THE LISTENING POST

● In the opinion of this writer there are many beautiful drives in and about Fulton, and each changing season brings a different sort of beauty. In the spring I think those beauty spots can never be more beautiful, but when summer moves in I see I was wrong, and that summer is really the most beautiful. Then along comes autumn, and again I believe I was mistaken, and that fall is really the beauty time. Even in the dead of winter, with all greenness gone, there is frequently beauty in the gaunt woodlands, covered perhaps with ice, with ice glistening on barren fields, and with the ability to see greater distances than when the land is covered with green trees in full foliage.

● Of all the roads in and about Fulton I think perhaps the road to Hickman is the most beautiful. At any season of the year one realizes when traveling this road that he is passing through a rich and luxuriant country. The fields are so fertile looking, the trees are so sturdy and broad, and one feels always the almost imperceptible slope toward the great river in whose valley we live. I drive this road many times, and I always find beauty and pleasing visits along every mile of the road. Somewhere the cattle seem fatter and more contented, the farms seem more substantial and more lasting, the homes seem real homes that are occupied by a thrifty and satisfied citizenry. I like to drive along this road late in the day, when cattle are lagging slowly homeward, when the smoke from kitchen fires climbs upward in straight columns, when the sun is dropping slowly in the west, with a thousand colors gleaming in the glistening river. Then, as the sun finally drops out of sight the great river becomes like a broad, smooth expanse of gray velvet.

● Then there is another beauty spot which I see many, many times, much nearer home. Right on the edge of town, just as one starts toward Union City, there is a short stretch of road that is as beautiful as any place I have ever seen. That is the Whitesell Woods, and many times I drive out that way just to see that one spot.

● Everybody in Fulton knows the spot, but perhaps not many of them appreciate the beauty of the scene. It is the one spot where it seems there is yet an unbroken forest as was common in this country many years ago. Of course this is an illusion. There is not much forest there, but from the road it appears that the forest stretches away for countless miles. Dipping down into a sharp little valley, the trees seem to creep up on one, and for a brief moment there is the illusion of being alone in a great forest. In the spring it is beautiful, in summer it is still more lovely, and right now, with the leaves beginning to turn, it is a place of never ending beauty. Frost is late this year, and perhaps the colors are not as vivid as they would normally be. But there is plenty of color, and the leaves are not yet beginning to fall quite as fast as usual.

● Truly we live in a beautiful section and there may be times when we do not realize quite how beautiful it is. Some of us travel thousands of miles to see sights that are no more beautiful than the graceful, winding Hickman road and the little valley right at the edge of town where it seems we turn the clock back a hundred years and live again in a country of unbroken forests.

Prayer meeting will be held to-night at seven o'clock at the Baptist Church in Riceville, conducted by Jim Weatherpoon. All are invited to attend.

Says Future As AFL Leader Is Up To Workers

Charges That Lewis' Offer To Quit Is Fraud On Public

Houston, Tex., — President William Green of the American Federation of Labor tonight placed his future as head of the federation in the hands of 5,000,000 workmen. He called John L. Lewis' offer to resign as C. I. O. chairman, if Green would step down as A. F. of L. president, "an attempted fraud on the public."

"It is obvious," Green said, "that even if he (Lewis) resigned as chairman of C. I. O. he still would remain its dictator." Green, as yet unopposed, is up for re-election Friday. In Washington today Lewis offered to resign as C. I. O. chieftain if Green would relinquish the A. F. of L. presidency. Lewis' offer came after the A. F. of L. convention yesterday adopted a resolution saying Lewis' removal or resignation would help to bring labor peace.

Bean Says He Won't Quit As City Manager

Paducah, Ky., — City Manager L. V. Bean today announced that he would not resign his position, following a statement issued by three members of the Board of City Commissioners, representing a majority of the body, in which they expressed belief that "it would not be to the best interest of Paducah," should he step out.

Mrs. R. V. Putman Hit By Car Today

While walking across Main Street, Mrs. R. V. Putman stepped out from between the parked cars into the path of an automobile, driven by Tom Brann of Latham, Tennessee, and sustained a broken leg. The accident occurred about nine o'clock this morning near Legg's Barber Shop.

She was taken to the office of Dr. M. W. Haws for treatment, and Dr. Haws stated that her left leg was broken in the knee joint.

Army Plan Would Mass Million Men To Colors In Three Months

Ford Sheridan, Ill. — A plan to summon 1,000,000 men to the colors within three months in event of an outbreak of hostilities engaged high ranking Army officers here today.

Civilian co-operation, explained Maj. Lewis B. Hershey of the War Department general staff, would be the essence of the program to expedite enlistment and selective service.

Governors of the various States, Major Hershey said, would be charged with responsibility for setting up civilian agencies capable of mobilizing new soldiers at the rate of 250,000 a month in case of a national emergency. Such procedure would swell the

Will Make Plans For Annual Red Cross Drive Here

There will be a called meeting of the executive committee of the Red Cross at the Woman's Club on Thursday, October 13, at 9:30, to make plans for the annual Roll Call which will be held some time between November 11 and November 24. The following persons compose the committee: J. O. Lewis, chairman, Mrs. S. P. Moore, secretary, J. D. Davis, T. M. Franklin, J. E. Fall, Clarence Reed, Gus Bard, Leon Browder, Woodrow Fuller, Mrs. Nora Alexander, Mrs. J. E. Fall. All are urged to be present promptly at 9:30.

Treads Of Tires Bring Arrest Of Hit And Runner

McConnellsburg, Penn., — State motor police told today how the tread of automobile tires and the declaration of Harry Hendershot's 8-year-old son that "Daddy did it" led to the arrest of Hendershot on charges of involuntary manslaughter.

The police said that the father, confronted by his son after hours of questioning, admitted that he drove the car that killed two boys on a lonely mountain road near here.

Harry Gordon, 16, and Lemuel Truax, 15, were killed Sunday night as they walked along the mountain road. Houston Richards, a companion, was unhurt. He described the car and police followed marks it left on the road.

Saturday Will Be Forget-Me-Not Day

On Saturday, October 15, twenty-five or thirty of the Fulton High School girls will be circulating on the streets of Fulton, offering for sale forget-me-nots for the benefit of the Disabled American Veterans.

There will be no set selling price for these flowers, but it will be expected of the general public to contribute generously to this worthy cause. The money collected by these girls will go to help support those American citizens who were in some way disabled in the great World War.

As true American citizens, we think the citizens of Fulton owe it to their country and to those who fought in the War to End Wars to wear a forget-me-not on Forget-Me-Not Day.

Peach Blossom At Office Today

A striking commentary on weather conditions of the past few weeks was afforded this morning when a friend left a real peach blossom in the office. It grew on a tree in Clinton, and the trees was quite green, and spring-like in appearance. Curiously, there were three other trees near the blossoming one, and none of these were showing signs of blossoming.

Bibb Graves Promises Cecil Miracle A Permanent Parole

Montgomery, Ala. — Governor Bibb Graves promised Cecil Miracle a permanent parole today, provided California will waive unconditionally a "holdover" against the Kentuckian who escaped three prisons, then settled in his native Clear Creek to become a respected lumberman.

"I've been trying seven months to get Florida and California to waive holdovers against him," Graves said, "and if I can get them (waivers) I'll turn him loose."

Florida recently filed an unconditional waiver, and California filed notice of partial waiver, but said Miracle "remains a parole violator, subject to arrest and return to prison as such should he be within the confines of the state of California." Miracle escaped California prison,

Textile Labor Plans To Ask 40-Cent Wage

Washington — A labor representative on the wage-hour committee for the textile industry said today he would ask a 40-cent minimum hourly wage for textile workers for the first year's operation of the wages and hours law.

Emil Rieve, president of the American Federation of Hosiery Workers, disclosed his intention to make that demand as the textile wage-hour group sat down for its first discussion of minimum pay levels in the industry.

The committee, first chosen under the new Wage-hour Law, must recommend to Elmer F. Andrews, Wage-Hour Administrator, the highest minimum wage it believes the textile industry can pay without causing a substantial curtailment in employment.

The law, effective October 24, prescribes a minimum wage of 25 cents an hour and a maximum of 44 hour work week in industries in interstate commerce. It provides machinery, however, for establishing higher wage levels if representatives of an industry, its workers, and the public agree.

Architectural Genius Dies In New York

North Kingstown, R. I. — Christopher Grant LaFarge, 76, whose architectural genius ranged from designing awe-inspiring cathedrals to utilitarian subway stations, died suddenly today at his Saunderson home after a heart attack.

Monuments to his designing skill—the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in New York and that city's subway stations built under the Rapid Transit Commission, to name a few—stand in great cities throughout the United States.

Father of Oliver LaFarge, 1929 Pulitzer prize-winning author of "Laughing Boy," LaFarge designed, too, all the buildings at the New York Zoological Park.

He was a great-grandson of Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry.

Funeral For Infant At Chapel Hill

Funeral services are being held this afternoon at Chapel Hill Church for the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Bowlin, who died last night at their home southwest of town.

She is survived by her parents and one brother, Charles.

Burial will be held in the Chapel Hill Cemetery in charge of Winstead-Jones Funeral Home.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our thanks to all of our friends for their kindness and sympathy in our recent bereavement in the loss of our daughter and sister, Dovie. Mrs. McNatt, Genora McNatt, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McNatt, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Herron. Adv. 15.

Bruce Dudley Quits Newspaper Post In Louisville

Louisville, Ky., — The Courier-Journal announced tonight Bruce Dudley, its sports editor, was resigning to become executive manager of the Louisville American Association baseball club.

He will be succeeded by Earl Ruby, assistant sports editor. The change is effective Oct. 15.

The Louisville baseball club recently was purchased by Thomas Yawkey, owner of the Boston Red Sox; Donle Bush, former manager of the Minneapolis team in the American Association, and Frank E. McKinney, Indianapolis capitalist. Bush is president and field manager of the Colonels.

A magazine "wanted" picture was recognized by the citizen of a neighboring town, who notified officers.

A six-month temporary parole given by Gov. Graves ended recently.

Nation Well Equipped For All Financing

Chicago, — Allan M. Pope, president of First Boston Corporation, investment underwriters, said today the Nation's money centers are well equipped to provide financing and capital required in connection with any big increase in industrial expansion.

"I believe," said Pope in an address before the financial section of the American Life Convention, "that the underwriting power in America is adequate as now constituted and that nothing in market declines of specific securities is traceable to lack of available underwriting power."

Some time ago the Wall Street underwriting firm of Morgan, Stanley & Co. distributed a pamphlet in which it was suggested the Nation's underwriting power was insufficient to meet the demands that might come from wide prosperity.

U. S. Trade Pact To Be Sought By Germany

Ankara, Turkey — Walter Funk, German Economics Minister, announced tonight he intended to start trade negotiations with the United States.

Funk left for Berlin after concluding a trade agreement with Turkey.

"I am concluding bilateral accords based on the barter of goods between Germany and the Balkan States," he said, "and upon my return to Berlin I will start trade negotiations with the United States based on the same method which is most adaptable to present international conditions."

In line with Germany's effort to line up Southeastern Europe into her economic orbit, Funk negotiated a German credit of approximately $60,000,000 for Turkey.

Germany expects to supply materials for new railroads in Eastern Anatolia and for new factories for production of munitions, sea-planes, heavy chemicals and synthetic gasoline.

Deputies Raid Streets To Get Murder Panel

Minneapolis, — Deputy sheriffs and deputy clerks of court swooped down on twenty pedestrians on a downtown street today, taking them in police squad cars to the Court House to serve as fresh jury panel for the trial of Arnold Johnson, charged with slaying Labor Leader William Brown.

Crowds gathered, under the impression they were seeing criminals captured.

The unusual move was ordered when questioning of seventy veniremen prospects during the last week produced only eight jurors. Most prospects said they had formed an unshakable opinion.

President Sees Big Increase In Defense Budget

Washington, — A large increase in the 1939 national defense budget was foreseen today by President Roosevelt.

He explained the Navy alone needs $150,000,000 more next year to start new warships already authorized by Congress.

Such an increase would bring the nation's annual arms budget up to within striking distance of a billion and a half dollars, or more than twice as much as national defense was costing only a decade ago.

The total, however, still is far under the $1,744,000,000 spent in post-war 1920 before naval disarmament set in and war-time expenses were slashed.

The 1938 appropriations for the War and Navy Departments finally reached $1,322,074,452, which included direct and deficiency appropriations, and public works allotments.

The President said today that at least $150,000,000 must be provided the Navy next year to start construction of new ships which have been authorized by Congress, but for which the money has not yet been appropriated.

The Navy received $610,033,244 this year, while the War Department was given $703,028,208 for its entire program, including civil functions such as river, harbor and flood control work.

The new warships mentioned are included in the billion dollar naval expansion program, scheduled to be realized over a ten-year period. Navy officials recently explained that under this program the Navy would ask funds next year to start two more battleships, four cruisers, eight destroyers and six or eight submarines.

The two new battleships would increase the number of new capital craft to eight started or authorized since restriction of the 1921 naval treaty expired at the end of 1936. Two already are under construction, bids for three others will be opened October 19, and the Navy intends to build another in the naval yards.

All will be 35,000-ton ships costing a minimum of $70,000,000 each.

Cynthana Wars On Squirrels After Judge's Son Bitten

Cynthiana, Ky., — A drive against squirrels in Cynthiana has been ordered by Dr. H. H. Moody, city health officer, since John Swinford, son of Federal Judge Mac Swinford, was attacked by a squirrel a week ago.

The youth, on his way to school, was bitten on the face and neck several times before his cries attracted Dr. A. L. Medekle, who killed the squirrel. An examination of the squirrel at the Kentucky Experiment Station, Lexington, revealed the squirrel had rabies. Pasteur treatments have been administered the youth and he is recovering.

During the summer, many squirrels made their homes in trees in Cynthiana and appeared very tame. Many of them would drop from trees onto the shoulders of passersby and would eat from their hands.

Dr. Moody planned to confer with Game Warden Sol D. McCauley to take steps to destroy the squirrels.

Judge Of Kentucky Court Of Appeals Dies At Lexington, Ky.

Lexington, Ky., — Death struck at the Kentucky Court of Appeals today for the second time within two months, removing 76-year-old Judge Virgil H. Baird of Glasgow as he sought in a Lexington hospital to gain the strength necessary for an operation.

Since he did not seek re-election, Judge Baird will be succeeded as full-term court member from the third appellate district by Circuit Judge Will H. Fulton of Bardonia, who was nominated on both the Democratic and Republican tickets in the August primaries.

Seek Mayfield Play Center

Mayfield, Ky., — The Mayfield Lions Club today asked other civic groups to join in making a proposed $15,000 recreational center and fairgrounds project a major proposal for the next few months.

P. W. A. engineers are drafting plans for the forty-acre project and application for a Federal grant is to be made this fall, Robert H. Wyatt, committeeman, said.

The Top Of The World Gets A Little Cluttered

It would be interesting to find out just how Benito Mussolini is feeling right now.

He seems to be sitting on top of the world, his people are hailing him as a world-saving peace-maker (which is certainly a new role for him), as he has just taken a major part in a history-making event. But it is a safe bet that if you could get a look at him in most thoughts you would find that he is far from happy.

For what has been happening in the last few months is obvious enough, when you stop to think about it. Benito has been slowly but steadily deflated. He still rolls as ominous an eye and throws out as big a chest as ever, but he is strictly the Number Two dictator now.

Hitler's Germany is the dominant power in Europe today, and there is every indication that it will become more dominant in the next year or so. And all of the boastful talk from Rome about the beauties of the Rome-Berlin axis cannot hide the fact that it is not at all to Mussolini's interests to have Hitler advancing so fast.

Look at what has happened already. A year or two ago it was a cardinal point in Italian policy to keep Germany out of Austria. Today Austria is part of Germany, and a German army occupies one end of the Brenner pass looking down contemptuously on the Tyrol, where some hundreds of thousands of Germans live under an Italian rule which is far more oppressive than anything the Tyrol has ever put on.

Jugoslavia and the neighboring country were likewise marked down.

as a sphere for Italian penetration and expansion. That dream also has exploded. A great deal of penetration and expansion will take place in that part of Europe in the near future, but it won't be Italian; it will be German.

The Near East has also been a goal of Mussolini's foreign policy. But the famous old German "drive to the east" is going ahead now faster than ever before, and it would be a hopeful soul indeed who supposed that Hitler was going to revise his plans there to make room for the junior partner.

What is left? An arid empire in Africa and a half-conquered, poverty-stricken domain in Ethiopia.

There may yet be a few pickings in Spain—but even there, it is the German agent who has been gobbling up the choicest concessions.

So Mussolini can hardly be happy about the way things are shaping up. Already he begins to look suspiciously like the tail to Hitler's kite. The pupil to whom he taught Fascism is in a fair way to muscle teacher clear out of the schoolroom. —Jackson-Sun.

State Liquor Tax Act Gets Court Review

Washington, —The Supreme Court agreed today to pass on the validity of taxes imposed under Kentucky's liquor laws.

J. S. Kohn and others of Ohio appealed from a decision of a three-judge court in the Eastern Kentucky District, which refused to enjoin collection of the taxes.

Kentucky officials last January attached $5,000 in merchandise owned by the Central Distributing Company of Newport, Ky., to cover tax payments.

Kohn, who held a $3,000 mortgage on the merchandise, protested the seizure, arguing it destroyed the security of the mortgage.

He argued also the State officials were attempting to give force to the alcoholic beverage control law of 1933 "enacted after the suit

How Safe Are You at Home? Red Cross Warns of Hazards

1. Loose rug at top of stairs is a dangerous hazard.
2. Keep medicine cabinets locked or out of reach of youngsters.
3. Teach children not to put safety pins or other small objects in their mouths.
4. Good luck if you hang it up, but bad luck if you step on the nails in this horseshoe.

DURING the month of October, the American Red Cross will carry a safety message into ten million homes and farms throughout the nation, urging a check-up on accident hazards.

Do you know these hazards? How safe are you at home? Do you know that deaths from injuries on the farm are steadily increasing? What are the causes? These are a few of the questions the Home and Farm Accident Prevention Service of the Red Cross will send into homes, on an accident check list to be distributed through Chapters, by millions of school children and members of the Junior Red Cross. And the answers are provided on the check list, too.

National attention was concentrated on the Home and Farm accident problem in 1935-36 by the Red Cross, in that year, 37,000 men, women and children lost their lives in home accidents, which were largely preventable. In 1937, this toll of life was reduced, and only 32,500 lives were sacrificed to carelessness. The spread of knowledge on hazards which were subject to correction was everywhere credited with this cut in the death toll.

The 1937 deaths from home accidents were divided as follows, according to the National Safety Council: falls, 17,500; burns and explosions, 5,600; poisonings, 1,700; firearms, 800; mechanical suffocation, 1,000; poison gases, 1,100.

The Red Cross appeals to those in the home and on the farm to carefully check hazards which may exist inside and outside their houses, and perhaps save a life or prevent a life-long injury.

Murphy Denied Review

John T. Murphy, former Kentucky State Senator, failed to obtain review of a decision disbarring him from practicing law in Kentucky.

He had contended his constitutional rights had been violated because no member of any court ever had "actually heard or tried this case."

Disbarment proceedings were brought after Hamilton County, Ohio, officials had unsuccessfully attempted to return Murphy there for trial on a charge of forgery. Hamilton County charged he had embezzled money from the estate of Marie Theresa Corby, heir to the estate of Samuel Corby of Detroit.

ance companies to give a 15 per cent premium rebate to insured automobile drivers who have no accidents for a year, explaining he had left the way open for the courts to decide the matter.

Authority to reduce premiums by the rebate, known as the "safe drivers' reward plan," was requested by one group and opposed by another.

When first presented last February, Assistant General A. E. Funk ruled certain phases of it were illegal, but in July he approved a revised plan which included writing into the policies the rebate and which did not include the 4.8 per cent in the basic rate of cost of the policy as first proposed.

"The way was left open for them to mandamus me to put the plan into effect," Commissioner Goodpaster said after today's hearing. "Ultimately it has to be settled by the courts anyway."

FULTON'S CHANCE TO GET T. V. A.

The Utility Franchise Has Already Expired

This Bond Issue Will Not Increase Your Taxes On Any Property.

Tuesday, November 8th will be a memorial day for Fulton, the day your Mayor and Council have made it possible for you to VOTE on Electric Revenue Bonds. Don't be misinformed. The Bond Issue will not increase the tax rate on any property owner. On the face of the Bond it will state that the bonds are secured by the Electrical System, and are not a lien on any City Property, real or personal. The bonds are retired by Electric Customers of the City and at the same time you will get your electricity from 25% to 50% cheaper even after paying the bond and interest expense.

This is the plan: To acquire either by building a new or buying the existing electrical distributing system, then in the remote event that Fulton can not get T. V. A., then it will build its own Electric Generating Plant.

The Y. M. C. U. believes this will be the greatest progressive step in Fulton's proud history.

W. P. A. Reports Work Relief At New High

Washington.—The Works Progress Administration reported today that its enrollment, as of the week ended September 24, was 3,126,634.

This was the sixth consecutive new high for work-relief employment which advanced to 3,038,000 on August 20, an increase of 3,000 over the previous all-time peak of 3,035,000 in February, 1936. A year ago, during the low period, enrollment stood at slightly more than 1,000,000.

The current high showed an increase of but slightly more than 5,000 over the week ending September 17, weekly increases during the previous month having ranged from 12,000 to 18,000.

This is the story of an unusual boy, George Skinner, a 22-year-old Los Angeles, California, youth. Hopelessly stricken with infantile paralysis, his own determination

Europe Gives Map-Makers Big Headache

New York.—Day-to-day changing of boundaries of some European nations is a headache for map-makers, although it boosts sales whenever statesmen start parcelling territory.

It's a headache to publishers of school histories and geographies, too; to globe-makers and Atlas publishers always striving to keep their works abreast of the times.

New maps show Austria as part of Greater Germany, a change recognized immediately, with no question of boundaries.

Pupils Must Wait
Now as the International Sudentenland Commission meets in Berlin, the map-makers impatiently await fixing of new boundaries—for Germany, Czechoslovakia, Poland and Rumania.

One bookman said, "To try to map Czechoslovakia now for textbooks would be crazy. There's no map in anybody's mind or in actuality. As soon as we know definitely we will correct the plates in our important books."

As school boards usually choose textbooks in the spring, most children probably won't have the revised map of Middle Europe in their histories until next fall.

The textbook makers can make swift changes to bring their books up to date. New plates are constantly being substituted in new editions.

200 Attend District Meeting Of Kentucky Federation Of Women's Clubs

The Fulton Woman's Club had the honor of being hosts to the twenty-fifth annual meeting of the First District of the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs, Tuesday, October 11, 1938.

The Fulton club home was artistically decorated with beautiful autumn flowers for the occasion. Approximately two hundred delegates and guests, representing the various clubs throughout the District, were cordially greeted by the reception committee.

Mrs. Joe Lovett, Governor, called the meeting to order at 9:15 o'clock. Rev. J. N. Willford gave the invocation, followed by silent prayer in memory of deceased members.

The welcome address by Mrs. J. E. Fall, Jr., of Fulton, was responded to by Mrs. Al Lisanby of Princeton, Kentucky. Mrs. Lovett then introduced the following distinguished guests:

Mrs. T. C. Carrol, State President of Shepherdsville; Mrs. E. M. Heller, General Federation Trustee of Louisville; Mrs. John V. Pilcher, Chairman of Club Extension of Louisville; Mrs. Herbert Meredith, Chairman of Student Loan, of Greenville; Mrs. J. W. Carr, Third Vice-president of Murray; Mrs. J. E. Warren, Foundation Fund Trustee, of Mayfield; Mrs. K. R. Patterson, Recording Secretary, of Mayfield; Mrs. J. N. Bailey, Chairman of Junior Women's Clubs, of Paducah; and Mrs. C. L. Sharbrough, Corresponding Secretary, of Murray.

Mrs. Rainey T. Wells of Omaha, Nebraska, formerly an active club worker in Kentucky, was an honored guest.

A very instructive talk on "Reducing the Cost of Living" was given by Mrs. J. E. Warren. Mrs. J. N. Bailey spoke enthusiastically about "Our Junior Clubs." "Character Education" was Mrs. J. W. Carr's subject and Mrs. Hubert Meredith gave valuable information about "The Student Loan Fund."

Mrs. T. H. Heller told in a very interesting manner some facts concerning the cancer campaign and urged Kentucky women to march shoulder to shoulder until they win the present war on cancer.

Mrs. J. W. Pilcher made a few pertinent remarks in regard to club work.

Miss Sara Owen, one of Fulton's most talented musicians, played "Etude in E Major," Chapin, and Mrs. Turner Fowkes delighted the audience with a vocal solo, "Do Not Go My Love," Hageman. Mrs. Clarence Maddox was her accompanist.

One of the finest contributions to the program was the inspiring speech made by the new State President, Mrs. T. C. Carrol. The members predict for her high success and splendid cooperation from the First District.

An enjoyable feature of the morning session was the vocal numbers given by Master Danny Quermous of Salem, Kentucky, who has a most pleasing voice and a brilliant future before him.

At the noon hour a delicious luncheon was served in the dining room of the First Methodist Church.

The afternoon session was opened with reports from various club presidents, followed with a group of accordion solos by Mrs. W. W. Robertson of Mayfield.

The convention was most fortunate to have Dr. James H. Richmond, President of Murray State College, to deliver the address of the afternoon. His subject was "Federal Aid For Education."

The election of Mrs. W. P. Patterson, Mayfield, as Vice-Governor, and Mrs. Warren Graham as recording secretary was effected harmoniously and the result accepted without thought of a contest.

The Fulton Choral Club, directed by Mrs. W. M. Haws with Mrs. Clarence Maddox as accompanist, sang "Waltz from Faust," Gounod, and "Robin in The Rain," Nable Cain.

The convention adjourned with the place of the 1939 meeting to be selected by the board at a later date.

McFADDEN HOMEMAKERS TO MEET TOMORROW

The McFadden Homemakers' Club will meet tomorrow at 10:30 a. m. at the home of Mrs. John Daws north of town. The subject of discussion will be "Arrangement of Large Equipment in Kitchen."

ART DEPARTMENT MEETING SATURDAY

The Art Department of the Woman's Club of Fulton will hold its first meeting of the year Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Charles Payne. Leader for the afternoon will be Mrs. Ruth Milner Hubbard.

Members are asked to please take notice as much confusion has been had over the meeting date of this department.

MRS. WADE AND MRS. ASKEW IN CHATTANOOGA

Mrs. R. H. Wade and daughter, Mrs. Lynn Askew and son, Wade, are visiting in Chattanooga, Tennessee with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Byron Blagg, and Mr. Blagg. Before returning to their homes here they will also visit in Montgomery, Alabama, with Mrs. Elizabeth Snow and Miss Florence Wade.

over the usual routine of business after which the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Jack Allen, program leader. Mrs. Allen was assisted on the program by Misses Kellena Cole and Margaret King, and Mrs. Robert Bard. Late in the afternoon the hostesses served refreshments during the social hour.

Group A met at the home of Mrs. Jesse Harris with Mrs. John Smith co-hostess. The chairman, Mrs. Guy Gingles, presided over the meeting which was attended by thirteen regular members and one visitor, Mrs. Atkins Cole. A very interesting devotional was given by Mrs. Leland Bugg and Mrs. Martin Nall gave the very instructive Bible lesson. A lovely salad plate was served.

Mrs. Alf Hornbeak was hostess to Group B at her home, with twenty-four members present. Mrs. Leon Browder, the chairman, opened the meeting and presided, and presented Mrs. T. J. Kramer who is study leader of this group. After the lesson the hostess served light refreshments.

Mrs. Hazel Scruggs is chairman of Group C which met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. L. Jones on Eddings Street with Mrs. R. M. Redfern as co-hostess. After the business meeting Mrs. Warren Graham presented the bulletin and Mrs. Louis Weeks gave a very interesting Bible study. After the program refreshments were served to the eleven members present.

RUTH ALLEN CLASS IN MEETING MONDAY

The Ruth Allen Class of the First Baptist Church held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Clay McCollum Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Guy Robertson, president, conducted the business session which was followed by a social hour.

Mrs. Herman Sams, Mrs. Doris Valentine, and Mrs. W. E. Flippo were co-hostesses and served delightful refreshments to twenty-eight members and one guest.

FIDELIS IN MEETING

The Fidelis Sunday School Class of the Baptist Church held its monthly business and social meeting Monday night at the home of Mrs. Donald Perry on Eddings St.

Miss Agatha Gayle, the newly elected president, presided over the lengthy business session during which time she outlined plans for the class for the year. The year book committee was appointed and is composed of Mesdames Tom Beades, Charles Walker, and Donald Perry.

A social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served to twenty-six members and two visitors, Mrs. Walter Byars and Miss Sarah Frances Bonduant, of Washington, D. C.

LEGION AUXILIARY MEETS TOMORROW

The American Legion Auxiliary will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. H. B. Houston on Bates Street. The president, Mrs. Earl Taylor, urges all members to be present.

WILL LEAVE TOMORROW FOR TEXAS

Mrs. Joe C. Koelling will leave tomorrow for College Station, Texas where she will visit her son, Robert Koelling, a freshman at Texas A. & M. She will return by the way of Water Valley, Mississippi where she will visit relatives.

ALBERTA PATTON TRIED IN MAGISTRATE COURT

Alberta Patton, colored, was arrested by local police on a charge of taking stolen goods into her possession and was tried in Magistrate Court. The case was dismissed for lack of evidence.

The two colored boys who confessed to robbing several stores in Tennessee towns told officers at the time of their arrest that they had sold some of the articles stolen to Alberta Patton but the same two boys appeared at the trial and said on the witness stand that this was not true, and the case was dismissed.
