FATHER OF LOCAL BUSINESS MAN DIES IN MISSISSIPPI

FATHER OF LOCAL BUSINESS MAN DIES IN MISSISSIPPI

By Jason Williams

Mother of a local businessman, Mrs. Anna Martin McElroy, was called home Thursday morning in Pearl, Miss.

McElroy, who had been a resident of Fulton for more than 50 years, had been ill for several weeks and was surrounded by her family when she passed away at 9:30 a.m.

Surviving are her husband, Mr. J. T. McElroy, and her daughter, Mrs. Lula McElroy, both of Fulton.

NEW DEAD IN OLD AGE AND EPEAL VOTE

Old age and disability have been the main issues in the Fulton community recently, as many of the elderly have been unable to vote due to health issues.

To address this problem, a special voting procedure has been implemented, allowing for proxy voting and mail-in ballots.

In addition, a new kind of care facility has been established to provide assistance to the elderly, ensuring they can continue to vote and participate in the democratic process.

CHANDLER AND REPEAL WIN IN STATE ELECTION

The election results for the state of Tennessee were announced today, with Chandler and Repeal emerging as the clear winners.

Chandler, a local political figure, was re-elected to a second term after polls closed earlier today.

Repeal, a new candidate running on a platform to repeal existing laws, also won a seat in the state legislature.

It's a Season of Glamor and Glitter

By CHERIE NICOLAS

Style creates a season of glamour and glitter in the hearts of the women and girls of all ages. Shops and stores are filled with lovely garments and accessories. In every city and town, young women are preparing for the coming season. They are buying new dresses, shoes, hats, and gloves. They are spending their hard-earned money on these things.

If you are a woman who likes to keep up with the latest fashion trends, then you will want to read this article. It will give you some ideas about what you can wear this season. You will also learn how to save money while doing so.

Get Ready for the Season

The first step in getting ready for the new season is to decide what you want to wear. Do you want to wear something formal or something casual? Do you want to wear something that is trendy or something that is timeless? Once you have made these decisions, you can start looking for the things that you need.

Save Money

One way to save money is to buy things on sale. You can also look for things that are on clearance. You can also look for things that are used, but in good condition. These things will cost you less than new things.

The Importance of Quality

Another important thing to consider is the quality of the things that you buy. Some things may look good, but they may not be made well. These things may not last long, and they may not look as good as they did when you first bought them.

The Season of Glamor and Glitter

The season of glamor and glitter is here! Now is the time to have fun and enjoy yourself. Wear what you like, and wear it well. This season is all about being yourself, and being confident in what you wear.

Conclusion

In conclusion, the season of glamor and glitter is here. Now is the time to have fun and enjoy yourself. Wear what you like, and wear it well. This season is all about being yourself, and being confident in what you wear.

Washington—A friend of mine, a writer at the time of great importance in the world, and a great contributor to the cause of liberty and peace, says that he has heard of a great change in the attitude of the British government toward the colonies. This change is said to be due to the fact that the British government is now willing to consider the possibility of making a peace agreement with the United States.

CHAPTER XIV—Continued

He stepped nearer. "I'm waiting," he said.

"I'm waiting, too," she said. "I've been waiting.

"Boys are boys. We shall see how things turn out."

It was the first time in her life that she had felt so much of a woman. She had always been afraid of boys, and of everybody. Now she was ready to face them, and to be ready in their turn. They were boys, and she was a woman. But it was only for a moment. Then she was ready for anything. She was not afraid of them, she was not afraid of herself. She was ready for any body, and for any thing. She was not afraid of boys, she was not afraid of herself. She was ready for anything. She was not afraid of them, she was not afraid of herself. She was ready for any body, and for any thing. She was not afraid of boys, she was not afraid of herself. She was ready for anything. She was not afraid of them, she was not afraid of herself. She was ready for any body, and for any thing. She was not afraid of boys, she was not afraid of herself. She was ready for anything. She was not afraid of them, she was not afraid of herself. Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers have done it again. Their new musical comedy, "Pigskin Parade," opened on Broadway. The first night was packed, and in the audience were: Miss Jennie Pickle, Mary Jolley; Ray Campbell, and each representative from the other classes were presented to the audience. The event was the first one to result from the Who's Who contest. Charlene Sanford won the first prize and was presented the winner in each division. Five hundred people attended the contest held at the South Fulton gymnasium Friday night to enjoy one of the best productions ever presented at the sub-
