COUNTY HOME AGENT'S COLUMN

BY SUNSHINE COLLEY
Home Demonstration Agent
I know you are busy getting ready for the County Fair. It is our Fair and we enjoy it if we take part in it.

Look over the Fair catalogue and see what you can display. Remember you can't get a ribbon on canned goods left in your cellar.

Bring it to the Fair. If you have a few flowers in bloom, remember, a few blossoms well arranged may win a ribbon. At least, it will help make a better Fair. Take your Fair catalogue. (Don't you have one? If you do not have one, come by the Extension Office and get one) and go over it and mark what you can enter. Tell your friends if you see something they should enter.

Now that everyone is talking about the Fair, let me remind you of the 10 vegetables to sow in your late garden:

Chinese Cabbage, Bibb's Lettuce, Radishes, Turnips, Kale, Rape, Turnip Greens, Carrots, Beets, Spinach, Tendergreen, or one more planting of bunch beans.

The Marshall County 4-H Council at its regular meeting, August 18, made plans for the 4-H booth at the County Fair. Mr. Boone Hill, chairman of the 4-H Council, is to be in charge of the 4-H "Live at Home" display. Mrs. Cecil Spiceland is to be in charge of the 4-H girl's display.

This year each 4-H club is to have a banner to put in the booth. 4-H Club colors are green and white. Banners should tell some of the things about 4-H work.

Each 4-H club secretary is to send the club's 4-H record book to the County Extension office by Aug. 25. Each club may enter two new features of the Fair this year.

One is the "Sew with Cotton Bags" contest. Any 4-H club may enter five or more articles made from cotton bags in the Fair. These articles must be made from cotton bags by 4-H members. Prizes are $5 for 1st prize, $3 for second, and $2 for third.

Number 2 is the 4-H "Live at Home" display. A club must enter a minimum of 20 products produced or grown on the farms in the club community. First prize is $10, second is $7.50 and third prize is $5. All other clubs entering a "Live at Home" display will receive $2.50.

The next 4-H Council meeting will be held at the new 4-H Camp at Dawson Springs

Benton Circuit Quarterly Conference is Saturday

The first quarterly conference of the Benton circuit will be held Saturday, Aug. 23, at the Mt. Carmel Methodist Church, Rev. J. E. Collier announced Tuesday.

Rev. Roy Williams, district superintendent, will speak at the 11 a. m. services. A business session will be held after lunch.

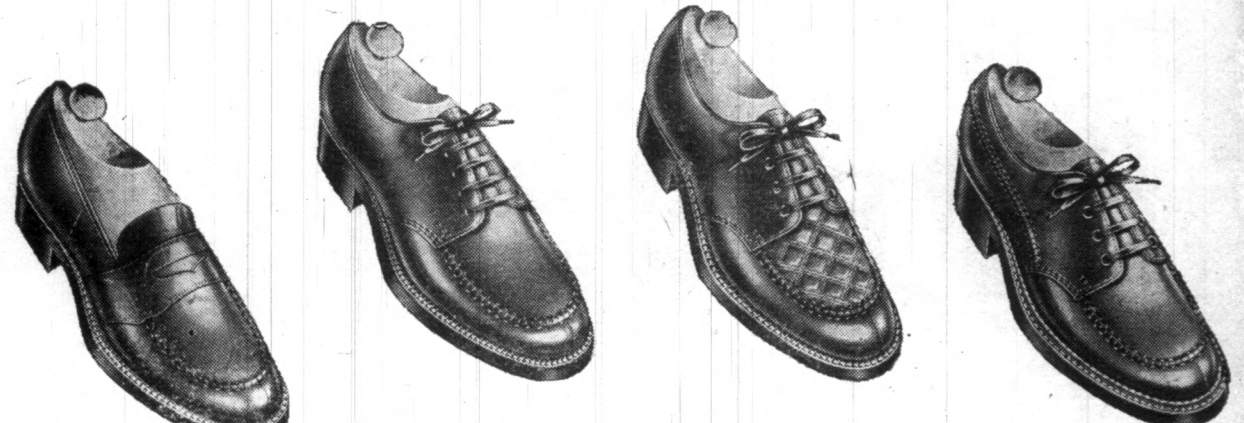

All officials of the entire circuit are urged by Rev. Mr. Collier to attend the conference.

The quarterly conference for Benton's First Methodist Church will be held the night of Sept.

7, Rev. W. D. Grissom announced.

Mrs. Frank Chambers of Beaumont, Texas spent the past week in Benton with her sister, Mrs. E. W. Wyatt, and in Murray with another sister, Mrs. L. L. Beale.

Mr. and Mrs. Wynward Kirk and children of Paducah, Mr. and Mrs. Eulps Johnson and children of Symsonia were Sunday guests of Charles Wyatt and wife.

"Hot flashes" of Change of Life stopped or strikingly relieved
 In 63-80% of the cases in doctors' tests!

• Those suffocating "heat waves"—alternating with nervous, clammy feelings—and accompanied often by restless irritability and nervousness—are well-known to women suffering the functionally-caused distress of middle life "change". You want relief from such suffering. And—chances are—you can get it. Thrilling relief! Thanks to two famous Lydia Pinkham medicines!

*In doctors' tests, Lydia Pinkham's Compound and Tablets brought relief from such distress in 63 and 80% (respectively) of the cases tested. Complete or striking relief!

Thousands Have Benefited
 Amazing, you say? Not to the many thousands of women who know from experience what these Lydia Pinkham medicines can do!
 Their action—actually—is very modern. They exert a scientifically calming, soothing effect!

Try Lydia Pinkham's on the basis of medical evidence! See if you, too, don't gain blessed relief from those terrible "hot flashes" and weakness so common in "change of life."
 Don't put it off! Get Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound or new, improved Tablets with added iron (trial size only 59¢).

Wonderful—too—for the functional pains, cramps, "dragged-out" feelings and other discomfort of monthly menstrual periods!

THE BIBLE SPEAKS
BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN
SCRIPTURE: 1 Samuel 16: 18; 22: 1-2; 23: 15-18; 11 Samuel 1: 1-2; 4: 1; 5: 1-3.
DEVOTIONAL READING: Psalm 21: 1-7.

Making of a King
Lesson for August 24, 1952

ONE of the most romantic and heroic figures known to song and story is that of David, King of Israel. Even when Christ came to earth, his fellow-countrymen could think of no grander title for him than "Son of David."
Now David has been idealized almost beyond recognition. The whole story of his life (as seen in the Bible) reveals a man in whom strength and weakness, good and evil, were strangely mingled.
But that is not the main point here. The fact is, David made a strong and successful king; and if there was evil in him, it was more in the older man than in the young one. The story of how he became king is too long even to review here. Let us concentrate on that eloquent little one-sentence portrait of him drawn for a description of him by one of his friends when they both were young. It is found in 1 Sam. 16: 18.

His Family and His Run
THE BIG ARGUMENT for strong-
T David by his friend who was recommending him to the king, that he was son of Jesse of Bethlehem.
A man's family is not an important fact. Men do not often reach high places merely on the reputation of their ancestors; but having the right parents will make a good start.

This is seriously true; for a man's heredity is what goes into the making of his bone and muscle, brain and nerves. The kind of place where a man lived as a boy, the kind of father he had, spells volumes about the man, even years later.
Can we forget that David was the son of a sheep-rancher, a boy who grew up working out of doors? That his parents were God-fearing people?

David's friend also mentioned his playing the harp. No doubt David did this as a recreation; he was no professional musician. But his avocation, his spare-time enjoyment, turned out to be the first rung on his climb to fame. It is important to know about any man: How does he spend his spare time?

His Brawn and His Brains
DAVID'S FRIEND, recommending him for a position in the royal court, spoke of him as a "mighty man of valor, and a man of war." This was an exaggeration, for David at that time had never seen military service, as the story in Samuel shows.

However, it was a good prophecy; and so far as the valor went, it had well been proved. A man who can take a bear by the beard and kill him, may be a bit rash but he is certainly no coward. And what muscles that young man must have had! Never think of David as a little boy when he killed Goliath the giant; he was an athlete better than most.

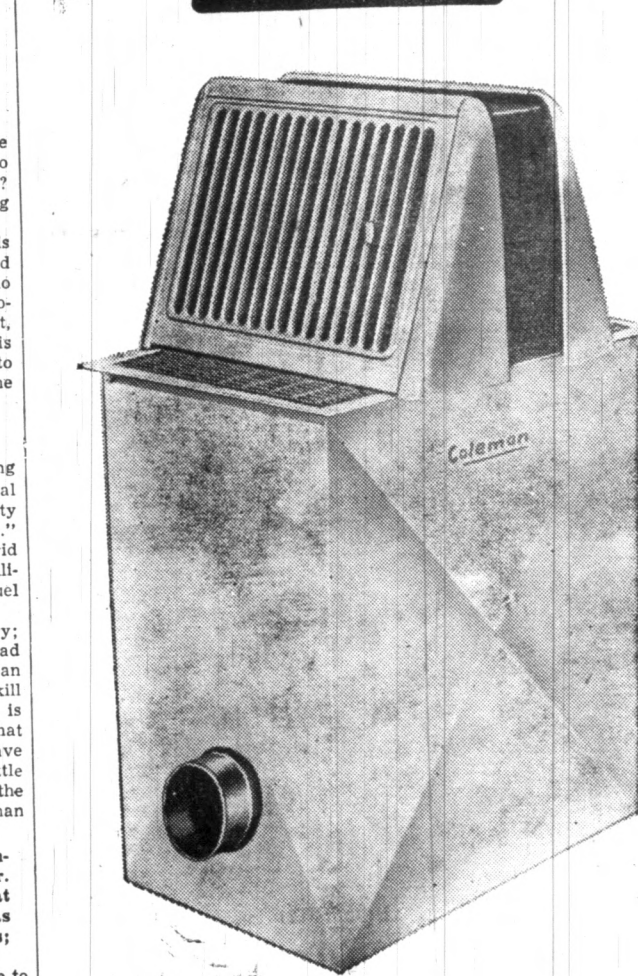

But David, unlike some athletes, did not need a manager. He was a "man of war," or at least the young friend who was describing him thought he was; and time proved him right.
Now it takes more than muscle to be a successful general. Almost anybody can be a private; and a man can rise somewhat in the ranks on sheer brute power. But when it comes to staff work, planning campaigns, handling large numbers of men and supplies, fitting everything together like a gigantic chess game with nations at stake, — that calls organizing ability, foresight, mental powers of a high order.

His Face, His Fluency, His Faith
THE UNKNOWN young man whose word-picture of David we are following, was like many young people in mixing together items that an older person would take up separately. Almost in one breath he reported that David was a good speaker, good-looking and godly.

But the best thing about him, his friend saved to the last: the Lord is with him. We make a mistake if we think that highly gifted, fortunate people can afford to get on without God. It is just these who need God most, if we can say that any one person needs God more than others.

Let us rather say that it is more important for the rest of us that the superior men and women among us be God-fearing, God-loving, God-obeying men and women, than that less important persons should be so.
