THE LISTENING POST

● I saw an odd thing the other day. Driving along out of Hickman I saw a party of colored hitch hikers. They were loaded with baggage, and about six persons, large and small, made up the party. They had come to a side road and were evidently a bit confused about directions. At any rate, they were all gathered around the evident leader and he was earnestly looking at a large road map. I have looked at road maps many times myself, and have many times been confused and gone off on the wrong road. But I never knew until the other day that hitch-hikers were also using road maps. I judge that even if they did take the wrong road they would not go a great distance before being corrected. But I guess a mile lost for a hitch-hiker is as serious as twenty or thirty to a motor car traveler. I hope the colored folks made the right turn.

● When this was written Friday afternoon all indications pointed to the fact that winter, long overdue, was pressing in towards Fulton. A cold rain was falling and the temperature was rapidly dropping from the unusual high marks of the past few days. It seemed then that November, making a belated start, was determined to show us something in the way of cold weather, and I know that those folks who have a lot of winter clothing to sell welcome such a change. Those people who have nothing but summer clothing and small prospects of getting the winter brand may not welcome the change with quite so much enthusiasm.

● I do not now recall a more perfect autumn than the one which now seems passing. The weather has been ideal, with warm, bright days and cool nights, and there has been little rain over this entire section. In fact, there has been so little frost that it hardly seems like fall. And never have I seen the coloring more gorgeous and beautiful than has been the case this present fall.

● I also learned this fall that frost has nothing to do with the coloring of the trees in autumn. All my life I have, firmly believed that the trees never turned until the coming of frost, and this year I could hardly believe it when they started turning long before the arrival of frost. Still being inclined to doubt this fact, although I saw it taking place, I read up on the subject, and found that science does really say that frost has nothing to do with the color of autumn trees. Now that I have discovered this another illusion is smashed, and I really believe that I will just forget what I read and go back to my former belief.

● Marshall Smith, the genial contact man from the Memphis Chamber of Commerce, was in town yesterday making preliminary plans for the coming of the Memphis Know Your Neighbor Expedition. The party will be Fulton late in the day of November 17, and Marshall was making plans for the half hour stay here. I doubt if there is any man in the Mid-South who knows as many folks as does Marshall, and I was glad to see him. The last time I saw him he insisted on me drinking a bottle of beer with a party of friends, and although I knew better, I could not resist his genial manner and after drinking the beer and taking a ride on some sort of whirling machine I felt that I was mildly intoxicated. The first thing he wanted to know yesterday was how long it required for me to sober up after that wild escapade of drinking a bottle of Memphis brewed beer. Some day I'm going to get even with him, but I have a suspicion that it will take more than a bottle of beer to do it.

Rails Cancel Plan To Slash Employees Pay

Decision Halts Strike Threat; Clears Way For New Legislation

Chicago.—The nation's major railroads canceled an order for a 15 per cent wage cut for approximately 930,000 employees today in the hope their action would expedite government aid.

The decision forestalled a strike of the workers and cleared the way for drafting legislation to help the carriers.

Withdrawal of the pay reduction notice was recommended last Saturday by President Roosevelt's fact-finding board.

J. J. Pelley, president of the Association of American Railroads, and George M. Harrison, chairman of the Railway Labor Executives Association, conferred with Mr. Roosevelt Monday. They announced then he had promised to support a legislative program to aid the rail lines and had expressed confidence an informal committee of six, representing labor management, could present one to the next Congress.

Alluding to these developments, Pelley informed President Roosevelt by telegram today that "The railroads are taking this action not because they agree with the conclusions reached by the fact-finding board, but because they recognize the gravity of the situation and because they hope out of it will come, through the cooperation of all concerned, a sounder and more equitable transportation policy."

The association's legislative committee planned to meet in Washington tomorrow to start work on a remedial legislative program. The members are Carl R. Gray, vice chairman of the Union Pacific Railroad; E. E. Norris, president of the Southern Railway; and M. W. Clement, president of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Browning, Warren Continue In County Democratic Setup

An article a few days ago stating that K. P. Dalton had been named assistant county chairman in the Democratic organization was not complete, and left the inference that James Warren and William Browning, who served during the primary in the east end of the county, were no longer with the organization. This is not correct, as Mr. Browning continues as assistant county chairman to Judge Elvis J. Stahr, and James Warren is chairman for Fulton and the east end of Fulton county.

Both these young Democrats did sterling work in the primary and both will continue work to swell the vote in the election which comes next Tuesday.

New Jefferson Nickles Start Jingling Soon

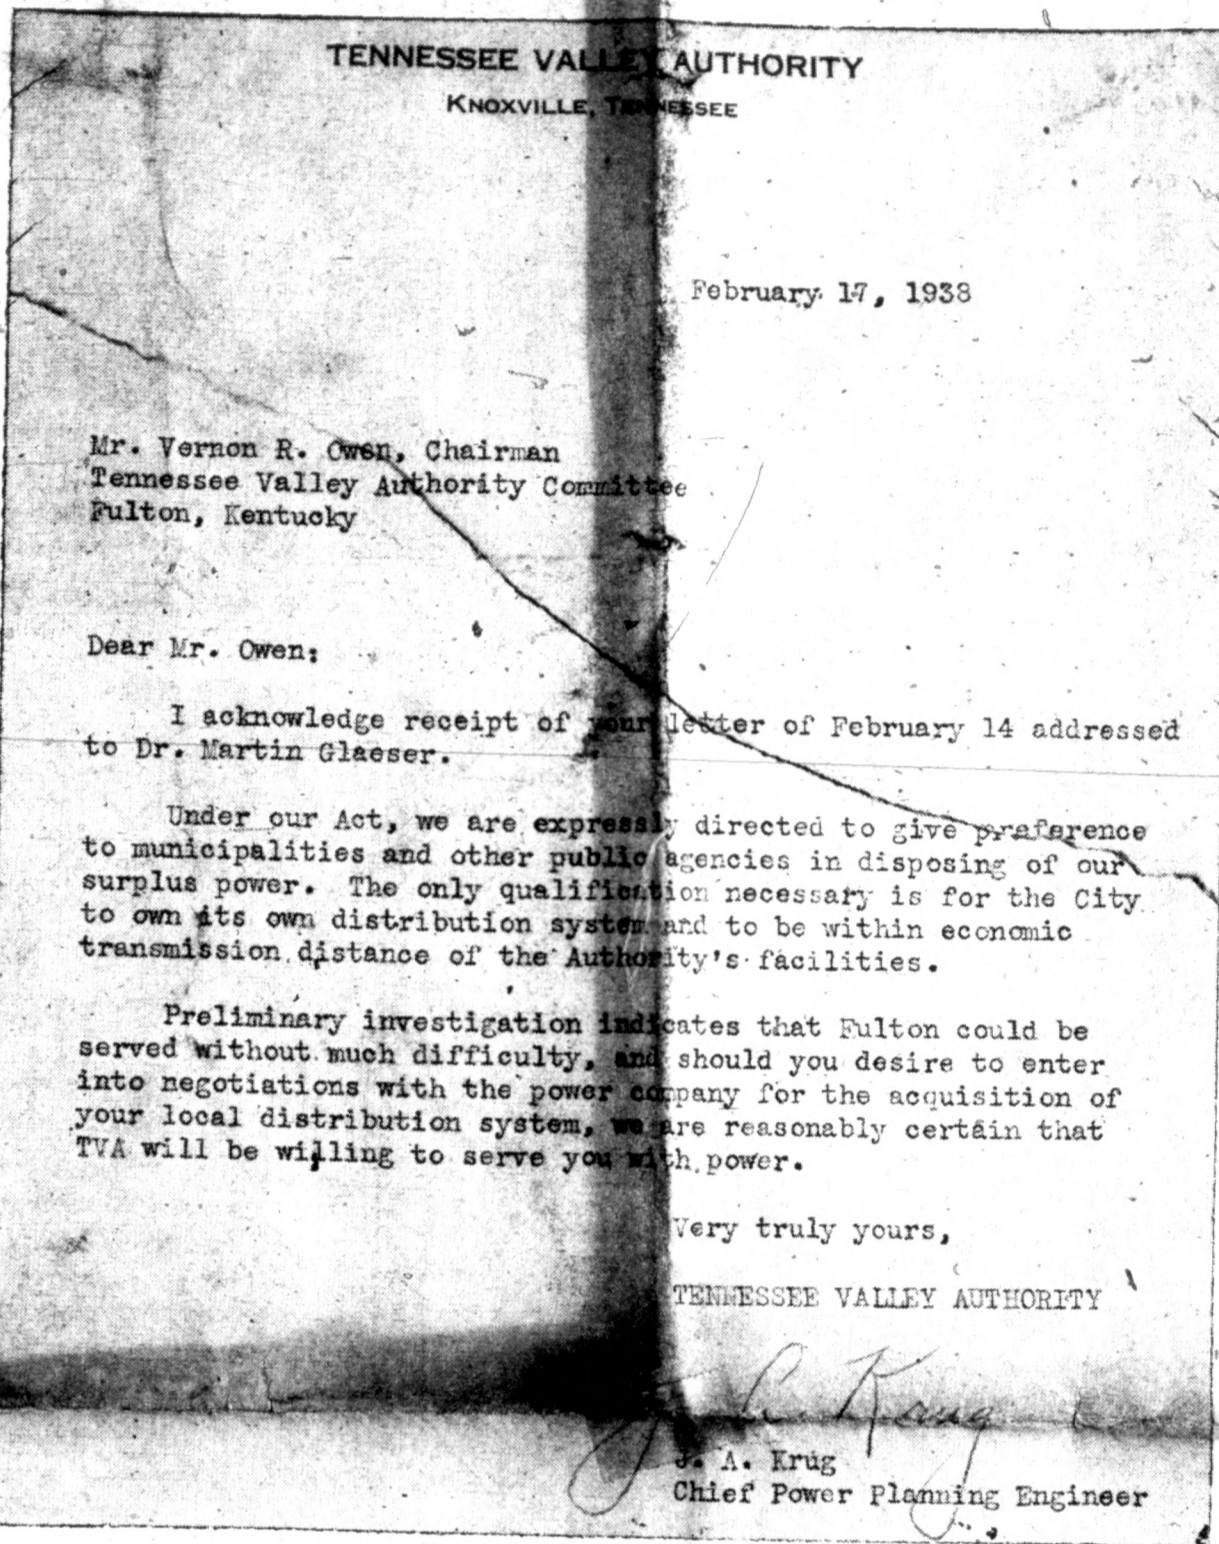

Washington.—About three weeks from now the public can begin jingling the new Jefferson nickels. The mint said today that 7,968,000 of the coins were made last month—the first time since spring any nickels have been coined—and distribution is due late this month. The 25-year-old Indian head-buffalo design was discarded this year and a new design commemorating Thomas Jefferson was selected in an art contest.

Other coinage last month included 392,103 half dollars, 503 quarters, 2,700,503 dimes and 9,172,500 pennies.

The Philadelphia mint also turned out 2,200,000 one peso coins for Cuba.

Sam Sadler Dies On Paschall Street

Sam Sadler, 76 years of age, died suddenly last night at 7:30 o'clock at the home of his granddaughter, Mrs. Guy Lacey, 125 Paschall Street, Mr. Sadler was evidently a victim of a heart attack.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Minnie Sadler, of Martin; two daughters, Mrs. Sam Hutchins of Fulton and Mrs. Dort Sadler, of Martin; three brothers, Charlie and Jim Sadler of Dresden, and Ben Sadler of Arkansas; one sister, Mrs. Sack Kirby of Texas; and besides Mrs. Lacey, eleven other grand children survive. Also six great grand children.

Funeral services are being conducted this afternoon at two o'clock at Hatter's Camp Ground. Burial will be held there in charge of Winstead-Jones, Martin, Tenn.

To The Citizens Of Fulton --

(Paid Advertisement)
It is not and was not the intention of the Mayor or Board of Council to use any high pressure salesmanship methods to put this bond issue over and so far as they are concerned this has not and will not be done, but there are certain features of the propaganda which is now being circulated among the voters which is misleading in its nature whether intentional or unintentional on the part of those circulating it by advertisement in newspaper and by word of mouth, and it is some of this propaganda that I hope to correct in this article.

Regardless of assurance on the part of those who know that the amount to be raised by floating an issue of bonds would not cost the tax payer one penny so far as his property or property tax was concerned, and that it would not raise his taxes to any extent, I understand it is still being whispered around that it will raise the amount of such property tax. In order to satisfy those who may still be doubtful on this score I call your attention to Section 3480 D-5 which is a part of the Act relative to voting on this proposition, and there will be found in this section the following statement:

"Such bond when issued shall be payable solely from the revenue fund derived from such light, heat or power plant."

That is the law and a tax payer could not if he desired to do so make his property liable for one dime's worth of this bond issue.

I note in an article published a day or so ago over the heading of Kentucky Utilities Company, the statement, "that the proposed bond issue has nothing whatever to do with bringing TVA electric power to Fulton. It is simply a scheme to spend a large sum of money for an unnecessary municipal electric plant."

As a matter of fact the proposed bond issue has everything to do with bringing TVA power to Fulton. Without the floating of bond issue a distribution system could not be purchased and TVA will not and can not come to a municipality until it has either purchased or built its distribution system. The reason TVA can not now come to Fulton or can not come in the future is because Fulton does not own its distributing system and can never own it until the money is available to pay for it.

It is not the intention now to build an electric light plant, but only to acquire a distribution system for the purpose of purchasing at the city limits wholesale power either from TVA or any other equally satisfactory source which might be available. The ordinance does say and ask you to vote for purchasing, constructing or operating a municipal light plant, but under the Statutes the ordinance must so provide and the city would not be confined to that particular proposition but could avail itself of any part or the whole if it saw fit. In other words under this ordinance enacted in the expressed terms of the Statutes, the city may erect its plant or distribution system or it may purchase or erect its distribution system only but the ordinance could not be enacted validly in any other phraseology than that adapted. All of the correspondence with the Kentucky Utilities Company on the part of the Mayor and Board of Council has been directed to the purchase of its distribution system and expressly excluded therefrom its plant.

I note also that considerable criticism is directed to the phraseology of the question to be submitted to the voters of the City of Fulton in these words, "Notice that the question says nothing about lower electric rates or TVA service." Naturally not. It was doubtless the opinion of the Legislature that the voter would exercise some quantity of common sense when voting on this question and he is called upon to distinguish which is cheaper to

G-Men Seek To Link Crime To "Syndicate"

New York.—The unsolved slaying of 12-year-old Peter Levine, kidnaped from his New Rochelle, N. Y., home last February 24, was reported near a "break" tonight as Federal agents sought to link the crime with three captured members of an alleged "kidnap syndicate."

Dwight Brantley, New York F. B. I. chief, disclosed that Federal sleuths working on the Levine case ran across clues which put them on the trail—of another unsolved mystery—the kidnap-slaying of Arthur Fried young White Plains, N. Y., business man, last December.

"Those clues," Brantley said "led to the uncovering of the so-called kidnaping trust."

Clues Sought in Celler
Meanwhile, police with picks and shovels dug up the cellar of a lower East Side building known as Ukrainian Hall—voted by G-Men as the hideout where Fried's body was cremated in a furnace—in quest of new clues to support a theory it might have been used as a gambling execution chamber.

Fragments of bone and teeth which police first believed to have been parts of Fried's body, exhumed from a freshly-cemented "tomb" in the cellar, were found to be chicken, beef and rabbit bones from the refuse of banquets.

Convicts Doff Striped Suits

Nashville, Tenn.—Tennessee, seeking to "modernize" the treatment of its convicts will abandon prison stripes and lashings as disciplinary measures.

Institutions Commissioner George Cate said "discipline cells" would be installed. These cells would be rooms "of solid concrete without windows," having ventilation through steel doors and little or no natural light.

The commissioner said blue cotton pants and shirts would be substituted for the stripes.

Appellate Court Job Given Sims

Frankfort, Ky.—Circuit Judge N. Porter Sims, of Bowling Green, was appointed a commissioner of the Kentucky Court of Appeals today to succeed W. Truman Drury of Morganfield who died last Friday.

The appointment was made by Chief Justice James W. Stites. Sims is expected to take up his new duties next Wednesday, completing the personnel of the court for the first time since Judge William Rogers Clay died last August. Deaths and illness since that time have kept the post of either a judge or commissioner vacant.

Judge Sims was born in Warren County November 11, 1883, attended Virginia Military Institute and the University of Virginia and was graduated in law from the University of Michigan in 1914. He returned to Bowling Green and practiced law until elected Circuit Judge of the Eighth Judicial District in 1927.

Three Clubs Send Delegates To Zone Meeting Of Lions Clubs

Approximately 50 members of Lions Club met last night in a zone meeting of Lions Clubs held at the Rainbow Room, delegates attending from Clinton, Mayfield and Hickman. The Paducah club failed to send a delegation, and conflicting engagements reduced the delegations from Mayfield and Clinton to two persons. The Hickman club sent five delegates.

Those from Mayfield were Glynn Williamson and Alec Inman, those from Clinton Messrs. Northington and Shultz, those from Hickman, Messrs. Dobson, Hollman, and Atteberry and Barry. Lynn Taylor, Fulton, was also a visitor.

Louis Kasnow said the words of welcome for the visitors and Rev. E. R. Ladd said the invocation. Robert Binford presented an entertaining program, featuring Miss Dorothy Ann Pearce and members of her dancing class. Little Miss Mary Eleanor Blackstone gave a tap dance, Misses Ruth Knighton and Florence Legate gave a rip-roaring hillbilly number and Miss Pearce gave two splendid dance numbers. Miss Martha Norman Lowe was at the piano.

President Rudd presented Hoyt Moore, deputy district governor, who outlined some of his ideas of what makes a good Lions Club, and following this the various visitors were called on for short talks. This soon turned into a fun session which proved to be one of the high lights of the meeting.

The club will not meet next week, due to the fact that the meeting falls on Armistice Day.

FDR Defends New Deal In Talk To Nation

Urges Election Of Lehman And Wagner; Strikes At Dictators

Hyde Park, N. Y.—President Roosevelt tonight urged the American people to elect on next Tuesday candidates "known for their experience and their liberalism."

The President, speaking from the library of his home here, also appealed for election of candidates "without regard to race, color or creed."

His 3,000-word address, broadcast over three national radio chains, rejected the "negative purposes proposed by old-line Republicans and Communists alike—for they are people whose only purpose is to survive against any other Fascist threat than their own."

The President urged the re-election of Gov. Herbert H. Lehman in his home state of New York and others on the state ticket, mentioning Senator Robert F. Wagner, candidate for re-election and Rep. James M. Mead, candidate for the short senatorial term, by name.

He also took occasion again to praise the record of Gov. Frank Murphy of Michigan in handling Michigan strikes, saying he had substituted negotiation for risk of bloodshed. Murphy is opposed for re-election by former Gov. Frank D. Fitzgerald, Republican.

500 See 1939 Fords Yesterday

Yesterday morning, the 1939 Ford saw "discipline cells" would be installed. These cells would be rooms "of solid concrete without windows," having ventilation through steel doors and little or no natural light.

James A. Willingham, of the Auto Sales Company, Ford dealers said this morning that approximately 500 people visited his show room yesterday to view this beautiful, highly improved automobile.

He invites every citizen of Fulton to visit his show room.

Ickes Claims Roosevelt Is Strong In West

Washington.—Secretary Ickes today said public support of President Roosevelt is stronger in the West today than it was in 1936.

The Secretary, holding his first press conference since returning from a month's speaking tour of the West, said there were local cross currents in Western politics, but that they did not affect national prospects.

"I found President Roosevelt stronger now in the West than he was in 1936," Ickes declared. "There was every indication that the Western people understand, sympathize with and support Roosevelt's policies."

Time For Democrats To Pull Together

The Democratic Senatorial primary campaign which ended August 6, was aptly described as Kentucky's "political" battle of the century. Both Senator Alben W. Barkley and Governor A. E. Chandler, the chief opponents for the nomination, labored to the last draw, sparing no punches, fighting for every available vote.

It was a party fight, however, a family affair. Through this method the Democrats of Kentucky selected the man they want to represent them in the United States Senate. By a majority of over 70,000, Senator Barkley was selected. That settled the family fight.

In some of the Congressional districts there were contests between candidates for seats in the national House of Representatives. The Democratic of each district selected a nominee for this high office. Those were family fights, too, and now they are settled.

The final election is approaching. On November 3 all the voters of Kentucky will go to the polls to select the man who actually will represent them at Washington. This is the time that all Democrats should pull together, forgetting family squabbles and disagreements.

That is being done, too. Governor Chandler and others who supported him in his campaign for the Senatorial nominee are now supporting Senator Barkley. Opponents of the Democratic nominees for Congress are now giving them loyal support.

This is time to forget bitterness that might have been created by a heated primary campaign, and to forget personal differences. At the same time, it is proper for Democrats to keep their eyes on November 3rd, battle to the limit to elect their nominees in this election.

The Democrats may have family fights in the future, but the prospects of those battles should not dim the spirit of co-operation among Democrats now, a spirit that if properly applied will assure the election of all the Democratic nominees by the majorities.

THE ANSWER IS "NO"

Must Fulton own a distribution system before the city can enter into contract with T. V. A.?

The answer is NO.

As proof of this, Memphis, Knoxville and Chattanooga, Tennessee entered into contract with the T. V. A. quite sometime before they acquired or constructed a distribution system. Middleboro, Kentucky entered into contract with the T. V. A. on July 29th, and to this date they do not have a distribution system.

The facts in the case are; the citizens of Fulton do not have to vote this bond issue in order to get T. V. A. service when it might be available at some future date. Nor will the fact that the Kentucky Utilities Company operating in Fulton at that time, with or without franchise, be of any disadvantage whatsoever to the city in acquiring T. V. A. service.

Be Safe And Vote "NO" On The $110,000 Bond Issue.

U. S. To Reopen Arms Plants, Cut Delay In Warship Building

Washington. —The magnitude of the United States' effort to re-arm swiftly in a troubled world was emphasized today with disclosures that long-unused arms plants are to be reopened and steps taken to cut down delays in construction of warships.

President Roosevelt, at Hyde Park, N. Y., made known that a $22,000,000 World War I ordinance plant at South Charleston, W. Va., will be reopened and devoted to a secret purpose, and that the New Orleans Navy Yard will be used again after being inoperative since 1921.

Part of General Plan

These steps, Mr. Roosevelt said are part of a general program of utilizing disused, Government-owned land and plants, so far as possible in the rearmament program, instead of buying private property.

Mr. Roosevelt's remarks about delays in warship construction were of intense interest here. He said the Government is striving to reduce the time that elapses between appropriation for warships and completion of construction. A major reason for these delays, he said, is the fact that designs have rapidly changed during the construction of ships.

Design Ideas Differ

Mr. Roosevelt made these remarks when asked about reports that the Navy faced possible further delays because Navy officials are split on matters of design.

Earlier in the day, the Navy disclosed the transfer of two officers on its key board of inspection and survey, but denied the transfers were due to any criticism the two men had made of ship designs.

U. S. To Seek New Foreign Markets For Various Crops

Washington. —One of the Agriculture Department's top-ranking marketing experts was en route to Europe today to try to expand exports of surplus American farm products.

F. R. Wilcox, vice president of the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation, called from New York last night carrying instructions of Secretary Wallace to visit England, Norway, Sweden, Belgium, the Netherlands, France and possibly Germany and Italy, to investigate marketing possibilities.

Outlook Less Favorable

Recently foreign trade experts in the department reported that the outlook for farm exports next year was less favorable than during the current year, largely because of stiffening trade restrictions, greater competition from other agricultural countries, and a slump in world business.

The department has declared it intends to place at least 100,000,000 bushels of surplus wheat in foreign markets before next July. To encourage exports, it has been buying grain and selling it to exporters at cut prices.

Sales Slump Badly

But such sales slumped almost to the vanishing point in October and it was reported in official circles that the department itself might attempt direct salesmanship in an effort to speed up exports.

Officials said Wilcox also would investigate the possibility of opening markets for citrus fruits at prices below domestic markets.

HILL JITTERBUGS LOUNCH 'SUGAR ON THE FLOOR'

Lexington, Ky. —When it comes to genuine "jivin'" you can take it from urban spectators at the National Rural Home Conference here, Perry County's mountain folk dances are the real McCoy.

The ten teen-age boys and girls who came from the Homeplace Community near Troublesome Creek to show the conference delegates some old "country dances" said they'd never heard of truckin' or the like.

The newfangled dance names baffled them, but when they began to dance—they call it "play" because some of their churches disapprove of "dance"—they went to town with some hotfooting that would have brought five stars in Harlem.

Delegates jaded by speeches stomped and clapped the rhythm until it sounded like a cannonade as the Perry promenaders brought down the house with a sprightly shuffle called "Sugar On the Floor."

This number climaxed the "Highland Fling" demonstration which topped off the conference's session last night—with all the dash of a pitterbug jamboree.

"Sugar on the floor, sugar on the floor, gonna eat that up and try for more," twanged Alva

Godsey while he and his nine dancing partners clapped, patted feet and "got in the groove."

Faster and faster flew the feet while the rhythm pounded to a crescendo and the dancers went through figures embracing elements of everything from the Lambeth Walk to the Rockne shift and ending with a loudly shouted "Who-Hoo." Sugar On the Floor, and "Big Bal' Eagle" were billed as Kentucky mountain dances.

Speeches ruled again as the second conference session got under way today. Louis H. Bean, A. A. A. economic adviser, told the delegates "the real income of farm laborers and tenants would increase 15 to 20 per cent if industrial activity were at a normal level."

David Donoho, of Breathitt County schools, dined the existence of "whispered and very fine rural art development," but suggested rural life has an opportunity to become the "preserver of the arts."

THE ANSWER IS "NO"

Must Fulton own a distribution system before the city can enter into contract with T. V. A.?

The answer is NO.

As proof of this, Memphis, Knoxville and Chattanooga, Tennessee entered into contract with the T. V. A. quite sometime before they acquired or constructed a distribution system. Middlesboro, Kentucky entered into contract with the T. V. A. on July 29th, 1937 and to this date they do not have a distribution system.

The facts in the case are; the citizens of Fulton do not have to vote this bond issue in order to get T. V. A. service when it might be available at some future date. Nor will the fact that the Kentucky Utilities Company operating in Fulton at that time, with or without a franchise, be of any disadvantage whatsoever to the city in acquiring T. V. A. service.

Be Safe And Vote "NO" On The $110,000 Bond Issue.

WOMEN'S COUNCIL MEETING
TO BE HELD MONDAY P. M.

Monday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock the Woman's Council of the First Christian Church will meet at the church. An interesting program, in charge of Mrs. Harry B. Murphy, will be presented.

WOMAN'S CLUB
IN GOOD MEETING

The Art Department was host to the November meeting of the Fulton Woman's Club which was held yesterday afternoon at the club home. Active hostesses were Mrs. J. E. Fall and Mrs. Fred Worth. Pages were Mrs. Ruth Hubbard and Miss Mary Milner.

The club rooms were unusually attractive with chrysanthemums and roses in varied colors.

The president, Mrs. J. E. Fall, Jr., presided over a brief business session during which time reports of officers were given. Six new members were announced and welcomed into the club. They are Mrs. Harry Raymond, Mrs. L. N. Gifford, Mrs. Milton Exum, Mrs. W. W. Miller, Miss Martha Norman Lowe and Miss Carolyn Beales.

Mrs. Leon Browder announced plans for the annual Thanksgiving party which is to be on Tuesday, November 22, at 2:30 o'clock. Bridge will be played and there will be luncheon and bingo for those who wish to make up private parties. A turkey will be given as grand prize and there will be several other prizes. Club members are urged to cooperate and help to make this party a great success.

The program was then turned over to Miss Agatha Gayle, Chairman of the Art Department, who presented Mrs. W. M. Hall, Director of Fine Arts, and Miss Yeiser, teacher of tapestry and weaving, of the Murray State Teachers College. Mrs. Hall gave a very instructive and entertaining talk on Arts and Crafts. She also told about different designs of the blocked prints which were displayed. Miss Yeiser then explained how weaving was done, showing various designs and some finished articles made by her students at Murray.

Following the program, tea dainties were served from a lace draped cloth, which had as its central appointment pink radiance roses in a silver basket. White tapers in silver candle holders were placed at either side. Mrs. W. W. Morris presided at the tea table.

Now is a good time to renew your subscription.

CAYCE'S SENIOR CLASS

him to pay on the one hand for electric distribution system owned by the city for expense, interest and retirement of bonds, and between a private owned utility where not only are these items included in electric light bills but also must pay dividends to stock holders of the Company.

The Mayor and Board of Council feel that this matter has been agitated pro and con before them so long that this is the opportunity to ascertain the sentiment of the people of the community and get them to say whether they want utilities owned publicly where there is at least a chance to secure lower electric rates, or whether they want to continue with the private owned utility—where in all probability there is no chance of securing such consideration, and they feel that it is after all the public's business and they should make up their minds once and for all on the facts as they are, and say to the City Council on next Tuesday from their own individual opinion "yes" or "no".

What Do They Intend To Do?

On page one of The Fulton Leader of October 25, 1938, Mayor Paul DeMyer made the following statement:

"I'm sorry that the bond issue has been misinterpreted by our voters. Neither I or the City Council have any intention of building a generating plant which means making electric current in Fulton. We have never had this in mind.

"This bond issue is to buy or build a distribution system which means poles, wire, meters, transformers, AND NOT A POWER PLANT."

THIS IS PRETTY PLAIN ENGLISH ISN'T IT?

Yet here is what the Mayor and Council voted in a resolution on September 5th, 1938:

"Be it resolved by the Board of Council; That Paul DeMyer, Mayor, be and is authorized to execute and file an application on behalf of the City of Fulton, Kentucky to the United States of America for a grant to aid in financing the construction of an electric distribution system and POWER PLANT."

Confusing to say the least, isn't it?

What does the Mayor and Council really intend to do?

To Make Sure Of What Is Of Best Interest To The Citizens Of Fulton-Vote "NO" On The $110,000 Bond Issue.

To The Fulton Citizens--

Being a citizen and taxpayer of Fulton, I am very much interested in the Electric Bond Issue. Some are saying that we can get T. V. A. Others said we could not get T. V. A. I made up my mind that if I could find out for myself, I wrote to the T. V. A. officials and asked if we could get T. V. A. at Fulton.

I am, for the benefit of the citizens of Fulton, having this letter published in order that you may know what they say.

TENNESSEE VALLEY AUTHORITY

Knoxville, Tennessee

October 25, 1938

Mr. J. E. Melton
Fulton, Kentucky

Dear Mr. Melton:

This will acknowledge your letter of October 21 wherein you inquire as to the availability of TVA power for the City of Fulton.

The Authority is reserving most of the power to be generated at Gilbertsville Dam for the use of communities in Kentucky. The power output from the dams in Tennessee and Alabama will be required for the most part by communities in Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama, and Georgia. Accordingly, the Authority is deferring the extension of transmission lines into Kentucky to serve any sizeable loads until after the completion of Gilbertsville Dam.

Very truly yours,

TENNESSEE VALLEY AUTHORITY

J. A. Krug,
Chief Power Planning Engineer

I am leaving the original letter with this paper that any one desiring may see it.
