withstand the hardest usage and will withstand repeated washings without dimming the luster.

Every can of Senour's Floor Paint is guaranteed to give satisfaction if directions printed on the can are followed or money back upon receipt of empty can.

JOY VS. SORROW

Christmas is a joyful event on the year's calendar. It is not time for sadness or disappointment, but it may be if you do not attend to that all important matter of Christmas shopping at once. The day can be made much more pleasant by buying deliberately.

Now stocks of Christmas merchandise are complete and selections are large. But they will not remain so very long. More shoppers every year are profiting from the mistakes of years gone by and are buying early this year. They know the folly of waiting until the choicest gifts have been taken by wise shoppers.

Don't postpone another day the preparation of your gift list. Write down the names of everyone you wish to remember at Christmas and jot down what you think they would like—or what you want to give. Then visit the stores—where you will find gift merchandise in large array.

Make This Christmas a Joyful One.

HUNTING ACCIDENTS

Every hunting season is accompanied by its appalling list of casualties and fatalities.

They do not seem alarming to the individual until a distressing accident takes place in the locality in which he lives.

But hunting accidents continue to grow. Careless hunters still drag guns with muzzle foremost over the fence or through the brush, and carry loaded guns in improper positions.

A little "horse sense" is all that is required. Precaution in the use of firearms should be the first essential of every hunter, because he endangers not alone his own life but those of his companions by the careless use of firearms.

Hunting accidents are not always fatal. Lacerated wounds and scratches call for prompt and competent attention. Hunters will do well to think of the misfortune which may befall them, or their fellow hunters, before starting on a hunt, all the while remembering that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

FARMER'S WOES

Congress soon meets and foremost among the questions pressing for attention is so-called relief for agriculture. One school of thinking still holds to the view that agriculture will never be helped by legislation. Another school of thought centers about the idea that farming can not lift itself by its own bootstraps, but must have federal aid.

The result has been a babble of suggestions and so many cooks have been stirring the broth that the kettle may be upset, at any moment. The prospect for any sort of farm legislation is exceedingly remote. This brings cheers from one crowd of rooters and dark looks from the other crowd.

This confusion produces indecision rather than action. One substantial gain has been made, however, in that people who live in brick houses on paved streets, far from the furrows and cattle barns, are being educated on the woes of the farmers.

The city dweller has always known bread came from wheat, but he knew nothing about wheat, wore wool clothing and had only a dim recollection of what sheep looked like, and ate choice steaks with little or no knowledge of the cattle they came from.

Recently the Academy of Political Science held a farm conference and experts presented their view of the question. Some of the large industrialists of the country have been talking of a high grade commission to make a study of farm conditions with a view of devising a way to close the gulf between the farm and industry.

At least, it may be said that the industrial east is not indifferent to the troubles of the farmer, and some good for all concerned is very likely to come out of the agitation for the improvement of agriculture.

A DISTRESSING DISASTER

Six southern states have been visited by a series of cyclones that took more than eighty lives, injured scores of people and caused a property loss of one and a half million dollars.

Hundreds who were fortunate enough to escape with their lives awoke to find themselves penniless, the savings of a lifetime wiped out in a few seconds.

There is something inexorable about a cyclone that makes it more distressing than any catastrophe befalling a people. It comes without warning; there is no chance to escape its unrelenting fury.

Following the devastation of cyclonic winds, the mercy appeal for help is forthcoming, and the people of America are never slow to answer the cry of the unfortunate.

The response in this instance should be quick and decisive. The Red Cross was early on the scene and in its practical way cared for the injured and homeless.

Through the Red Cross, hundreds of thousands of Americans can feel that they are being well represented in every disaster of moment. Reading of the notable achievements of the Red Cross in times of distress should make every person enrolling in the recent roll call for memberships feel proud that they did not dodge their duty.

Lesson for December 12

THE BOY SAMUEL

LESSON TEXT—1 Sam. 3:10, 16-19.
GOLDEN TEXT—Speak, Lord, for thy servant heareth.
PRIMARY TOPIC—The Boy Samuel.
JUNIOR TOPIC—God Calls the Boy Samuel.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Boyhood of a Great Leader.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Hearing and Heeding God's Voice.

In order to grasp the story of Samuel's boyhood life, a survey should be made of 1 Samuel, ch. 1-3.

I. Samuel Given in Answer to Prayer (1 Sam. 1:19, 20).

The name Samuel means "asked of God." He was given to Hannah in answer to her prayers. In connection with her asking this gift from God, she vowed to give him to God. He was to be therefore a Nazirite all the days of his life.

II. Samuel Given to the Lord (1 Sam. 1:24-28).

For a time he was cared for by his mother in the home. The best nurse and teacher for a child is its mother. According to her vow when she asked the Lord for this child, at an early age she took him to the sanctuary and gave him over to the charge of Eli, the priest, to minister in the sanctuary.

III. Features of Israel's History in This Period (2:12-36).

1. The demoralized priesthood.
(1) They were actuated by greed (2:12-17).

It was God's will that those who ministered at the altar should live of the things of the altar, but they broke through the divine regulations touching this matter, even to securing their selfish ends by force.

(2) Gross immorality (2:22).

The courts of God's house were thus polluted. The condition of the nation was most appalling: Degradation and ruin follow rapidly when God's ministers are under the sway of lust and greed.

2. An alienated people (2:30-32).

Their sins separated them from God. God's holiness is such that those who practice sin are alienated from Him.

3. The cessation of divine revelation (3:1).

The Word of God was precious in those days. "There was no open vision." This shows that God was silent. The message from the Lord was more a memory than a present experience. The same thing is true of the individual life today. Some who once enjoyed fellowship with God no longer hear His voice speaking to them.

IV. God Called Samuel (3:2-10).

In striking contrast with the degeneracy of the nation, we have before us the beautiful life of Samuel. Dwelling within the sacred courts and ministering before the Lord with Eli is the innocent Samuel who is become the savior of his people. In Samuel we have a striking pattern of child religion. The Lord gave him in answer to Hannah's prayer. From his birth he was dedicated to the Lord. While quite young his mother took him to the sanctuary of the Lord where he served and slept. Two traits in Samuel's character stand out in this call, namely, his cheerful obedience to the Lord's call and his surrendered will. He expressed his willingness before he knew what was required. He did not inquire what was wanted and then let his obedience depend upon its suiting him. We should believe that the Lord knows what is best and be willing to yield glad obedience to His commands.

V. Samuel's First Prophetic Message (3:11-18).

Up to this time Samuel obeyed the one who was over him, but the time had now come when he must directly hear and obey the Lord. The first message entrusted to him was a most terrible one. To deliver it was a most trying task. He hesitated to tell it to Eli, but when pressed by him he manifested the true courage which was lying back of his fear. It must have been a bitter experience to Eli to see Samuel recognized and himself passed by, but he was submissive. He knew that the slight was just. He could not fail to interpret it thus in view of the appearance of the man of God to him (2:27-30). This fearful visitation upon Eli's house was due to the sins of his sons. He was held accountable for not restraining them.

VI. Samuel Established in the Prophetic Office (3:19-21).

"And Samuel grew and the Lord was with him and did let none of His words fail to the ground and all Israel from Dan even to Beersheba knew that Samuel was established to be a prophet of the Lord."

STEWARDS MEETING

The Stewards of Fulton Circuit met at the parsonage, Saturday, December 4th. Not all of the officials came but we had a goodly number present.

Mrs. Walker had made special preparation for them and all seemed to enjoy the day very much.

Sixteen of the brethren were present and six of their wives and daughters. After the dinner, which all seemed to enjoy, the pastor called a business meeting of the officials and planned for the year's work.

The Board of Stewards was organized with the following:
 S. M. Stokes, chairman; P. F.
 King, secretary; and S. J.
 Walker, treasurer. After a good social time we separated, determined to do more for the church than at any previous time.

THE ANNUAL FEAST

It seems that it has been the custom of people of Palestine community to have an annual feast or gathering once a year.
 This time they all met at Mr.
 Gus Browder's home. The people all furnish their part of the feast, and to say they had an abundance is putting it very mildly. In order to make it lively they began by measuring each one's foot. Then the table was spread with all the good things that one might think of.
 Every one seemed to have a splendid time. Bro. Walker and family were there, as nearly all of these people are his members. After supper, that we enjoyed so much, the crowd assembled in one as much as they could, and spent some time in singing. Bro. Browder and wife are good hosts. They make you have a good time. About eighty were present.—A. N. Walker.

GRID TEAM BANQUET

One of the most enjoyable events of the season was the annual banquet given Friday evening to the football team of 1926 at the Fulton High school. Members of the team and visitors exchanged talks during the evening featuring athletics. Miss White, Miss Royster and Mrs. Louis Weeks were given the honors of preparing the sumptuous feast.
 Fred Sawyer was named Captain for 1927.

ENJOYABLE MEETING

Mrs. Walter Morris delightfully entertained the Young Peoples Missionary Society at her home on West State Line Monday.

The scripture was read and commented on by Miss Ann Read. After roll call and paying of dues, Miss Margaret Allen in her gracious manner, told the story of the Happy Prince. The Bible contest was enjoyed and Miss Monnette Barber received a beautiful book as a prize. This being the end of the capsule contest, the capsule friends were made known, and many lovely gifts were received.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs.
 Bradford, served a delicious salad course to twenty members and guests.

SURPRISE SHOWER

The Barney Fakes were the recipients of a surprise shower on Saturday afternoon and evening at the home of Mrs. Fake's sister, Mrs. C. C. Parker, Central Avenue.

Friends began arriving soon afternoon, and before they stopped coming, a truck had to be engaged to haul the many gifts to the farm. These consisted of everything from home canned fruit to chickens and a sack of flour.

Many of their country friends were unable to come to town and these left their contributions at the home of Lovelace Peoples, and Barney was called on to go and get them
 Sunday morning.

The spirit of neighborliness and pleasure at the return of the Fakes family as shown by their friends and neighbors certainly makes the recipients feel that their return is appreciated by the community.
