The City National and the Mercantile Bank of the town of Benton met last Tuesday to hold an examining trial near the courthouse.

During the first few minutes of the event the boys took advantage of the opportunity to demonstrate their knowledge of mathematics, elocution, music, Latin, Greek, English, and Hebrew, as well as some other subjects, which they had been taught in the school they attended.

The Olive and Hiram Star is a new paper in our district. It is a sheet that will appeal to all classes of people who are interested in rural life and the welfare of their community.

J. R. Lemon, Benton.

The paper is published weekly on Saturday and is distributed gratis to all those who request it. It is the only paper of its kind in the district and is much needed.

The Silver Vote

New Year's Day, 1894, was a big day for the Red River Argus and Pocahontas.

A diary was taken in the home of the silver oplum agen by one of the members of the party

The diary was written in the English language and contained the following:

"I am very glad to have been elected to the office of mayor of this city. I will work hard to make this city a better place to live in."

The diary was later published in the Argus.

Tuesday, Dec. 30, 1894

This legislative session is closing, but our work is not done. We must continue to work hard to make this a better city.

The City National and the Mercantile Bank of the town of Benton met last Tuesday to hold an examining trial near the courthouse.

The Chicago Financial Post of A. Parker spoke at Murray Monday to the effect that:

It is said Joe E. Hackett has returned from the north for the purpose of attending the funeral of his brother who died last week.

The democratic convention of Illinois has nominated Hon. W. J. Stein in the 11th district for the office of representative in congress.

Ken. Clark, the new railroad agent, and also the new postmaster at Murray, has just returned from the west.

The sale of the property purchased in town by Mrs. J. G. Booth has just been settled.

The coroner's inquest on the death of Grant Stephenson, of Murray, was held yesterday afternoon.

The names of the persons who have been appointed to the various positions in the new school are as follows:
