Young Man's Death Made More Horrible by Discoveries of a Crime.

MANNER OF ACCIDENT AND CRIME SUSPICION

As a result of being hit by his legs crushed just above the knees, Conductor Malcolm Greene, of the current railway road, died yesterday afternoon at River View hospital, shortly after being brought from the accident scene. The body was removed to the residence of his mother, where it was placed in the hospital morgue until arrangements were made for its being sent to Oak Grove cemetery.

Judge J. P. Cartwright, judge in whose district the street-car company has its headquarters, was the first to reach the scene of the accident. He was succeeded by Doctor Robertson, who was followed by Doctor Hearne, the medical men of the company.

The body was repositioned and then passed to the coroner's jury, which was impaneled. The inquest will be opened tomorrow.

The coroner's jury will hear the evidence of the railway company's engineer, who was in charge of the machine at the time of the accident.

The engineer stated that the street car was running at no more than five miles per hour when it collided with the man. He said that he had been watching for the man, but that he was unable to avoid the collision.
