ROUSTER MURDERS STEAMBOAT MATE

Edward Lannon of Joe Fowler Victim of Bullet

It Is Believed Shooting Was Deliberately Planned Before the Boat Left.

BALL ENTERS HIS ABDOMEN.

Edward Lannon, mate of the steamer Joe Fowler, plying between Paducah and Evansville, was fatally shot in the back at New Liberty, Ill., by Charles Rachael, a Negro roustabout yesterday afternoon. The negro escaped and Lannon was taken to Smithland for medical attention. Later he was brought to Paducah on the Fowler after the doctors pronounced the wound fatal.

The Joe Fowler left Paducah yesterday. She got in late from Evansville last night. En route down Lannon and the negro had words, ending in Lannon using force in ejecting him from the cabin. No more was thought of the incident.

At New Liberty, Ill., across the river from Smithland, a calf was secured for transportation and it required several roustabouts, Rachael among them, to put the calf on. Lannon superintended the job, and while descending the bank to reach the boat was shot.

Rachael was behind him, and without a word drew a revolver and fired three shots, one taking effect in the back, going through the abdomen. Lannon fell and Rachael ran for the woods. Lannon was placed on the boat and taken to Smithland where Attorney John K. Hendrick and others, thinking he would die, secured his dying statement.

Captain Howard, desiring to secure the best medical attention, turned his boat back and brought Lannon to Paducah, where he was transferred to Riverside hospital.

Lannon was from Nashville and ran on the Henry Harvey until a few weeks ago. He has a father and brother in Nashville.

Rachael is a negro well known on the river between Paducah and Evansville. He had been on the Fowler only a few trips, however. Officers are after him.

On examination at Riverside hospital, Lannon was found to have been shot through the left side, the bullet lodging near the surface on the other side of the abdomen. An operation by Dr. Frank Boyd, assisted by Drs. J. T. Reddick, W. J. Bass and L. L. Smith, disclosed the fact that the bullet in its course had terribly mutilated some of the intestines. It was necessary to remove the injured part. On account of this and the filling of his stomach with blood, he could not recover.

Dr. L. D. Adams, of Smithland, accompanied the wounded man from that town to the hospital, where he turned the case over to the local surgeons.

Murder Was Planned. That the murder of Edward Lannon, second mate on the steamer Joe Fowler, deliberately was planned and executed, is indicated today by a remark Jesse Amos, an employee of Fowler, Crumbaugh & company, overheard yesterday afternoon just before that steamer left for Evansville.

While passing two of the cabin boys on the wharfbat, Amos overheard one of them say, "They're going to kill somebody at Smithland."

He thought it was the idle talk of the cabin boys and paid no attention to the remark, until the murder last night recalled it and its significance was realized. If the intention on the part of Charles Rachael was sufficiently matured to be the talk of the cabin boys, it is evident that the shooting was as coldblooded as any in the history of the river. That the shooting did not take place at Smithland, probably was due to no favorable opportunity presenting itself. When the steamer reached New Liberty it was intensely dark and the movements on the wharf there presented a cowardly opportunity which Rachael improved.

THIEVES

GET IN THEIR WORK DURING HOLIDAY SEASON.

Bauer's Saloon at 900 Washington Street and May Averitt's House Robbed.

The police report a steady increase in larceny in Paducah as the holidays draw near and residents leave their homes unprotected to do holiday shopping.

Sunday morning A. V. Bauer's grocery and saloon 900 Washington street, was burglarized. The proprietor had closed his store at 12 o'clock and had gone home. He left a great deal of money in the cash register and about $50 in cash in the cash drawer, which was securely locked. The thieves broke glass in the rear door and entered. They secured $40 in change from the cash drawer. The cash register was locked and shows evidences of having been tampered with.

Woman Loses $75. May Averitt, whose house is at Eighth and Harris streets, reports that Saturday night she was robbed of $75, some clothes, and a gold watch, by Bessie Hudson, alias Ida Johnson, an inmate of her house. The woman, it is alleged, took the key to the Averitt woman's trunk while the latter was away, opened the trunk and secured the money, watch and clothes, even taking the police key with her on leaving. The trunk held a warrant for the Hudson woman's arrest but have been unable to find her.

NOT BUYING HERE FROM PRINCETON

Too Far To Ship Tobacco In Loose State

Interesting Situation for Independent Growers—Imperial Sends to Hopkinsville.

EFFECT ON EUROPEAN TRADE

Inquiry among the local independent tobacco warehouses fails to substantiate the rumor that they are buying tobacco around Princeton and Kuttawa. The withdrawal of some of the independent buyers from those towns, and the refusal of many of the farmers to enter the Dark Tobacco association, has resulted in an interesting situation. What they will do to market their tobacco gave rise to the rumor that independent buyers from Paducah were stepping in and absorbing the surplus.

The Imperial Tobacco company is surmounting the difficulty by shipping the tobacco loose in cars by rail from Princeton to their rehandling warehouse at Hopkinsville. There they prize it for shipment abroad. It is probable that such action will be the solution of all the marketing problems of the independent farmers. But Paducah buyers have never bought tobacco in the Princeton market and it would be too costly to ship it here loose. It is said that Clarksville buyers are making purchases in Princeton and Kuttawa.

The Dark Tobacco association has obtained a foothold in Lyon county with the organization there yesterday of a county association. W. J. Stone was elected chairman. The report says about one-half the tobacco in the county was pledged.

The European Trade. Mr. W. B. Kennedy, the tobacco broker, has returned from an extensive European trip in the interest of his tobacco business, and incidentally in the interest of this section of the tobacco country. Mr. Kennedy visited Ireland, England, France, Switzerland, Germany, Holland and Belgium. He said he found the tobacco business generally, in a flourishing condition, but that the Princeton incident disturbed foreign plans greatly, they having a feeling of disgust more than anything else, over the occurrence. If such occurrences are to be always imminent, the foreign trade will be too uncertain to expand as it would under normal conditions. Mr. Kennedy today is busy visiting the local tobacco men and informing them of the foreign situation as he saw it. His trip is expected to give this city valuable information along that line.

BLAKE'S RECORD AS PRESS AGENT

Leads All Recruiting Officers In District

He Has Enlisted Full Company of Infantry at Paducah Since Last April.

THIS IS THE BEST STATION.

One full company of infantry, on a peace footing, has been enlisted by Sergeant Blake at the local recruiting office, since his arrival in the city April 12. Sixty men form a company and they do not include the enlistments for the hospital and signal corps. A recruiting office might enlist a thousand men for these two branches of the service but no credit is given in the report of enlistments. The average for the Paducah substation has been about nine men a month including all enlistments.

As a press agent, the report of the war department shows that Sergeant Blake leads all the officers in the circuit including Paducah, Evansville, Vincennes, Mt. Vernon and Owensboro. Every time a mention of the local recruiting office is made in the daily papers, he must send a copy to the war department, where they are copied for record. In November this office received nine such notices in the papers out of twenty for the five cities. This is half the total number. The larger number of those notices were copied from The Sun.

In November Paducah enlisted nearly half of the total enlistment for the five cities. Paducah enlisted nine out of a total of twenty, Evansville enlisted seven and Owensboro and Vincennes enlisted 4 together. Mt. Vernon had no enlistments. With the exception of cities of the size of New York, Chicago, Boston and St. Louis, the Evansville district, of which Paducah is a part, leads all the districts in the United States for enlistments, considering that this district has only four sub-stations. Lieut. W. L. Reed accepted three men yesterday for the army, enlisted by Sergeant Blake.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS WILL HAVE TREES

Happy Christmas Celebrations This Year

Every Church in Paducah Will Entertain Children, and the Poor Are Remembered.

SOME PLANS ARE ANNOUNCED

For those persons who are wont to discuss the decadence of Christmas observance and to grow resentful over the good old times in their childhood, it will be interesting to know that no less than eleven Sunday schools will have Christmas trees this year. In fact there seems to be a more thoroughly aroused interest in Christmas this year than in several years.

Several of the churches which will not have Christmas trees, will have entertainments of another nature. Such programs will consist of musical features with recitations and other numbers given principally by children. In one or two schools the children will bring offerings for the poor instead of receiving presents themselves. All of the entertainments which will include a tree, will be prefaced by a brief program in all cases given by the children of the school.

In addition to the usual distribution of necessities to the poor, the Union Rescue Mission will entertain the poor children of the city with a tree. There will be some kind of present for every child who attends.

At the First Presbyterian church the entertainment will include a beautifully decorated tree. It will be given in the Sunday school room Christmas night. The tree will be illuminated with electricity and a generous gift of candy and fruit will be received by each child. The children of Hebrew and Mizpah missions will be present.

No Christmas entertainment will be given at the Broadway Methodist church, by the Sunday school, but the primary department will have a program Wednesday afternoon of Christmas week. The Kentucky Avenue Presbyterian church will have an entertainment Christmas night, but no tree.

There will be a manger at Grace Episcopal church into which each child will place a gift for the poor. Afterward they will be entertained in the parish house. On Christmas eve the Sunday school of the First Baptist church will have a tree and a light program of numbers given by members of the school. All the entertainments will be semi-formal.

The First Christian church Sunday school will have a tree Christmas eve and the Tenth Street Christian church also will have one but the evening has not been selected. Both the German Lutheran and the German Evangelical churches will have Christmas trees, and both on Christmas evening. A play will be presented by children at the German Evangelical church.

The Guthrie Avenue Methodist church will have an elaborate tree and every child attending will receive a present. The tree at the Trimble Street Methodist church will be given Christmas night, as will the one at the Mechanicsburg Methodist church.

A play will be given by the children of the Third Street Methodist church, Dec. 26, night.

The trees will be ablaze with candles and sparkling with tinsel. They will be out of sight until the proper moment when the curtain will be drawn or the doors opened revealing the brilliant spectacle. There is a subdued expectancy in all the schools from the approaching events.

RUNAWAY WRECKS MAIL BOX.

Pedestrians Gather Up Letters and New Box Is Installed.

A delivery wagon belonging to the Jones Bros., butchers, wrecked a United States mail box at Third street and Broadway this morning. The horse ran away and in running the wagon was jerked from side to side. A corner of it struck the mail box, burst it into fragments and scattered letters all over the sidewalk. Pedestrians collected the letters and held them until an attaché of the post office department, came with a new box. The new box was in place within 20 minutes after the accident. The horse was stopped a short distance away with no damage to the wagon.

Kilauea Again Active.

Honolulu, Dec. 18.—Advice by wireless from Hawaii says the volcano of Kilauea is once more active. Three cones have thrown up lava to a height of 150 feet. At night the light from the volcano can be seen for miles.

FELL ON FLOOR. And Fractured Two Ribs But Did Not Know It.

Joe Mattison, the popular sexton of Oak Grove cemetery, for three days suffered great pain from two broken ribs and did not discover that they were fractured until compelled by the pain to call in a physician. He was feeding his horse Saturday morning and tripped. He fell to the staple floor on his left side. His side pained him greatly but he supposed it to be merely bruised. Yesterday Dr. W. C. Eubanks found two of his ribs were fractured.

BURNED HAND

BUT SAVES HIMSELF FROM BEING FATALLY INJURED.

Little Jesse Barger Displays Rare Presence of Mind—Falls in Open Grate.

With great presence of mind rarely evinced by other persons, Jesse Barger, the four-year-old son of J. W. Barger, of 1864 Guthrie avenue, saved himself from probable fatal burns last evening by thrusting out his hands into the fire and saving his body from being precipitated into an open grate.

Mr. and Mrs. Barger were in the kitchen and the boy in the sitting room at the time. He was playing near the grate and stumbled, falling directly into the fire. He thrust out his right hand and caught the force of the fall, his flesh being severely burned by the hot bed of coals. When the parents ran to his assistance, on hearing his screams, it was some time before the little fellow could tell what had happened. The burns were dressed by railroad physicians.

Wesley H. Slack, 80 years old, formerly vice-president of the City National bank in this city and prominent in local politics and public affairs, died today at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Annie B. Mr. Slack was a native of New Jersey but came here in 1852 and started a flouring mill. He was interested in a number of enterprises and was postmaster of Paducah under President Johnson. He was member of the city council and of the school board at various times.

He married Miss Anna Langstaff, sister of the late Messrs. Sam and George Langstaff. Mr. Slack is survived by his daughter and one son, John Blake Slack, the latter of Atlantic City.

METCALF'S REPORT ON JAP TROUBLES

Submitted By President To Congress Today

Secretary Says Only 93 Japs Attend Public Schools and Nearly All Minors.

ON BOYCOTTS AND ASSAULTS

Washington, Dec. 18.—President Roosevelt submitted to congress a message, in accordance with an official request, accompanied with the report of Secretary Metcalf concerning the Japanese trouble in San Francisco. The message and report in part are as follows: To the Senate and House of Representatives:

I inclose herewith for your information the final report made to me personally by Secretary Metcalf on the situation affecting the Japanese in San Francisco. The report deals with three matters of controversy—first, the exclusion of the Japanese children from the San Francisco schools; second the boycotting of Japanese restaurants, and, third, acts of violence committed against the Japanese.

As to the first matter I call your especial attention to the very small number of Japanese children who attend school, to the testimony as to the brightness, cleanliness and good behavior of these Japanese children in the schools, and to the fact that, owing to their being scattered throughout the city, the requirements for them all to go to one special school is impossible of fulfillment and means that they can not have school facilities. Let me point out further that there would be no objection whatever to excluding from the schools any Japanese on the score of age. It is obviously not desirable that young men should go to school with children. The only point is the exclusion of the children themselves. The number of Japanese children attending the public schools in San Francisco was very small. The government has already directed that suit be brought to test the constitutionality of the act in question; but my very earnest hope is that such suit will not be necessary, and that as a matter of comity the citizens of San Francisco will refuse to deprive these young Japanese children of education and will permit them to go to the schools.

The question as to the violence against the Japanese is most admirably put by Secretary Metcalf, and I have nothing to add to his statement. I am entirely confident that, as Secretary Metcalf says, the overwhelming sentiment of the state of California is for law and order and for the protection of the Japanese in their persons and property. Both the chief of police and the acting mayor of San Francisco assured Secretary Metcalf that everything possible would be done to protect the Japanese in the city. I authorized and directed Secretary Metcalf to state that if there was failure to protect persons and property, then the entire power of the federal government within the limits of the Constitution would be used promptly and vigorously to enforce the observance of our treaty, the supreme law of the land, which treaty guaranteed to Japanese residents everywhere in the Union full and perfect protection for their persons and property; and to this end everything in my power would be done, and all the forces of the United States, both civil and military, which I could lawfully employ, would be employed. I call especial attention to the concluding sentence of Secretary Metcalf's report of November 26, 1906.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.
The White House, Dec. 18, 1906.
Appendix.
November 26, 1906.

The President:
I have the honor to submit the following:

In my previous report I said nothing as to the causes leading up to the action of the school board in passing the resolution of October 11, and the effect of such action upon Japanese children, residents of the city of San Francisco, desiring to attend the public schools of that city. A report on this matter will now be made, therefore, and after describing the local public sentiment concerning the recent disturbances with regard to the Japanese, an account will be given, first, of the boycott maintained by the Cooks and Waiters Union of San Francisco against Japanese restaurants doing business in that city, and, second, of the several cases of assault or injury inflicted upon the persons or property of Japanese residents.

It seems that for several years the board of education of San Francisco has been considering the advisability of establishing separate schools for Chinese, Japanese and Korean children.

A BOLD STEP.

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret, medicinal compounds, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so has published broadcast and openly to the whole world, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicines. Thus he has taken his numerous patrons and patients into his full confidence. Thus too he has absolutely and completely removed his medicines from among secret nostrums of doubtful merits, and made them Remedies of Known Composition.

They are now in a class all by themselves—being absolutely and in every sense Non-Secret.

By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that his formulas are of such excellence that he is not afraid to subject them to the fullest scrutiny.

So many false formulas and malicious statements concerning his medicines had been published through the connivance of jealous competitors and disgruntled doctors, that Dr. Pierce determined to completely disarm his assailants by a full and frank statement of their exact composition, verifying the same under oath as complete and correct. This he has done and to the complete discomfiture of those who had assailed his good name as well as the well-earned reputation of his world-famed medicines.

Not only does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous medicine for weak stomach, torpid liver or biliousness and all catarrhal diseases wherever located, have printed upon it, in plain English, a full and complete list of all the ingredients composing it, but a small book has been compiled from numerous standard medical works, of all the different schools of practice, containing very numerous extracts from the writings of leading practitioners of medicine, endorsing in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines. One of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card or by letter, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting the same. From this booklet it will be learned that Dr. Pierce's medicines contain no alcohol, narcotics, mineral agents or other poisonous or injurious agents and that they are made from native, medicinal roots of great value; also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines are contained in his famous Favorite Prescription for weak, nervous, over-worked, "run-down," nervous and debilitated women, were employed, long years ago by the Indians for similar ailments affecting their squaws. In fact, one of the most valuable medicinal plants entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was known to the Indians as "Squaw-Weed."

Our knowledge of the uses of not a few of our most valuable native, medicinal plants was gained from the Indians. As made up by improved and exact processes, and with the use of specially designed chemical apparatus, the "Favorite Prescription" is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health.

dren, and passed the following resolution October 11:

Resolved, That in accordance with Article X, section 1662, of the school law of California, principals are hereby directed to send all Chinese, Japanese, or Korean children to the Oriental public school, situated on the south side of Clay street, between Powell and Mason streets, on and after Monday, October 15, 1906.

The action of the board in the passage of the resolutions of May 6, 1905, and October 11, 1906, was undoubtedly largely influenced by the activity of the Japanese and Korean Exclusion League, an organization formed for the purpose of securing the enactment by the congress of the United States of a law extending the provisions of the existing Chinese exclusion act so as to exclude Japanese and Koreans. The league claims a membership in the state of California of 78,560, three-fourths of which membership is said to be in the city of San Francisco. The membership is composed almost entirely of members of labor organizations.

On the day when the order of October 11 went into effect, viz, October 15, there were attending the public schools of the city of San Francisco 93 Japanese pupils. These pupils were distributed among 23 schools of the primary grades. There are eight grades in the public schools of San Francisco, the first grade being the lowest and the eighth grade the highest—graduates of the eighth grade going into the High school. Of this total of 93 pupils, 68 were born in Japan and 25 in the United States. Those born in the United States would, of course, under section 1 of Article XIV of the Constitution of the United States, be citizens of the United States, and of the state where in they reside, and as such subject to the laws of the nation as well as of the state.

The ages of the pupils attending the public schools on the day when the order went into effect ranged from 7 to 20 years. A list of pupils attending the schools, which gives the name of each pupil, name of school, age of pupil, grade, place of birth and sex, is hereto attached. It will be observed that those born in the United States occupy about the same position in the different grades as American children of the same age, while those born in Japan are very much older.

The number of schools in San Francisco prior to April 18 was 76. Of this number 28 primary or grammar schools were destroyed by earthquake, leaving 48 schools. Since April 18 27 temporary structures have been erected, making the total number of school buildings at the present time 75. A map showing the location of the public schools in San Francisco attended by Japanese pupils up to the time the order of the board went into effect is herewith submitted.

An examination of the map attached hereto will at once clearly show that it will be absolutely impossible for children residing in the remote sections of the city to attend the Oriental school. The conditions in San Francisco are such, owing to the great conflagration, that it would not be possible even for grown children living at remote distances to attend this school.

I found the sentiment in the state very strong against Japanese young men attending the primary grades. Many of the people were outspoken in their condemnation of this course, saying that they would take exactly the same stand against American young men of similar ages attending the primary grades. I am frank to say that this objection seems to me a most reasonable one.

The press of San Francisco pretty generally upholds the action of the board of education. Of the attitude of the more violent and radical newspapers it is unnecessary to speak further than to say that their tone is the usual tone of hostility to "Mongol hordes," and the burden of their claim is that Japanese are no better than Chinese, and that the same reasons which dictated the exclusion of the Chinese call for the exclusion of the Japanese as well.

The temper and tone of the more conservative newspapers may better be illustrated by an epitome of their argument upon the public school question. The argument practically is as follows: If it should be held that there was a discrimination operating in violation of the treaty with Japan in the state's treatment of Japanese children, or even if a new treaty with Japan should be framed which would contain on behalf of Japanese subjects the "most-favored-nation" clause, this could and would be met by the state, which would then exclude from the use of its public schools all alien children of every nationality and limit the rights of free education to children of its own citizens, for whom the system is primarily designed and maintained, and if the state should do this the federal government could not complain, since no treaty right could be violated when the children of Japanese were treated precisely as the children of all foreign nations.

The feeling in the state is further intensified, especially in labor circles, by the report on the conditions in the Hawaiian Islands as contained in Bulletin 66 of the bureau of labor, department of commerce and labor. The claim is made that white labor has been almost entirely driven from the Hawaiian Islands, and that the Japanese are gradually forcing even the small white traders out of business.

Many of the foremost educators in the state, on the other hand, are strongly opposed to the action of the San Francisco board of education. Japanese are admitted to the University of California, an institution maintained and supported by the state.

The objection to Japanese men attending the primary grades could very readily be met by a simple rule limiting the ages of all children attending those grades. All of the teachers with whom I talked while in San Francisco spoke in the highest terms of the Japanese children, saying that they were among the very best of their pupils, cleanly in their persons, well behaved, studious and remarkably bright.

BOYCOTT.

A boycott was maintained in San Francisco from October 3 to October 24 by members of the Cooks' and Waiters' Union against Japanese restaurants doing business in that city. Nearly all of the leaders of labor organizations in San Francisco, interviewed on this subject, disclaimed any knowledge of any formal action being taken for the boycotting of these restaurants. They admitted, however, that there was a decided sentiment in the unions against patronizing Japanese restaurants, and that that sentiment was created and fostered by speeches in union meetings.

The plans for holding a series of mass meetings in coast and interior towns in California were discussed at length, but final arrangements were deferred until the project shall be approved by the league, which will hold its next convention on Sunday, July 1.

As a matter of fact, a most effective boycott was maintained against nearly all of the Japanese restaurants located in San Francisco for a period of at least three weeks. Pickets were stationed in front of these restaurants and every effort was made to prevent people from patronizing them. At times stones were thrown and windows broken, and in one or two instances the proprietors of the restaurants were struck by these stones.

A meeting of the Japanese restaurant keepers was then held, at which the matter was again discussed. The impression seemed to prevail that even if an injunction was obtained it would take too long, cost too much money and be ineffective. They then determined to pay money to the boycotters and appointed a committee for that purpose. The committee consisted of S. Imura, G. Sugihara, Y. Kobayashi, and Mr. Nakashima. The sum of $350 was collected by this committee from the restaurant keepers.

in amounts ranging from $17.50 to $25. An arrangement was entered into with the leader of the boycotters, whose name was only known to S. Imura, for the payment of the sum of $350 for the purpose of declaring the boycott off. Imura declined to give the name of the man to whom the money was paid, claiming that he had promised not to do so, but if necessary he would furnish the name to the Japanese consul.

Before leaving San Francisco the consul informed me that W. S. Stevenson was the man to whom the money was paid. The boycott stopped with the payment of the money.

Assaults. Before leaving San Francisco the consul informed me that W. S. Stevenson was the man to whom the money was paid. The boycott stopped with the payment of the money. Assaults have from time to time been made upon Japanese subjects resident in the city of San Francisco. I was informed by the chief of police that upon receipt of communication from the Japanese consul he at once instructed captains of police to make every effort to stop these assaults, and if necessary, to assign men in citizens' clothes to accomplish the purpose. The correspondence between the Japanese consul and the chief of police and the acting mayor of the city is hereto attached and marked "Exhibit E" (p. 37).

I deemed it best, in order to get at the exact facts, to take the statements of the Japanese who claimed to have been assaulted. These statements were taken at the Japanese consulate in San Francisco by Mr. J. S. McDermott, interpreter in the immigration service at San Francisco, and Mr. K. Kawasaki, a Japanese student in the senior class of the University of California.

These attacks, so I am informed, with but one exception were made when no policeman was in the immediate neighborhood. Most of them were made by boys and young men; many of them were vicious in character, and only one appears to have been with a view of robbing the person attacked. All these assaults appear to have been made subsequent to the fire and earthquake in San Francisco and my attention was not called to any assaults made prior to the 18th day of April, 1906.

Dr. F. Omori, of the Imperial University of Tokyo, one of the world's most distinguished scientists, and as stated by Prof. George Davidson, of the University of California, one of the greatest living authorities in seismography, sent to San Francisco by the Japanese government to study the causes and effects of the earthquake, was stoned by hoodlums in the streets of San Francisco. Prof. T. Nakamura, professor of architecture in the Imperial University of Tokyo, was also stoned in the streets of San Francisco by young toughs and hoodlums. Doctor Omori was also assaulted when visiting Eureka, Cal. Neither of these eminent gentlemen

ANOTHER VIEW.

Secretary Metcalfe's report on conditions in San Francisco, transmitted to congress by the president, gives a view of the Japanese question from an entirely new angle. Instead of there being a separation of the races, because the Japs are matured and the Caucasians infants, we find that a large per cent, practically all the children, are under 20 years of age. Instead of there being plenty of facilities afforded for the orientals to acquire an education, there is only one school in the heart of the burned district of a city of 350,000 inhabitants for Mongolian children from all sections to trudge to day after day. Testimony concerning boycotts, and assaults—the latter frequently on distinguished Japanese statesmen on visits of scientific and national importance—indicate that trade jealousy has played an important part in stirring up race hatred on the Pacific coast. Secretary Metcalfe suggests a simple remedy for the only possible evil attending the school situation, the mingling of adult Mongolians with little Caucasian children, and that is an age limit for school attendance that will apply to all people, aliens and citizens.
There are always two sides to a question, not of a strictly moral nature, and, of course, we can not fully appreciate the San Franciscan's views.
He has his natural prejudices, and there may be abuses that we do not understand. But the indications are that San Francisco hoodlums are guilty of most of the abuse. At any rate, we have statistics to show that only 93 Japanese children were distributed among 23 schools, with no more than five to the school, and only two of the 93 were 20 years old.We have nothing but admiration for the legal department of the big trust corporations. Naturally they are scanning the criminal laws, under which their clients are indicted, with an eye single to defects, and they will find holes the lawmakers in congress overlooked. It is no reflection on the congressmen if a way of escape is found for the guilty corporations. Criminal lawyers of ten find loopholes through which guilty individuals escape. A hiatus in rate legislation or a supreme court decision of little merit, is only greater in degree than a defect in the statute of larceny of the "hip pocket" defense. We must ever look to the main object. We are not going to be benefited greatly by corporations worth millions paying thousands into the courts in fines, but we are going to be benefited by the vigorous action of the department of justice in taking steps to prevent a repetition of the Standard Oil's crime.Perhaps, if the board of public works would actually put to the test the question of its right to appoint certain heads of departments under its control instead of passing resolutions of condemnation of the council's attitude a long standing departmental feud would be wiped out.

The issue is not between the Democratic board and a Republican council. The controversy dates back to the birth of the board. We doubt if the incoming council will gracefully surrender any of the prerogatives and patronage of the office. In fact, in common with their party in congress, we think the councilmen will view with alarm any encroachments of the executive department on the rights of the "people's representatives."

Protection for the whole family will soon be afforded in Louisville.
The city board of health has discovered horrible conditions in the dairies and will adopt measures to purify the baby's milk. At the same time the pure food standard commission is adopting measures for the labeling of bottles, so the old man will know what he is drinking.

They are an excellent set of officials the general council chose last night. No mistake could have been made, however, as all the candidates whose names were presented were worthy. It was just a matter of personal choice.

Chief Collins is right. The absence of toy pistols and the ama-ble loaded cane will detract none mas eve.

THE FREE SEED GRAFT.

In his annual report the secretary of agriculture says: "The congressional seed work for the year has been conducted along practically the same lines as in the past. The number of packages of miscellaneous vegetable and flower seed sent out during the year was about 7,000,000. There has been no change in this number during the past five years."

There has, however, been considerable criticism of the practice and, with the beginning of hearings on the subject before the house committee on agriculture, it is interesting to recall the hostile campaign of last year. It was shown that the distribution cost something like a quarter of a million dollars and that it was "practically valueless. It did not help the agriculture of the country for several reasons. A large percentage of the packages never reached the farmers.
The seeds sent out were of common varieties, so that there was no gain such as could be claimed from the introduction of new ones. The net result was a kind of petty graft for congressmen who burdened the mails with much stuff that went to waste or was destroyed, on the chance of pleasing a constituent here and there.

Naturally the distribution is opposed by seed men, but it is condemned also by farmers' organizations, horticultural societies and the faculties of experiment stations and agricultural colleges. That it should be generally condemned is clear, for it works out simply as a fraud upon the people.

The case against it was so strong that at the last session the committee omitted the item for free seed distribution, but it was reinserted by the house by a vote of 153 to 83. An excuse for this action was that no one had appeared before the committee to advocate the omission. As a consequence a delegation of seed dealers did appear before the senate committee later and plans were laid for a determined fight this year against the old abuse.

The practice as it has prevailed is both indefensible and contemptible.
It should not have been tolerated so long, and it is to be hoped that there is honesty enough in congress to put an end to it now.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Chinese Anti-Fat.

We poke fun at the Chinese ideals of medicine, but events in Sacramento prove that the Mongolians know more than we give them credit for. For centuries the Chinese have used cricket stew powdered crickets, essence of cricket and plain raw crickets for the reduction of obesity, as they use frog soup for stomach troubles.

Well, in Sacramento it has been noticed that the cats have grown wonderfully thin and has no appetites, refusing to be tempted by cream and other dainties. It has been discovered that they have been feasting on crickets. The insects have satisfied their appetites, but have reduced them to skeletons.
The next thing to be put on the market will be a new patent medicine under the name of "Cricketine."—

"Not a truth to art or science has been given.

But brows have ached for it, and souls toiled and striven.

And many have striven, and many have failed,

And many died, slain by the truth
they assailed."

The Osteopathic science has been assailed as vigorously as ever any new truth that has been offered the world, but, today it is rapidly coming into its own, as the people become better acquainted with it—know it.

Osteopathy is an evolution of the science of treating disease. It went back to the first principles in nature for its foundation, and by taking a step backward it has made a great stride forward.

It is merely a common sense treatment; a method of manipulation to restore the normal conditions of nerve control and blood supply to every organ of the body by removing the physical obstruction; or stimulating, or preventing functional activities, as the condition may require.

The success I have had in Paducah in treating rheumatism, neuralgia, nervousness, malaria conditions, such as the tired-out, run-down feeling, sick, heavy headaches, and stomach disorders are but a repetition of the successes of the science everywhere.

Come to see me at any time, and let me tell you of Paducah people you know well who will vouch to benefits received from the treatment.
That's the best recommendation I can give you.

The river is "eating up" the wharf rapidly now. The gauge registered a rise of 3.1 this morning, with the stage at 24.2. Business is satisfactory with the boats.

The Chattanooga arrived yesterday afternoon from Chattanooga and completed the first round trip in the new trade. This morning the Chattanooga left for Joppa, having had to wait until then to get rosters, and probably will be ready to leave for Chattanooga Wednesday afternoon.

Having to come back to the city with the mate wounded at New Liberty last night, the Joe Fowler will be a long way over due Wednesday from Evansville. The John Hopkins arrived late today from that point.

The little towboat Gate City has been chartered to the West Kentucky Coal company and will tow coal for that company.

The Dick Fowler had a good trip to Cairo this morning and will return tonight.

The Scotia passed up from Joppa yesterday afternoon on the way to the Tennessee river after a tow of ties.

The Georgia Lee will leave Memphis Wednesday for Cincinnati arriving here Friday.

The City of Savannah probably will arrive from the Tennessee river
Wednesday on the return trip to St.
Louis.

The comparatively peaceful city negroes should be careful how they start a fight with the rousters on the river. Saturday night a driver and a rouster from the Georgia Lee got to fighting and the Georgia Lee rouster was preparing to annihilate his opponent with a pistol and long knife when the two were separated. How much more armament he had is not known except to the police. It is a well-known fact on the river that nearly all rousters are heavily armed. It was illustrated by the shooting at New Liberty last night.

The City of Memphis arrived today from the Tennessee river.

The Electra probably will not get off this week at the ways the bad weather having delayed repairs.

How will the river men spend Christmas? All who can, will go to their homes; but the larger number will be out on the broad rivers with little to relieve the day of the monotony of everyday river life. However, on that day the cook puts himself out to give a good dinner to all hands, and the discipline is relaxed just a little, allowing the men to cut capers, play games and carouse harmlessly.

Official Forecasts.

The Ohio from Evansville to Mt.
Vernon will continue rising during the next three days. At Paducah and Cairo will continue rising during the next four days. At Evansville a stage of 29 feet or more will be reached on the present rise. At Cairo the maximum stage will probably approximate 50 feet.

The Tennessee from Florence to the mouth, will rise during the next 24 hours.

The Mississippi from Chester to slightly above Cairo, will fall during the next 24 hours.

The Wabash, at Mt. Carmel, will rise during the next 24 to 36 hours, probably reaching the flood stage, 5 feet.

UNION MADE $3.50 SHOES FOR MEN

W. L. Douglas shoes are better this season than ever before. This means that there has been distinct improvement in their style, in their fitting qualities, and in their wear. Each year gives us additional experience which we turn to account by constantly improving our shoes. Nothing is too small to merit the minutest attention.

Things which might be considered trivial in other factories have infinite attention from our workmen for the simple reason that the Douglas standard is nothing short of the best possible. If it were not for the immense facilities and the right motive it would be impossible for the W. L. Douglas $3.50 shoe to rival the $5.00 and $7.00 productions of higher priced makers.

Millions of satisfied patrons know through actual service that Douglas $3.50 shoes hold their shape better, fit better, wear longer and are of greater intrinsic value than any other $3.50 shoes on the market to-day.

LIFE COMPANIES COUNTING VOTES

Probably Over Half Million

Struggle Between Great Interests and Policyholders' Committee Is Ended.

WAS REMARKABLE CAMPAIGN

New York, Dec. 18.—The close of the great fight for the control of the New York Life and Mutual Life Insurance companies and their hundreds of millions of assets came to-day. Since October 18, the policyholders of the two companies have been voting for the election of a new set of trustees in each company. The struggle has been the most remarkable in the financial history of the country, with scattered, unorganized people of small means on the one side, and the greatest moneyed powers in the United States on the other. That the result is awaited with intense interest goes without saying.

The election will determine whether the present management of the two companies, which were legislated out of office by the enactment of the reform insurance laws following the Armstrong committee's revelation, will remain in power, or whether the policyholders will put their own men in charge of their own funds, amounting in the two companies to $790,000,000.

Large Vote Expected. Irrespective of the outcome, the election will show for the first time in the history of the insurance business in the United States, a large vote by the policyholders, the vote being due the wonderful campaign made by the International Policyholders' committee to bestir the policyholders to the importance of exercising sufficient interest in the safeguarding of their own funds to cast ballots.

That the present management have spent several millions of dollars to retain the control of the companies is the opinion of experts who have watched the present fight since the report of the Armstrong committee. During the past two months, the New York Life is said to have spent upwards of $2,000,000 to secure the vote of the majority of its million policyholders for the "administration ticket" headed by Alexander E. Orr, and placed in nomination by the old "McCall ring" officials controlled by George W. Perkins of the Wall Street firm of J. P. Morgan & company, and Thomas A. Buckner, vice president in charge of agencies.

Rogers' Ticket in Mutual. The Mutual, having about half as many policyholders, it is said to have spent half as much to secure a winning vote for the Standard Oil ticket, headed by Charles A. Peabody, which was nominated at the direction of H. H. Rogers, and for which members of the discredited McCurdy regime have been working with might and main.

In the New York Life there are two tickets in the field: the administration nominees and those named by the International Policyholders' committee. In the Mutual there are three tickets. One is the ticket nominated by the present management, the second is the united committee's ticket, jointly nominated by the International Policyholders' committee and the Mutual Life Policyholders' association. The third or fusion ticket, was nominated by the agents of the Mutual.

In the Mutual Life election of 1904, the total number of votes was 158 out of approximately 450,000, and those votes were cast by employees and agents of the company. At the election of 1905 the total number of votes cast was 199. In the

GIVES SIMPLE PRESCRIPTION.

The great majority of men and women at the age of 50 years begin to feel the first signs of advancing age in some form of kidney trouble and bladder weakness. Few are entirely free from that tortuous disease, rheumatism, which is not a disease in itself, but a symptom of deranged function of the kidneys which have become clogged and sluggish, failing in their duty of filtering and straining the poisonous waste matter, uric acid, etc., from the blood, permitting it to remain and decompose, settling about the joints and muscles, causing intense pain and suffering.

The bladder, however, causes the old folk the most annoyance, especially at night and early morning.

A noted New Hampshire physician states, in a recent article, that he has had wonderful success with the old, time "vegetable treatment." He states: "Of sixteen cases of bladder trouble and rheumatism which have been treated with this treatment only one very complicated case failed to fully yield to its remarkable influence. It is the only harmless treatment I have ever found to clean the system of rheumatic poisons; remove irritation of the bladder and relieve urinary difficulties of the old people. It is a true vitalizing tonic to the entire kidney and urinary structure, reinvigorating the entire system."

What the doctor terms "old vegetable treatment" consists of the following simple prescription, the ingredients in which can be obtained from any good pharmacy at small cost: Compound Karsgen, one ounce; Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and upon going to bed, also drink plenty of water. This prescription, though simple, is always effective in the diseases and afflictions of the kidney and bladder.

New York Life, which has nearly double the number of policyholders, as the Mutual, the same farce was enacted year after year at the elections.

Number of Policyholders. In the New York Life, the number of policyholders is 977,441. Of these 783,661 reside in the United States and Canada.

In the Mutual Life the total number of policyholders is 592,395, of which 457,591 live in the United States and Canada.

The indications are that a total of between 600,000 and 700,000 votes was cast. The ballots were opened and the official count began today. It may take weeks to count the ballots, and the event of a close election, the count may be contested in the courts.

REFORM IS URGED IN OUR LAND LAWS

President Sends Special Message on Subject

Naval Personnel Bill to Insure More Rapid Promotion in Line Officers in Future.

WILL ALSO WORK BIG SAVING.

Washington, Dec. 18.—The following is the abstract of the message of President Roosevelt on public land laws, which was sent to congress to-day:

The president urges the repeal of timber and stone act, demands the radical amendment of the desert land act; urges the repeal of the commutation clause of the homestead act, all of which, he declares, now serve to turn great tracts of land over to speculators and corporations.

To prevent the fraudulent acquisition of the public lands, the president says he has directed the secretary of the interior to show no patent to be issued to public lands under any law until, by an examination on the ground, actual compliance with that law has been found to exist. For this purpose an increase of special agents in the general land office is urgently required.

He urges the revision and re-enactment of the existing laws affecting rights of way and privileges on public lands and reservations in one comprehensive act, providing that the regulations now in force in many cases may be extended to all.

Other Legislation. Legislation is recommended in time with the proposal to allow railroads to consolidate their holdings of timber within forest reserves by exchange after deeding their lands to the government.

The president recommends that the secretary of the treasury be authorized to advance to the forest service, upon the security of the standing timber, an amount, say $5,000,000, as sufficient to provide a reasonable working capital for the forests, to bear interest and to be repaid in annual installments, beginning in ten years.

Transfer of the national parks from the charge of the secretary of the interior into the secretary of the agriculture is recommended.

The power to create national parks by proclamation should be extended to Indian lands, the Indians to be paid the full value of land thus taken.

The president recommends legislation which will provide for government control of the public range through the department of agriculture to insure to each locality rules for grazing specially adapted to its needs, and to authorize the collection of a reasonable grazing fee. He says he will see to it that illegal fences are removed unless congress takes steps to legalize proper fencing by government control of the range.

Naval Personnel Bill. Washington, Dec. 18.—The president today sent a message on naval personnel to congress. An abstract of his recommendation follows:

The president earnestly recommends early consideration of the naval personnel bill saying that, should it be enacted into law, it will cause officers on the seagoing list to reach the grade of captain at forty-eight and rear admirals at fifty-five, and will insure their serving seven years in the grade of captain and seven years in the grade of rear admiral, thus enabling them to become thoroughly skilful and efficient in these grades. The bill also establishes the grade of vice admiral.

The president says that, if the proposed plan of promotion is carried out, it will, as compared with existing laws, make a saving of more than $5,000,000 during the next seven years.

WHY ELECTRIC POWER IS ECONOMICAL

IT is the most efficient and the least wasteful. It minimizes the risk of breakdowns. You pay only in proportion to your actual needs. There is more room in your factory—you can condense operations. Electric power is clean. Individual motors avoid shafting and friction loads—in some instances found to be over 60 per cent.

Theatrical Notes

Texas Sweethearts.

Since Texas Sweethearts was produced over two years ago, other plays, similar in title, have appeared. However, this is the original production, with Alan Villair and Pearl Lewis in the leading parts. They are playing many return engagements. The story is intensely interesting from start to finish, interspersed with comedy and specialties. This is the only company presenting this play and the leading parts are in the hands of the people for whom they were especially written. "Texas Sweethearts" comes to The Kentucky Saturday night and matinee.

Richard Mansfield.

Richard Mansfield and Beau Brummel are synonymous. It is in this celebrated in the character, which is his masterpiece, that the great actor is to be seen at The Kentucky on Monday night of next week. The charm of "Beau Brummel" is altogether the skill of Mansfield. The original Beau was one of the eccentrics of his period, but he was merely the suggestion of the remarkable creation which Mansfield has given to the stage. He belongs to the period of regency in England, when society was adorned by Byron, Sheridan, Fox, Lord Holland, Lady Jersey, the famous Duke of York and the beautiful Duchess of Devonshire.

LAW OF THE LAND.

Constitution of United States Declared Supreme.

Guthrie, Okla., Dec. 18.—Notwithstanding the belief of certain radical members of the constitutional convention, that the constitution of the United States is not paramount and supreme in the state, the bill of rights as reported to the convention today declared the constitution of the United States the supreme law of the land. The bill of right contained no unusual provisions. The freedom of religion and free speech was guaranteed. The state is forbidden to appropriate money for any religious sect or denomination or representative of any religious creed. In all criminal prosecutions for libel, written matter may be submitted as evidence and if it be shown that its publication was based upon good motives and if justifiable under each person shall be acquitted.
