POWELL ACQUITTED

The first trial at the seat of the county, and the only one that was charged with stealing 13 cows from Hill, has been completed. The jury was instructed that the county's action was an assault on the property of Mr. Powell. The trial commenced on Monday, May 2, 1891, and lasted until Thursday, May 5, 1891. During the trial, the jury was asked to consider the following questions:

1. Did Mr. Powell have the intention of stealing the cows?
2. Did Mr. Powell have the means to steal the cows?
3. Did Mr. Powell have the opportunity to steal the cows?

The jury found Mr. Powell not guilty on all charges. The judge instructed the jury that the county's action was an assault on the property of Mr. Powell, and that the jury should consider the following questions:

1. Did Mr. Powell have the intention of stealing the cows?
2. Did Mr. Powell have the means to steal the cows?
3. Did Mr. Powell have the opportunity to steal the cows?
