10 CENTS PER WEEK

IN LOBSTER BELT NEW YEAR'S DAY

New York Will Celebrate It
With Grand Orgy.

Fifty Thousand People Will Drink
Enough Champagne to Float Battleship.

EAT ENOUGH TO FEED ARMY

New York, Dec. 29.—New Year's in New York will be a Roman festival such as the ancient city by the Tiber never saw in all its centuries of magnificence. This year the Great White Way is making preparations for a celebration that will be a wonder even to itself. For two weeks every table in every popular resort in the lobster belt has been reserved for the inevitable "supper" at prices ranging from $2 to $5 a seat, and that takes no account of the many dollars that will be spent in other ways after the game is on. It is estimated that 50,000 people will partake of the feast in that gilded mile of Broadway, beside which all the rest of the world seems tame and uninteresting on New Year's Eve. Enough food will be eaten or wasted to feed an army for a week, and the champagne consumed would float a battleship. The section in which the celebration will be most strenuous extends from Twenty-third street to Forty-eighth street and reaches its climax at Longacre Square, into which, after the theatres are out, Broadway, Seventh avenue, Forty-second street and Forty-fourth street pour an army of revelers and sight-seers. Around the square are ranged the famous restaurants and hotels where the fun will be most uproarious. By virtue of its size the Hotel Astor will accommodate the largest number—between 1,500 and 2,000. So great has been the demand for places that the capacity of the regular dining rooms and cafes was exceeded long ago, and all sorts of makeshift preparations have been made to accommodate the overflow in ball rooms and parlors.

BROADWAY'S REPUTATION.

Dr. J. Q. A. Taylor Never Could Drive Its Length.

As a tribute to Paducah's progressiveness a remark of Dr. J. Q. A. Taylor, secretary of the board of public works, in commenting on the improvements contemplated for the city during 1907, takes the palm. "I have been in Paducah nineteen years, and I have never yet been able to drive down Broadway."

Dr. Taylor won't be able to drive down that thoroughfare next year, either, as the plans of improvement embodying the reconstruction of Broadway, with bituminous, from Ninth street to the railroad, and from there on out, probably to the city limits, with the gravel and tar composition and concrete walks all the way.

WAREHOUSE FIRE.

Damages Stock of J. G. Rehkopf
Luggage Company.

Fire was discovered in the buggy storage warehouse of the John G. Rehkopf Buggy company at Third and Monroe streets at 12:10 o'clock this morning by Dick Brabie, the ball player, who was en route home. An alarm was quickly answered and the flames extinguished with little damage. The blaze started from some unknown cause near the front door and damaged one buggy and some fixtures lying near. The loss is $100 covered by insurance.

POPULISTS KEEP PARTY NAME Refuse to Disband and Join the Re- publicans in Kansas.

Topeka, Kas., Dec. 29.—The Populist leaders called here today by State Chairman Hanna to disband and join the Republican party declined to do so. Hanna pleaded with his brethren and insisted that Roosevelt was good enough Populist for him. But the two dozen leaders said it was too early to disband a party that had twice carried Kansas. It is said that William J. Bryan, who addresses the state teachers here today, advised the Populists to maintain their organization.

DISTRESS

AMONG VESSELS ON ATLANTIC COAST TODAY.

Ferryboat Sinks With Horses—Dominion Liner Aground—Unknown Boat.

New York, Dec. 29.—The ferryboat Patterson collided with the freight liner North River and sank. Eighteen teams were drowned and one man is missing.

Old Dominion Liner.
Norfolk, Va., Dec. 29.—The Old Dominion liner Hamilton went aground this morning off Sewell's point during a fog. There is hope of floating her soon.

No Relief for Vessel.
New York, Dec. 29.—Fears are entertained that unknown vessel in distress off Carborough will break up. It is feared great loss of life will result. The vessel is firing rockets. It is impossible to launch the life boats.

Quail Season Up Monday.
The game law, as far as quail are concerned, runs out with the year, and notwithstanding the inclement weather hunters fill the woods daily. This morning many were seen going into the woods to hunt and for the past several days sportsmen with well-filled game bags returned to the city about dusk. Taking the season all in all, there has been comparatively little hunting, owing to the extreme wet season.

CABAL FORMED

TO PREVENT ROOSEVELT MAN BEING NOMINATED.

Times Publishes Story of Foraker,
Cox, Harriman, Et Al.—Taft
Just Willing.

New York, Dec. 29.—The Times in an "inspired" story from Washington says plans are being laid by Republican politicians to prevent Roosevelt naming his successor in 1908. Conservatives are engineering the deal aided by members of the old Hanna machine. Foraker used the Brownsville affair to control the southern delegation. The members of the combine are said to be Foraker, Aldrich, Scott, Elkins, Harriman, George B. Cox and Blythe, of Iowa. Opposing them are Roosevelt, Taft and other politicians. The battle will be one of Titans.

Taft Not Ambitious.
Washington, Dec. 29.—Taft gives out an interview that he has no political ambitions and does not expect to be the Republican nominee for president. "But I am not foolish enough to say, 'If the opportunity came I should decline, for that would not be true.'"

Taft vs. Foraker.
Columbus, Ohio, Dec. 29.—Politicians here declare they have known for three weeks that Taft would be a presidential candidate and measure swords with Foraker in the Ohio delegation.

MONEY IS ACTIVE IN PADUCAH TRADE

Bank Clearings Show More
Than $4000,000 Increase.

Public Improvements and the Growing Business Draws on Supply of Cash.

SEMI-ANNUAL DIVIDEND TIME

Bank clearings $628,976
Last year 556,695
Total for 1906 ... $35,548,679
Total for 1905 ... 30,821,288

It was fitting that the last week in the year should show an increase in the bank clearings, in a year so eminently successful in that line. Only nine times out of a possible fifty-two, did the bank clearings show a decrease in 1906.

The total amount of bank clearings for the whole year aggregates the enormous sum of $35,548,679.

The increase in bank clearings of 1906 over 1905 was $4,727,391.

It is an increase that any citizen of Paducah, business man or not, can talk about with pride. Yet the year will find the banks probably with less, and certainly with no great increase of deposits over last year. The explanation is found in the street work, the great activity in building, in the heavily loaded wagons of the wholesale and manufacturing concerns. In other words, the capital in Paducah has been more active in 1906 than it was in 1905. There has been little idle money in the banks during the year. The same amount of capital could show a vast difference in clearings simply by the degree of activity with which it circulates. The street work, building and other operations, took the money out of the banks and placed it in circulation.

With one holiday this week, the clearings are large. The banks will all declare their semi-annual dividends next week and every indication now points to a still more remarkable year in 1907 than was exhibited in 1906. It is a significant fact that for the last several years, Paducah each year has shown a strong increase over the preceding year.

MAY BE ANOTHER CAUCUS.

Rumor That Some Councilmen Will Support Foreman.

Some slate breaking may be indulged in by the lower board of the general council before the majority finally settles on its candidate for the presidency. There was a caucus a week ago at which H. R. Lindsey, councilman-elect from the First ward, was selected, but not all the councilmen were present. A. M. Foreman was in a receptive mood it was understood, and he is still the favorite with some of the members. In the meantime, it appears, that the real claims of Alonzo Crandell, from the Sixth ward, the only Democratic hold over, have been quite overlooked. Another caucus may be called before the board meets Monday night, January 7.

URGES SUFFRAGISTS TO FIGHT American Society Sends Encouragement ment to Sisters in England.

Philadelphia, Dec. 29.—The National American Woman Suffrage association, through its president, Rev. Anna Shaw, today sent a letter, signed by all the officers, to the Women's Political and Social union in England. The letter expresses sympathy with the English suffragists in their fight to obtain a hearing before parliament, condemns the "brutality" with which the suffragists have been treated and urges the union to keep up its struggle.

WOMAN NOT GUILTY.

Apparently Passed Counterfeit Bill,
Not Knowing About It.

Detective T. J. Moore has run down the clew to the person who passed a counterfeit $5 at the Illinois Central depot a few weeks ago. The woman, who was bound for Memphis, is well known here and it was at first thought she was in collusion with a man on the same train. Investigation disproved this, and established the fact that the woman got the bill at a local jewelry store.

JEROME AT HIMSELF.

New York, Dec. 29.—Developments show that the grand jury did not indict George W. Perkins and Charles S. Fairchild until Jerome threatened to take them before a magistrate and have them ordered. Jurors made light of the proceedings. Jerome was angry and threatening. The maximum penalty is five years on each indictment of which there are six.

WAR IN POLAND.

Lodz, Poland, Dec. 29.—Civil war is on, following the lockout of 22,000 factory hands. Troops and workmen are fighting. Revolutionary flags are flying. Mill managers are fleeing, fearing assassination. Many already have been killed. Great bloodshed is feared tonight.

DIES OF BROKEN HEART.

New York, Dec. 29.—Friends of Cassatt say he died of a broken heart over the sensational disclosures that officers of the Pennsylvania accepted stock in coal carrying companies for favors.

QUIET IN CUBA.

Washington, Dec. 29.—Taft received this morning the most assuring information on the Cuban situation. Magoon says there is no danger of an outbreak.

PADUCAH WILL BE WELL PROTECTED

Chief Collins Assigns New Men to Duties.

Two Men on Patrol Wagon, Round-men and Broadway Patrol Are Established.

WEST END WILL BE GUARDED.

Plans for the most complete police protection Paducah ever had. Chief Collins believes he has evolved to be put to the test Tuesday at noon, and if he had mounted men for the outskirts of the city, he would be satisfied. The plan adopted comprehends the patrolling of the west end, heretofore without protection, the stationing of a man at Fourth street and Broadway permanently, the appointment of two men to the patrol wagon, the espionage of a roundsman and two detectives.

Patrolman Emil Gourieux will be roundsman at night. He will make the posts of the patrolmen and keep in touch with them and the station house. Detectives Moore and Baker will be on duty day and night in plain clothes.

Patrolman Singery will be stationed at Fourth street and Broadway between the hours of 9 o'clock a. m. and 9 o'clock p. m. Patrolman Singery, who is a giant in stature, calm and courteous, will look after strangers, protect pedestrians at the corner and strengthen the patrol on the busy part of Broadway.

The assignments of patrolmen, which go into effect at noon January 1 are as follows:

Seamon and Terrell, patrol wagon, Cross and Johnson, No. 1—12 at noon until 12 at night.
Brennan and Shelby, No. 1—12 at night until 12 at noon.
Glass and Rogers, No. 2—12 at noon until 12 at night.
Hill and Orr, No. 2—12 at night until 12 at noon.
Hess and Rouse, No. 3—12 at noon until 12 at night.
Long and Howell, No. 3—12 at night until 12 at noon.
Jones and Wood, No. 4—12 at noon until 12 at night.
Ferguson and Prince, No. 4—12 at night until 12 at noon.
Hurley and Senger, depot—12 at noon until 12 at night.
Clark and Moore, depot—12 at night until 12 at noon.
Alexander and Sanders, Third street, 12 at night until 12 at noon.
Dufan and Gray, Third street—12 at noon until 12 at night.

INGLESIDE LODGE

TOO MANY HORSES HAD THIS BEGGAR

Made Agent Jap Toner Suspicious of Her.

Found Another Case of "Everybody Works But Father" in Camp of Gypsies.

WOMEN HAD PITIFUL TALES

While their husbands rolled themselves in blankets beside warm camp fires to await their return, two women have been canvassing the city, calling on the county judge, the mayor and the Charity club for "aid." Through Jap Toner, agent of the Charity club, the women were exposed, and it will be a hard matter for them to ply their craft again in Paducah.

Several days ago a woman apparently 40 years old, applied to the mayor for assistance and was referred to Toner. He inquired into the case and was told she was a widow with two children and no husband, and that they were in destitute circumstances. He gave her an order for $2.

Later she was reported at residences in the city, begging. She applied at the Charity club headquarters again shortly after and was referred to the mayor and in turn back to the Charity club. Toner failed to find her residence at first, although he looked all over Tyler where she claimed she resided.

Yesterday she was approached by the woman and a female companion. Each time he saw the first woman he noted she drove a different kind of horse and she failed to explain how it was possible for one so poor to possess so many horses.

"I found them yesterday," Toner stated. "They were camped about a mile southwest of Tyler. There were fully a dozen men horse traders, and as many children. I judge 20 would not be an extreme estimate on the number in camp. There were 20 horses or more, and these are the people the women had been begging for. I have made an official report."

MAY BE NO MARKETMASTER.

C. E. Bell Will Be Enjoined and J. E.
Potter Can Not Qualify.

There may be no marketmaster Tuesday. Frank Smedley, the incumbent says he will turn over the keys to the city Monday night, J. E. Potter, appointed by the board of public works, will enjoin C. E. Bell from acting, while Mr. Potter himself can not qualify, it is understood, until the general council accepts his bond. Probably Mr. Smedley will be ordered to continue until the right of succession is settled in court. Injunction against A. Bundesman, sewer inspector, will have a strange effect. It is supposed he can hold until his successor qualifies. If he is enjoined and A. Franke, the board of public works appointee, can not qualify because his bond is not accepted, that office will be vacant.

BONDS OF POLICEMEN.

Taken Out in Illinois Surety Company
Up to Mayor.

Will the mayor accept the Illinois Surety company as bond for the policemen? is a question bothering Detectives Moore and Baker. The mayor is undecided, having to "look into the matter."

"I do not know what I shall do about it," Mayor Yeiser explained, "and will look into the matter thoroughly before I act."

Each policeman tendered this company as a bond last night but no action was taken. This morning Detective Will Baker was busy writing out receipts to the patrolmen for the fee paid for bond. He was anxious to know what the chief executive intends doing.

The detectives are agents for the Illinois Surety company and last year the saloon bonds were secured in this company.

Morphine Poisoning.

Effie Jackson, a young woman boarding at the residence of Mrs. Addie Bolton, 1018 North Fourteenth street, narrowly escaped death by morphine poisoning last night about 8 o'clock. She was saved by the prompt action of Dr. R. A. Washburn.

IN TENNESSEE.

Ben Frank Believes Lloyd Smith Will Be Found.

Ben Frank, the former employer of Lloyd Smith, whose disappearance is causing residents on the Oaks Station road great concern, was in Paducah again today and had additional news about the case.

"I have written letters where Smith is likely to have gone. I think he took an N. C. & St. L. freight train to Tennessee, and will know in a few days if this is right. I am sorry that matters have turned out as they have. I still believe he was simply frightened into running away."

SIX HUNDRED

RECEIVE PRESENTS FROM THE CHRISTMAS TREE.

Policeman Stationed at the Door to Keep Order Among the Eager Crowd.

Like the charge of the light brigade was the rush of over 600 people to gain access to the Union Rescue Mission, 431 South Third street, last night when big Christmas tree was exposed. A policeman stood at the door and maintained some sort of order, and remained there until the last person fled out, made happy with a Christmas gift of some useful article of food, wearing apparel or furniture. There were hats by the score, and shoes and coats and dresses, bed comforts, blankets, food and everything possible to make the needy more comfortable during the cold months. The crowd exceeded the one of last year by nearly 100. The Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Chiles are gratified by the popularity of the tree and express their appreciation to the merchants, and the subscribers of The Sun, who made the blessing possible.

Miss Calissi's Dog Burned.

Miss Sylvia Calissi is hunting for the meanest man in town, and if she discovers him, his case will immediately be referred to the humane officer for prosecution in the courts. Miss Calissi owns a fine bred bull terrier dog. The dog got away from home several days ago and showed up last night badly burned about the head and neck with carbolic acid.

CIRCUS

COULD GIVE PERFORMANCE IN PADUCAH WITHOUT PAY.

License Omitted From Ordinance Just Passed by Council—Mayor
Will Sign.

Paducah will be an open town for circuses after January 1, until the incoming general council amends the license ordinance fixing the fee. By some oversight this item was omitted from the new ordinance. Mayor Yeiser is going over it carefully, and there may be some omissions to be corrected.

"In the main it is good," said the mayor, "but I am like some of the members who expressed themselves last night. There are some features I would change if I had my way, but we can't have everything to suit us. I shall sign the ordinance as soon as I have read it all."

STRUGGLE ENDED; DEATH IS VICTOR

Dr. J. D. Smith Enters Into His Reward.

Leading Prohibitionist in Kentucky and Late Candidate for Congress.

FUNERAL WILL BE SUNDAY.

Dr. John D. Smith, 77 years old, late Prohibition candidate for congress, died Friday afternoon at 3:20 o'clock of infirmities incident to old age, after an illness of several weeks. His demise was not unexpected, and his family had been about his bedside since he first became ill.

Several times during his illness his life was despaired of, but he rallied and made heroic battle.

Dr. Smith was a Prohibitionist, the foremost in the state. He was born March 18, 1829, Anson county, N. C., and in 1858 moved with his parents to Henderson county, Tenn.

He received his education there and at the age of 15 years began studying medicine in Red Bank, Benton county, Tenn., where he first field he practiced his profession and he made a success from the start. In 1854 he graduated from the Memphis Medical college with high honors, and until 1861 when he entered the Confederate army he practiced medicine in Dyer county, Tenn.

He served in his regiment as assistant surgeon and later in the war was made superintendent of the Dawson hospital at Greensborough, Ga. He worked generally in hospitals throughout the south during the war and made an excellent record, but was forced to go home for thirteen months on account of illness after the defeat of General Hood. He never returned to the army because of broken health.

At Friendship, Tenn., he resumed the practice of medicine and in 1881 removed to Dyersburg, Tenn. In 1886 Dr. Smith left Dyersburg and came to Paducah, where he has since resided.

Dr. Smith was a writer of note, several of his articles on medicine having attracted general attention in this country.

Dr. Smith was known in this section probably best for his fight against liquor. He was one of the foremost prohibitionists in the state and took an active part in the work of his party. He was chairman of the state Prohibition party and was the nominee for congress in the late elections, making an active canvass. He polled a great many more votes than even his friends anticipated.

Dr. Smith was married to Miss V. M. White, of Benton county, Tenn., December 8, 1850, and she died June 11, 1890. Eleven children were born to them, and those surviving are Dr. Smith, Greenville, Tenn.; J. D. Smith, Birmingham, Ala.; W. M. Smith, Louisville, Bette-E. Smith, Los Angeles, Cal.; J. Weightman Smith, Los Angeles, Cal.; Prof. J. D. Smith, Paducah, Ky.

Those at his bedside when he passed away were Prof. J. D. Smith, Miss Bette Smith, Dr. M. M. Smith and Thomas Smith.

The deceased was a member of the Methodist church and a diligent church worker.

The funeral will be conducted Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Broadway M. E. church. The burial will be in Oak Grove cemetery. The Rev. W. T. Bolling will conduct the services.

The J. T. Walbert Camp, Confederate Veterans, will meet tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the city hall to accompany to the Broadway Methodist church the body of the late Dr. J. D. Smith.

The pallbearers are: Active—J. E. Wright, Capt. James Koser, Dr. Frank Boyd, C. H. Brothers, Sighis and I. B. Howell. Honorary—G. C. Crumbaugh, T. J. Atkins, D. J. Foster, Hon. E. W. Bugh, H. Scott and J. L. Webb.

THEATRICAL NOTES

AT THE KENTUCKY.
New Year's, Matinee and Night—William Owen in "Romeo and Juliet" Wednesday Night—Bob Fitzsimmons in "A Fight for Love."
Thursday Night—"The Empire."
Friday Night—Modjeska in "Mary Stuart."
Saturday—Matinee and night, "Isle of Spice."

New Year's Attraction.
Nothing in the whole range of the drama can equal Shakespeare's immortal tragedy "Romeo and Juliet." In the intensity of its heart interest. From the first rise of the curtain to its final fall it grips the attention of the spectator with its glowing pictures of the love of two young souls intended by nature for each other. Circumstances separate them, but cannot taint their love. They are cast in the heroic mould and meet their fate heroically. The variety in characterization of which the modern audience seek to find is found in this play; we have not only the heroic figures of Romeo and Juliet but the bright and sparkling wit of the merry Mercutio. As the contrast to Juliet we have the funny fat old nurse. We have not only the wise Friar Lawrence but the foolish Peter. In the direct contrast to the lover Romeo we have the fiery Tybalt. The serious interest of the piece is lightened by the laughter that accompanies it.

"A Fight for Love."
Bob Fitzsimmons in Hal Reid's play, "A Fight for Love," will be seen at The Kentucky on next Wednesday night. This is not a play for which everything is claimed, but it has proven itself to be a thoroughly strong entertainment of the melodramatic kind. It is of that order of plays that thrill a moment by its highly wrought up scenes and situations and the past plunges an audience into laughter by its comedy. There is no straining for effect in this play; all of its exciting scenes are the natural working out of a well conceived plot. Among the strong scenes introduced are the blacksmith shop in which Mr. Fitzsimmons makes a real horseshoe and nails it to the hoof in view of the audience, a realistic gymnasium scene in which "Bob" introduces his wonderful bag-punching, and incidental to the play, a three-round glove contest between Mr. Fitzsimmons and his sparring partner. The leading female role is entrusted to Julia May Gifford, a gifted young emotional actress, of rare good looks. Not one piece of house scenery is used for the production, the company, which is under the direction of J. C. Matthews, carrying everything including properties and electrical effects.

"The Empire."
What promises to be a notable engagement at The Kentucky is that of Mme. Modjeska.

"The Empire," which comes on Thursday night. This musical comedy boasts the prestige of the longest run in the history of Chicago theatricals, and by those who have seen it is pronounced worthy in every way of its extraordinary vogue. The elements which combine to give "The Empire" this popularity are the modern nature of its themes—the national games, "baseball" and football politics, "graft," diplomacy and other subjects of current interest, together with its music and its comedy, both of which are in the first of their class. No musical comedy ever produced in the past decade contains so many song hits as "The Empire," and the score is considered the master achievement of its composer, Joseph E. Howard. It is enough to know that the comedy kept Chicago laughing for nearly a year. The production is under the direction of Manager Harry Askin of the Grand opera house, Chicago, which assures a rich equipment of scenery and costumes. In the company selected to play the piece are Fred Mace, late leading comedian with "Piff, Paff, Puff," Edith Yerrington, Guelma Baker, who created and played the part of Lotie in Henry W. Savage's "Peggy from Paris" for two seasons, Harry Hanlon, Bradlee Martin, Katherine Bunn, George Damerel, Bert Young, Helena Salinger, W. H. Brown, Jessie Huston and others, including the beauty chorus of sixty and the "broilers."

All Classes Eager to See Modjeska.
Modjeska in "Mary Stuart" is the magnet which will attract all classes of playgoers to The Kentucky next Friday night. The regular theatergoer and the occasional attendant upon theatrical productions will sit side by side that night and join in homage to this celebrated woman. This occasion will be their final opportunity to be inspired and ennobled by perhaps the ripest and most intellectual art known to the contemporary stage, for Modjeska is now on her final American tour and this will be her last appearance in this city. She presents her greatest piece, "Mary Stuart." The Knights of Columbus will purchase 200 tickets.

Edith Yerrington as "Lady Fitzguth" in "The Empire," at The Kentucky Thursday night.

Tim Murphy's Return.
The return of Tim Murphy is always a rib tickler. Since the passing of Joseph Jefferson and Sol Smith Russell there is no other comedian who combines in so admirable a degree the faculty of drawing smiles and tears as Mr. Murphy. Like Russell and John T. Raymond, he has always devoted himself to the interpretation of American humor, for he has long acted along the line suggested by Henry Arthur Jones, the great English dramatist, in his lecture before Harvard University, that if America is to have a drama it must be found in the heart and home of Americans. Mr. Murphy is at present playing the highly successful dramatization of Cyrus Townsend Brady's story, "A Corner in Coffee," which appeared in Smart Set, in which the efforts of Jim Johnston, returned from a bonanza mining expedition in Brazil, seeks to square his native qualities with the conventional elegance of New York society. Mr. Murphy has also delighted his audiences with a rare triple bill which is supplemented by his appearance in his celebrated imitation of Sir Henry Irving's Mathias in "The Bells."

"Isle of Spice."
Amusement lovers must not lose sight of the fact that the "Isle of Spice," the elaborate scenic and musical production, will be at The Kentucky next Saturday, matinee and night. There will be over 60 people dressed in elegant costumes.

Mormons in Alabama.
There are now about 1,400 Mormons in Alabama. The 35 Mormon missionaries on duty in the state held a conference at Montgomery last week. They had with them two visitors from Utah—Apostle George A. Smith and ex-Congressman Brigham H. Roberts. To a Montgomery Times man the former representative (who was expelled from the house) talked about the Smoot case. "Smoot has only one wife," he said, "and it is conceded by his accusers that he has never committed an unseemly act. His case and mine were different. I was charged with exemplifying the plural marriage belief, and I made no attempt to deny it because I do believe in it."

COUNCIL CONCURS IN AMENDMENTS

Passes License Ordinance on Two Readings.

Some Object to Restrictions on the Wholesalers and Druggists, but Submit.

FIREMEN NEED PAY NO BOND.

The board of councilmen passed the license ordinance last night as quickly as it could be read, and as soon as the meeting was adjourned President George O. McBroom signed the measure. This was the main business of the called session.

Councilman Van Meter was absent. Mayor Yeiser read his call, for the purpose of giving passage to the license ordinance.

The board concurred in the action of the upper board in exempting city firemen from bonds.

Councilman Samuel Hill read the license ordinance.

Councilman Hill moved that the ordinance be given first passage.

Councilman Oehlschlaeger called the board's attention to the fact that "clubs" and "saloon men," who are charged a license of $150 per annum, and that one class is restricted while the other, i. e., quart liquor dealers and druggists, must sell not less than a quart. He intimated class legislation.

Councilman Katterjohn coincided with Councilman Oehlschlaeger.

Councilman Oehlschlaeger insisted on a uniformity of liquor license, taking the view that the quart liquor dealer can not sell by the drink, while retailers may sell within a hundredth part of 5 gallons which would be encroaching on the rights of the "quart liquor dealers" or the "wholesalers."

Councilman Katterjohn didn't like the "wholesaler" or the "druggist" provisions, but declared he would vote for it because it was "better than the ordinance of last year."

The ordinance passed on its first reading unanimously.

The board then adjourned.

Second Meeting.

Mayor Yeiser asked that the board be called together again.

He then read his call for the purpose of giving the ordinance second passage.

The rules were suspended and the ordinance was given second reading by title.

On motion the board adjourned.

CHEAP LOW PRICED SMALL HOMES

Near city, fertile, high, dry land. In best neighborhood; Have just platted into lots of about five acres each the 240 acre (Williams) tract, joining the Pines lands on west. Bounded next to city by Perkins Creek and Pines lands between, Buckner Lane Road and Hinkleville Gravel Road. Has 4138 feet frontage on Buckner Lane Road, said road just graded in front of this land. Has 757 feet front on Hinkleville Gravel Road, and plat gives 40 feet cross roads through the tract, so that each and every lot fronts either on these gravel roads or these newly opened roads. Most of the lots front at each end on these roads. No nicer land in McCracken county. The 20 acres front on Hinkleville road has nice grove of forest trees on it and lays so as to make ideal residence sites.

Price on the Hinkleville road front is $100.00 per acre, of which $10 acre cash and balance in monthly or quarterly payments running five years. All other lots $65 acre on same terms. While these prices are uniform, there is difference in desirability of lots and first customers get choice. Come and see plat and list men who have taken dozen lots before I could get the parcels staked off. For home or investment lots you lose opportunity if you fail to take this. On one lot is new 5-room house which is priced at $800 additional to cost of land at $65 acre.

The Week In Society.

BETWEEN THE OLD AND THE NEW.

Hark! Clattering hoofs and a bugle blown, And a cry at the outer gate I hear! There's one rides far; and, riding alone, He asketh a pledge, for parting cheer!

A stirrup-cup, to the rider, I drank! But scarce had the groaning gate swung to, When a steed dashed in, with foaming flank, And from his hoof the flint-spark flew!

The rider cried, as that steed he reined, "Pledge! for to me is your service due!"

And I filled the cup that had just been drained— But I trembled—between the Old and the New! —Edith M. Thomas in January Bazar.

1906-1907.

It is almost time to ring the curtain down on 1906, a year that so short a while ago we faced with possibilities untold in its store. Like the social calendar there is much recorded and still more unrecorded on its pages. There have been crowded days and days of quiet and growth. These last days have been filled with much pleasure and there is every prospect of 1906 going out as one in the prime of strength, not limpingly or haltingly. The Old Year will be watched out in divers ways, already two dances are announced and there will be many informal watch parties, no doubt.

The social calendar for 1907 already has some of its space taken. The various clubs, called in for the pre-Christmas rush, will take up their work again, and will absorb much of the first week.

In Honor of Jackson Day.

Mrs. Luke Russell and Miss Anne Sherrill Baird, of West Jefferson boulevard, have issued invitations to a card party at their home on Jackson Day at 2 p. m.

The 8th of January is celebrated in many social ways in the large cities, New Orleans, Nashville and New York especially making a feature of it. This is the first time that Paducah has patriotically lined it with Washington's birthday. Fourth of July and other "days we celebrate" with pretty functions. Inaugurated by Mrs. Russell and Miss Baird it will have notable charm and individuality. The invitations are confined strictly to the married ladies.

To Honor Lee's Memory.

It is customary for the local U. D. C. chapter and U. C. V. camp to celebrate January 19, the birthday of General Robert E. Lee, with some kind of open meeting. This year it being the 100th anniversary of the birth of the great leader of the confederacy, an especial effort will be made to do the occasion honor.

Crosses of honor will be conferred at that time on Mr. C. W. Brant, a confederate veteran belonging to the James T. Walbert camp, U. C. V., of this city but living at Lamont, and on Messrs. Saunders A. Fowler, W. B. McPherson and Philo Alcott, of Paducah, the sons of distinguished "Confederate Veterans." The further program for the day has not been announced.

Woman's Club Meeting.

The Woman's club will meet on Thursday afternoon at the parish house of Grace Episcopal church. The business session will be held at 2:30 p. m. At 3 o'clock the department will have Miss Anne Baird Stewart, of Cincinnati, lecture on Bernard Shaw. This will be interspersed with readings from "Man and Superman," "Candida" and "Caesar and Cleopatra." There will be musical selections rendered also. This lecture will be entirely free to all who have given their names for membership in the club.

At Four O'clock Tea.

The taily cards were small Christmas bells. A delightful course luncheon was served during the evening.

The club prize was won by Mrs. Ben Wellie in a cut with Mrs. Victor Voris and Mrs. Armour Gardner. Mrs. I. D. Wilcox captured the visitors' prize. For the gentlemen's prize Mr. Ben Wellie, Mr. H. S. Wells, Mr. Charles Reed and Mr. John Keller cut Mr. Wellie winning.

Girlhood and Scott's Emulsion are linked together.

The girl who takes Scott's Emulsion has plenty of rich, red blood; she is plump, active and energetic.

The reason is that at a period when a girl's digestion is weak, Scott's Emulsion provides her with powerful nourishment in easily digested form.

It is a food that builds and keeps up a girl's strength.

ALL DRUGGISTS; 50c. AND $1.00.

Mr. George Miller, Herman Toof.

Above the center of the table hung a Christmas bell beneath which was a bowl-shaped mass of mistletoe filled with white hyacinths. Tiny sprigs of mistletoe made a love-chain from the chandelier above to the four corners of the table. The place flowers were white hyacinths. The company enjoyed the football game in auto after the dinner."

Mrs. Shelley is the mother of Mrs. Victor Voris, of Paducah, and has visited in the city, which lends additional interest to the above.

THREATENS TO EXTEND STRIKE.
Firemen's Official Says Entire Harrison System Will Be Tied Up.

El Paso, Tex., Dec. 29.—The Southern Pacific officials here today declared the firemen's strike was virtually broken. All trains are arriving practically on time and freight is being accepted as usual. The firemen, through Joseph Bedford, grievance chairman of this district, declared that they will tie up the Harrison and connecting systems completely. He said:

"We have assurance of support from the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, the Order of Railroad Conductors and the Order of Railroad Telegraphers. These orders are in full sympathy with the firemen."

FORESTALLED

WAS ACTION OF LABORERS AT PADUCAH MARINE WAYS.

When They Presented Their Grievance They Were Discharged and Places Filled.

An incipient strike was forestalled when eight negro laborers at the Paducah Marine Ways company on First street were discharged Thursday in a body because they objected to their "boss." The eight comprised all the negro laborers around the ways. They went to Superintendent Williams with their grievance but as he did not coincide with their views, they were allowed to receive their money and go. Their places were filled immediately, as they are not skilled laborers.

When asked what their objection to their boss was, one of the negro laborers said he was too severe on them and that they were willing to work under any boss but him. They had determined to quit if their grievance was not heard. John Hollenburgh is the foreman against whom they objected. The discharged negroes have gone to work at different places over the city.

Talks on Eyes By DR. M. STEINFELD

Eye strain is a frequent, and often unsuspected cause of headache and nervousness. While eye strain usually does cause irritation and inflammation or pain in the eyes, it is a noteworthy fact that in cases of the greatest eye strain the patient will often claim that the eyes are perfect and cause no trouble.

Eye strain as a cause of headache is a very important subject. When I came to Paducah four years ago and advertised that eye strain caused headaches and that I could relieve them by fitting glasses, the statement was received with doubt. Now, hundreds who formerly suffered with headaches are wearing glasses I fitted and are completely relieved. The leading physicians of the city when they have a case of headache that they can not cure, send them to me to have their eyes examined. If you are suffering with your eyes or with headache let me make a complete and thorough examination of your eyes. It costs you nothing but may save you much inconvenience and suffering.

IN THE COURTS

J. E. Potter and A. Franke, who were named for marketmaster and sewer inspector, respectively, by the board of public works, yesterday filed an ex parte petition in circuit court asking Judge Reed to construe the charter as to the question in whom is vested the power to appoint a wharfmaster, marketmaster and sewer inspector. There are two sets of officers, one set appointed by the council and another by the board of public works. The case will come up for consideration during the January term of circuit court. It is stated that the two plaintiffs will ask for an injunction to restrain C. E. Bell and A. Bundesman from assuming charge of the offices of marketmaster and sewer inspector if they attempt to assume charge after the first of the year.

In Bankruptcy.

The Moses Schwab bankruptcy case is nearing a settlement. This morning an order which practically settles the matter was received from Cincinnati, dismissing two petitions filed by A. E. Boyd, trustee, against Moses Schwab and Theresa Schwab. In the former suit the trustee attempts to make the bankrupt account for $10,000. Schwab claimed he kept no books for some time and could not possibly account for it.

The second suit was to make the wife produce evidence to show her claim of a debt of $2,500 against Schwab, the bankrupt. This amount she alleged her husband owed her. The discharge will follow immediately. Bradshaw & Bradshaw and Eaton represented the creditors, and Attorney Oscar Kahn the bankrupt.

ONLY SEVENTY CENTS

May Be Taxed by Clerk for Warrants, Says Auditor.

Sheriff John Ogilvie while in Frankfort this week took occasion to personally interview Auditor Hager on the collection of back taxes by "tax warrants" under the new law. Auditor Hager, in the face of the decision of Attorney General Hayes, says to collect but 70 cents for the county clerk's fee. He may charge 60 cents for issuing each warrant and 10 cents additional for indexing, but this is to be the limit. Every warrant the county clerk issued bears a clerk's tax of $1. This is in accordance with an opinion by County Attorney Alben Barkley. The attorney general decided the clerk might charge a little above this in releasing property.
