Syrup of Figs

Manufactured only by the California Fig Syrup Co., San Francisco, Cal., is the purest, most easily taken and the most effective remedy known to cleanse the system when bilious or constive; to dispel headaches, colds and fevers; to remove humors from the blood, indigestion, etc. For sale in 50 cents and $1.00 bottles by H. B. Garner, Hopkinsville, Ky.

$300 Reward.

Judge Winfree received an official letter Friday morning from Gov. Buckner's private secretary stating that the governor had issued a proclamation offering $300 reward for the apprehension of John Henry, alias Jim Cox, alias Jim Skinner, the supposed assassin of B. F. Fourqurean. With the $500 reward offered by the county in addition, an earnest effort will likely be made to bring the desperado to justice. It is the general belief that the daring outlaw is in Montgomery county. At any rate there is very little doubt of his final capture.

Perhaps a Little Off.

Mr. Henry Wellington, of Springfield, Tenn., stepped off the lightning express train Thursday night and soon discovered that his pockets had been picked of every dollar he possessed. He says he complained to the conductor, who agreed to investigate it but failed to do so; and he says he believes the conductor is the man who got his money as he is the only person who sat in his car or who was as any time near enough to him to take anything from his pockets. Wellington's breath smelled badly of Robertson county at the time he charged the trainman of pocket-picking, and an hour later gave a convincing story.

McClary, Bonte & Co.'s Lillies.

Attached to the deed of trust and assignment, filed in the County Clerk's office, of McClary, Bonte & Co., who succeeded to the lillies last Monday morning, were the following creditors: Annie L. Starling, $700; City Bank, $1,250; Bank of Hopkinsville, $1,500; Royce Wheel Company, Cincinnati, O., $200; Ward & Co., Cincinnati, O., $200; Stone & Sons, Cincinnati, O., $715; Standard Wagon Company, Cincinnati, O., $700; Babcock & Vele, Evansville, Ind., $145; Gillette & Sons, New York, $100; George Eger, Cincinnati, O., $285; D. B. Beard, $3,000; George O. Thompson, $1,500; Alex. Falcup, $500; W. B. Walker, $1,000; Champion Machine Company, $300; Hopkinsville Building and Loan Association, $1,000; and M. J. Remley, $200. Total, $14,165.

A Most Remarkable Performance.

On the fourth page of this paper we introduced to our readers and it is our pleasure to do so—something at once novel, attractive and unprecedented in local history. It is something in which every citizen of Hopkinsville and Christian county is directly and personally interested. Immediate and careful attention to the subject should be given by everybody.

Doctors' Bills.

Nearly all diseases originate from inaction of the liver, and this especially the case with chills and fever, internal fevers, and material diseases. Some doctors' bills and ward off disease like Simons Liver Regulator, a medicine that increases in popularity each year, and has become the most popular and best endorsed medicine in the market for the cure of liver or bowels diseases.—Telegraph, Dubuque, Iowa.

Dentist's Findings.

"Let 'er go Gallagher!"

The dentist cleaning his teeth in full force. The boss jeweler, optician and watchmaker is M. D. Kelly.

See the great display of Christmas goods at Howe & Galbreath's.

Rev. J. T. Barrow has accepted a call to the Baptist church at Princeton.

Some of the ducks now carry cases of silver heads of which are cigarette cases.

COTTAGE FOR RENT—On North Liberty street. Apply to H. F. McCamy, opposite the place.

TO RENT FOR 1888—Store room on corner Ninth and Main streets, opposite Phoenix Hotel. D. J. Gann.

County Attorney Jno. W. Payne receives for every conviction in a prosecution case 30% of the fine assessed.

FOR SALE—Nine saddle and harness horses for cash or good notes. Call on L. L. BUCKNER.

This is a great county for rabbits and also for quail. If any enterprising fellow would plant trees for them to climb.

It is time for those who are engineering the new railroad project to make a report. The citizens are becoming impatient.

Mr. William Hawks was robbed last Wednesday night of $4.75 in an unaccountable and mysterious manner. The theft was committed near the depot.

Adolph Meyer & Co. and Big Brothers & Co. filed attachments in the circuit clerk's office Tuesday morning against the store of Henry J. Jacobs.

D. Rodgers, of Hopkinsville, spent several days in the city last week the guest of Mr. Stevens's family—Todd County Progress.

The fourth page captured the editor this week and "scraped" the good copy—but the editor isn't kidding and he hopes the readers won't.

"Let 'er go Gallagher!"

The old Stevenson well at the entrance of the new cemetery has been cleaned out. Over three feet of refuse matter was removed and now a clear stream of water bubbles into the well.

Mr. R. W. Henry, of Hopkinsville, one of the brightest legal minds in the State, presided as special judge in circuit court yesterday in the case of Johnson vs. Riley—Todd County Progress.

The display of Howe & Galbreath's in the window of the new building on Main street is the greatest attraction on Main street now. Lovers of "high art" cannot fail to admire these beautiful and rare goods.

Thursday night no little commotion was caused by a drunken fellow riding a horse on the platform of the L. & N. railroad depot, on Ninth street.

The police were about the fellow got off and skipped without being arrested.

The jury in the Bryant Whitfield case, charged with manslaughter, returned a verdict in a verdict of not guilty, after having the case two hours yesterday.

The jury at first stood eight for acquittal and four for conviction—Clarksville Tobacco Leaf.

The young people of Hopkinsville have organized a cooking club which they have christened the "Culinary Club."

We would suggest to the young people over in Christian if they would like to see "real" fun, let them drop over and meet a few times with the Lotus Circle—Todd County Progress.

The New Era acknowledges with thanks an invitation to attend the program of lectures at Russellville.

The Lecturers are, Dr. A. A. Willette, D.D., Frank Beard, Col. J. P. Sanford and Hon. Geo. R. Wendling, and dates respectively, Dec. 9, 1887, and Dec. 21, 1887, and 4, 1888. Half-fare on all railroads.

We heard a prominent young lawyer say the other day that "man is taught to think of woman as a husband-hunter; that from the cradle to the altar, or to the preacher's desk, she is taught to marry." Consequently, she need only smile, greet him cordially, flatter him a little, and he believes she has won his intentions.

By the way, have you heard of the latest marriage on the table? It is that of one of our most prominent young business gentlemen, who is a partner in one of Hopkinsville's largest mercantile establishments. He will marry one of the loveliest girls in the Blue Grass region, whose presence will add much to the brilliancy of the social circles of Hopkinsville.

A Southern American photographer claims to have taken some excellent pictures of a cyclone which lingered in this county recently. When we see one of them we will feel a great deal more like believing the story. A photographer who can go out and set up his machine and face a cyclone, and hold it like a lead, and hold it like a lead, and hold it like a lead, must have lots of nerve.

One who is in a position to know says the coal oil trade of Clarksville has nearly doubled since regular trains commenced on the new road. That is, there is nearly double the quantity sold now than was sold this time last year. This is but one item, but it is an indicator.

There is no doubt that the general trade of the city has greatly increased and will continue to increase just as the tobacco trade has. Clarksville is never satisfied, she wants more trade and more people.

There are lots of good people in Hopkinsville yet, and they are most cordially invited to come over and share with us in this new prosperity—Clarksville Tobacco Leaf.

"The Japanese Bazaar" that the ladies of the Ninth Street Presbyterian church will give on the 9th and 10th in the basement of the church promises to be a quite unique affair. This is not the only attraction they offer.

A good substantial supper will be served from seven to ten, at which you can sip and eat to your heart's content (Admission free). The public is cordially invited to inspect this Japanese ware.

Prices fixed to suit the times. As to the attraction in the way of tables, the reputation of these ladies is already established—such salads, biscuits, turkey, coffee, would more than satisfy the most fastidious.

The building owned by Wood and others destroyed by Tuesday's fire, has a bloody history. Fifteen years ago it was the centre from which radiated many streams of crime.

Every deed known in the calendar of villainy has been enacted within its walls. In 1870 or '71 Jim Vandikes, Green Ledford, Zack Briscoe and others, all colored, quarreled over a game of cards, which terminated in a tragedy. Vandikes shot Briscoe through the heart, killing him instantly, and then put an ounce of coal lead into the right arm of Green Ledford. He then made his escape and remained a fugitive from justice thirteen years. In 1884 he was captured at Owensboro, brought to this city, stood trial, and is now serving his term in the penitentiary.

"Let 'er go Gallagher!"—See fourth page.

Mr. R. B. Kelling, gunsmith, on Ninth street, was closed Saturday by order of the Sheriff.

Mr. Wm. Armstrong has purchased part of Pink Edwards' property on Seventh street.

This is the month the people have on their lips the beautiful song, "The sweet boy-and-buys."

Mr. Dave Kennedy of Hopkinsville, was in the city several days this week—Todd County Progress.

The entertainment given by the Lawn Tennis Club at the Burdette House, last night promises to be a most enjoyable affair.

Mr. Chas. Wood, a popular railroad gentleman, occupies the position of conductor on the through train on this division of the L. & N. R.

Mr. Ferd Schuman's new building on Sixth street, near the depot, is completed and ready for occupancy. He will open up a confectionery store in one of the rooms this week.

There will be a meeting in the interest of the W. C. T. U. at the Christian church Sunday afternoon, Dec. 11th. Ministers and their congregations are earnestly requested to be present.

A "Bald-Head" theatrical performance is booked for the 13th inst. at the Opera House. It is unnecessary to say the approaching event will attract a crowded house—standing room only.

At present in Hopkinsville, the story of our lives from day to day is the story of water-works. The story is getting monotonous to some, but there is only one way to vary it, and that is to secure the works.

Lee Galine, who was shot and killed by Mr. Nolan, at Corleau a few days ago, is said to be the son of a merchant at Princeton. The vest was the missing property of Mr. Nolan.

Mr. R. S. Wootton, an enterprising young merchant of the Lone Star State, passed through the city Tuesday enroute to Lafayette to attend the Bogard-Davison nuptials, which came off Wednesday night at the Methodist church.

The most beautiful stock of Christmas goods ever seen in Hopkinsville is now to be found at Howe & Galbreath's "Jewelry Palace." Watches, jewelry, diamonds, &c., at prices lower than reliable goods have ever been sold for before.

In the trial of J. H. Harn, a compromise was effected on four of the indictments by the defendant's agreeing to forfeit to the Commonwealth $200, or $400 on each indictment. The trial of the other indictments is now being proceeded with.

Rev. Barrow, of Hopkinsville, has delivered a series of very able sermons at the Baptist church during the past several days. Considering the weather the attendance has been good at the services. The church will be greatly benefited—Princeton Banner.

Mr. J. F. Strain, representing the York Ice Machine Company, York, Pa., left for home Saturday, Dec. 3rd, having completed arrangements with parties in Hopkinsville for a ten-ton capacity ice machine to be put in operation in our city next (1888) season.

A flock of black birds, said to have been three miles in length and nearly a hundred yards wide, lately passed over South Nashville. Our informant says he saw them on Sunday night. They observed the heavens like a black cloud, and the noise of their flight was like the rush of a mighty wind.

E. E. Bourgard, a clever young farmer, and Miss Zula Davison will be married Wednesday night by E. E. Pale, at the Methodist church, at Lafayette. Miss Zula is an accomplished young lady and will make a true mate.

We extend congratulations to the prospective couple in advance of the occasion.

Mr. H. H. Goley, deputy sheriff under Sheriff John Boyd, returned home last Friday after an extended trip to the "wild and windy west." He journeyed in the company of Mr. J. H. Goley, who has resumed his former position. Mr. Sol Fritz, who held the position temporarily, performed the duties of the office with credit to himself and the satisfaction of his superior.

Mr. Thos. Ryan, a leading whiskey drummer of the firm of Pierce & Ryan of Nashville, was in the city last Saturday, and in conversation with a reporter said that one of the most successful travelers in York State is a negro, who knows his business thoroughly, is respected by all who know him, and, as far as known, is the only colored drummer in the United States.

At the young people's meeting, which was held at the Christian church, Dec. 4th, Dr. Andrew Bargant was elected president and Mr. R. W. Henry, vice-president for the ensuing month, and Miss Genevieve Anderson secretary for the next quarter. A vote of thanks was tendered Miss Annie Tandy, the retiring secretary, for the efficient manner in which she has served the Society.

McElree Wine of Cadiz is for sale by the following merchants in Christian county.

Sunday night Mr. Harry Slevay, son of Hiram Slevay, while enroute into the city, and when this side of the toll bridge, near the Princeton road, was met by some person who leaped in front of the horse's head and attempted to stop the horse probably for the purpose of robbery. Fortunately the animal was well broken and plunged forward. Mr. Slevay accidentally dropped the reins which caused the horse to run away, thus preventing further trouble.

Mr. Ross, ticket agent at the Louisville & Nashville depot, at Nashville, sold three tickets Friday to Liberia, and one to Liverpool. Nothing strange in this. But it is made an unusual occurrence from the fact that the purchasers were three colored men from New Orleans. They appeared to be extremely well-to-do negroes, for they paid $237.50 each for tickets, when it is possible to so travel as to reach that distant point for little more than $150.

Mr. Chas. Latham has on exhibition in his large show window a miniature home with all its furniture. On the exterior of the house is a mass of gilt curtains, handkerchiefs and lace, and the interior is a model parlor. The walls are decorated with pendings, and the floor is covered with a beautiful carpet and the room furnished with a miniature parlor set and wigs, complete.

The miniature home was commenced by Col. J. L. Edmundson, managing editor of the Hopkinsville (Ky.) New Era. Col. Edmundson is a versatile writer and one of the most successful newspaper men in the country. He is unostentatious and satisfied to walk in the quiet paths of life, and this may always be given as the keynote to genuine merit.

He will favor the readers of the Era with a most successful correspondence.

Referring to a recent letter, the Sunday Growler (Wichita Ka) makes the following pleasant remarks about our local reporter, Mr. Edmundson:

"The Growler this week prints an interesting and very correspondence from Col. J. L. Edmundson, managing editor of the Hopkinsville (Ky.) New Era. Col. "Let 'er go Gallagher!"—M. Frankel & Sons.

The health of the community is good. The doctors are all complaining of "hard times."

Have you seen the beautiful BURNING WARE at Howe & Galbreath's? It is simply elegant and just the thing for a Christmas present.

Ballard Fourqurean, the gentleman who was shot on the public highway a few days ago, is proving rapidly, and considered out of danger.

Now is your time to have your pictures taken. Cabinet Photographs reduced to $2 per dozen at Anderson's Gallery. Come at once.

It is a fact not generally known that Hopkinsville now supports a Law and Order club, organized for the purpose of enforcing the prohibition law. Judge R. T. Petree has been employed to aid in the prosecution of all cases brought before the club.

We have it that the Law and Order Club have notified various grocery firms and confectionaries that shaking the dice for cigars and raffling is gambling, and that prosecution will follow. This is a most judicious move, and there is a stake to be played for in gambling the same as betting on a horse race.

Mrs. Joie Gregory, wife of Mr. Andrew J. Gregory, near Church Hill, died at her residence on the 6th inst. of consumption. Her funeral was preached Wednesday afternoon by Rev. J. W. Bingham, of this city. Mrs. Gregory was a most estimable lady and beloved by all who knew her. She was a wife of but two years.

Died, at his farm in Todd county, Ky., Nov. 11, 1887, Volney Coleman, aged fifty-nine years. He was seriously ill of dropsy two weeks. Mr. Coleman was the only remaining son of Robert Coleman, who came from Virginia in the year 1785, and set a representative of the county in the legislature and a practicing lawyer at that time.

Mr. J. J. Cruesman, well known among Clarksville's representative business men, advertises in this issue a list of good things for Christmas. He handles the best goods in the market and a visit to his establishment for supplies will be highly appreciated. Orders will receive prompt attention and be satisfactorily filled. The house is thoroughly reliable and does a large wholesale and retail business.

A $5,000 Blaze.

About 11 o'clock Tuesday night fire was discovered burning through the roof and windows of the ten-story alley time before the arrival of the fire company, and when they did appear upon the scene the flames had gained considerable headway. The inflammable material in the building burned so rapidly that it took but a short while for the flames to spread to the brick structures on either side. Two streams of water were poured into the burning building on Seventh street, but the water supply was inadequate and did little or no good. The men then turned the streams on to the Henry Roush building, and the fire company to prevent the sparks from lighting the roofs.

The building occupied by Smith & Holt was owned by C. F. Nolan. Messrs Smith & Holt saved a portion of their stock but all in a damaged condition. Nolan's building, counter and shelving were insured with Callis & Morrow, for $1,000. Smith & Holt's stock of groceries was insured by the Commercial Union of Louisville, Ky., on the Palmyra road. This place contains 182 acres, more or less, lies well watered, has on it important improvements, and is very productive. The place is rented for $188, at a good price, and the notes for said rent will be turned over to the purchaser.

Terms of sale—$1,000 cash, and the balance in four equal payments of one, two, three and four years. Sale at Howell, Ky.

Out on a Pout.

The trial of the case of the Commonwealth vs. J. H. Harn for violation of the prohibition law, before Judge Winfree last Friday, resulted in a verdict for the defendant under peremptory instructions from the court.

The testimony on both sides had been taken when defendant's attorney moved for peremptory instructions on the ground that there had been produced no evidence that the law alleged to have been violated was in existence at the time the offense was committed. County Attorney Payne, seeing the point, retired gracefully and the jury was instructed to find for the defendant. This was on only three of the seventeen indictments against Mr. Harn and his trial on the other fourteen will be resumed to-day. In the meantime the defendant has been in the custody of the sheriff. Mr. Payne, it is thought, will not overlook the aforesaid rather pertinent evidence in the remainder of the cases.

Kicked by a Mule.

William McLaughlin, a colored man in the employ of Mr. Tobe Stark, the literary editor, was met with quite a serious accident last Wednesday morning about 10 o'clock. He stepped into one of the stables occupied by a vicious mule to gather up some corn-cobs. The mule suddenly let fly one of his hind legs and planted it directly over the right eye of the unfortunate man, cutting a fearful gash. He was also struck on the cheek. Another blow landed on the heart breaking a rib bone. He was skinned up terribly about the left knee. When picked up it was thought he was dead. A physician was summoned and his wounds bandaged. He was doing well Friday afternoon.

As a remedy for brain trouble, everybody coincides in recommending Lacuna.

MRS. R. I. MARTIN, Mgr.

Council Meeting.

The council held a regular session Tuesday afternoon, with all members present. Nothing of vital importance came up for consideration. Auditor and treasurer reported returned taxes and school bonds of one hundred dollars each collected by the city and same burned in open council. Appeal ordered from quarterly to circuit court in case of Fritz Bro's vs. city.

J. W. Fritchett and R. T. McDaniel were appointed judges of the city election, P. F. Rogers clerk and M. D. Bowles, sheriff.

An ordinance declaring that the city court-room and hall should only be used for the purposes for which it was built, viz., holding city court and other city business, was passed.

Geo. H. Smith resplined from city jail for thirty days.

Having no further business on hand the meeting adjourned.

The Popular Approval

Of the efforts of the California Fig Syrup Co., to present to the public an agreeable and effective substitute for the bitter nauseous liver medicines and cathartics formerly in use is as gratifying to our country as it is creditable to the good taste of the public. The large and rapidly increasing sale of Syrup of Figs, and the promptly beneficial effects of a single dose are convincing proofs that it is the most easily taken and the most pleasant of all the remedies known.

Rev. J. U. Spurling has just closed a protracted meeting at Brick church, with fifteen additions.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Higgins, of Lamasco, Logan county, are visiting the family of J. U. Spurling, his wife's father.

Most all of the public schools have closed out in this part of the county in the last few days.

Miss May Wood's school closed yesterday, the 2nd inst., with great credit to herself as well as her pupils.

She had an exhibition with a good many spectators from a distance. The programme was made up of essays, songs, dialogues, speeches and good instrumental music, and closed by a distribution of presents from a tree for the scholars.

Rev. Spurling gave the children a short talk. Mr. F. H. Renshaw, the county superintendent, arrived just in time to express his opinion that we had the best country school in the county, then the school closed for this year.

Our little town is situated on the Hopkinsville and Princeton road eight miles from Hopkinsville and has about thirty-five inhabitants, one dry goods and grocery store, kept by Willie Wood, one blacksmith shop, a post-office that does a good business and a splendid tobacco barn.

Bennettsville Notes.

EDITOR NEW ERA:

Mrs. Bettie Tuck died on the 27th inst. of typhoid fever, at her residence near Lafayette. She had long been a member of the Presbyterian church and was highly esteemed by all who knew her. She leaves four children all of whom are grown. The writer extends sympathy to the grief-stricken family.

Mrs. Andrew Gregory is lying quite ill at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Eugene Coleman.

Mrs. Thomas Elliott has been quite sick for several weeks.

Miss Emma Tuck is quite ill.

Miss Lizzie Owen, of the Church Hill neighborhood, was visiting Miss Mary Pink Sherrill recently.

Mr. James A. McKenzie was visiting relatives here not long since.

The school-house at this place burned down last week. Miss Minnie Stevenson is teaching. The trustees immediately rented a vacant house for her and the school is still progressing. Miss Stevenson is very much liked as a teacher and is also quite a popular young lady.

The forest fire were raging here for two weeks and did great damage, but the recent rains and snows have conquered their fiery tongues.

Misses Kemple Sherrill and Brownie Crews, accompanied by Messrs. Will H. Stevenson and Ernest Crenshaw, recently paid a visit to friends near Cadiz.

Miss Eliza Haley, of Dallas, Texas, who has been visiting Miss Liza Thacker for several weeks, has returned home.

Miss Mittie Dowell, who is teaching near your city, paid a visit to her mother last week.

The young people are beginning to make their plans for the holidays. That they may reach the full fruition of their brightest hopes and expectations, and that their lines may be cast in pleasant places, is the sincere wish of
