THE BENTON TRIBUNE.

VOLUME 5.

BENTON, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 9, 1893.

NUMBER 42.

PADUCAH ITEMS.

We spent one day in Paducah last week and we found it about as dull as Benton was before the railroad was built. Business seems to be at a stand still, and the people are all sitting about talking watching their rent bills and the banks, both of which most of them seem to think will come out all right. Below are only a few things we saw and heard while on our short visit.

We saw Jim Ezell sitting in the back door of his store reading the funny column in the News. He said the only kind of customers he had were men who wanted good advice and cold drink of ice water.

We heard that W. H. Brian was at home sick reading the New Testament. Good.

We saw that B. Weille & Son would soon be in the finest clothing store in Paducah and that they would be headquarters for such goods.

We heard that D. A. Yeiser, the present good and popular mayor, had "busted" Tamany. We also heard that Tamany was a democratic organization but that it was afraid to make a nomination for the office of mayor; that its members were between the "devil and the deep blue sea" on the mayor's race, some for Tulley, some for Yeiser and some for a nomination. We heard that its present and awful political condition was pitiable indeed.

We saw Senator John W. Ogilvie who is a candidate for the State Senate, and he believes he can be elected again.

We heard several persons say they would not cry to hear that the Sam Jones tabernacle was burned to the ground; that it was a nuisance.

We saw several Marshall county boys acting as conductors and motormen on the city street car lines.

We saw that the seat of Arch Pool in the News office was vacant; that he was out at his papa's slightly indisposed.

The little groceries about in the rural districts of the city are doing the best business just at this time.

Two candidates of the State Senate will be enough for such a city as Paducah to furnish at one time.

There is some dust in Paducah just now.

Frank Gilbert an old Marshall county boy handles the cash in the post office. He is a good business man and enjoys the confidence of everybody.

T. B. Lyles is one of the all round business men in the city. He was born full of fun and the stock has never grown less to this good day.

W. C. Clark is holding the post office down in fine shape. He has gently but firmly requested the resignation of the republican letter carriers which he hopes to see very soon.

There are 356 Marshall countyites now citizens of Paducah all of whom are doing the best they can to make good citizens.

Miss Kate Tulley is a lady of fine business attainments and her services are always in demand by the best business houses in the city.

We had the pleasure of taking dinner with our little brother at his miserable boarding house conducted and so successfully managed by the Misses Singleton. They very deservedly enjoy a large patronage by the best men and women in the city. They are social, agreeable, intelligent and know exactly how to make their numerous guests feel at home both in the parlor and in the dining room.

Charles Gilbert is very sick at his father's residence.

Dick Sutherland is still at his post of duty where he like poor Drummond expects to live and die. But few better men than our friend Dick.

Calvin Dishman is doing well and making money.

Man Clark and his family are doing well and seem to be prosperous and happy. He and Dick are both Marshall boys of whom we feel proud.

Westie Flowers is holding down the grocery business of Mr. Randolph and is enjoying a good trade.

Zack Wyatt is at hard work but sticks close to his work.

John Nimmo of Briensburg and Henderson Person of Benton are street car conductors and both enjoy the confidence of the employers.

Bud Dale the big peoples' party man feeds more people than all the other hotels. He's a hummer and don't you forget it.

J. K. Bondurant & Son are continually shipping large lots of groceries to all parts of the county. He is a successful wholesaler of whom his friends in this county are justly proud.

We made some inquiry concerning the race for county superintendent and found that Prof. J. M. Gilbert has a good chance to win his second term.

Col. Dow Husbands says he wants to attend another "old southern harmony singing." He is an old timer and enjoys them.

Mrs. Birdie Bayne the daughter of Mrs. W. H. Brian has been very ill for several days but is now better.

Paducah hustles the insurance agents when they arrive in that city without taking out license.

"Brace Up." Is a tantalizing admonition to those who at this season feel all tired out, weak without appetite and discouraged. But the way in which Hood's Sarsaparilla builds up the tired frame and gives a good appetite, is really wonderful. So we say, "Take Hood's and it will brace you up."

For a general family cathartic we confidently recommend Hood's Pills.

The Difference.

In March, 1889, Mr. Cleveland turned over the government to Harrison and the Republicans, with more than one hundred million dollars surplus in the treasury and the times prosperous.

In March, 1893, Harrison turned the government over to Cleveland and the Democrats, with no surplus in the treasury, the times panicky, business confidence destroyed, silver depreciated, and banks failing.

A school boy can see and tell the difference.

On August 7th the new Democratic congress assembled, when for the first time in 32 years, the democrats will have complete control of all branches of the government. They have a difficult work before them to bring to order out of chaos, prosperity from ruin, that the genius of democracy will prove equal to the situation, and that in reasonable time prosperity will again bless the land.—Hickman Courier.

Many Persons are broken down from overwork or household cares. Brown's Iron Bitters rebuilds the system, aids digestion, removes excess of bile, and cures malaria. Get the genuine.

AL'ABANDON.

If you don't understand the financial question you have plenty of company.

An exchange says that too many young men try to make their conversation spicy with cloves.

A Louisville woman was afraid the bank would break, drew out $350, and in less than an hour was robbed of the money.

It is said that the eagle is a very noble bird, but the average hen contributes more to the comfort of the human race.

It will be a good idea to keep your eye on the young man who would rather wear a $50 suit of clothes with $10 in his pocket than to wear a $10 suit with $50 in his pocket.

The Jellico Advance says that persons are allowed to sell whisky free on Sunday, but if you sell a box of blacking or pound of sugar the fine is five dollars and costs.

The total number of pensioners dropped from the rolls since March 4, 1893, is 245, and the total number of pensioners suspended since March 4, pending a further investigation of their cases, is 5,000.

The Cynthia Democrat says, "The new comet is a failure. Its tail is no longer than a politician's memory. The republicans will, of course, charge this paucity of caudal appendage to a lack of confidence in the democratic administration."

Don't send the horse reporter to any more hangings," said the proprietor of a Texas paper to the editor. "Why not?" "Proprietor—" "In this report of the double hanging he has it that the two entries came in 'neck and neck. In reporting executions levity is out of place."

Farmer Larkin Delph, of the vicinity of Anderson, Ind., got scared about the financial condition of his bank and drew out his balance of $500 and sewed it up in a bed tick. His wife concluded to put new straw in the bed and did so. She burned the old straw and the $500 went up in the flames.

Gov. Flower, of New York, received a communication from two lady residents of that state asking his permission to don male attire. They say that farm help is scarce, and petticoats being very inconvenient, they want to wear pants so that they can better do man's work. Of course the governor gallantly granted their request.

A young lady named Hetty Irwin, living at Martin, a country town near Vanceburg, has just completed a quilt that is quite a novelty of its kind. She has devoted long months to its construction. It represents a complete county and precinct map of Kentucky, all the towns, postoffices and various streams located. She is to be married soon.

Few people know that the Kentucky legislature, during its recent session, or rather recently adjourned session, passed a bill which was approved and is now a law, and which provides for the teaching of temperance ideas in the common schools of the state. The enactment of the law was the result of efforts on the part of the Women's Temperance Union of America.

The section of the new constitution which says the judge of the criminal court shall on motion of either party instruct the jury in writing, has brought out an important ruling from Circuit Judge Green, of Williamstown, who decided that in view of this provision of the constitution, every juror must be able to read these instructions for himself and that a man who could not read and write is thereby disqualified for service as a juror in such cases.

One of the cleverest inventions ever passed on by the patent office is the machine for sticking common pins in the papers in which they are sold. The contrivance brings up the pins in rows, draws the paper into position, clamps it into two lines, then at a single push passes the pins through the paper and sets them in position. The machine almost seems to think as it works, and to examine the paper to see if it is properly folded before pushing the pins into place.

Mr. Thomas Batte, editor of the Graphic, Texarkana, Arkansas, has found what he believes to be the best remedy in existence for the flux. His experience is well worth remembering. He says: "Last summer I had a very severe attack of flux. I tried almost every known remedy, none giving relief. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy was recommended to me. I purchased a bottle and received almost immediate relief. I continued to use the medicine and was entirely cured. I take pleasure in recommending this remedy to any person suffering with such a disease, as in my opinion it is the best medicine in existence." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by R. H. Starks.

Marriage Maxims.

Never taunt with a past mistake. Never allow a request to be repeated.

Never both be angry at the same time.

Never meet without a loving welcome.

Let self denial be the daily aim and practice of each.

Never talk at one another, alone or in company.

Never let the sun go down upon your anger grievance.

Neglect the whole world besides rather than one another.

Never make a remark at the expense of the other—it is meanness.

Never part for a day without loving words to think of during absence.

Never find fault unless it is perfectly certain a fault has been committed, and always speak lovingly.

The very nearest approach to domestic happiness on earth is the cultivation of absolute unselfishness.

Never let any faults you have committed go by until you have frankly confessed and asked forgiveness.

The success of Mrs. Annie M. Beam, of McKeesport, Penn., in the treatment of diarrhoea in her children will undoubtedly be of interest to many mothers. She says: "I spent several weeks in Johnstown, Pa., after the great flood, on account of my husband being employed there. We had several children with us, two of whom took the diarrhoea very badly. I got some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy from Rev. Chapman. It cured both of them. I knew of several other cases where it was equally successful. I think it cannot be excelled and cheerfully recommend it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by R. H. Starks.

Investigation Invited.

Of course it is proper to inquire about what any man says, is it true?

The most rigid investigation is invited into the testimonials published in behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Special attention is called to the high character of the persons whose testimonials are published by the proprietors of this medicine, as evidence by their occupations or endorsements. In fact no matter where a testimonial in behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla may be from, it is reliable and as worthy of confidence as if it came from your most trusted neighbor.

WED. EVENING, AUG. 9.

The officers at Clinton are making it warm for the vendors of ardent spirits.

Kentucky paid into the internal revenue department last year $26,681,820. Only one state paid in more than Kentucky, and that was Illinois.

W. C. McCune, the great editor of the National Economist, has started him a new paper in Washington called the Political Economist. What next?

Alex C. Brown, one of our old drummer friends, will be a candidate for representative from the counties of Hickman and Fulton. Go in Alex, we are for you.

The ku-klux took a man and his wife out of bed in Grant county last week and whipped them unmercifully. Ten of them have been arrested and are each under a $300 bond.

During a thunder storm a week ago lightning struck the Baptist church in Princeton and burned it to the ground. The loss was $4,000 with no insurance. Why don't people insure their churches?

Frank Holt, charged with complicity in the murder of Abbie Oliver Delaney, was found guilty and sentenced to the penitentiary for two years. If he were guilty he should have been hung.

Local option is not a step toward prohibition. Every local option victory takes the voters of that district out of the national prohibition army, and leaves it that much weaker to fight the common foe.—Southern Journal.

Wrong brother. If you can't get what you want, take the next best thing to it.

The saloon men have the city council of Fulton by the throat. It has been charging four saloons $1,000 each, but now it is called together to reduce the price of license from $1,000 to $200. When that is done a sad day will dawn upon the morals and prosperity of that beautiful city.

Capt. Stone is now at his post in Washington, where he will remain during the extra session of congress doing all he can to relieve the people of all their true ills, but not of their fancied woes. He is one congressman that the people feel perfectly free to trust. They have no fears of a trade or sell out while he is their congressman.

There is no doubt but the whiskey interest had control of the last legislature. It shaped and made such laws as it thought would promote its interest. It put a $50 unconstitutional tax on drug stores; it smothered the local option law, and did many other things too tedious to mention. It is now taxing the Keely Institutes for furnishing whiskey to its patients, and is also making arrangements to place a heavy tax on the prohibition party for the hand it is taking in the work. The next legislature will be called upon to levy a tax of $100 on each temperance lodge and charge each speaker $5 for each oration on the subject.

THE FACTS.

Eighteen years have come and gone since Marshall and Lyon counties have been voting together as one legislative district, and during that time there have been nine members to the general assembly elected by these two counties and for the information of our readers we give the following bit of useful information. Marshall county has furnished the following representatives during the past eighteen years.

1877-80 W. M. Reed served 101 days.
1879-80 J. W. Dyess " 128 "
1881-2 W. C. Holland " 148 "
1885-6 W. M. Reed " 139 "
1887-8 W. M. Reed " 127 "

Total 643

At $5 per day shows that this county has furnished a representative five sessions and that for these sessions they have drawn from the public crib besides mileage the sum of $3,215.

Lyon county has furnished four representatives:

1875-6 W. J. Stone served 81 days.
1883-4 W. J. Stone " 134 "
1889-90 W. J. Nall " 149 "
1891-2 J. C. Green " 531 "

Total 895

which shows that that county has furnished a representative 252 days more than Marshall and that its members have drawn from the state the snug little sum of $4,475 or $1,260 more than this county. This carries out the policy and fairness of our position a few weeks ago that it is Marshall county's time to send a representative. It's true as we said then that this county in point of members has had one more representative than Lyon but in point of service that county has furnished a representative 252 days more than this, and for this extra service she has received $1,260. If they want to charge this county up with the member of the late Con Con we can only say that now we are even on that, that Lyon furnished a member of the Con Con that was held in 1849-50 and we now want to say that when the next constitutional convention meets we will be for a man from Lyon county. Let us have the representative this time, Lyon next and we will all be happy.

New Democratic County Committee.

The democrats met at the various voting places in the county last Saturday and elected the following committeemen: Birmingham, J. W. Holland; Ross, T. N. Jones; Olive, Wm Sutherland; Benton, W. M. Reed; Darnall, J. T. Irvan; Smith's, David Reeves; Oak Level, T. H. Hall; Staton's, Baxter Kuykendall; Calvert City, J. C. Noble; Gilbertsville, R. F. Jenkins; Briensburg, G. W. Lemon.

The committee met at the court house Monday and elected W. M. Reed, chairman and J. W. Holland secretary. The committee instructed the chairman to negotiate with the chairman of the committee of Lyon county relative to the propriety of calling a convention or primary election to nominate a candidate for the legislature for this legislative district. When such action is taken by the district committee and the time fixed for said primary election or convention then the county committee will meet and order one for county superintendent, so as to hold both on the same day. It is also desired that a senatorial primary be held on the same day so as to curtail expenses.

There was some discussion in the committee-room as to the best method of making the nomination by primary election or district delegate conventions. Whenever anything but a primary election is called then the committee makes a mistake. These elections have always given satisfaction, in fact they are the cause of a more perfect organization among the democrats, and at this particular time they should be continued, and if there are any candidates who do not want to help pay their part of the expenses let them get out of the race and way of those who will assist in paying the expenses.

DEATH OF T. J. MOSS.

The Well-Known Contractor's Life Journey Ended.

Col. T. J. Moss, the prominent St. Louis contractor, died at 11:45 o'clock last at his home, 4303 Delmar avenue, of appendicitis. His illness has been very short, but his death was not entirely unexpected, serious symptoms having set in almost immediately. He was taken sick a week ago Tuesday. Last Sunday night a turn for the worse took place, and he was seized with chills. His physician, Dr. H. H. Mudd, was absent in Chicago, but was summoned to his bedside by wire, and came at once by special train. It was found that an operation would be necessary, and it was successfully performed by Dr. Mudd, assisted by Drs. W. E. Fickel, H. G. Mudd, J. S. Kimbrough and G. S. Sluder. The patient, however, did not improve as rapidly as was expected and death resulted last night.

The deceased was one of the most promising young business men in the west. Although only 35 years of age his wealth is estimated at $1,000,000. He was born in Tennessee and came to Missouri 15 years ago a penniless lad. He was reared in Howard and Randolph counties and came to St. Louis eight years ago. As the largest railroad tie contractor in this country he became known all over the United States. He was president of the Paducah, Tennessee and Alabama Railway company, of Tennessee Midland Railway company, of the Tennessee River Construction company, of the Cape Girardeau Transportation company and the Mississippi River Packet company, owners of the steamer New Idlewild and others.

Mr. Moss was married in 1885 to Miss Fannie Givens of Howard county. The widow and two children survive him. They were at his bedside at the family residence at the dissolution.—St. Louis Republic.

The people all along the line of our railroad were much pained to learn of the sudden and unexpected death of Mr. Moss. He was a man of which any city or county could well feel proud. He was the kind of a business man that did a country good. It is to that poor penniless boy of 15 years ago that we now owe for the building of our railroad. For as sure as the sun shines if it had not been for the business pluck and energy of Thomas J. Moss we would today be without a railroad. We know of no business man with whom we had so little acquaintance that we so much regret his death as that of T. J. Moss. The business all along the line, so far as it relates to cross-ties, will continue in the future as in the past.

Elva, Ky.

Tribune: Henry King happened to a serious accident the other day while assisting Johnston, Boulnois and King to move their saw mill from here to Oaks. Mr. King was standing near while A. J. Phillips was using an axe. The axe flew off the handle and struck Mr. King's foot, nearly cutting it off. He very badly hurt and is liable to be a cripple for some time.

J. R. Johnson is about to own all of Elva. He has bought out the store of J. C. Barnes & Bro., is postmaster, express agent, ticket agent and now proposes to stop the cider trade at this place. He is a son-in-law of Mr. John Raper, and is one of the best young men in the county; he has many friends here and will do well.

Several mad dogs have been killed, and we expect many more will soon follow. The citizens are loading up their guns, not for bear, but for dogs.

We need rain very bad, and crops look sick. Little Johnnie Foster of Murray, was in Elva last week.

Bewilla Barnes has returned from a visit to Murray, where she has been visiting her brother J. C. Barnes.

We are all getting ready for the barbecue on August 12th, and expect to have a big time that day.

Railroad Racket.

H. B. Swinney, the big tie man, passed through the city Saturday going to Paducah.

Since the burning of the depot the loaders in North Benton are hard up for a place of rendezvous.

Mr. S. P. Simpson, of Murray, passed through the city Saturday returning from a business visit to his old home at Woodville.

Capt. W. F. Lambdin, the onliest passenger agent of Paducah, went down the road Wednesday working up World's fair business for his steamboat lines.

Agent Luckman of the P. T. & A., is now occupying a box-car as a temporary office. The tobacco shed on the side track is being utilized for a freight room.

L. Minor, route agent of the Southern Express company, was in the city last week looking after the losses sustained by his company in the recent fire at the depot.

Auditor A. R. Meyers, of the P. T. & A., passed down the line Wednesday and stopped off to take a look at the remains of the depot.

All the engines, coaches and cabooses of the P. T. & A. road are carrying huge streamers of grape out of respect to the late Col. T. J. Moss, president of the road.

Construction Boss B. B. Wear, and Supervisor Will Hale, passed down the road Saturday afternoon. They spent an hour or two in Benton on business.

Briensburg, Ky.

The continued dry weather in this vicinity has damaged crops to a great extent, yet we hope the rain will come in time to prevent being a total failure.

Protracted meetings are the go now. Brother Dallas and Kirkpatrick closed a meeting yesterday at Palma with one addition to the M. E. church.

Dr. Albert Freeman and his bride arrived Saturday evening from Texas, whither he went to get her.

Miss Chessie Reinhart of Union City, Tenn., is visiting her aunt Mrs. F. T. Foust. She is quite a charming young lady and has many friends here.

Miss Ada Thompson, who has been on an extended visit to her aunt, Mrs. Dr. Mooney, has returned to her home in Hart county. She made many friends while here who regret her going.

Mrs. Little and daughter, of Paducah, visited Mrs. Dr. Graham last week. Mrs. Little is a sister of Mrs. Graham.

Misses Jessie and Zenia Walker of Birmingham have been visiting relatives here for a week or two past, but have returned home.

Miss Bernise Lachhead, a talented young lady of Denver, Col., who is on a visit to her mother in Evansville, Ind., visited the family of Mr. F. N. Burradell for a few days last week.

Messrs Luther Carson and Otis Brian of Kirksey, visited Mr. Pinch Burradell Saturday and Sunday last. FERN.

Tested and Proved for Years.

TERRY, Miss., April 21, 1893. We have been using Dr. King's Royal Germetner for several years in our family and have recommended it to many others. It has always done what is claimed for it, as far as tried, and I regard it as the best medicine we have ever had in our family.

MRS. J. J. HALBERT.

Bad State of Affairs.

Last Wednesday night Harry Sanders, one of the proprietors of the riding gallery, and Rufus Lents became involved in a difficulty in which Lents was knocked down by Sanders, but not seriously hurt however. This engendered bad blood on the part of Lents and his friends and they remained in town near the gallery all night trying to get hold of Sanders, but he remained in his room all night and avoided further trouble. A lot of young men were noisy and troublesome all night, during which they defied arrest by the sheriff, and shot their pistols off several times, cursed loud and long using very bad language and did as they pleased. The officers so far have paid no attention to them.

AN ORDINANCE.

AN Ordinance to extend the corporate limits of the town of Benton.

The Board of Trustees of the town of Benton do ordain as follows: That all of that territory included within the boundary hereinafter named is hereby annexed and made a part of the town of Benton, viz: Beginning at a walnut tree the northwest corner of the town of Benton, running thence due north to the north line of the right-of-way of the Paducah, Tennessee and Alabama railroad, thence eastward with the north line of said right-of-way parallel with said Paducah, Tennessee and Alabama railroad to Lick creek, thence in a southern direction with the meanders of said Lick creek to the point where it intersects with the north line of the present boundary of the said town of Benton, thence west with said north boundary line to the walnut corner the place of beginning.

JOHN H. STROW, Chairman
M. B. COOPER, Clerk.

Of course Jim Lemon, of the Benton Tribune, had to aid at the Hazel singing. Sort of Lemon aid as it were. He loves to show off that sweet voice.—Murray Item.

Yes, but he is not stuck on his "sweet voice" more than the Item man is on his sweet face.

Is your life worth 50 cents. Dumb Chilly; Ague; Congestive Chills; Death. This is the evolution of that malarial chilly sensation. Stop it in time. Plantation chill cure will do it, or it will cost you nothing. Sold by R. H. Starks, Benton. Barry & Stephens, Benton. J. R. Lemon, Benton. M. L. Chestnut, Gilbertsville. J. A. Jones, Gilbertsville. Senator Ogilvie gave an account of his stewardship Monday at the court house in a speech of nearly two hours. He was answered by J. C. Gilbert in a speech of like length. Mr. Gilbert paid his respects to the senator in a way that was anything but pleasant. His criticisms of the late legislature and the part that the senator from this district played in it were caustic and severe. The senator says he was not expecting such an onslaught from his neighbor, but he will ready for him at the next battle.

The Wonderful Kola Compound

Nature's Sure Cure for Asthma and Hay Fever.

Kola Compound, or Himalya is nature's sure cure for Asthma and Hay Fever and is the only remedy ever discovered that is a Constitutional cure for those diseases. In other words it is a TRUE SPECIFIC, while all other remedies are mere anti-spasmodics which may relieve at the time, but have no real effect in preventing future attacks. Himalya is a TRUE SPECIFIC and is sold under a STRICT GUARANTEE to cure in the above named diseases. Sufferers are requested to send for pamphlets, etc., describing Kola Compound. Address A. T. Sims, Sole agent for Jackson's Purchase, Fair Dealing, Ky.

OLIVE, Ky., June 6, 1893. This is to certify that I have been subject to Asthma for 20 years, and after trying every known remedy during that time without relief, except temporary, I commenced the use of the Kola Compound and after having used two and a-half bottles of that I have never had a symptom of asthma. About Money.

The first English gold coins were minted in 1257.

Absolutely pure gold is said to be 24 karats fine.

Many Roman tin coins are known to be in existence.

From 1828 to 1845 platinum coins were minted in Russia.

The United States silver 3c piece was first coined in 1851.

The gold coins of Great Britain contain one-twelfth alloy.

Aristotle says that "money exists not by nature but by law."

The English mint was established by Athelstane about 928.

The Spartans had an iron coinage, no other being allowed.

Julius Caesar was the first man to put his own image on a coin.

The notes used by the Bank of England cost exactly 1c each.

The Lydians were the first to coin money, about B. C. 1600.

The first coining machine was invented by Bruchner in 1533.

In the tenth century there were thirty-eight mints in England.

The first colonial coinage was minted in Massachusetts in 1652.

The American cents of 1787 bore the motto "Mind Your Business."

Brass money was coined in Rome by Servius Tullius as early as 573 B. C.

Herodotus says that Croesus was the first sovereign to make coins of gold.

In the fifth century B. C. refined copper was deemed as precious as gold.

The coinage of 20c pieces began in 1875 and was discontinued in 1878.

The most ancient coins are of electrum four parts gold to one of silver.

In 1503 the first English shilling was minted. It bore the King's image.

The coinage of trade dollars began in 1874 and was discontinued in 1878.

Homer mentions brass money as in use B. C. 1184, among the Greeks.

Down to the Norman conquest the Britons had "living money" and "dead money"; the former being slaves and cattle, the latter metal.

God Bless the Country Boy.

We have spent much of the last thirty-four years in farmers' homes and have seen that boy—the country lad as he is. He arises early;

he is acquainted with and interested in all the stock and poultry; he is acquainted with every bug and worm, weed and cereal on the farm. He has a good appetite and good digestion, his sleep is sweet and refreshing. He reads thoughtfully the great book of nature, whose leaves open before him day after day. He loves his father and mother, calls them such, and he loves his sweetheart as no town boy does, and is loved in turn by her as no town boy is.

He works hard all day and when night comes he enjoys a frolic with a healthful zest, and then lies down to peaceful dreams. He grows to a man's estate with the rich heritage of good health, a clean, pure character, industrial habits, a mind well stored with practical knowledge gained by the fireside and in the country, affectionate and trusting in his disposition, polite and courteous, and in every way equipped for the battle of life. He knows nothing of the follies and vices, the mockery and hollow-ness so often seen in city life. He is a grown up man, and the chief places in business, in the city and in a nation come into his possession. He has the stuff in him that qualifies him under guidance for eminent statesmanship, for military renown, for professional success for judicial distinctions and for the grandest citizenship. The grandest men of our nation have been, and the grandest men of the future will be found among the country boys of our land. He may at times think his country home plain and unattractive, his life one of drudgery and humdrum, and may at times envy the town boy and his more exciting life and opportunities, but let him not worry. He has a far richer heritage, and the future will be a satisfaction to him.

A Popular and Useful Book.

Bro. D. M. Green is the sole agent in the county of the popular and fast-selling book "Columbia," which gives a complete and interesting history of Columbia or the United States from 1492 to the opening of the World's Exposition in 1892-93. It gives an authentic history of Columbus and his discovery and the "Plan of the Federal Government," and National Administrations from the time of Washington to Harrison. In fact it contains the very important information which would take the student of history years and years to select from the musty pages of difficult history a like information. We have not the space to notice more of the important features of this useful book, but we would take pleasure in saying one of these books should be in every household. D. M. Green of Calvert City is the agent and will take pleasure in selling it to all who desire it.

An exchange says, "Although whales grow to enormous size, sometimes 80 and even 90 feet long, the throat of the common whale is so small that it cannot swallow a bite as large as a tea biscuit." The one that tackled Jonah must have been an "uncommon" whale.

Cheap Rates to Chicago.

Tickets at this rate will be sold via Carbondale and Illinois Central or East St. Louis and Wabash railroad, Chicago and Alton, Jacksonville Southeastern line and Vandalia and Illinois Central.

For further information, tickets, etc., call on or address C. C. McCarty, Palmer House, Paducah, Ky.

Mr. J. C. Boswell, one of the best known and most respected citizens of Brownwood, Texas, suffered with diarrhea for a long time and tried many different remedies without benefit, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy was used; that relieved him at once. For sale by R. H. Starks.

An exchange says, "A Louisville judge decided last week that women had a right to smoke cigarettes on the streets if they so desire." A woman who will smoke a stinking cigarette anywhere should be ostracized by all decent people.

Table Manners.

Drink from the cup—never from the saucer.

Taspoons are left in the saucer, not in the cup.

Little children only have the napkin arranged as a bib.

Making a noise, either in eating or drinking is vulgar.

Always cheerfully defer to older people and to guests.

Eat slowly, and do not fill the mouth with large quantities.

Eat the food served, or quietly leave it upon the plate without remark.

Never imitate a rude or uncouth act, even committed by an older person.

Avoid drumming with the fingers or the feet; it is the height of impoliteness.

If in doubt at any time as to what is proper, follow the example of others of more experience.

Patiently await the coming of your turn; do not follow with the eyes the food served to others.

Never unnecessarily handle the dishes, or in any other manner exhibit nervousness or impatience.

Do not feel obliged to "clean up the plate," especially do not make a laborious display doing so.

Do not ask for any particular part of a fowl, or similar dish, unless asked your preference; in that case always indicate something, and if there be really no choice, designate the portion with which the host can most conveniently render services.

If the handkerchief must be used let it be very quietly; in case that is not possible, leave the table for a moment, which may be done in case of a sharp attack of coughing, sneezing, or the like, without asking permission, the cause being manifest.

A Stray Cow.

There is a stray small red cow with white face, no ear marks, about ten years old and worth about ten dollars at J. L. Wyatt's, two miles east of Olive, on Wade's road, and mouth of Jonathan creek road. She is now giving milk. She has been there about 13 days. The owner can get her by paying for this "ad" and other little expenses.

A hen on a farm at Cromwell, Conn., has her owner claims, laid five eggs inside of two days. Either the farmer is lying or the hen laying to excess.

Mr. Joseph Hemmerich
An old soldier, came out of the War greatly disabled by Typhoid Fever, and after being in various hospitals the doctors discharged him as incurable with Consumption. He has been in poor health since, until he began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Immediately his cough grew looser, night sweats ceased, and he regained good general health. He cordially recommends Hood's Sarsaparilla, especially to comrades in the G. A. R.

Hood's Pills cure Habitual Constipation by restoring peristaltic action of the alimentary canal.
