STORIES OF THE WAR.

A RETIRED EX-CONFEDERATE SOLDIER EXPRESSES HIS VIEWS.

Hasn't been a day since I have seen a soldier of the war. I have seen a few of the old soldiers, but they are few and far between.

The war is over. The true sign of this is that the soldiers are no longer needed. They are no longer the heroes of the people.

Sometimes the soldiers are treated as if they were still the heroes of the people. They are treated as if they were still the heroes of the people.

In the second place, I don't see how a private can have any influence. He is a private, and he is a private.

It is a pity that the soldiers are not treated as they should be. They are treated as if they were still the heroes of the people.

It is a pity that the soldiers are not treated as they should be. They are treated as if they were still the heroes of the people.

NEW ERA

A well printed, eight column paper, containing

Personal.
John Burnett is at Carlebas.
Clark Lippincott leaves for Chicago Saturday.
Dorothy Wheeler, of Paducah, is in the city.
Mrs. MacCarroll was in the city Wednesday.
Miss Gunk Carroll was in the city Wednesday.
Miss Ida Williams is visiting Miss Fannie Clark.
Charles Galt, Clarksville, was in the city yesterday.
Mr. Larkin Campbell, of Carleton, was in the city Tuesday.
Mr. Jno. E. Fortes of Crayton, was in the city Tuesday.
Miss Mae Means, of Louisville, is visiting Miss Jennie Means.
Mrs. John Mills, after a two weeks visit to Seabrook, has returned home.
Miss Joe Cox of the Bellevue neighborhood, was in the city Wednesday.
Miss Doris Trammis is visiting her sister, Mrs. Mack Carroll, near Fairview.
Thos. Rider, representing Robert Clark and Co., of Cincinnati, is in the city.
Miss Lillie Fulcher and Ida Wilkins, Fairview, were in the city Wednesday.
Dick Holland and James Ware, went to Nashville Tuesday to see the game of baseball.
Miss Marie Green, who has been visiting relatives in the city for the past week left for Madisonville Tuesday morning.
Mr. S. W. Anderson, and wife and daughters, Miss Kate, Maud and Nora, of Hartford, attended the Anderson-Walker wedding.
Mr. A. G. Bush returned from the East Wednesday where he had been to purchase a full stock of boots, shoes and gents' furnishing goods.
Mr. T. M. Edmonstone, with her youngest daughter, Mattie Bell and son, Thos. M. Jr., left yesterday for Lamasco, Lyon county on an extended visit to relatives.
RAIL UPON TOAST.
"Ellen N's" gobble at last the poor "I. A. T." And strokes her abdomen in happy satiety: Quoth she, as she gulps her chalybeate toast: "A very nice game bird is real upon toast."
Ladies.
In delicate health, and all who suffer from habitual constipation, will find the pleasant California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, more easily taken, and more beneficial in effect than any other remedy. It acts promptly yet gently on the bowels, kidneys, liver, and stomach, and does not sicken or debilitate. For sale by H. B. Garner.
A negro man at work on Capt. S. B. Younglove's farm went down Monday and hid himself in a sink hole. He was found Tuesday night after a careful search almost dead. It had been noticed that he was a little off for some time, and his absence was easily accounted for. The good Capt. sent for a physician and had the poor man properly cared for.
A Valuable Horse Killed.
On Tuesday night last, the 10 o'clock express, north, it is supposed, ran over and killed the valuable combined horse, owned by the Rev. A. C. Biddle. The white, clean face and intelligent eyes of "Old John" had become quite familiar on our streets, and many are the expressions of sympathy for his loss. "John" was about 9 years old, and was held at a money value of $200, though of course it is impossible to place a real value upon so safe and valuable a horse.
The Railroad Situation.
The purchase of the I. A. & T. by the L. & N. forever puts at rest the idea that that road will be completed to Princeton. The legitimate trade territory of our city penetrated now by this line must be recaptured by the merchants of Hopkinsville. To do this a branch road from here to Paducah is indispensable. Now is the time to make the move and it will be well if done quickly. Taking in the situation at a glance seems as if we are in a position to get our C. & O. connection in short order. Let the road be extended to Clarksville. We are willing to co-operate with our sister city. Let co-operation be now the watch word.
THE WEDDING WHISTLE.
"Whistle, whistle, 'Ellen N.' over the hills and over the glen, in a mingled strain Of joy and pain: Pans for the maiden who departs from the warm embrace of youthful heart's Joy for the noble hearted wife, And a benediction for her life."
The whistles whistled in the pale moonlight For pretty "I" who the echoes on the hill And in the shady hollow.
Her lovers stand With waving hands, And bless her happy marriage band— "Blessed be our friend through all her life, Companion, friend and gentle wife And never ill befall her: For she wears her wealth with a soul as white As the snow of her spotless collar!"
The man who wins so sweet a bride May step a whole head taller: And I, when from whispers in the air, There'll soon be "more to follow!"
Ready for the Rope.
A special from Clarksville states that "Wm. Verhines, near Indian Mound, shot his wife and sister-in-law, Miss Keatts, Saturday. Mrs. Verhines left her husband on account of brutal treatment, and had taken a home with her father, Mr. Keatts, some weeks ago. Saturday Mr. Keatts started with the ladies to a picnic, and passing Verhines' home, who ran out, firing five shots at his wife, none of which took effect. Mr. Keatts turned to attack Verhines, and the woman screaming, the team ran and Keatts turned and caught the team. Verhines reloaded and fired four shots, one striking his wife under the arm and wounding Miss Keatts in the thigh. Mr. Keatts drove for life to the nearest house, where the wounded were taken in. Verhines pursued with his gun. His uncle and son met him, and taking the gun made him take to the woods. One thousand dollars reward is offered. Great excitement is prevailing and men are scouring the woods for the brute, with the intention of lynching if he is caught."
Verhines was seen in this city last Sunday by a gentleman who knew him, but he could not be found. It was reported that he left this city Monday night on the through train for Evansville, but this information is probably incorrect, as the officers believe he is still in this vicinity. He deserves to be captured and severely dealt with.

Around Town.
If you want to know what Empire Coal is, try it one time.
Messrs. Champlin & Bush have formed a law partnership.
Three initiation certificates of the Evansville Commercial College, for sale at this office.
G. W. Yancey has the exclusive sale of Empire Coal in Hopkinsville.
Esq. Alex Anderson received his certificate as County Judge August 7th, and the same day a ten pound daughter arrived at his house.
Elder Gant will preach at Concord church on the old Canton road Friday and Saturday nights before and on the 4th Sunday at 11 a. m.
The finest lot of stylish spring and summer goods, which I am selling lower than any other house in the city. Call by before buying elsewhere.
M. LIPSTINE.
Mr. B. F. Hiser, of the Sinking Fork neighborhood, died Monday evening. He was a valuable, influential citizen, and his death is a loss to the entire county.
The Pembroke "Keen Cutters" have signed pitcher Wooley, in the place of Saunders recently released to Nashville. Come down, Frank, and let us see your phenomenon.
The Wise Men of America met in this city yesterday. A brass band will be on hand Saturday to lead the procession. The colored delegates are having a good time.
The Democratic Executive Committee of the Third Congressional district selected Franklin as the place and Sept. 28th as the time for holding a delegate convention to name a candidate for Congress.
Empire Coal makes no cinders, and not half as much soot as No. 11 coal.
Judge Winfree began taking testimony in the contested election case yesterday. He is represented by Petree, McCarroll and Bush. Squire Anderson's Attorneys are Landels & Clark, Breathitt & Stites, and The Felands.
STOLEN: A black mare from the place of Mr. T. W. Jackson, Oak Grove, Saturday night. The animal was pony build, 14 1/2 hands high, heavy mane and tail, two right feet white and 7 years old. A reward is offered.
Mr. T. C. Tinsley met with a painful accident Monday. He was riding on a wagon with his feet hanging over. The wagon ran over a stump and caught his ankle between the wheel and the stump severely bruising it.
The thermometer went boiling up to 106 Tuesday. The lowest register in the coolest places was 96 and the highest as above stated. If that Iowa man would hurry up with his storm and cool off things a little, we will set em up.
Col. Milt D. Brown, of Elkton, was in the city Tuesday. He informed us that the cases against Ben Bivins and a man named McGee for killing John Jenkins at Kirkmansville, Aug. 2nd, had been dismissed. Finis Bivins, the man who did the shooting waived an examining trial, and was placed under $1,000 bond to appear at Circuit Court. Finis Bivins has not yet been arrested and it is thought he has left the State.
Company D, returned from Crab Orchard Tuesday morning weather-beaten and worn. They were as brown as if baked by a Mexican sun. Capt. Feland was laid up with a carbuncle most of the time, and Lieut. Lewis served as Adjutant for the 3rd Regiment, this left the company under the care of Lieut. Garity. And right gallantly did Jeems wheel the boys into prominence. We have heard of several soft and sentimental reminiscences, but prudence forbids a mention.
G. W. Yancey has the best coal in the market and for it to his customers.
Tuesdays Tobacco Leaf says: "Railroad men were thick about the city yesterday. The Franklin House register bore the names of Gen. John Echols, vice-president of the C. & O.; Hon. J. E. Clay, of the Ohio Valley, Henderson, Ky., and F. W. Darby and Dr. Hugh McNairy, friends of the I. A. & T., from Princeton, while M. H. Smith, president of the L. & N., took in the situation from 'long range, having stopped at Guthrie, to which point several of his lieutenants and advisers went by special train to meet him in the afternoon."
I have the largest and best selected stock of men's, boys' and youth's clothing, latest style, cheaper than any other house in this city. Call on
M. LIPSTINE.
Mr. G. H. Slaughter, of St. Bethlehem, Tenn., Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Montgomery Farmers Association, was in our office yesterday. Next Tuesday and Wednesday this Association will give a grand reunion and stock show at Dunbar's Cave, near Clarksville, Tenn. The place of the meeting is one of the most attractive spots in the country. The success of these annual reunions is well established and all the people of Christian are invited to attend next week. Conveyances will be at Cherry's Station to take visitors to the cave.
The temperature of the public mind in Clarksville last Monday would have knocked the top end out of any thermometer in the world. The following hand-bill, calling the people to an indignation rally, was sent broadcast over the country, and will give some idea of the state of public sentiment:
"Start at your home and your fire-side. Meet at the court house to-night at 8 o'clock and give expression to the just indignation for Gordon's treachery, and the conspiracy of a half dozen citizens who have waxed fat on the substance of the community and are now endeavoring to bind Clarksville and the young manhood of this county hand and foot, soul and body, and turn them over to the L. & N. combination, organized for sapping the life blood from our people, who are unwilling to submit to the slavery, taking the profits to fill their own coffers and pay hirelings for foreign chains to keep the community down. Come one and all, white and colored, who love liberty, free trade and sailor's rights. Let us rise and put down this accursed monopoly. Show to the world that no five or a dozen conspirators can hold a community like this in subjugation. Listen to none of the sweet lullabies of the enemy. Let us have a competing road if it costs all we are worth."

WEDDING BELLS.
Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, at South Kentucky College, Mr. Frank W. Dabney was married to Miss Gussie Scooby, Rev. James E. Scooby the father of the bride, officiating. The wedding was private, no cards having been issued and only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties being present. Immediately after the ceremony the contracting parties left on the 10:18 train for White Sulphur Springs, Va., via Louisville, Cincinnati and the Kanawha Valley. After several days at this fashionable resort, they will proceed to Old Point Comfort and from there to New York city by steamer. They will visit the principal cities of the East and come home by the way of Chicago and the lakes. The entire trip will take about three weeks. On their return they will take rooms at Mr. Henry Gant's. Mr. Dabney is one of the most popular as well as one of the most cultured gentlemen in our city. He is a member of the firm of Dabney and Bush. As a business man he occupies a high position in commercial circles. He is a genial warm hearted, generous, chivalric gentleman. The young lady, whom he was so fortunate as to secure for a companion in life is one of the most charming and highly cultivated ladies in our city. She combines the excellence of womanly modesty and dignity with the charm of a cultured mind. She has few equals as a musician and artist—and well she is equipped to adorn and bless a home. The New Era extends to them the heartiest benedictions.
ANDERSON-WALKER.
One of the most brilliant weddings ever solemnized in Hopkinsville was the marriage of Mr. James H. Anderson, of Hartford, to Miss Annie Walker, of this city, at the Baptist church Tuesday evening. The audience room of the church was tastefully decorated for the occasion. The choir railing back of the pulpit was dressed in evergreen and August lilies. Around the organ in the choir loft was a bank of evergreens relieved in the foreground with a tasteful arrangement of the initials of the contracting parties worked out in red and white roses in charming contrast.
From the archway over the pulpit the wedding bell of evergreen spotted with white roses hung pendant and two white doves poised for flight hovered near, symbolic of peace, purity and happiness. At either corner of the pulpit was a stand of flowers giving relief to the whole—a triumph of good taste and beauty.
Promptly at half past eight Mrs. John F. Duggs sounded the wedding march and the bridal party entered. The bridesmaids, Messrs. H. H. Abernathy, George Campbell, Duncan Campbell and Ben Campbell, came first separating two by two and going down the side isles took their positions at the foot of the pulpit. They were followed by the gentlemen attendants in couples who assumed positions on either side by the ushers. After these came the young lady attendants who formed a semicircle on the pulpit, a chapter of beauty to crown the occasion. Then came the bride and groom who mounted the pulpit and were met by Rev. J. N. Freestridge. In words well chosen and impressive the young couple were united for life. The march again sounded and the contracting parties walked out preceded by the ushers. The attendants then followed, each young lady being met as she descended the pulpit by her escort, in the following order: Miss Lillie Walker and Dr. A. B. Beard, Miss Flora Price and Dr. G. E. Mearns, Miss Kate Woodbridge and Mr. Hanson, Dulin, Miss Rosa Steinhagen and Mr. Sherwood Buckner, Miss Marie Rust and Dr. Darwin Bell, Miss Lillie Woodbridge and Mr. W. T. Tanty. The brilliant audience of Hopkinsville's best people left the house showering blessings on the young couple.
The young gentlemen were the conventional full dress suits. The bride was dressed in cream surah silk a la train, with crepe de chene train, melted color edged with pearls, and the usual bridal veil. The bridesmaids were tastefully dressed in cream muslin. The groom is an elegant gentleman. At his home he occupies a leading position in social and commercial circles. The bride is one of our most charming young ladies. For many years her sweet character has shed sunshine on the social life of Hopkinsville, and while many will miss her, all can say to her long voyage, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson left on the 10 o'clock train for the color edged with pearls, and the usual bridal veil.
