Capacity Crowd At Show

A capacity audience attended the Romance of Kentucky Quiz Show Monday night at the Community Building. Official attendance was listed at 128. The number included about a dozen Ashland-Aetna Oil Company dealers, most of whom were from Paducah, and several out-of-town guests. Sam Myers, son of Walker Myers, Ashland dealer in Benton, introduced the visiting oil dealers.

Marvin Prince and Joe Pete Ely tied for first place in the quiz and the four other contestants, Joe Duke, Bill Knight, Mrs. Travis Downs and Mrs. Ray Smith were close behind. All were awarded Ashland-Aetna coupon books.

The program was sponsored here by the Rotary and Lions Clubs. Van Roberts is president of Rotary, and A. N. Duke is head of the Lions.

Ladies Night Dinner. Preceding the quiz show itself, members of the Rotary and Lions Clubs held a Ladies Night dinner. Before dinner was served, Ben Trevathan led the group in several songs.

The dinner was prepared and served by members of the Homemakers Club. A novelty musical group directed by Bill Havel performed. Van Roberts opened the main part of the program with a short talk and introduced A. N. Duke, who in turn introduced Bud Dudley, master of ceremonies for the quiz show.

Dalley entertained the crowd with several humorous stories and introduced Jimmy Young, promotion manager for the Quiz Show, and the Dave Parry trio, which played several musical numbers.

Bob Long, president-elect of the Rotary Club, made a short talk in welcoming the Romance of Kentucky Quiz Show to Benton and invited Kentuckians to visit Benton and Kentucky Lake.

Dalley then introduced J. B. Faulconer, noted Kentucky sports broadcaster for Ashland-Aetna, who took over as quiz master.

A tape recording of the show was made here. It will be broadcast from WKTM, Mayfield, at 6:30 p. m. on Wednesday July 9. A total of 35 radio stations in Kentucky will broadcast the Benton show.

WKTM Manager Wayne Morgan of Mayfield was among the visitors.

Mrs. Burette Bearden suffered severe burns on two fingers of her hand Saturday when she plugged in a lamp at their home on Poplar street in Benton. Flames shot from the socket and the burns she received required medical attention here.

Free Movie Tickets Await Lucky Persons

Need a good cool place to go to on these hot days and nights? You can stay cool and see a good show too—and all for free. The Benton Theatre, in co-operation with the Marshall Courier, is going to give away 10 free tickets every week to 10 lucky persons who can find their names in the Courier.

Each week 10 names of Benton and Marshall County residents will be placed in various advertisements in the Courier. As an example, the name

John Doe will be placed in small type somewhere in one advertisement. Another name will be placed in another ad, and so on until 10 names have been placed in ads. The names will have no connection with the reading matter of the ads.

All you have to do to get a free pass is to find your name in an ad, clip out that ad containing your name and take it to Curt Reynolds, manager of the Benton Theatre. He will give you the free pass.

The pass will be good for any one show, day or night, during an entire week. Most readers get the Courier on Fridays. So the pass will be good from one Friday until the next Friday—one whole week, and for anyone who shows during the week.

First of the free passes will be distributed this week. Ten names have been placed in ads throughout the Courier. Start looking for your name now. If you find it, clip out the ad and take it to Mr. Reynolds and get your pass.

Eura Mathis is Ky. 'Minister of 1952'

The Rev. Eura Mathis of Hardin, Ky., has been named Kentucky's Rural Minister of the Year for 1952 by The Progressive Farmer magazine. He is pastor of the North Pleasant Grove Cumberland Presbyterian Church in Marshall County.

He will receive in connection with the award a scholarship to the Town and County School for Ministers from Candler School of Theology, Emory University, Atlanta, Ga., July 29-August 14.

The Rev. Mr. Mathis has been a rural pastor and a rural school teacher for 16 years. He was cited for his leadership in the rural community's activities.

He is especially interested in the agriculture of his community. He has been a member of the Board of Supervisors of the Marshall County Soil Conservation District for three years.

He is an outstanding school teacher. Educational leaders from several other states have visited his one-room school to observe his methods.

The Rev. Mr. Mathis is employed here in the office of County School Supt. Holland Rose.

Methodists To Quit Evening Services For Two Months

Members of the board of the First Methodist Church, at a meeting held Monday night, agreed to discontinue Sunday evening services during July and August.

After the regular services next Sunday night, June 29, there will be no evening services until September.

The board meeting was held in the church basement. Members were served watermelon by Rev. W. D. Grissom, pastor, and Mrs. Grissom.

Curt Phillips is chairman of the board. The next meeting will be held the first Tuesday in August.

Mrs. Lenora Griggs Dies At Rt. 6 Home

Mrs. Lenora Griggs, 77, died Wednesday at her home on Benton Route 6.

She was a member of the Holiness church. Funeral services were held at the Community church this afternoon (Thursday) with Vernon Shell officiating. Burial by the Linn Funeral Home, was held in the church cemetery.

Brother Grissom Finds A Cool Place

The new pastor of the First Methodist Church is not so hot—speaking strictly from a weather standpoint, that is.

Rev. W. D. Grissom arrived to take over his new duties here in the worst heat wave of the year. And to match the weather, the congregation gave him a warm reception.

Brother Grissom was melting—his body from the heat, and his heart from the fine reception he received here.

Cliff Treas came to the rescue. He presented Rev. Mr. Grissom and Mrs. Grissom with a new floor-type electric fan.

Now Brother Grissom isn't so hot.

Marshall Man Sues Gas Firm For $2,999

One of the men injured in last December's explosion at Second St. and Broadway at Paducah has sued the Western Kentucky Gas Company for $2,999.50.

The plaintiff, Virgil Sled, charges the gas company negligently allowed the building to become filled with gas.

Sled was a carpenter remodeling the building when the explosion occurred last Dec. 7. Two men were killed, one a passerby on the sidewalk outside.

Grand Jury Acts On Cases

The grand jury of the June term of Circuit Court, which convened here Monday with Judge Holland Bryan on the bench, returned 10 indictments.

The jury was dismissed Wednesday from further duty until July 11.

James Pittman was indicted on a charge of wilful murder in the fatal beating here of John Hampton. Jack Pittman was charged in the indictment with aiding and abetting James in the slaying.

Among others indicted were Clifton, Charles and Milton Stevenson, and Finis Lofton, for grand larceny; Elbert Edwards, for cutting with intent to kill; William Scott, for grand larceny; and the International Union of Operating Engineers and its president, William Maloney.

Members of the grand jury are: J. D. Beggs, foreman, Arthur Noles, Wilford Brown, Tullis Black, Enos Darnell, James H. Morgan, Ace Dunnigan, S. F. Dawes, Estel Copeland, Lonnie Cook, Arlie Fritzel and Horace Collins.

The petit jury will be called in Thursday, when trials by jury will begin.

Dale Leneaves Get Phone Call From Son In Germany

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Leneave of Poplar Street had the thrill of a lifetime Sunday afternoon.

They talked via trans-Atlantic telephone for 15 minutes with their son, Robert, who is stationed with the Armed Forces in Stuttgart, Germany. Robert placed the phone call.

Robert, who only recently arrived overseas, reported he was in good health and getting along fine.

The Leneaves also had word from their other son, Ross, recently inducted, that he was being sent to Oklahoma for training.

West Kentucky Fair Will Open At Paducah On July 8

The West Kentucky Fair will be held daily and a society horse show will be held each night during the fair.

A bigger and better fair than ever is promised by fair officials. Thousands of dollars in purses and prizes will be given away.

Running and trotting races will be held daily and a society horse show will be held each night during the fair.

The program also includes State Hereford Cattle Show, beef and dairy cattle exhibits, farm machinery and commercial exhibits.

All youth in this area are invited and urged to attend.

Boat Rides On Program Of Birmingham Reunion

Final plans have been made for the Birmingham Homecoming Association's annual reunion, which will be held July 6 at Birmingham Park on Kentucky Lake.

The 30-acre park will be open at 9:30 a. m. to receive the first visitors. The morning hours will be devoted entirely to taking visitors on boat rides over the site of what once was the town of Birmingham. The town was inundated when the lake was formed.

At 11:30, a big picnic lunch will be held. All the visitors are requested to bring basket lunches to be spread on the picnic tables at the park.

At 1:30 p. m., a pageant entitled "Show Boat" will be presented in the park by school children of McCracken and Ballard Counties. The pageant is under the supervision of Mrs. Dumas Fields of Paducah.

The pageant will depict the type of entertainment of long ago on old river towns such as Birmingham. The show will be presented from a setting representing an old-time show boat, such as "Cotton Blossom," which used to be one of the favorite show boats on the Tennessee River.

After the pageant, impromptu speeches will be made by visitors and the remainder of the afternoon will be spent by the crowd in visiting with their old-time Birmingham friends and newcomers.

Marshall Boys Take Pre-Induction Exams

Three Marshall County boys left Monday for Owensboro to take their pre-induction physical examinations for the Armed Forces.

Those who left here by bus were Thomas Marshall Jackson, Hubert Willoughby and James Harvey Cox.

Week Of Activities Scheduled

The First Methodist Church of Benton is planning a full week of activity for the youth of this community and the surrounding territory.

A Youth Caravan composed of five young people from other parts of the country will guide the youths here in a "series of activities from June 29 to July 6, it was announced Tuesday by Rev. W. D. Grissom, pastor of First Methodist Church.

Activities during the week will include workshop, worship and recreation.

Intermediates of the church will meet at 4 p. m. in the afternoons and all young people will meet at 7:30 p. m. Refreshments will be served.

Each evening a meal will be served to the local youths and to Caravan members.

Next Sunday evening has been designated as Special Youth Night. The regular preaching service will give way to the Youth Caravan, and the young people will have charge of the services.

All youth in this area are invited and urged to attend.

Last Chance For Voters To Register

Saturday is the final deadline for voters to register for the Aug. 7 primary and the November general election.

Election commissioners have called for a supplemental registration to be held Saturday for each district, except No. 8 and No. 22, which already have held such registrations.

The supplemental registration is held for the benefit of those voters who, for some reason or another, have not been able to register. All persons must re-vote.

Commissioners are urging voters to take advantage of this last chance to register.

County Court Clerk Mark Clayton reports there are about 150 new voters registered so far in Marshall County. The county has approximately 7,000 registered voters.

Barnett Fiser, Route 6, was a business visitor in Benton on Wednesday.

Crochet Contest to be Big Feature of Marshall Fair

The search is on once again for the nation's top crocheters. Somewhere today two crocheters are busy wielding hooks creating entries for the 11th annual nationwide crochet contest and before the end of the year they will be proclaimed King and Queen of Crochet.

The crochet contest is fun for all because to enter it you do what you most enjoy doing—crochet. Even if you don't win a share of the $2,500 national prize money, you'll have the satisfaction of having made a lovely crocheted piece that you can long treasure. The contest is being sponsored locally by the Marshall County Fair which will be held from Sept. 3 to 6th.

You can take your first step toward the championship by entering your crocheted piece in the needlework department of the fair. Then, if your entry is awarded a special national wide crochet contest ribbon at the fair it will become eligible to be judged in the national finals, which will take place next November. It is at this judging that the champions will be decided upon, along with all others who will receive national prizes. In addition to their cash awards, the two grand champions also will receive all-expense trips to Chicago.

There are 16 classifications in the contest so you are free to make just about anything you would like to crochet. However, all entries must be crocheted of mercerized, crochet, cotton and must have been completed in 1952. There are classifications for tablecloths, bedspreads, dollies, potholders, fashion accessories, wall panels, luncheon sets, household accessories, centerpieces, chair sets, edgings and doll clothes.

The doll clothes classification is new in the contest this year and will be welcomed by the many crocheters who enjoy making colorful wardrobes for dolls. Then, of course, there are three special categories for Men Only, Teen-Age Girls and Ladies Over 65.

Those who enjoy creating their own original crochet designs can enter a special division in the contest for Original Designs sponsored by Woman's Day, a leading magazine. Additional national prize money for this special category amounts to $500.

So don't delay—start your entry today. If you would like additional information on the contest, contact the secretary at the Marshall County Fair. Dept. do it right away so that your entry will be ready for the opening day of the fair.

THAT'S THE SPIRIT

The way Benton folks turned out Monday night to boost their city in the Romance of Kentucky Quiz Show is evidence of the fine community spirit here.

Without community spirit, no city is likely to grow and prosper. But with the proper spirit, any community can advance itself.

The audience participated enthusiastically and with fine co-operation throughout the entire program. And the contestants—
Joe Pete Ely, Marvin Prince, Bill Knight, Joe Duke, Mrs. Ray Smith and Mrs. Travis Downs—made a splendid showing.

And the spirit of neighborliness, good will and helpfulness was everywhere.
Out-of-town folks were heard to speak highly of the event.

The Rotary and Lions Clubs and their respective leaders, Van Roberts and A.
N. Duke, are to be congratulated. And congratulations also are in order for members of the Homemakers Club, who prepared and served the Rotary-Lions Ladies Night dinner before the Quiz Show.

Surely with such a community spirit, Benton can look to the future with a great deal of confidence.

FAMILY REUNIONS

One of the finest and most pleasant of the old-time customs in existence today is the family reunion.

Family life is the core of our society and for the most part gives us our greatest security, peace of mind and happiness.

And so when large families, scattered over the country, gather to rebind their ties of brotherly love it is an occasion that deserves recognition.

The Goheen family of Marshall County held its second annual reunion last Sunday at Maple Springs Methodist church.

It was heart-warming to see blood kin and in-laws of several generations gathered in such harmony and joy to nurture their family tree.

An example of the family pride was voiced by Attorney Francis Goheen of Paducah. Said Mr. Goheen:

"There are two kinds of people in the world—the good people, the Goheens, and the smart ones, those that married the Goheens."

So let us salute the Goheens and their effort to keep alive a fine old tradition that is so important to our American way of life.

Kentucky has a total area of 40,395 square miles, with a land area of 40,109 and over 300 square miles of water.

Stamping Ground, Kentucky is so called because huge herds of buffalo congregated there during pioneer days.

Short Creek, on State Highway 80 near Somerset, is only about 200 feet long. It runs from the base of one hill into another a short distance away.

Richard Mentor Johnson, Kentucky lawyer and statesman, is the only United States vice-president to have been put in office by a vote of the senate. He did not have a majority of electoral votes, causing the election to be thrown into the senior house.

First Baptist WMS Has Discussion On 'Meet The Alaskans'

The Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church met Tuesday evening, June 17, with Mrs. E. D. Davis, president, presiding. Seventeen persons attended.

The Royal Service program was presented immediately after the opening exercises, with Mrs. Chester Powell as leader.

The Subject, "Meet the Alaskans," was discussed by the various members, after which a business session was held.

Preceding the Royal Service program, a duet was given by two G. A. visitors. Miss Ann Cole Burd was at the piano and Miss Wanda Fay Lane played the horn.

Those present were Meses E. D. Davis,
J. R. Brandon, Joe Brandon, L. H. Draffen, Bethel Dycus, Della Eley, Hershel Howard, Annie Nelson, Chester Powell, Luther Thompson, Misses Lizzie Hall and Ruby Wade, and Mrs. Gorda Hastings, members;
Mrs. Ollie Lane and Cecil Bohannon, Misses Burd and Lane, visitors.

Bottles Everywhere But Nary a Drop of Anything To Drink

Broken glass littered the intersection of 6th and Poplar Tuesday shortly after noon when a Paducah Bottling Co. truck turned the corner and spilled off forty-four cases of empty drink bottles.

A dip where the streets intersect was believed to be the cause of the mishap.

The loss came at a most inopportune time as local soft drink dealers have had a shortage of bottles lately due to the rush on soft drinks resulting from the heat wave.
Most dealers are only getting a small percentage of their quota as a result of the lack of bottles.

Four Persons Fined For Drunken Driving

Four persons were fined in County Court this week on charges of driving while intoxicated over the weekend.

Each was fined $100 and court costs.

County Judge Leonard Jones has been warring against drunken drivers for some time, and reiterated his statement that such drivers are a menace to life and property.

REVIVAL IS PLANNED AT MAPLE SPRINGS CHURCH

A revival will begin at the Maple Springs
Methodist Church Tuesday, July 1, 7:45 p. m.
The Rev. Leslie Lee, Murray, will be the evangelist. Services will be held each evening.

There also will be a daily Vacation Bible School. All children in the community are invited to attend this school, which will be held each morning from 9 to 11 o'clock.

The pastor, Rev. J. A. Collier, invited everyone to attend.

JOE HIETT IS DIRECTOR OF YOUTH CAMP IN TENN.

Joe Hiett is attending the Methodist Youth camp at Eva, Tenn., this week. He and Jack Henton are directors of the camp. Hiett took the place of one of the directors who is ill.

Young Mr. Hiett attended an officers conference at Camden, Tenn., during the past week.

4-H PLANS TOLD FOR MID-SOUTH FAIR

Cash Awards Totaling $8,050 To Be Presented

CLUB DAY IS SEPT. 30

Cash awards totaling $8,050 will be presented 4-H Club boys and girls who participate in the 1952 Mid-South Fair and Livestock Show Sept. 18-27.

These prizes will be in addition to those offered in the Fair's Junior Livestock Show in which 4-H Clubbers will join Future Farmers of America members in exhibiting dairy and beef cattle and swine.

4-H Club Day The 4-H Club Day at the Fair will be Saturday, Sept. 30.

These decisions were reached yesterday by Agricultural Extension Service leaders of Arkansas, Mississippi and Tennessee.

They met at the Chicago to map final plans for 4-H Club participation in the Fair's 4-H exposition.

In the Boys' Division, judging contests and crop exhibits will be featured. Girls will vie for prizes in a dress revue contest, food products judging contest and a sewing exhibit.

Judging contests for boys include livestock, crops, poultry and dairy animals, with prizes to winners totaling $1,100. Crop exhibits will include cotton, corn, soybeans and sweet potatoes, for which prizes total $400—up $125 from last year.

Dress Revue Contest In the dress revue contest, prizes have been increased from $500 to $800. Contestants, ranging from 10 to 20 years of age, will model dresses they have designed and made.

In the food products judging contest, prizes amount to $350, and will go to individuals who make the best selection from some 20 assorted foods, including fruits, vegetables, bread, pies and cakes.

The canning exhibit will contain six quarts of fruits and vegetables from each contestant. Prizes total $400.

An additional $200 will go to club members of Tennessee and Arkansas who will present stage shows in the Agricultural Building Sept. 20 and Sept. 24.

Attending the meeting were R. O. (Rudy) Monomath, Mississippi state 4-H Club leader; E. B. Jenkins, Tennessee assistant 4-H leader; Miss Aubrey Scott, Tennessee assistant 4-H leader; Miss Mildred Jacobs, Tennessee district home demonstration agent; Miss Ingrid Tierese, Mississippi assistant 4-H leader; Martin Zook, Fair manager; W. B. (Bill) Wynne, assistant manager, and Miss Marie Jackson, agricultural secretary.

COLONEL RUFFIN HONORED FOR 25 YEARS OF THEATRE WORK

Col. W. F. Ruffin was honored by his managers and office personnel with a Testimonial Dinner June 18 at 6:30 p. m. at the Cottonland Restaurant, Covington, Tenn., for his Twenty-five year as theatre owner and operator.

Among the invited out-of-town guests were all the branch managers of the Representative Film Exchange in Memphis and respective office managers. Also attending were Marshall County's state representative, Shelby McCallum of Benton, Mayor Crittendon of Halls, Tenn. and close friends and business associates of Colonel Ruffin.

Acting as Chairman for the affair was H. F. Whaley, manager of the Varsity Theatre, Martin, Tenn. Toastmaster was T. W. Young, branch manager of Twentieth Century Fox, who in turn introduced A. E. Chadwick, executive vice-president of Motion Picture Advertising Service of New Orleans, who presented a silver memento to Colonel Ruffin.

Also on the evening's program was Allison Simonton, owner and editor of the Covington Leader; William A. Shoaf, city attorney of Covington, Rep. McCallum, H. M. Brandon, president of Film Transit and also chief barker of Variety Clubs International. Mr. Brandon presented silver mementoes both from his company as well as from Variety Clubs International.

J. W. Morrison, senior manager of the company from the Ritz Theatre, Hickman, presented to Colonel Ruffin a diamond studded Shrine pin as a gift from his managers and office personnel.

Colonel Ruffin said he owed his success for his past 25 years to three things:

Faith - Faith in God to develop talents; faith in community; faith in employees.

Optimism - Alert and receptive to new ideas, anticipation with hope that success can be had by renewed efforts.

Prospective of Life - Never look back to mistakes and errors; making mistakes profitable for a new day; that which is presented in the advancement of business, each day new hope, new challenges, new

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Doring, Route 1, are the parents of a daughter born Tuesday, June 24th, at the G. C. McClain Clinic.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Clark, Calvert City, Route 2, are the parents of a son born Monday, June 23, at the McClain Clinic.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Mathis and daughter, of Benton, will spend the holidays at the Fourth of July in Benton with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Mathis.

In his closing remarks, Colonel Ruffin said, "I have enjoyed business of fascination and inspiration and found once a showman always a showman and that old showman never die, for there will always be a theatre."
