W. M. Hill & Sons
In Their New Office

In keeping with progressive Fulton and the expansion of their business, W. M. Hill & Sons, concrete and brick manufacturers, have recently erected a spacious new plant, on the brow of a hill where they operate one of the largest brick yards in the state. The building is of fireproof and earthquake-proof construction, and is the largest of its kind in the state. The plant is equipped with the latest in machinery and is considered one of the finest plants in the state, with a capacity of 150,000 bricks per day. The plant is situated on the main line of the Illinois Central railroad with spurs leading directly to the plant. It has a half-mile of track from the main line to the plant, and an eight-car freight yard. The plant is equipped with a half-mile of track and a half-mile of freight yard.

The building is designed to house all the machinery and equipment required for the operation of the plant, and is a massive, fireproof structure. When Speaker of the House of Representatives I gave the people a square deal."

"Mr. Crowe's life story reads like a romance. When but a lad he was thrown upon his own resources. The wages of his work and the charge of his education fell upon his shoulders. At times he was a lumberjack in the Great North Woods, and his earnings were never great, and at other times a lumberman on the big woods of Logan County, Indiana.

In 1907 he was admitted to the practice of law, and in 1908 was elected County Attorney of Oldham County, a position which he held for two terms. In 1914 he was elected Speaker of the House of Representatives, and in 1916 he was re-elected to the same position.

Mr. Crowe's life has been marked by his ability to convert every position he has occupied into a success. He is a man of broad and far-reaching ideas, and he has been able to carry out his plans with a masterly hand. He has been a leader in the Republican Party, and has been a strong advocate of the principles of the party.

The Young Man's Work is Fine and Honest.

The Contract of the State Aid plan is made in such a way as to render it impossible for any person to cheat in the business. The contractors are required to sign a contract with the State, and the contract is signed by the Governor and the Secretary of State, and the parties are required to sign a bond to guarantee the performance of the contract.

The young man, a native of Kentucky, is a member of the United States Army, and was selected by the Governor to prosecute the impeachment of the Governor of Kentucky.
