KILLED IN HOME

Horace B. Osburn Slain by Louis Futrell. - Relatives in Calloway County.

The killing of H. B. Osburn at Paducah last week by Louis Futrell has aroused considerable interest in the county. Mr. Futrell is a nephew of Wm. Futrell, who lives east of Clarks' river. The Paducah News-Democrat gives the following account of the affair:

"Defending his wife and children from the infamy and vile oaths of three drunken farmers at his home, 314 Kentucky avenue, Thursday evening, Horace B. Osburn, a well-known and valued street car motorman for the Paducah Traction company, was shot and killed almost before the eyes of his family shortly after 7 o'clock by one of the trio, Louis Futrell, a young farmer of Model, Tenn. Two shots were fired, one grazing the chin and the other entering the chest near the left nipple, under the arm, and passing into the heart. Osburn fell with a groan and died almost instantly.

The three farmers made their way out of the front door and walked to Second street, turning south. Patrolmen Brennen and Franklin were sent after the men and placed them under arrest at Second and Clark streets. Chief of Police James Collins went with them and the men were brought to the city hall, making no resistance. A big crowd had gathered and flocked to police headquarters at the heels of the officers. The patrol wagon was brought out and after their names had been entered and their clothes searched, they were carried to the county jail, Sixth and Clark streets, and locked up. They made no statement of the killing at the police station.

Louis Futrell, 21 years old, tall and clean-cut, with his father, J. S. Futrell, aged about 60, and T. D. Petty, came to Paducah Thursday from their home at Model, Tenn. They engaged rooms at the boarding house of Horace Osburn on Kentucky avenue, a few doors from the city hall. They had been drinking and while at supper at the house caused the family and boarders some annoyance. After supper they retired to their room upstairs. Loud talking was heard and later their conduct became unbearable to Mr. Osburn and family and he went to their room to stop it. He told them that he would not stand such conduct and asked them to behave. They continued cursing and were drinking heavily from whisky bottles in their room. He ordered them from his house and followed them to the foot of the stairs.

When the front door was reached they hesitated and refused to leave. Osburn commanded again and started for the door, when Louis Futrell pulled a 32-caliber Smith & Wesson revolver and fired. Osburn fell lifeless. W. I. Stanley, an aged man, who has been boarding at the home for two years, was in the hall at the time, standing directly behind Osburn. Mrs. Osburn, who was in the kitchen at the time, and her children rushed into the hall and were overcome with grief. Mrs. Osburn became hysterical and was carried to her room. The shots had attracted a large crowd and the piteous cries of the children added to the pathos of the situation.

The two Futrells and Petty had brought tobacco to Paducah Thursday and their money, amounting to over $100 was held by the police. They were in a drunken condition and made no explanation. The revolver held three loads and two empty shells. In the meantime physicians examined the body of Osburn.

HELD WITHOUT BOND.

Paducah, Ky., March 2.—The seal on the lips of Louis Futrell, charged with the murder of Motorman Horace B. Osburn Thursday night, his father, J. S. Futrell and T. D. Petty, all of Model, Tenn., was unbroken at their examining trial in police court Monday morning. Witnesses for the prosecution were introduced and their evidence was about the same as that given at the inquest held Saturday over the body of Osburn.

The court room was packed to its capacity when Judge D. A. Cross opened court. Young Futrell and his father and Petty were led in and displayed no emotion. They were represented by Attorneys Hendrick & Corbett, Hazelp and Judge Sam Crossland, of Mayfield.

The prosecuting attorneys were County Judge R. T. Lightfoot and County Attorney Alben W. Barkley. The two Futrells and Petty were not permitted to testify and after the witnesses for the prosecution were heard Judge Cross held Louis Futrell over to the grand jury of the April term of circuit court without bail. J. S. Futrell and Petty were held over to the same term under a bail of $5,000 each. They failed to make bond yesterday and were taken back to the county jail.

Young Futrell was taken to Eddyville Monday afternoon by County Jailor James Eaker for safekeeping. It was rumored that mob spirit existed and to prevent any demonstration it was deemed best to take Futrell from the city.

Witnesses in court testified that the report of the pistol that sent the fatal bullet wound was muffled. Osburn's coat and vest he wore at the time were exhibited and Dr. Pendley, who attended Osburn, declared both were powder burned at the entrance of the bullet.

It is said that when the case comes up in circuit court in April the defense will introduce some new witnesses and produce an eye-witness to the tragedy which will throw off the defense. The statement: "He had no business to strike me," said to have been made by J. S. Futrell at the arrest, it is said will be borne out in the evidence of the defense to show that Osburn struck Futrell.

W. I. Stanley, an eye-witness to the shooting, testified that Osburn did not strike Futrell and says that the killing was without provocation whatever.

Habeas corpus proceedings have been instituted in behalf of Louis Futrell. His father and Petty will probably make bond, as they are said to be wealthy.

As Advertised.

I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and found it to be all claimed for it in the advertisements. Three of the family have used it with good results in summer complaint.—H. E. Howe, publisher of the Press, Highland, Wis. For sale by Dale & Stubblefield.

Nias Bogard, of the northeast section of the county, had a log rolling at his home last week which was attended by fully 125 persons. Logs were rolled from eight acres of land. Dinner was served for the entire crowd and a jolly time had by those attending. At night the young folks gave a party which was largely attended and pronounced a most enjoyable affair.

Nothing is more eagerly sought after in the county than each week's issued of the Ledger. Everybody is watching the big popular lady piano contest with intense interest. This week finds the contestants occupying relatively the same positions as last week. However, it is known to a number of the candidates that many votes are being held in reserve and shifting of the positions is not at all likely in the near future.

A few weeks of bright, warm weather will see the vote of the participants advance with leaps and bounds. Hundreds of new names are being added to the Ledger's list, in fact more than 100 added the past week.

We would urge each contestant to take advantage of every opportunity to see your friends and induce them to give you a subscription or renewal and do not fail to report these each Saturday evening.

BACKUSBURG

"Level Head" Writes Again, Defending Himself Against Untruthful Charges.

Short, but nevertheless sweet was the letter we had presented through the Times to us last week from "Fair Play." He came as usual with his accusations. He got to the point last week he has been wanting to get to every since I wrote my first letter. He accused me of several things week before last; wanted to accuse me of being a night rider or a night rider sympathizer then, but his heart failed or it was the old song he had sang so much. But he rallied last week and finally got it out. Yes he said last week he would bet two nickles, one that I was a night rider sympathizer, the other that I made a statement in my last letter that was not true. I will say right here my parents told me, when I was a child, it was wrong to bet, so I won't bet, but will say I did not make any false statements in my letter and if you think I did please let me know what it was and if you prove I did I will correct it, for that was the cause of my writing the letter. I read a letter in the Times from Kirksey written by "Rattling Joe." I read a false statement in his letter. Say, do you want to know what it was, if you do I can tell you now? I am no night rider, no skeptic nor infidel. I am just as much opposed to night riding as you or any one else, and if I knew one I would go to him and tell him he was traveling the downward road to destruction. I would try, in a kind and Christian way, to get him to turn back; tell him, there was a better life to live, just as I would tell a drunkard, a card-player, a murderer, a convict or anybody traveling the sinful, downward road. They all have my sympathy. When we get to where we have no sympathy in our hearts we are practicing infidelity. Did n't

Christ have sympathy for the thief on the cross? Some people are so self-centered, so selfish, so wrapped up in their own pleasure to care anything about or to sympathize with anybody else in their troubles. They are self-centered, sordid souls who care for no one but themselves. Some people have a different way of putting down night riding, they go to a paper, they write and burlesque them, throw up the county they come from, the family they married into, the candidate they ride with, the way they walk and vote the man that holds the mortgages and has a big mouth, just such foolishness, this is no way of putting down night riding, you are putting malice, prejudice and hatred between the people, you are dividing them and united we stand, divided we fall. We should try to guide the ship of state over the seas that threaten to engulf it. There are perils which must be met and overcome, so that government "of the people, by the people and for the people" may not be undermined by the greed of the over-reaching power of great combinations of capital in the hands of unscrupulous men, whose only religion is dollars, whose god is gold. The uncurbed hand of corporate greed, accumulating in the hands of the few, the masses fighting for a dollar, which purchases half of what it did a few years ago, and the struggle for that dollar growing keener and keener, strong hearts, steady hands, cool brains will be needed to bring our ship of state back on an even keel of justice and square dealing for all. Say, "Fair Play" will you remember I haven't accused you of anything? I hope you are an honest, upright person, but let me give you some advice, the next time you go to write about other peoples' faults, county and family, turn your mind on your own, yourself, your own family, your own county and you will have all you want to write about, then you will drop your pen and quit.

With best wishes to "Rattling Joe" and "Fair Play" I close.

DECLARED OFF

Executive Committee of Association Passes Upon Loose Leaf Question.

Guthrie, Ky., Feb. 27.—No more loose sales of tobacco controlled by the Planters' Protective association of Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia will be permitted. This was the result of the meeting held here by the directors of that organization.

This means that in the future all association tobacco must be sold in the hogsheads and in the hogshead only. Farmers will be given permission to sell their tobacco hand-packed in hogsheads or prizers may pack tobacco loose in hogsheads to suit the stenning trade, which has lately become a purchaser of association tobacco, but there will be no tobacco sold loose by any member of the association.

This action was probably hastened by the action taken by the Christian county members of the association at Hopkinsville, when several of those who took part in the Longview meeting refused to abide by the agreement drawn up between them and the association officials some time ago and offered for sale types of tobacco of the 1908 crop which came in direct competition with that of the 1907 still held by the organization.

Conditions throughout the dark tobacco district are becoming more satisfactory to the association membership daily. The dissension which existed to a great extent in many counties is gradually becoming allayed and it is thought will soon completely disappear. Sales of the 1907 crop have been going on steadily and the tobacco now on hand is about 6,000 hogsheads out of a total held of 60,000.

Only 50c. Guaranteed by Dale & Stubblefield.

$5,000 Damage Suit.

Attorneys Acree & Erwin filed suit in the Calloway circuit court Tuesday for J. W. Hutson against Dook Russell for damages in the sum of $5,000.

Last fourth Monday Hutson and Russell engaged in a controversy in which Hutson charges that Russell called him vile names and accused him of being a night rider. Mr. Hutson is a man about 70 years of age and lives east of town a few miles. Mr. Russell is a young man and a son of W. K. Russell and until recently has been engaged in the mercantile business at Pottertown.

It Saved His Leg.

"All thought I'd loose my leg," writes J. A. Swenson, Watertown, Wis., "Ten years of eczema that 15 doctors could not cure had at last laid me up. Then Becken's Arnica Salve cured it sound and well." Infalible for Skin Eruptions, Eczema, Salt Rheum, Boils, Fever Sores, Burns, Scalds, Cuts and Piles. 25c at Dale & Stubblefield's.

The Company was fined $10,000 in the Arkansas State Courts for failing to observe the law.

The subject that seemed to have been the most interesting at the Mothers' Congress in New Orleans was that of infant mortality. It seems hard to believe that so many children die every year, many of whom might have been saved if the mothers had had a little better knowledge of the laws of health and the cities had provided better milk.

Representative James E. Watson, who ran for Governor of Indiana on a "dry" platform, is to be presented with a handsome punch bowl by his colleagues in the House. The gift will not be in the nature of a joke, because the Indiana member ran on a "water-wagon" ticket, but it will be a testimonial of the high esteem in which he is held by the Republican members of the House.

By reason of an agreement of the Senate Committee on Judiciary not to report to the Senate any more nominations at the present session, several Federal judgeship appointments will fail of confirmation at the present session, and unless the nominations are made by Mr. Taft the incumbents of the offices will receive no pay for the time they have served.

United States Assistant District Attorney McNamara has been commissioned by Attorney General Bonaparte as special assistant to the Attorney General to aid in the prosecution of the Press Publishing Company, the editors of the New York World and the owners of the Indianapolis News, recently indicted for alleged criminal libel in connection with the purchase of the Panama Canal.

The reading was performed by Senator McLaurin of Mississippi, and consumed about an hour. There was a large attendance, both of senators and visitors.

There is a story that recently 500 humming birds were brought from Mexico to San Antonio, Tex., to be eaten at a banquet. As the Council of Women's Clubs is to meet the last week in March at San Antonio no doubt the story will be investigated, as many of the members of the federation are also members of the Audubon societies.

The British Government, which has been much criticised of late for lagging behind in experiments in aerial navigation, has now called to its assistance the best available experts for advice with regard to its future policy. In making the announcement in the House of Commons, Secretary of War Haldane added that the Government was considering the advisability of trying to secure the services of the Wright brothers and their aeroplane.

Anti-liquor legislation was the feature of the session of the Wyoming state legislature which has just closed. Among the new laws enacted were those absolutely prohibiting the sale of liquor outside of incorporated cities, and increasing the county license to $1,000. It is estimated these laws will put 200 saloons out of business throughout the state.

To Restrain Closing of Contract.

A petition was filed in the state circuit court here by Mayme Cook, of Louisville, seeking to prevent the closing of contract with the Wollgast Furniture Co. for the furniture and furnishings for the new capitol, on the ground that price is too high.

New Examination Ordered.

Former State Actuary Bullock was appointed by Insurance Commissioner Bell to make a complete examination of the reserve fund of the Citizens' Life Insurance Co., of Louisville, to ascertain the valuation of the policies of the company.

Cloudburst Downs Bridges.

Heavy rains here and all over Central Kentucky have caused the creeks to rise out of their banks, sweeping bridges and fencing along with the rush of the waters. Bailey's Mills was visited by a cloudburst, washing away several bridges.

Scottsville, Ky.—J. C. Johnson, mail carrier on Rural Route No. 3 out of this place, was drowned during a blinding storm of wind and rain while trying to make his way back to town. His hat and overcoat were found with his mail pouch, in his buggy, some distance from where his body was discovered.

Louisville, Ky.—The standard bill of lading, a modified form of the so-called uniform bill, will be put into effect by the Southern railway, April 1. At the same time the bill will be placed in use by the Louisville and Nashville and other southern lines, and it is thought it will be a question of only a few weeks until the bill is adopted by all lines east of the Mississippi and south of the Ohio and Potomac rivers.

Louisville, Ky.—A. Scott Bullitt, a local attorney, secured a temporary injunction restraining the general court from passing an amended building ordinance allowing the construction of the Gaiety theater, in which Rudolph Hynicka of Cincinnati, is interested.

Henderson, Ky.—Articles of incorporation were filed in the clerk's office here by the Southern Coal and Transportation Co., of West Virginia. The amount of the capital stock is $500,000, and is divided into 5,000 shares, par value of $100 each.

Lexington, Ky.—Robert A. Downing, senior member of the Parnell Downing Drug Co., was stricken with paralysis in his bathtub at his home here.

Augusta, Ky.—The heaviest rain for years fell in this section, doing great damage all over the county. A fifty-foot iron bridge was washed away on Camp creek.

Elizabethtown, Ky.—The Kentucky State Farmers' institute convened in this city with a large attendance. H. M. Prosser, of this county, presided. Col. H. A. Sommers made the welcome address.

Versailles, Ky.—As a result of a heavy rain the dam of the new lake built by the Fox Spring Lake Co. four miles from Versailles, gave way and the water swept out, flooding the adjacent hallow.

Louisville, Ky.—Ten athletes from the Louisville annual training high school will take part in the athletic and indoor track meet of the Ohio Athletic club, of Cincinnati, on March 29.

Paducah, Ky.—A cloudburst seemingly emptied its entire contents in McCracken county, and approximately did $40,000 worth of damage. McCracken county roads, said to be the most durable in the state, are damaged at least $15,000.

Lexington, Ky.—With a sale of his household goods and farming implements, Edward Corrigan, noted "out man," closed out his holdings in Kentucky, with the exception of the thoroughbred stallion, imported Santa Santa, and 12 brood mares.

Russellville, Ky.—Prof. B. E. Aldrich, president of Logan college for the past seven years, one of the most successful and prominent educators of the south, died suddenly of acute heart asthma, aged 81. He leaves a wife, two daughters and two sons.

Louisville, Ky.—Kentucky republicans left here to attend the inauguration of President Taft, on a special train known as the "Bradley Special."

The Kentucky Republican club of Washington has made every provision for their comfort and convenience.

London, Ky.—Sherman Blanton, Nathan Blanton, Jack Blanton and Pearl Blanton were brought here for trial for the killing of F. R. Blanton, near Layman, Harlan county. Because the defendants are extensively related in Harlan county the case was transferred to London.

Hopkinsville, Ky.—General Manager Ewing, of the Planters' Protective association, called off the sale of nearly 2,000,000 pounds of tobacco on the ground that it fulfilled in grade with the 1907 tobacco held unsold at this place. The executive committee later rescinded this order and granted the farmers the privilege of selling their stock of 2,000,000 pounds of tobacco, provided low bids are sold to smokers, and do not conflict with the unsold 1907 crop. Resolutions were passed forbidding any more tobacco to be sold loose when present deals are completed.

Madisonville, Ky.—R. L. Tongue, elected of this city, has been appointed rural route carrier out of Madisonville on route No. 4, with Floyd Grace, another colored man, as substitute. The announcement of these appointments has caused considerable comment here. It is the general opinion that a petition will be sent the postmaster general to rescind the appointments. There are over one hundred families on this route, all white but three, and the appointment of these colored men is not at all satisfactory, and it is reported that they will remove their boxes if these men are to remain as carriers.

Owensboro, Ky.—J. A. Harris, one of the most prominent insurance and real estate men in Owensboro, was arrested on the charge of setting fire to and attempting to burn his storehouse in this city on February 12. Lloyd P. Bennett, a former Deputy United States Marshal in Western Kentucky and brother of Senator Alvin Bennett, of Ohio county, was also arrested, he being charged with being an accessory after the fact. Harris is prominent in church affairs. He was formerly connected with the real estate department of the defunct Daviess County bank and was also superintendent of the Homestead Land Co., one of James H. Farrishe's concerns. He came here from Louisville a number of years ago.

"THE MARRYING SQUIRE."

Justice George E. Law Has Broken All Records.

George E. Law, Justice of the Peace, 1319 Franklin St., Bristol, Ind., is known far and wide as the "Marrying Squire," from the fact that he has married more couples than any other official in Indiana. Justice Law wrote a letter in 1906, recommending Doan's Kidney Pills, which he said had made a bad back well, enabled him to sleep better nights and feel more fit for work. The treatment also cleared up the urine. On January 5, 1909, Judge Law confirmed his previous testimony. "I have recommended this remedy to many people since I first used it," said he.

ROUGH STUFFING.

The Tiger—It was hard enough to be cut off in my prime, but to be stuffed by an amateur taxidermist is really too hard to bear!

HAD AWFUL WEEPING ECZEMA.

Face and Neck Were Raw—Terrible Itching, Inflammation and Soreness. All Treatments Failed.

Cuticura Proved a Great Success.

"Eczema began over the top of my ear. It cracked and then began to spread. I had three different doctors and tried several remedies, but they did me no good. At last one side of my face and my neck were raw. The water ran out of it so that I had to wear medicated cotton, and it was so inflamed and sore that I had to put a piece of cloth over my pillow to keep the water from it, and it would stain the cloth a sort of yellow. The eczema reached so that it seemed as though I could tear my face all to pieces. Then I began to use the Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and it was not more than three months before it was all healed up. Miss Ann Pearsons, Northfield, Vt., Dec. 19, 1907."

They Meant Business.

A Chicago stage manager was telling of amusing incidents of blunders and errors caused by stage fright. In a romantic play, recently revived, one of the minor characters, a dairy maid, comes forward at the end of a recital of a love romance, and comments as follows:

"Hope filled their youths and whetted their love, they plighted their troth!"

But at one of the performances the girl who played the dairy maid was absent without notice. At the last moment the manager gave the lines to a shepherdess, who had never had lines to speak before, and who was excessively nervous when her cue came. This is what the astonished audience heard:

"Hope filled their youth and whetted their love, they plighted their troth!"

Down the Old Road.

The big autumn moon rolled up above the frosty pines.

"You like to go out driving?" he said after a long silence.

"Yes," she answered, nestling closer to him.

"And you always like to go with a young man who knows how to handle the ribbon?"

"Well, er—sometimes I like to go with a young man who knows how to drop them."

And after that the old horse jugged along unguided.

NEW IDEA

Helped Wis. Couple.

It doesn't pay to stick too closely to old notions of things. New ideas often lead to better health, success and happiness.

A Wis. couple examined an idea new to them and stepped up several rounds on the health ladder. The husband writes:

"Several years ago we suffered from coffee drinking, were sleepless, nervous, sallow, weak and irritable. My wife and I both loved coffee and thought it was a bracer" (delusion.)

"Finally, after years of suffering, we read of Postum and the harmfulness of coffee, and believing that to grow we should give some attention to new ideas, we decided to test Postum."

"When we made it right we liked it and were relieved of ill caused by coffee. Our friends noticed the change—fresher skin, steadier nerves, better temper, etc."

"These changes were not sudden, but relief increased as we continued to drink and enjoy Postum, and we lost the desire for coffee."

"Many of our friends did not like Postum at first, because they did not make it right. But when they boiled Postum according to directions on pkg., until it was dark and rich, they liked it better than coffee and were benefited by the change." "There's a Reason."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich., Read "The Road to Wellville" in pkg.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

POLICE JUDGE.

We are authorized to announce W. F. Peterson as a candidate for the office of Police Judge of the city of Murray, subject to the action of the voters.

Judge Patterson is fast acquainting himself with all the demands to be made upon him as an efficient public officer. He has been called upon to perform a number of marriage ceremonies recently and in this new role presides with the grace and dignity of a robed priest. His ceremony is brief, but to the point and where the contracting couple is not the possessor of the necessary monetary prerequisite the Judge is accommodating and will take in exchange any character of country produce. It is generally conceded that Judge Patterson will be famed as the "marrying judge" before his term of office has expired.

W. A. Berry, Democratic state central committeeman, has not rendered a decision on the motion for a rehearing of the Calloway chairmanship contest and stated today that another week may elapse before he will have an opportunity to consider the matter. Argument on the motion for a rehearing was heard by Chairman Berry last Friday, at the conclusion of which he announced that he would render a written decision in a few days. Politicians and the people generally in the Third judicial district are awaiting the decision with much interest, as it practically will decide whether a primary or convention will be called to nominate a candidate for circuit judge in the district now presided over by Judge Thomas P. Cook.—Paducah Sun.

Gov. Augustus E. Willson, of the state of Kentucky, has issued a pardon to the Louisville Herald, indicted in Calloway and Trigg counties for criminally libeling Judge Thos. P. Cook and Attorney Denny P. Smith. Issuing pardons to murderers, rapists, libelers, et al. has become chronic with his royal highness, Augustus E. He has also made known his intention, in advance of any indictments, that he will grant pardons to all tobacco "dumpers" who violate the law and their pledges to the growers' association by selling to independent buyers. The only requirement is that the "dumper" make oath that he was intimidated into joining the organization. A handsome premium to place upon perjury, isn't it?

Near Death in Big Pond.

It was a thrilling experience to M. S. Soper to face death. "For years a severe lung trouble gave me intense suffering," she writes "and several times nearly caused my death. All remedies failed and doctors said I was incurable. Then Dr. King's New Discovery brought quick relief and a cure so permanent that I have not been troubled in twelve years." Mrs. Soper lives in Big Pond, Pa. It works wonders in Coughs and Colds, Sore Throats, Hemorrhages, LaGrippe, Asthma, Whooping Cough and all Bronchial affections. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Dale & Stubblefield.

Advertised Letters.

After one week the following mail will be sent to the Dead Letter Office:

Mr. W. K. Bazzell, W. P. R. Baker, Shiloh; Mrs. Pearl Cain, Mrs. Iona Laycock, Faxon; Mr. Jas. Cooper, Eld. J. N. Outland, Mitt Ynabor.

When given as soon as the croupy cough appears, this remedy will prevent the attack. It is used successfully in many thousands of homes for sale by Dale & Stubblefield.

The Modesty of Women

Naturally makes them shrink from the indelicate questions, the obvious examinations, and unbecomingly heat treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annoyance and shame for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the cure which dispels the examinations and local treatments. There is no other medicine so pure and safe for women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating ailments, irregularity and female weakness. It always helps. It almost always cures. It is strictly non-alcoholic, non-opiate, all its ingredients being created on its bottles—crappers, contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strongest of professional endorsements of its ingredients, will be found in a pamphlet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down what is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 11 stamps for cloth-bound. It is sent by letter, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels.

THE DOCTOR'S QUESTION

Advice Against the Use of Harsh Purgatives and Physics.

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "are your bowels regular?" He knows that ninety-eight per cent of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver. This condition poisons the system with noxious gases and waste matter which naturally accumulates and which must be removed through the bowels before health can be restored.

Salts, ordinary pills and cathartics may be truly likened to dynamite. Through their harsh, irritating action they force a passage through the bowels, causing pain and damage to the delicate intestinal structure which weakens the whole system, and at best only produces temporary relief. The repeated use of such treatments cause chronic irritation of the stomach and bowels, hardens their tissues, deadens their nerves, stiffens their muscles and generally brings about an injurious habit which sometimes has fatal results.

We have a positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of its great curative value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when it fails to produce entire satisfaction. This remedy is called Rexall Orderlies.

Reaxall Orderlies are very pleasant to take, they act quietly and have a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea or other annoying effect, and they may be taken at any time without any annoying inconvenience.

Reaxall Orderlies overcome the drugging habit and cure constipation and all similar ailments, whether acute or chronic. They are especially good for children, weak persons or old folks. Price 36 tablets, 25c., and 12 tablets, 10c.—Dale & Stubblefield, Murray, Ky.

TOM BOY.

Prof. H. A. Howell, of Havana, Cuba, Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"As long ago as I can remember my mother was a faithful user and friend of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, but never in my life have I realized its true value until now," writes Prof. H. A. Howell, of Howell's American School, Havana, Cuba. "On the night of February 3rd our baby was taken sick with a very severe cold; the next day was worse and the following night his condition was desperate. He could not lie down and it was necessary to have him in the arms every moment. Even then his breathing was difficult. I did not think he would live until morning. At last I thought of my mother's remedy, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which we gave, and it afforded prompt relief, and now three days later, he has fully recovered. Under the circumstances I would not hesitate a moment in saying that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and that only, saved the life of our dear little boy." For sale by Dale & Stubblefield.

Rusty Martin, colored, was arrested and placed in jail last Saturday for assaulting M. E. Frazee, proprietor of the New Murray hotel. The negro was employed as a waiter in the hotel and when reprimanded by Mr. Frazee became angered and threw several dishes at him inflicting several ugly wounds on the head.

Sleep

Sleep is nature's rebuilding period, when the energy used by the brain, muscles and organs is renewed. If you lose sleep, your system is robbed of the strength sleep should give. Continued loss of sleep multiplies this loss until you become a physical wreck. Dr. Miles' Nervine quiets the irritated nerves and brings refreshing, invigorating sleep. Nervine contains no opiates, and therefore leaves no bad after-effects.

"For over two years I suffered untold agonies; my friends thought I was going crazy. I could not sleep nor rest at all. I tried different doctors, but failed to find relief. My head would ache all the time. I was like a drunk; could not concentrate my mind, and was so restless and worried that sleep was out of the question. After taking one bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine I felt wonderfully cleared. I am now on my third bottle and am gaining all the time. I can lie down and sleep like a child, and am able to do my work."

MRS. MAY SCOTT, English, Ind.

Your druggist sells Dr. Miles' Nervine, and we authorize him to return price of first bottle (only) if it fails to benefit you.

S.S.S. CURES RHEUMATISM

Every case of Rheumatism has its origin and its development in the blood. It is not a disease which is contracted like a cold, but it is in the blood and system before a pain is felt, and the changes in the weather or any physical irregularities, such as a spell of indigestion, liver disturbance, etc., are merely the exciting causes producing the pains and aches, which are the natural symptoms of the disease. Rheumatism is caused by an excess of uric acid and other corrosive, irritating poisons in the blood, which are carried through the circulation to every part of the system. Every muscle, nerve, membrane, tissue and joint becomes saturated with these acid, irritating impurities, or coated with fine, insoluble crusts with one and the sharp, piercing pains or the dull, constant aches are felt with every physical movement.

When the blood is filled with uric acid poison, permanent relief cannot be expected from liniments, plasters, or other external treatment. Such measures give temporary relief, but in order to conquer Rheumatism and bring about a complete cure, the uric acid and other inflammatory matter must be expelled, and this cannot be done with external treatment. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism because it is a perfect and entirely vegetable blood purifier. It goes down into the circulation, neutralizes the acids, and dissolves the irritating deposits which are pressing on the sensitive nerves and tissues and producing pain, enriches the weak, sour blood, and removes every atom of impurity from the circulation. So instead of being a weak, sour stream, distributing uric acid to the different parts of the system, the blood is strong and healthy and therefore able to supply every muscle, nerve, bone and tissue with nourishment and strength. Then the inflammation and swelling subside, the pains and aches cease, and not only is Rheumatism permanently cured, but under the fine tonic effects of S. S. S. the entire general health is benefited and built up. In all forms of Rheumatism, whether acute or chronic, S. S. S. will be found a safe and reliable treatment. Special book on Rheumatism and any medical advice you desire will be furnished free.

Sometimes ago, I had Rheumatism and had to quit work. The pain in my back and between my shoulders was so intense I could not rest or sleep. I tried every cure but nothing did me any good till I heard of and took S. S. S. This medicine cured me sound and well. It purified my blood and made me feel like a new man.

CORRAD LOHR, 122 E. 19th St., Anderson, Ind.

I was severely troubled with Rheumatism. I had it in my knees, legs and ankles, and any one who has ever had Rheumatism knows how excruciating the pain is and how it interferes with one's work. I was truly in bad shape—having been bothered with it for ten years, off and on. A local doctor advised me to use S. S. S. I did. After taking two bottles I noticed the soreness and pain were greatly reduced. I continued the medicine and was thoroughly cured; all pain, soreness and inflammation gone. I recommend S. S. S. to all Rheumatic sufferers.

Starch Eaters

As Truly Enslaved as Are Drug Fiends

By E. J. R. GIBBS, New York City.

A SHORT time ago I was called in to a case of a girl who was suffering from anæmia. She worked in a laundry. I questioned her closely as to her habits of eating and living. I regulated her diet and gave her strong medicines. The case baffled me. Finally she happened to remark that she chewed a lot of starch. I ordered her to quit it, and she promised me she would. But she broke her word again and again. I labored with her three months before she finally gave up starch-eating.

From this girl I got my insight into a habit which after ten years of study I now do not profess to understand. Like many working girls she was a gum-chewer. I wonder how many gum-chewers realize the strength of the hold the habit has upon them? This girl one day forgot to stock up with gum before going to the laundry. Once at her work she could not get away. For weeks and months she had chewed gum as she worked. Her jaws had been incessantly in motion. On this day she was constantly conscious of the absence of the gum. She was unhappy. She had nothing to chew on. She chewed her handkerchief, but it had not the consistency of gum and did not satisfy. The thought of gum became almost an obsession.

Finally, in desperation, she thought of starch. It was white and powdery, but in a short time the moisture of the mouth and the manipulation of the jaws reduced it to somewhat of the consistency of gum. It was a poor substitute.

She chewed starch all that day. The longer she chewed a "wad" of starch the sweeter it became. That evening she noticed that her teeth were whiter than they had ever been before. She confided this discovery to another girl in the laundry, who informed her that she had been chewing starch a long time.

The second girl had a complexion which was much admired. It was white and colorless but very clear. My patient's informant told her that many laundry girls chewed starch for the complexion.

So my patient gave up gum and chewed starch constantly. True, her complexion improved, but she did not know that a clear, white complexion is but an indication of impoverished blood. She kept on.

The odd thing about starch-eating is that starch has absolutely no medicinal virtue, nor does it exhilarate or depress. It is simply an inferior food which makes flabby, worthless flesh. It is a clog to the digestive apparatus, and the starvation of the blood is a sure result of its long continued use. I cannot understand where the appetite—if there is an appetite—comes in. Yet persuading a starch-eater to give up the habit is a long and difficult process.

The Apprentice System

By JOHN S. HODGSON, Civil Engineer.

the growing disinclination to serve a long term of apprenticeship, with the naturally resulting disposition to abandon a trade imperfectly acquired by other methods, suggests a disappointing survival of "the vulgar conceit," deprecated by President Eliot of Harvard in his inaugural address nearly 40 years ago, "that a Yankee can turn his hand to anything."

It would be idle, however, to regard this as the sole or even as the principal factor in the decay of a system under which vast armies of skilled and "crafty" workmen were formerly recruited.

It will tend to assist in the search for remedial measures if it be remembered that the same breakdown of the apprentice system, though in a minor degree, is to be recorded of European countries. In Great Britain, excellent results have been achieved in the past from systematic study in night schools. Much of their success has been due to the hand-in-hand character of evening study and daily work—the latter bringing home to the average mind the advantages, if not the absolute necessity, of what is furnished by the former.

In conclusion, it may be doubted whether the full benefit derivable from improved methods of industrial training, however admirable in themselves, can be secured through their exclusive application to the class now filling the ranks of manual labor. A reversion to the old belief in "the dignity of labor," taking practical form in diverting to the lathe or the bench a share of the present rush to the roll-top desk is a condition well worthy of united effort in a country showing many signs of drifting away from the lofty ideals of its founders.

Woman Can Not Reason

By DR. EDGAR HOFFMAN, German Scientist.

to bear only ten per cent. of common sense, and an average woman, or cent. which looks bad for the long-suffering suffragettes. When Mrs. B. show more than usually acuminous intellect they are really not applying either knowledge or experience, but are simply making haphazard machinery of intuition. And when a woman shows an enduring persistent intellectuality it may be asserted positively that she is, or without the ordinary attributes of love that characterize constituted women.

SUCH AN EXPENSIVE CHILD!

TO TAX THE POOR

REPUBLICAN SCHEME TO REPLETE TREASURY.

Extravagance of the Party in Power Likely to Lead to the Placing of Additional Burdens on the Workers.

With a deficit for the year of probably $135,000,000, and with the available cash balance of the treasury down to $140,000,000, of which only $42,000,000 is actually in the treasury, our tariff makers are giving much anxious thought to the question of revenue. It is said that there is a strong feeling in favor of reimposing the taxes that were levied during the Spanish war. It is proposed to lay a tax of three cents a pound on coffee, a small tax on tea, to increase the tax on beer $1 a barrel, to restore the stamp tax on bank checks and drafts, and to tax proprietary medicines. Every one of these taxes, except possibly that on bank checks, will fall chiefly on the poorer people. We believe that taxes on tea and coffee are in themselves sound taxes, but only on one condition, and that is that they be levied on necessities of life, which are absolutely protective, be abolished. We ought to remove or greatly lower the taxes on clothing, pottery, iron and steel, tinplate, boots and shoes, cutlery, and all the other articles which enter into daily consumption. To pile on these new taxes, while retaining all the other taxes on necessities, is to discriminate heavily in favor of the rich and against the poor.

There is no reason why congress should not impose an inheritance tax. It could, perhaps, enact an income tax law that would be consistent with the constitution. It could increase the tax on wines and whiskeys used principally by the rich. But nothing of this is proposed. Tea, coffee and beer are to bear the chief burden. The situation is remarkable in many ways. In the first place this resort to the system of direct taxation indicates a desperate condition of affairs. It is known that direct taxes are levied by tariff statesmen with particular deliberation. Their idea is and always has been that the people should be taxed in such a way as to make them unconscious of the fact that they were being taxed at all. Again the great notion of these statesmen is to discriminate against the same men to the "free breakfast table" idea does not consist with the proposition to tax tea and coffee. The emergency must be great, indeed, and finally nothing short of a crisis could lead to the imposition of the antiquated system of imposing distinctively war taxes in time of peace.

To such straits as these has the party beordriven by the extravagance of the Roosevelt administration. We must have more revenue, or else we must spend less money. Yet there does not seem to be any man in public life who has any thought of economy. The government ought to be able to live within its present income, which is very large. It amounted to $663,000,000 in 1907 and to $601,000,000 in 1908. With a wise, prudent and economical management of affairs the treasury would now have a comfortable surplus. But there has been no such management, and so instead of a surplus, we have a most embarrassing and persistent deficit—Indianapolis News.

Mr. Taft's Complaint Bag.
One of the first organized complaints President Taft will hear will be from American consumers protesting against tariff robberies. It will not be news to Mr. Taft. He knows a good deal about the cause of these complaints. But it will be his first experience as an executive charged with the duty and power to meet them with practical remedies. Fortunately, the party that elected Mr. Taft as president has given him an unmistakable commission for this particular reform. Mr. Taft has only to fulfill his party's pledge to get busy with genuine tariff revision. Will he?

WASTING THE PUBLIC MONEY.

National Financial Management Discredit to Republicans.

The Washington Herald speaks of the prevailing extravagance in public affairs by noting that the general assumption is that the growing and necessary expenses of the government warrant the imposition of additional taxation. This, it says, is true if national financial management is to continue to be of the present haphazard character, but that it is not true if the federal budget were to be made up properly and the expenditures were coordinated with prospective revenues. It considers at some length Secretary Cortelyou's report and concludes:

"As long as congress adheres to a reckless mode of expenditure, it is preposterous to talk of imposing additional taxes, especially taxes on the necessities of life, like tea and coffee. The ample existing revenues of the government should be so economically applied that they will provide for the reasonable necessities. The true theory of national expenditure is well stated by Secretary Cortelyou to be the application of the money of the taxpayers in the most efficient and beneficial manner to those objects of expenditure which are most desirable, and if it is to be so applied, it must be so applied. It is a serious imposture to assume that more taxes should be levied."

Anyway at Menstruous Cost. Whatever may be thought of the alleged Panama scandal, there are many who believe that Uncle Sam has paid a pretty penny for an uncompleted ditch, and one which has many and very serious difficulties to overcome before it ever will be completed.

Mr. Roosevelt was characteristically impatient of delay; he never did care what a thing cost the public if he wanted it, and thought that the public ought to want it. He committed us to the Panama route, against the judgment of Senator Morgan and others who had spent their lives in studying the question. Then, he committed us to the lock canal plan, against the judgment of competent engineers, disinterested statesmen, and drove the senate into line with his views against the better judgment of the senate committee. The chances of management and otherwise which he has capriciously ordered in carrying out his own plans are like many of his other plans, and the cost has steadily mounted without regard to the estimates; and to-day it is a big problem whether a lock canal can ever be built in that earthquake region, and the ominous sinking in the vicinity of the Gatun dam says no!

The Tariff Court.
Mr. Taft condensed the criticism of the present system of tariff schedule-making, and the argument for a permanent tariff commission, into a single sentence when he wrote to Chairman Payne of the ways and means committee: "What we lack is evidence." Mr. Carnegie expresses a similar idea when he says: "The average congressman is not equipped by training or knowledge to deal with the abstruse tariff problems," and "the congressional committees are necessarily uninformed and get no trustworthy evidence concerning conditions in this and other countries." Legal practice is demanding in the interest of justice that courts shall employ and detail their own experts, completing the discredit of the paid and partial expert witness. Similar reform must come in the tariff court. Impartial expert investigation under government direction, and compensated by the government, must be employed to secure reliable evidence.

President Roosevelt's advice to the farmers to cooperate so that they may place themselves in a level with the organized interests is a bit tardy. The farmers have been busy at that thing for more than 20 years, sometimes with good results and sometimes not. For half a dozen years they have been organizing against the Dingley tariff, and that tariff must go.

CLASS THAT HUSBY WAS IN.

Possibly Wife Did Not Mean It Just That Way, But There It Was.

A husband and wife ran a freak show in a certain provincial town, but unfortunately they quarreled, and the exhibits were equally divided between them. The wife decided to continue business as an exhibitor at the old address, but the husband went on tour. After some years' wandering the prodigal returned, and a reconciliation took place, as the result of which they became business partners once more. A few mornings afterward the people of the neighborhood were sent into fits of laughter on reading the following notice in the papers:

"By the return of my husband, my stock of freaks has been permanently increased."
