FORMER STUDENTS
CHOSEN IN RECENT
COUNTY ELECTIONSTwo Calloway Countians,
Two in Caldwell, One in
Webster Get Office.RAYBURN, MCCARTHY
ARE REPRESENTATIVES

Former students of Murray State Teachers College were successful in their quest for public offices in the August primary and in the final elections of November 4. Six men from Murray College were honored by the voters of their counties in the recent election. Two of these were in Calloway County, one in Marshall County, two in Caldwell County, and one in Webster County. Four of these successful aspirants for public positions were elected on the Democratic ticket while two of them ran and were elected under the Republican standard.

In Calloway County, Waylon Rayburn, now teacher in Benton schools, was elected representative and Claude L. Miller was chosen circuit court clerk. Both of these men are graduates of Murray College and made good records while they were in school. Rayburn and Miller had no Republican opposition in the final election.

Over in Caldwell County, Charles E. McGough and James A. Oates, members of last year's graduating class, had a hard fight for the respective offices of county attorney and circuit court clerk but were elected by large pluralities over their Democratic opponents. Mr. McGough defeated the present Democratic attorney of Caldwell County, J. O. Hardin. Mr. McGough and Mr. Oates, as well as being graduates of Murray College, are former teachers in Caldwell County schools.

The last of these Murray men who proved to be efficient campaigners in summer and fall elections is Marion T. McCarthy of Blackford, Ky., who was chosen representative from Webster County. Mr. McCarthy won over a former state representative and a man of much experience in the August primary, and then had no opposition in the final election. He was elected on the Democratic ticket. Murray College will watch all of these new office-holders, with interest and particularly Rayburn and McCarthy in the next session of the State Legislature.

HOWARD MAY BE
LISTED IN 1934Murray Plans Heavier Schedule for Thoroughbreds Next Autumn.

Is the S. I. A. A. champion stronger than the leader of the Dixie Conference?

This question may be decided in football next year if the Murray Thoroughbreds, winner of the S. I. A. A. championship, play Howard University of Birmingham, Ala., leader of the Dixie Conference.

Roy Stewart, coach of Murray State, received a long distance telephone call Wednesday night, December 6, from Howard University officials stating that they wished to play Murray at Birmingham, either the first or second Saturday in October for the grid season of 1934.

According to O. S. Causey, faculty athletic chairman at Birmingham, Howard officials want the game played there because they are confident that the Kentucky Thoroughbreds will be one of the best drawing cards on their schedule. The authorities at Howard have made a practice of playing on foreign fields unless their opponent is a lively attraction for a good gate receipt.

A game at Birmingham has to be important, it is reported here, or the crowd as a rule is small, since so many outstanding teams of the South are located in that vicinity. This year, Howard played before a crowd of 20,000 spectators in Alabama.

The Murray-Howard game, if scheduled, will be the first encounter between the two institutions in history. Coach Stewart said a definite date for the game will be arranged later, provided they can agree on terms.

Mr. Stewart and Mr. Cutchin will attend an S. I. A. A. meeting next week where they plan to schedule Southwestern University of Memphis, Centre College of Danville, Mississippi College of Clinton, University of Chattanooga, Stetson University of DeLand, Fla., as well as other opponents on the 1934 card.

Mrs. W. W. Carrier and Mrs. Bertha Seay, both of Louisville, Ky., visited for four days over the Thanksgiving holidays on the campus. They came to visit their sons, W. W. Carrier Jr. and Albert Seay, who are students of the college.

November 27BRYANT GIVES CHIEF
VICTORIOUS FOOTBALL

First District legislators present in chapel Monday, November 27, pledged their united support of Murray State College in the next meeting of the Kentucky General Assembly.

Captain Lenard "Cutter" Bryant came to the stage and presented Dr. Carr with the football that was used when Murray topped Millsaps 13-0. In appreciation of this honor, Dr. Carr said he would always remember it as a personal gift.

Speakers of the morning included: Representatives Waylon Rayburn of Murray, Robert Webb of Mayfield, and Rudy Ferguson of LaCenter; Senators T. O. Turner of Murray, and Ray Smith of Benton; Lee Clark, retiring representative of Calloway County, and Mrs. W. H. Mason, member of the board of regents; President John W. Carr, and George Hart.

All stated that they were back of Murray State College one hundred per cent, and that they were going to maintain the college here and would build and add to it. The legislators paid tribute to the presidents of the college, Dr. Rainey T. Wells, and Dr. John W. Carr. Mr. Clark stated that he felt sure Murray College would be well taken care of because he liked "the tone of their voices".

The women's quartet sang "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia" and "Allah's Holiday". The members of the quartet were Misses Elma Marshall, Sue Wyman, Robbie Mae Broach, and Margaret Lewis. Miss Gwendolyn Haynes directed the group. The men's quartet, composed of W. W. McClanahan, Ralph Churchill, Guthrie Churchill and Loren Putnam, sang "Sandman", "Twilight Hour", "Standing in the Need of Prayer", and "All Over God's Heaven". Professor Putnam was director and instructor of the quartet.

The audience sang "Holy, Holy, Holy" at the beginning of the program and "My Old Kentucky Home" at the conclusion of chapel.

DR. SMITH TALKS

Speaker for Christian Association.

Dr. C. H. Smith, surgeon at the Murray Mason Memorial Hospital, was speaker for the Christian Association of Murray State College Sunday evening, November 26, at its regular meeting in the auditorium.

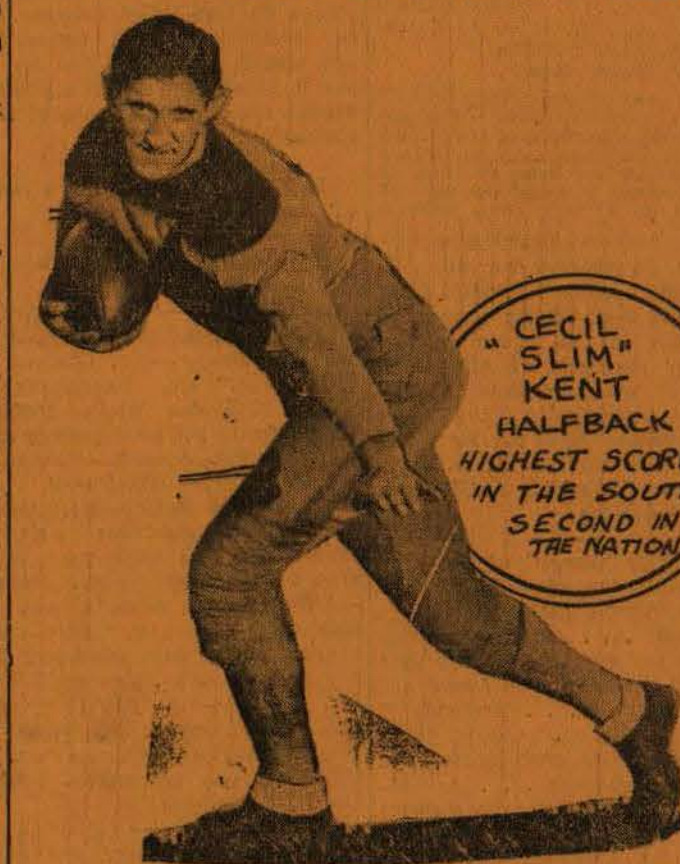

Miss Elizabeth Davis, Hobart, Ind., who is president of the association opened the meeting. The audience joined in singing "I Love to Tell the Story", "Into My Heart" and "Have Thine Own Way Lord".

After the minutes were read, a short business meeting was held. The Association accepted the plan for the pages in the Shield, college annual, as reported by the finance committee. The social committee reported plans for a coming Christmas celebration.

The program was continued with the scripture reading by James Distler, Paducah, Ky. Prof. Leslie Putnam, music instructor, sang, "I Shall Not Pass Again This Way" at the request of Dr. Smith.

The speaker's subject was based on the Biblical story of the children of Israel crossing the Red Sea and of their following the cloud. He said that God has various ways to work with his people and that although it may not seem so at times, we are under the cloud, Dr. Smith said. Taking the phrase, "and the people murmured," the physician showed how disbelief is the only thing in our lives that keeps us from progress.

Miss Perla Robson spent the Thanksgiving holidays with her sister, Mrs. Clarence Leaf of Joliet, Ill.

Kent on All-American List;
Nine Get S. I. A. A. Honors"CECIL SLIM"
KENT
HALFBACK
IN THE SOUTH - SECOND IN THE NATION

Scoring six points in the last game for the Murray College Thoroughbreds against Mississippi State Teachers, Cecil "Slim" Kent ran his total to 90 points to keep his place as the second highest scorer in the nation and the highest in the South. By virtue of his sterling play during the season, Kent was given honorable mention for an All-American halfback post, the first Murray player ever to receive this honor, and he was also named all-S. I. A. A. halfback by the Associated Press. Other Murray players, who received honorable mention on the all-S. I. A. A. teams are: Simmons and Brinkley, ends; Allen, quarterback; McKenzie, center; Woodall, tackle; King, fullback; Bryant, guard; and Shaw, halfback. The Thoroughbreds amassed a total of 255 points in nine games to 25 by opponents from the states of Kentucky, Tennessee, Illinois, and Mississippi.

Prof. E. H. Smith Arranges Extension
Classes for High School Graduates

According to Prof. E. H. Smith, Murray State College is now arranging extension center classes for high school graduates who have been unable to attend college. The expense of this work, with the exception of books and supplies, will be taken care of by the Emergency Relief Administration. It is expected that several of these classes will be in operation by January 2, 1934. Mr. Smith and Dr. Carr were in Princeton, Ky., on Tuesday, December 5, and Mr. Smith was in Paducah December 6, arranging for these classes and working with the county superintendents.

Mr. Smith reports an interesting visit to the Lynn Grove High School November 22. The school there was found to be in good order, well housed in a new building, and under the supervision of nine teachers, all of whom are college graduates, with one holding the M. A. degree. Dr. C. H. Jones is county board member from the Lynn Grove district, having held this position for the last twelve years without opposition in any election. In commenting on the record of Dr. Jones, Mr. Smith made this statement: "That is a very favorable indication which shows that Dr. Jones is working wholly in the interest of the school and that the entire community is satisfied with what he is doing." For twenty-five years Lee Clark of Murray College has been a member of the Lynn Grove local school board. Mr. Smith visited the Almo and Hardin High Schools on November 28. At Almo the new school building, which is modern and well constructed, was occupied for the first time on Monday, November 27. All of the Almo teachers are also college graduates. The Murray extension director arrived in Hardin after classes had been dismissed, but he said that all indications were that the school is making progress. Hardin school is operating this year for the first time under the county board of education. F. G. Holland is principal there.

That a number of high schools throughout the county are beginning to use only college graduates as teachers was regarded as a hopeful sign by Mr. Smith. He declared that one of the most serious menaces to present-day public education is that far too many teachers are chosen for some reason other than their qualification for the position.

According to Mr. Churchill, the two societies will convene in a joint session in the next meeting in the main auditorium. A feature of the meeting will be a "Tug of War" on the campus, staged by the two societies.

MISSISSIPPIANS IN
FINAL GRID GAMEThoroughbreds Are Untied,

With 9 ClashesRACEHORSES HIGHEST SCORERS IN SOUTH

By Seth Boaz

Completing a perfect season by trampling the highly-touted aggregation of Mississippi Teachers College by a one-sided 30-0 score, the Rambling Racehorses of Murray State College gained an undisputed claim to the championship of the S. I. A. A. Conference, a ranking as one of the seven undefeated and untied college teams in America, and the honor of being the highest scoring team in the Southland. The game was played on College Field, Friday, December 1.

The victory over the Hattiesburg eleven was the ninth of the year for the Stewartmen, against no defeats and no ties—a record boasted by no other Kentucky team since 1919. The 30 points they ran up in the game gave them a total of 255 points in their nine games, against 25 for their opponents or an average of over 28 points in each game to the opponents' average of 2.7 points.

Cecil Kent, who received honorable mention for an All-American halfback post, crossed the goal line once, to run his total season's score to 90 points and remain as the South's highest scorer, as well as the nation's second highest. Kent gained 318 yards in the fray—201 through running plays, 14 by passes, and 103 by running back punts. "Goofus" Boyd, triple-threat quarterback of the Mississippi team, who was hailed as the team's Miracle Man, failed to demonstrate his usual prowess, and emerged with a total of 15 yards more in losses than in yards gained.

Shaw Is Star
Herman Shaw, Murray's great blocking back, playing his last football game for Murray State, proved that not all good blockers are poor runners. In 11 trips with the pigskin, Shaw traveled 97 yards, for an average of 8.8 yards per run, besides gaining 96 yards on passes, and stealing the scoring spotlight for the afternoon with his two touchdowns. Approximately 4,500 spectators, one of the largest crowds ever to witness a football game on College Field, watched the Kentuckians pile up 20 first downs to their opponent's four, and gain 527 yards from the line of scrimmage, while the Hattiesburgers were unable to approach any closer to Murray's goal than the 47-yard stripe.

In football uniforms Friday for the last time, were 11 seniors of the college. They were: Captain Lenard Bryant, Ronald Brinkley, Herman Shaw, Howard Allen, C. C. Jones, Earle Smith, Daron Grissom, Stanfill Cutchin, James Rahm, Bob Phillips, and Preston Lester.

Kent scored the first touchdown for the victors on a fake off-tackle play. He ran 25 yards, evading five different tacklers in the last 10 yards, to cross the goal line standing up. The touchdown was made within three minutes after the opening kickoff. Simmons, end, place-kicked the extra point.

The second marker was made by Shaw, less than nine minutes after Kent's score, when he cut back off-tackle to sprint across the zero stripe. Captain Bryant's kick from placement was good.

Bryant Boots Field Goal
The ball gained its third full length view of the field from behind the Mississippians' goal line, when Captain Bryant scored Murray's first field goal of the year with a perfectly booted place-kick from the 20-yard marker.

Shaw scored his second and Murray's third touchdown of the afternoon when he received Allen's 14-yard pass behind the goal line to boost the score of the Purchase Warhorses to 23 points. Allen failed in his attempt to run the extra point.

In the last two minutes of play, Keith Kent, consistent fullback of the champions, tallied the final marker with a 26-yard jaunt through the center of the Mississippi line. Bryant again converted the extra point by a kick (Continued on Page Four).

I've finally recovered from the big Thanksgiving dinner I ate. Saw Kentucky play Tennessee Thanksgiving afternoon. I enjoyed the game much better after Feathers was out of the game. I was afraid that he would catch up with Kent for all Southern scoring honors.

However, he made only one touchdown. Kercheval surely can kick the old pigskin. He throws it up in the air with one hand and kicks it 60 and 70 yards. I believe had Murray State played Kentucky this year, we would have won.

The bridge tournament, sponsored by yours truly, billed as the championship men's affair of the college, is to begin Friday night, December 15. Positively the last day to enroll is Tuesday afternoon, December 12.

Here's what Grantland Rice once said about Ben Muse's father's football prowess: "It is a pity that Tub Muse did not get to go to college, for he certainly was All-American timber. Although Walter Camp does not favor a Southerner on his All-American, I think he would have put Muse there if he played as far South as the Argentine Republic." Speaking of All-Americans, the writer wishes to congratulate personally the ever-modest "Slim" Kent for his selection on the All-S. I. A. A. team and for an honorable mention on an All-American.

The prize "boner" of the year was pulled the other day when William Carrier mailed his clothes to himself. After seeing his "girl of my dreams" for the first time, "Sodawater" has found out she is married. Probably if "Soda" keeps on wearing these peppermint ties and shirts, she will get a divorce. As this is the last issue of the College News before Christmas, with the staff of the College News, I hope that everyone has Merry Xmas and a oh so Happy New year.

From Los Angeles, Calif., comes a copy of the Los Angeles Times, sent by J. C. Calhoun, former Murray State College student, to "Pedro" Simmons, which tells of Murray's football prowess. I have read and heard of several such write-ups as these in the larger papers of the nation.

Following is a paragraph of the write-up:

"Besides finishing as one of the country's eight undefeated and untied teams, Coach Roy Stewart's men gained laurels by capturing scoring honors for the 'charmed eight' with 255 points. Murray's nine gridiron foes were able to amass only 25 points during the season's festivities."

Two From Hardin Win Speech Contest; Copeland Is Coach

In a speaking contest of Marshall County students sponsored by the K. E. A. and the Educational Commission, Dallas Lancaster, representing the high school and Billie Martin, grade student, both from the Hardin school, were placed first.

Both students used the topic, "Why Should the State Educate Its Students?" There were eight high school and eight grade contestants.

The speakers were coached by Clay Copeland, former Murray College debater and journalist.

Prof. A. B. Austin judged the contest.

Miss Evelyn Slater, home economics teacher of Murray State College, motored to her home at Covington, Ky., to spend Thanksgiving. She spent Saturday in Lexington, Ky., with friends.

DORM DOINGS

Am I flattered! This column is really being read! Since I have been writing it, I have acquired 14 new enemies. And so, to save my most unworthy neck, I retract:

Harold Norman is not a sissy. Professor Pogue did not come near to fainting when he was accosted by the "galls".

My room mate is not the night owl that I proclaimed him to be. Brinkley and Rahm do not argue (much).

Bedford Otey is not playing bridge with Mr. Pogue for a grade.

Fire Chief Burns does stay in his room (some). —etc.—etc.—

Will someone in the dorm please do something exciting, or say something witty, (when no one else is listening), for me to put in this column? It's getting deadlier than the first rose of last summer.

And now for some more news (?) enemies:—

My predictions of some famous last words:

Dr. Wolfson—"Is that clear? You should remember seeing it in the laboratory."—Mr. Glasgow—"Prove it." Mr. Pennebaker—"Guess I'll see who's studied their lesson; get your pencils and paper." Mr. Johnston—"Ketch!"—Miss Tandy—"Well now, isn't that just too bad?"—Mr. Blackburn—"For goodness sake! Where did you take your high school chemistry?"—Mr. Mellen—"Well, now, when I was at Haw-vayd—"

Dr. Hire—"Of course I don't care what you do, but the school's rules are—"

Mr. Horton—"If you'll pardon this bit of slang, I'll make it plain."—Anybody—"Come on, I think we can get across before the light changes."

Joe (did you ever see such feet?)—Coulter has decided that it doesn't pay to be too proud. Sunday night he spilled shoe polish on his hand, and in the rush to get it off before it dried, so no one would know that he shines his own shoes, he scalded his fingers. You should remember, Joe.

"That pride, however disguised in its own majesty, is littleness."

I always thought that those scars on Keith King's face were relics of his football heroics, but now, since he's moved in the dorm, and I've seen him using a fork, I wonder.

Louie Hicks says that he nearly always sleeps through his 7:30 classes, but that it's all right, since he always has an 8:30 that he can go to, just afterwards.

CAMPUS PROBLEMS

By Joe Morgan

School government falls logically under three major heads: centralized control by the administration, student control, and student-administrative cooperative government.

The pure pupil self-government has been adopted and tried at various colleges and universities, but in only a very, very few instances has it met with any success. Usually it has to be abandoned after a year or two.

Administrative control by itself, likewise, has faults.

Student-faculty cooperative government has met with the most general success. While the types are many and varied, they all have similar purposes and results.

The functions of such government include: Training in citizenship, development and recognition of leadership, arousing spirit of cooperation, building of school morale, aiding in discipline and right conduct.

Centre College won the key given by the association for the best "story". The winning entry was a "feature" story. A news story, submitted by Ernest Bailey, was selected by the Courier-Journal, for first place in that group.

The colleges, who are members of the K. I. P. A., are: Eastern State Teachers College, University of Kentucky, Western State Teachers College, Morehead State Teachers College, Transylvania College, Centre College, Georgetown College, and Murray State College. The spring meeting is to be held either at Louisville or Transylvania.

The officers of the group are: Wesley Carter, president, University of Kentucky; A. L. Crumbrugh, vice-president, Eastern State Teachers; Wesley Carter, secretary, Centre College; Wallace Rogers, treasurer, Murray State College.

Following is a resume of the program:

The meeting was called to order at 2:30 Friday afternoon by the president, Miss Eleanor Swiger sang a solo. President H. E. Walters, Georgetown College, gave the address of welcome.

Various topics, pertaining to college journalism, were discussed by representatives of the various colleges.

Dr. T. W. Rainey, editorial writer for the Lexington Leader, was the speaker at the convention banquet, Friday evening.

William Risen, editor-in-chief of the Georgetownian, presided. Wesley Carter, Centre College, presented the "story" award.

Miss Ruth Dietelhart played a violin solo at the meeting Saturday morning. Prof. Victor Portmann, instructor of journalism at the University of Kentucky, spoke on "Typography." The convention was concluded by a business session. It was voted that the University of Louisville and Union College of Barbourville be admitted to the association. A decision was made that four keys be presented at each semi-annual meeting to the writers of the best editorial, news story, feature story, and sports story. Mr. Carter is to select the department of journalism that is to judge the best newspaper if the Kentucky Press Association does not judge them.

Dorm Side-Lights

Several Sock and Buskin understudies are dreading initiation already. One in particular. Huh! Seth!

The back to the Yo-Yo movement has been started in the dorm. We can understand it in a Freshman but when a certain soph takes up the practice we wonder who will be next. Maybe the Dean or Prof. F. C. Pogue.

Saturday night some mice decided that Albert Seay's bear-skin (we hope it is a bear skin) would be a good place to make them a permanent residence. Albert had lots of fun chasing them out into William Carrier's room. Then Carrier had some fun. And so on far into the night. Anyway it was good exercise for the mice.

Some things we could do without: That "Hey Brink!" we hear every morning about 6 o'clock; Ernest Bailey telling about seeing Man-O-War; Guy Barnett's pipe; Prof. F. C. Pogue's "scientific" tests; C. C. Jones' singing (at least that's what he calls it). Instructors, who give pop tests, certain letters from Dr. Carr's office... etc....

Scotty Morse still insists that Butler High of Princeton, Ky., would beat Army's football team.

Many inmates have become suddenly frightened by the shaking of the Dorm at certain times. No friends, they are not earthquakes, merely "Slim" Everett taking his reducing exercises.

Thoroughbreds, the Dorm congratulates you on your success this year as a football squad. Now let's see you put out an equally great basketball squad.

Rings Are Ordered by Murray Seniors

In a class meeting Thursday, December 7, the class of '34 decided to renew its contract with Harcourt & Co. for rings. The rings are to be of the same pattern as those of former years, but the price is considerably higher on account of the increase in the price of gold.

Bedford Otey, editor-in-chief of the yearbook, asked that all seniors buy an annual and co-operate in other ways with the staff of the 1934 edition of the Shield.

Geographers Go To State Meeting in Bowling Green

Prof. W. M. Caudill, of the geography department of Murray State College, was scheduled to speak to the student body of Western State Teachers College, Bowling Green, Friday morning, December 8. The State Council of Geographers was scheduled to meet at Bowling Green for a two-day session December 8 and 9.

Mr. Caudill's subject was, "The Knowledge of Geography as a Necessary Part of General Education." He explained that one should have a geographical background thoroughly to appreciate history, economics, and literature, and that respect, sympathy, and understanding can be taught better through a knowledge of geography.

Dr. Floy Robbins, head of the geography department, and Miss Mattie Trousdale of the Training School accompanied Mr. Caudill. They were scheduled to appear on the program of the state meeting.

Entertain 20 Guests With Bridge Party at Collegiate Inn

Misses Nelle Laurie and Camille Bowles, of Camden, Tenn., entertained 20 guests with a bridge party at the Collegiate Inn, Saturday night, November 25.

Five tables of bridge were arranged and the players progressed according to scores. Miss Nelle Laurie Bowles won high scoring honors. The guests cut cards for the consolation prize, which was won by Joe Dunn, Arlington, Ky.

After the bridge progression had ceased, a salad and sandwich course was served.

Those attending the party were:

Misses Elsie Windsor, Sheila Mizell, Imogene Brown, Margaret Heffley, Elizabeth Daniels, Charles Vene Tinnon, Camille Bowles, Nelle Laurie Bowles, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Norman McKenzie, Joe Dunn, Harold Norman, Seth Boaz, Herman Shaw, Tony Courier, John Blackburn, Eugene Stitt, Bedford Otey, Howard Garver, and Cecil Kent.

Miss Alice Outland, freshman, is spending the week-end in Bardwell, with her sister, Mrs. Jack Gardner, former member of Murray State.

Hardwood Chatter

The varsity football season was officially ended Friday, December 1, when the Thoroughbreds ran circles around the Mississippi Teachers. The great dailies from coast to coast are singing praise of the great team of 1933. And indeed the 35 men who went out there and fought day after day for the glory of M. S. T. C. are to be congratulated whether they were regulars or subs. But the time has come to forget the past. We must begin to build for the future, and make a greater Murray. One of the ways for a college to become recognized as a leading institution is to produce winning athletic teams. We have started off on the right track by coming through with a clean slate in football. If we can produce a winning five, we have placed another stone on our athletic structure.

Only a brief summary will be run in this column on each of the important games. It is the desire of the author of Hardwood Chatter to give the students of Murray College a chance to express their views on this winter sport.

If you will do your part the column will be interesting, but we cannot fail if every one will do his part. Sport writers have been advocating codes. This is not a code but a motto which the writer hopes will become a (buy) word of every supporter of the blue and gold five. "When everybody boasts, everybody wins."

Fresh Practice

Coach John Miller has been putting his Yearling squad through its paces for the past week. Approximately 35 freshmen answered Miller's call for practice, one of the largest squads in the history of Freshman basketball. In this group are several all district and regional men. Before many days Coach Miller will have cut the squad down. Each man has been given an opportunity to show his stuff, and from all indications the boys of '37 will be plenty hard to beat. Several of the boys have been discussing the team and they say the prospects of a winning team are good. But the freshmen mentor replies: wait and seen. Time alone can tell. I have seen many good teams crack up and many that were not given a chance to win games come through with a victorious season.

Now, folks during the holidays get out that old pencil and paper and write a letter to Crip Shots. Either mail it or bring it to the

VIVACE CLUB HOLDS MEET

Plans were discussed for the ensuing year at a meeting of the Vivace Musical Club of Murray State College in a meeting in the college auditorium Monday night, November 27.

Howard Brown, president of the club, appointed three committees. They are social, program and check committees. A student must have a standing of at least 1.5 in music before being eligible for membership in the club.

The club discussed plans for a page in the annual.

Training School

The new educational committee, called the Statewide Curriculum Committee, held its second meeting at Louisville on Monday, November 13. There are nine members on this committee who propose to make out a curriculum for the public schools and institutions for higher learning in Kentucky. Dr. R. E. Jagers is chairman. W. J. Caplinger, superintendent of Murray schools, is the only representative on this committee from this part of the state. (Jackson Purchase). He was unable to attend the meeting at Louisville because of the Adult Education Conference at the Training School.

Every member of the "A" group in Miss Brock's room (first grade) made 100 per cent during the past week.

"The Old-Fashioned School" was the name of a play presented by the eighth grade under the direction of Miss Campbell recently. The ninth grade was the audience. The play was an original one in which the players came costumed. The part of the old-fashioned school "maam" was played by Mary Elizabeth Bennett. The play was so well worked out that even the old dipper floated lazily in the old oaken bucket by the school house door. Five boys and four girls took part in the presentation.

The ninth grade also gave a play last week. It was entitled "The Capture of the Calloway Girls". It depicted scenes from early Kentucky history and showed Daniel Boone in action against the Indians in the capture of the girls.

The practice teachers, under the direction of Miss Helm, have worked out interesting units on "Trees" and "Citizenship".

Monday in Miss Trousdale's room Mrs. Wilkins, practice teacher, served homemade popcorn balls and taffy to the entire fourth grade.

The Six A class of the sixth grade has worked out units on Japan and China, and they now have an interesting exhibit on the Japanese Tea Garden.

The B class has fitted up a room as a library. The boys made the furniture and the girls made the posters.

Fred Clark, practice teacher, has finished a unit on trees. A beautiful book about trees has been made. Ellick Owen, practice teacher of the 6A class, has finished a unit on "Patriotism".

Many of the teachers of the Training School went to Paducah Friday, November 17, for the Murray-Millsaps game. Those from the school attending this game included: Miss Whitnah, Miss Maple, Mrs. McKenzie.

Miss Trousdale's room learned two playlets for Book Week. The first one, entitled "The Book's Lament", emphasized the care of books. The second one, "Book Friends" was a playlet in which the pupils depicted various book characters but were not costumed.

Every pupil of the A class in Miss Brock's primary grade made 100 per cent in spelling Tuesday, November 21.

The fifth grade children under the direction of Miss Maple have completed a wall panel. The panel is of unbleached domestic very attractively painted in a conventional design with color crayons.

Miss Trousdale and Miss Maple will give reports on research in elementary geography while Dr. Robbins and Mr. Caudill will give reports on some phase of geography in high school.

Writers Club Has Two Meetings

Reorganization meetings of the Irvin Cobb Writers Club were held on Thursday and Monday nights, November 16 and 20.

The purpose of the club is to encourage creative writings by its members, and to criticize the writings of its members, and all students in the college are invited to apply for membership.

Students who desire membership in the club must read, at one of the meetings, a manuscript of his own creation. Members present at the meeting then take the article for consideration and report its acceptance or rejection to the applicant.

Those present at the meetings were: Russel Biggs and Benny Lookofsky, Paducah, Ky., Walter Wuster, Burns, Ky., Seth Boaz, Mayfield Ky., Miss Elizabeth Ladd, Hopkinsville, Ky., Miss Mildred Singleton, Hazel, Ky., W. W. McClanahan, Springfield, Tenn.

from one year to two years of special college training. Teachers in the service should be given ample opportunity and time to meet this standard. For years the more progressive school districts in Kentucky have voluntarily maintained qualifications of two years of college work or higher for their teachers. The other school districts can never hope to improve their schools unless they employ teachers with proper qualifications.

6. The creation of a council on public higher education, composed of representatives of the University of Kentucky and the four teachers' colleges and the State Board of Education, is proposed in order to correlate the work of these institutions and give a unified program of higher education and also coordinate the program of higher education with the common school program.

7. The schools would welcome a reorganization of the state government providing for a modernized state budget which would enable school support to receive proper consideration in the whole structure of government.

8. School boards should guard carefully their funds and should operate their schools within their respective incomes. Better protection for school funds in the hands of local school boards and stricter budgetary control of expenditures will make this possible. The floating school debt is a serious problem in many districts.

9. The Common School Fund

should be increased. There are 720,000 children of school age in the state. We recognize the financial situation in Kentucky, but even with that in mind, the children of school age must be educated today. Therefore, provision must be made to meet this situation. The Common School Fund must provide for a larger per capita distribution; otherwise, thousands of children will never have the advantage of an acceptable minimum program of education, nor can vast numbers of teachers be paid a living wage.

10. A satisfactory program of equalization can never be accomplished until a constitutional amendment is passed providing for a special equalization fund.

On the date commemorating the end of the great World War, another great war was renewed. This was a war for supremacy on the gridiron and the Murray State College Thoroughbreds kept their place among the nation's undefeated football teams by winning over the strong Tennessee Polytechnical Institute 9-6 at Cookeville.

Murray scored with only one-half minute left to play in the first half. After working the ball to the 15-yard line, Greenwell passed 10 yards to Brinkley, who ran the remaining 3 yards

FROSH LOSE FINAL 13-0 IN TENNESSEE

Millermen Bow to Murfreesboro
Eleven To Close Brief
Grid Season.

Closing their brief and disastrous season, the Murray College Freshmen lost to the Frosh of Middle Tennessee Teachers College 13-0 at Murfreesboro, Friday afternoon, November 24. Coach Miller's proteges also lost to the Western Frosh and won over Freed-Hardeman for a season standing of .333.

Through a misunderstanding, officials here did not expect the game to be played until Saturday, but a wire Friday morning notified Coach Miller that he was expected to put his team on the field that afternoon.

Hefley, Tennessee fullback, ran back Murray's opening kickoff for the first touchdown. Baskin kicked the extra point. In the fourth quarter, Harland, Murfreesboro half, scored on a 15-yard end run.

Murray threatened frequently with power drives off tackle but was unable to push over for a marker.

I've been scooping again: There is a certain young lady on the campus of Murray State College, who, in 1932, was selected as the Miss America of the National Rural Letter Carrier's Association. This young lady, besides being granted this most unusual honor, also has possession of a beautiful loving cup as a reward. The selection was made in Baltimore, Md., where the annual convention was held last year. Twenty-three states were represented.

Miss America, I congratulate you!

A clipping from one of our most prominent papers was handed me last week. It stated that Howard University, by virtue of their last victory, had won the general S. I. A. A. Championship. Gentlemen, I beg your most humble pardon, but Murray State at the time of the said write-up, was leading the conference. At present it is a bit too early to lay definite claims to any championship, but wait until after December 1. We might have a lot more to say then.

Coach Carlisle Cutchin brought up an old incident last week. It ran something like this: Several years ago, before our time, Murray went undefeated and untied until the last game of the season. In that fatal game, Murray was held to a 0-0 decision.

Freshman Party Held November 24

The Freshman class of Murray State College was entertained Friday night, November 24, by an unusual program given by the extra-curricula class, taught by Dr. G. T. Hicks.

Murray Tops Millsaps 13-0 To Keep S. I. A. A. Lead

Kent and King Go Over for Markers at Paducah

By Bonnie Lookofsky

The Thundering Thoroughbreds, the toast of Kentucky, added another victim to their undefeated and untied record of 1933, when they met and handed the strong Millsaps College of Jackson, Miss., a 13-0 drubbing in a game played in Paducah on Friday, November 17. The game gave Murray a point standing of 225-25, the leadership of the S. I. A. A., and the ranking of the highest scorers in the South.

The game, which was played under the auspices of the Paducah Lions Club and for the benefit of the shoeless Paducah school children, drew a crowd of about 1,500 combined with the hundreds of Murray fans which went to the game via train, bus, and hitch-hike.

Led by Kent and King, who each scored a touchdown, the Thoroughbreds played careful football throughout the game. Using only a few sweeping end runs, but concentrating their drive in the middle of the line, the Murraymen scored their first marker in the first quarter after Murray recovered a fumble. Kent was stopped for a no gain, and on the next play, he slashed off 13 yards, followed by a 4 and 5 yard dash. King added 4 yards and then Kent added another 7 and 9 yard run. King then faked a pass to Shaw and went 6 yards for a touchdown. The try for the extra point failed.

Score in Fourth
Continuing their pace set at the first of the game, by playing only conservative football, punting on first and second downs, the Thoroughbreds opened up with another drive late in the fourth quarter. Taking the ball on their own 20-yard line, they marched 80 yards for a touchdown, this time, Kent making the marker, while Bryant added the extra-point from placement.

Although the game was interesting, the most beautiful event of the game was the last touchdown drive.

With only six minutes left to play, King made three yards and Shaw, Murray blocking back, clipped off 10 yards and a first down. With Kent and King alternating at the running position, it took only 12 plays, together with three Millsaps 5-yard penalties to net the score.

Murray out first-downed Millsaps by 14-11. Millsaps had three dangerous ball carriers in the persons of Dase Davis, Felder, and Moffett. Millsaps used a hard driving, running attack from a long punt formation, with the majority of the forward wall coming out to lead interference, thus forming a mass play. Smith and Cook, Paducah's gifts to Murray, played some real defensive ball, while Simmons, McKenzie, Woodall, and Bryant played their usual great game. Herman Shaw, who started the last touchdown drive, was a clog in the Millsaps passing attack.

Cecil "Slim" Kent, continued to stay in the limelight by adding his touchdown and remaining in second place, among the nation's high scorers. He is highest in the entire South. Keith King looked game at the full-back position, besides making numerous block and tackles. Grison, who was injured, played a bang-up game at end as did Brinkley. All in all, Murray looked good.

16 PLAYERS SCORE 225 IN 8 TILTS

The Murray State College Thoroughbreds have amassed 225 points thus far this season, while their opponents have scored only 25 points. The points have been scored by 16 players in eight games. The individual scoring ranges from Cecil Kent's 84 points to Captain Lenard Bryant's one point.

Kent's 84 points places him second among the nation's scorers and first in the South and Kentucky. Houston "Shires" Elder is tied for second high scorer of Kentucky with a total of 37 markers.

So far the Thoroughbreds have enjoyed an almost perfect season. They have won eight games and lost none. They have had no muddy or otherwise bad days on which to play their games. They have had a minimum of injuries and are all now able to play if called upon.

There is only one game left on the Racehorses' schedule. This game is with the Mississippi State Teachers of Hattiesburg, Miss., which is to be played in Murray on December 1.

The Kentucky Bluebloods can double their last season's score, when they scored 132 points, if they make 39 points in this last game.

Following is resume of scoring:

When Murray State College and Mississippi State Teachers College clash here Friday, December 1, many high school and prep school players will probably look on.

Through the efforts of Dr. John W. Carr, president of Murray State, the outstanding high school football teams of Kentucky, Tennessee, and surrounding states have special invitations to attend this game.

DR. RICHMOND TO PROMOTE SPORTS AS MURRAY HEAD

President-Elect Promises to Encourage Any Athletic Policy That is Sound.

REGENTS CONVENE AT COLLEGE NOVEMBER 15

"When I come to Murray—and I'm coming, don't forget that—I shall encourage any athletic policy that is sound," stated Dr. James H. Richmond, president-elect of Murray State College and state superintendent of public instruction, in a chapel talk Wednesday, November 15. Other regents present were Mrs. W. H. Mason, Murray, and S. J. Snook, Paducah.

Dr. Richmond congratulated the coaches and the football team on their record this year. Captain Lenard Bryant introduced members of the football squad to the audience.

The president-elect also commended Dr. John W. Carr and the faculty for the large enrollment of Murray State College. He predicted that the institution would continue to grow. Its future, he said, was the brightest of any institution of higher learning in the state. He added: "It won't be much longer, I hope, until I'll be here permanently".

The co-ed quartet, composed of Misses Margaret Lewis, Robbie Mae Broach, Etna B. Marshall, and Sue Wyman, accompanied by their director, Miss Gwendolyn Haynes at the piano, gave part of the chapel program. They sang: "Alma Mater", an arrangement by Miss Olive Barton, piano instructor; "Allah's Holiday", "Calm Be Thy Sleep", and "Forget Me-Not".

College certificates were renewed for life by the regents for the following: Miss Mary Frances Bradley, Miss Lois Truman Byron, Miss Lala Cain, Miss Eddie Gladys Fewell, Mrs. Ruth McRae Hancock.

A college certificate was issued to Fashion Armbruster.

Why—

You say
Chesterfields are not like other cigarettes

CIGARETTES are made of tobacco, wrapped in paper, and they may look alike; but that doesn't mean that they are alike.

Chesterfield Cigarettes are not like other cigarettes. The tobacco is not like the tobacco used in other cigarettes. It is mild, ripe—not harsh, or strong.

Then again, Chesterfields taste better. They are seasoned in the right way with the right kind of Turkish Tobacco. There is nothing flat or tasteless about them.

You're telling me "They Satisfy"!
